13 And Ioas slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sat vpon his seate: And Ioas was buryed in Samaria among the kinges of Israel. ℂ

14 When Elisa was fallen sicke of his sickenesse whereof he dyed, Ioas the king of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept before him, and saide: * O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, & the horsemen of the same.

2.ki.13.e

15 Elisa saide vnto him: Take bowe and arrowes. And he toke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And he saide to the king of Israel: Put thyne hand vpon the bowe. And he put his hand vpon it: And Elisa put his handes vpon the kinges handes, 17 And said: Open a windowe eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisa sayd: shoote. And he shot: And he saide, The arrowe of health of the Lorde, and the arrowe of health against Syria: For thou shalt smyte Syria in Aphec, till thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And he saide: Take the arrowes. And he toke them: And he said vnto the king of Israel, Smyte the grounde. And he smote thrise, and ceassed. D

19 And the man of God was angry with him, and saide: Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe tymes, and then thou haddest smytten Syria till thou haddest made an ende of them: where now thou shalt smyte Syria but thrise.

20 And so Elisa dyed, & they buried him: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the lande * the same yere. (a) Other reade the yere following, vz. the first ye- greatly with the Hebrue.

21 And

21 And it chaunced as some of them were burying a man, and spyed the souldiers, they cast ỹ man into the sepulchre of Elisa: And when the man was roulled downe, and touched the bones of Elisa, he reuiued, and stoode vpon his feete.
22 But Hazael king of Syria vexed Israel all the dayes of Iehoahaz.
23 And the Lorde had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his appoyntment made with Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as yet.
24 So Hazael the king of Syria dyed, & Benhadad his sonne raigned in his steade.
25 And Iehoas the sonne of Iehoahaz went againe, and toke out of the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, the cities which he had taken away out of the hande of Iehoahaz his father in warre: For three times did Ioas beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel againe.

(a) A wicked sonne of a godly father.
2 Twentie yeres olde was he when he was made king, and raigned sixteene yeres in Hierusalem, & did not that which was right in the eies of the Lorde his God, lyke Dauid his father:

Deu xviii.b
4 And he offred and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hilles, and vnder euery thicke tree.
5 * Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pecah sonne of Remaliahu king of Israel, came vp to Hierusalem to fight: And they fought against Ahaz, but could not ouercome him.

6 At the same tyme Rezin king of Syria brought Elath againe to Syria, and ryd the Jewes thence: And the Syrians* came to Elath, and dwelt therein vnto this day.
iii Reg.ix.f.

Esa.vii.a.
10 And king Ahaz went to Damascon, to meete Thiglath Peleser king of Assyria: And when king Ahaz sawe an aulter that was at Damascon, he sent to Uria the priest, the paterne of the aulter and the fashion of it, and all the workemanship thereof.
11 And Uria the priest made an aulter, in (c) all poyntes lyke to the paterne which king Ahaz had sent from Damascon, euen so did Uria ỹ priest make it against king Ahaz came from Damascon.
(c) There is no grace so wicked but he shall finde flatterers and false ministers to serue his turne.
12 And so when the king was come from Damascon, he sawe the aulter: and the king went to it, and offred thereon:
13 And he burnt his burnt offring, and his meate offring, & powred his drincke offring, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offrynges beside the aulter,
14 And by the brasen aulter which was before the Lorde, and set it without the temple betweene the aulter and the temple of the Lorde, and put it on the northside of the aulter.
15 And king Ahaz commaunded Uria the priest, & saide: Upon the great aulter, set on fire in the morning the burnt offring, and in the euen the meate offering, and the kinges burnt sacrifice, and his meate offring, with the burnt offering of all the people of the lande, and their meate offring, and their drinke offrynges, and powre thereby al the blood of the burnt offring, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen aulter will I come, and see.
16 And Uria the priest did according to al thinges as king Ahaz commaunded him.

17 And

iii. Reg. vii. d. 17 *And king Ahaz brake the sydes of the botomes, and toke the lauer from of them, & toke downe the lauatorie from of the brasen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones.

5 Hosea king of Israel is taken. 4 And he and al his realme brought to the Assyrians 18 for their idolatrie. 24 Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwelt in Samaria. 29 Euery one worshipped the god of his nation, 35 contrary to the commaundement of God.

IN the twelfth yere of Ahaz king of Juda, began Hosea the sonne of Elah to raigne in Samaria vpon Israel nine yeres:

2 And did that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, but not as the kinges of Israel that were before him.

3 And Salmanasar king of Assyria came vp against him, and Hosea became his seruaunt, and gaue him * presentes.

* Or, tribute.

4 And the king of Assyria founde treason in Hosea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the king of Assyria from yere to yere: and therefore the king of Assyria shut him vp, and bounde him in the pryson house.

5 *And then the king of Assyria came vp throughout all the lande, and gat vp against Samaria, and besieged it three yeres. iii Reg. xvii. c.

6 In the ninth yere of Hosea, the * king of Assyria toke Samaria, and carryed Israel away vnto Assyria, & put them in Hala & in Habor by the ryuer of Goza and in the cities of the (a) Medes. iii. Esd. xiii. a.

(a) At that time the Medes & Persians were subiect to the Assyrians.

7 For it came to passe, that the children of Israel sinned against the Lord their God which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharao king of Egypt, and feared other gods.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel, and [in the ceremonies] ceremonies, which the kinges of Israel had made:

9 And the children of Israel went about to hide those thinges that were not wel from the Lorde their God: And they buylt them hygh places in all their cities, both in the townes where they kept watch, and also in the strong townes:

10 And they made thē images & groues in euery hye hill, & vnder euery thicke tree.

11 And there they burnt incense in all the hygh places, as did the heathen whom the Lord caryed away before them, and wrought wicked thinges to anger the Lorde withall:

12 For they serued most vile idols, where of the Lorde had sayd vnto them: *Ye shall do no such thing.

Deu. xii. c.

13 And the Lorde testified in Israel and in Juda by all the prophetes and by all the seers, saying: *Turne from your wicked wayes, and kepe my commaundementes and my statutes, according to all the law which I commaunded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruauntes the prophetes.

Ier. xxv. b.

14 Notwithstanding they would not heare, * but rather hardened their ℭ neckes, lyke to the stubburnesse of their (b) fathers, that dyd not beleue in the Lorde their God.

Deu. xxxi. Mal. iii. b.

(b) It is not safe to followe our fathers, except we can proue them godly.

15 For they refused his statutes, and his appoyntment that he made with their fathers, and the witnesses wherwith he witnessed vnto them, and they followed vanitie, and became vayne, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lorde had charged them that they shoulde not do lyke them.

16 But they left all the commaundemētes of the Lord their God, and made them images of metal, * euen two calues, and {made} idol groues, & worshipped all the (c) hoast of heauen, and serued Baal.

iii. Re. xii. c.

(c) That is, the sunne and the moone, & the starres. Deu. xvii. b.

17 *And they sacrificed their sonnes and their daughters in fire, and vsed witchcraftes, & enchauntmentes, euen selling them selues to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and to anger him.

18 And the Lorde was exceeding wroth with Israel, & put them out of his sight, *that there was left but the tribe of Juda onely.

3 Reg. xi. d.

19 Neuerthelesse, Juda also kept not the commaundementes of the Lorde their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Israel whiche they made.

20 And the Lord cast of all the seede of Israel, and vexed them, & deliuered them into the handes of spoylers, vntil he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For * he rent of Israel from the house of Dauid, and made them a king, euen Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat: And Jeroboam drewe Israel away that they shoulde not folowe the Lorde, and made them sinne a great sinne.

(d) That is, the ten tribes.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Jeroboam whiche he dyd, and departed not therfrom, 23 Until the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had sayd by all his seruauntes the prophetes: And so was Israel caried away out of their owne land to Assyria euen vnto this day.

24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, from (e) Cutha, frō Ana, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria in steede of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities therof.

(e) Of these people come the Samaritanes of whom mēcion is made in the gospel.

25 And it fortuned, that at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lorde, and the Lorde sent lions among them, which slue them.

26 Wherfore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying: The nations which thou hast translated & put in the cities of Samaria knowe not the lawe of the God of the lande: therefore he hath sent lions vpon them, and behold they slay them, because they knowe not the maner of worshipping the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Assyria commaunded, saying: Cary thyther one of the priestes whom ye brought thence, and let hym go and dwell there, and teache them the fashion howe to serue the God of the countrey.

28 And then one of the priestes whom ℭ they had caried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them howe they shoulde feare the Lorde.

29 Howbeit euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the hygh places whiche the Samaritans had made, euery nation in their cities wherin they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, & the men of Cuth made Nergal, & the men of Hamath made Asima, 31 The Auites made Nibhaz and Tharthak: And the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire for Adramelech and Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lorde, & made them preistes of the basest of them, which sacrifised for them in the houses of the hygh places.
33 And so they feared the Lord, and serued their owne gods, after the maner of the people whom they carped thence.
34 And vnto this day they do after the olde maner: and neither feare God, neither do after their ordinaunces and statoutes, and after the lawe & commaundement which the Lorde commaunded the children of Jacob, whom he called Israel.
35 And the Lorde made an appoynt ment with them, and charged them, saying: Feare none other gods, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:
36 But feare the Lorde whiche brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power & a stretched out arme, him feare, and to him bowe, and to him do sacrifice.
37 The statutes, ordinaunces, lawe and commaundement whiche he wrote for you, see that ye be diligent to do for euermore, and feare not any other gods.
38 And the appoyntment that I haue made with you see ye forget not, and feare none other gods:
39 But the Lord your God ye shal feare, & he shall deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies.
40 Howbeit, they dyd not hearken, but did after their olde custome.
41 And so these nations feared the Lord, and serued their images also, like as did their children and their childrens children: Euen as dyd their fathers, so do they vnto this day.

The.xviii. Chapter.

4 Hezekia king of Juda putteth downe the brasen serpent, and destroyeth the idols. 7 and prospereth. 11 Israel is caried away captiue. 13 The blasphemie of Sennacherib.

IN the thirde yere of Hosea sonne of Ela king of Israel, it came to passe that Hezekia ỹ sonne of Ahaz king of Juda did raigne.
2 *Twentie and fyue yeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and raigned twentie and nine yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Abi, ỹ daughter of Zacharia.
3 And he dyd that whiche is right in the sight of the Lord, according to al as did Dauid his father.
4 He * put away the high places, & brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and all to brake the * brasen serpent that Moyses had made: For vnto those dayes the children of Israel dyd burne sacrifice to it: and he called it Nehustan.
5 He trusted in the Lorde God of Israel, so that after him was none lyke him among all the kinges of Juda, neither were there any such before him.
6 For he claue to the Lorde, and departed not from him: but kept his commaundementes, which the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
7 And the Lorde was with him, so that he prospered in all thinges whiche he toke in hande: And he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and serued him not.
8 He smote the Philistines euen vnto Azza & the coastes therof, both castels where they kept watches, and strong cities.
9 *And in the fourth yere of king Hezekia, (which was the seuenth yere of Hosea sonne of Ela king of Israel) it fortuned that Salmanazar king of Assyria came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.
10 And after three yeres they toke it: euen in the sixth yere of Hezekia (that is to say the ninth yere of Hosea king of Israel) Samaria was wonne.
11 And the king of Assyria dyd cary away Israel vnto Assyria, & put them in Halah and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:
12 Because they would not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his appoyntment, and all that Moyses the seruaunt of the Lorde commaunded: and would neither heare them, nor do them.
13 *Therfore in the fourteenth yere of king Hezekia, did Sennacherib king of Assyria come vp against all the strong cities of Juda, and toke them.
14 And Hezekia king of Juda sent to the king of Assyria to Lachis, saying: I haue offended: depart from me, and all that that thou puttest on me, that will I beare. And the kyng of Assyria appoynted vnto Hezekia kyng of Juda three hundred talentes of siluer, and thirtie talentes of golde.

4.Regn.d. 15 *And Hezekia gaue him all the siluer that was founde in the house of the Lorde, & in the treasures of the kinges house.

16 At the same season dyd Hezekia rent of the doores of the temple of the Lorde and the pillers (whiche the sayde Hezekia kyng of Juda had couered ouer) and gaue them to the kyng of Assyria.

(b) After certayne treatie when Ezekia seaked to pay the appoynted tribute, the kyng of Assyria sent his captaynes to gaine him.

17 And the kyng of Assyria sent (b) Tharthan, and Rabsaris, & Rabsakeh from Lachis, to kyng Hezekia with a great hoast against Hierusalem: And they went vp, and came to Hierusalem, and gat them vp and stoode by the conduite of the vpper poole, whiche is in the way of the fullers fielde.

Mathi.b. 18 And when they had called to the kyng, there came out to them* Eliakim the sonne of Elkia, which was stewarde of the household, and Sobna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph, the recorder.

19 And Rabsakeh sayd vnto them: Tell ye Hezekia I pray you, thus sayth the great kyng, euen the kyng of Assyria: What confidence is this that thou hast?

20 Thou thinkest surely I haue eloquẽce, but counsell and strength are for the warre: On whom then doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

D Esa. 36.a. Eze.xxix.a 21 *Doest thou trust to the staffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will go into his hande, & pearse it: Euen so is Pharao kyng of Egypt vnto all that trust on hym.

2.Par.32.c. 22 *If ye say vnto me, we trust in the Lorde our God: Is not that he whose hygh places and whose aulters Hezekia hath (c) put downe, and hath sayd to Juda and Hierusalem, ye shall worship before this aulter here in Hierusalem.

(c) Idolatres be chefe cause of gods wrathe, and superstition are rooted out.

23 Nowe therfore I pray thee geue hostages to my lorde the kyng of Assyria, and I will deliuer thee two thousande horses, if thou be able to set ryders vpon them:

24 Why thinkest thou scorne at the presence of one of the least Dukes of my masters seruauntes, and trustest to Egypt for charets and horsmen?

25 Moreouer, am I come nowe without [illegible] of the Lorde to this place, to destroy it? The Lord said to me: Go vp to this lande, and destroy it.

26 And Eliakim the sonne of Helkia, and Sobna, & Joah, sayde vnto Rabsakeh: Speake I pray thee to thy seruauntes in the Syrians language (for we vnderstande it) and talke not with vs in the Jewes tongue in the eares of this people that are on the wall.

27 And Rabsakeh sayde vnto them: Hath my master sent me to thy master and thee, to speake these wordes? Hath he not sent me because of the men which sit on the wall, that they may eate their owne dongue, & drinke their owne pisse with you?

28 And so Rabsakeh stoode, & cryed with a lowde voyce in the Jewes language, and spake, saying: Heare the wordes of the great kyng, euen of the kyng of Assyria. E.

29 Thus sayth the kyng: Let not Hezekia beguile you, for he shal not be able to deliuer you out of myne hande:

30 Neither let Hezekia make you to trust in the Lorde, saying, The Lorde shall surely deliuer vs, & this citie shall not be geuen ouer into the hande of the kyng of Assyria.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezekia: For thus sayth the kyng of Assyria, Deale kindely with me, and come out to me, and then eate euery man of his owne vine, and of his owne figge tree, and drincke euery man of the water of his owne well, 32 Till I come, and fet you to as good a lande as yours is, a lande of corne and wine, a lande of bread and vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of olyue trees, and of hony, that ye may liue, and not dye: And hearken not vnto Hezekia, for he beguileth you, saying: The Lorde shall deliuer vs.

Esa.xxxvi.d. 33 *Hath euery one of the gods of the nations deliuered his land out of the hand of the kyng of Assyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath, & of Arphad? and where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Jua? Dyd they deliuer Samaria out of myne hande?

35 And what god is among al the gods of the nations, that hath deliuered his land out of myne hande? (d) Shall the Lorde deliuer Hierusalem out of myne hande?

F (d) An vnreasonable blasphemie to compare dead idols with the liuing God.

36 But the people held their peace, and answered not him a word: for the kyng had commaunded, saying: Answere hym not.

37 Then Eliakim the sonne of Helkia, which was the steward of the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, & Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekia with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabsakeh.

The .xix. Chapter.

6 God promiseth Isai victorie to Hezekia. 8 The angel of the Lord killeth an hundreth and fourescore and fiue thousand men of the Assyrians. 37 Sennacherib is killed of his owne sonnes.

1 And it came to passe, that when king Hezekia hearde it, he rent his clothes, & put on sacke, & came into the * house of the Lorde,

Esa. 38.a.

2 And sent Eliakim which was the steward of the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, and the elders of the priestes clothed in sacke, to Isai the prophete, the sonne of Amoz.

3 And they sayd vnto him, thus sayth Hezekia: This day is a day of tribulation, & of rebuke and blasphemie: For the children are come to the byrth, and there is no strength to be deliuered.

4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy God will heare al the wordes of Rabsakeh, whō the king of Assyria his master hath sent to raile on the liuing God, & to rebuke him with wordes which the Lorde thy God hath hearde: And lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnaunt that are left.

5 So the seruauntes of king Hezekia came to Isai.

6 And Isai sayde vnto them, So shall ye say to your master: Thus sayth the Lorde, Be not afrayde of the wordes which thou hast heard, with which the young men of the king of Assyria haue rayled on me.

23 7 Beholde, I will put him in another mynde, and he shall heare tydinges, and so returne to his owne land, * and I will bring to passe, that he shall fall vpon the sworde * euen in his owne land.

2. Par. 32. d.

8 And Rabsakeh went backe againe, and founde the king of Assyria fighting against Libna: for he had hearde howe that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And when he hearde men say of Thirhaka king of the blacke Mores, Behold he is come out to fight against thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezekia, saying.

10 Thus speake to Hezekia king of Juda, saying: Let not thy God deceaue thee in whom thou trustest, saying: Hierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Beholde, thou hast hearde what the kinges of Assyria haue done to all landes, how they haue vtterly destroyed them: And shalt thou escape?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them, which my ne aunce stours haue destroyed: As Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, the king of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena and Iua?

14 And Hezekia receaued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: And Hezekia went vp into the house of the Lorde, and layde it abrode before the Lorde.

(n) It is the true refuge & succour in all daungers, to flee vnto the Lorde by earnest prayer.

15 And Hezekia (n) prayed before the Lord, and sayd: O Lord God of Israel which dwellest betweene ꝑ Cherubs, thou art God alone ouer al the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen & earth.

16 Lorde bowe downe thyne eare, and heare: Open Lorde thyne eyes, [I beseech thee,] and see: and heare the wordes of Sennacherib which hath sent [this man] to raile on the liuing God.

17 Of a trueth Lorde, the kinges of Assyria haue destroyed nations and their landes, 18 And haue set fire on their gods: For they were no gods, but the worke of the handes of man, euen of wood and stone: and they destroyed them.

19 Nowe therfore O Lord our God I beseech thee, saue thou vs out of his hande, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onely art the Lorde God.

20 And Isai the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekia, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel: That whiche thou hast prayed me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I haue hearde it.

21 This

21 This is therefore the worde that the Lorde hath layd of him: (b) The virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne, O thou king of Assyria, the daughter of Hierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

(b) Hierusalē is called virgin because as yet it had not ben taken by the enemie

22 *Whom hast thou rayled on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? Against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lyfted vp thyne eyes so hye? Euen against the holy of Israel.

Mat xxvii d Zach ii b. Act. xx a.

23 By the hande of thy messengers thou hast rayled on the Lord, and sayd: With the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, euen along by the sides of Libanon, and I will cut downe the hye Cedar trees and the lusty fyre trees therof: and I will go into the lodging of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.

24 I haue digged and dronke straunge waters: & with the steppe of my going will I drye al the water pooles that are besieged.

25 Hast thou not heard howe I haue ordeyned such a thing a great while a go, and haue prepared it from the beginning? And shall I not nowe bring it forth that it may destroy and bring strong cities into wast heapes of stones?

26 And the inhabiters of them shalbe of litle power, and faynt hearted, and confounded, and *shalbe lyke the grasse of the field, or greene hearbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houses, or as the corne that is burnt & smitten with blasting.

Psal 37 a.

27 I knowe thy dwelling, thy comming out and thy going in, and thy fury against me.

28 And because thou rageste against me, & thy tumult is come vp to myne eares, I will put my hoke in thy nostrels, and my byt in thy lippes, and will bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

29 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezekia: Ye shall eate this yere of such thinges as growe of them selues, and the next yere such as come vp of those that dyd growe of their owne accorde, and the third yere sowe ye and reape, plant vineyardes, and eate the frutes therof.

30 And it that is escaped and left of the daughter of Juda, shall yet againe take roting downewarde, and beare frute vpwarde.

31 For out of Hierusalem shall go a remnaunt and a number that shall escape out of mount Sion: The zeale of the lord of hoastes shal bring this thing to passe.

32 Wherfore thus sayth the Lord concerning the king of Assyria: he shall not come to this cite, nor shote an arrowe into it, nor come before it with shielde, nor cast a banke against it.

33 But shall go backe againe the way he came, and shall not come vnto this cite, sayth the Lorde.

34 For I will defende this cite, to saue it, for myne owne sake, and for Dauid my seruauntes sake.

35 And it came to passe, that the selfe same night the angell of the Lorde went out, and smote in the hoast of the Assyrians an hundred fourescore & fyue thousand: And when the remnaunt were vp early in the morning, beholde they were all dead coarses.

36 *And so Sennacherib king of Assyria auoyded and departed, and went againe and dwelt at Ninue.

Tob. i d. F

37 And it fortuned, that as he was in a temple worshipping Nisroch his God, Adrameleth & Sarasar his owne sonnes (c) smote hym with the sworde: And they escaped into the lande of Armenia, and Asarhaddon his sonne raigned in his steade.

(c) Thus vnto this time were images more of wood, for the most parte.

The.xx. Chapter.

1 Hezekia is sicke, and receaueth the signe of his health. 12 He receaueth rewardes of Berodach. 13 Sheweth his treasures, and is reprehended of Isai. 22 He dieth, and Manasse his sonne raigneth in his steade.

IN that time *was Hezekia sicke vnto the death: And the prophete Isai the sonne of Amoz came to him, and sayde vnto him, Thus saith the Lord:

1 2. Para. 32. f. Esa. 38 a.

Put thine houshold in an order, for thou shalt dye, and not lyue.

2 And Hezekia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lord, saying:

3 I beseche the, O Lorde, remember nowe how I haue walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, & haue done that whiche is good in thy sight. And Hezekia wept sore.

4 And it fortuned that afore Isai was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the Lorde came to him, saying:

5 Turne againe, and tell Hezekia the captayne of my people, thus sayth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father: (a) I haue heard de thy prayer, and seene thy teares, and beholde I will heale thee, so that on the thirde day thou shalt go vp into the house of the Lorde.

(a) God is moued with true prayer and vnfeigned repentaunce.

6 And I will adde vnto thy dayes yet fiftene yeres, & I will deliuer thee & this cite out of the hand of ỹ king of Assyria, & will defende this cite, for myne owne sake, & for Dauid my seruauntes sake.

7 And Isai sayd: Take a lumpe of dried figges. And they toke and layed it on the sore, and he recouered.

8 And Hezekia sayde vnto Isai: what shalbe the signe that the Lorde will heale me, and that I shal go vp into the house of the Lorde the thirde day?

9 Isai answered: This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord will do that he hath spoken: *Shall the shadowe go forwarde ten degrees? or go backe againe ten degrees?

Ecc.xlviii.c.

10 Hezekia answered: It is a light thing for the shadowe to go downe ten degrees, I desire not that: but let the shadowe go backwarde ten degrees.

11 And Isai the prophete called vnto the Lord, *and he brought the shadowe ten degrees backewarde, by whiche it had gone downe in the dyall of Ahaz, Ecc.xlviii.c.

12 *The same season Merodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present vnto Hezekia: for he had heard howe that Hezekia was sicke.

Esa.39.a.

13 And Hezekia was glad of them, and shewed them all his treasure house, siluer, golde, odours, precious ointment, all the house of his armory, and all that was found in his treasures: There was nothing in his house, & in all his realme, that Hezekia shewed them not.

14 And Isai the prophete came vnto king Hezekia, and sayd vnto him: what sayde these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekia sayde: They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon.

15 And he sayde againe: what haue they seene in thy house? Hezekia answered: All ỹ thinges that are in my house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed thē.

16 And Isai sayde vnto Hezekia: Heare the word of the Lord, 17 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thy house, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue layde vp in store vnto this day, *shalbe caryed into Babylon: and nothing shalbe left sayth the Lorde.

4 Re. 24.a. and xxv. b. Ier.xx.b.

18 And of thy sonnes that shall proceede out of thee, and whiche thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shalbe chamberlaynes in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 And Hezekia sayde vnto Isai: (b) welcome be the worde of the Lorde whiche thou hast spoken. And he sayde: Shall there not be peace & trueth in my dayes?

(b) He humbleth him selfe vnto the word of the prophete.

20 The remnaunt of the wordes that concerne Hezekia, and all his power, and howe he made a poole and a conduite, & brought water into the cite, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Iuda?

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasse led them out of the way, to do more wickedly then dyd the heathen people whom the Lorde destroyed before the children of Israel.
10 And the Lord spake by his seruauntes
the prophetes, saying:

The. xxii. Chapter.

4 Iosia repaireth the temple. 8 Helkia findeth the booke of the law, and causeth it to be presented to Iosia, 14 who sendeth to Hulda the prophetisse to inquire the Lordes will.

A
2 Par.34.a. 1 Iosia was *eight yeres olde when he began to raigne, & he raigned thirtie & one yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Iedida the daughter of Adaia of Bozcath.

2 He dyd that which is right in the sight of the Lorde, & walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neither to the right hande or to the left.

2.Par.34.b. 3 *And it came to passe, that in the eyghteenth yere of the raigne of king Iosia, the king sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia the sonne of Meshulam the scribe to the house of the Lord, saying:

4.Reg.12.b. 4 *Go vp to Helkia the hye priest, that he may summe the siluer whiche is brought into the house of the Lorde, which the kepers of the porche haue gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliuer it into the hande of them that do the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord: and let them geue it to them that worke in the house of the Lorde, to repaire the decayed places of the temple,

6 Euen vnto carpenters and masons, and workers vpon the walles, and for to bye tymber and free stone, to repaire the temple.

7 Howbeit, let no reckenyng be made with them of the money that is deliuered vnto their hande, for their vse is to deale faithfully.

2.Par.34.c. 8 *And Helkia the hye priest said vnto Saphan the scribe: I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he read in it.

(a) The wicked kinges Iehoiakim and Ionas, by reason of the pride and abuse of the booke of the law of God.

9 And Saphan the scribe came to the king, and brought him worde againe, and sayde: Thy seruauntes haue gathered the money that was founde in the temple, and haue deliuered it vnto them that do the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lorde.

10 And Saphan the scribe shewed the king, saying. Helkia the priest hath deliuered me a booke: And Saphan read in it before the king.

11 And it fortuned, that when the king had heard the wordes of the booke of the lawe, he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commaunded Helkia the priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Saphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, and Asahia a seruaunt of the kinges, saying:

13 *Go ye and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for al Iuda, concerning the wordes of this booke that is founde: For great is the wrath of the Lord that is kyndled against vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the wordes of this booke, to do according vnto al that which is written therin for vs. Ier.xxi.a.

14 So Helkia the hye priest and Ahikam, Achbor, and Saphan, and Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetisse the wyfe of Sallum the sonne of Thikua the sonne of Harhas kepar of the wardrope: (which prophetisse dwelt in Hierusalem in the house of the doctrine:) & they communed with her. C

15 And she answered them: thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus sayth the Lorde: Behold, I wil bring euyll vpon this place, and on the inhabiters therof, euen all the wordes of the booke whiche the king of Iuda hath read:

17 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger me with all the workes of their handes: My wrath also shalbe kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Iuda whiche sent you to aske counsell of the Lord, so shall ye say: Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, as touching the wordes whiche ye haue heard:

19 Because thyne heart dyd (b) melt, and because thou hast humbled thy selfe before me the Lorde, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabiters of the same, howe that they should be destroyed and accursed: and hast rent thy clothes and wept before me, of that also haue I heard sayth the Lorde:

(b) Meaning that he did repent.

20 Beholde therefore I wyll receaue thee vnto thy fathers, and thou shalt be put into thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes shall not see all the euill which I wyll bryng vpon this place. And they brought the kyng worde againe.

The .xxiij. Chapter.

2 Josias readeth the lawe before the people. 3 He maketh a couenaunt with the Lorde. 4 He putteth downe the idols after he had killed the priestes. 22 He keepeth Passouer. 24 He destroyeth the coniurers. 29 He was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his sonne Jehoahaz raigneth in his steade. 33 After he was taken, his sonne Jehoachim was made kyng.

1 AND then * the kyng sent, and there gathered vnto him all the elders of Juda and of Hierusalem.

2 And the kyng went vp vnto the house of the Lorde, with all the men of Juda, and all the inhabitours of Hierusalem, with the priestes, and prophetes, and all the people both small and great: And he read in the eares of them * al the wordes of the couenaunt which was founde in the house of the Lorde.

3 And the kyng stoode by a piller, * † made a couenaunt before the Lorde, that they should walke after the Lorde, and kepe his commaundementes, his witnesses, and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soule, and make good the wordes of the sayde appoyntment, that were written in the foresayde booke: And all the people consented to the appoyntment.

4 (a) And the kyng commaunded Helchia the hye priest, and the inferiour priestes, and the kepers of the ornamentes, to bryng out of the temple of the Lorde all the vessels that were made for Baal, for the idoll groues, and for all the hoast of heauen: And he burnt them without Hierusalem in the fieldes of Cedron, and carryed the asshes of them vnto Bethel.

5 And he put downe the ministers [of Baal] whom the kinges of Juda had founded to burne incense in the * high places and cities of Juda that were rounde about Hierusalem, & also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne, to the moone, to the planets, and to all the hoast of heauen.

6 And he brought out the groue from the temple of the Lorde without Hierusalem vnto the brooke Cedron, and burnt it there at the brooke Cedron, and stampt is to powder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graues of the children of the people.

7 And he brake downe the celles of the male stewes that were by the house of the Lorde, where the women woue hanginges for the idol groue.

8 And he brought all the priestes out of the cities of Juda, and defiled the high places where the priestes had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beersheba, and destroyed the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Josua ꝑ gouernour of the citie, which were [as a man goeth in] on the left hande of the gate of the citie.

9 (b) Neuertheles, the priestes of the high places came not vp to the aulter of the Lorde in Hierusalem, saue onely they did eate of the swete bread among their brethren.

(b) Josias thought not meete that those priestes which had serued idols, should be ministers in the temple of God Leui. vlti.

10 And he defiled *Thopheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, because no man should offer his sonne or his daughter in fire to Moloch.

11 He put downe the horses that the kinges of Juda had geuen to the sunne, at the entering in of the house of the Lorde, by the chambre of Nathanmelech the chamberlayne, which was ruler of the suburbes, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire.

12 And the aulters that were on the top of the parlour of Ahaz which the kinges of Juda had made, and the aulters which Manasse had made in the two courtes of the house of the Lorde, did the king breake downe, & ran thence, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Cedron.

13 And the high places that were before Hierusalem, on the right hand of the mount (c) Oliuet,* which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Astaroth the idol of the Zidons, and for Chamos the idol of the Moabites, and for Milchon the abhominable idoll of the chilдren of Ammon, those the king defiled:

14 And brake the images, and cut downe the idol groues, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Moreouer, * the aulter that was at Bethel, the high places made by Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat which made Israel sinne, both the aulter and also the high places he brake downe, and burnt the high places, and stampt it to powder, and burnt the idol groue.

* 3. Re. xii. a

16 And as Josia turned him selfe, he spyed the graues that were in the mount, and sent and fet the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the aulter, to pollute it, according to the word of the Lorde that the man of God proclaymed* which tolde the same wordes.

17 Then he sayde: What title is that that I see? And the men of the citie tolde him: It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Juda, and tolde the selfe same thinges that thou hast done to the aulter of Bethel. * in Regibus

18 And he sayde, let him be: see that no man moue his bones. And so his bones were saued, with the bones of a prophete that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, which the king of Israel had made to anger [the Lorde withal] those Josia put out of the way, & did to them according to all the actes that he had done in Bethel. D

20 And he sacrifised all the priestes of the high places that were there, euen vpon the aulters, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Hierusalem.

21 And the king commaunded all the people, saying: Kepe the feast of Passouer vnto the Lorde your God,* as it is written in the booke of this couenaunt. 2. Par 35. a.

22 * There was no Passouer holden lyke that from the dayes of the iudges that iudged Israel, and in all the dayes of the kinges of Israel and of the kinges of Juda. Deu. xvi. a.

23 In the eighteenth yere of king Josia, was this Passouer holden to the Lord in Hierusalem.

24 And therto workers with spirites, & soothsayers, images, idols, and all the abhominations that were spyed in the lande of Juda and in Hierusalem, those did Josia put out of the way, to performe the wordes of the lawe, which were written in the booke * that Helchia the priest founde in the house of the Lorde Leui. xx. Deut. xviii.

25 Lyke vnto him was there no king before him that turned to the Lorde with all his heart, with all his soule, and all his might, according to all the lawe of Moyses, neither after him arose ther any such as he. E

26 Notwithstanding, the Lorde turned not from the fiercenesse of his great wrath wherewith he was angry against Juda, because of all the prouocanons that Manasse had prouoked him withall.

im.Re.24.a. 27 And the Lorde sayde: * I wyll put Juda also out of my sight, as I haue done away Israel, and wyll cast of this citie Hierusalem which I haue chosen, and the house of which I sayde, My name shall be there.

28 The rest of the wordes that concerne Josia, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Juda:

33 And Pharao Necho put him in bondes at Ribla in the lande of Hamath while he raigned in Hierusalem, and put the lande to a tribute of an hundred talents of siluer, and a talent of golde.

3 Onely at the bidding of the Lorde happened it so to Juda, to put them out of his sight for the sinnes of Manasse, according to all that he did.

4 And for the innocent blood that he shed, and filled Hierusalem with innocent blood: and the Lorde would not be reconciled.

The .xxv. Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is besieged of Nabuchodonosor and taken. 7 The sonnes of Zedekia are slaine before his eyes, and after are his owne eyes put out. 21 Juda is brought to Babylon. 25 Godolia is slaine. 27 Jehoachin is exalted.

A 1 Iere.39.a. AND it fortuned, * that in the ninth yere of his raigne, the tenth day of the tenth moneth, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came, he & all his hoast, against Hierusalem, and pitched against it, and made engins against it on euery syde.

2 And the citie was besieged vnto the eleuenth yere of king Zedekia.

Exe.iii.d. 3 *And the ninth day of the moneth, there was so great hunger in the citie, that there was no bread for the people of the lande.

4 And the citie was broken vp, and all the men of armes [fled] by night by a way through a gate [which is] betweene two walles by the kinges garden (the Chaldees lying about the citie:) And the king went the way toward the playne.

5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees followed after the king, and toke him in the playne of Jericho: and all his army were scattered away from him.

6 So they toke the king, and brought him to Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.

7 And they slue the sonnes of Zedekia before his eyes, and he put out the eyes of Zedekia, and fettered him with chaynes, and carryed him to Babylon. D

8 And the seuenth day of the fifth moneth (which is the nineteenth yere of king Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon) came Nebusaradan a seruaunt of the king of Babylon & chiefe captayne of the men of warre, vnto Hierusalem:

9 And burnt the house of the Lord, and the kinges house, and all the houses of Hierusalem, and all great houses burnt he with fire.

10 And all the souldiers of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captayne of the men of warre, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem rounde about.

11 But the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and them that were fled to the king of Babylon, with the remnaunt of the common people, did Na-busaradan the chiefe captayne of the men of warre carry away.
12 But the captaine of the souldiers left of the poore of the land, to dresse the vines and to tyll the grounde.
m.Reviib. 13 *And the pillers of brasse that were in E the house of the Lorde, and the sockets, and the brasen lauatorie that was in the house of the Lorde, did the Chaldees breake, & carryed all the brasse of them to Babylon.
14 And the pots, shouels, instrumentes of musicke, spoones, and all the vessels of brasse that they ministred in, toke they away,

such thinges as were of golde and of siluer, them toke the chiefe captayne away:

the sockets which Solomon had made for the house of the Lorde: The brasse of al these vessels was without waight.

teene cubites, and the pommel thereof was brasse: and the height of the pommel was with wreathen worke three cubites, & pomegranates vpon the pommel rounde about all of brasse: And of the same fashion was the second piller, with a wreathen worke.
18 And the chiefe captayne of the men of warre toke Saraia the chiefe priest, and Zephoniah the highest priest saue one, and the three keepers of the holy things:
D 19 And out of the citie he toke a chamber-layne that had the ouersight of the men of warre, & fiue men of them that were euer in the kinges presence which were founde in the citie, and him that was scribe to the captaine of the hoast which brought out the people of the lande to warre, and threescore men of the people of the lande that were founde in the ci-tie.
20 And Nebusaradan the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, toke these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Ribla.
21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slue them at Ribla in the lande of Hamath: And so Juda was carryed away out of their lande.
22 Howbeit, there remayned people in the lande of Juda, whom Nabuchodo-nosor king of Babylon left, & made Gedalia the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Saphan ruler ouer them.
23 And all the captaynes of the souldiers,
& other men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, and there came to Gedalia to Mizpah Ismael þ sonne of Nathania, Johan-nan the sonne of Karea, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophathe men whom they had with them, and saide vnto them: Feare not ye because ye are the seruauntes of the Chaldees: dwell in the lande, and serue the king of Babylon, and ye shall be well.

25 But it chaunced in the seuenth moneth, that Ismael the sonne of Nathania the sonne of Elisama of the kinges blood, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedalia that he dyed: and so did he the Jewes and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.
26 And all the people both small & great, and the captaynes of warre, arose and came to Egypt: for they were afrayde of the Chaldees.
27 Notwithstãding, yet in the seuen & thirtith yere after Jehoachin king of Juda was carryed away, the seuen and twentith day of the twelfth moneth Euimerodach king of Babylon the same yere that he began to raigne, did lyft vp the head of Jehoachin king of Juda out of prison.

seate aboue the seate of the kinges that were with him in Babylon, 29 And chaunged his prison garmentes, and he did euer eate bread before him al
the dayes of his lyfe.

39 And there they were with Dauid three dayes eating & drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreouer, they that were nye them, euen vnto Issachar, Zabulon, & Nephthali, brought bread on asses, camuels, mules, & oxen, & meate, flowre, figges, reasinges, wine, & oyle, oxen, and sheepe aboundantly: For there was ioy in Israel.

Obed Edom, euen in his house, three 10 And Dauid (b) asked counsaile at God, saying: Shall I go against the Philistines? and Wilt thou deliuer them into myne hand?

11 And the Lorde saide vnto him: go vp, for I Wil deliuer them into thyne hand. And so they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid smote them there, and Dauid saide: God hath deuided myne enemies With myne hand, as a man would deuide Water, and therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

17 And

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into all landes, and the Lorde made all nations feare him.

The .xv. Chapter.

1 Dauid prepareth an hoall for the arke 4 The number and order of the Leuites.
16 The singers are chosen out among them. 25 They bring againe the arke with ioy. 29 Dauid dauncing before it, is despised of his wyfe Michol.

A 1 ND Dauid made him houses in the citie of Dauid, and prepared a place for the arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid saide: The arke of God ought not to be carryed but of the Leuites: For them hath the Lord chosen to beare the arke of the Lorde, and to minister vnto him for euer.

3 And Dauid gathered all Israel together to Hierusalem, to fetch the arke of the Lorde vnto his place which he had ordayned for it.

4 And Dauid brought together the children of Aaron and the Leuites.

5 Of the sonnes of Caath, was Uriel the chiefe, & of his brethren there were an hundred and twentie.

6 Of the children of Merari, Asaia the chiefe, and of his brethren two hundred and twentie.

12 And saide vnto them: Ye that are the principall fathers of the Leuites, see that ye be holy with your brethren, that ye may bring in the arke of the Lorde God of Israel vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.

C 13 For, because ye were not there at the first, the Lorde our God made a rent among vs, for that we sought him not as the fashion ought to be.

14 So the priestes and the Leuites sanctified themselues, to fet the arke of the Lorde God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Leuites bare the arke of God vpon their shoulders with staues thereon, as Moyses commaunded according to the worde of the Lorde.

16 And Dauid spake to the chiefe heades of the Leuites, that they should appoynt certaine of their brethren to sing with instrumentes of musicke, psalteries, harpes, and cymbales, that they might make a sounde, and to sing on hie with ioyfulnesse.

23 Berechia and Elkana kept the doore of the arke.

24 And Sebaniahu, Jehosaphat, Nathanael, Amasai, Zachariahu, Benaiahu, and Eliezer the priestes did blowe with trumpettes before the arke of God: And Obed Edom and Jehia were kepers of the doore of the arke.

25 And

25 *And Dauid and the elders of Israel, and the captaynes ouer thousandes, Went to fet the arke of the appoyntmēt of the Lorde out of the house of Obed Edom with gladnesse.
1. Reg. vi. c.
26 And When God helped the Leuites that bare the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde, they offered seuen oxen, and seuen rammes.
27 And Dauid had on him a lunen garment, lyke as had also all the Leuites that bare the arke, & so had the singers and Chenania the ruler of the songe, with the singers: and Dauid had vpon him an Ephod of lunen.
28 And al they of Israel brought the arke of the Lordes couenaunt with showting, and blowing of the shawme, and trumpettes, making a noyse with cymbales, psalteries, and harpes.
29 And as the arke of the appointment of the Lorde came into the citie of Dauid, Michol the daughter of Saul looking out at a Windowe, sawe king Dauid daunsing and playing, and she despised him in her heart.

A 1 So they brought in the arke of God, and set it in the middest of the tent that Dauid pitched for it: And they offred burnt sacrifices and peace offrynges before God.
2 And When Dauid had made an end of offring the burnt offrynges and peace offrynges, he blessed the people in the name of the Lorde.
3 And he dealt to all Israel both man and woman, a cracknel of bread, and a good peece of flesshe, and a flacket of wine.
4 And he appoynted certaine of the Leuites to minister before the arke of the Lord, and to repeate, and to thanke and prayse the Lorde God of Israel.
5 And Asaph was the chefe, and nexte to him Zacharia, Jeiel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Mathathia, Eliab, Benaia, * Obed Edom, & Jeiel with instruments, psalteries, & harpes: But Asaph made a sounde with cymbales.

36 Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael for euer and euer: & let all people ſay Amen, and prayſe the Lorde.

37 And ſo he left there before the arke of the lordes couenaunt Aſaph & his brethren, to minister before the arke continually, [in ſuch thinges as were to be done] day by day.

38 And Obed Edom and his brethren, threeſcore and eyght, and Obed Edom the ſonne of Iedithun, and Hoſa, were appointed to be porters.

41 And with them were Heman and Iedithun, and other that were chosen, whoſe names were expreſſed to geue thankes to the Lorde, That his mercie laſteth euer.

The. xvii. Chapter.

3 Dauid is forbidden to buylde an houſe vnto the Lord. 12 Chriſt is promiſed vnder the figure of Solomon. 18 Dauid geueth thankes, 23 and prayeth vnto God.

A 1 AND it fortuned, that when Dauid dwelt in his houſe, he ſayde to Nathan the prophete: Lo, I dwel in * an houſe of Cedar tree, but the arke of the lordes couenaunt remayneth vnder (a) curtaynes.

li. Reg. vii.

(a) In the tented couerts with curtaynes.

2 And Nathan ſayde vnto Dauid: Do all that is in thyne heart, for God is with thee.

3 And the ſame night, it fortuned that the worde of God came to Nathan, ſaying:

4 Go and tell Dauid my ſeruaunt, thus ſayth the Lorde, Thou ſhalt not buylde me an houſe to dwell in:

5 For I haue dwelt in no houſe ſence the day that I brought out the children of Iſrael, vnto this day: but haue gone from tent to tent, and from one habitation to an other.

6 And wherſoeuer I haue walked with all Iſrael, ſpake I euer one worde to any of the iudges of Iſrael, whom I commaunded to feede my people, ſaying, Why haue ye not buylt me an houſe of Cedar tree?

7 Nowe therfore thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto my ſeruaunt Dauid, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes: I toke thee from the ſheepe coate, and from following the ſheepe, that thou ſhouldeſt be captayne ouer my people Iſrael: M 1 8 And

8 And I haue ben with thee whyther soeuer thou hast walked, and haue weeded out all thyne enemies out of thy sight, & haue made thee a name like the name of the greatest men that are in the earth.
9 And I haue ordeyned a place for my people Israel and made it fast, so that nowe they may dwell in their place, and moue no more: Neither shall the children of wickednesse vexe them any more as at the beginning.
10 And sence the time that I commaunded iudges to be ouer my people Israel, I haue subdued all thyne enemies: and I told thee that the Lord would buyld thee an house.
11 This also shal come to passe: When thy dayes be expired that thou must go vnto thy fathers, I will rayse vp thy seede after thee, which shalbe of thy sonnes, and I will stablishe his kingdome.
12 He shall buylde me an house, and I will stablishe his seate for euer.
13 I wilbe his father, and he shalbe my sonne, and I will not take my mercie away from him, as I toke it from hym that was before thee.
14 But I will stablishe him in myne house and my kingdome for euer, and his seate shalbe sure for euermore.
15 According to all these wordes, and according to al this vision, did Nathan tell king Dauid.
16 And Dauid the king came and sate before the Lord, and sayde: What am I O Lord God, and what is myne household, that thou hast promoted me thus farre?
17 And yet this seemed litle in thyne eyes, O God: But thou hast also spoken of thy seruauntes house for a great whyle to come, and hast loked vpon me as vpon a man of hye degree, O Lorde God.
18 What shall Dauid desire more of thee for the honour of thy seruaunt? For thou hast knowen thy seruaunt.
19 O Lord, for thy seruauntes sake, euen according to thine owne heart, hast thou done all this magnificence, to shewe all great thinges.
20 Lord there is none like thee, neither is there any God saue thou, according to al that we haue heard with our eares.
21 Moreouer, What nation on the earth is like thy people Israel, to whom God hath vouchsafed to come and redeeme them to be his owne people, and to make thee a name of excellencie & terriblenes, with casting out nations from before the people, whom thou hast deliuered out of Egypt?
22 Thy people of Israel diddest thou make thyne owne people for euer, and thou becamest their God.
23 Therfore nowe Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruaunt & his house, be true for euer, that thou Lord do as thou hast sayde:
24 Let it come to passe, that thy name may be magnified for euer, that it may be said, The Lord of hoastes is the God of Israel, euen the God of Israel, and the house of Dauid thy seruaunt endureth stable before thee.
25 For thou O my God, hast tolde thy seruaunt that thou wilt buylde him an house, and therefore thy seruaunt hath founde in his heart to pray before thee.
26 And nowe Lorde, thou art God, & hast promised this goodnes vnto thy seruaũt 27 Nowe therefore let it be thy pleasure to blesse the house of thy seruaunt, that it may continue before thee for euer: For whom thou blessest O Lorde, the same is blessed for euer.

The

The. xxi. Chapter.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred. 14 And there dye seuentie thousande men of the pestilence.

AN Satan stoode vp against Israel, and prouoked Dauid to number Israel.

2 And Dauid sayde to Joab and to the rulers of the people: Go ye and number Israel from Beersheba to Dan: & bring it to me, that I may knowe the number of them.

3 And Joab answered: The Lorde make his people an hundred times so many no as they be: But my lorde, O king, are they not all my lordes seruauntes: why then doth my lord require this thing: Why will my lorde be a cause of trespasse to Israel:

4 Neuertheless the kinges word preuayled against Joab: And Joab departed, and walked throughout all them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem againe,

5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: And all they of Israel were a thousande thousand and an hundred thousande men that drue sworde: and Juda was foure hundred threescore and ten thousande men that drue sworde.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them: For the kinges word was abhominable to Joab.

7 And the Lorde was displeased with this thing, and smote Israel.

8 And Dauid sayde vnto God: I haue sinned exceedingly in doyng this thing: And nowe I beseech thee, do away the wickednesse of thy seruaunt, for I haue done very foolyshly.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Gad Dauids seer, saying:

10 Go, and tell Dauid, saying, thus sayth the Lord, I geue thee the choyse of three thinges: choose the one of them, that I may do vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and sayd vnto him, thus sayth the Lorde: Choose thee

12 Either three yeres famishment, or three monethes to be destroyed before thyne aduersaries, & that the sworde of thyne enemies may ouertake thee: or els the sworde of the Lord and pestilence in the lande three dayes, and the angell of the Lorde destroying throughout all the coastes of Israel: And nowe aduise thy selfe, what worde I shal bring againe to him that sent me.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto Gad, I am in an erreeding strayte: Let me fall nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for passing great are his mercies) but let me not fal into the hand of men.

14 So the Lorde sent pestilence vpon Israel: and there were ouerthrowen of Israel threescore and ten thousande men. C

15 And God sent the angell into Hierusalem to destroy it: And as he was about to destroy, the Lorde beheld, and had compassion on the euil, & sayde to the angel that destroyed: It is enough, let nowe thyne hand cease. And the angel of the Lorde stoode by the threshing floore of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And Dauid lift vp his eyes, and sawe the angell of the Lorde stand betweene the earth and heauen, hauing a drawen sword in his hand, stretched out toward Hierusalem: Then Dauid and the elders of Israel whiche were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid sayde vnto God: Is it not I that commaunded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue sinned and done euyll in deede: and what haue these sheepe done? Let thyne hande O Lorde my God be on me, and on my fathers house: but not on thy people, that they shoulde be punished.

18 And the angell of the Lord commaunded Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid shoulde go vp and set vp an aulter vnto the Lorde in the threshing floore of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And Dauid went vp according to the saying of Gad whiche he spake in the name of the Lorde.

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the angell, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hyd them selues: But Ornan was threshing Wheate.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan loked and sawe Dauid, and went out of the threshing floore, and bowed hym selfe to Dauid with his face to the grounde. D

22 And

(a) Dauid offended in numbring the people, partly because he dyd it of ambition, but chiefly for that he payed not to the vse of the temple for euery one numbred halfe a sicle after the lawe. Exo. 30.

22 And Dauid sayde to Ornan: Geue me the place of the threshing flooze, that I may buylde an aulter therin vnto the lord: Thou shalt geue it me for as much money as it is worth, that the plague may ceasse from the people.
23 And Ornan sayd vnto Dauid: Take it to thee, and let my lorde the king do that which seemeth good in his eyes: Lo, I geue thee oxen also for burnt sacrifices, and threshing instrumentes for wood, & wheate for meate offring, I geue it all.
24 And king Dauid sayde to Ornan: Not so, but I will bye it for as much money as it is worth: For I will not take that whiche is thyne for the Lorde, nor offer burnt offringes without coast.
25 And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sicles of golde sixe hundred by wayght.
26 And Dauid buylt there an aulter vnto the Lorde, and offred burnt offringes and peace offringes, and called vpon the Lorde, and he hearde hym from heauen in fire vpon the aulter of burnt offring.
27 And when the Lorde had spoken to the angel, he put vp his sword againe into the sheathe of it.
28 At that time when Dauid sawe that the Lorde had hearde hym in the threshing flooze of Ornan the Jebusite, he vsed to offer there: ℭ
29 For the tabernacle of the Lorde which Moyses made in the wildernesse, & the aulter of burnt offring, were at that season in the hill of Gibeon:
30 And Dauid coulde not go before it, to aske counsell at God, for he was afrayde of the sword of the angel of the Lorde.

The .xxii. Chapter.

2 Dauid prepareth things necessarie for the buylding of the temple. 6 He commaundeth his sonne Solomon to buylde the temple of the Lorde, which thing he hym selfe was forbidden to do. 9 Under the figure of Solomon. Christ is promised.

1 THen Dauid said: This is the house of the lord God, & this is the aulter for the burnt offring of Israel.
2 And Dauid commaunded to gather together the straungers that were in the lande of Israel, and he set masons to hewe and pullishe stones for the building of the house of God.
3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nayles, & doores of the gates, & to ioyne withal, and aboundaunce of brasse without wayght, 4 And Cedar trees without number: For the Zidons and they of Tyre brought much Cedar wood to Dauid.
5 And Dauid sayde: Solomon my sonne is young and tender, and the house that is to be buylded for the Lorde must be magnificall, excellent, and of great fame and dignitie throughout all countreys: I will therfore make ordinaunces for it. And so Dauid prepared many thinges before his death.
6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged hym to buylde an house for the Lorde God of Israel.
7 And Dauid sayde to Solomon: *My sonne, I thought [as it was] in myne heart to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God:
8 But the word of the Lord came to me, saying: Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great battayles: thou shalt therefore not buylde an house vnto my name, for thou hast shed much blood vpon the earth in my sight.
9 Behold, a sonne is borne to thee, and he shalbe a man of rest, for I will geue hym rest from all his enemies rounde about: For his name is Solomon, & I will send rest and peace vpon Israel in his dayes.
10 He shall buylde an house for my name, and he shalbe my sonne, and I wilbe his father, and I will establishe the seate of his kingdome vpon Israel for euer.
11 Nowe therfore my sonne, the Lorde be with thee, and prosper thee, and thou shalt buylde an house to the Lorde thy God, as he hath sayde of thee.
12 And the Lord shall geue thee wysdom and vnderstanding, and shall geue thee commaundementes for Israel, that thou mayst kepe the lawe of the Lorde thy God.
13 For then thou shalt prosper, euen when thou takest heede and fulfillest the statutes and lawes which the Lorde charged Moyses with for Israel: Plucke vp thyne hearte therfore, & be strong, dread not, nor be discouraged.
14 Behold, according to my powerte haue ℭ I also

25 a Reg. viii. b. 1 Reg. v. a

I also prepared for the house of the Lorde, an hundred thousande talentes of golde, and a thousande thousande talentes of siluer: and as for brasse & iron, it can not be nūbred, (for it is verie much) And I haue prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou hast workemen with thee inowe, and masons, and carpenters [to worke in stone and timber,] & many men that be actiue for euery worke.

16 And of golde, siluer, brasse, & iron, there is no number: Up therefore, and be doing, and the Lorde shalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commaunded al the lordes of Israel to helpe Solomon his sonne, saying:

18 Is not the Lord your God with you: and hath he not geuen you rest on euery side: for he hath geuen the inhabitours of the lande into my hande, and the land is subdued before the Lorde, and before his people.

19 Now therefore set your heartes and your soules to seke the Lord your God: Up, and buylde ye the temple of the Lord God, to bring the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde and the holy vessels of God into the house so buylt for the name of the Lorde.

1 AND Solomon the ſonne of Dauid waxed ſtrong in his kingdome, and the * Lord his God was with him, and magnified him " in dignitie.

2 And Solomon ſpake vnto all Iſrael, to the captaynes ouer thouſandes, to the captaynes ouer hundredes, to the iudges, and to euery officer in all Iſrael, and to the auncient fathers.

3 And ſo Solomon and all the congregation with him * went to the hie place that was at Gibeon: * for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, * which Moyſes the ſeruaunt of the Lorde made in the wyldernesſe.

4 But the arke of God * had Dauid brought from Kiriathiarim, into the place which Dauid had prepared therfore: For he had pitched a tent for it at Hieruſalem.

5 Moreouer, the braſen aulter * that Bezaleel the ſonne of Uri the ſonne of Hur had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lorde: And Solomon and the congregation went to viſite it.

7 And the ſame night did God appeare vnto Solomon, and ſaid vnto him: Aſke what I ſhall geue thee.

8 And Solomon ſaide vnto God: Thou haſt ſhewed great mercie vnto Dauid my father, and * haſt made me to raigne in his ſteade.

9 * Now therefore, O Lorde God, let thy promiſe which thou madeſt vnto Dauid my father, be true: * for thou haſt made me king ouer a people which is lyke the duſt of the earth in multitude:

12 Wyſedome and knowledge is graunted vnto thee, and I will geue thee treaſure, & riches, and glory: ſo that among the kinges that haue ben before thee, or after thee, none was or ſhalbe lyke thee.

13 And ſo Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon to Hieruſalem from the tabernacle of the congregation, and raigned ouer Iſrael.

14 * And Solomon gathered charets and horſemen: and he had a thouſand and foure hundred charets, & twelue thouſand horſemen, whom he beſtowed in the charet cities, and with the king at Hieruſalem.

15 And * the king made ſiluer and golde at Hieruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, and Cedar trees made he as plentie as the Mulbery trees that growe in the valleyes.

The number of Solomons workemen to buylde the temple. Solomon sendeth to Hiram the king of Tyrus for wood and workemen.

AND Solomon determined to buylde an house for the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdome.

2 And Solomon tolde out threescore and ten thousande men to beare burthens, and fourescore thousand men to hewe stones in the mountayne, and (a) three thousand and fyue hundred to ouersee them.

(a) It is to be vnderstande of al sort of officers and ouerseers.

3 *And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying: As thou diddest deale with Dauid my father, and "diddest send him Cedar wood to buyld him an house to dwell in euen so deale with me:)

*1. Reg. v. a.

"1. Reg. v. b.

4 Behold I buylde an house for the name of the Lorde my God, to offer vnto him holy thinges, & to burne sweete incense, and to set shewe bread before him continually, to offer burnt sacrifices of the morning and euening on the Sabbath dayes, in the feaste day of euery newe moone, and in the solempne feastes of the Lorde our God: for it is an ordinaunce to be continually kept of Israel.

5 And the house which I buylde shalbe great: for great is our God aboue all gods.

6 But who is able to buylde him an house? When that heauen and heauen aboue all heauens is not able to receaue him, what am I then that should buyld him an house? nay, but euen to burne sacrifice before him? (shall this buylding be.)

7 Sende me nowe therefore a cunning man, that can worke in golde and siluer, in brasse and iron, in purple, crymosin, (b) yelowe silke, & that can skyll to graue with the cunning men that are with me in Iuda and Hierusalem, whom Dauid my father dyd prepare.

(b) Others reade, like of a violet colour.

8 Sende me also Cedar trees, pine trees, and (c) algume trees, out of Libanon: For I wot that thy seruauntes can skill to hewe timber in Libanon: and behold my men shalbe with thyne,

(c) Some take it for brasil.

9 That they may prepare me timber enough: For the house which I am determined to buylde, shalbe wonderfull great.

10 And behold, for the vse of thy seruauntes the cutters and hewers of timber, I haue geuen twentie thousande quarters of beaten wheat, and twentie thousand quarters of barlye, and twentie thousande battes of wine, and twentie thousande battes of oyle.

11 And Hiram ỹ king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon: Because the Lorde hath loued his people, therefore hath he made thee king ouer them.

12 And Hiram sayde moreouer: Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel which made heauen & earth, & that hath geuen Dauid the king a wise sonne, and one that hath discretion, prudence, and vnderstanding, to buyld an house for the Lord, and a palace for his kingdome.

13 And now I haue sent a wise man, and a man of vnderstanding, whom my father Hiram dyd vse:

C 2. Reg. vii. b.

14 *The sonne of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can skil to worke in golde and siluer, in brasse and iron, in stone and timber, in purple and "yelowe silke, in fine whyte and crymosin, and can graue sundry maner of graunges, and to finde out diuers maner of subtill worke that shalbe set before hym, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lorde Dauid thy father.

"Or, violet colour.

15 Nowe therefore, the wheate and barlye, oyle and wine, which my lorde hath spoken of, let him sende vnto his seruauntes:

16 And we will cut wood in Libanon as much as thou shalt neede, and wil bring it to thee in flotes by sea to Japho, from whence thou mayest cary them to Hierusalem.

17 And Solomon numbred all the straungers that were in the lande of Israel, after the number of them whom his father Dauid had numbred: And they were founde an hundred fiftie and three thousand, and fyue hundred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousande to beare burthens, and fourescore thousande to hewe stones in the mountayne, and three thousande & fyue hundred officers to set the people a worke.

9 And the wayght of the nayles of golde was fiftie sicles: and he ouerlayed the vpper chambers with golde.

10 *And in the house most holy he made two Cherubins of image worke, like children, and ouerlayed them with gold. Exo. xxv. b 11 And the wynges of the Cherubs were twentie cubites long: The one wyng was fiue cubites, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wyng was likewise fiue cubites, reaching to the wyng of the other Cherub.

12 And euen so the one wyng of the other Cherub was fiue cubites, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wyng was fiue cubites also, and reached to the wyng of the other Cherub.

13 So that the wynges of the sayde Cherubs were stretched out twentie cubites: and they stoode on their feete, and loked inwardes. C

14 And he made a fore hanging of *yelow silke, purple, crymosin, and fine white, & caused the pictures of Cherubs to be brodred theron. * Or, violet colour.

15 And he made before the house two pillers of thirtie and fiue cubites high, and the head that was aboue on the top of euery one of them was fiue cubites,

16 And he made chaynes of wreathē worke for the quier, & put them on the heades of the pillers: and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chaynes.

17 And he reared vp the pillers before the temple, one on the right hande, and the other on the left: and called the right Jachin, and the left Boaz.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1 The aulter of brasse. 2 The lauatorie. 6 The caldrons. 7 The candelsticks. &c.

MOreouer he made an aulter of brasse, twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and ten cubites hie.

li. Re. vii. d. 2 *And he cast a brasen lauatorie of ten cubites from brym to brym, rounde in compasse, and fiue cubites hie: and a line of thirtie cubites dyd compasse it round about.

3 And vnder it was the fashion of oxen, whiche dyd compasse it rounde about: With ten cubites dyd they compasse the lauatorie rounde about, and there were two rowes of oxen whiche were cast lyke molten worke.

4 And

4 And it stoode also vpon twelue oxen: three loked towarde the north, three towarde the west, three toward the south, and three toward the east: and the lauatorie was set vpon them, and all their backes were towarde the lauatorie.

5 And the thyckest of it was an handebreadth, and the brym like the brym of a cuppe, with floures of lilies: and it receaued and helde three thousande battes.

6 *And he made ten lauers, and put fiue on the right hand, and fiue on the left, to washe and clense in them such thinges as they offered for a burnt offring: But the great lauatorie was for the priestes to washe in.

7 And he made ten candelsticke of gold, according to the patterne that was geuē of them, and put them in the temple, fiue on the right hande, and fiue on the left.

8 And he made also ten tables, and put them in the temple, fiue on the right side, and fiue on the left: And he made an hundred basens of golde.

9 And he made the court of the priestes, and the great court, and doores to it, and ouerlayde the doores of them with brasse.

10 And he set the great lauatorie on the right side of the east ende, ouer against the south.

11 And Huram made pottes, shoules, and basens, & finished the worke that he was appoynted to make for king Solomon in the house of God.

12 The two pillers, and the bowles, and the pommels on the toppe of the two pillers, and the two wreathes to couer the two bowles of the pommels whiche were on the toppe of the pillers, 13 And foure hundred pomegranates on the two wreathes: two rowes of pomegranates on one wreath to couer the two bowles of the pomels.

14 And he made two bottomes, and lauers made he vpon the bottomes. ℭ

15 The great lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it.

16 Pottes also, shoules, and fleshhokes: and all these vessels dyd [a] Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the Lord, of bright brasse.

17 In the playne of Iordane did the king cast them, euen in the clay grounde that is betweene Sochoth and Zaredatha.

18 And Solomon made al these vessels in great aboundaunce: for the weyght of brasse coulde not be reckened.

19 And Solomon made al the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden aulter also, & the tables to set the shewe bread vpon.

20 Moreouer, the candelsticke with their lampes, to burne after the maner before the quier, and that of precious golde.

21 And the floures, and the lampes, and the snoffers made he of golde, and that perfect golde. ℭ

22 And the [b] dressing knyues, basens, spoones, and censers of pure golde: And the doore of the temple, and the inner doores within the place most holy, and the inner doores of the temple were gilted.

[a] Huram is also called Solomons father, because Solomon reuerenced him, and fauoured him as his father.

[b] Some read bookes, and others instrumentes of musike.

The. v. Chapter.

1 The things dedicated by Dauid, are put in the temple. 2 The arke is brought into the temple, 10 what was within it. 12 They sing prayse to the Lorde.

AND so all the worke that Solomon made in the house of the lord was finished: And *Solomon brought in all the thinges that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the siluer and golde, and al the iewels, and put them among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon* gathered the elders of Israel together, and all the heades of the tribes and auncient fathers of the children of Israel, vnto Hierusalem, to bring the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde out of the citie of Dauid, whiche is in Sion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel resorted vnto the king in the feast, euen in the [a] seuenth moneth.

4 And all the elders of Israel came, and the Leuites toke vp the arke.

[a] September.

5 And the prestes & the Leuites brought away the arke of the tabernacle of ỹ congregatiō, & al the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, and they bare them.
6 And king Solomon & all the congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him before the arke, offered sheepe and oxen, so many that they coulde not be tolde nor numbred for multitude.
7 And the prestes brought the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde vnto his place, euen into the quier of the temple within the place most holy, and set it vnder the wynges of the Cherubs, 8 So that the Cherubs stretched out their wynges ouer the place of the arke, and the Cherubs couered both the arke and her barres aboue on hye.
9 And the barres of the arke were so long, that the heades of the barres were seene without the arke within the quier, but not without: and there the arke remayned vnto this day.
10 But there was nothing in the arke *saue the two tables which Moyses put therin at Horeb, when the Lord made a couenaunt with the children of Israel after they were come out of Egypt.
11 And it fortuned, that when the prestes were come out of the holy place (for all the prestes that were present, were sanctified, and did not then wayte by course) 12 That both the Leuites and the singers, vnder Asaph, Heman, and Iedithun, were appoynted to sundry offices with their children and brethren, and were arayed in fyne whyte, hauing cymbales, psalteries, and harpes, and stoode at the east ende of the aulter, and by them an hundred and twentie prestes blowing with trumpets:
13 And the trumpet blowers and the singers so agreed, that it seemed but one voyce in praysing & thanking the Lorde:
And when they lift vp their voyce with the trumpets, cymbales, and other instrumentes of musicke, and when they praysed the Lord, how that he is good, and that his mercie lasteth euer: the house of God was filled with a cloude, 14 So that the prestes coulde not endure C to minister by the reason of the cloude:
For the maiestie of the Lorde had filled the house of God.

The.vi. Chapter.

3 Solomon blesseth the people. 4 He prayseth the Lorde. 14 He prayeth vnto God for those that shall pray in the temple.

A 1 Then Solomon sayde: *The Lord hath spocloude.

2 And I haue buylt thee an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for euer.
3 And the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel; & all the congregation of Israel stoode.
4 And he sayde: Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which hath with his handes fulfilled it that he spake with his mouth to my father Dauid, saying:

8 The Lorde sayde to Dauid my father:
Forasmuch as it was in thyne heart to buylde an house for my name, thou diddest well that thou thoughtest in thyne heart.
9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not buyld the house: but thy sonne which is proceeded out of thy loynes, he shall buylde an house for my name.
10 The Lorde therefore hath made good his saying that he hath spoken: and I am rysen vp in the roome of Dauid my rael, as the Lorde promised, and haue buylt an house for the name of the Lord

12 And the king stoode before the aulter of the Lorde in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes:

13 (For now Solomon had made a brasen scaffold of fyue cubites long, and fyue cubites brode, and three of heyght, and had set it in the middes of the great courte, and vpon it he stoode and kneeled downe vpon his knees before al the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes towarde heauen.)

15 Thou whiche hast kept with thy seruaunt Dauid my father the thinges that thou promisedst him, thou saydest it with thy mouth, & hast fulfilled it with thyne handes, as it is to see this day.

*3.Reg.2.b. 2.Par.7.d.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 The fire consumeth the sacrifice. 2 The glorie of the Lorde filleth the temple. 12 He heareth his prayer, 17 and promiseth to exalt him and his throne.

A 1 Nd * when Solomon had made an ende of praying, * there came downe fire from heauen, and consumed the burnt offring and the sacrifices: & the house was filled with the glorie of the Lorde, a Reg. 8. t. 1. esd. vii. d. Reu. vi. g.

2 And the priestes coulde not go into the house of the Lorde, because the glorie of the Lord had filled the lordes house.

3 And when al the children of Israel saw howe the fire and the glorie of the Lord came downe vpon the house, they fell downe flat vpon their faces to the earth vpon the pauement, and worshipped and confessed vnto the lord, That he is gracious, and that his mercie lasteth euer.

4 And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lorde.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twentie and two thousande oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande sheepe: and so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priestes wayted on their offices, & the Leuites had the instrumentes of musicke of the Lord, which king Dauid had made to confesse vnto the Lord, that his mercie lasteth euer, Dauid praysing God by the: And the priestes blew with trumpettes before them, and all they of Israel stoode.

7 Moreouer, Solomon halowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lorde, for there he offred burnt offringes: & the fat of the peace offringes, because the brasen aulter which Solomon had made, was not able to receaue the burnt offringes, and the meate offringes, and the fat. 13

8 So at the same time Solomon kept * a (a) feast of seuen dayes, and al they of Israel with him, an exceeding great congregation, euen from the entring in of Hamath vnto the riuer of Egypt.

1 Mach. x. g. (a) That was the feast of tabernacles.

9 And in the eyght day they made an assemblie: For they kept the dedication of the aulter seuen dayes, & the feast seuen dayes.

10 And

10 And the three and twentie day of the seuenth moneth he let the people depart into their tentes glad and merry in heart, for the goodnesse that the Lorde had shewed to Dauid and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

3.Reg.ix.a. 11 *And so Solomon finished the house of the Lorde, and the kinges house: and all that came in his heart to make in the house of the Lorde, & in his owne house, went prosperously forwarde.

12 And the Lorde appeared to Solomon by night, and sayd to him: I haue heard thy petition, and *haue chosen this place for my selfe to be an house of sacrifice.

*3.Para.vi.a.

13 If I shut vp heauen that there be no rayne, or if I commaund the locustes to deuour the lande, or if I sende pestilence among my people:

14 And if they that are of my people, among whom my name is called vpon, do humble themselues, and make intercession, and seke my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes: then will I heare from heauen, and be mercifull to their sinne, and will heale their lande.

15 And from henceforth myne eyes shalbe open, and myne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

*3.Para.vi.a. 16 And therfore nowe *I haue chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for euer: and myne eyes and myne heart shalbe there perpetually.

17 And if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to do all that I haue commaunded thee, and shalt obserue my statutes and my lawes:

18 Then will I stablishe the seate of thy kingdome, according as I made the couenaunt with Dauid thy father, saying: *Thou shalt not be without a man to be ruler in Israel.

*1.Reg.ii.a. and xx.a. 1.Para.vi.c.

19 But and if ye turne away, and forsake my statutes & my commaundementes which I haue set before you, and shall go and serue other gods, and worship them:

20 Then will I plucke them vp by the rootes, out of my lande whiche I haue geuen them, and this house whiche I haue sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a prouerbe and a ieste among all nations.

21 And this house whiche is most high, shalbe an astonishement to euery one that passeth by, and shal say: *Why hath the Lorde dealt on this fashion with this lande, and with this house?

D *De.xxix.d. iii.Re.ix.b. Ier.xxii.c.

22 And they shal answere: Because they forsoke the Lorde God of their fathers which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and caught holde on other gods, and worshipped them, and serued them: euen therefore hath he brought all this euyll vpon them.

The.viii. Chapter.

2 The cities that Solomon buylt. 7 People that were made tributarie vnto him, 12 His sacrifices. 17 He sendeth to Ophir.

A *iii.Re.ix.b. (a) Signifying that he was twentie yeres in building them.

1 And it fortuned, that after (a) twentie yeres, when Solomon had buylt the house of the Lorde and his owne house:

2 he buylt the cities that Hiram gaue him, and put of the children of Israel in them.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zoba, (b) and strengthed it.

(b) Other reade he warred against it.

4 And he buylt Thadmor in the wildernesse, & repaired all the store cities which were in Hamath.

5 And he buylt Bethhoron the vpper, and Bethhoron the neather, strong cities, hauing walles, gates, and barres:

6 And Baalah, and al the store cities that Solomon had, and all the charet cities, and the cities of the horsmen, and euery pleasaunt place that Solomon had lust to buyld in Hierusalem & Libanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 And all the people that were left of the Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 8 But were the children of them which were left after them in the lande, and were not consumed of the children of Israel, them dyd Solomon make to pay tribute, vntill this day.

9 But of the children of Israel dyd Solomon make no bondemen for his worke: but they were men of warre, and rulers, and great lordes with him, and captaynes ouer his charets and horsemen.

10 And king Solomons officers that ouer-sawe and ruled the people , were two hundred and fiftie.
11 And Solomon brought the daughter of Pharao out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had buylded for her:
For he sayde , My wyfe shall not dwel in the house of Dauid king of Israel, for it is holy , because that the arke of the Lorde is come vnto it.
12 Then Solomon offred burnt offringes vnto the Lorde on the aulter of the Lorde , whiche he had buylt before the porche:
13 Doyng euery thing in his due time, and offering according to the commaundēmēt of Moyses, in the Sabbathes, new moones , and solempne feastes, *three times in the yere, (that is to say) in the feast of swete bread , in the feast of Weekes, and in the feast of tabernacles.
14 And Solomon set the sortes of priestes to their offices as Dauid his father had ordered them , and the Leuites in their watches , for to prayse and minister before the priestes day by day, and the porters by course at euery gate: *for so had 1.Par.xx.d.
Dauid the man of God commaunded.
15 And they omitted not the commaunde-ment of the king vnto the priestes and Leuites , concerning any maner of thing, and concerning the treasures.
16 For Solomon made prouision for the charges , from the first day that the foundation of the house of the Lorde was layed , till it was finished, that the house of the Lorde was perfect.
17 Then went king Solomon to Ezion Gaber, and to Eloth at the sea side in the lande of Edom.
18 And Hiram sent hym by the handes of his seruauntes, shippes, and seruauntes that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruauntes of Solomon to Ophir , and caryed thence foure hundred and fyftie talentes of golde , and brought it to king Solomon.

2 And Solomon soyled her all her que-

3 And when the queene of Saba had seene the wisdome of Solomon, and the house that he had buylt, his wayters, their apparell, his butlars, whiche he went into the house of Lord:

there was no more spirite in her.
5 And she sayde to the king: The saying which I hearde in myne owne lande of thyne actes and of thy wisdome, is true.
6 I beleued not the wordes of them , vntill I came and myne eyes had seene it:
And beholde , the one halfe of thy wys-

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy seruauntes which stand before thee alway, and heare thy wysdome.
8 Blessed be the Lorde thy God, whiche had lust to thee, to set thee (king) on his seate, that thou mightest be king for the Lord thy God: because thy God loueth king ouer them, to do right and equitie.

9 And she gaue the king an hundred and gold from Ophir, brought also Algume wood and precious stones.

11 And

11 And the king made of the Algume wood stayres in the house of the Lorde and in the kinges palace, & harpes, and psalternes for singers: And there was none such wood seene before in the land of Juda.

12 And king Solomon gaue to the queene of Saba euery pleasant thing that she asked, (a) besides that which she had brought vnto the king: And so she turned and went away to her owne lande with her seruauntes.

(a) Besides that, that is to say, the recompence of that which she had brought vnto the king.

13 The waight of golde that came to Solomon in one yere, was sixe hundred threescore and sixe talentes of golde:

14 Besides that which chapmen & marchauntes brought: and all the kinges of Arabia and rulers of that countrey brought golde and siluer to Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: and sixe hundred sicles of beaten golde were spēt vpon one target.

16 And three hundred shieldes made he of beaten golde, & one shielde cost three hundred peeces of golde: and the king put them in the house that was in the forest of Libanon.

17 And the king made a great seate of yuory, & ouerlayde it with pure golde.

18 And there were sixe steps to the seate, with a footestoole of golde fastened to the seate: and pommels on eche syde of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the pommels.

19 And twelue lions stoode on the one side and on the other vpon the sixe steppes: so that there was no such worke made in any kingdome.

20 And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of golde, and al the vessels of the house that was in the forest of Libanon were of precious golde: for siluer was counted nothing worth in the dayes of Solomon.

21 For the kinges shippes went to Tharsis with the seruauntes of Hiram, euery three yeres once came the shippes to Tharsis, and brought golde, siluer, yuorie, and apes, and peacockes.

22 * And king Solomon passed all the kinges of the earth, in richesse & wysedome. 3. Reg x.d.

23 And all the kinges of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to heare his wysedome that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, & vessels of golde, rayment, harnesse, spises, horses, and mules, and whatsoeuer might be gotten yere by yere.

25 * And Solomon had foure thousand stalles for horses, and charrettes, and twelue thousand horsemen: whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and [some were] with the king at Hierusalem. 3. Reg x.d.

26 And he raigned ouer all the kinges that were from Euphrates, vnto the lande of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 * And the king made siluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar trees as plenteous as ỹ Mulbery trees that growe in the valleys: 3. Reg x.d.

28 And they brought vnto Solomon horses, out of Egypt, and out of all landes.

29 * The rest of the actes of king Solomon first and last, are they not written in the sayings of Nathan the prophete, and in the prophecie of Ahiah the Silonite, and in the visions of Jddo the sear of visions against Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat: 3. Reg xi.g

30 And Solomon raigned in Hierusalem vpon all Israel fourtie yeres.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers: and they buried him in the citie of Dauid his father, & Rehoboam his sonne raigned in his steade.

6 And king Rehoboam counsailed with the elders that had stande before Solo-he saide: What counsaile geue ye me, to 7 And they tolde him, saying: If thou thou it somewhat lighter for vs: Thus shalt thou say vnto thē, My litle finger,

12 And so Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come againe to 13 And the king answered them cruelly: ℭ and king Rehoboam left the counsaile of the aged men,

14 And answered them after the aduise of the young men, saying: My father made your yoke greeuous, and I wyll adde thereto: my father chastised you with whyppes, but I wyll chastise you with scourges.
15 And so the king hearkened not vnto the people: but the occasion came of God, that the Lorde might make good his saying * which he spake by the hand of Ahia the Silonite to Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat.
16 And when all they of Israel saw that the king would not agree vnto them, the people answered the king, saying:
What portion haue we in Dauid? For we haue no inheritaunce in the sonne of Isai: Euery man to his tent oh Israel,
* and nowe Dauid, see to thyne owne house. And so all Israel gat them to their tentes:
17 So that Rehoboam raigned ouer no mo of the children of Israel then dwelt ℭ in the cities of Juda.
18 Then king Rehoboam also sent Hadoram that was ruler ouer the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he dyed: But king Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Hierusalem.

the house of Dauid vnto this day.

The .xj. Chapter.

4 Rehoboam is forbidden to fight against Jeroboam. 5 Cities which he built.
13 He hath eyghteene wyues, and threescore concubines, and by them eyght and twentie sonnes, and threescore daughters.

A 1 AND when Rehoboam was come to Hierusalem, * he gathered of the house of Juda and Beniamin, nine score thousand chosen men of warre, to fight against Israel, & to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam.
2 And the worde of the Lorde came to Semahu the man of God, saying:
3 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon king of Juda, & to all them of Israel that are in Juda and Beniamin, and say:
4 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go vp nor fight against your brethren: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the wordes of the Lorde, and returned from going against Jeroboam.
5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Hierusalem, and built strong cities in Juda.
6 He built vp Bethlehem, & Etam, and Thekoa,

Thekoa,
7 Bethzur, Socho, and Adullam,
8 Gath, and Mareſa, and Ziph,
9 Adurahim, Lachis, and Azekah,
10 Zorah, Aialon, and Hebron, which is in Juda and Beniamin, ſtrong cities.
11 And he repaired the ſtrong holdes, and put captaynes in them, and ſtore of vittaile, and wine, and oyle:
12 And in all cities he put ſhieldes and ſpeares, & made them exceeding ſtrong, hauing Juda and Beniamin on his ſyde.
13 And the prieſtes and the Leuites that were in all Iſrael, reſorted to him out of all their coaſtes.
14 For the Leuites left their ſuburbes, and their poſſeſſion, and came to Juda and Hieruſalem: * For Jeroboam and his ſonnes had caſt them out from miniſtring vnto the Lorde.
15 * And he ordayned him prieſtes for the high places, for the (a) deuils, and for the calues which he had made.
16 And after the Leuites, there went out all the tribes of Iſrael, ſuch as ſubmitted their heartes to ſeeke the Lord God of Iſrael, and came to Hieruſalem to offer vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.
17 And ſo they ſtrengthed the kingdome of Juda, & made Rehoboam the ſonne of Solomon mighte three yeres long: for three (b) yeres they walked in the way of Dauid and Solomon.
18 And Rehoboam toke him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the ſonne of Dauid to wyfe, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the ſonne of Iſai.
19 Which bare him children, Jeus, Samaria, and Zaham.
20 And after her he toke * Maacha the daughter of Abſolon, which bare him Abia, Atthai, Ziza, and Selomith.
21 And Rehoboam loued Maacha the daughter of Abſolō aboue al his wyues and concubines: for he toke eyghteene wyues and threeſcore concubines, and begat twentie and eyght ſonnes & threeſcore daughters.
22 And Rehoboam made Abia the ſonne of Maacha, the chiefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him kyng.

6 Whereupon the lordes of Iſrael and the king humbled themſelues, and ſaid: The Lorde is righteous.

12 And when he humbled himselfe, the wrath of the Lorde turned from him, that he woulde not destroy altogether: and in Juda all was well.

13 And so king Rehoboam waxed mighty, & raigned in Hierusalem: And Rehoboam was one and fourtie yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned seuenteene yeres in Hierusalem, the citie which the Lorde had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there: And his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonitesse.

4 And Abia stoode vp vpon Zemaraim, an hill which is in mount Ephraim, and sayde: Heare me thou Jeroboam and al Israel.

5 Do not you knowe how that the Lord God of Israel gaue the kingdome ouer them of Israel to Dauid for euer, euen to him and to his sonnes, with a (b) salted couenaunt: (b) Which is firme & perpetuall.

2 And *Asa did that was good & right
1.Reg.xv.a in the eyes of the Lorde his God.
3 For he toke away straunge aulters and the high places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the groues:
4 And commaunded Juda to seeke the Lorde God of their fathers, and to do according to the lawe and commaunde-ment.
5 And he put away out of all the cities of Juda the high places & the images:
& the kingdome was quiet before him.
6 And he built strong cities in Juda, because the lande was in rest, and he had no warre in those yeres: for the Lorde had geuen him rest.
7 Therefore he saide vnto Juda: let vs
25 builde these cities, & make about them walles, towres, gates, and barres, for the lande is yet in rest before vs: because we haue sought the Lorde our God, we haue sought him, and he hath geuen vs rest on euery side. And so they built, and it prospered with them.
8 And Asa had an armie of men that bare shieldes and speares out of Juda three hundred thousand, & out of Beniamin that bare shieldes & drewe bowes two hundred and fourescore thousand:
all these were valiaunt men.

charettes, & came as farre as Mareša.
10 And Asa went out before him, and they Moores fled.

14 And they smote all the cities rounde about Gerar, for the feare of the Lorde came vpon them: And they spoyled all the cities, & there was exceeding much spoyle in them.

15 They smote also the tentes of cattaile, and caryed away plentie of sheepe and camels, and returned to Hierusalem.

1 AND the spirite of God came on Azaria the sonne of Obed,

2 And he went out to meete Asa, and said vnto him: Heare me Asa, and al Juda and Benjamin, the Lorde is with you, while ye be with him: and when ye seeke him, he wyll be founde of you: and againe when ye forsake him, he also wyll forsake you.

3 Nowe for a long season Israel hath ben without the true God, and without preestes to teache, and without law.

4 And when any man in his trouble did turne vnto the Lorde God of Israel and sought him, he was found of them.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and citie of citie: for God did moue all aduersitie among them.

7 Play ye therefore the men, and let not your handes slacke: for your worke shal be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard those wordes, and the prophecie (a) of Azaria the sonne of Obed the prophete, he toke courage, and put away the abhommable idols out of all the lande of Juda and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he wan in mount Ephraim, and renued the auter of the Lorde that was before the porche of the Lorde.

IN the thirtie and sixth yere of the raigne of Asa, came * Baasa king of Israel against Juda, & built Rama, to the intent that he would let none passe out or in to Asa king of Juda. *In Re.xv.c.

2 And Asa set out golde and siluer out of the treasures of the house of the Lord, & out of the kings house, and sent to Benhadad king of Syria that dwelt at Darmesec, and saide:

3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thyne: beholde I haue sent thee siluer and golde, that thou wilt come & breake thyne appoyntment with Baasa king of Israel, that he may departe from me.

4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Asa, and sent the captaynes of his armes to the cities of Israel: and they smote Ijon, Dan, and Abelmaim, & all the strong cities of Nephthali.

5 And when Baasa heard this, he left building of Rama, and let his worke ceasse.

6 And then Asa the king toke all Juda, and caryed away the stones and timber of Rama wherewith Baasa was a building, and he built therewith Geba and Mispah.

7 At that time Hanani the sear came to Asa king of Juda, and saide vnto him: (a) Because thou hast trusted in the king of Syria, and not rather put thy trust in the Lord thy God, therfore is the hoast of the king of Syria escaped out of thyne hande.

8 * Had not the blacke Moores and Lubim an exceeding great hoast, with many charettes and horsemen? And yet because thou trustedst in the Lorde, he deliuered them into thyne hande. *14.Pa.xiiij.c.

11 And beholde, these deedes of Asa first and last, are written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirtie and ninth yere of his raigne fell sicke in his feete, and that his disease continued very long: And * in his sickenesse he sought not the lord, but phisitions. Eccle.38.a.

13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and dyed in the fourtie and one yere of his raigne.

14 And they buried him in his owne sepulchre which he had made for himselfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde him in the bed which he had filled with diuers kindes of spices, & sweete odours made by the craft of the apothecaries: and burnt very much spice about him.

AND * Iehosaphat his sonne raigned in his steade, and preuailed against Israel. Mathan.b.

2 And he put souldiers in all the strong cities of Juda, and set rulers in the lande of Juda, and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had wonne.

3 And the Lorde was with Iehosaphat, because he walked in the olde wayes of his father Dauid, and sought not Baalun,

4 But sought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commaundements mentes, and not after the dounges of Israel.

5 And the Lorde stablished the kingdome in his hande, & all they that were in Juda brought hym presentes, so that he had aboundaunce of richesse and honour.

6 And he lyft vp his heart vnto the wayes of the Lorde, and he put downe yet more of the high places and groues out of Juda.

23 7 In the third yere of his raigne he sent to his lordes, euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel, and to Michaahu, that they shoulde * teache in the cities of Juda:

8 And with them he sent Leuites, euen Semeiahu, Nethaniahu, Zebadiahu, Asael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adoniahu, Tobiahu, & Tob adoniahu, & with them Elisama, and Jehoram, preistes.

9 And they taught in Juda, and had the booke of the lawe of God with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Juda, and taught the people.

10 And the feare of the Lorde fell vpon all the kingdomes of the landes that were rounde about Juda, and they fought not against Iehosaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines brought Iehosaphat giftes, and tribute siluer, and therto the Arabians brought hym cattaile, euen seuen thousand and seuen hundred rammes, and seuen thousand and seuen hundred hee goates.

12 And so Iehosaphat prospered, and grew vp an hie: And he built in Juda castels and cities of store.

13 And he had great * substaunce in the cities of Juda: but the men of armes and strongest souldiers were in Hierusalem.

14 And these are the * offices of them in the house of their fathers: the captaines ouer thousandes in Juda, Adna the captayne, and with hym of fighting men three hundred thousand.

15 And next to his hand was Iehohanan a captayne, and with hym two hundred and fourescore thousand.

16 And next hym was Amazia the sonne of Zichri, which of his owne good will offered hym selfe vnto the Lorde, and with hym two hundred thousand mighty men of warre.

17 And of the children of Beniamin, Eliada a man of might, and with hym armed men with bowe and shielde two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Iehozabad, and with hym an hundred and fourescore thousand, that were prepared for the warre.

19 These wayted on the king, besides those which the king put in the strong cities throughout all Juda.

3 And Ahab king of Israel saide vnto Iehosaphat king of Juda: Wylt thou go with me to Ramoth in Gilead? And he answered him: I wyll be as thou, and my people shall be as thyne, and we wyll go with thee to the warre.

4 And Iehosaphat saide vnto the king of Israel: Seke counsel I pray thee at the worde of the Lorde this same day.

5 Therfore the king of Israel gathered together of prophetes foure hundred men, & saide vnto them: Shall we go to Ramoth [in] Gilead to fight, or should I ceasse? And they saide: Go vp, & God shall deliuer it into the kinges hand.

6 But Iehosaphat saide: Is there yet here neuer a prophete more of the Lordes, that we myght aske of him?

7 And the king of Israel said vnto Iehosaphat: There is yet one man by who we may aske the Lorde: but I hate him, for he neuer prophecieth me good, but allway euill, and the same is Michea the sonne of Iemla. And Iehosa-phat sayde, Let not the kyng say so.

8 And the kyng of Israel called one of his chamberlaynes, and sayde: Fetch hyther quickly Michea the sonne of Iemla.
9 And the kyng of Israel and Iehosaphat kyng of Juda, sate eyther of them on his seate in their apparell, in a threshyng flooze beside the gate of Samaria, & al the prophetes prophesied before thē.
10 And one Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana had made him * hornes of iron, and sayde, thus sayth the Lorde: With these thou shalt pushe Syria, vntill they be brought to naught.
11 And all the prophetes prophesied euen so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth in Gilead, & it shall prosper with thee: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the kyng.
12 And the messenger that went to call Michea, spake to him, saying: Behold, the wordes of the prophetes speake good to the kyng with one assent: let thy wordes therefore I pray thee be like one of theirs, that thou speake that whiche is pleasaunt.
13 And Michea sayde: As the Lorde liueth, euen what my God sayth, that will I speake.
14 And when he was come to the kyng, the kyng sayd vnto him: Michea, should we go to Ramoth in Gilead to fight, or leaue of? And he sayd: Go vp, & al shalbe well, and they shalbe deliuered into your hande.
15 And the kyng sayde to him: So and so many times do I charge thee that thou say nothyng but the trueth to me in the name of the Lorde.
16 Then he sayd: I did see all them of Israel scattered in the mountaynes, as sheepe that haue no shepherd: And the Lorde sayde, [b] These haue no maister, let them returne euery man therfore to his house in peace.
17 And the kyng of Israel said vnto Iehosaphat: Did I not tel thee, that he would not prophecie good vnto me, but euyll?
18 But he said againe, Therfore heare ye the Word of the Lord: * I saw the Lord sit vpon his seate, and all the compaune of heauen stoode on his right hande and on his left.
19 And the Lord sayd: who shall deceaue Ahab kyng of Israel, that he may go vp and be ouerthrowne at Ramoth in Gilead? And one sayde this, a nother that.
20 And there came out a spirite, & stoode before the Lorde, and sayde: I will deceaue him. And the Lorde sayde vnto him, wherin?
21 And he sayde: I wil go out and be a [c] lying spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. And the Lord sayd, Thou shalt deceaue him, and shalt preuayle: go out, and do euen so.
22 And nowe therfore behold * the Lorde hath put a lying spirite in the mouthes of all these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath spoken euyll against thee.
23 And Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Michea vpon the cheeke, & sayde: By what way went the spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake with thee?
24 And Michea sayd: Behold, thou shalt see the day whē thou shalt go frō chamber to chamber, for to hyde thy selfe.
25 And the kyng of Israel sayd: Take ye Michea, and bring him to Amon the gouernor of the citie, & to Joas the kinges sonne.
26 And ye shall say, thus sayth the kyng: Put this felowe in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction and water of trouble, vntil I come againe in peace.
27 And Michea said: If thou come againe in peace, then hath not the Lord spoken by me. And he sayde: Hearken to ye people euery one of you.
28 And so the kyng of Israel and Iehosaphat the kyng of Juda, went vp to Ramoth in Gilead.
29 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iehosaphat, I must chaunge me when I go to the battell: but see that thou haue thyne owne apparel vpon thee. And the kyng of Israel chaunged him selfe, and they came to the battel.
30 But the kyng of Syria had commaunded the captaynes of the charets that were with him, saying: See that ye fight not against small or great, saue against the kyng of Israel only.
31 And when the captaynes of the charets saw Iehosaphat, they sayd, It is ꝑ kyng of Israel: And therfore they compassed about hym to fight. But Iehosaphat cried out, and the Lord helped him, and God chased them away from him.
32 For it came to passe, that when the captaynes of the charets perceaued that it was not the kyng of Israel, they turned backe againe from him.

The .xix. Chapter.

1 After Iehosaphat was rebuked by the prophete, he calleth againe the people to the honoring of the Lord. 5 He appointeth iudges and ministers, 9 and exhorteth them to feare God.

1 And Iehosaphat the king of Juda came home againe in peace to Hierusalem.

2 And Jehu the sonne of Hanani the sear went out to meete him, and sayd to king Iehosaphat: Wouldest thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therfore is wrath come downe vpon thee from before the Lorde:

3 Neuertheles, there are some good actes founde in thee, in that thou hast hewen downe the groues out of the lande, and hast prepared thyne heart to seke God.

8 Moreouer, in Hierusalem did Iehosaphat set of the Leuites, & of the preistes, and of the auncient fathers, ouer Israel in the iudgement and cause of the Lord: And they returned againe to Hierusalē.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shal ye do in the feare of the Lord faythfully, and with a pure heart:

10 What cause soeuer come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commaundemēt, betweene statutes and ordinaunces: ye shall warne them that they trespasse not against ỹ Lorde, and so wrath come vpon you and your brethren: Thus do, & ye shal not offende.

11 And beholde, Amaria the hie preist is among you in all matters of the Lorde, and Zebadia the sonne of Jsmael, a ruler of the house of Juda for all the kinges matters: There be officers of the Leuites also before you, Take courage to you therfore, and be doyng [manfully] and the Lorde shalbe with such as be good.

The .xx. Chapter.

1 Iehosaphat and the people pray vnto the Lorde. 22 The marueylous victorie that the Lorde gaue him against his enemies. 30 His raigne and actes.

1 After this also, it fortuned that the children of Moab and the children Ammon, & with them other of the Ammonites came against Iehosaphat to battell.

2 And there came some that told Iehosaphat, saying: There commeth a great multitude against thee from the other side of the sea, and out of Syria, and beholde they be in Hasason Thamar, which is Engadi.

3 And Iehosaphat feared, & set him selfe to seke the Lorde: and proclaymed fasting throughout all Juda.

4 And they that were in Juda gathered thē selues together to aske counsel of the Lord: And they came out of al the cities of Juda, * to make intercession to ỹ Lord.

* Or, to inquire of the Lorde.

5 And

5 And Iehosaphat stoode betweene the congregation of Juda & Hierusalem in the house of ꝑ Lord before the newe court,
6 And sayd: O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou Gobin heauen, and raignest not thou on all the kingdomes of the Heathen, and in thyne hande is power and might, and there is no man that is able to withstande thee?
7 Art not thou our God, whiche diddest cast out the unhabiters of this lande before thy people Israel, & gauest it to the seede of Abraham thy louer for euer?
8 And they dwelt therin, and haue buylt thee a tẽple therin for thy name, saying:
9 *If euyll come vpon vs, as the sword of iudgement, pestilence or hunger: then, if we stande before this house in thy presence (for thy name is in this house) and crye vnto thee in our tribulation, heare thou, and helpe.
10 And nowe beholde the children of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, by whom thou wouldest not let them of Israel go when they came out of the lande of Egypt, but they departed from them, and destroyed them not:
11 See howe they rewarde vs, to come for to cast vs out of thy possession whiche thou hast geuen vs to inherite.
12 O our God, wilt thou not iudge them? for we haue no might against this great companie that commeth against vs: neither wote we what to do, but our eyes (a) be vnto thee.
13 And all Juda stoode before the Lorde, with their young ones, their wiues, and their children.
14 And there was Jahaziel the sonne of Zacharia, the sonne of Banaia, the sonne of Jehiel, the sonne of Matthania, a Leuite, of the sonnes of Asaph, & vpon hym came the spirite of the Lorde euen in the middes of the congregation:
15 And he sayd, Hearken all Juda, and ye inhabiters of Hierusalem, and thou king Iehosaphat, thus sayth the Lorde vnto you: Be not afrayd nor faynt hearted by reason of this great multitude: for the battell is not yours, but Gods'.
16 To morow go ye downe against them: behold they come vp by the clift of Ziz, and ye shall finde them at the ende of the brooke before the wildernesse of Jeruel
17 Ye shall not needs to fight in this battell: but steppe forth and stand, and beholde the helpe of the Lorde whiche is with you: feare not, nor let your heartes fayle you O ye of Juda and of Hierusalem: To morowe go out against them for, the Lord wilbe with you.
18 And Iehosaphat (b) bowed his face to the earth, and all Juda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem fel before the Lord, worshipping the Lorde.
19 And the Leuites of the children of the Caathites, & of the children of the Corahites, stoode vp to prayse the Lorde God of Israel with a loud voyce on hie.
20 And when they arose early in the morning, they gat them out into the wildernesse of Thekoa, and as they went out, Iehosaphat stoode and sayd, Heare me O Juda, and ye inhabiters of Hierusalem: Put your trust in the Lorde your God, that ye may be founde kaythfull: Geue credence to his prophetes, and so shall ye prosper.
21 When he had consulted with the people, and set some to sing vnto the Lorde, and to prayse him in the beautie of holinesse, and to go out before the arme, and to say, Prayse the Lorde, for his mercie lasteth euer.
22 And when they began to shout and to prayse, the Lord layde ambushementes against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, whiche were come against Juda: And they were ouerthrowen with strokes among thẽselues.
23 For the children of Ammon and Moab, rose against the inhabiters of mount Seir, and they slue and destroyed them: And when they had made an end of the inhabiters of Seir, euery one helped to destroy another among them selues.
24 And when Juda came towarde Mispah in the wildernesse, they loked vnto the multitude: and beholde, they were dead carcasses fallen to the earth, and none escaped.
25 And when Iehosaphat and his people came to take away the spoyle of them, they founde among them abundaunce of goods, rayment, & pleasaunt iewels, which they toke for them selues, more then they could cary away: so that they were three dayes in gathering of the spoyle, it was so much.
26 And the fourth day they assembled in the valley of blessing, for there they (c) blessed the Lord: And therfore they called the name of the same place the valley of blessing, vnto this day.

28 And they came to Hierusalem with psalters and harpes, & shawmes, euen vnto the house of the Lorde.

29 And the feare of God fell on the kingdomes of all landes, when they had heard that the Lorde fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 And so the realme of Iehosaphat was in tranquillite, and his God gaue him rest on euery side.

31 And* Iehosaphat raigned vpon Juda, and was thirtie & fiue yeres olde when he began to raigne, & he raigned twentie and fiue yeres in Hierusalem: And his mothers name was Azuba the daughter of Silhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and bowed not therfrom, doyng that which was right in the sight of the Lorde.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their heartes vnto the God of their fathers.

34 The rest of the actes of Iehosaphat first and last, behold they are written among the sayinges of Jehu the sonne of Hanam, which noted them in the booke of the kinges of Israel.

35 After this did Iehosaphat king of Juda ioyne himselfe with Ahaziahu king of Israel, whose mind was to do wickedly. F

36 He coupled him selfe with him, to make shippes to go to Tharsis: And they made the shippes in Ezion Gaber.

37 And Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Mareša prophesied against Iehosaphat, saying: Because thou hast [d] ioyned thy selfe with Ahaziahu, ꝑ lord hath broken thy workes. And the shippes were broke that they were not able to go to Tharsis.

9 And Iehoram went forth with his lordes, and all his charets were with him: and he rose vp by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in, and the captaynes of the charets.

10 But Edom rebelled still, so that they would not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day: That same time also dyd Libna depart from being vnder his hande, because he had forsaken the Lord God of his fathers.

11 Moreouer, he made high places in the mountaynes of Juda, & caused the inhabiters of Hierusalem to commit fornication, and prouoked Juda [to idolatrie.]

12 And there came a writing to him from Elia the prophete, saying, Thus sayth the Lord God of Dauid thy father: Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iehosaphat thy father, and in the wayes of Asa king of Juda:

13 But

13 But walkedst in the wayes of the kinges of Israel, and hast made Juda and the dwellers of Hierusalem to go a whoring like to the whordome of the house of Ahab, and hast slayne thy brethren, euen thy fathers house, whiche were better then thou:

14 Beholde, with a great plague will the Lorde smite thy folke, thy children, thy wyues, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt suffer great payne, euen a disease of thy bowels, vntill thy guttes fall out, by reason of thy sickues day by day.

16 And so the Lorde stirred vp against Iehoram the spirite of the Philistines, and the Arabians that were beside the blacke Moores.

17 And they came vp into Juda, and wasted it, & caried away all the substaunce that was found in the kinges house, and his sonnes, and his wyues: so that there was neuer a sonne left hym, saue Iehohahaz, which was the youngest among his sonnes.

18 And after all these thinges, the Lorde smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to passe, that in processe of time, euen after the ende of two yeres, his guttes fell out in his sickues, and so he died of very euyll diseases: And they made no burning for him, lyke the burning of his fathers.

20 When he began to raigne he was thirtie and two yeres olde, and raigned in Hierusalem eyght yeres, and lined wretchedly: howbeit they buried him in the citie of Dauid, but not among the sepulchres of the kinges.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezrahel, of the woundes whiche were geuen him at Rama, whē he fought with Hazael king of Syria: and Ahaziahu the sonne of Iehoram king of Juda, went downe to see Iehoram the sonne of Ahab at Jezrahel, because he was diseased.

2 And they went about in Iuda and gathered the Leuites out of all the cities of Iuda, & the auncient fathers of Israel, and they came to Hierusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a bonde with the king in the house of God, and he sayd vnto them: Beholde, the kinges sonne must raigne, as the Lorde hath sayde of the children of Dauid.

4 This is it therfore that ye shal do: The thirde part of you shall on the Sabbath come to the preestes, Leuites, & keepers of the portches,

6 But there shal none come into the house of the Lorde, saue the preestes and they that minister vnto the Leuites, they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shal kepe the watch of the Lord.

7 And the Leuites shall compasse the king round about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: and what other man soeuer doth come into the house (of the Lorde) he shalbe slayne: and let them be with the king when he commeth in and when he goeth out.

8 And the Leuites and all Iuda dyd according to al thinges that Iehoiada the preest had commaunded, and toke euery man his men that came in on the Sabbath, with them that went out on the Sabbath day: neither did Iehoiada the preest let the companies depart.

9 And Iehoiada the preest deliuered to the captaynes of hundredes, speares, shieldes, and bucklers, that had pertayned to king Dauid, and were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people (euery man hauing his weapon in his hande) from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the aulter and the temple, rounde about the king.

11 And they brought out the kinges sonne, and put vpon him the crowne, and* the testimonie, and made him king: and Iehoiada and his sonnes annoynted him, and sayde, God saue the king.

A Ezekia began to raigne when he was fiue and twentie yeres olde, and he raigned nine & twentie yeres in Hierusalem: And his mothers name was Abia, the daughter of Zachariahu.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lorde, in all poynctes as did Dauid his father.

3 He * opened the (a) doores of the house of the Lorde in the first yere and (b) first moneth of his raigne, and repaired them.

6 For our fathers haue trespassed, and done euill in the eyes of the Lorde our God, and haue forsaken him, and turned away their faces from the habitation of the Lord, and turned their backes on it.

7 And beside that, they haue shut vp the doores of the porche, and quenched the lampes, and haue neither burnt incense, nor offered burnt offrynges in the holy place vnto the God of Israel.

8 (c) Wherefore the wrath of the Lorde fell on Juda & Hierusalem, and he hath brought them to trouble to be wondred on, & to be hissed at, euen as ye see with your eyes.

9 For loe, our fathers were ouerthrowen with the sword, and our sonnes, our daughters, and our wyues were caried away captiue for the same cause.

14 And of the sonnes of Heman, Jeiel, and Simei: And of the sonnes of Jeduthun, Semaia and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and purified them selues, and came according to the commaundement of the king and the wordes of the Lord for to clense the house of the Lorde:

16 And the priestes went into the inner partes of the house of the Lord to clense it, and brought out all the vnclennesse that they founde in the temple of the Lorde, into the court of the house of the Lorde: And the Leuites toke it, to cary it out into the brooke Cedron.

17 They began the first day of the first moneth to purifie, and the eyght day of the moneth came they to the porche of the Lorde: So they sanctified the house of the Lorde in eyght dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth they made an end.

18 And they went in to Hezekia the king, and saide: We haue clensed all the house of the Lorde, the aulter of burnt offrung with all his vessels, and the shew bread table with * all his apparell:

19 And all the vessels which king Ahaz did cast aside, when he raigned, & transgressed, them we haue prepared and sanctified, and beholde they are before the aulter of the Lorde.

20 And Hezekia the king rose earlye, and gathered the lordes of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lorde.

21 And they brought seuen oxen, seuen rammes, seuen sheepe, and seuen hee goates, to be a sinne offring for the kingdome, for the sanctuary, and for Juda: And he commaunded the priestes the sonnes

22 And they slue the oxen, and the priestes receaued the blood and (b) sprinckled it on the aulter: likewyse when they had slaine the rammes, they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter: They slue also the sheepe, and they sprinckled the blood

23 And then they brought foorth the hee goates for the sinne offering before the king and the congregation, & put their handes vpon them.
24 And the priestes slue them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the aulter, to make satisfaction for all Israel:
for the king cõmaunded that the burnt offering and the sinne offering shoulde be made for all Israel.
25 And set the Leuites in the house of the Lorde with cymbales, psalteries, and harpes,* according to the commaunde-ment of Dauid and of Gad the kinges seer, and Nathan the prophete: For so was the commaundement of the Lord the burnt offring vpon the aulter: And when the burnt offring began, the song of the Lorde began also, and the trum-pettes, with the instrumentes that were ordayned by the hand of Dauid king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, singing a song, and blowyng with the trumpettes, and all this [continued] vntill the burnt offring was finished.
29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him, bowed them selues, and worshipped.
30 And Hezekia the king and the lordes, spake to the Leuites to prayse the Lord with the wordes of Dauid & of Asaph the seer: And they sang prayses with gladnesse, and the other bowed them selues, and worshipped.
31 And Hezekia answered, and saide:
Now ye haue consecrated your handes to the Lorde: go to therefore, and bryng the sacrifices and thanke offerynges vnto the house of the Lorde. And the congregation brought in the sacrifices & thank offerynges, and burnt offrynges, as many as were of a free liberall heart.
32 And the number of the burnt offrynges which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten oxen, an hundred rammes, & two hundred sheepe: Which were all for the burnt offering of the Lorde.
33 And there were dedicated sixe hundred oxen, and three thousand sheepe.
34 And the priestes were to fewe to flay al
the burnt offrynges: but their brethren the Leuites did helpe them, till they had ended the worke, & vntil the priestes were sanctified: For the Leuites were purer hearted to be sanctified, then the priestes.
35 And therto ỹ burnt offrynges were many, with the fat of the peaceoffrynges, burnt offring: And so the seruice parteynyng to the house of the Lorde, was finished.

36 And Hezekia reioyced, and all the peo-proclaymed throughout all Israel from Beersleba to Dan, that they shoulde come & holde the feast of Passouer vnto the Lord God of Israel at Hierusalem: For they had not done it of a great season, as it was written.

6 So the postes went with letters of the king and of his lordes throughout all Israel & Juda, and at the commaundement of the king they sayde: Ye children of Israel, turne againe vnto the Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and Israel, and he wyll returne to the remnaunt that are escaped of you out of the hande of the kinges of the Assyrians.

B 7 And be not ye lyke your fathers and your brethren, which trespalled against the Lorde God of their fathers, which gaue them vp to be destroyed, as ye see.

8 And nowe be not ye stiffe necked lyke as were your fathers: but yeelde your selues vnto the Lord, and enter into his holy place which he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lord your God, and the fiercenesse of his wrath shall turne away from you.

9 For if ye turne againe vnto the Lorde, then shall your brethren and your children finde compassion in the presence of them that toke them captiue, and they shall come againe vnto this lande: * For the Lorde your God is gratious and mercifull, and wyll not turne away his face from you, if ye conuert vnto him.

10 And so the postes went from citie to citie in the lande of Ephraim & Manasse, euen vnto Zabulon: but they laughed them to scorne, and mocked them.

11 Neuertheless, yet diuers of Aser, Manasse, and of Zabulon, submitted them selues, and came to Hierusalem.

12 And the hande of God was in Juda, and he gaue them one heart to do the commaundement of the king and of the rulers, according to the worde of the Lorde.

C 13 And there assembled to Hierusalem much people, and there was present a mightie great congregation, to hold the feast of swéete bread in the second moneth.

14 And they arose, and remoued the * aulters that were in Hierusalem: And all the aulters for incense did they away, and cast them into the brooke Cedron.

2. Par. 28. d.

15 And they slue Passouer the fourteenth day of the second moneth: And the priestes and Leuites which were (b) ashamed, sanctified them selues, and brought in the burnt offringes into the house of the Lorde.

(b) Seeing their owne negligence, and the rebuke of the people.

16 And they stoode in their office after their maner and according to the lawe of Moyses the man of God: And the priestes sprinckled the blood, [which they receaued] of the hande of the Leuites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified, and therefore the Leuites had the charge of the killing of the Passouer for euery one that was not cleane, to sanctifie him vnto the Lorde.

18 For many of the people, and very many out of Ephraim, Manasse, Issachar, and Zabulon, were not cleansed, and yet did eate Passour against the lawe appointed: but Hezekia prayed for them, saying, The good Lorde be mercifull toward euery one 19 That prepareth his heart to seeke the Lorde God, the God of his fathers: D though he be not [cleansed] according to the purification of the sanctuarie.

20 And the Lorde heard Hezekia, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Hierusalem, held the feast of swéete bread seuen dayes, with great gladnes: and the Leuites & the priestes prayse the Lorde day by day, singing with loude instrumentes vnto the lord.

22 And Hezekia spake comfortable vnto all the Leuites that had good knowledge [to sing vnto the Lorde]: and they did eate throughout that feast seuen dayes long, and offered peace offringes, and thanked the Lorde God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assemblie toke counsel to do so other seuen dayes: & they helde those seuen dayes with gladnesse:

24 For Hezekia king of Juda, did geue to the congregation (c) a thousand young oxen, and seuen thousand sheepe: And the lordes gaue out to the congregation a thousand oxen, & ten thousand sheepe, and a great number of the priestes were sanctified.

(c) Hezekia performed his vowe liberally, for the setting forth of Gods glory. E

25 And all the congregation of Juda, with the priestes & Leuites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, & the straungers that came out of the lande of Israel, & that dwelt in Juda, reioyced.

26 And there was great gladnesse in Hierusalem

Hierusalem: For since the time of Solomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel, there was no such [ioy] in Hierusalem.

27 And the priestes and the Leuites arose, and blessed the people: and their voyce was heard, of the Lorde, and their prayer came vp vnto heauen his holy dwelling place.

¶ The. xxxi. Chapter.

NOW 1 When all these thinges were finished, all they of Israel that were present in the cities of Juda, went out and brake the images, and * cut downe the idol groues, and all to brake the high places and *aulters throughout al Juda and Benamin, in Ephraim also and Manasse, vntil they had vtterly destroyed them all: And all the children of Israel returned euery man to his possessions, and to their owne cities.

(b) The tithes and first fruites for the maintenaunce of the priestes and Leuites.

5 And assoone as the kinges commaundement came abrode, the children of Israel brought aboūdance of first fruites, of corne, wine, oyle, hony, and of all maner of fruites of the fielde, & the tythes of all maner of thinges brought they in plenteously.

6 And the children of Israel and Juda that dwelt in the cities of Juda, they also brought in the tithes of oxen and sheepe, & other holy tithes which were consecrate vnto the Lorde their God, they did offer and brought them all by heapes.

7 In the third moneth, they began to lay the heapes in maner of a foundation, and finished them in the seuenth moneth. 13

8 And when Hezekia and the lordes came and sawe the heapes, they blessed the Lorde, and his people Israel.

9 And Hezekia questioned with the priestes and the Leuites concerning the heapes.

10 And Azaria the chiefe priest of the house of Sadoc, answered him and saide: Since the people began to bryng the heaue offrynges into the house of the Lorde, (c) We also haue had inough to eate, there remayned so much: for the Lorde hath blessed his people, and this heape is left.

15 And vnder his hand were Eden, Miamin, Jesua, Semeiahu, Amariahu, and Sechaniahu in the cities of the priestes [appointed] of their fidelitie to geue to their brethren their portions, as well well to the small as to the great.

16 Beside their generation, beyng males, from three yeres old and vpwarde, euen vnto euery one that entereth into the house of the Lord, they should geue day by day, for their ministration, and for their geuing attendaunce, and for their diuers waytinges by course,

18 And to the families of all their babes, wyues, sonnes and daughters through all the congregation: For vpon the fidelitie of them were the holy thinges bestowed.
19 And to the children of Aaron the priestes which were in the fieldes and suburbes of their cities, citie by citie, the men whose names were expressed afore, shoulde geue portions, euen to all the males among the priestes, and to all the Leuites, according to their number.
20 And of this maner did Hezekia throughout all Juda: & wrought it that is good, and right and true before the Lorde his God.
21 And in al the workes that he began, for seruice of the house of God, for the lawe, & for the commaundementes, he sought his God: and that did he with all his heart, and prospered. D

The. xxxii. Chapter.

5 And Hezekia went to lustyly, and buylt vp the wall where it was broken, and made ordinaunce vpon the towres, and to the other wall without, and repaired Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many dartes and shieldes.
6 And he set captaynes of warre ouer the people, and gathered them together to him in the large streete of the gate of the citie, and spake gentylly to them, saying:

his people out of my hande? And shall your God be able to deliuer you out of my hande?
15 Wherfore nowe let not Hezekia deceaue you, nor persuade you of this fassion, nor nations and kingdomes, was able to rid his people out of my hand and out of the hand of my fathers: Howe much lesse shall your gods be able to kepe you out of my hande?

16 And yet moo thinges did his seruauntes speake against the Lorde God, and against his seruaunt Hezekia.
17 And Semacherib also wrote a letter to raile on the Lord God of Israel, and spake against him, saying: As the gods of the nations of other landes haue not ben able to deliuer their people out of my hande: euen so shal not the God of Heze-

18 And they cried with a loude voyce in the Jewes speach vnto the people of Hierusalem that were on the wall, to feare them, and to make them faynt hearted, and that they might so take the citie.
19 And they spake against the God of Hierusalem, as against the gods of the naworkes of the handes of men.

20 But Hezekia the king, and the prophet that blasphemie, and cried vp to heauen.

king of the Assyrians, that he turned his face againe with shame toward his owne lande: *And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came

22 And so the Lorde saued Hezekia and the inhabiters of Hierusalem out of the hand of Semacherib the king of the Assyrians, and from the hande of all other, and mayntayned them on euery side.
23 And many brought offeringes vnto the for his heart arose, ℣ there came wrath vpon hym, and vpon Juda and Hieru-salem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekia submitted him selfe after that his heart was risen vp, he and the inhabiters of Hierusalem:
and the wrath of the Lorde came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezekia.
27 And Hezekia had exceeding much riches and honour: And he gat him treasures of siluer and gold, pretious stones, pleasaunt iewels:

had geuen him substaunce exceeding

30 This same Hezekia stopped the vpper water springes of (c) Gihon, and brought them downe to the West side of the citie of Dauid: And Hezekia prospered in all his workes.

lande, God left him, *to (d) trye him, and

3 For he went to, and buylt the high places *which Hezekia his father had broken downe: And he reared vp aulters for Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the hoast of heauen, and serued them.

4 And he buylt aulters in the house of the Lorde, where as the Lord yet had sayd, *In Hierusalē shal my name be for euer.

5 And he buylded aulters for all the hoast of heauen, in the two courtes of ỹ house of the Lorde.

6 And he burnt his children in fire in the valley of the sonne of Hinnon: He was a sorcerer, he regarded the crying of birdes, vsed inchauntmentes, and maynteyned workers with spirites and fears of fortunes, and wrought much euyll in the sight of the Lorde to anger hym withall.

7 And he put the carued image and an idol which he had made, in the house of God: Of which house, God had sayd to Dauid and to Solomon his sonne, In this house and in Hierusalem which I haue chosen afore all the tribes of Israel* will I put my name for euer.

8 Neither will I make the foote of Israel to remoue any more out of the land which I haue ordeyned for your fathers, yf so be that they wil be diligent and do all that I haue commaunded them in all the law and statutes, and ordinaunces by the hande of Moyses.

9 And so Manasse made Juda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem to erre, and to do worse then the heathen whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the Lord spake *to Manasse and to his people: but they would not regarde.

11 Wherfore the Lord brought vpon them the captaynes of the hoast of the king of the Assyrians, which toke Manasse in holde, and bounde him with chaynes, and caried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in tribulation, he besought the Lord his God, and humbled him selfe exceedingly before the God of his fathers, 13 And made intercession to him: and God was *intreated of him, and hearde his prayer, and brought him againe to Hierusalem into his kingdome: and then Manasse knewe that the Lorde was God.

14 After this he buylt a wall without the citie of Dauid on the west side of Gion, in the valley, as they came to the fishe gate, and round about Ophel, & brought it vp of a very great heyght, and put captaynes of warre in all the strong cities of Juda.

15 And he toke away straunge gods and images out of the house of God, and *all the aulters that he had buylt in the mount of the house of God and Hierusalem, and cast them out of the citie.

16 And he prepared the aulter of the Lord, and sacrifised thereon peace offeringes and thanke offeringes, and charged Juda to serue the Lorde God of Israel.

17 Neuertheles, the people dyd offer stil in the high places, howbeit vnto the Lorde their God only.

18 The rest of the actes of Manasse, and his prayer vnto his God, & the wordes of the seers that spake to him in the name of the Lorde God of Israel, behold they are written in the sayinges of the kinges of Israel.

19 And his prayer, and howe that he was hearde, and all his sinnes, and his trespasse, and the places where he made high places and set vp groues and images before he was meekened, behold they are written among the sayinges of the seers.

21 Go and enquire of the Lord for me and for them that are left in Israel and Juda, concerning the wordes of the booke that is founde: For great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen vpon vs, because our fathers haue not kept the worde of the Lorde, to do after all that is written in this booke.

22 And Helkia and they that the king had [appointed] went to Hulda a prophetisse, the wyfe of Sallum, the sonne of Thecuath, the sonne of Hasra, keper of the wardrope (for she dwelt in Hierusalem within the seconde wall:) & so they communed with her.

23 She answered them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel: Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Euen thus sayth the Lorde: Beholde, I will bring euyll vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters thereof, euen all the curses that are written in the booke which they haue read before the king of Juda:

25 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue offred vnto other gods, to anger me with all maner workes of their handes: therfore is my wrath set on fire against this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Juda which sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shal ye say vnto him: thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, concerning the wordes which thou hast hearde.

27 Because thyne heart did (e) melt, and thou diddest meeke thy selfe before God when thou heardest his wordes against this place, and against the inhabiters thereof, and humbledst thy selfe before me, and tarest thy clothes, and weepedst before me: that haue I heard also, sayth the Lorde.

32 And he set in their roome all them that were founde in Hierusalem and Benjamin: and the inhabiters of Hierusalem did according to the couenaunt of the Lorde God of their fathers.

33 And Josias put away all maner of abhominations out of all landes that pertayned to the children of Israel, and brought in all that were founde in Israel, to worship and to serue the Lorde their God: And they turned not aside from after the Lorde God of their fathers, as long as he liued.

The. xxxv. Chapter.

1 Iosia kepeth the passouer. 2 He setteth forth gods seruice. 20 He fighteth against the king of Egypt, and dieth. 24 The people bewayle him.

1 AND Iosia helde* the feast of passouer vnto the Lorde in Hierusalem, & they slue passouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth.

2 And he set the priestes in their offices, and ayded them in the seruice of the house of the Lorde,

3 And sayd vnto the Leuites that taught all Israel, and were sanctified vnto the Lorde: Put the holy arke in the house whiche Solomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel dyd buylde, it shalbe no more a burden vpon your shoulders: But now serue the Lord your God, and his people Israel:

4 And prepare your selues by your auncient housholdes, and companies, according to the writing of Dauid king of Israel, and the writing of Solomon his sonne:

5 And stand in the holy place, according to the deuision of the auncient housholdes of your brethren the children of the people, and after the deuision of the auncient housholdes of the Leuites:

6 Kill passouer, and sanctifie your selues, & prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the Lord by the hande of Moyses.

7 And Iosia gaue to the people flockes of sheepe and kiddes all for passouer, and for al that were present, thirtie thousande by tale, and three thousande oxen: and these were euen of the kinges substaunce.

8 And his lordes gaue willingly both vnto the people and to the priestes, and vnto the Leuites: Helkia also, Zacharia, and Iehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the priestes for passouer offerynges two thousande and fiue hundred sheepe, and three hundred oxen.

10 And so the seruice was prepared, and the priestes stoode in their places, & the Leuites in their distinct companies, at the kinges commaundement:

11 And they slue passouer, and the priestes sprinkled the blood with their hande, and the Leuites pulled of the skinnes of the beastes.

12 And they set away the burnt offeringes, to geue them vnto the people that were deuided be auncient houses, and that they shoulde offer vnto the Lorde, like *as is written in the booke of Moyses: And so dyd they with the oxen also. Leuit i.a.

13 And *they dressed the passouer with fire, as the maner was: And the other dedicate beastes sodde they in pottes, caldrons, and pannes, and deuided them among all the people. Exod xii.b.

14 And afterward they made redy for them selues and for the priestes: for the priestes the children of Aaron were busied in offring of burnt offringes and the fat vntill night: therfore the Leuites prepared for them selues and for the priestes the sonnes of Aaron. ℂ

15 And the singers the children of Asaph stoode in their standing, *according to the commaundement of Dauid, and Asaph, Heman, and Ieduthun the kinges (b) seer: and the porters wayted at euery gate, and might not depart from their seruice: for their brethren the Leuites prepared for them. *1 Pa. xxv.a. and xxvi.d.

16 And so all the seruice of the Lord was prepared the same day, to offer passouer, and to offer burnt offerynges vpon the aulter of the Lord, according to the commaundement of king Iosia, 17 And the children of Israel that were present, kept the passouer the same time, and the feast of vnleuened bread seuen dayes.

18 And there was no passouer like to that kept in Israel from the dayes of Samuel the prophete, neither did al the kinges of Israel holde such a passouer feast as dyd Iosia, and the priestes and Leuites, and all Iuda and Israel that were present, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

* Or, I come not against thee this day, but against the house of whyche I warre.

22 Nenertheless Josia would not turne his face from hym, *but rather toke aduise to fight With hym, and hearkened not vnto the wordes of Necho out of the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Mageddo.

* Or, changed his apparel to fight with him.

23 And the shooters shot dartes at king Josia: And the king sayde to his seruauntes, Carie me aWay, for I am sore Wounded.

24 His seruauntes therefore had hym out of that charet, and put hym in another charet that they had: And When they had brought hym to Hierusalem, he died, and Was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers: *And all Juda and Hierusalem mourned for Josia. Zacha xiij.

C 14 Moreouer, all the chiefe of the priestes

8 In the ſecond yere of their comming vnto the houſe of God at Hieruſalem in the ſecond moneth, began Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Jeſua the ſonne of Joſedec, and the remnaunt of their brethren, the prieſtes and Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuitie vnto Hieruſalem: and appoynted the Leuites from twentie yeres olde and aboue, to ſee that the worke of the houſe of the Lorde went forwarde.

9 And Jeſua ſtoode with his ſonnes and brethren, and Cadmiel with his ſonnes & the children of Juda together, to ſet forwarde the workmen of the houſe of

God,

God, euen the childrē of Henadad, with their children, and their brethren the Leuites.

10 And when the builders layed the foundation of the temple of the Lorde, they appointed the priestes in their * araye with trumpettes, and the Leuites the children of Asaph with cymbales, to prayse the Lorde † after the maner of Dauid king of Israel.

11 And they sang together when they gaue prayse and thankes vnto the lorde, Because he is gracious, and because his mercie endureth for euer vpon Israel: And all the people shouted loude in praysing the Lorde, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was layd.

12 Many also of the priestes & Leuites and chefe fathers, and auncient men which had seene the first house, when the foundation was layde before their eyes, wept with a loude voyce, and many shouted aloude with ioy:

13 So that the people coulde not discerne the ioyfull sounde & gladnesse, from the noyse of the weeping among the people: for the people shouted with a loude crye, and the noyse was heard farre of.

2 The building of the temple is hindred, and how. 11 Letters to Artaxerxes, and the aunswere.

1 Nit * the aduersaries of Juda and Benamin, heard that the children of the captiuitie builded the temple vnto the Lorde God of Israel:

2 And they came to Zorobabel and to the principall fathers, and saide vnto them: we will builde with you, for we seeke the Lorde your God, as ye do, and we haue done sacrifice vnto him since the time of Asor Haddon the king of Assur* which brought vs vp hither.

3 And Zorobabel, and Jesua, and the other auncient fathers of Israel, sayde vnto them: * It can not be, that you and we together shoulde builde the house vnto our God: for we our selues will builde alone vnto the Lorde our God of Israel, * as Cyrus the king of Persia hath commaunded vs.

4 And it came to passe, that the folke of the lande discouraged the people of Juda, & troubled them as they were building:

5 And hyred counsellers against them, to hinder their deuice as long as Cyrus the king of Persia liued, vntil the raigne of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the raigne of Ahasuerus, euen at the beginning of his raigne, wrote they vnto him a complaynt against the inhabiters of Juda and Hierusalem.

7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes, wrote Mithridath, Tabel, and the other of his counsell, vnto Artaxerxes the king of Persia with faire wordes: And the writing of the letter was in the Syrians speache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians:

8 Rehum the recorder, and Samsai the scribe wrote a letter from Hierusalem to Artaxerxes the king, as it followeth.

9 Then Rehum the recorder, and Samsai the scribe, and other of their company, they of Dina, of Apharsath, of Tharpelat, of * Persia, of Arathe, of Babylon, of Susan, of Deha, of Elan,

10 And other of the people * whom the great & noble Asnappar brought ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are nowe beyond the water, and Cheeneth.

11 This is the copie of the letter that they sent vnto king Artaxerxes: Thy seruauntes, and the men that are nowe beyond the water, and Cheeneth.

12 Be it knowen vnto the king that the Jewes which came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Hierusalem, a citie seditious and froward, and builde the same, and set vp the walles thereof, and lay the foundations.

13 Be it knowen nowe vnto the king, that if this citie be builded, and the walles made vp againe, then shal not they geue toule, tribute, and custome, & the kinges profite shall incurre damage.

14 And nowe in the meane season we haue destroyed the temple, and woulde no longer see the kinges dishonour, therefore sent we out also and certified the king, 18 The letter which ye sent vnto vs, hath ben openly read before me.

19 And I haue commaunded to make search, and it is found that this citie of olde hath made insurrection against kinges, and that rebellion and sedition hath ben committed therein.

20 There haue ben mighty kinges also at Hierusalem, which haue raigned ouer all countreys beyond the Water: and toule, tribute, and custome was geuen vnto them, 21 Geue ye nowe therefore commaundement, that the same men be forbidden, and that the cite be not builded againe, till I haue geuen another commaundement.

22 Take heede now that ye be not negligent to do this: for why should the hurt haue harme therethrough?

23 Nowe when the copie of king Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum & Simsai the scribe, and their companyons, they went vp in all the haste to Hierusalem vnto the Iewes, and forbad them with violence and power.

24 Then ceassed the worke of the house of God at Hierusalem, and continued so vnto the second yere of Darius king of Persia.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

1 Aggeus and Zachari do prophecie. 3 The worke of the temple goeth forward, contrary to the minde of Thathanai. 6 His letters to Darius.

1 THe prophetes Aggeus, and Zacharias the sonne of Iddo, prophecied vnto the Iewes that were in Iuda and Hierusalem in the name of the God of Israel, euē vnto them.

Aggeus.

2 Then gat vp Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iesua the sonne of Iosedec, and began to builde the house of God at Hierusalem: and with them were the prophetes of God, which holped them.

3 At the same time came to them Thathanai which was captaine beyond the water, and Stharbuzanai, and their companions, and saide thus vnto them: who hath commaunded you to builde this house, & to make vp these walles?

4 Then saide we vnto them after this maner: what are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was vpon the elders of the Iewes, that they could not cause them to ceasse, till the matter was brought to Darius: and then they answered by letters thereunto.

6 This is the copie of the letter that Thathanai which was captayne beyond the water, & Stharbuzanai, & the counsaiours of Apharsath which were beyond the water, sent vnto king Darius.

7 And the matter that they sent vnto him, was written thus within the letter: Vnto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it knowen vnto the king that we went into the prouince of Iurie to the house of the great God, which is builded with mighty great stones, and beames are layde in the walles, and the worke goeth fast forth, and prospereth in their handes.

9 Then asked we the elders, and saide vnto them as it followeth: Who commaunded you to builde this house, and to make vp the walles thereof?

10 We asked their names also, that we might certifie thee, and write the names of the men that were their rulers.

11 But they answered vs with these wordes, and saide: We are the seruauntes of him that is God of heauen and earth, and builde the house that was builded of olde and many yeres ago, 12 But after our fathers had prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, * he iii.Re.24 b. gaue them ouer into the hande of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon ✠ of the Chaldees, which brake downe this house, and carted the people away captiue vnto Babylon.

i.Esd.i.a. 13 * But in the first yere of Cyrus the king ℭ of Babylon, the same king Cyrus gaue commaundement concerning this house of God, that it shoulde be built againe.

14 And the vessels of golde and siluer of the house of God which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple that was at Hierusalem, and brought them into the temple at Babylon: those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple at Babylon, * and they were deliuered vnto one Sas- i.Esdra.i.d.

bazar by name, whom he made captaine,

15 And saide vnto him: Take these vessels, and go thy way, and set them in the temple that is at Hierusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sasbazar, and layed the foundation of the house of God which is at Hierusalem: Since that time also vntill nowe hath it ben in building, and yet is it not finished.

17 Now therefore (if it please the king) let there be searche made in the kinges librarie which is there at Babylon, whether it haue ben king Cyrus commaundement that this temple of God at Hierusalem shoulde be builded: and let the king send his minde concerning the same matter.

¶ The .vi. Chapter.

At the commaundement of Darius king of Persia after the temple was builded and dedicate, the children of Israel kepe the feaste of vnleuened bread.

A 1 When cõmaunded king Darius: & they made searche in the librarie, euẽ in the place where they layed vp the treasure at Babylon:

2 And there was found in a coffer in the palace that is in the prouince of the Medes, a volume: and therein was it thus written as a memoriall.

3 In the first yere of king Cyrus, gaue the same king Cyrus commaundement concerning the house of God at Hierusalem, that the same house should be builded in the place where they offer the sacrifices, & to ioyne the walles together of threescore cubites heyght, and threescore cubites breadth.

4 Three rowes of rough stones, and one rowe of newe timber: and the expences shalbe geuen of the kinges house.

5 And let the golde and siluer vessels of the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple at Hierusalem and brought vnto Babylon, be restored, and brought againe vnto the temple at Hierusalem to their place in the house of God.

6 Nowe therefore thou Thathanai captaine beyond the Water, & Stharbuzanai, and your counsailers, and Apherse- chei which are beyond the Water, get ye away from them.

7 Let the worke of the house of this God alone, that the captaine of the Iewes and their elders may builde the house of God in his place. 15

8 I haue commaunded what ye shall do to the elders of Iuda for the building of the house of God, that of the kinges goodes, euen of the tribute beyond the Water, foorthwith expentes be geuen vnto the men, that they be not hindred.

9 And if they haue neede of calues, rammes, and lambes for the burnt offering of the God of heauen, wheate, salte, wine, and oyle, after the custome of the priestes at Hierusalem, let the same be geuen them dayly without any delay:

10 That they may haue to offer sweete sauours vnto the God of heauen, & pray for the kinges lyfe, and for his children.

11 And such a commaundement haue I geuen, that what man soeuer he be that altereth this word, there shall a beame be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shalbe hanged thereon, & his house shalbe made a dounghill for the same thing.

12 And the God that set his name there, destroy all kinges and people that put to their hande to alter and to breake downe downe the house of God which is at Hierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree, that this be done with speede.

13 Then Thathanai the captaine [of the countrey] beyond the Water, & Sthar-buzanai, with their counsailours, according to that which king Darius had sent, so they did speedyly their diligence.

14 And the elders of the Iewes builded, and they prospered through the prophecying of Aggeus the prophete and Zachari the sonne of Iddo, and they builded, and they finished it according to the commaundement of the God of Israel, and after the commaundement of Cyrus and Darius & Artaxerxes, kinges of Persia.

15 And this house was finished the third day of the moneth Adar, euen in the sixt yere of the raigne of king Darius.

16 *And the childrē of Israel, the priestes, the Leuites, and the other children of the captiuitie, helde the dedication of this house of God with ioy:

*In Par. vi. d.

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred oxen, two hūdred rammes, foure hūdred lambes: and for the reconciling of all Israel twelue hee goates, according to the number of the tribes of Israel:

18 And set the priestes in their sundry courses, and the Leuites in their diuers offices, to minister vnto God at Hierusalem, as it is written in the booke of Moyses.

19 And the children of the captiuitie held Passouer vpon the foureteenth day of the first moneth.

20 For the priestes and Leuites were purified all together, & killed Passouer for all the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the priestes, and for themselues. D

21 And the children of Israel which were come againe out of captiuitie, and all such as had seperated them selues vnto them from the filthinesse of the heathen of the lande, to seeke the Lorde God of Israel, did eate,

22 And helde the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with ioy: For the Lorde had made them glad, and turned the heart of the king of Assur vnto them, to strengthen their handes in the worke of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

The .vij. Chapter.

1 By the commaundement of the king, Esdras and his companions come to Hierusalem. 27 He geueth thankes to God.

AFter these thinges, ther was in the raigne of Artaxerxes king of Persia, one Esdras the sonne of Saraia, the sonne of Azaria, the sonne of Helkia,

7 And there went vp certaine of the children of Israel, of the priestes, leuites, singers, porters, and of the Nethinims vnto Hierusalem, in the seuenth yere of king Artaxerxes. B

8 And he came to Hierusalem in the fifth moneth, euen in the seuenth yere of the king.

9 For vpon the first day of the first moneth, began he to go vp from Babylon: and on the first day of the fifth moneth came he to Hierusalem, according to the good hand of his God that was vpon him.

10 For Esdras prepared his heart to seeke the law of the Lorde, and to do it, and to teache the preceptes and iudgementes in Israel.

11 And this is the copie of the letter that king Artaxerxes gaue vnto Esdras the priest, and scribe, which was a writer of the wordes and commaundementes of the Lorde, and of his statutes ouer Israel.

12 Artaxerxes a king of kinges, vnto Esdras

Esdras the priest and scribe of the law of the God of heauen, peace and salutation.

C 13 I haue commaunded that all they of the people of Israel, and of the priestes and Leuites in my realme, which are minded of their owne good wyll to go vp to Hierusalem, go with thee:

14 And therfore art thou sent of the king and of his seuen counsailers, to visite Juda and Hierusalem, according to the law of thy God, which is in thy hande:

15 And that thou shouldest take with thee siluer and golde which the king and his counsailers offer of their owne good wyll vnto the God of Israel, whose habitation is at Hierusalem:

16 And all the siluer and golde that thou canst finde in al the * countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of their owne good wyll, and the priestes geue wyllingly for the house of their God which is at Hierusalem:

* Or, whole kingd.

17 That thou mayst bye diligently with the same money, oxen, rammes, and lambes, with their meate offringes and drinke offringes, & thou shalt offer them vpon the auter of the house of your God which is at Hierusalem.

18 And looke what lyketh thee and thy brethren to do with the remnaunt of the siluer and golde, that do after the wyll of your God.

D 19 And the vessels that are geuen thee for the ministration in the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God at Hierusalem.

20 And whatsoeuer thing more shalbe nedefull for the house of thy God which is necessary for to spend, thou shalt receaue the charges out of the kinges treasure house.

21 I king Artaxerxes haue commaunded all the treasures beyond the water, that loke what soeuer Esdras the priest and scribe in the law of the God of heauen requireth of you, that ye fulfill the same speedylie, 22 Until an hundred talentes of siluer, and till an hundred quarters of Wheate, and till an hundred battes of Wine, and till an hundred * battes of oyle, & salt without measure.

iii.Reg.vii.d

23 Whatsoeuer also is by the commaundement of the God of heauen, let the same be done without any delay for the house of the God of heauen, that he be not wroth against the realme, & against the king and his children.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no authoritie to require taxing and custome and yerely rentes, vpon any of the priestes, leuites, singers, porters, Nethinims, and ministers in the house of his God.

25 And thou Esdras, after the wysdome of thy God that is in thyne hande, set iudges and arbitrers, by my authoritie, to iudge all the people that is beyond the water, euen all such as know the law of thy God: and them that knowe it not, those see that ye teache.

26 And whosoeuer wyll not fulfill the E lawe of thy God, and the kinges lawe, let him haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to be condempned in goodes, or to be put in prison.

27 *Blessed be the Lorde God of our fathers, which so had inspired the kinges heart, to garnishe the house of the Lord that is at Hierusalem:

28 And hath enclined mercie vnto me in the presence of the king and his counsailers, and before all the kinges high estates: And I was comforted euen as the hande of the Lord my God was vpon me, and so gathered I the heades of Israel together, that they might go vp with me.

4 Of the childre of the captaine of Moab, Elioenai

Elioenai the sonne of Zerahia, & with him two hundred men.
5 Of the children of Zechania the sonne of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred men.
6 Of the children of Adin, Ebed the sonne of Jonathan, and with hym fiftie men.
7 Of the children of Elam, Jsai the sonne of Athalia, and with hym seuentie men.
8 Of the children of Saphatia, Zebadia the sonne of Michael, and with hym fourescore men.
9 Of the children of Joab, Obadia the sonne of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eyghteene men.
10 Of the children of Selomith, the sonne of Josephia, and with hym an hundred and threescore men.
11 Of the children of Bebai, Zachari the sonne of Bebai, and with hym twentie and eyght men.
12 Of the children of Asgad, Johanan the sonne of Hakatan, and with hym an hundred and ten men.
13 Of the children of Adonicam that were the last, whose names are these: Eliphelet, Jehiel, and Samaiah, & with them threescore men.
14 Of the children of Bigual, Uthai, and Zabud, & with them seuentie men.
15 And I gathered them together by the water that runneth towarde Ahaua, and there abode we three dayes: And I loked among the people and the priestes, and founde there none of the children of Leui.
16 Then sent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, Semeia, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zacharia, and to Mesullam, the rulers, and to Joiarib and Elnathan, which were men of vnderstanding.
17 And to those gaue I commaundement vnto Iddo the chiefest at Casphia, and I told them what they should say vnto Iddo & to his brethren the Nethinims at Casphia, that they shoulde cause the ministers of the house of our God to come vnto vs.
18 And through the good hande of our God vpon vs, they brought vs a very wyse man from among the children of Moholi the sonne of Leui the sonne of Jsrael, and Sarabia with his sonnes and his brethren, euen eyghteene.
19 And Hasabia and with him Jsai of the children of Merari, with his brethren, and their sonnes, twentie.
20 And of the Nethinims whom Dauid and the princes gaue to minister vnto the Leuites, two hundred and twentie of Nethinims: which al were named by name.
21 And euen there at the water beside Ahaua I proclaymed a fast, that we might humble our selues before our God, and seke of hym a right way for vs, and for our children, and for all our substaunce.
22 For I was ashamed to require of the king souldiers and horsemen, to helpe vs against the enemie in the way: for we had spoken vnto the king, saying: The hande of our God is vpon all them that seke him in goodnesse, & his power and wrath is against all them that forsake hym.
23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this, and he was entreated of vs.
24 And I toke out twelue of the chiefe priestes, Sarabia, and Hasabia, and ten of their brethren with them,
25 And waied them the siluer and golde, and vessels that were appointed for the house of our God, which the king and his counsaylers, and his lordes, and al Jsrael that were there at hand, had geuen together.
26 And I waied vnto their hande sixe hundred and fifte talentes of siluer, and in siluer vessels an hundred talentes, and in golde an hundred talentes:
27 Twentie basons of gold of a thousand drammes, and two costly vessels of good brasse, as cleare as golde.
28 And I sayde vnto them: Ye are consecrate vnto the Lord, like as the vessels are holy also: and the gold and siluer are geuen of a good will vnto the Lord God of your fathers.
29 Watch ye, and kepe them: for ye shall way them downe before the chiefe priestes, and Leuites, and auncient fathers of Jsrael at Hierusalem, in the treasuries of the house of the Lorde.
30 Then toke the priestes and Leuites the waied siluer and golde, and vessels, to bring it to Hierusalem vnto the house of our God.
31 And we brake vp from the water of Ahaua on the twelfth day of the first moneth, to go vnto Hierusalem: and the hande of our God was vpon vs, and deliuered vs from the hande of the enemies, and of such as layed wayte for vs by the way.

32 And we came to Hierusalem, and abode there three dayes.
33 But on the fourth day was the siluer and gold and vessels wayed in the house of our God by the hande of Meremoth the sonne of Vria the priest, and with him was Eleazar the sonne of Phinehes, and with them was Iosabad the sonne of Iesua, and Noadia the sonne of Bennoi the Leuites.
34 According to the number and weyght of euery one, was the wayght all writen vp at the same time.
35 And the children of the captiuitie, which were come out of captiuitie, offred burnt offringes vnto the God of Israel, twelue bullockes for all Israel, nintie and sixe rammes, seuentie and seuen lambes, twelue hee goates for sinne offering) all to the burnt offering of the Lorde.
36 And they deliuered the kinges commission vnto the kinges officers, and to the captaynes that were beyonde the water: And they promoted the people, and the house of God.

The. ix. Chapter.

1 Esdras complaineth on the people that had turned them selues from God, and maried with the gentiles. 5 He prayeth vnto God.

A 1 When these thinges were done, the rulers came to me, and sayde: The people of Israel, and the priestes & Leuites are not separated from the people of the landes, as touching their abhominations: namely of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Iebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

5 And about the euening sacrifice I arose vp from my heauinesse, and rent my clothes and my rayment, and fell vpon my knees, and spread out my handes vnto the Lorde my God,

9 For we were bondmen, and yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercie vnto vs in the sight of the king of Persia, to geue vs lyfe to set vp the house of our God, and to redresse the desolation therof, and to geue vs a wall in Iuda and Hierusalem.
10 And nowe O our God, What shall we say after this: for we haue forsaken thy commaundementes, 12 *Therfore shal ye not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, and their daughters shall ye not take vnto your sonnes, nor seke their peace and wealth for euer: that ye may be strong and *enioy the goodnesse of the lande, and that ye and your children may haue the inheritaunce of it for euermore.

13 And after that all these thinges are come vpon vs because of our euyll deedes and great trespasses, seyng that thou our God hast stayed vs from beyng beneath for our iniquities, and hast geuen vs such deliuerance:

14 Shoulde we returne to breake thy commaundementes, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of these abhominations: Wouldest not thou be angry towardes vs till thou hadst consumed vs, so that there shoulde be no remnaunt, nor any escaping:

15 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remayne yet escaped, as it is to see this day: Beholde also, in thy presence are we in our trespasses, & because of it may we not stande before thee.

1 AND when * Esdras prayed after this maner, and knowledged, wept, and lay before the house of God, there resorted vnto hym out of Israel a very great congregation, of men, and women, and children: and the people wept very sore.

* 1.Esdr 8.g.

2 And Sechania the sonne of Jehiel, one of the children of Elam, answered, and sayde vnto Esdras: We haue trespassed against our God, & haue taken straunge wyues of the people of the lande: Yet nowe there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 For nowe we will make a couenaunt with our God, and put away all the wiues and such as are borne of them, according to the counsel of the Lorde: and we wil be in the "feare of the commaundementes of our God, that we may do according to the lawe.

" Or, and of those that.

4 Get thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we also will be with thee: be of good comfort therfore, and do it.

5 Then rose Esdras, and toke an oth of the chiefe priestes and Leuites, and of all Israel, that they should do according to this worde: And they sware.

6 And Esdras rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the sonne of Eliasib: and when he came thyther, he dyd eate no bread, nor dronke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of the people that had ben in captiuitie.

7 And they caused a proclamation to go throughout Juda & Hierusalem vnto al them of the captiuitie, that they shoulde gather them selues together vnto Hierusalem:

8 And that whosoeuer came not within three dayes, according to the deuice of the rulers and elders, all his substaunce should be forfayted, and he shoul dbe put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie.

9 Then all the men of Juda and Beniamin gathered them selues together vnto Hierusalem within three dayes, euen the twentith day of the nynth moneth: & all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, and trembled, because of this matter, and for the rayne.

10 And Esdras the priest stoode vp, and sayd vnto them: * ye haue transgressed, & haue taken straunge wyues, to make the trespasse of Israel yet more.

* Deute.vii. Iud.iii.a.

11 "Confesse nowe therfore vnto the Lord God of our fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate your selues from the people of the lande, and from the straunge wyues.

" Or, geue glorie.

12 And all the congregation answered, and sayde with a loude voyce: It shalbe so, and we will do as thou hast sayde.

13 But the people are many, and it is a rayny weather, & the people are to faynt to tary without in the streete, neither is this a worke of one day or two: for "we haue offended very sore in this thing.

" Or, for are many that haue offended in this thing.

14 Let our rulers stande therfore in all the congregation, and let al them which haue taken straunge wyues in our cities come at the time appointed, and let the elders of euery citie and their iudges be with them, till the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from vs.

15 Then were appointed Jonathan the sonne of Asahel, and Jahasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter: & Mesullam and Sabathai the Leuites helped them.

13 And after that all these thinges are come vpon vs because of our euyll deedes and great trespasses, seyng that thou our God hast stayed vs from beyng beneath for our iniquities, and hast geuen vs such deliuerance:

14 Shoulde we returne to breake thy commaundementes, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of these abhominations: Wouldest not thou be angry towardes vs till thou hadst consumed vs, so that there shoulde be no remnaunt, nor any escaping:

15 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remayne yet escaped, as it is to see this day: Beholde also, in thy presence are we in our trespasses, & because of it may we not stande before thee.

4 And

4 And when I heard these wordes, I sat downe and wept, and mourned certayne dayes, and fasted and prayed before the God of heauen,

5 And sayde: O Lorde God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, *thou that kepest couenaunt and mercie for them that loue thee & obserue thy commaundementes: Ex xx.a. Deut. vii. b.

6 Let thyne eares hearken I beseche thee, and let thyne eyes be open, that thou mayest heare the prayer of thy seruaunt, Whiche I pray nowe before thee day and night for the children of Israel thy seruauntes, and knowledge the sinnes of the children of Israel which we haue sinned against thee: I and my fathers house haue sinned, 25 7 We haue greeuously sinned against thee, and haue not kept thy commaundementes, statutes, and iudgementes, which thou commaundedst thy seruaunt Moyses.

8 I beseche thee call to remembraunce the worde that thou commaundedst thy seruaunt Moyses, and saydest, Ye will transgresse, and *I will scatter you abrode among the nations: De.xxvii.c

9 But if ye turne vnto me, and kepe my commaundementes, & do them: though ye were cast out vnto the vttermost part of heauen, yet wil I gather you from thence, and will bring you vnto the place that I haue chosen, to set my name there.

10 They are thy seruauntes and thy people, whom thou hast delmered through thy great power, and in thy mighte hande.

11 O Lorde I beseech thee, let thyne eare hearken to the prayer of thy seruaunt, and to the prayer of thy seruauntes, Whose desire is to feare thy name: and let thy seruaunt prosper this day, and graunt him mercie in the sight of this man. For I was the kinges butler.

The. ii. Chapter.

1 After Nehemia had obteyned letters of Artaxerxes, 11 he came to Hierusalem, 17 and buylded the walles.

A 1 IT came to passe, that in the moneth *Nisan in the twentith yere of king Artharerxes, the wine stoode before him: and I toke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the king: And I had not ben before heauy in his presence.

2 And the king sayde vnto me: Why lokest thou so sadly, seyng thou art not sicke? It is nothing els, but that thou art heauy hearted. And I was sore afrayde,

3 And sayde vnto the king, God saue the king for euer: Howe shoulde I not loke sadly, When the citie and place of my fathers burials lye waste, and the gates therof are consumed with fire?

4 And the king sayde vnto me: What is then thy request? I made my prayer also to the God of heauen,

5 And sayd vnto the king: If it please the king, and if thy seruaunt haue founde fauour in thy sight, sende me vnto Juda vnto the citie of my fathers burialles, that I may buylde it.

6 And the king sayd vnto me (the queene his wyfe sitting by him:) Howe long shal thy iourney continue, and when wilt thou come againe? And it pleased the king to sende me, and I set him a time,

7 And sayde vnto the king: If it please 25 the king, let him geue me letters to the captaynes which are beyonde the water, that they may conuay me ouer, till I come into Juda:

8 And letters vnto Asaph the keper of the kinges wood, that he may geue me timber to make beames for the gates of the palace which is harde by the house, and for the walles of the citie, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king gaue me according to the hande of my God which was good vpon me.

9 And when I came to the captaynes beyonde the water, I gaue them the kinges letters: And the king had sent captaynes of the armie and horsemen with me.

10 Sanaballat also the Horonite, and Tobia a seruaunt the Ammonite hearde of it, & it greeued them sore, that there was come a man which sought the wealth of the children of Israel.

11 And I came to Hierusalem, and was there three dayes.

12 And I gat me vp in the night season, and a fewe men with me, neither tolde I any man what God had geuen me in my heart to do at Hierusalem: and there was not one beast with me, saue it that I rode vpon.

13 And I departed in the night by the valley port, before the dragon well, and to the doung port, & consydered the walles of Hierusalem how they were broken downe, and the portes therof consumed with the fire.

14 And I went ouer vnto the well port, and to the kinges conduite, and there was no roome for the beast that was vnder me to passe.

15 Then went I on in the night by the brooke side, and considered the wall, and turned backe, and came home againe by the valley port.

16 And the rulers knewe not whyther I went or what I dyd: neither dyd I as yet tell it vnto the Iewes, to the priestes, to the noble men, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the worke.

17 Afterwarde sayde I vnto them: Ye see the misery that we are in, how Hierusalem lyeth waste, and how the gates therof are burnt with fire: come therefore, and let vs buylde vp the wall of Hierusalem, and that we be no more a rebuke.

18 Then I tolde them of the hand of my God that it was gracious ouer me, and the kinges wordes that he had spoken vnto me: And they sayde, Let vs get vp and buylde. And they strengthed their handes to good.

19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, and Tobia the seruaunt an Ammonite, and Gesem the Arabian hearde it, they laughed vs to scorne, & despised vs, and sayde: What is this that ye do? will ye fall away from the king?

20 Then answered I them, and sayde: The God of heauen, he it is that hath graunted vs prosperite, and we his seruauntes will get vp and buylde: As for you, ye haue no portion, nor right, nor remembraunce in Hierusalem.

The. iii. Chapter.

7 The buylding of Hierusalem is hindred, 15 But God breaketh their enterprise. 17 The Iewes buylde with one hande, and holde their weapon in the other.

A 1 BUt when Sanaballat hearde that we buylded the wall, he was wroth in himselfe, and toke great indignation, and mocked the Iewes:

2 And sayde before his brethren and the souldiers of Samaria: What do these impotent Iewes? Will the heathen suffer them? shall they offer? shal they perfourme it in one day? shal they make the stones whole againe that are brought to dust and brent?

* Or, some they fortifie them selues

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside hym, and sayde: Though they buyld, yet if a foxe go vp, he shall breake downe their stony wall.

4 Heare O thou our God, for we are despised, turne their shame vpon their owne head, & geue them ouer* into despising in the lande of their captiuitie.

*Or, for a Prop.

5 Couer not their wickednesse, and let not their sinne be put out in thy presence: for they haue prouoked the buylders.

6 And so buylded we the wall, and it was ioyned whole together vnto the halfe heyght thereof: And the people were minded to labour.

7 But when Sanaballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Asdodites, heard that the walles of Hierusalem were made vp, & that the breaches began to be stopped, they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all together to come and fight against Hierusalem, and to make an hinderaunce therin.

9 Neuertheless, we made our prayer vnto our God, and set watchmen by them day and night, because of them.

10 And Juda sayde: The strength of the bearers is feeble, and there is yet much more mouter, and we are not able to buylde on the wall.

11 And our aduersaries sayde: They shall not knowe, neither see, till we come in the middes among them, and slay them, and cause the worke to ceasse.

12 But when the Jewes which dwelt beside them, came, they told vs as good as ten times, that in all places where ye go vnto, they are appoynted to fal vpon vs.

13 Therefore set I the people after their kinredes, with their swordes, speares, and bowes, beneath in the lowe places behinde the wall vpon the toppes of the stones.

14 And I loked, and gat me vp, and sayde vnto the chiefe men, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not ye afrayde of them: but* thinke rather vpon the great Lorde whiche ought to be feared, and fight for your brethē, your sonnes, your daughters, your wiues, & your houses. *ii. Esd. i. b. and ix. f.

15 Neuertheless, when our enemies heard that we had gotten worde of it, God brought their counsell to naught: and we turned all againe to the wall, euery one vnto his labour.

16 And from that time forth, the halfe part of the young men dyd the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the speares, shieldes, bowes, and brestplates: and the rulers stoode behinde all the house of Juda.

17 They which buylded on the wall and they that bare burthens, and those that laded them, with one hande did euery one his worke, and with the other helde his weapon.

18 For euery one that buylded had his sword girded by his thigh, and so buylded they: And he that blewe the trumpet was beside me.

19 And

19 And I saide vnto the principall men, to the rulers, and to the other people: The worke is great and large, & We are seperated vpon the wall one farre from another.

D

20 Loke in what place therefore ye heare the noyse of the trumpet, resort ye thither vnto vs, * and our God shall fight for vs:

Exo.xiiij.c.

21 And We wil be labouring in the worke. And the halfe part of them helde their speares from the morning spring, tyll the starres came forth.

22 And at the same time saide I vnto the people: Let euery one with his seruaũt lodge within Hierusalem, that in the night season we may watch, and labour on the day time.

23 As for me and my brethren, my seruauntes, and the men of the watch which followed me, We put neuer of our clothes, saue onely because of the washing.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

1 The people are oppressed and in necessitie. 7 Nehemia remedieth it. 15 He tooke not the portion of others that had ruled before, lest he shoulde greeue the people.

A

1 AND there arose a great complaynt of the people and their wyues a-

2 gainst their brethrē the Iewes.

For there were some that saide, Our sonnes and daughters and We are very many: therefore wyll We take corne for them, that We may eate and liue.

3 Some also there were that saide: Let vs set our landes, vineyardes, and houses to pledge, and take vp corne in the dearth.

4 But some there were that saide: We haue borowed money for the kinges tribute, and that vpon our landes & vineyardes.

5 And now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, and our children as their children: and loe We bring into subiection our sonnes and our daughters as seruauntes, and some of our daughters are subdued vnto bondage alredie, and no strength is there in our handes to redeeme them, and other men haue our landes and vineyardes.

6 And when I heard their complaynt and such wordes, it displeased me sore.

7 And I aduised so in my minde, that I rebuked the counsellers and the rulers, and saide vnto them: Euery one of you layeth great burdens vpon his brother. And I brought a great congregation against them,

8 And saide vnto them: We after our habilitie haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, which were solde vnto the heathen: And wyll you sell your brethrē againe, and shall they be solde vnto vs? Then held they their peace, and coulde finde nothing to answere.

9 And (Nehemia) saide, It is not good that ye do: Ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, because of the rebuke of the heathen that are our enemies?

10 I and my brethren, and my seruauntes, do lende them money and corne: I pray you let vs leaue of this burden.

11 Therefore this same day I pray you see that ye restore them their landes againe, their vineyardes, oliue gardens, and their houses, and remit the hundred parte of the money, of the corne, wine, and oyle that ye haue exacted of them.

12 Then saide they: We wyll restore them againe, & wyll require nothing of them, and wyll do as thou hast spoken. And I called the priestes, and tooke an oth of them that they should do so.

13 And I shooke my lappe and saide: God shake out euery man after the same maner from his house & labour that maintaineth not this worde, euen thus be he shaken out, and voyde. And all the congregation saide, Amen, and praysed the Lorde: And the people did according to this promise.

14 And from the time forth that the king committed vnto me to be captayne of them that were in the lande of Iuda, euen from the twentie yere, vnto the thirtie & two yere of king Artaxerxes, that is twelue yeres, I with my brethrē liued not of such sustinaunce as was geuen to a captayne.

15 For the olde captaynes that were before me, had ben chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread & wine wine, beside fourtene sicles of siluer, yea and their seruauntes had oppressed the people: But so did not I, and that because of the feare of God.

16 * But I laboured also in the worke vpon the wall, and we bought no lande: and all my seruauntes came thyther together vnto the worke.

17 Moreouer, there were at my table an hundred and fiftie of the Iewes and rulers, which came vnto me from among

The .vj. Chapter.

s Nehemia answereth with great wysdome and zeale to his aduersarie. 11 He is not discouraged by the false prophetes.

A 1 AND When Sanaballat, Tobia, and Gesem the Arabian, and the other of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there were no no * gappes therein: (howbeit at the same time had I not hanged the doores vpon the gates,)

* Or, bytwo.

2 Sanaballat and Gesem sent vnto me, saying: Come, that we may meete & take counsel together in the villages that are in the playne of the citie Ono. Neuertheless, they thought to do me euill.

3 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying: I haue a great busines to do, and I can not come downe: why should the worke ceasse, whilest I leaue it and come downe to you:

4 Howbeit, they sent vnto me as good as foure times after the same maner: And I gaue them the same answere.

5 Then sent Sanaballat his seruaunt againe vnto me the fift time, with an open letter in his hande,

6 wherein was written: It is tolde the heathen, and Gesem hath saide it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebel: for the which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayst be their king, according to these wordes:

B 7 And hast ordayned the prophetes to preache of thee at Hierusalem, and to say, He is king of Juda. And now shall this come to the kinges eares: come now therefore, and let vs take our counsell together.

8 And I sent vnto him, saying: There is no such thing done as thou sayest, for thou fainest them out of thyne owne heart.

9 For they were all minded to make vs afrayde, saying, They shall withdrawe their handes from their worke, that it shall not be finished: Nowe therefore strengthen thou my hande.

10 And I came vnto the house of Semaia the sonne of Delaia, the sonne of Mehetabeel, & he had shut him selfe within, and saide: Let vs come together in the house of God, euen vnto the middest of the temple, & shut the doores of the temple, for they will come to slay thee, yea euen in the night will they come to put thee to death).

11 And I saide: should any such man as I flee: Who is, that being as I am, will go into the temple to saue his life: I will not go in.

12 And loe, I perceaued that God hath not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophecie against me: For Tobia and Sanaballat had hired him for money.

13 Therfore was he hyred, that through ℭ feare I should so do, & sinne, that they might haue an euill report of me to lay to my charge.

14 My God, thinke thou vpon Tobia and Sanaballat according vnto these their workes, and on the prophetisse Noadia, and the other prophetes that would haue put me in feare.

15 And the wall was finished on the twentie and fifth day of the moneth Elul, in fiftie and two dayes.

16 And when all our enemies heard thereof, all the heathen that was about vs were afrayd, and their courage fayled them: For they perceaued that this worke came of our God.

17 And

17 And at the same time were there many of the chiefe of Juda whose letters went vnto Tobia, and againe from Tobia vnto them.
18 For there were many in Juda that were sworne vnto him: for he was the sonne in lawe of Sechania, the sonne of Arah, and his sonne Jehonathan had the daughter of Mesullam the sonne of Barachia, 19 And they spake good of him before me, and tolde him my wordes: and Tobia sent letters to put me in feare.

NOw when the wall was builded, I hanged on the * doores also, and the porters, singers, and Leuites, were appointed:
2 And I commaunded my brother Hanani, and Hanania the * ruler of the castle at Hierusalem, (for he was a faithfull man, and feared God more then did many other)
3 And saide vnto them: Let not the gates of Hierusalem be opened vntil the sunne be whot: and while they stand by, let them shut the doores & barre them. And we appointed certaine citezins of Hierusalem to be watchmen, euery one to keepe his watch, and euery one to be ouer against his house.
4 As for the citie, it was large of roome, and great, but the people were fewe therein, and the houses were not builded.

The .viij. Chapter.

2 Esdras gathereth together the people, and readeth to them the law. 12 They reioyce in Israel for the knowledge of the word of God. 15 They keep the feaste of tabernacles or boothes.

1 AND all * the people gathered them selues together as one man, in the streete that was before the Water gate, and they saide vnto Esdras the scribe, that he should fetch * the booke of the law of Moyses, which the Lorde commaunded to Israel.
1. Esd. iii. a.
Deut. xxxi. f.
2 And Esdras the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men & women, and all that could vnderstand did hearken vnto it vpon the first day of the seuenth moneth.
3 And he read therein in the streete that was before the Water gate, from the morning vntill the noone day, before men and women that did hearken to it: and the eares of all the people were inclined vnto the booke of the law.
4 And Esdras the scribe stoode vpon a pulpet of wood which they had made for the preaching, and beside him stoode Mathathia, Sema, & Anaiah, Vriah, Helkia, & Maaseiah, on his right hande: and on his left hand stoode Pedaia, Misael, & Melchia, & Hasum, Hasabadana, Zachari, and Mesullam.
5 And Esdras opened the booke before all the people, (for he stoode aboue al the people:) and when he opened it, all the people stoode vp.
6 And Esdras prayed the Lorde the great God: And all the people answered, Amen, Amē, lifting vp their handes, and bowed them selues and worshipped the Lord, falling downe vpon their faces to the grounde.
7 And Iesua, Bani, Serebiah, Iamin, Accub, Sebbethai, Hodaia, Maasia, Celita, Azariah, Iozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, & the Leuites caused the people to geue heede vnto the law: and the people stoode in their place.
8 And they read in the booke of the lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to vnderstand the reading.
9 And Nehemia which is Athirsatha, and Esdras the priest and scribe, and the Leuites that caused the people to take heede, said vnto al the people, This day is holy vnto the Lorde your God, be not ye sory, and weepe not: For all the people wept when they heard the wordes of the lawe.
10 And he saide vnto them: * Go your way, and eate the fat, and drinke the sweete, and send part vnto them also that haue not prepared for them selues, for this day is holy vnto our Lorde: be not ye sory therefore, for the ioy of the Lorde is your strength.
1. Esd. x g.
11 And the Leuites stilled all the people, and saide: Holde your peace, for the day is holy, be not sad therefore.
12 And all the people went their way to eate, and to drinke, & to sende part vnto other, and to make great mirth, because they had vnderstand the wordes that were declared vnto them.
13 And on the next day were gathered together the chiefe fathers among all the people, and the priestes, and Leuites, vnto Esdras the scribe, that they might vnderstand the wordes of the law. C
14 And they founde written in the lawe * which the Lorde had commaunded by Moyses, that the children of Israel should dwell in boothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth:
Leui. xxiij. f.
15 And that they should cause it to be declared and proclaymed in all their cities, and throughout Hierusalem, saying: Go forth vnto the mount and fetch Olyue braūches, Pine braunches, Myrtel braunches, Palme braunches, & braunches of the thicke tree, to make boothes, as it is Written.
16 And so the people went forth, and fet them themand made them boothes, euery one vpon the roofe of his house, and in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the streete by the water gate, and in the streete of the port of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie, made boothes, & sat vnder the boothes: for since the time of Iosua the sonne of Nun, vnto this day, had not the children of Israel done so: And there was very great gladnesse.

18 And euery day from the first day vnto the last, read Esdras in the booke of the lawe of God: And seuen dayes held they the feaste, and on the eyght day they gathered together, according vnto the maner.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

1 The people repent, and forsake their straunge wyues. 5 The Leuites exhort them to prayse God, 6 declaring his wonders, 26 and their ingratitude, 30 and Gods great mercies toward them.

A 1 N the twentie and fourth day of this moneth, came the children of Israel together againe, with * fasting and sackeclothes, and earth vpon them,

1.u. Esd.ix.a.

2 And they that were of the seede of Israel, were separated from all the straunge children, and stoode & knowledged their sinnes, & the wickednes of their fathers:

3 And stoode vp in their place, & read in the booke of the law of the Lorde their God foure times on the day, and they knowledged and worshipped the Lord their God foure times on the day.

4 Then stoode vp vpon the stayres of the Leuites, Iesua, Bani, Cadmiel, Sabanias, Bunni, Serebiah, Bani, and Chanani, and cryed loude vnto the Lorde their God:

5 And the Leuites, Iesua, and Cadmiel, Bani, and Hasabna, Serebiah, and Hodia, Sebania, and Phathahia, sayde: Stand vp, and prayse the Lorde your God for euer, and let thankes be geuē vnto the name of thy glory, which excelleth all thankes geuing and prayse.

6 Thou art Lorde alone, thou hast made heauen and the heauen of all heauens with all their hoast, the earth and all thinges that are therein, the sea & all that is therin, & thou preseruest them al, & the hoast of heauen worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art, O Lorde, the God that hast chosen Abraham, and broughtest him out of Ur in Chaldea, * and calledst him Abraham:

8 And foundest his heart faithfull before thee, * & madest a couenaunt with him, to geue vnto his seede the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Iebusites, and Gergesites, and hast made good thy wordes: for thou art righteous, Gene.x. d.

9 * And hast considered the miserie of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their complaynt by the red sea:

Exo.iii.d.

10 And shewed tokens and wonders vpon Pharao and all his seruauntes, and on all the people of his lande: For thou knowest that they were presumptuous and cruell against them: and so madest thou thee a name as it is this day.

11 And the [red] sea diddest thou deuide in sunder before them, so that they went through the middest of the sea * drye shod: and their persecuters threwest thou into the deepe, as a stone in the mightie waters:

* Or, on drye lande.

12 And leddest them on the day time in a cloudie piller, and on the night season in a piller of fyre, to shewe them light in the way that they went.

13 * Thou camest downe also vpon mount Sinai, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them right iudgementes, true lawes, good commaundementes and statutes:

C Exo.xix.a.

14 And declaredst vnto them thy holy Sabbath, and commaundedst them precептes, ordinaunces, and lawes, by the hande of Moyses thy seruaunt:

15 And * gauest them bread from heauen when they were hungry, and * broughtest forth water for them out of the rocke when they were thirstye, and promysedst them that they should go in and take possession of the lande ouer which thou haddest lyft vp thyne hand for to geue them.

Exo.xvi.b. Exo.xvii.d.

16 But they and our fathers were proud and and hardnecked, so that they folowed not thy commaundementes:

17 And wouldе not obey, neither were mindeful of the wonders that thou didest for thē: but hardened their neckes, and had in their heades to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: But thou O God of mercies, gracious, and full of compassion, of long suffering, and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not.

18 Moreouer, when they had made them a moulten calfe, and saide. This is thy God that brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and did blasphemies:

19 Yet forsookest thou them not in the wilderneſſe, according to thy great mercies: Exo.xiii.b. And the cloudy piller departed not from them on the day time to leade thē the way, neither the piller of fire in the night season, to shewe them light in the way by which they should go.

20 And thou gauest them thy good spirite to enfourme them, Exo.xvi.d. and withheldest not thy Manna from their mouth, Exo.xvii.d. and gauest them water when they were thirsthe.

21 Fourtie yeres long didst thou feede them in the wildernesse, so that they lacked nothing: Deut. viii.b. their clothes waxed not olde, and their feete swelled not.

22 And thou gauest them kingdomes and nations, and scatteredst them into corners: so they possessed Num.xxi.f. the lande of Sehon and the lande of the king of Hesebon, and the lande of Og king of Basan.

23 And their children multipliedst thou as the starres of heauen, and broughtest them into the lande whereof thou haddest spoken to their fathers, that they should go into it, and haue it in possession.

24 And the children went in, and possessed the lande, Iosue.xi.a. and thou subduedst before them the inhabiters of the lande, euen the Chanaanites, and gauest them into their handes, with their kinges and the people of the lande, that they might do with them what they would.

25 And they wanne their strong cities, and a fat lande, and toke possession of houses that were full of all maner of goodes, welles digged out, vineyards, olive gardens [h], and many fruiteful trees: and they did eate, and were filled, and became fat, and liued in pleasure through thy great goodnesse.

26 Neuertheleſſe, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behinde their backes, and [] slue their prophetes, [] which exhorted them earnestly that they might bring them againe vnto thee, and did great blasphemies. [*] Or, which protested among them to turne them to thee.

27 Therefore thou gauest them ouer into the hand of their enemies that vexed them: And in the time of their trouble when they cryed vnto thee thou heardest them from heauen, and through thy great mercie thou gauest them sauiours which helped them out of the hande of their enemies.

28 But when they came to rest, they turned backe againe to do euill before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hande of their enemies, so that they had the dominion ouer them: And when they conuerted, and cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and many times hast thou deliuered them according to thy great mercie,

29 And [] testifiedst vnto them, that thou mightest bring them againe vnto thy lawe: Notwithstanding, they were proude, and hearkened not vnto thy commaundementes, but sinned [] in thy lawes, [] which if a man do, he shall liue in them: and turned the shoulder away, and were stiffenecked, and would not heare. [] Or, moreouer testified. [*] Or, against thy iudgementes. Leui.xviii.a

30 Yet many yeres diddest thou forbeare them, and [] testifiedst vnto them through thy spirite, euen by the hand of thy prophetes, and yet would they not heare: therefore gauest thou them into the hand of the nations of the landes. [] Or, protestedst. Ff

31 And for thy great mercies sake, thou hast not vtterly consumed them, neither forsaken them: for thou art a gracious and mercifull God.

32 [*] Now therefore our God, thou great God mightie and terrible, thou that kepest couenaunt and mercie, regarde not a litle al the trauaile that hath come vnto vs, and our kinges, our princes, our priestes, our prophetes, and our fathers, and all the people since the time of the kinges of Assur vnto this day. 2.Esd.i.b.

33 And truely thou art iust in al that thou hast brought vpon vs, for thou hast done right: As for vs, we haue ben vngodly,

34 And our kinges, and our princes, our priestes, and our fathers, haue not done thy thy lawe, not regarded thy commaundementes, and thy * earnest exhortations, Wherewith thou hast * exhorted them,

* Or, protestation. * Or, protested vnto them.

35 And they haue not serued thee in their kingdome, and in thy great goodnesse that thou gauest them, and in the large and * plenteous lande which thou gauest before them, and haue not conuerted from their wicked workes.

* Or, fatte.

36 Beholde, We are in bondage this day, and so is the lande that thou gauest vnto our fathers to eate the frutes and goodnesse thereof, beholde there are we bondmen.

37 And great is the increase of it vnto the kinges Whom thou hast set ouer vs because of our sinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodies and cattaile, euen as they wyll them selues: and we are in great trouble.

38 Now because of all this make we a sure couenaunt and write it, & our princes, leuites, and priestes, seale vnto it.

The xii. Chapter.

1 The priestes and Leuites which came with Zorobabel vnto Hierusalem, are numbred. 27 and the wall is dedicated.

A 1 These are the priestes and Leuites that went vp with Zoro-babel the sonne of Sa-lathiel: and with Jesua, Saraia, Jeremia, and Esdras,
2 Amaria, Malluch, Hattus,

These were the heades among the priestes and their brethren in the dayes of Jesua.
8 The Leuites were these: Jesua, Bennui, Cadmiel, Sarebia, Juda, and Ma-thania, which was ouer [the office] of thankesgeuing, he and his brethren. 15 9 Bacbuco, and Hanni, and their brethren, were about them in the watches.
10 Jesua begat Joakim, Joakim also begat Eliasib, and Eliasib begat Joiada:
11 Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Iaddua.
12 In the dayes of Joakim were these the chiefe fathers among the priestes:
vnder Saraia, Maraia: vnder Jere-mi, Hanania:
13 Under Esdras, Mesullam: vnder Ama-ria, Jehoanan:

22 And in the time of Eliasib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jadua, were the chiefe fathers among the Leuites & the priestes written, in the raigne of Darius the Persian.
23 The children of Leui the principall fathers, were written in the cronicles, vntil the time of Jonathan the sonne of Eliasib.
24 And these were the chiefe among the Leuites: Hasabia, Serebia, and Jesua the sonne of Cadmiel, and their brethren "in their presence, to geue prayse and thankes, according as Dauid the man of God had ordeyned it, one watch ouer against another.
25 Mathania, Bacbukia, Obadia, Mesullam, Talmon, and Accub, were porters "in the watch at the thresholdes of the gates.
26 These were in the dayes of Joiakim the sonne of Jesua, the sonne of Josedec, and in the dayes of Nehemia the captayne, & of the priest Esdras the scribe.
27 And in the dedication of the wall at Hierusalem they sought the Leuites out of all their places, that they might be brought to Hierusalem, to kepe the dedication and gladnesse with thankesgeuinges, & singing, with cymbales, "psalteries, and harpes.
E 28 And the children of the singers gathered them selues together from euery side, out of the playne countrey about Hierusalem, and from the villages of Nethophathi, 29 From the house of Gilgal, and out of the countreys of Geba, and Asmaueth: for the singers had buylded them villages round about Hierusalem.
30 And the priestes and Leuites were purified, & clensed the people, & the gates, and the wall.
31 And I brought the princes of Juda vpon the wall, and appointed two great quyers of men to geue thankes, whiche went on the right hande of the wall towarde the doung gate.
32 And after them went Hosaia, and halfe of the princes of Juda, 33 And Asaria, Esdras, and Mesuliam,
34 Juda, Beniamin, Semeia, & Jeremi,
35 And certayne of the priestes children, with trumpettes: namely Zacharie the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Semeia, the sonne of Mathania, the sonne of Michaia, the sonne of Zaccur, the sonne of Asaph),
36 And his brethren, Semeia, Asarael, Melalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathanael, and Juda, and Hanani, with the musicall instrumentes of Dauid the man of God: And Esdras the scribe went before them. F
37 And beside the Wel gate, they went vp ouer against them vpon the steppes of the citie of Dauid at the going vp of the wall, beyonde the house of Dauid, vnto the Water gate eastwarde.
38 The other quyer of them that gaue thankes went ouer against them, and I after them, and the halfe part of the people vpon the wall beyond the fornace gate, vntill the brode wall, 39 And beyonde the port of Ephraim, and beyonde the old gate, beyonde the fishe gate, and the towre of Hananeel, & the towre of Mea, euen vnto the sheepe gate and they stoode still in the "prison gate.
40 And so stoode the two quyers of them that gaue thankes in the house of God, and I, & the halfe of the rulers with me.
41 And the priestes, namely Eliakim, Maasia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elionai, Zachari, & Hanania, with trumpettes:
42 And Maasia, Semeia, Eleasar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Melchiah, Elam, & Ezer: And the singers sange loude, hauing Jesrahiah for their ouersear.
43 And the same day they offered great sacrifices, and reioyced: for God had geuen them great gladnesse, so that both the wiues & children were ioyfull, & the mirth of Hierusalē was heard farre of. G
44 At the same time were the men appointed ouer the treasure houses, Wherin were the heaue offeringes, the firstlinges, and the tythes, that they shoulde gather them out of the fieldes about the cities, to distribute them vnto the priestes and Leuites according to the lawe: for Juda was glad of the priestes and Leuites that serued.

" Or, Aboue them.

" Or, Keping the ward.

45 And there stoode and wayted vpon the office of their God, whiche is a pure office, both the singers and porters, after the commaundement of Dauid, and of Solomon his sonne:

1. Par. 23. 46 *For in the time of Dauid and Asaph, of olde were the chiefe singers ordained, & the songes of prayse and thankesgeuing vnto God.

47 In the time of Zorobabel and Nehemia, did all they of Israel geue portions vnto the singers and porters euery day his portion: and they gaue tythes vnto the Leuites, & the Leuites gaue tythes againe vnto the children of Aaron.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1 The lawe is read. 3 They separate from them all straungers. 15 Nehemia reproueth them that breake the Sabbath. 30 An ordinaunce to serue God.

AND that day dyd they read in the booke of Moyses in the audience of the people, and therein was founde written, *that the Ammonites, & Moabites shoulde neuer come into the congregation of God,

Deu. 23. a.

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and water, *but hired Balaam against them that he should curse them: and our God turned the curse into a blessing.

Neh. 13. a.

3 Nowe when they had hearde the law, they separated from Israel euery one that had mixt hym selfe therin.

4 And before this had the priest Eliasib the ouersight of the treasurie of the house of our God, and he was kynsman vnto Tobia,

5 And had made hym a great chamber, and there had they afore time layed the offrynges, frankincence, vessels, and the tythes of corne, wine, and oyle according to the commaundementes geuen to the Leuites, singers and porters, and the heaue offrynges of the priestes.

6 But in all this time was not I at Hierusalem: for in the two and thirtie yere of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, came I vnto the king, & after certayne dayes obtayned I licence of the king to come to Hierusalem.

7 And I gat knowledge of the euyll that Eliasib dyd for Tobia, in that he had made hym a chamber in the court of the house of God,

8 And it greeued me sore: therefore I cast foorth all the vessels of the house of Tobia out of the chamber:

9 And commaunded them to clense the chambers, and thyther brought I againe the vessels of the house of God, with the meate offrung, and the incense.

10 And I perceaued that the portions of the Leuites had not ben geuen them, and that euery one was fled to his land, euen the Leuites and singers that executed the worke.

11 Then reproued I the rulers, and sayd: Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Juda the tythes of corne, and wine, and oyle, vnto the treasure.

13 And I made treasures ouer the treasure, euen Selemiah the priest, and Sadoc the scribe, and of the Leuites, Phadaia: and vnder their hand was Hanan the sonne of Zacur, the sonne of Mathania: for they were counted faythful, and their office was to distribute [the portions] vnto their brethren.

14 Thinke vpon me O my God herein, and wype not out my *mercie that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the offices therof.

* Or, kindnesse.

15 And the same time sawe I in Juda some treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheues, and which laded asses also with wine, grapes, and figges, and all burthens, and brought them into Hierusalem vpon the Sabbath day: And I rebuked them earnestly the same day that they solde the victayles.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish and all maner of ware, and solde on the Sabbath vnto the childrē of Juda, euen in Hierusalem.

17 Then reproued I the rulers in Juda, & sayd vnto them: What euyl thing is this that ye do, & breake the Sabbath day?

18 Dyd not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? And ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the Sabbath?

19 And

19 And when the portes of Hierusalem began to be darke in the euening before the Sabbath, I commaunded to shut the gates, and charged that they should not be opened till after the Sabbath: and some of my seruauntes set I at the gates, that there shoulde no burthen be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchauntes once or twyse ouer night without Hierusalem with all maner of wares.

D 21 Then reproued I them sore, and sayde vnto them: Why tary ye all night about the wall? If ye do it once againe, I will lay handes vpon you: From that time foorth came they no more on the Sabbath.

22 And I said vnto the Leuites, that they should cleuse them selues, and that they shoulde come and kepe the gates, to hallowe the Sabboth day: Thinke vpon me O my God concerning this also, and spare me, according vnto thy great mercie.

23 In those dayes also sawe I Iewes that maried wyues of Asdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their children spake halfe in the speach of Asdod, and could not speake in the Iewes language, but according to the language of the one people and of the other people.

25 Then I reproued them, and cursed them, and smote certayne men of them, and made them bare: and toke an oth of them by God, Ye shall not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, or for your selues.

26 "Did not Solomon the king of Israel sinne by these thinges? and yet among many heathen was there no king like him, which was deare vnto his God, & God made hym king ouer all Israel: and "yet neuertheless outlandishe women caused him to sinne. "3. Reg xi. 1. "3. Reg xi. 4.

27 Shall we then obey vnto you to do al this great euyll, and to transgresse against our God, and marie straunge wyues?

28 And one of the children of Iehoiada the sonne of Eliasib the hye priest, was the sonne in law of Sanaballat the Horonite: but I chased him from me.

29 O my God, thinke thou vpon them that defile the priesthod, and the couenaunt of the priesthod and of the Leuites.

30 Thus cleused I them from all such as were outlandishe, and appointed the courses of the priestes and Leuites, euery one in his office:

31 And to offer the wood at times appointed, and the first fruites: Thinke thou vpon me O my God for the best.

The booke of Esther.

The first Chapter.

3 King Ahasuerus maketh a royall feast. 10 Wherevnto the queene Vashti will not come.
19 For which cause she is diuorced. 20 The kinges decree touching the preeminence of man.

A 1 IT came to passe that in the dayes of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus whiche raigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred and twentie and seuen prouinces)

2 Euen in those dayes when the king Ahasuerus sate on his seate royall, which was in Susan the chiefe citie:

3 In the third yere of his raigne, he made a feast vnto all his princes & seruauntes: and the mightie men of Persia and Media, the captaynes also and rulers of his countreys were before hym.

4 And he shewed the richesse and glorie of his kingdome, and the glorious worshyp of his greatnesse many dayes long, [euen] an hundred and fourescore dayes.

5 And when these dayes were expired, the king made a feast vnto al the people that were in Susan the chiefe citie, both vnto great & small, seuen dayes long, in the court of the garden by the kinges palace.

6 Where there hanged White, greene, and *yelowe clothes, fastened with cordes of fine silke and purple, in siluer ringes, vpon pillers of marble stones: The †benches also were of golde and siluer made vpon a pauement of ‡greene, white, yelowe, and blacke marble.

7 And they dranke in vessels of gold, and chaunged vessel after vessel, and royal wine in aboundaunce, according to the power of the king.

8 And the drinking was by an order, none might compell: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they shoulde do according to euery mans pleasure.

9 And the queene Vashti made a feast also for the women in the palace of Ahasuerus.

10 And on the seuenth day when the king was merry after the wine, he commaunded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagthan, Zethar, and Charchas, the seuen chamberlayns that did seruice in the presence of king Ahasuerus, 11 To fetch the queene Vashti with the crowne regall into the kinges presence, that he might shewe the people & princes her fairenesse: for she was beautifull.

12 But the queene Vashti would not come at the kinges worde by his chamberlaynes: Then was the king very wroth, and his indignation kindled in hym.

13 And the king spake to the wyse men which knewe the times (for so was the kinges maner towardes all that knewe the lawe and the iudgementes:

14 And the next vnto hym were, Carshena, Sethar, Admata, Tharsis, Mares, Marsena, and Memuchan, the seuen princes of Persia and Media, whiche sawe the kinges face, and sate the first in the kingdome.)

15 What, shall we do vnto the queene Vashti according to the lawe, because she dyd not according to the worde of the king Ahasuerus whiche he commaunded by his chamberlaynes?

16 And Memuchan answered before the king & the princes: The queene Vashti hath not onely done euyll against the king, but also against all the princes, and against all the people that are in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deede of the queene shall come abrode vnto all women, so that they shall despise their husbandes before their eyes, and shall say: The king Ahasuerus commaunded Vashti the queene to be brought in before hym, but she would not come.

18 And

18 And so shal the princesses in Persia and Media say lykewise this day vnto al the kinges princes When they heare of this deede of the queene: thus shal there arise to much despitefulnesse and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a commaundement from hym, and let it be written according to the lawes of the Persians and Medians, and not to be transgressed, that Vasthi come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the king geue her royal estate vnto an other that is better then she.

20 And when this commaundement of the king which shalbe made, is published throughout all his empire whiche is great, all women shall holde their husbandes in honour both among great and small.

21 This saying pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the worde of Memucan.

22 For he sent letters forth into all the kinges prouinces, into euery lande according to the writing therof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man shoulde be lorde in his owne house: and this to be published after the language of his people.

The. ii. Chapter.

2 After the queene is put away, certeyne young maydes are brought to the king. 14 Esther pleaseth the king, and is made queene. 21 Mardocheus discloseth vnto the king those that woulde betray hym.

AFter these actes, when the displeasure of king Ahasuerus was nowe * alayed, he thought vpon Vasthi, & what she had done, & what was decreed against her.

* Or, appeased.

2 Then sayde the kinges seruauntes that ministred vnto hym: Let there be faire young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoynt officers in all the prouinces of his empire, that they should bring together al the faire young virgins vnto Susan the head citie to the Womens buylding, vnder the hande of Hegai the kinges chamberlayne that kept the women, to geue them their * apparell:

* Or, things for purification.

4 And that the mayden which pleased the king, should be queene in Vasthis steede. And this pleased the king, and he did so.

5 In the citie of Susan there was a certayne Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus, the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis, a man of Iemini,

6 Which was caryed away from Hierusalem with the captiuite, *when Iekonia the king of Iuda was led away, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caryed thence:

* 2 Reg 24. & Iere. xxiii a

7 And he norished Hadassa (that is Esther) his vncles daughter: for he had neither father nor mother, and she was a faire and beautifull mayden, whom Mardocheus (when her father & mother were dead) receaued for his owne daughter.

8 So when the kinges commaundement and commission was published, and many maydens were brought together into the citie of Susan vnder the hand of Hegai, Esther was brought also vnto the kinges house vnder the hande of Hegai the keper of the women.

9 And the mayden pleased hym, and she founde fauour in his sight: and he caused ornamentes to be geuen her speedyly, and such thinges as belonged to her, and appoynted her seuen comely maydens out of the kinges house, * & fauoured both her and her gentlewomen singularly in the house of the women.

* Or, her thinges for purification.

* Or, and he gaue charge to her and to her maydens, of the best in the house of the women.

10 But Esther shewed not her people and her kinred: for Mardocheus had charged her that she shoulde not tell it.

11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of the womens house, that he might knowe howe Esther did, and what shoulde become of her.

12 And when the appoynted time of euery mayden came that she shoulde go in to the king Ahasuerus, after that she had ben twelue monethes according to the mauer of the women (for so were the dayes of their purification accomplished, sixe monethes with oyle of mirre, and sixe monethes with sweete odoures, and in the purifying of the women:

13 And thus went the maydens vnto the king) whatsoeuer she required, that must be geuen her to go with her out of the womens buylding vnto the kinges palace.

14 In the euening she went, and on the morowe she returned into the seconde house of the women abyding vnder the hande of Saasgaz the kinges chamber-layne, which kept the concubines: And she came in vnto the king no more, except it pleased the king to haue her, and that she were called by name.
15 Nowe when the course came of Esther the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardocheus (which had receaued her as his owne daughter) that she shoulde come in vnto the king, she desired nothing but what Hegai the kinges cham-berlayne the keper of the women saide:
And Esther found fauour in the sight of all them that loked vpon her.
16 And Esther was taken vnto king Ahasuerus into his house royall, in the tenth moneth (which is the moneth Tebeth) in the seuenth yere of his raigne.
17 And the king loued Esther aboue all the women, and she found grace and fa-uour in his sight more then all the vir-gins, so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her queene in steede of Vasthi.
18 And the king made a great feast vnto all his princes and seruauntes, whiche feast was because of Esther, and caused the prouinces to be in quietnesse, & gaue giftes, as became the royaltie of a king.
19 And when the virgins were gathered together the seconde time, Mardocheus sate in the kinges gate.
20 And as yet had not Esther shewed her kinred & her people, according as Mar-docheus had bidden her: for Esther dyd after the worde of Mardocheus, like as if she had ben yet vnder his gouernaunce.
21 At the same time (whyle Mardocheus D sate in the kinges gate) two of ꝑ kinges chamberlaynes, Bigthan and Theres, which kept the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay their handes on the king Ahasuerus:
22 Whereof also Mardocheus gat knowledge, *and tolde it vnto queene Esther, and Esther certified the king therof in Mardocheus name.
23 And when inquisition was made, it was founde so, and they were both hanged on tree: and it was written in the Chronicles before the king.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 Haman after he was exalted, obteined of the king, that all the Iewes shoulde be put to death, because Mardocheus had not done him worship as other had.

AFter these actes, dyd king Ahasuerus promote Haman the sonne of Amadatha the A-gagite, and set hym on hie, and set his seate aboue all the princes that he had with hym.
2 And al the kinges seruauntes that were in the kinges gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman, for the king had so commaunded concerning hym: But Mardocheus bowed not the knee, neither dyd hym reuerence.
3 Then the kinges seruauntes whiche were in the kinges gate, said vnto Mar-docheus: why transgressest thou the kinges commaundement?
4 And though they spake this dayly vnto hym, yet would he not heare them, therfore they tolde Haman, that they might see howe Mardocheus matters would stande, for he had tolde them that he was a Iewe.
5 And when Haman sawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto hym, nor dyd reuerence vnto hym, he was full of indignation,
6 And thought it to litle to lay handes onely on Mardocheus, for they had shewed hym the nation of Mardocheus:
Wherefore he sought to destroy all the Iewes that were throughout the whole empire of Ahasuerus, and that were of the nation of Mardocheus.
7 In the first moneth (that is, the moneth 13 Nisan) in the twelfth yere of king Ahasuerus, they cast Phur, that is a lot, before Haman from day to day, and from moneth to moneth to the twelfth moneth, that is, the moneth Adar.
8 And Haman sayde vnto king Ahasuerus: There is here a people scattred abrode, and dispearsed among all people in all the prouinces of thyne empire, and their lawes are diuers from all people, and do not after the kinges lawes, therefore it is not the kinges profite to suffer them after this maner.

9 If

9 If it please the king, let it be Written that they may be destroyed: and so Will I Waye downe ten thousand talents of siluer by the handes of them that haue the charge of this busines, to bring it vnto the kinges treasurie.

10 And the king toke his ring from his hand, & gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, the Iewes enemie.

11 And the king saide vnto Haman: Let the siluer be thyne, & do With that people as it pleaseth thee.

12 Then Were the kinges scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, & there Was Written according as Haman commaunded vnto all the kinges officers, and to the captaynes that Were ouer euery prouince, and to the rulers of euery people in the countryes on euery side according to the Writing therof, and to euery nation after their language, in the name of king Ahasuerus Was it Written, and sealed With the kinges ring.

13 And the letters Were sent by posts into all the kinges prouinces, to roote out, to kill, and to destroy all Iewes both young and olde, children and women in one day [namely] vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth (which is the moneth Adar) & to spoyle thē as a pray. ℭ

14 This Was the summe of the Writing, that there should be a commaundement geuen in al prouinces, and published vnto all people, that they should be redy against the same day.

15 And the postes went in all the haste according to the kinges commaundement, and in Susan the chiefe citie Was the commaundement deuised: And the king and Haman sate and dranke. When in the meane time the citie of Susan Was disquieted.

¶ The .iiij. Chapter.

5 Mardocheus geueth the queene knowledge of the cruell decree of the king against the Iewes. 16 She Willeth that they pray for her.

A 1 When Mardocheus perceaued all that Was done, he rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth With asshes, and went out into the middest of the citie, and cryed loude and lamentably,

2 And came before the kinges gate: but he might not enter Within the kinges gate, because he had sackcloth on.

3 And in all prouinces, countries, and places, as farre as the kinges Worde & commaundement extented, there Was great lamentatiō among the Iewes, fasting, Weeping, and mourning, and many lay in sackeclothes and in asshes.

4 So Esthers maydens and her chamberlaynes, came and told it her: Then Was the queene exceedingly astoned, and she sent rayment that Mardocheus shoulde put on, and lay the sackcloth from him: But Mardocheus would not take them.

5 Then called Esther Hathach one of the kinges chamberlaines Which stoode before her, and gaue him a commaundement vnto Mardocheus, to know What it Was Wherefore he did so.

6 So Hathach Went foorth to Mardocheus, vnto the streete of the citie Which Was before the kinges gate:

7 And Mardocheus tolde him of al that had come vnto him, & of þ summe of siluer that Haman had promised to Waye downe into the kinges treasurie, because of the Iewes if he would destroy them. ℭ

8 And he gaue him the copie of the kinges commaundement that Was deuised at Susan to destroy them, that he might shewe it vnto Esther, and to speake to her, and charge her that she should go in vnto the king, & make her prayer and supplication vnto him for her people.

9 And When Hathach came in, he tolde Esther the Wordes of Mardocheus.

10 And againe Esther spake vnto Hathach and commaūded him to say vnto Mardocheus:

11 All the kinges seruauntes, & the people in the prouinces of the king know, that Whosoeuer commeth Within the courte vnto the king, Whether it be man or woman, Which is not called, * the cōmaundement is, that the same shall dye, except the king holde out the golden septer vnto him, for then he shall lyue: As for me, I haue not ben called to come in vnto the king now this thirtie dayes. * Or, there is a letter of his.

12 And they certified Mardocheus of Esthers

Esthers wordes.

13 And Mardocheus bad say againe vnto Esther: Thinke not with thy selfe that thou shalt escape in the kinges house more then all the Jewes.

14 For if thou holdest thy peace at this time, then shall the Jewes haue * helpe and deliueraunce out of an other place, and thou and thy fathers house shalbe destroyed: And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdome * for this causes sake?

15 Esther bad them geue Mardocheus this answere:

16 Go thou thy way, and gather together all the Jewes that are founde at Susan, and fast ye for me, that ye eate not and drinke not in three dayes neither day nor night, I and my maydens wyll fast likewyse: and so wyll I go in to the king, which thing yet is contrary to the commaundement: and if I perishe, I perishe.

17 So Mardocheus went his way, and did according to al that Esther had commaunded him.

* Or, because thereof.

* Or, for such a time.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

1 Esther entreth into the king, and biddeth him and Haman to a feaste.
11 Haman prepareth a gallous for Mardocheus.

AND on the third day it came to passe, that Esther put on her royall apparell, and stoode in the court of the kinges palace within, ouer against ỹ kinges house: and the king sat vpon his royall seate in the kinges palace ouer against the gate of the house.

2 And when the king sawe Esther the queene standing in the court, she founde grace in his sight: And the king held out the golden scepter that was in his hand: So Esther stept foorth and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then saide the king vnto her: what wylt thou queene Esther? and what requirest thou? (asme) euen the halfe of the empire, and it shalbe geuen thee.

4 And Esther answered: If it please the king, let the king and Haman come this day vnto the banket that I haue prepared for him.

5 And the king saide: Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath saide. So the king and Haman came to the banket that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king saide vnto Esther at the banket of wine: what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? And what requirest thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empire, it shall be done.

7 Then

7 Then aunswered Esther, and sayd: My petition and desire is,
8 If I haue founde grace in the sight of the kyng, and if it please the kyng to geue me my petition, and to fulfil my request, then let the kyng and Haman come to the banket that I shall prepare for thē:
and so wyl I do to morowe, as the kyng hath sayde.
9 Then went Haman foorth the same day ioyfull and mery in his minde: But when the same Haman sawe Mardocheus in the kinges gate, that he stoode not vp nor moued for him, he was ful of indignation at Mardocheus.
10 Neuertheles, Haman refrained him selfe, and when he came home he sent and called for his frendes and Zares his wyfe.
11 And Haman tolde them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the thinges wherein the kyng had promoted him so greatly, and how that he had set him aboue the princes and seruauntes of the kyng.
12 Haman sayde moreouer: Yea, Esther the queene did let no man come in with the kyng vnto the banket that she had prepared, except me: and to morowe am
I bidden vnto her also with the kyng.
13 But in all this am I not satisfied, as long as I see Mardocheus the Iewe sitting at the kinges gate.
14 Then sayde Zares his wyfe and all his frendes vnto him: Let them make a galous of fifte cubites hie, and to mo-rowe speake thou vnto the kyng that Mardocheus may be hanged thereon:
then go thou in merely with the kyng vnto the banket. And Haman was well content withall, and caused the galous to be made.

The .vi. Chapter.

1 The kyng turneth ouer the chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus, 10 and commaundeth Haman to cause Mardocheus to be had in honour.

IN the same night toulde not the kyng sleepe, and he commaunded to bring " the chronicles and stories: and they were read before the kyng.

" Or, the booke of records and the chronicles.

2 Then it was founde written howe
* Mardocheus had tolde that Bigthana & Theres the kinges two chamberlaynes which kept the " thresholdes, sought to laye handes on kyng Ahasue-rus.

" Or, the entrie.

3 And the kyng sayde: what honour and dignitie hath ben geuen to Mardoche-us therfore? Then sayde the kinges ser-uantes that ministred vnto him: There is nothing at all done for him.

4 And

4 And the king saide: Who is in the court? (for Haman was come into the court without before the kinges house, that he might speake vnto the king to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the kinges seruauntes saide vnto him: Beholde, Haman standeth in the court. And the king saide: let him come in.

6 And when Haman came in, the king saide vnto him: What shalbe done vnto the man whom the king would faine bring vnto worship? (Haman thought in his heart: whom desireth the king to bring vnto worship more then me?)

23 7 And Haman answered the king: Let the man whom the king pleaseth to bring vnto worship, be brought hither,

8 That he may be arayed with the royall garmentes which the king vseth to weare, and the horse that the king rydeth vpon, and that the crowne royall may be set vpon his head:

9 And let this rayment and horse be deliuered vnder the hande of one of the kinges most noble princes, that they may aray the man withal whom the king is disposed to bring to honour, and cary him vpon the horse through the streete of the citie, and proclayme before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king pleaseth to bring to honour.

10 And the king saide to Haman: Make haste, and take as thou hast saide the rayment and the horse, and do euen so vnto Mardocheus the Iewe that sitteth before the kinges gate, and let nothing faile of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then toke Haman the rayment and the horse, and arayed Mardocheus, and brought him on horsebacke through the streete of the citie, and proclaymed before him, Euen this shall it be done vnto the man whom the king is disposed to honour.

12 And Mardocheus came againe to the kinges gate: but Haman gat him home in all the haste mourning, and his head couered, 13 And tolde Zares his wyfe and all his frendes euery thing that had befallen him. Then saide his wise men and Zares his wyfe vnto him: If it be Mardocheus of the seede of the Iewes, before who thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not preuaile against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And whyle they were yet talking with him, came the kinges chamberlaynes, & caused Haman to make hast to come vnto the banket that Esther had prepared.

¶ The. vij. Chapter.

3 The queene biddeth the king and Haman againe, and prayeth for her selfe and her people. 6 She accuseth Haman, and he is hanged on the galous which he had prepared for Mardocheus.

A 1 AND the king and Haman came to banket
2 with the queene Esther.

And the king saide againe vnto Esther on the seconde day at the banket of wine: what is thy petition queene Esther, that it may be geuen thee? And what requirest thou? if it be euen to the halfe of the empire, it shalbe done.

3 And Esther the queene answered, and saide: If I haue found grace in thy sight O king, and if it please the king, then graunt me my lyfe at my desire, and my people for my petitions sake.

4 For we are solde I and my people to be destroyed, to be slaine, and to perishe: And would God that we were solde to be bondmen and bondwomen, then would I holde my tongue: although the enemie coulde not recompence the kinges losse.

5 The king Ahasuerus answered and saide vnto queene Esther: Who is he? And where is he, that dare presume in his minde to do after that maner?

6 And Esther saide: the enemie and aduersarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedingly afrayde before the king and the queene.

7 And the king arose from the banket and from the wine in his displeasure, 25 and went into the palace garden: And Haman stoode vp, and besought queene Esther for his lyfe: for he saw that there was a mischiefe prepared for him of the king kyng aheadie.

8 And when the kyng came againe out of the palace gardē into the place where they dranke wine: Haman had layde him vpon the bed that Esther sate vpon. Then saide the kyng: Wil he force the queene also before me in the house? As soone as that worde went out of the kinges mouth, they couered Hamans face.

9 And Harbona one of the chamberlaynes that stoode before the kyng, said: Beholde, there standeth yet a galous in Hamans house, fifte cubites hye, which he had made for Mardocheus, that spake good for the kyng. Then the kyng saide, hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the galous that he had made for Mardocheus: Then was the kinges wrath pacified.

¶ The .viii. Chapter.

1 After the death of Haman was Mardocheus exalted. 14 Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

A 1 The same day did kyng Ahasuerus geue the house of Haman the Iewes enemie vnto queene Esther, and Mardocheus came before the kyng: for Esther tolde what he was vnto her.

2 And the kyng toke of his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Esther sette Mardocheus ouer the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet more before the kyng, and fel downe at his feete weping, and besought him that he would put away the wickednesse of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had imagined against the Iewes.

4 And the kyng held out the golden scepter toward Esther. Then rose Esther, and stode before the kyng,

5 And saide: if it please the kyng, and if I haue founde grace in his sight, and if it be acceptable before the kyng, and I please him, then let it be writtē, that the letters of the deuise of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may be called againe, which letters he wrote to destroy the Iewes which are in all the kinges prouinces.

6 For how can I suffer and see the euill that shall come vnto my people? or how can I beare and loke vpon the destruction of my kindred?

7 And the kyng Ahasuerus saide vnto queene Esther, and to Mardocheus the Iewe: Beholde, I haue geuen Esther the house of Haman, whom they haue hanged vpon a tree, because he layde hand vpon the Iewes.

8 Write ye also for the Iewes as it lyketh you, in the kinges name, and seale it with the kinges ring: For the writinges that were written in the kinges name, and sealed with the kinges ring, durst no man disanul.

9 Then were the kinges scribes called at the same time, euen in the thirde moneth (that is the moneth Siuan) on the three and twentie day thereof, and it was written according to all as Mardocheus commaūded vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the debuties and captaynes in the prouinces which are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely an hundred twentie and seuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince according to the writing thereof, and vnto euery people after their speach, and to the Iewes according to their writing and language.

10 And he wrote in the kyng Ahasuerus name, & sealed it with the kinges ring, and by postes that rode vpon horses, and swyft young Mules, sent he the writinges,

11 wherin the kyng graunted the Iewes in what cities soeuer they were, to gather themselues together, and to stand for their lyfe, and for to roote out, to slay and to destroy all the power of the people and prouince that woulde trouble them, both children and women, and to spoyle their goodes:

12 Upon one day in all the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus, namely vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is the moneth Adar.

13 The summe of the writing was, how there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in all and euery prouince, and published among all people, and that the Iewes should be redy against that day, to

to auenge them selues on their enemies.
14 And so the postes that rode vpon the swyft Horses and Mules, made haste with all speede to execute the kinges word: and the commaundement was deuised in Susan the chiefe citie.
15 And Mardocheus went out from the king in royall apparell, of [a] yelowe and white, & with a great crowne of golde, being arayed with a garment of [b] silke and purple: and the citie of Susan reioy-sed and was glad.

16 And vnto the Iewes there was come light and gladnesse, ioy and worship.
17 In all prouinces and cities into what places soeuer the kinges word and commaundement reached, there was ioy and mirth, a feaste and good dayes among the Iewes: insomuch, that many of the people in þ lande became Iewes, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

The .ix. Chapter.

1 At the commaundement of the king, the Iewes put their aduersaries to death. 14 The ten sonnes of Haman are hanged. 17 The Iewes kepe a feaste in remembraunce of their deliueraunce.

AT the twelfth moneth (that is the moneth Adar) vpō the thirteenth day of the same, when the kinges worde and commaundement drue neare to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer thē, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them.
2 For then gathered the Iewes together in their cities within all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, to lay hande on such as would do them euill, and no man could withstand them: for the feare of them was come ouer all people.
3 And all the rulers in the prouinces, and princes, and deputies, and officers of the king promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpon them.
4 For Mardocheus was great in the kinges house, & the reporte of him was noysed in all the prouinces: for this man Mardocheus waxed greater and greater.
5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, & did what they would vnto their enemies.
6 And at Susan the chiefe citie slue the Iewes, & destroyed fiue hundred men.
7 And slue Pharsandatha, Dalphon, Aspharha,
8 Phoratha, Adalia, Aridatha,
9 Pharmastha, Arisai, Aridai, and Vazatha, 10 The ten sonnes of Haman the sonne of Hamadata the enemie of the Iewes: but [a] on his goodes they layed no handes.

11 At the same time was the king certified of the number of those that were slaine in the citie of Susan.
12 And the king saide vnto queene Esther: The Iewes haue slaine and destroyed fiue hundred men in the citie of Susan, and the ten sonnes of Haman: What haue they done [thinke thou] in other landes of the king? And what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? or what requirest thou more to be done?
13 Esther answered: If it please the king, let him suffer the Iewes which are in Susan, to morow also to do according vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans ten sonnes vpon the tree.
14 And the king charged to do so: and the decree was deuised at Susan, and they hanged Hamans ten sonnes.
15 For the Iewes that were in Susan gathered them selues together, vpon the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and slue three hundred men at Susan: but on their goodes they layed no handes.
16 As for the other Iewes that were in the kinges prouinces, they came together and stoode for their liues, & had rest from their enemies, & slue of their enemies seuentie and fiue thousand: howbeit they layed no handes on their goodes.
17 [This they did] on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, & on the fourteenth day of the same moneth rested they, which day they held with feasting and gladnesse.
18 But the Iewes that were at Susan came together both on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth: and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and held that day with feasting & gladnesse.

19 And therefore the Jewes that dwelt in the villages and unwalled townes, held the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar with gladnesse and feasting, and kept holy day, and euery one sent presentes vnto his neighbour.

20 And Mardocheus wrote these wordes, and sent letters vnto all the Jewes that were in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, both nie and farre:

21 That they should make a lawe among thē selues, & holde the fourteenth & fifteenth day of the moneth Adar, yerely.

22 As the dayes wherein the Jewes came to rest from their enemies, and as a moneth wherein their paine was turned to ioy, and their sorowe into a ioyful day: and that in those dayes they should make feastes and gladnesse, and one to send giftes vnto another, and to distribute vnto the poore.

23 And the Jewes promised to do as they had begunne, and as Mardocheus had written vnto them:

24 Because Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite all the Jewes enemie, had deuised against the Jewes how he might destroy them, and caused to cast Phur (that is a lot) for to consume them, & to bring them to naught.

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commaunded by letters that his wicked deuice which he imagined against the Jewes, should be turned vpon his owne head, and that he and his sonnes should be hanged on the tree.

26 For the which cause they called these dayes Phurim, because of the name of the lot, and because of all the wordes of this writing, and what they themselues had seene, & what had come vnto them:

27 And the Jewes ordayned, and toke it vpon them and their seede, and vpon all such as toyned themselues vnto them, that they would not misse but obserue these two dayes yerely, according as they were written and appoynted in their season,

28 And that these dayes are to be remembred and to be kept of childers children among al kinredes in all landes and cities: In these dayes of Phurim which are not to be ouerslipt among ỹ Jewes, and the memorial of them ought not to perishe from their seede.

29 And queene Esther the daughter of Abihail & Mardocheus the Jewe, wrote with all authoritie to confirme this second writing of Phurim.

30 And he sent the letters vnto all the Jewes, to the hundred twentie and seuen prouinces of the empire of Ahasuerus, with wordes of peace and trueth:

31 To confirme these dayes of Phurim in their time appoynted, according as Mardocheus the Jewe and Esther the queene had appoynted them: and they bound their soule and their seede to fasting and prayer.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these wordes of Phurim, and was written in the booke.

33 And the king Ahasuerus layed tribute vpon the land, & vpon the iles of the sea.

34 And all the actes of his power and of his might, & the declaration of the dignitie of Mardocheus wherewith the king magnified him, be they not written in the bookes of ỹ chronicles of the kinges of Medes and Persia?

35 For Mardocheus the Jewe, was the second next vnto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethren, as one that seeketh the wealth of his people, and speaketh peaceably for all his seede.

came together both on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth: and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and held that day with feasting & gladnesse.

19 And therefore the Jewes that dwelt in the villages and unwalled townes, held the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar with gladnesse and feasting, and kept holy day, and euery one sent presentes vnto his neighbour.

20 And Mardocheus wrote these wordes, and sent letters vnto all the Jewes that were in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, both nie and farre:

21 That they should make a lawe among thē selues, & holde the fourteenth & fifteenth day of the moneth Adar, yerely.

22 As the dayes wherein the Jewes came to rest from their enemies, and as a moneth wherein their paine was turned to ioy, and their sorowe into a ioyful day: and that in those dayes they should make feastes and gladnesse, and one to send giftes vnto another, and to distribute vnto the poore.

23 And the Jewes promised to do as they had begunne, and as Mardocheus had written vnto them:

24 Because Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite all the Jewes enemie, had deuised against the Jewes how he might destroy them, and caused to cast Phur (that is a lot) for to consume them, & to bring them to naught.

The ende of the booke of Esther.

The booke of Iob.

The first Chapter.

1 The holines, riches, and care of Job for his children. 11 Satan hath permission to tempt him. 13 He tempteth him by taking away his substaunce, and his children. 20 His faith and patience.

(a) Thus is Region neare bordering vpon Idumea, so called of Uz the sonne of Aram for that he built two cities there Uz and Trachonitis, of which Job was a native, because by reading holy Scriptures he had learned to know God.

1 IN the lande of (a) Hus there was a man whose name was (b) Job, & the same was a perfect and iust man, one that feared God and eschued euill.

2 And he had seuen sonnes and three daughters.

3 His "substaunce also was seuen thousand sheepe, and three thousand camels, fiue hundred yoke of oxen, and fiue hundred shee asses, and a very great housholde: so that he was one of the most principall "men among all them of the (c) east [countrey.]

4 And his sonnes went and (d) banquetted in their houses euery one his day, and sent for their three sisters to eate and drinke with them.

5 And when the dayes of their banquetting were gone about, Job sent (e) and sanctified them, and gat vp early and (f) offered for euery one a burnt offring: For Job saide, It may be that my sonnes haue done some offence, & haue ben (g) vnthankfull to God in their hearts. Thus did Job euery day.

6 And vpon a day when the (1) children of God came and stoode before the lord, Satan came also among them.

7 And the Lorde saide vnto Satan (h) whence comest thou? Satan answered the Lorde and saide: (i) From compassing the earth to and fro, & from walking through it.

8 And the Lorde saide vnto Satan: Hast thou not considered my seruaunt Job, how there is none lyke him in the earth? a perfect and a iust man, one that feareth God, and eschueth euill?

9 Satan answered, and saide vnto the Lorde: Doth Job feare God for naught?

10 Hast thou not "preserued him and his house, and al that he hath on euery side? Thou hast blessed the workes of his handes, and his possession is encreased in the lande.

11 But laye thyne hand now vpon him, and touche all that he hath, and he shall (m) curse thee to thy face.

(b) The Ebrue tongue, wherein God, which is sometimes taken for a curse or blasphemie.

(1) In this place not onely Angels, but euery godly person, is taken for gods childe, of which God hath a tender care as a louing father.

(k) God asketh the question, not that he were ignorant, rather from whence he came, but for the wickednes of man.

(i) This is Satans ordinary behauiour, to range abrode as a roring lion, seeking whom he may deuoure.

" Or hedge, made an hedge about him.

(m) The Ebrue is bleste thee, as it is before said, the rule deuise, to curse.

(c) That is he seemed to be sanctified in abstaining frō carnall appetites and shewed how they should behaue them selues holyly and soberly in their banquetting. (g) Herein is Jobs religion and feare of God knowen, & the fatherly care of his children expressed. 12 And

(n) Here is seene that the deuil hath no power at all ouer man, vnlesse God permit him so do.

12 And the Lorde saide vnto Satan: Lo, (n) all that he hath be in thy power, only vpon hym selfe see that thou lay not thine hand. And Satan went forth from the presence of the Lorde.

13 And vpon a certayne day, when his sonnes and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house,

14 There came a messenger vnto Iob, and sayde: The oxen were plowing and the asses feeding beside them:

(o) That is, the Arabians, so called of Sheba the sonne of Ketura, of whom Arabia was named the region of Saba.

15 (o) And the Sabees came violently, and toke them away, yea they haue slayne thy seruauntes with the edge of the sworde: and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and sayde: The fire of God is fallen from heauen, and hath brent vp thy sheepe and seruauntes, and consumed them: and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 And whyle he was yet speaking there came another, and sayde: The Caldees made out their bandes, and fel vpon the camels, and haue caried them away, yea and slayne thy seruauntes with the sworde: and I only am gotten away alone to tell thee.

18 And whyle he was yet speaking there came an other, and sayde: Thy sonnes and thy daughters were eating and drincking wine in their eldest brothers house, 19 And behold there came a mightie great wind from beyond the wildernesse, and smote the foure corners of the house, whiche fell vpon thy children, and they are dead: and I am gotten away alone to tell thee.

(p) Not that he was vnpacient: but he would not haue vsed any reuenge with hys owne hand, whereby he might haue entred into the power of Satan.

20 Then Iob stoode vp, and (p) rent his clothes, & shaued his head, fell downe vpon the ground, worshipped, 21 And sayde: Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, & naked shall I turne thyther againe: The Lorde gaue & the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lorde.

(q) Declaring that all that God doth is iust.

22 In (q) all these thinges dyd Iob not offende, nor charged God foolishly.

The. ii. Chapter.

6 Satan hath permission to afflict Iob. 9 His wyfe tempteth him to forsake God.
11 His three friendes visite hym.

(a) Wherein is conteined as much as before, how the godly and vprighte persone, angels, and all faithfull be chyefly before (b) not but that he deserued plague for his offence: beyng vnder the awe but for that he was reuiued and purified by faith and of the innocencie of Christ, as such punishmentes were profitable for hym and not destruction.

1 AND on a day the (a) children of God came and stoode before the Lorde, and Satan came also among the, and stoode before the Lorde.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan: From whence commest thou? Satan answered the Lorde, and sayde: I haue gone about the lande, walked thorow it.

3 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan: Hast thou not considered my seruaunt Iob: howe there is none like vnto hym in the earth, a perfect and a iust man: one that feareth God, and eschueth euil, & continueth still in his vprightnesse, although thou mouedst me against hym, to (b) destroy him without cause.

(c) Skinne for skinne: that is, a man will offer to ransome the skinne of an other, rather then to venture his owne for as a man to aduenture his goodes to saue his bodye: and as the mariner in tempest will cast out his goodes out of the ship to saue his life:

4 And Satan answered the Lord, and sayde, (c) Skinne for skinne, yea a man will geue al that euer he hath for his life.

5 But lay thyne hande nowe vpon hym, and touch, once his bone and his flesshe, and he shall curse thee to thy face.

6 And the Lord sayde vnto Satan: Lo, he is in thyne hand, but (d) saue his lyfe.

(d) Declaring that in al affliction there are certayne boundes and limites to be beyonde the which Satan can not go.

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lorde, and smote Iob with sore byles, from the sole of his foote vnto his crowne.

8 And he toke a potsharde to scrape hym: and he sat downe among the asshes.

9 Then sayd his wyfe vnto him: (e) Doest thou continue yet in thy perfectnesse? curse God, and dye.

(e) A cruell temptation of an euyl and vngodly wife.

10 But he sayde vnto her, Thou speakest like a foolish woman: shal we (f) receaue good at the hande of God, and not receaue euyll? In all these thinges did not Iob sinne with his lippes.

(f) Teaching that we ought to receyue indeed gladly when he sendeth them & be thankefull, and to be patient when he taketh them againe & not to dispayre.

11 Nowe (g) when Iobs three friendes heard of all the trouble that came vpon him, they came euery one frō his owne place, namely Elyphas the Themanite, Bildad the Suhite, and Zophad the Naamathite: for they were agreed together to come to shewe their compassion vpon him, and to comfort hym.

(g) That is, true friendship whiche biddeth vs stil in aduersitie as in prosperitie and in prosperitie to reioyce with him, so in aduersitie to lament with him.

so would Iob beare the losse of his childrē & substance, euen so he vseth in patience, rather then patiently to suffer his owne flesshe & body to be touched, and therefore sayth the deuil, touch him on his owne flesshe, and thou shalt see that he will to thy face curse thee.

12 So when they lift vp their eyes a farre of, they knew him not: then they cryed and wept, and euery one of them rent his clothes, and sprinckled dust vpon their heades "in the ayre.

13 They sate them downe by him also vpon the grounde seuen dayes & seuen nightes, and none spake a worde vnto him: for they sawe that his greefe was very great.

"Heb. Towardes the heauen.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 Iob complayneth and curseth the day of his byrth. 11 He desireth to dye, as though death were the end of all mans miserie.

AFter (a) this opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his day,

2 And Iob answered, and sayde:

3 Let (b) the day perishe wherin I was borne, (c) and the night in the whiche it was sayd, There is a man childe conceaued.

4 The same day be [turned to] darkenesse, and not regarded of God from aboue, neither let the light shyne vpon it:

5 But let it be stayned with darknesse and the shadowe of death, let the [dimme] cloude fall vpon it, whiche may make it terrible as a most bitter day.

6 Let the darke storme ouercome that night, and let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yere, nor counted in the number of the monethes.

7 Desolate be that night, and without gladnesse.

8 Let them that curse the day, and that be redy to rayse vp mourning, geue it also their curse. (d)

9 Let the starres of that "night be dimme thorowe darknesse of it, let it loke for light, but haue none, (e) neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not vp the doores of my mothers wombe, nor hyd sorowe from myne eyes.

11 Alas why died I not in the birth: why dyd not I perishe assoone as I came out of my mothers wombe:

12 Why set they me vpon their knees: why gaue they me sucke with their brestes:

13 Then should I nowe haue lyen stil, I shoulde haue slept, and ben at rest,

14 Lyke as the kinges and "lordes of the earth, which haue buylded them selues "speciall places,

15 Or as the princes that haue had golde, and their houses full of siluer:

16 Or [why] was not I hyd, as a thing borne out of time, [either] as yong children which neuer sawe the light:

17 There (f) must the wicked ceasse from their tyrannie, and there such as labboured valiauntly be at rest:

18 There the (g) prisoners rest together, they heare no more the voyce of the oppressour:

19 There are small and great, and the seruaunt [is] free from his master.

20 Wherefore is the light geuen to hym that is in miserie: & lyfe vnto them that haue heauy heartes:

21 Whiche long for death and finde it not, though they search more for it than for treasures:

22 Which reioyce exceedingly, and be glad when they can finde the graue,

23 From whom their endes are hyd, and concealed by God:

24 For my sighes come before I eate, and my roringes are powred out like the water:

25 For the thing that (h) I feared is come vpon me, and the thing that I was afrayde of is happened vnto me, 26 Was I not happy? had I not quietnesse? was I not in rest? And nowe commeth such miserie vpon me.

(a) That is, after that seuen dayes were fully finished.

(b) Iob being loth with the flesh, rashly offereth to yeld to it, praising out into these wordes: but as he falleth from the day was the beginning of all their affliction: so the cursed pestilent dayes of the worlde shall be ouerwhelmed, & by farther trouble he should be forced to offende God.

Heb. counsellers.

"Heb desolate.

(c) That is, death to the end and hope from the tyrannie and wickednesse of them.

(d) Here Iob declareth the foresaid plagues to be, counting it a foole in a wyse man, the which [is] strong and valiant prisoners of which cares, their opinion of the light, are comforted by the only end.

(e) That is, aduersitie, whiche hyding in prosperitie he feared.

The

The. iiii. Chapter.

5 Iob is reprehended of impatiencie, 7 and vnrustice, 17 and of the presumption of his owne righteousnes.

Then Eliphas the Themanite answered, & sayde:

2 If we assay to come with thee, wilt thou be discontent? (a) But who can withhold him selfe from speaking?

3 Beholde, thou hast ben an instructer of many, & hast strengthned the (b) weery handes:

4 Thy wordes haue set vp him that was falling, thou hast refreshed the weake knees.

5 But (c) nowe it is come vpon thee, and thou art greeued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Was not thy feare according to thy hope? and the perfectnesse of thy wayes according to thy expectation?

7 Consider I pray thee Who euer perished (d) being an innocent? or when were the godly destroyed?

8 For as I haue proued by experience, they that plow iniquitie & sow wretchednesse, reape the same.

9 With the blast of God they perishe, with the breath of his nostrels are they consumed away.

10 The roring of the lion, and the voyce of the lion, and the teeth of the lions whelpes are pulled out.

11 The (e) lion perisheth for lake of pray, & the lions whelpes are scattered abrode.

12 But (f) whereas a thing was hyd from me, yet myne eare hath receaued a little therof.

13 In the thoughtes and visions of the night when sleepe commeth on men, 14 (g) Feare came vpon me & dread, which made all my bones to shake.

15 The winde passed by before my presence, and made the heeres of my flesh to stande vp.

16 He stoode thereon and I (h) knewe not his face, an image there was before myne eyes, and in the stilnesse heard I a voyce.

17 Shall (i) man be more iust then God? or shall a man be purer then his maker?

18 Beholde, he founde not trueth in his seruauntes, and in (k) his angels there was folly:

19 howe much more in them that dwel in (l) houses of clay, and whose foundation is but dust, which shall be consumed as it were with a moth?

20 They shalbe smitten (m) from the morning vnto the euening: yea they (n) shall perishe for euer, when no man regardeth them.

21 Is not their royaltie gone away with them? they shall dye truely, and not in wysdome.

(a) Because of thy rare affection, and thy impatience

(b) Meaning, thou hast ben a comforter many in their sore, and canst thou not now comfort thy selfe?

(c) In concluding him to be but an hypocrite.

(d) This is Eliphas carnall reason, but innocentes perish not but are afflicted, they are not ouerthrowen but they are exercised, for as is their, yet he preserueth Iob, and so doth he vpon the earth.

(e) That is, though he puts the tyrantes forth, they are compared to him, although such neglecting their office be found in the.

(f) Here Eliphas sheweth the maner of diuine reuelation by the holy ghost, saying that that which he will more declare, is not humayne reason, but as reuealed vnto him from god.

(g) Mans feare commeth with such reuelations from God, to shewe the reuerence and authoritie of them.

(h) This is the description of the winde, not knowing from whence it commeth or whether it will: as Saul also heard a voyce but saw not any man.

(i) This is Eliphas weake argument to proue Iob an euyll man, because God plagued him: or that God affected innocentes carnall reason woulde iudge the creature more iust then the creator, which is blasphemie, for God ofte punisheth the righteous to proue them.

(k) Take for gods children and saints the angels that which is gods and they are altogether imperfect and fraile (I meaning mans body which is nothing but dust and clay.

(m) This expresseth more a sharpe ire and the dangers and miseries in the same (n) meaning by adverbe that death not his owne minister.

The. v. Chapter.

1 Eliphas sheweth the difference betweene the children of God and the wicked. 3 The fall of the wicked. 9 Gods power who destroyeth the wicked, and deliuereth his.

Crye (a) I pray thee, if there be any that will answere thee, & loke thou vpon any of the holy.

2 As for the foolish man, wrathfulnesse killeth him, and enuie slayeth the ignorant.

3 I haue seene my selfe when the (b) foolish was deepe rooted, and (c) sodenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children were without prosperitie, and they were (d) slayne in the gate, and there was no man to deliuer them.

5 His harueft was eaten of the hungrie, & taken from among the thornes, and the (e) thirste drinke vp their labour: It is not the earth that bringeth forth iniquitie,

6 Neither commeth sorowe out of the (f) ground:

7 But man is borne vnto labour, (g) like as the sparkes flee vp [out of the hot coles,]

8 But (h) I woulde aske counsell at the Lorde, and talke with God:

9 Which doth great thinges and vnsearchable, and marueils without number.

10 He geueth rayne vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the streetes, 11 To set vp them that be of lowe degree, and that those which are in heauinesse may be exalted to saluation.

(a) An other argument of Eliphas against Iob, that he can not be godly, for none of the good and godlie men were euer so vexed with so many temptations without cause to comfort our selues, whom the scripture teacheth how he doth correct the iust in mercy to them that are of a contrite heart &c.

(b) Eliphas reprehendeth againe Iob sharply because the same hath happened vnto him that doth fall vpon the earth.

(c) That is, I was persuaded that God had cursed him and all his children, and consequently his prosperitie. (d) That is, by publike iudgement commanded, which was vsed to be done in the gates of townes.

(e) Meaning that it is not of the earth & barrenned ouer it done by any extreme thinges, but only such aduersitie falleth for many offences, whereof he is the author & wherein is the signe of our corrupt nature, euen from the fall of Adam.

(f) If I were in thy case, I would crane helpe of God saith Eliphas.

12 He destroyeth the deuices of the subtyll, so that their handes are not able to perfourme that which they do enterprise.

13 He compasseth the wise in their owne craftinesse, & maketh foolische the counsell of the wicked.

14 They runne into (b) darknesse by fayre day, and grope at the noone day as in the night.

15 But he deliuereth the (1) poore from the swoorde, from their threatninges, and from the violence of the mightie.

16 He is the hope of the poore, & the mouth of the wicked shalbe stopped.

17 Behold, blessed is the man whom God correcteth, therefore refuse not thou the chastening of the almightie:

18 For he maketh a wounde and he healeth: he smiteth, and his hande maketh whole againe.

19 He shall deliuer thee in (c) sixe troubles, & in the seuenth there shall no euil come to thee.

20 In hunger he shall saue thee from death, and when it is warre, from the power of the swoorde.

21 Thou shalt be hyd from the scourge of the tongue, & when destruction commeth thou shalt not neede to feare.

22 In destruction and dearth thou shalt be mery, and shalt not be afrayde of the beastes of the earth.

23 For the (1) stones of the land shalbe confederate with thee, and the beastes of the fielde shalbe at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt knowe that thy dwelling place shalbe in rest, and thou shalt visite thy habitation, & shalt (m) not sinne.

25 Thou shalt see also that thy seede shall be great, and thy posterine as the grasse vpon the earth.

26 Thou shalt come also to thy graue in a full age, like a corne sheafe cut down in due season.

27 Lo, this we our selues haue proued by experience, and euen thus it is: hearken thou to it also, that thou mayest take heede to thy selfe.

(a) That is, in thinges manifest and playne, they want goodly reasons and ground to set. (1) That is, from the crueltie of the wicked which is compared to the swoorde.

(b) Shewing that when we haue God our friend, all creatures of his will serue to our good.

(c) Shalt not be offended at any thing & here foloweth the exceeding great blessinges of god, towarde hym.

(b) Meaning to the sixe dayes of godes first worke, and the seuenth day be reason, meaning that of all thy cares and troubles god will deliuer thee, & bring thee to rest all in the seuenth day.

The.vi. Chapter.

1 Job answereth, that his payne is more greeuous then his fault. 8 He wisheth death. 14 He complayneth of his friendes.

AT Job answered, and sayde:

2 O that my complaynt were (a) truely wayed, and my punishment layde in the balaunces together:

3 For nowe it woulde be heauier then the sande of the sea: and this is the cause, that my wordes fayle me.

4 For the arrowes of the almightie are vpon me, the poyson therof hath dronke vp my spirite, and the terrible (b) feares of God are set against me.

5 Doth the (c) wild asse rore when he hath grasse? or loweth the ore when he hath fodder [inough]

6 That which is vnsauerie, (d) shall it be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the whyte of an egge?

7 The thinges that sometime I might not away withal, are nowe my meate for very sorowe.

8 O that I might haue my desire, and that God woulde graunt me the thing that I long for:

9 O that God would begin and smite me, that he would let his hand go and take me cleane away:

10 Then shoulde I haue some comfort, yea I would desire him in my payne that he would not spare, (e) for I wil not be against the wordes of the holy one.

11 (f) For what power haue I to endure? And what is myne end, "that my soule might be patient?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesshe of brasse?

13 Is it not so that there is in me no helpe? & that my substaunce is taken from me?

14 He that is in tribulation, ought to be comforted of his neyghbour: but the feare of the almightie is cleane away.

15 Myne owne brethren passe ouer by me (g) as the water brooke, & as the ouerflowing of waters, whiche do hastly go away, 16 whiche are blackish be reason of the ice, and wherin the snowe is hyd.

17 which when they haue passed by do vanishe, and when the heate commeth they fayle out of their place.

18 They

(a) Meaning that his troubles are exceding and immeasurable, as the sandes of the sea.

(b) Declaring that he was not offended only bodily, but also pricked in his conscience.

(c) As though he had sayde, I crie not so shortcomingly, seing me other to lie as asse nor the ore do crie when they want not.

(d) Can one beare tribulation more that are vnsauery and vnpleasaunt.

(e) Meaning that he had rather ape, then to breke the wordes of the holy one, that is, then through his impatience, to distrust in godes promise.

(f) Fearing lest he shoulde not be able to beare his afflictions to thende, if they should long continue. "Heb. If I should prolong my lyfe.

(g) For as the brooke ruseth with vehemencie and passeth by the places neere it so they haue obiected me, and ruffled on me with indignation, and nowe haue forsaken me.

(i) Thema was one of the twelue princes of Israel, and inhabited the south part of Arabia, of whom the region was called Thema.

18 They depart from the course of their wonted chanell to other places, they runne in vayne and perishe.
19 They that went to (i) Theman considered them, and they that went to (k) Saba wayted for them.
20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thyther and were ashamed.

(k) Meheba was the sonne of Mesma, of whom Arabia felix was called Saba.

21 Euen such truely are yé, nowe that ye see my miserie ye are afrayde.
22 Did I desire you to bring vnto me, or to geue me any of your substaunce?
23 To deliuer me from the enemies hand, or to saue me from the hande of the tyrauntes?
24 Teache me, and I will hold my tong: and wherin I haue erred, cause me to vnderstande.
25 How strong are the wordes of trueth: and which of you can rebuke or reproue them?
26 Do yé imagine to reproue (l) wordes, that the talke of the afflicted shoulde be as the winde?

(l) Do ye go about by your talkes to make me beleue that I speake fondly, because I am in this miserable state.

27 Ye fall vpon the fatherlesse, and digge a pit to ouerthrowe your owne frende.
28 And therfore be content, (m) loke now vpon me, and I will not lye before your face.

(m) To consider my cause whether I saine or no.

29 Turne I pray you, "be indifferent iudges: turne agayne, and ye shall see myne vnrighteousnesse, whether there be any vnrighteousnes in my tongue, or vayne wordes in my mouth.

"Heb. Let there be none iniquitie.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 Iob sheweth the shortnesse and miserie of mans lyfe.

(a) Meaning that he hath cause to wayte all his time as an hyreling, or bondman.

AIs ther not an appoynted time to man vpon earth? Are not his dayes also like the dayes of an (a) hired seruaunt?
2 For like as a bonde seruaunt desireth the shadowe, and as an hyreling woulde fayne haue the reward of his worke:
3 Euen so haue I laboured whole monethes long in vayne, and many a carefull night haue I tolde.

(b) Declaring his sore paines, in that each howre was tedious, and grieuous vnto him.

4 When I layde me downe to sleepe, I sayde, O when shall I arise? and (b) measuring the euening, I am euen full with tossing to and fro vnto the dawning of the day.

(c) Whereby he sheweth why he was so displeased in that his life was very straunge and horrible.

5 My flesshe (c) is clothed with wormes and dust of the earth: my skinne is wythered and become horrible.
6 My dayes passe ouer more spedyly then a weauers shuttle, and are spent without hope.

(d) That is, seyng my life vanisheth as the wynd, and that there is no returne after death, I will retourne my selfe by expressing the greefes of my burdened minde.

7 (d) O remember that my lyfe is but a winde, and that myne eye shall no more see pleasures:
8 Yea and the eye that hath seene me, shal see me no more: for yet thou (e) fasten thyne eye vpon me, I come to naught.

(e) That is, fasten thy mercifull eyes vpon me, which is to be vnderstand, that I coulde not be rid of Gods chastisement.

9 The cloude is consumed and vanished away: so he that goeth downe to the graue (f) shall come no more vp,
10 Nor turne againe into his house, neither shall his place knowe him any more.

(f) As though he should say to God, I am no straunge creature, able to trouble thy quiet ayre, nor the whale in the sea: but am a poore wretch why then plagest thou me so sore.

11 Therfore (g) I will not spare my mouth, but I will speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bitternesse of my mynde.

(g) That is, I will complayne.

12 Am (h) I a sea or a whale fish, that thou kepest me so in prison?
13 When I say, My bed shal comfort me, I shall haue some refreshing by talking to my selfe vpon my couch:
14 Then fearest thou me (i) with dreames, & makest me so afrayde through visions, 15 That my soule wisheth rather to perishe and die, then my bones to remayne.
16 I can see no remedy, I shall liue no more: (k) O spare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.

(h) Meaning I haue so little time to liue, geue me some rest.

(i) As though Iob had said, there is no cause why thou shouldest extreme vse, or why dost thou not cease to punishe me.

17 What (l) is man that thou doest magnifie him? and that thou settest thy heart vpon him?
18 Thou visitest him early and euery day, euery moment doest thou trie him.
19 Why (m) goest thou not fro me, nor letest me alone, so long till I may swalowe downe my spyttle?

(m) Iob beginneth to growe to repentance.

20 I (n) haue offended, what shall I do vnto the, O thou preseruer of men? Why hast thou set me [as a marke] against thee, so that I am a burden to my selfe?
21 Why doest thou not pardon my trespasses, and take away myne iniquitie? Behold, nowe must I sleepe in the dust, and if thou seekest me to morowe in the morning, (o) I shal not be.

(n) For I shalbe dead.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 Bildad sheweth that Job is a sinner, because God punisheth the wicked, and preserueth the good.

Then answered Bildad the Suhite, & said:
2 Howe long wilt thou talke of such thinges:
howe long shall the wordes of thy mouth be as a mightie winde:
3 Doth God peruert the thing that is lawfull: or doth the almightie destroy the thing that is right:
4 For seyng that (a) thy sonnes sinned against him, did not he send them into the place of their iniquitie:
5 If thou wouldest nowe resorte vnto God betimes, and make thy prayer to the almightie,
6 If thou wouldest liue a pure and godly life: shoulde he not awake vp vnto thee immediatly, and make the habitation of thy righteousnesse prosperous:
7 In so much that wherin so euer thou haddest litle afore, thou shouldest haue nowe great aboundaunce.
8 Enquire I pray thee (b) of the former age, and search diligently among their fathers:
9 (For we are but of (c) yesterday, and consider not that our dayes vpon earth are but a shadowe.)
10 Shall not they shewe thee, and tel thee, yea and gladly confesse the same, and vtter the wordes of their heart:
11 May a (d) rushe be greene without moystnesse: or may the grasse growe without water:
12 No, but whilste it is nowe in his greennesse, though it be not cut downe, yet withereth it before any other hearbe:
13 So are the pathes of al that forget God, and the (e) hypocrites hope shall come to naught.
14 His confidence shalbe destroyed, and his trust shalbe a (f) spiders webbe.
15 He shal leane vpon his house, but it shal not stande: he shall holde him fast by it, yet shall it not endure.
16 It is a greene (tree) (g) before the sunne, & shooteth foorth the braunches ouer his garden.
17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountayne, and are folden about the house of stones.
18 If (h) any plucke it from his place, and it deme, saying, I haue not seene thee:
19 Behold it will reioyce by this meanes, & it may growe in another mould.
20 Beholde, God (i) will not cast away a vertuous man, neither will he (k) helpe the vngodly.
21 Thy mouth shall be full with laughing, and thy lippes with gladnesse.
22 They also that hate thee shalbe clothed with shame, & the dwelling of the vngodly shall come to naught.

(a) Signifying that as a rush without moysture cannot growe, so can not an vngodly man prosper, without repentaunce & reparation with Gods grace.

(c) By Bildad arguyth, Job shoulde be also if he so continue mistrusting & grudging against God as an hypocrite counting him selfe faultles, and not repenting.

(d) Which is spun to cap. and to make him keepe away, wherto is likened the house of the wicked, his riches and his substaunce.

(g) That is, the wicked flourish, till God blame iudgement fall on them.

(h) Til God cause it.

(i) God consyderth, that Job is not vile, but is plagued for his offences, perswading him therfore to repentaunce for God wonlde not thus cast him away if he were iust.

(k) Wil, take the vngodly by the hande.

The. ix. Chapter.

1 Job declareth the mightie power of God, and that mans righteousnes is nothing.

Then (a) answered, and sayde,
1 I knowe it is so of a trueth: For how may a man (compared) vnto God be iustified:
2 If he wil argue with him, he can not answere him (b) one thing of a thousande.
3 He is wyse in heart and mightie in strength: (c) who hath ben fearce against him, and hath prospered:
4 He translateth the mountaynes, or euer they be aware it is he that ouerthrow-
5 eth them in his wrath.
6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pillers therof shake withall.
7 He commaundeth the sunne, and it ryseth not: he closeth vp the starres as vnder a signet.
8 He him selfe alone spreadeth out the heauens, and goeth vpon the "waues of the sea.
9 He maketh the waynes of heauen, (e) the Orion, the seuen starres, and the secret places of the south.
10 He doth great thinges & vnsearcheable, yea and wonders without number.

(a) Answereth to Eliphas and Baldads oblocutions, confessing mans iustice, to be nothing, being compared to God, as Eliphas sayd in the fourth Chap.

(b) That is, he shall not be able to answere one thing for a thousande that God can charge him withal.

(c) Here followeth the mightie power of God, which by hath appeared was such the nesse the more

" Or, heights

(e) These be the names of certayne starres, declaring that the powers of heauen are at his commaundement

11 Lo

(e) Though his wonderous workes be before myne eyes, yet am I not able to comprehend them. (f) Declaring that God doth all things iustly and is vnreprouable in his doynges which no one can controle.

11 Lo, (e) when he goeth by me, I shal not see hym, and when he passeth, I shall not perceaue hym.
12 If he be hasty to take away, who wil make him (f) restore it: or who will say vnto hym, What doest thou?
13 God will not withdraw his anger, and the most mighty helpes do stoupe vnder hym:
14 Howe much lesse shall I answere hym: or howe shoulde I finde out my wordes with hym?
15 For though I were righteous, yet might I not geue him one word againe, but meekely submit my selfe to hym as my iudge.
16 If I had called vpon hym, and he had answered me, (g) yet woulde I not beleue that he hearde my voyce:
17 He troubleth me so with the tempest, and woundeth me out of measure without a cause, 18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternesse.
19 If (men will speake) of strength, lo he is strong: if (men will speake) of iudgement, who shall bring me in to pleade?
20 If I will iustifie my selfe, myne owne mouth shall condemne me: if I will [put forth my selfe for] a perfect man, he shall proue me a wicked doer.
21 For though I be an innocent and my conscience cleare, yet am I weery of my lyfe.
22 This is one poynt, and therefore I sayd, he destroyeth both the perfect and vngodly.
23 And though he slay sodaynly with the scourge, yet will he laugh at the punishment of the innocent.
24 As for the worlde it is geuen ouer into the hande of the wicked, and he shall couer the faces of the iudges therof: if not, where is he, or who is he [that can shewe the contrarie?]
25 My dayes are more swyft then a runner, they are gone & haue seene no good thing.
26 They are passed away as the shippes that be good vnder sayle, & as the eagle that fleeth to the pray.
27 If I say, I will forget my complayning, I will ceasse from my wrath, and comfort my selfe:
28 Then am I afrayde of all my sorowes, for I knowe that thou wilt not iudge me innocent.
29 If I be wicked, why then (h) labour I in vayne?
30 If I washe my selfe with snowe water, and make myne handes neuer so cleane at the well:
31 Yet shalt thou (i) dippe me in the myre, and (k) mine owne clothes shal defile me.
32 For he that I must geue answere vnto, and with whom I go to the lawe, is not a man as I am:
33 Neither is there any dayesman to lay his hande betweene vs.
34 Let hym take his rodde away from me, yea let hym make me no more afrayde of him, 35 And then shall I answere hym without any feare: but because I am not so, I holde me still.

(e) Though he hadde said If I be hitched and shalbe tugged as the vngodly, why tarieth thou so long to iudge me into the grounde why do I spende all this in vaine? (f) Or, plunge me in the pit, (g) Shewing our righteousnes before God to be nothing, but as a defiled cloth.

The. x. Chapter.

1 Iob is weery of his lyfe, and setteth out his tragicall tale before God. 20 He desireth hym to stay his hande. 22 A description of death.

(a) I learne here that all things are sowre & vnsauerie where God is absent from vs. as for example, this Iob who once brake the richest and happiest of all, both wisshe not to liue so forlorne.

(b) That is, in thy secret iudgement do not lay things to my charge.

(c) Whether they helpe the wicked, and leaue me desolate.

(d) That is, art thou ignorant as many and doest thou not knowe how it goeth with me.

(e) That is, changeable, although he knowe hym not the same God that thou wilt seeme to be merciful and good to Iobe.

(f) That is, I can not offende by reason that keepest me lowe in affliction.

1 My (a) soule is cut of though I liue, I will powre out my cõplaynte against my selfe, and will speake out of the very heauinesse of my soule.
2 I will say vnto God: O (b) do not condemne me, but shewe me wherefore thou contendest so with me:
3 Thinkest thou it welldone to oppresse me: to cast me of beyng the workes of thy handes: and to (c) mayntayne the counsell of the vngodly?
4 Hast thou (d) fleshy eyes: or doest thou loke as a man loketh:
5 Or are thy dayes as the dayes of (e) man: and thy yeres as mans yeres:
6 That thou makest such inquisition for my wickednes, and searchest out my sinne:
7 Whereas thou knowest (f) whether I shall do wickedly or no, and that none can deliuer me out of thyne hande.

(g) Here Job declareth gods mercyfulnes towardes his creation.

8 (g) Thy handes haue made me, & fashioned me altogether rounde about, wilt thou then destroy me?
9 Remember I beseech thee that thou madest me as the moulde of the earth, and shalt bring me into dust againe.
10 Hast thou not powred me as it were milke, & turned me to cruddes like cheese?
11 Thou hast couered me with skinne and flesshe, and ioyned me together with bones and sinnowes.
12 Thou hast graunted me life, and done me good: and thy visitation hath preserued my spirite.
13 Thou hast hyd these thinges in thyne heart [yet] I am sure that thou remembrest this thing.
14 If I syd sinne, thou haddest an eye vnto me, and shalt not pronounce me innocent from myne offence.
15 If I haue done wickedly, woe is me therefore: If I haue done righteously, yet (h) dare I not lift vp my head, so full am I of confusion, and see myne owne miserie.
16 And let it increase, hunte me as a lion, & returne and shew thy selfe maruaylous vpon me.
17 Thou bringest freshe "witnesse against me, and thy wrath increasest thou vpon me: diuers and many are the plagues that I am in.
18 Wherfore hast thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had perished, and that no eye had seene me, 19 And that I were as though I had not ben, but brought from the wombe to the graue.
20 Are not my dayes fewe? Let him then leaue of fro me, and let me alone, that I may comfort my selfe a litle, 21 Afore I go thyther from whence I shall not turne againe, euen to the lande of darknesse and shadowe of death:
22 Yea a lande as darke as darknesse it selfe, and into the shadowe of death where is none order, but the light is there as darknesse.

" Or, plagues.

(h) That is, I will walke in myne infirmitie.

The. xi. Chapter.

1 Job is vniustly reprehended of Sophar. 7 God is incomprehensible. 14 He is merciful to the repentaunt. 18 Their assuraunce that liue godlie.

Then aunswered Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde:
2 Shoulde not [he that maketh] many wordes (a) be aunswered? Shoulde he that babbleth much be commended therin?
3 Shoulde thy lies make men holde their peace, and when thou mockest [others] shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast sayde, (b) my doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thyne eyes.
5 But (c) O that God woulde speake, and open his lippes against thee:
6 That he might shewe thee the secretes of wysdome, howe thou hast deserued double according to right: Knowe therfore that God hath forgotten thee for thyne iniquitie.
7 Art thou able to finde out the secretes of God? Or wilt thou attayne to the perfectnesse of the almightie?
8 It is (d) hier then heauen, what art thou able to do? deeper then the hel, how wilt thou then knowe it?
9 The measure of it is longer then the earth, and broder then the sea.
10 Though he turne all thinges vpsyde downe, close them in, gather them together, who will turne hym from his purpose?
11 For it is he that (e) knoweth vayne men, he seeth their wickednesse also, shoulde he not then consider it?
12 Yet vayne man would be wyse, though man [newe] borne is lyke a wilde asses colte.
13 If thou preparedst thyne heart, and liftedst vp thyne handes towarde hym:
14 If thou wouldest put away the wickednes whiche thou hast in hande, so that no vngodlinesse dwell in thy house:
15 Then mightest thou (f) lift vp thy face without shame, & then shouldest thou be sure and haue no neede to feare.
16 Then

(a) For not he that speaketh much, but he that speaketh truely is speaketh well.

(b) Here Sophar layeth to Iobs charge sinnes that are like. (c) Sophar (or rather) about to proue Job to be sinfully plagued.

(d) Job is reproued as though he should repute himself innocent before God (which thing he knewe) not because Gods secret iudgement is vnsearchable.

(e) Not only the outwarde appearance, but euen the verie thoughtes of the heart who shoulde not then a vayne man be afeard to thinke euill much more to doe.

(f) Such are the quiet consciences of those that truely repent & leade godlie

16 Then shouldest thou forget thy miserie, and thinke no more vpon it, then vpon
[n] Or, agt. the waters that runne by.
17 Then should thy [n] lyfe be as cleare as the noone day, thou shouldest shine forth, and be as the morning.
18 Then mightest thou be bolde because there is hope, and take thy rest quietly;
as compassed with a trenche.
1 Then mightest thou lye downe and none to make thee afrayde, yea many one should make sute vnto thee.
20 As for the eyes of the vngodly they shall faile, and they shal not escape: and their hope shalbe sorowe of minde.

The .xij. Chapter.

1 Iob accuseth his frendes of ignorance. 7 He declareth the might and power of God. 17 And how he chaungeth the course of thinges.

1 (a) Nothing is more detestable before God the arrogancie wherewith the three men before named were infected
2 (b) This spake Iob in the spirit of humilitie, or else it was not his owne opinion.
3 (c) As though he should say, no marueile though I be scorned, for euen the godly are mocked.
4 (d) That is, as he that despiseth the light in the night season may soone stumble, so they that enioy the affluence which Chime before gaue, do set to them selues hie waye to their perill.
5 (e) The robbers are in prosperitie, & euil men in abundance, which Iob meaneth by the Arabians that robbed him of his cattle, as before is saide.
6 (f) The Almightie rende, to whom God hath brought in with his hande
7 (g) For euen the cattaile & all creatures do declare gods power, as it is saide, & he heauens declare the glorie of God.
8 (h) For God doth not only create his creatures but also nourisheth, cherisheth & preserueth them still.

SO Iob answered, & saide:
2 Then no doubt ye are the men [a] alone, and wysdome shall perishe with you.
3 [b] But I haue vnderstanding as well as ye, and am not inferior to you: yea who knoweth not these thinges?
4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth vpon God, & he heareth him: [c] The iust & the vpright is laughed to scorne.
5 Being as light [d] despised in the heartes of the riche, and as one redy to fall.
6 The houses of [e] robbers are in wealth and prosperitie, and they that maliciously meddle against God dwell without care, in those thinges that God hath [f] geuen richely with his hande.
7 Aske the cattaile, [g] and they shall enfourme thee: the foules of the ayre, and they shall tell thee.
8 Or the encrease of the earth, and it shall shew thee: or the fishes of the sea, and they shall certifie thee.
9 What is he but he knoweth that the hande of the Lorde made all these?
10 In whose hande is the [h] soule of euery liuing thing, and the breath of all mankinde.
11 Haue not the eares [i] pleasure in hearing? and the mouth in tasting the thing that it eateth?
12 Among [k] olde persons there is wysedome, and in age is vnderstanding.
13 Yea, with [God] is wysdome and strength, it is he that hath counsell and 14 Beholde [l] if he breake downe a thing, who can set it vp againe? yf he shut a thing, who wyll open it?
15 Beholde, if he withholde the waters, they drye vp: yf he let them go, they destroy the earth.
16 With him is strength and wysdome: both the deceaued and he that is deceaued are his.
17 He carieth away the wyse men as it were a spoyle, and bringeth the iudges out of their wittes.
18 He taketh away the subiection of the people from their kinges, and girdeth their loynes with a bonde.
19 He leadeth away the great men into captiuitie, and turneth the mightie vpside downe.
20 He stoppeth the mouth of them that speake trueth, & disapointeth the aged of their reason.
21 He powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the strength of the mightie weake.
22 Loke what lyeth hid in darkenesse he declareth it openly, and the very shadowe of death bringeth he to light.
23 He [both] increaseth the people and destroyeth them, he maketh them to multiplie, and diminisheth them.
24 He taketh away the hearte of them that be heades of ỹ people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in the wildernesse out of the way.
25 They grope in the darke without light, and he maketh them to stacker like a drunken man.

(i) Can not I discerne your wordes as the meate is tryed by the taste, and holsome counsaile by hearing of it. (k) The contrarie is in Iob 32. Iob obiecteth Ca. 9. that though olde men by experience growe wyse, yet it is nothing in respect of gods wysedome.

(l) Here Iob proueth that nothing is comparable to gods power, or can preuaile against it.

The

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

1 Job compareth his knowledge with the experience of his frendes. 16 The penitent shalbe saued, and the hypocrite condempned. 20 He prayeth vnto God that he would not handle him rigorously.

(a) Meaning, I know the power of God aswel as you.

1 LO, (a) all [this] haue I seene with mine eye, heard with mine eare, and vnderstande it.

2 What ye knowe, that same do I know also, neither am I inferior vnto you.

3 Neuertheles, I talke with the almightie, and my desire is to commune with God.

4 As for you, ye are workmaisters of lyes, and (b) vnprofitable physitians altogether.

5 Woulde God ye kept (c) your tongue, for then might ye be taken for wise men.

6 Now heare my (d) reasoning, and ponder the argument of my lippes.

7 Will you speake wickedlie for gods [defence] and talke deceitfully for his [cause?]

8 Will ye accept the person of him? or will ye contende for God?

9 Shall that helpe you when he calleth you to reckening? For as one man mocketh an other, so do ye mocke him.

10 He shall punishe you, and reproue you, if ye do secretly accept any person.

11 Shall not his excellencie make you afrayde? Shall not his terrible feare fall vpon you?

12 Your (e) remembraunce is lyke vnto a sparke, and your bodies lyke the claye.

13 Holde your tongues for my sake, that I also may speake, and my sorowe shalbe the lesse.

14 Wherefore do I (f) beare my flesh in my teeth, and (g) put my soule in myne handes?

15 Lo, though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will reproue myne owne waies in his sight.

16 He shalbe my saluation: for there may no (h) hypocrite come before him.

17 Heare diligently my wordes, and ponder my sayinges with your eares.

18 Beholde, now haue I prepared my iudgement, and knowe that I shalbe founde (i) righteous.

19 What is he that will (k) go to lawe with me? if I now holde my (l) tongue I dye.

20 Neuertheles, (m) graunt me two thinges, and then will I not hide my selfe from thee:

21 Withdrawe thyne hande from me, and let not the fearefull dreade of thee make me afrayde.

22 Then call, and I will answere: or let me speake, and geue me then an answere.

23 How many are my misdeedes and sinnes? let me knowe my transgressions and offences.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thyne enemie?

25 Wilt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro, and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou layest sharply to my charge, and punishest me for the sinnes of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feete also in the stockes, and lokest narowly vnto all my pathes, and makest the (n) print thereof in the heeles of my feete:

28 And I as a rotten thing do consume away, as a garment that is motheaten.

(b) That is, you are vnmeete for my defence, which seeke not the medicine to cure it, but rather to encrease it with your lyes and talke to prouoke me

(c) For the foole holding his peace is counted wise, as Salomon.

(d) Which I shall haue against you for I blame you not in that ye beleeue good power: but because you falsifie a certaine article to be in him, and so of true thinges, pronounce lyes. (e) Which proueth, I go out of it for as the remembrance of the plant shall

* Or, ashes.

(f) That is, sore vexed and tormented, as though I should rent it in pieces with my teeth.

(g) That is, to set my life in great perill & daunger.

(h) Here it appeareth that Job did trust and hope on God would not all perished, discharging him selfe of hypocrisie wherewith they charged him.

(i) That is, not condempned for my sayings as you do reason.

(k) To proue that God plageth me for my sinne offended.

(l) That is, If I kepe silence, all men shall count me guilty, and so condemne me.

(m) That is, graunt that I may be deliuered from two thinges: the one is, thy mercy, the other the affliction, which two maketh me afraide of thy presence.

¶ The. xiiii. Chapter.

1 Job describeth the shortnes and miserie of the lyfe of man. 14 Hope sustaineth the godly. 22 The condition of mans lyfe.

(a) Here Job describeth the miserie of man

(b) This expresseth mans shortnes of lyfe, and the vnstablenes thereof being compared to a flowre to a shadowe, and to the grasse in the fielde.

1 MAn that is (a) borne of woman, hath but a short time to lyue, and is full of miserie.

2 He commeth vp, and is cut downe (b) like a flowre: he fleeth as it were a shadowe, and neuer continueth in one state.

3 Doest thou (c) open thyne eyes vpon such one, and bringest me into thy iudgement?

4 Who can make it cleane that commeth of an vncleane thing? no body.

(c) Meaning that being man is so frayle, he should not handle him so extremely.

5 The

Iob. vii.a. 5 *The dayes of man surely are determined, the number of his monethes are knowen onely vnto thee, thou hast appoynted him his bondes which he can not go beyonde.

6 Go from him, that he may rest vntill his day come which he loketh for, lyke as an hireling doth.

(b) He sheweth mans misserie the more in that he maketh it in worse case then the tree cut downe, whereof there is some hope that he shall spring againe: but man once dead remaineth no more. (c) Iob saith not this as hauing no hope of the resurrection, but as one sore tormented,

7 (b) For if a tree be cut downe, there is some hope yet that it will sproute and shoote foorth the braunches againe.

8 Though the roote of it be waxen olde, and the stocke thereof be dead in the grounde:

9 Yet when it getteth the sent of water, it will budde and bring foorth bowes, lyke as a tree that is planted.

10 (c) But as for man, when he is dead, perished, and consumed away, What becommeth of him?

11 As the waters passe from the sea, and as the flood decayeth and dryeth vp:

12 So man after he is asleepe ryseth not, he shall not wake tyll the heauens be no more, nor rise out of his sleepe.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the graue, & keepe me secret vntyl thy wrath were past, and to appoynt me a time wherein thou mightest remember me.

14 May a dead man lyue againe? All the dayes of my lyfe will I wayte still, till my chaunging shall come.

15 Thou shalt (f) call [me] and I shall answere thee, despise not thou the worke of thyne owne handes.

16 For now thou (g) numbrest all my goinges, and geuest no delay vnto my sinne.

17 Myne iniquitie is sealed vp as it were in a bagge, and thou addest [punishement] vnto my wickednesse.

18 The mountaines fal away at the last, the rockes are remoued out of their place.

19 The waters pearse through the very stones by litle & litle, the floodes wash away the grauell and earth: so shalt thou destroy the hope of man.

20 Thou preuaylest still against him, so that he passeth away: thou chaungest his * estate and puttest him from thee.

21 And whether his children come to worshyp or no, he can not tell: And if they be men of lowe degree, he knoweth not.

22 But while his flesh is vpon him, it must haue sorowe: and his soule shall mourne within him.

(f) Then plagest me now, yet when thou shalt call me vp at domes day, I shall answere thee, for thou art merciful.

(g) That is, thou shalt lose my deedes numbred, & not remember them.

* Or, face.

The xv. Chapter.

1 Eliphaz reprehendeth Iob, because he ascribeth wysdome and pureness to himselfe. 16 He describeth the curse that falleth on the wicked, reckoning Iob to be one of that number.

Then answered Eliphaz the Themanite, and saide:

2 Shall a wyse mans answere be as the winde, and fill a mans belly as it were with the (a) winde of the east?

(a) Words to no effect spoken are likened to the east winde, which dryeth vp the moysture assoone as it falleth: so foolishe wordes beyng spoken perishe assoone as they be spoken.

3 Shall he reproue with a worde that is nothing worth, & speake thynges which can do no good?

4 Surely thou hast cast of feare, and restraynest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth setteth forth thyne owne iniquitie, seeing thou hast chosen the tongue of the craftie.

(b) Eliphaz chargeth Iob vncharitably.

6 (b) Thyne owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thyne owne lippes shape an answere against thee.

(c) That is, art thou so auncient, that all wysdome is in thy heade?

7 (c) Art thou the first man that euer was borne? or wast thou made before the hils?

8 Hast thou heard the secret counsell of God? and doest thou restrayne wysdome to thee?

9 What knowest thou, that we knowe not? And what vnderstandest thou, but we can the same?

10 With vs are both olde and aged men, yea such as haue lyued longer then thy father.

11 Thinkest thou it a small thyng of the consolations of God? with thee is a lying worde.

12 Why doth thyne (b) heart so bewitche thee? And wherefore winckest thou with thyne eyes, 13 That thy minde is so (c) puffe vp against God, and lettest such wordes go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be cleane? and he which is borne of a woman, whereby he might be righteous?

15 Beholde he doth not trust his sainctes, yea

(b) For one hardening in thyne owne conceite.

(c) Or reade, answering him after the measure of his madnesse, and suffering him not the spirite.

yea, the very heauens are not cleane in his sight:

16 How much more then an abhominable and vyle man, Which drincketh Wickednesse like water.

17 I will tel thee, heare me, and I will (f) shewe thee that I haue seene:

18 Which wyse men haue tolde, and haue not hid that which they receaued from theyr fathers:

19 Unto Whom alone the earth was geuē, and no straunger went among them.

20 The (g) vngodly soroweth all the dayes of his lyfe as it were a woman with childe, and the (h) number of a tyrauntes yeres is vnknowen.

21 A feareful sounde is euer in his eares, and when he is in peace, the destroyer shall come vpon him.

22 He beleeueth neuer to be deliuered (i) out of darkenesse: for the swoorde is allwayes before his eyes.

23 He Wandreth abrode for bread where it is, knowing that the (k) day of darkenesse is redie at his hande.

24 Trouble and anguishe wil make him afrayde, and compasse him about, as is a king in the middest of an armie.

25 For he hath stretched out his hande against God, and armed him selfe against the almightie.

26 He runneth proudly vpon him, & with a stiffe necke fighteth he against him.

27 Where as he (l) coūereth his face with fatnesse, and maketh his body well lyking.

28 Therefore shall his dwelling be (m) in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes of stones.

29 He (n) shall not be riche, neither shall his substaunce continue, neither shal the prosperitie thereof be prolonged vpon earth.

30 He shall neuer depart out of darkenesse, the flame (o) shal drye vp his branches, with the blast of ỹ mouth [of God] shall he be taken away.

31 He beleeueth not that he erreth in vanitie, and yet vanitie shalbe his recompence.

32 He shal perishe afore his time be worne out, and his (p) braunche shall not be greene.

33 He shalbe plucked of as an vntimely grape from the vine, and shall let his floure fall as the olyue doth.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shalbe desolate, and the fire shall consume the houses of such as are greedie to receaue giftes.

35 He conceaueth trauaile, and beareth vanitie, and their body bringeth forth disceyte.

(f) That is, abundance of riches hath made him so proude, that he forgetteth God.

(g) That is, he shall haue no certaine & sure place to dwell in.

(h) Meaning, though God permit him for a time to prosper, yet it shall not continue, but his prosperitie shall soone turne to miserie.

(i) That is, such blessing as God gaue him, shalbe turned into cursing.

(k) That is, his progenie or offspring shall not continue.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 Job moued by the importunacie of his friendes, 7 counteth in what extremitie he is, 9 and taketh God witnes of his innocencie.

Then Iob aunswered, & sayde:

2 I haue oft times heard such thinges: (a) miserable geuers of comfort are ye all the sort of you.

3 Shall not vaine wordes come yet to an ende? Or what maketh thee bolde so to aunswere?

4 I coulde speake as ye do also: but would God that your (b) soule were in my soules steade, then could I frame wordes for you, and shake my head at you:

5 I shoulde comfort you with my mouth, & release your paine with the talking of my lippes.

6 For all my wordes my sorowe wyll not ceasse: And (c) though I holde my tongue, what am I eased?

7 But now that God hath sent me aduersitie, thou hast troubled al my congregation.

8 And that thou (d) hast filled me with wrinckles my flesche is recorde, and my leanenesse ryseth vp against me and beareth witnes thereof in my face.

9 His wrath hath torne [me] he hateth me, & gnasheth vpon me with his teeth: myne enemie loketh fiercely vpon me with his eyes.

10 They haue opened their mouthes wide vpon me, and (f) smitten me vpon the cheeke dispitefully, they gather thē selues together against me.

11 God hath shut me vp with the vngodly, and deliuered me (g) into the handes of the wicked.

12 I

(a) For they more bite him with cruell wordes, then comfort him.

(b) Would ye suffred that which I suffer?

(c) For God will haue his pleasure ouer me.

(d) my house & bodie, chiefe, and substaunce.

(e) Not by reason of yeres, but by reason of my greefe, shewing his extreme paines.

(f) That is, dispitefully handeled me, which striking on the cheeke signifieth.

(g) To proue him, & not to destroy him.

12 If was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath all to shaken me, and set me as a marke for him selfe.

(b) With plagues and afflictions wherewith he vexeth me.

13 His (b) archers compasse me rounde about, he woundeth my raines, and doth not spare, my bowels hath he powred vpon the grounde.

14 He hath geuen me one wounde vpon an other, and is fallen vpon me lyke a giaunt.

15 I haue sowed a sackecloth vpon my skinne, and wallowed my head in the dust.

16 My face is withered with weeping, & in myne eyes is the shadowe of death.

17 Howbeit there is no (l) wickednesse in my handes, but (k) my prayer is cleane.

(l) And therfore the cause of my afflictions is vnknowen to me.
(k) That is, without hypocrisie.

18 O earth couer not thou my blood, and let (l) my crying finde no roome.

(l) Let it be hyd, but be knowen to all men.

19 For lo, (m) my witnesse is in heauen, and he that knoweth me, is in the height.

(m) If take God to record that I am innocent, though man blame me.

20 My friendes geue me many wordes to scorne, and myne eye powreth out teares vnto God.

21 O that a body might pleate with God, as one man doth with an other:

22 Yet the number of my yeres is come, and the way that I must go is at hand, from whence I shall not turne againe.

¶ The .xvii. Chapter.

1 Iob saith that he consumeth away, and yet doth patiently abyde it. 10 He exhorteth his friendes to repentaunce, 13 shewing that he looketh but for death.

A 1 My breath is corrupt, my dayes are shortened, I am harde at deathes doore.

(a) In all Iobs extreme afflictions yet this one made the rest most grieuous, that they that should chertfully comfort him, did cruelly vexe him and mocke him.

2 (a) " Froward men are with me, and myne eye must continue in the bitternesse of them.

3 O deliuer me, and (b) loke out one to be my surette in thy sight: What is he that knoweth who will promise for me?

" Or, mockers.
(b) That is, make promise with me O God that I may talke with thee, for I will not reason with them, for they are fooles.

4 For thou hast withholden their hartes (c) from vnderstanding, therefore shalt thou not set [them] vp on hie.

(c) That they can not vnderstand the cause of my punishment, but iudge me wicked not knowing thy wisdome, whereby thou doest afflict thy children.

5 He that speaketh flatterie to his friend, the eyes of his children shall fayle.

6 He hath made me a byworde of the people, where as afore I was their toy.

7 Myne eye is dimme for very heauinesse, and all my strength is lyke a shadowe.

8 Vertuous men therefore shall well consider this, and the innocent shal take part against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also will (d) kepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes will euer be stronger and stronger.

(d) Though the godly see them selues afflicted of God as the wicked are, yet they do not cease, knowing that they are punished for proofe of the.

10 As for al you, turne you and " get you hence [I pray you] seeing I can not finde one wyse man among you.

" Or, come now.

11 My dayes are past, and my counsailes and thoughtes of my heart are banished away, 12 (e) Chaunging the night into day, and the light approching into darkenesse.

(e) That is, the thoughtes of my heart haue brought me forowes in steede of rest.

13 (f) Though I tary neuer so much, yet the graue is my house, & I haue made my bed in the darke.

(f) Though my former estate returne whereby you perswade me yet will it not continue for death soone commeth and dispatcheth me.

14 I saide to corruption, thou art my father, and to the wormes, you are my mother and my sister.

15 (g) Where is then now my hope? or who hath considered the thing that I loke for? These shall go downe with me vnto the pit, and lye with me in the dust.

(g) Seeing I am but a forsaken.

¶ The .xviii. Chapter.

1 Bildad rehearseth the paines of the vnfaithfull and wicked.

A 1 Then answered Bildad the Shuite, and saide:

2 (a) When will ye make an ende of your wordes? Marke well, and then we will speake.

(a) Wherein ye account your selues so wyse, and contemne vs.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beastes,

(b) That is, Shall God chaunge the accustomed order of his operation or three? and not afflict the wicked as his order is?
(c) This sentence some shall pertaine and from this place vnto the ende of the chapter Bildad goeth about to proue Iob wicked, because God punisheth him, as he doth the wicked man.

and reputed so vyle in your sight?

4 He destroyeth him selfe with his anger: Shall the earth be forsaken, or any stone remoued out of his place (b) because of thee?

5 Yea, the light of the vngodly shalbe put out, and the sparke of his fire shall not shine.

6 The (c) light shall be darke in his dwelling, and his candle shall be put out with with him.

7 The steppes of his strength shalbe restrayned, and his owne counsaile shall cast him downe:
8 For his feete are taken [as it were] in the net, & he walketh vpon the snares.
9 The grinne shall take him by the heele, and it shall catche him that is thirstie of blood.
10 The snare is layde for him in the grounde, and a pitfall in the way.
11 Fearefulnesse shall make him afraide on euery side, and shall driue him to his feete.
12 Hunger shalbe his strength, and destruction shalbe redye at his side.
13 (e) It shall eate the strength of his owne skinne, euen the (f) first borne of death shall eate his strength.
14 His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwelling, and shall bring him to the (g) king of feare.
15 Other men shall dwell in his houle, and it shalbe none of his, and brimstone shall be scattered vpon his habitation.
16 His rootes shalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue shall his braunche be cut downe.
17 His remembraunce (h) shall perishe from the earth, and he shall haue no name in the streete.
18 They shall driue him from the (i) light into darkenesse, and chaste him cleane out of the worlde.
19 He shall neither haue * children nor kinsfolkes among his people, no nor any posteritie in his dwellinges.
20 They that come after him, shalbe astonyed at (k) his day, and * they that go before shalbe afrayde.
21 Such are now the dwellinges of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

(e) That is, he shall not attribute to his strength he desireth, for all his power and [illegible] by hunger [illegible], the destruction of the strength of his own kin, that is, of his children and posterite.
(f) Meaning, that he and his posterite shall be taken away by most grieuous diseases, (g) That is, death: or els some take it for death that commeth before his time and some for the first pangues of death that come.
(g) That is, to a thing most terrible and full of fearfulnesse.
(h) The wicked shall not onely be destroyed in body & goodes, but their name and fame and progenie shall vtterly perishe for euer.
(i) From prosperitie to aduersitie.
* Or, sonne nor nephew.
(k) That is, at his fall.
* Or, after, as some copies.

The .xix. Chapter.

1 Job reproueth his friendes, 5 and recounteth his miseries and grieuous paines.
25 He assureth him selfe of the generall resurrection.

1 Job aunswered, and saide:
2 How long will ye vexe my soule, and trouble me with wordes?
3 Lo, (a) ten times haue ye reproched me, and are not ashamed, but haue laughed me to scorne.
4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, myne errour then remaineth with my selfe.
5 But if ye will aduaunce your selues against me, and rebuke me for the shame that is come vpon me:
6 Know this then, that it is God which hath ouerthrowē me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 If I complaine of the violence that is done vnto me, I cannot be heard: and if I crye, there is no sentence geuen with me.
8 He hath hedged vp my way that (c) I can not passe, and he hath set darkenesse in my pathes.
9 He hath spoyled me (d) of myne honour, and (e) taken the crowne away from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on euery side and I am * gone: my hope hath he taken away as a tree pluckt vp by the roote.
11 His wrath is kindled against me, he taketh me as though I were his enemie.
12 (f) His men of warre come together, which made their way ouer me, and besieged my dwelling rounde about.
13 He hath put my brethren farre away from me, and myne acquaintaunce are also become straungers vnto me.
14 Myne owne kinsfolkes haue forsaken me, and my best acquainted haue forgotten me.
15 * The seruauntes and maydens of myne owne house take me for a straunger, and I am become as an alaunt in their sight.
16 I called my seruaunt, and he gaue me no aunswere: [no though] I prayed him with my mouth.
17 Myne owne wyfe might not abyde my breath, though I prayed her for the children sake of myne owne body.
18 Yea, the young men despised me, and when I rose they spake euill vpon me.
19 All my most familiers abhorred me: and they whom I loued best, are turned

(a) That is, oft times. Not the number of ten times is the number of continuation of finishing.
(b) That is, though I should erre, yet not haue you to do with that, the fault is mine, and not yours.
(c) That is, I cannot get from these my afflictions.
(d) That is, of my riches and substaunce.
(e) That is, destroyed my children for the crowne of the aged are children children, and it is in the scripture.
* Or, vanished away.
(f) That is, his great plagues layed on me.
* Or, they that dwell with me.

ned against me.

20 My (g) bone cleaueth to my skinne and to my flesshe, onely there is left me the skinne about my teeth.

21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my friendes, for the hande of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me as God [doth] and are not satisfied with my flesshe?

23 (h) O that my wordes were now written, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an iron penne in leade, or in stone, to continue.

25 For I am sure (i) that my redeemer liueth, and he shall rayse vp at the latter day them that lye in the dust.

26 And though after my skinne the [wormes] destroy this body, yet shall I see God in my flesshe:

27 Whom I my selfe shall see, and myne eyes shall beholde, and none other for me, though my raines are consumed within me.

28 But ye saide, Why is he persecuted? and there was a deepe matter in me.

29 (k) But beware of the sworde: for the sword wylbe auenged of wickednesse, and be sure that there is a iudgement.

(g) Seeing all these miseries are come vpon me, say not you that I layne as an hypocrite: speciallye you that should be my consolation.

(h) To testifie that he hath not blasphemed God as they report. (i) Here is an ardent confessing of Iobs faith, hoping the assured hope of resurrection.

(k) That is, the iudgement of God the reuenger of iniquitie: meaning, though their wicked endeuour take place now, yet God will hereafter consider him and be reuenged of the wyll.

The. xx. Chapter.

1 Sophar sheweth that the wicked and the couetous shall haue a short ende, 22 though for a time they florishe.

Then aunswered Sophar the Naamathite, and saide:

2 For the same cause do (a) my thoughtes compell me to aunswere, and therefore, make haste.

3 I haue sufficiently heard the (b) checking of my reproofe, therefore the spirite of myne vnderstanding causeth me to aunswere.

4 Knowest thou not this of olde, and since God plaged man vpon earth,

5 (c) That the gladnesse of the vngodlie hath ben short, and that the ioy of hypocrites continued but the twinckling of an eye?

6 Though he be magnified vp to the heauen, so that his head reacheth vnto the cloudes:

7 Yet at a (d) turne he perisheth for euer, insomuch that they which haue seene him, shall say, where is he?

8 He shall vanishe as a dreame, so that he can no more be founde, and shal passe away as a vision in the night.

9 So that the eye which sawe him before, shal haue no more sight of him, and his place shall "know him no more.

10 His children shalbe faine to agree with the poore, and his handes shall restore their goodes.

11 From his youth his bones are (e) full of pleasures, but now shall it lye downe within him in the "earth.

12 When wickednesse was (f) sweete in his mouth, he hyd it vnder his tongue.

13 That he fauoured, that would he not forsake, but kept it close in his throte.

14 The bread that he did eate, is turned to the (g) poyson of serpentes within his bodye.

15 The riches that he deuoured shall he parbreake againe: for God shall drawe them out of his belly.

19 He shall sucke the (h) gall of serpentes, and the adders tongue shall slay him:

17 So that he shall no more see the (i) ryuers and brookes of hony and butter.

18 The thing he hath laboured for, shall he restore, and (k) shall not eate of it: great substance shall he make for riches, but he shall not enioy them.

16 And why? he hath oppressed the poore, and not helped them: houses hath he spoyled, and not builded them.

20 Because he could not perceaue when his belly was well, through his greedie desire he shall not escape.

21 There (l) shall none of his meate be left, therefore shall no man loke for his goodes.

22 When he had plenteousnesse of euery thing, yet was he poore, though he was helped on euery side.

23 And it shall come to passe, that wherewith he purposed to fill his belly, God shall powre the furie of his wrath theron, and shall cause his indignation to raigne vpon him, and vpon his meate.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bowe of steele shall strike him through.

25 The [arowe] is taken foorth and gone out of the quiuer, and a glistering sword through

(a) Because Iob bragged of his innocencie, as they thought) Sophar interrupted his talke as though he boasted in vaine, for that God accepteth none but the repentaunts sinner.

(b) For two causes Sophar spake: one because Iob in his learning loued cherishing and for that he beleeued his knowledge sufficient to aunswere againe.

(c) Sophar turneth to the ende of his chapter alleageth true sentences, but he erreth in that he thought Iob for impietie and hypocrisie to be plaged.

(d) That is, suddenly.

" Or, see.

(e) Meaning, the iniquities of his youth. " Or, dust.

(f) An hempe by continuall vse loseth sourse and is bonuted againe: so pleasaunt vice hath a detestable ende.

(g) The blessing of the wicked is turned into curses where vp that he truly to others is sincere godlynesse, so is not he the poyson.

(h) He shall receiue curse for his goodes.

(i) That is, goodes to be vsed.

(k) That is, he shall not gouerne, to vse them at his pleasure.

(l) That is, by extorcion and vsurpation shall gape in vaine.

through the gall of him: so feare shall come vpon him.

26 All darknesse shalbe hid in their secrete places, (m) an vnkindled fire shal consume him: and loke what remaineth in his house, it shalbe destroyed.

27 The heauen shal (n) declare his wickednesse, and the earth shall take part against him.

28 The substaunce that he hath in his house, shalbe taken away and perishe in the day of the Lordes wrath.

29 This is the portion that the wicked man shal haue of God, and the heritage that he may loke for of God, because of his wordes.

(m) That is, fire from heauen and hire. Sophar told erth Iob for that his frendes and children were consumed by fire.

(n) There is no thing hyd, that shal not be opened and al the earth shall either be vnfruteful, or bring forth thinges hurtful to the sede.

¶ The .xxi. Chapter.

1 Iob declareth how the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proude, 7 insomuch that they blaspheme God. 16 Their destruction is at hande. 23 None ought to be iudged wicked for affliction, neither good for prosperitie.

1 Iob answered, and saide:

2 O heare diligently my wordes, and that shalbe in stede of your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speake, and when I haue spoken mocke on.

4 Is it for (a) mans sake that I make this disputation? which if it were so, shoulde not my spirite then be in sore trouble?

5 Marke me [well] and be abashed, and (b) lay your hande vpon your mouth.

6 For when I consider (my selfe) I am afrayde, and my flesshe is smitten with feare.

7 Wherefore (c) do wicked men liue, come to their olde age, and increase in richesse?

8 Their " children lyue in their sight, and their generation before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from all feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them.

10 Their bullocke gendreth and that not out of time, their cowe calueth and is not vnfruitfull.

11 They sende forth their children by flockes, & their sonnes [leade the] daunce.

12 They beare with them tabrets and harpes, and reioyce in the sounde of the organs.

13 They spend their dayes in wealthines, but (d) sodainely they go downe to the graue.

14 They say also vnto God: (e) Go from vs, we desire not the knowledge of thy wayes.

15 Who is the almightie that we should serue him? And what profite should we haue if we should pray vnto him?

16 Lo, there is vtterly no goodnesse in their hande, therefore wyll I not haue to do with the counsaile of the vngodly.

17 How oft shall the (f) candell of the wicked be put out, and their destruction come vpon them? O what sorowe shall God geue them for their part in his wrath?

18 Yea, they shalbe euen as hay before the winde, and as chaffe that the storme carieth away.

19 God wyll lay vp the sorowe of the father for his children: & when he rewardeth him, he shall know it.

20 Their owne miserie shal they see with their eyes, and drinke of the fearefull wrath of the almightie.

21 For what careth he for his house after his death, when the (g) number of his monethes is cut short?

22 Seeing God hath the highest power of all, who can teache him any knowledge?

23 (h) One dyeth in his full strength, being in all ease and prosperitie, 24 His breastes are full of milke, and his bones runne full of marowe.

25 Another dyeth in the (i) bitternes of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall sleepe both alyke in the earth, and the wormes shall couer them.

27 Beholde, (k) I know what ye thinke, yea and the subtiltie that ye imagine against me.

28 For ye say (l) where is the princes palace? and where is the dwelling of the vngodly?

29 Haue ye not asked them that go by the way? Doubtlesse ye cannot denie their tokens, 30 That the wicked is kept vnto the day of destruction, and the vngodly shalbe brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 who

(a) Not be-ing plaged with ony sinne.

(b) That is, be ashamed.

(c) They say this not with tonge, but with deede and impietie of their heart they serue God.

(d) Sodainely, or, sone.

(e) Meaning, the wicked: where Iob saith that it is not for man to reason with God why he doth thus plague the wild, and prosperith the vnwise: for who can teache God suche?

(f) That is, their great substance and wealth.

(g) For the wicked are vnwares, and neuer endure the course of their dayes to the ende.

(h) Meaning, the wicked: where Iob saith that it is not for man to reason with God why he doth thus plague the wild, and prosperith the vnwise: for who can teache God suche?

(i) And this he meaneth by the godly.

(k) How ye thinke me wicked, because I am plaged.

(l) Thus they cal Iobs house by scorning and mocking at it.

(m) For no man can iudge by the wicked enemy prosperitie, what shall become of them.

31 Who [m] dare declare his Way to his face? Who wil reward him for that he doth?
32 Yet shall he be brought to his graue, and dwell among the heape [of the dead.]
33 Then shal the [n] flyme valley be sweet vnto him, all men also must folowe him, as there are innumerable gone before him.
34 Howe vayne then is the comfort that ye geue me, seyng falshood remayneth in all your aunsweres?

(n) That is, he shal be content with a homely house of clay, which before was not contented with a kingly palace.

The.xxii. Chapter.

2 Eliphas affirmeth that Iob is punished for his sinnes. 6 He accuseth him of vnmercifulnesse, 13 and that he denied gods prouidence. 21 He exhorteth him to repentaunce.

A (a) The whole course of this Chapter is, that man cannot be profitable to God in his doinges and therefore ought to repent.

1 Eliphas the Themanite gaue aunswere, and sayde:
2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wise may be profitable vnto him selfe?
3 Is it any aduauntage to the almightie that thou art righteous? or shall it profite him that thou makest thy wayes perfect?
4 Is he afrayde to reproue thee, and to step foorth with thee into iudgement?
5 Is [b] not thy wickednesse great, and thy vngratious deedes innumerable?
6 For thou [c] hast taken the pledge from thy brother for naught, and robbed the naked of their clothing.
7 To such as were weery, hast thou geuen no water to drinke, & hast withdrawen bread from the hungrie.
8 But the mightie man had the earth, and he that was in auctoritie dwelt in it.
9 Thou hast sent widowes away emptie, and the armes of the fatherlesse were broken.
10 Therefore art thou [d] compassed about with snares, & sodenly vexed with feare.
11 Shouldest thou then see no [e] darknesse? shoulde not the water fludde run ouer thee?
12 Is not God on high in the heauen? beholde the heyght of the starres how hie they are.
13 Wilt thou therfore say, Tushe, howe should God know? can he iudge through the darke cloude?
14 Tushe, the cloudes couer him that he may not see, and he walketh on the top of heauen.
15 Hast thou marked the way of the world, wherin wicked men haue walked?
16 Whiche were cut downe out of time,

(b) They ignore not that Iob had so greatly offended: but they coniectured because God so plagued him, which would not for his sinnes so much as for to prouoke him, into whose prouision all their consultations are subiect.
(c) Thou hast ben vnmercifull & vnkinde.
(d) That is, therefore are thou shut plagued euery way.
(e) Trouble.

and whose [f] foundation was as an ouerflowing ryuer.
17 Whiche sayd vnto God, Go from vs: and asked what the almightie coulde do for them?
18 He filled their houses with good things: but the counsell of the vngodly be farre from me.
19 The righteous sawe it and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to scorne.
20 Is our substaunce not cut downe? As for the remnaunt of them [g] the fire hath consumed.
21 Therefore [h] reconcile thee vnto God, and be at peace: so shall all thinges prospere with thee right well.
22 Receaue I pray thee the lawe at his mouth, and lay vp his wordes in thyne heart.
23 For if thou wilt turne to the almightie, thou shalt be buyld vp, and put all vnrighteousnes from thy dwelling.
24 Thou shalt lay vp golde [as plentyful] as the dust, and the golde of Ophir as the stones of the riuers.
25 Yea almightie God his owne selfe shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plenty of siluer.
26 Then shalt thou haue thy delite in the almightie, and lift vp thy face vnto God.
27 Then shalt thou make thy prayer vnto him, and he shall heare thee, and thou shalt [*] kepe thy promises.
28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and he shall establishe it vnto thee, and the [i] light shall shine in thy wayes.
29 When the wicked be cast downe, thou shalt say, I am lifted vp: and God shall saue the humble person.
30 The innocent shal deliuer the Iande: [k] it shalbe preserued by the pureness of thyne handes.

(f) That is, brickie and durable.
(g) Meaning the cruell and vngodly persons.
(h) Eliphas exhorteth Iob to repentaunce by the great goodnesse that commeth therof.
* Or, render thy vowes.
(i) That is, the brightnesse of God.
k) The place foreth the water, where the righteous are.

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 Job affirmeth that he doth knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the iudge, 10 and that he is not punished only for his sinnes.

Aleph

1 Job aunswered, & said:
2 Though my talke be this day in (a) bitternesse, and my plague greater then my groning.
3 O that I (b) might know him, and finde him, and that I might come before his seate:
4 I woulde pleade my cause before hym, and fill my mouth with argumentes:
5 I woulde knowe what aunswere he woulde gene me, and vnderstande what he woulde say vnto me.
6 Will he pleade against me with his great power? No, but he will make me the stronger.

Beth

7 There the righteous might dispute with him, so shoulde I be deliuered for euer from my iudge.
8 Behold, though I go forwarde I find him not: If I go backwarde, I can get no knowledge of hym:
9 If I go on the left side where he doth his worke, I can not attayne vnto him: Againe, if I go on the right side, he hydeth him selfe that I can not see hym.
10 But as for my way, he knoweth it, and tryeth me, that as the gold I may come foorth.
11 My (c) foote doth kepe his path, his lie way haue I holden, and will not go out of it.
12 I will not forsake the commaundement of his lippes, I haue esteemed the wordes of his mouth more then myne appoynted foode.

Gimel

13 He is still at one poynt, and (d) who can turne him? he doth as him listeth, and bringeth to passe what he will.
14 He (e) performeth the thing that is appoynted for me, and many such thinges doth he.
15 This is the cause that I shrinke at his presence, so that when I consider him, I am afrayde of hym.
16 For God maketh my heart (f) softe, and the almightie putteth me in feare.
17 Because I am not (g) cut of before the darkenesse, neither hath he couered the (h) cloude fro my face.

(a) In this chapter Iob expresseth howe hard, yea how impossible it is to come to God without a mediatour. (b) Job being admonished before to returne to God, sayth, If I should come to him, where to hye, or where might I find him to pleade my cause before him.

(c) That is, gods wayes, proouing therefore him selfe not to inferre such grieuous plagues and afflictions for his faultes.

(d) For God is immutable, and his decrees standes fast.

(e) That is, he hath decreed thus to punishe me appoynted here vnto, although I can not attayne to the secrete iudgement of God therein, and therefore I do feare his presence.

(f) That is, maketh it so sorowe that it can not but be in feare.

(g) Out of perplexy, troubles and afflictions.

(h) That is, cleared my eyes, that I may see the end of my troubles

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Job describeth the wickednesse of men, and sheweth what curse belongeth to the wicked. 12 How all thinges are gouerned by gods prouidence, 17 and the destruction of the wicked.

Aleph

1 Considering (a) then that there is no time hyd from the almightie, how happeneth it that they which know him do not regarde his dayes?
2 For some men remoue the landemarkes, robbe men of their cattell, and feede of the same:
3 They driue away the asse of the fatherlesse, and take the widowes ore for a pledge:
4 They cause the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of the earth hyde them selues together.
5 Beholde, as wilde (b) asses in the desert go they forth to their worke, & rise betimes to spoyle: Yea the very (c) wildernesse ministreth foode for them & their children.
6 They reape the corne fielde that is not their owne, and let the vineyarde of the vngodly alone.
7 They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the colde.
8 They are wet with the showres of the mountaynes, and embrace the rocke for want of a couering.
9 They plucke the fatherlesse from the brest, and take the pledge from the poore.
10 They let hym go naked without clothing, and haue taken away the sheafe of the hungrie.

(a) This speaketh Iob in his extreme passions, according to worldly wit in mans feeble nature, which is foolyshnesse before God. Wherby he woulde proue that God considereth not the times.

(b) The wilde asses resorte vnto the desert for pasture, following.

(c) That is, they lye vp robberie and spoile.

11 The

11 The poore are fayne to labour in their oyle mylles, yea and to treade in their wyne presses, and yet to suffer thirst.
12 Men out of the citie crye vnto the Lord with sighing, the soules of the slayne also crye out, yet God regardeth not their complaynt.
13 Where as they are conuersaunt among them that abhorre the light, they know not his way, nor continue in his pathes.
14 The murtherer ryseth early and killeth the poore and needy, and in the night is as a theefe:
15 The (b) eye of the adulterer wayteth for the darkenesse, & sayth, There shall no eye see me: and disguiseth his face.
16 In the darke they digge through houses, whiche they marked for them selues in the day time: they knowe not the light.
17 The morning is to them euen as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrours of the shadowe of death.
18 [The vngodly] is swyft vpon the water: their portion shalbe cursed in the earth, and he shall not beholde the way of the vineyardes.
19 As the drye grounde and heate (c) consume the snowye waters: so shall the graue the sinners.
20 The (d) pitifull man shall forget hym, he shalbe sweete to the wormes, he shalbe no more remembred, & his wickednesse shalbe broken as a tree.
21 He hath oppressed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the wydow hath he done no good.
22 He (e) drue the mightie after hym with his power, and when he was gotten vp no man was sure of lyfe.
23 And though they gaue him to be in safetie, yet his eyes are vpon their wayes.
24 They are exalted for a litle, but [shortly] are gone, brought to pouertie, and taken out of the way, yea and vtterly pluckt of, as the eares of corne.
25 Is (f) it not so: who will then reprone me as a lyer, and say that my wordes are nothyng worthe:

(b) Not only the theefe, but also the adulterer escapeth free, and is not corrected.

(c) Although such abhominable sinners are not corrected in this worlde, yet at the length hell shall deuour them soderenly.
(d) Because they pitied not others they shall not be pitied at all.

(e) That is, when they haue plagued and ouerrun the poore and weake, they will oppresse the strong, & mightie also

(f) That is, when they can not reprone me.

The.xxv. Chapter.

Bildad proueth that no man is cleane nor without sinne before God.

1 Then answered Bildad the Suhite, and sayde:
2 Is there (a) power and feare with him aboue, that maketh (b) peace sitting in his hyghnesse
3 Is there any number of his (c) armies, and vpon whom shal not his light arise
4 (d) But how may a man compared vnto God, be iustified or how can he be cleane that is borne of a woman:
5 Beholde, the moone shyneth nothing in comparison to him, and the starres are vncleane in his sight.
6 How much more then man that is but *corruption, and the sonne of man which is but a worme:

(a) Bildad would proue here that god plageth the wicked, yet afterward he prospereth: and because God dealt not so with Iob, he concludeth that he was wicked.
(b) That is, ouerceth and ruleth all thinges.
(c) For he is called the God of hoastes, that is the god of battailes

(d) For the sunne & moone are darke compared to him: and how much more man being borne in sinne and corruption, and being but a worme

* Or, Scripture

The.xxvi. Chapter.

Iob weweth that man can not helpe God, and proueth it by his miracles.

1 Iob aunswered, and sayde:
2 (a) Who hast thou holpen: Him that is without strength: sauest thou the arme that hath no strength:
3 Where is the counsayle that thou shouldest geue him which hath no wisdome: Hast thou shewed the way of right vnderstanding:
4 To whom hast thou spoken these wordes: Who made the breath to come out of thy mouth:
5 (b) Are not dead thinges shapen vnder the waters, and thinges by the waters side:
6 (c) Hell is naked before him, and the very destruction it selfe can not be hyd out of his sight.
7 He stretcheth out the nooth ouer the emptie place, and (d) hangeth the earth vpon nothing.

(a) Were Iob reprehendeth Bildad for that he speaketh not enough to good purpose who nere doeth not many wonders, neither comforteth him hoping hope of comfort.

(b) That is, such thinges are in the waters without life, as mettals and such like. Wherein is expressed gods great power
(c) That is, it is open and manifest vnto him sight, for he seeth all thinges
(d) By the most excellent and mighte power of god.

8 He byndeth the water in his cloudes, & the cloude is not broken vnder them.
9 (c) He holdeth backe the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloude before it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with certayne boundes, (f) vntill the day and night come to an ende.
11 The (g) very pillers of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe.
12 He stilleth the sea with his power, and through his wysdome smyteth he the strength therof.
13 His spirite hath (h) garnished the heauens, & his hand hath made (i) the crooked serpent.
14 Lo, this is now a (k) short summe of his wayes: but how lytle a portion heare we of hym? who can vnderstande the thunder of his power?

(c) This tooke of Hester, which are the heauens, he secretly from
(f) That is, long as the worlde endureth.
(g) Not that heauen hath pillers but by the pillers he vnderstandeth all thinges vnder heauen.
(h) That is, the winde breaking the cloudes, the heauens are clear
(i) That is, a circle in heauē sounding round like a serpent, called Iaculus circulus.
(k) For though these fewe thinges of his power be wonderful, yet they are nothing in comparison of the rest of his worke, which was impossible for man to vtter.

The. xxvii. Chapter.

Job constantly affirmeth his innocency, and of the tyrauntes. The reward of the wicked

1 AND Job proceeded and went forth in his
2 parable, saying,
(a) As God lyueth which hath taken away my iudgement, and the almighty that hath (b) vexed my minde:
3 Whyle my breath is in me, (c) and the winde that God hath geuen me is in my nostrels,
4 My lippes shall talke of no vanitie, and my tongue shall speake no deceite.
5 God forbyd that I should graunt your cause to be right: As for me, vntill myne end come will (d) I neuer go fro myne innocentie.
6 My righteous dealing kepe I fast, which I will not forsake: my heart shal not reproue me (e) of my dayes.
7 Therfore (f) myne enemie shalbe founde as the vngodly, and he that taketh part against me, as the vnrighteous.
8 For (g) what hope hath the hypocrite though he haue great good, if God take away his soule?
9 Will (h) God heare his crye, when trouble commeth vpon him?
10 Hath he such pleasure and delite in the almightie, (i) that he dare alway call vpon God?
11 I will teache you in the name of God, and the thing of the almighty will I not kepe from you.
12 (k) Behold, all ye your selues haue seene it, why then do ye thus vanishe in vanitie?
13 Saying: (l) This is the portion that the wicked haue of God, and the heritage that tyrauntes shall receaue of the almightie.
14 If he get many children, they shall perishe with the sworde, and his posterite shall haue scarcenesse of bread.
15 His remnaunt shalbe buried in death, and his widowes shall not weepe.
16 Though he (m) heape vp siluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the clay:
17 He may well prepare it, but the godly shall put it on, and the innocent shall deale out the money.
18 He (n) buyldeth his house as the moth, & as a booth that the watchman maketh.
19 When the riche man sleepeth, he shall not be gathered [to his fathers,] they opened their eyes, and he was gone.
20 Terrour taketh holde vpon hym (o) as a water fludde, and the tempest stealeth him away in the night season.
21 A (p) vehement east winde caryeth him hence, and he departeth: a storme hurleth him out of his place.
22 God shal cast vpon him, and not spare, though he would fayne flee out of his hande.
23 Then clap men their handes at hym, and hisse at him out of his place.

(a) This was the vse of the Hebrues to sweare.
(b) By afflictions are the precious iudgements of God only by it marbe meant to be vnderstand.
(c) That is, because I will not reuile the vngodly, and, offend God contrarie to my promise, though men cry out of me.
(d) That is, I will not consent that God plagues me for myne offence.
(e) For my former life
(f) That is, because I will not reproue the hypocrite, they rather might be encouraged to be like vnto him. The plague shal light on them, and be kept from me.
(g) What hope hath the hypocrite if he haue all the worlde at his owne rule?
(h) We haue no greater signe of Gods, then the spirite of prayer, wherby if we pray, God both heare vs.
(i) The hypocrite neither vseth nor delyteth to talke with God. yea he doubteth that God shall not heare him.
(k) Gods secret workes lye hyde before you, and yet your blindenes will not permit you to see it.
(l) That is, not only the wicked shalbe punished, but also their posterite shalbe rooted out.
(m) As it is hyde in the earth, thou shalt bury all in house, and not beleeue it shall be lefte, which is the plague of the wicked.
(n) Meaning it shalbe weake, of small estimation: and being togither, shall soone decay.
(o) That is, most abundantly.
(p) That is, he shall sodenly be blowen away by death, and after death shal be be honorably buried. & this is the end of the hypocrite

The.xxviii. Chapter.

1 Iob sheweth that the wysdome of God is vnsearcheable.

(a) Iob proueth here, that though men attayne to many secretes of nature, yet they are neuer able to reche to the wysdome of God which is vnsearcheable (for braule & lead groweth in the stones, which being wyned vp is called ore: and by vehement fire molte, the metall is seperate from the stones.

1 THere is (a) a place wher siluer is brought out of, and where golde is tryed,
2 where yron is digged out of the grounde, & (b) stones resolued to metall.
3 (c) The darkenesse shall once come to an ende: he can seke out the grounde of all thinges, the stones, the darke, and the shadowe of death.
4 He causeth the fludds to breake out against the inhabitant, and the waters forgotten of the foote, beyng hygher then man, are gone away.
5 (d) Out of the same earth commeth bread, and vnder it as it were fire is turned vp.
6 The (e) stones of it are a place of Saphires, and the dust of it is golde.
7 There is a way that the birdes knowe not, that no vultures eye hath seene:
8 wherin the lions whelpes walke not, and where no lion commeth.
9 [There] (f) putteth he his hande vpon the stone rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaynes by the rootes.
10 Riuers flowe out of the rockes, & loke what is pleasaunt, his eye seeth it.
11 He bindeth the fludds that they do not ouerflow: and the thyng that is hid bringeth he to light.
12 (g) Where then is wysdome founde? and where is the place of vnderstanding?
13 Verely no man can tell howe (h) worthy a thyng she is, neither is she found in the lande of them that lyue.
14 The deepe sayth, She is not in me: the sea sayth, She is not with me.
15 She can not be gotten for golde, neither may the price of her be bought with any siluer.
16 No (i) wedges of gold of Ophir, no precious (k) Onix stones, no Saphires may be valued with her.
17 No, neither golde nor chrystall shall be equall vnto it, nor her exchaunge shalbe for the plate of fine golde.
18 No mention shalbe made of Corall nor of the Gabis: for wisdome is more precious then pearles.
19 The (l) Topas of Ethiopia shall not be equall vnto it, neither shall it be valued with the wedge of pure golde.
20 Whence then commeth wysdome? and where is the place of vnderstanding?
21 She is hid from the eyes of all men liuing, yea & from the foules of the (m) ayre.
22 Destruction and death say, We haue heard the fame therof with our eares.
23 But God seeth her way, and knoweth her place.
24 For he beholdeth the endes of the worlde, and loketh vpon all that is vnder heauen.
25 When he wayed the windes and measured the waters:
26 when he made a decree for the rayne, and a way for the lightninges of the thunder:
27 Then dyd he see her, then declared he her, prepared her, and knewe her.
28 And vnto man he sayd: (n) To feare the Lorde is wysdome, and to forsake euyll is vnderstanding.

(b) That is, it passeth mans capacite to attayne to it.

(c) Meaning by this that man hath so much of this excelling wysdome of God, as he hath shewn in beholding of liuing, true obedience and feare of him.

The.xxix. Chapter.

1 Iob complayneth of the prosperitie of the time past. 7. His auctoritie, 12 iustice and equite.

1 MOreouer Iob proceeded and went forth in his parable, saying:
2 O that I were as I was in the monethes by past, and in the daies when God preserued me:
3 when his (a) light shined vpon my head, when I went after the same light and shyning, euen through the darkenesse:
4 As it stoode with me when I was young, when God prospered my house:
5 when the almightie was yet with me, when my children stoode about me:
6 when my wayes (b) ranne ouer with butter, and when the stone rockes gaue me riuers of oyle:
7 when I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement seate, and when I prepared my seate in the streete:

(a) That is, when all his fauour preserued me.

(b) That is, when I had all thinges most abundantly. For milke and oyle signifie all kynde of fatnesse: and here Iob describeth his felicite in times past, to the increase of his grefe.

8 The (c) young men saw me and hid themselues, and the (d) aged arose, and stoode vp.

9 The (e) princes left of their talking, and layed their hand to their mouth:

10 The nightie kept still their voyce, and their tongue cleaued to the roofe of their mouth.

11 When the eare heard me, it blessed me: & When the eye sawe me, it gaue witnesse to me:

12 For I (f) deliuered the poore when he cryed, and the fatherlesse, and hym that had none to helpe hym.

13 The blessing of him that was redy to perishe came vpon me, and I caused the widowes heart to reioyce.

14 And why? I put vpon me righteousnesse, which couered me as a (g) garment, and equitie was my crowne.

15 I was an eye to the blinde, and a foote to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knewe not the cause, I sought it out diligently.

17 I brake the (h) iawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the spoyle out of his teeth.

18 Then I sayde, I shall die in my (i) nest: and I shall multiplie my dayes as the sande.

19 For my (k) roote was spread out by the water side: and the (l) deawe lay vpon my (m) corne.

20 Myne honour encreased more and more, & my bowe was (n) euer the stronger in my hande.

21 Vnto me men gaue eare, me they regarded, and with silence they eared for my counsell.

22 After my woordes they replied not, and my talke dropped vpon them.

23 They (o) wayted for me as for the raine: and gaped vpon me, as [the grounde doeth to receaue] the latter shoure.

24 When I laughed, they beleued it not, & the light of my countenaunce would they not put out.

25 When I agreed vnto their way, I was the chiefe, and sate as a king with his armie about him: and when they were in heauinesse, I was their comfortour.

(c) That is, the young men.

(d) That is, the rulers.

(e) That is, the tyrannes.

(f) For it is to deliuer the poore, and iudgement is to punishe the wicked: these two are the deede of a kingly dignitie & gouernement.

(g) Or, a garment.

(h) That is, the tyrannes.

(i) That is, in my bed, quietly without these plagues.

(k) That is, I spent all things plentifully that appertayne to my necessarie (I say) for the drawe is signified happy & prosperous estate, & by the comming in mente his childre, as though he would say, my posteritie also shalbe inheritours.

(l) Or, hayre well.

(m) Or, rayne.

(n) Were as skilfull of warre as righteousnesse an vpright and vertuous life is.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1 Job complayneth that he is contemned of the most contemptible, 11.21. because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23 Death is the house of all liuyng.

(a) Before is declared how grieuous God doth handle the good, & here is shewed how proud & stiffe hearted they are that despise them.

1 They now despise me, whiche with all their power when I was in prosperitie could do nothing [but] worke me displeasure.

2 For wherto might the strength of (b) their handes haue serued me? for the time was but lost among them.

3 For very (c) miserie and hunger they fled into the wildernesse, a darke place, horrible and waste, 4 Plucking vp nettles among the bushes, and the iuniper rootes for their meate.

5 And when they were driuen foorth, men cryed after them as it had ben after a theefe.

(b) That is, the tyrannes.

(c) Shewing hereby their baseness and their pouertie, hoping such outcastes yet now they scorne Iob, which is a great griefe, to be mocked of such.

(a) What great griefe is this, that Iob hoping once in his aduersitie, now to be in misery and mocked of such vile villayns.

(b) That is, seeing me now in misery not able to correct them they iest and scorne at me without measure, as inuincibles in their affections

(c) The right hand declareth felicitie, and the left hand afflictio and misery: so that Iob meaneth by the young men that rise against him on the right hand, that they take away his substaunce and his felicitie as the Arabians did, as is before.

6 Their (d) dwelling was in the clefts of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth.

7 Among the bushes went they about crying, and vnder the thornes they gathered them selues together.

8 They were the children of fooles and villaynes, which are more vile then the earth.

9 Now am I their (e) song, & am become their yesing stocke.

10 They abhorre me and flee farre from me, and stayne my face with spittle.

11 Because God hath loosed my corde and humbled me, they haue loosed the (f) bridle before me.

12 Vpon my (g) right hande ryse the young men against me, they haue hurt my frete, treading vpon me as vpon the wayes of their destruction.

(d) Shewing hereby their baseness and their pouertie, hoping such outcastes yet now they scorne Iob, which is a great griefe, to be mocked of such.

(e) What great griefe is this, that Iob hoping once in his aduersitie, now to be in misery and mocked of such vile villayns.

(f) That is, seeing me now in misery not able to correct them they iest and scorne at me without measure, as inuincibles in their affections

(g) The right hand declareth felicitie, and the left hand afflictio and misery: so that Iob meaneth by the young men that rise against him on the right hand, that they take away his substaunce and his felicitie as the Arabians did, as is before.

13 My

13 Why (b) pathes haue they cleane marred, it was so easye for them to do me harme, that they needed no man to help them.

(b) That is, they ouerthrowe all my doinges without hope of any other.

14 They fell vpon me, as it had ben the breaking in of waters, and came in by heapes to destroy me.

15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they pursue my soule as the wind, and my health passeth away as (l) a cloude.

(l) That is, most swiftly.

16 Therfore is my soule now powred out vpon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken hold vpon me.

17 My bones are pearsed through in the night season, and my sinewes take no rest.

18 For the vehemencie of sorowe is my garment chaunged, whiche compasseth me about as the (k) coller of my coote.

(k) It is the manner among the Hebrues to haue their garmentes sowen rounde in euery part, saue a hole only in the highest of it to put forth the necke.

19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like ashes and dust.

20 When (l) I crie vnto thee, thou doest not heare me: and though I stande before thee, yet thou regardest me not.

(l) Iob sayeth not this as blaming God, but beeyng afflicted maruelously affection.

21 Thou art become myne enemie, and with thy violent hande thou takest part against me.

22 [In times past] thou diddest (m) set me vp on hye, to be caried as it were aboue the wynde, [but nowe] hast thou geuen mea very sore fall.

(m) & hast vs, teste vobis set vs, while aduersitie, and so by thy power destroyest vs.

23 Sure I am that thou wilt bryng me vnto death, euen to the (n) lodging that is due vnto all men liuing.

(n) Meaning death that shoulde bryng him to the graue.

24 Notwithstanding, thou wilt not (o) stretch out thyne hand against him that is in the graue: shal men crie out against him that is in destruction?

(o) He that is once dead, can no more helpe hym.

25 Dyd not I weepe with hym that was in trouble? had not my soule compassion vpon the poore?

26 Yet neuertheles, Where as I loked for good, euyll came vnto me: & (p) where I wayted for light, there came darkenesse.

(p) In steede of comfort they gaue me mockes.

27 My bowels seethe in me without rest, for the dayes of my trouble are come vpon me.

28 I went mourning without heate, I stoode vp in the congregation, & (q) communed with them.

(q) My talke was so lamentable, and my crying so great that I might well be called a companion of dragons and Estriches.

29 But nowe I am a brother of dragons, and a felowe of Estriches.

30 My skinne vpon me is [turned] to (r) blacke, and my bones are brent with heate.

(r) with the heate of my sore troubles.

31 My harpe is turned to mourning, and my organs into the voyce of them that weepe.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

1 Iob reciteth the innocentie of his liuing, and number of his vertues, which declareth what ought to be the lyfe of the faythfull.

(a) In this chapter Iob declareth his vpright liuing, not to boast against God, but to reiect the false slaunder of his aduersaries.

(b) The flesshe was obedient to the spirite, neither was he led with carnall desire.

(c) Iob here sheweth that the feare of God, did driue him fro wickednesse.

(d) Meaning that before men he was guiltles, in obseruing all the precepts of the seconde table.

1 Made a (a) couenaunt with myne eyes: why then (b) should I loke vpon a mayden?

2 For how great a portion shall I haue of God: and what inheritaunce from the almightie on hye?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and straunge (c) punishement to the workers of iniquitie?

4 Doth not he see my wayes, and tell all my goynges?

5 If I haue walked in (d) vanitie, or if my feete haue runne to disceaue:

6 Let me be wayed in an euen balaunce, that God may see myne innocencie.

7 If my steppe hath turned out of the way, & myne heart walked after myne eyes, and if any blot haue cleaued to my handes:

8 Then shall I sowe, and an other eate: yea my (e) posteritie shalbe cleane rooted out.

(e) Or, plants.

9 If my heart haue ben deceaued by a woman, or if I haue layde wayte at my neyghbours doore:

10 Then let my wife (f) grinde vnto an other man, and let other men (e) lye with her.

(e) Let her be a bonde slaue to an other man.

(e) Or, bowe downe vpon her

11 For this is a wickednesse, and sinne that is worthy to be punished:

12 Yea a (g) fire that vtterly should consume and roote out all my increase.

(f) Though mans punishment for aduoutrie be omitted, yet gods plague will neuer rest to consume and roote it out

13 If I euer thought scorne to do right vnto my seruauntes & maydens, when they had any matter against me:

(g) That is, if I in false haue reiected the complaint of my seruaunt, what shoulde I do when God calleth me to iudgement?

14 When God (h) will sit in iudgement, what shall I do? & when he will visite me, what answere shal I geue him?

(h) Iob expresseth the cause why he vsed gentle hart seruauntes, for that they had one creator, & both made of the same substaunce.

15 He that (i) fashioned me in my mothers wombe, made he not him also? were we not both shapen a like in our mothers bodies?

16 If I denied the poore of their desire, or haue caused the eyes of the wydow to wayte in vayne:

17 If I haue eaten my (l) morsell alone, that ỹ fatherlesse hath not eaten therof:

(l) Meaning, that he hath ben beneficiall to the poore, to the fatherlesse and widowes.

18 (For from his youth it hath growen vp with me as with a father, and from my mothers wombe I haue ben guyde to the (wydowe.)

19 If I haue seene any perishe for want of clothing, or any poore for lake of rayment:

20 If his loynes haue not blessed me, because he was warmed with the fleece of my sheepe:

21 If I haue lift vp mine hand against the fatherlesse, when I sawe that I might helpe him in the gate:

22 Then let myne arme fall fro my shoulder, and myne arme holes be broken from the bone.

23 For I haue euer feared the vengeaunce and punishment of God, and (knewe very well that) I was not able to beare his burthen.

24 Haue I put my trust in golde? or haue I sayde to the wedge of golde, thou art my confidence?

25 Haue I reioyced because my power was great, and because my hande gat so much?

26 Dyd I euer greatly regarde the (k) rysing of the sunne? or had I the goyng downe of the moone in great reputation?

(k) By the rising vp of the sunne, and going downe of ỹ moone, he meaneth the prosperitie and felicitie that he was in.

27 Hath my heart medled priuyly with any disceite? or did I euer (l) kisse myne owne hande?

(l) That is, did I euer commende the worship of myne owne handes?

28 (That were a wickednesse worthy to be punished: for then shoulde I haue denyed the God that is aboue.)

29 Haue I euer reioyced at the hurt of myne enemie? or was I euer glad that any harme happened vnto him? Oh, no.]

30 I neuer suffred my mouth to sinne, by wishing a curse to his soule.

31 Dyd not the men of myne owne housholde say, who shall let vs to haue our belly full of his flesshe?

32 The straunger dyd not lodge in the streete, but I opened my doores vnto him that went by the way.

33 Haue I kept secrete my sinne, and hyd myne iniquitie, as Adam dyd?

34 Though I coulde haue made afeard a great (m) multitude, yet the most contemptible of the familie s dyd feare me: so I kept silence, and went not out of the (n) doore.

35 O that I had one which woulde heare me: beholde my signe in the whiche the almightie shal answere for me, though he that is my contrarie partie hath written a booke against me.

36 Yet will I take it vpon my (o) shoulder, & as a garlande binde it about my head.

37 I will tell hym the number of my gouinges, & go vnto him as to a (p) prince.

38 But if case be that my lande (q) crye against me, or that the (r) forowes therof make any complaynt:

39 If I haue eaten the fruites therof vnpayed for, yea if I haue greeued the soules of the maisters therof:

40 Then let thystles growe in steede of my wheate, and cockle for my barlye.

(m) That is, I did not feare to do iustice, eyther be geuing care to ỹ multitude or to get the fauour of my frendes and kinred.

(n) Meaning that he did not holde his peace, or kepe at home in the vnrighteous cause of mine.

(o) That is, I will carie the booke that the aduersarie shal make, vpō my shoulder, and will accept it for a great gift, meaning he would cōfesse his fault if he had offended.

(p) That is, with great reuerence.

(q) That is, if the husbanding that hath ben occupied in the land, haue ben defrauded of his wages by me.

(r) That is, if I haue by violence compelled my land to be eared, and not geuen foode to the labourers.

Here end the wordes of Iob.

The. xxxii. Chapter.

1 Elihu reproueth them of folly. 3 but the spirite of God. 8 Age maketh not a man wise.

1 SO these three men ceased to answere Job, (a) because he held him selfe a righteous man.

2 But Elihu the sonne of Barachel the (b) Buzite, of the kinred of Ram, was very sore displeased at Job, because he called hym selfe iust before God.

(a) The Hebrues reade, Iob was iust in his owne eyes.

(b) That is descended from Buz, who was the sonne of Nahor the brother of Abraham, as in the 22. of Genesis paraphrasis Abyen.

3 And with Jobs three frendes he was angry also, because they had founde no reasonable answere, and yet condemned Job.

4 Nowe taried Elihu, till they had ended their cōmunication with Job: for why? they were elder then he.

5 So when Elihu sawe that these three men were not able to make Job answere, he was miscontent.

6 Ther-

6 Therfore Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite answered, and sayde: ¶ Considering that I am young, and ye be men of age, I was afrayde, and durst not shewe forth my mynde.

25 7 For I thought thus within my selfe: "It becommeth old men to speake, and the aged to teache Wysdome.

"Or, The dayes shall speake
"Or, The multitude of yeres shall

8 Euery man no doubt hath a mynde, but it is the inspiration of the almyghtie that geueth vnderstanding.

9 Great men are not alway wyse, neither doth euery aged man vnderstande the thing that is lawfull:

"Or, iudgement.

10 Therefore I say, heare me, and I will shewe you also myne vnderstanding.

11 For when I had wayted till ye made an end of your talking, and hearde your Wysdome, (c) what argumentes ye made in your communication,

(c) To proue Iob plagued for his offences.

12 Yea when I had diligently pondred What ye sayde, I found not one of you that made any good argument against Iob, that directly could make answere vnto his wordes, 13 Lest ye should say: We haue found out Wisdome, (d) God shall cast hym downe, and no man.

(d) And as though there were not had wrought for them so haue their peace.

14 He hath not spoken vnto me, and I will not answere hym as ye haue done.

15 For they were so abashed, that they coulde not make answere, nor speake one worde.

16 When I had wayted (for they spake not, but stoode still and answered no more:)

17 Then answered I in my turne, and I shewed myne opinion.

18 For I am full of "matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me.

"Or, wordes

19 Beholde, my (e) belly is as the wine, which hath no vent, lyke the newe bottels that breake.

(e) That is, I shall be breaken in the middes, if I shoulde not speake, my minde is to hot within me

20 (Therfore) will I speake, that I may haue a vent: I will open my lippes, and make answere.

21 I will "regarde no maner of person, no man will I spare.

(f) I will spare neither all thinges layd apart

22 For if I woulde go about to (g) please men, I knowe not howe soone my maker would take me away.

(g) The Hebrue word is, to alter the name, calling a rude man learned, or a lewd man iust.

The. xxxiii. Chapter.

5 Elihu accuseth Iob of ignorance. 14 He sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instruct man and to drawe hym from sinne. 19 He afflicteth man and sodenly deliuereth hym, 26 Man beyng deliuered geueth thankes to God.

1 Herefore heare my wordes O Iob, and hearken vnto all that I will say:

2 Behold, I haue now opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my throte.

A (a) There is cause why ye should be afrayde before me although I be young. for I am as you are, made by gods spirite created of the earth, and because lyke of hym

3 My heart doth order my wordes aright, and my lippes talke of pure wysedome.

(b) Iob before desired to pleade his cause before god without feare, therfore sayth Elihu I am here in gods steede, whom thou needst not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.

4 The (a) spirite of God hath made me, and the breath of the almyghtie hath geuen me my lyfe.

5 If thou canst then geue me answere, prepare thy selfe and stande before me face to face.

6 Beholde, (b) before God I am euen as thou: for I am fashioned & made euen of the same molde.

(c) I haue heard the boast of thy righteous life that thou art innocent and wilt therefore suffer me not proue thee touched of thy former life, but by these thy wordes.

7 Beholde, my terrour shall not feare thee, neither shall my hande be heauy vpon thee.

8 (c) Now hast thou spoken in myne eares, & I haue heard the voyce of thy wordes:

9 I am cleane without any fault, I am innocent, & there is no wickednesse in me.

10 But lo, he hath piked a quarell against me, and taketh me for his enemie.

11 He hath put my foote in the stockes, and looketh narowlye vnto all my pathes.

12 Behold, in this hast thou not done right, I will make answere vnto thee, that God is greater then man.

13 And why doest thou then striue against him: for he shall not geue the accomptes of all his wordes.

14 For God speaketh (d) once or twise, and yet man vnderstandeth it not.

(d) God speaketh two maner of wayes vnto men, either by sleepe, or by the rod of sickenesse and other plagues.

15 In dreames and visions of the night, when slumbring commeth vpon men that they sleepe in their beddes, 16 He roundeth them in the eares, and sealeth their correction:

17 That he may withdrawe man from euyll enterprises, and deliuer hym from (e) pride, (e) For to beate downe the pryde of man God sendeth his plagues.

18 And kepe his soule from the graue, and his life from the swerde.

19 He chasteneth hym with sickenesse vpon his bedde, he layeth sore punishement vpon his bones:

(f) That is, sickenesse that ouercometh nature so that no sustenance can be taken.

20 So that his (f) lyfe may away with no bread, and his soule abhorreth to eate any dayntie meate:

(g) Here speaketh Elihu, yet could not God speake by him after this sorte. Wherby God speaketh to man by affliction.

21 (g) In so much that his body is cleane consumed away, and his bones appeare which before were not seene.

22 His soule draweth vnto the graue, and his lyfe to "death.

(h) If there be a messenger seene to declare gods will to man, and shewe him the duetie of a man, he regardeth not his owne profite.

23 Now (h) yf there be a messenger, one among a thousande, sent for to speake vnto man, and to shewe him the right way:

24 Then the Lord is mercifull vnto him, and sayth, He shalbe delivered, that he fall not downe to the graue: for I am sufficiently reconciled.

(i) The health of the body, as the contrary of sicknesse.

25 Then shal his (i) flesche be as freshe as a childes, and shal returne as in the dayes of his youth.

26 He shall pray vnto God, and he will be fauorable vnto him, and he shall see his face with (k) ioy, for he will render vnto man his righteousnesse.

(k) He shall feele the comfort of the holy ghost.

27 A respect hath he vnto men, let man then say, I haue offended, I did vnrighteously, (l) it hath done me no good:

(l) That is, prouoked gods wrath vpon me.

28 Yea he hath delivered my soule from destruction, and (m) my lyfe shall see the light.

(m) That is, my soule shall appeare cleare in the land of the liuing.

29 Lo all these worketh God alway with man:

30 That he bring backe his soule from the graue to the light, yea the light of the lyuing.

31 Marke wel O Iob, and heare me: hold thee still, and I will speake.

32 But if thou hast any thing to say, then (n) aunswere me, and speake: for I desire to iustifie thee.

(n) That is, to shrinke thy selfe vnder, and not wicked.

34 If thou hast nothing, then heare me, and hold thy tongue, and I shall teache thee wysdome.

The .xxxiiii. Chapter.

5 Elihu chargeth Iob that he calleth him selfe righteous. 12 He sheweth that God is iust in iudgementes. 24 God destroyeth the mightie. 30 By him the hypocrite raigneth.

A

1 Elihu proceeding in his aunswere, sayde:

2 Heare my wordes O ye wise men, hearken vnto me ye that haue vnderstanding:

3 For the eare discerneth wordes, and the mouth tasteth the meates.

(a) Here Elihu proueth that God can not be vniust, because he is the iudge of the world the gouerno[r] and creator of all.

4 As for (b) iudgement, let vs seke it out among our selues, that we may knowe what is good.

(b) Let vs seke the cause by reasoning in order of iustice.

5 [And why:] Iob hath sayd, I am righteous, and God hath (c) taken away my iudgement.

(c) That is, he hath not dealt with me according to the equitie of my cause.

6 In my right I shoulde be a lyer: my wounde is incurable without my fault.

7 Where is there such a one as Iob, that (d) drinketh vp scornefulnesse like water:

(d) Lie, or the vnrighteous act of the wicked.

8 Which goeth in the compame of wicked doers, and walketh with vngodly men:

B

9 For he hath sayde, It profiteth a man nothing that he shoulde walke with God.

10 Therfore hearken vnto me ye that haue vnderstanding: farre be it from God that he shoulde meddle with wickednesse, & farre be it from the almightie that he shoulde meddle with vnrighteous dealing.

11 For he shall rewarde man after his workes, and cause euery man to finde according to his wayes.

12 Sure it is that God wil not do wickedly, neither wyll the almightie pervert iudgement.

13 Who ruleth the earth but he: or who hath placed the whole world:

14 If he set his heart vpon [man] and gather vnto hym selfe his spirite and his breath,

C

15 All flesche shall come to naught at once, and all men shall turne againe vnto dust.

16 If thou nowe haue vnderstanding, heare what I say, and hearken to the voyce of my wordes:

(e) As though Elihu would say, is it meete that the vniust and wicked shalbe rulers, or incorrecte commit wickednesse, or vnfeeling to controll princes, or rebellious to resist the king: how much lesse thē ought thou to do so to God, the king of all kinges.

17 May he be a (e) ruler that loueth not right: or may he that is a very innocent man do vngodly:

18 Is it reason that thou shouldest say to the king, Thou art wicked, or thou art vngodly, and that before the princes:

19 God hath no respect vnto the persons of the lordly, and regardeth not the riche more then the poore: for they be al the worke of his handes.

20 In

20 In the (f) twincklyng of an eye shall they dye, and at mydnight When the people and the tirantes rage, then shall they perisshe, & be taken away Without handes.
21 For his eyes loke vpon the Wayes of man, and he seeth all his goinges.
22 There is no darkenesse nor shadowe of death that can hide the Wicked doers from him.
23 For God Wil not lay vpon man more then he hath sinned, that he should enter into (g) iudgement With him.
24 He shall destroy the mightie Without seekyng, and shall set other in their (h) steede.
25 Therefore shall he declare their Workes: he shall (i) turne the night, and they shalbe destroyed.
26 The vngodly doth he punishe (k) openly,
27 Because they tourned backe from him, and Would not consider all his Wayes:
28 Insomuch that they haue caused the voyce of the (l) poore to come vnto him, and now he heareth the complaint of such as are in trouble.
29 When he geueth quietnesse, Who can make trouble: and When he hydeth his face, Who can beholde him: Whether it be vpon nations, or vpō one man onely:
30 Because the hypocrite doth raigne, because the people are snared.
31 Surely of God onely it can be saide, I haue pardoned, I Wyll not destroy.
32 If I haue gone amisse, enfourme thou me: If I haue done Wrong, I Wyll leaue of.
33 Wyll he perfourme the thing through thee: for thou hast reproued his iudgement, thou also hast thyne owne minde, and not I: But speake on What thou knowest.
34 Let men of vnderstanding tell me, and let a Wyse man hearken vnto me.
35 Iob hath not spoken of knowledge, neither Were his Wordes according to Wysdome.
36 O (m) father, let Iob be " well tryed, because he hath answered for Wicked men:
37 Yea about his sinne he doth Wickedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplyeth his Wordes against God.

(f) That is, sodainely before they are aware of it.
(g) For many fraple nature cannot reache to Gods inscrucable secrets and therefore must leaue the with all humilitie.
(h) God exalteth one and humbleth an other, as the foure Monarchies of the worlde for example that is, of the Assyrians, of the Persians of the Grecians, and of the Romanes: as God doth mightyly so doth he iustly.
(i) That is, he shall bring to light that Which lay in darkenesse.
(k) That is, in the sight of all men.
(l) Though their cruell and vnmercyful handling of them.
(m) Elihu doth not scorne to Iob nor vseth hard speache against him, but desireth God that he may declare vnto him his offence, which cannot be brought to passe but by affliction.
" Or, vnto the ende.

The .xxxv. Chapter.

6 Neither doth godlines profite, or vngodlines hurt God, but man. 13 The wicked crye vnto God, and are not heard.

A 1 Elihu (a) spake moreouer and saide:
2 Thinkest thou it right that thou sayest, I am more righteous then God:
3 For thou sayest: What aduauntage Wyll it be vnto thee, and What profite shall I haue of my sinne:
4 Therefore Wyll I geue answere vnto thee, and to thy (b) companions With thee.
5 Loke vnto the (c) heauen and beholde it, consider the cloudes Which are hyer then thou.
6 If thou hast (d) sinned, What hast thou done against him: If thyne offences be many, What hast thou done vnto him:
7 If thou be (e) righteous, What geuest thou him: or What Wyll he receaue of thyne hande:
8 Thy Wickednesse [may hurt] a man as thou art, and thy righteousnesse [may profite] the sonne of man.
9 They Which are oppressed crye out vpon the multitude, yea they crye out for the power of the mightie:
10 But (f) none sayth, Where is God that made me: and that geueth " vs occasion to praise him in the night:
11 Which teacheth vs more thē the beastes of the earth, and geueth vs more Wysdome then the foules of heauen.
12 If any (g) such complaine, no man geueth answere, and that because of the Wickednesse of proude tiraunts.
13 For God Wyll not heare vanitie, neither Wyll the almightie regarde it.
14 Although thou sayest [to God] thou Wylt not regarde it: yet iudgement is before him, trust thou in him.
15 But now because his anger hath not (h) visited, neither called men to accompt With great extremitie:
16 Therefore doth Iob open his mouth but in vaine, & he multiplieth many Wordes Without knowledge.

(a) Iob holdyng his peace, Elihu beginneth his talke.
(b) To such as are lyke to thee in obstinacie, not leauing thy great errour.
(c) If the cloudes are higher then thou how much more is God excelling thee in al
(d) It doth nothing aduauntage God whether we be good or euil for he neadeth not mans helpe, he is most mightie, his maiestie is most glorious.
(e) As though he would say, if we be good, it is our owne: if we be euill, it is ours also.
(f) Iob is the better, that God feareth not to haue care of mortall thinges by proofe because if at the beginning are in prosperitie, and the godly are afflicted. But Elihu reckeneth that, saying the cause of their plagues is, for that they call not to God, nor hope any thyng in him.
" Or, songes.
(g) That is, God heareth them not, because they pray not, hartily to him in faith.
(h) Or, For if God should plague Iob according to his desert, he were not able to speake, but because God is of a mercyful Iob speaketh to the worse.

The

The .xxxvi. Chapter.

1 Elihu sheweth the power of God. 6 and his iustice, 9 and wherefore he punisheth. 15 The propertie of the wicked.

1 Elihu also proceeded, and saide:
2 Holde thee still a litle, & I shall shew thee what I haue yet to speake on gods behalfe.
A 3 I wyll open vnto thee yet farre higher knowledge, and wil ascribe righteousnesse vnto my maker.
4 And truely my wordes shall not be false, seeing he is with thee that is (a) perfect in knowledge.
5 Beholde, the great God casteth away no man, for he him selfe is (b) mighte in power and wysdome.
6 As for the vngodly he shall not preserue him, but shall helpe the poore to their right.
7 He shal not turne his eyes away from the righteous, but as (c) kinges shal they be in their throne, he shal stablish them for euer, and they shalbe exalted.
8 But if they be layde in chaynes, or bounde with the bondes of trouble, 9 Then wyll he (d) shew them their worke, & their sinnes which haue ouercome them.
10 He with punishing and nurturing of them, roundeth them in the eares, warneth them to leaue of from their wickednesse, and to amende.
11 If they now wyll take heede & serue him, they shal weare out their dayes in prosperitie, and their yeres in pleasure.
12 But if they wil not hearken, they shal go through the swoorde, and perishe or euer they be aware.
13 As for (e) hypocrites in heart, they shall heape vp wrath, (for them selues) for they call not vpon him, though they be his prisoners.
14 Thus shal their soule perishe in "foolishnes, and their lyfe among the fornicatours.
15 The poore shall he deliuer out of his affliction, and "rounde them in the eare when they be in trouble.
16 Euen so would he take thee out of the straite place, into a brode place wythe which there is no straitnes: yea, & make thy table quiet replenished with fatnesse.
17 Neuertheless, (f) thou hast commended the iudgement of the vngodly, and euen such a iudgement & sentence shalt thou suffer.
18 And seeing there is (g) wrath with God, beware lest he take thee away in thy wealth, & all that thou hast to redeeme thee can not deliuer thee.
19 Thinkest thou that he wyll regarde thy riches? he shall not care for golde, nor for all them that excell in strength.
20 (h) Spend not the night in carefull thoughtes, how he destroyeth some, and bringeth other in their place.
21 But beware that thou turne not aside to wickednesse and sinne, which hitherto thou hast chosen more then affliction.
22 Beholde, (i) God is of a mightie hie power: where is there such a guide and lawe geuer as he?
23 Who wyll reproue him of his way? who wil say vnto him, Thou hast done wrong?
24 Remember that thou do magnifie his worke which men do praise, 25 All men see it, yea men do beholde it a farre of.
26 Beholde, so great is God that he passeth our knowledge, (k) neither can the number of his yeres be searched out.
27 Sometime he restrayneth the rayne, and againe he sendeth rayne by his cloudes:
28 Which rayne the cloudes do droppe, and let fall aboundantly vpon men.
29 Who can consider the (l) spreadinges out of his cloudes, the coueringes of his tabernacle?
30 Behold, he doth stretch his light vpon it, and coureth the bottome of the sea.
31 For by these gouerneth he his people, and geueth them aboundance of meate.
32 With the cloudes he hydeth the light, and at his commaundement it breaketh out:
33 Which dashing vpon the next cloudes, shew tokens of wrath.

(a) And therefore credit my sayinges, for I come to speake for godlinesse.
(b) And therefore he will not destroy the iust, the poore, and the godly, seeing he is vnto him.
(c) So God hath exalted the godly & kept him.
(d) If he shal plagne the righteous, he wyll declare the cause of the same.
(e) Hypocrites that confesse God in their mouthes and not in their hartes wyll not acknowledge their offence and so runne into destruction, and confusion.
" Or vnaduisednes.
" Or open their eare.
(f) Thou hast allowed the counsaile of the wicked, and layd aside the counsaile of God as vniust.
(g) Beware, thou shalt be in perill, which can not be releassed for any price.
(h) That is, do not solicitously, hauing a time to do euil as the robbers in the night, or rauen not when thou art sollicite in the night whp some people do perishe and some do not, for therein thou offendest because it belongeth to the secretie of gods maiestie.
(i) What law maker then is more iust then he for he gaue the holy and immaculate law who durst then so call him vniust?
(k) For he is God from euerlasting, without beginning or ending.
(l) Gods magnificence is wonderfully declared in his creatures.

¶ The

¶ The. xxxvij. Chapter.

2 Elihu proueth that the vnsearcherable wysdome of God is manifest by his wozkes, 4 as by the thunders, 6 the snowe, 9 the whirle winde. 11 and the rayne.

(a) That is, at Gods wõderfull creatures, as the thunder and such lyke.

(b) As though he would say, the thunder is the dreadfull voyce of God.

(c) Which wozkes are as it were a confirmation of gods matter: for assoone as the thunder commeth they are for feare, wherein they shewe their owne weakenes, and be witnesse of Gods might.

(d) Not onely man, but beastes also are witnesses of gods power and mercie, whe they runne to their dennes for feare of the thunder.

(e) Meaning, the windes which are called the breath of God, which as they blow whot or colde so they frese or thawe the waters, making them lesser and greater.

(f) That is, to gather vapours frõ the earth, and to powre them downe at gods pleasure, to the watering of the same.

(g) That is, he scattereth the cloudes abroade with the lightninges that are inclosed in them.

(h) Gods creatures are all at his becke to do his pleasure, either to plague any lande of his, or to be good vnto any.

AT (a) this also my heart is astoned, and moued out of his place.

Heare (b) then the sounde of his voyce, & the noyse that goeth out of his mouth.

He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the endes of the worlde.

A rozing voyce followeth it: for his glorious maiestie geueth a thũder clappe, & he will not stay whẽ his voyce is heard.

God thundzeth marueylously with his voyce, great thinges doth he which we can not comprehend.

He commaundeth the snow, and it falleth vpon earth: he geueth the rayne a charge, and the showres haue their strength and fall downe.

With the force of the rayne he shutteth men vp, that all men may knowe his (c) wozkes.

The beastes (d) creepe into their dennes, and remaine in their places.

Out of the south commeth the tempest, and colde out from the nozth winde.

At the (e) breath of God the hoare frost is geuen, and the brode waters are frosen.

He maketh the (f) cloudes to labour in geuing moystnesse, and againe with his (g) light he dryeth away the cloude.

He turneth the heauens about by his gouernement, that they may do whatsoeuer he (h) commaundeth them vpon the whole worlde.

13 Whether it be for punishment, or for his lande, or to do good to them that seeke him.

14 Hearken vnto this O Iob, stand still, and consider the wonderous wozkes of God.

15 Didst thou knowe when God disposed them, & caused the (i) light of his cloudes to shine?

16 Hast thou knowen the varietie of the cloudes, and the wonderous wozkes of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 And how thy clothes are warme, when the lande is stil through the south winde?

18 Hast thou helped him to spreade out the heauens which are strong and bright as a (k) loking glasse?

19 Teache vs what we shall saye vnto him: for we are vnmeete to frame our talke because of (l) darkenesse.

20 Shall it be tolde him what I saye? Shall man speake when he shalbe destroyed?

21 For men see not the light that shineth in the cloudes: but the winde passeth and cleanseth them.

22 The faire weather commeth out of the nozth, the prayse thereof is to God who is terrible.

23 It is the almightie, we can not finde him out: he is excellent in power and iudgement, and aboundaunt in iustice: he afflicteth not.

24 Let men therefore (m) feare him: for there shall no man see him that is wyse in his owne conceit.

(i) That is, the figurestaring.

(k) For the clearenes or brightnes of it, &c.

(l) That is, of our ignorance.

(m) Alluding to Iob.

¶ The. xxxviii. Chapter.

God speaketh to Iob and declareth the weakenes of man in the consideration of his creatures, by whose excellencie the power, iustice, and prouidence of the creator is knowen.

1 THen answered the Lorde vnto Iob out of the (a) whirle winde, and saide:

2 what is he that (b) darkeneth his counsaile by wordes without knowledge?

3 Girde vp thy (c) loynes lyke a man: for I wyl question with thee, see thou geue me a direct answere.

4 where wast thou when I (d) layed the foundations of the earth? Tell playnely, if thou hast vnderstanding.

5 who hath measured it, knowest thou? or who hath (e) spread the lyne vpon it?

6 whereupon are the (f) foundations set? or who layed the (g) corner stone thereof?

7 where

(a) To shewe his maiestie, and to instruct Iob before whom he spake.

(b) That speaketh so concerning and obscurely.

(c) That is, prepare thy selfe to answere.

(d) Inferring by this, that if he could not comprehende gods wonderfull wozkes, much lesse his vnsearchable wysdome

(e) That is, compassed the earth with his borders

(f) Meaning, the handes of God, which holde vp as a pyller the heauens and the earth that it falleth not

(g) That is, who layd the foundations of the earth and made it so stedfast that it falleth not

7 Where wast thou when the morning starres prayſed me together, and all the children of God reioyced triumphantly?

8 Who (b) ſhut the ſea with doores, when it brake foorth as out of the wombe?

9 When I made the cloudes (to be) a couering for it, and (i) ſwadled it with the darke:

10 When I gaue it my commaundement, making doores and barres for it, 11 Saying, Hitherto ſhalt thou come, but no further: and here ſhalt thou laye downe thy proude and hie waues.

12 Haſt thou geuē the morning his charge ſince thy dayes, and ſhewed the day ſpring his place, 13 That it might take holde of the * corners of the earth, and that the vngodly might be ſhaken out of it.

14 (k) They are faſhioned as is the clay with the ſeale, and all ſtand vp as a garment.

15 The vngodly ſhall be diſapointed of their light, and * the arme of the proude ſhalbe broken.

16 (l) Canneſt thou euer into the * grounde of the ſea, or walkedſt in the lowe corners of the deepe?

17 Haue the gates of death ben opened vnto thee? or haſt thou ſeene the doores of the ſhadowe of death?

18 Haſt thou alſo perceaued how brode the earth is? If thou haſt knowledge of all this:

19 Then ſhewe me the way where light dwelleth, & where is the place of darkeneſſe?

20 That thou ſhouldeſt receaue it in the boundes thereof, and know the pathes to their houſes.

21 Kneweſt thou afore thou waſt borne how olde thou ſhouldeſt be?

22 (m) Wenteſt thou euer vnto the treaſures of the ſnow, or haſt thou ſeene the ſecrete places of the hayle, 23 Which I haue prepared againſt the time of trouble, againſt the time of battaile and warre?

24 By What way is the light parted? and into What land breaketh the eaſt winde?

25 Who deuideth the waters vnto diuers chanels? or Who maketh a Way for the lightening and thunder, 26 To cauſe it to rayne on the earth where no man is, and in the wildernеſſe where none inhabiteth?

27 To ſatisfie the deſolate and waſte grounde, and to cauſe the budde of the hearbe to ſpring foorth.

28 Who is the (n) father of the rayne? or Who hath begotten the droppes of the deawe?

29 Out of whoſe wombe came the yce? Who hath gendred the * coldneſſe of the ayre?

30 That the waters are * hidde as (with) a ſtone, and lye congealed aboue the deepe.

31 Wylt thou binder the ſweete influences of the ſeuen ſtarres? or looſe the bandes of Orion?

32 Canſt thou bring foorth Mazzaroth in their time? canſt thou alſo guide Arcturus with his ſonnes?

33 Knoweſt thou the courſe of heauen, that thou mayeſt ſet vp (o) the ordinaunce thereof vpon the earth?

34 Moreouer, canſt thou lift vp thy voyce to the cloudes, that they may powre downe a great rayne vpon thee?

35 Canſt thou ſend the lightninges alſo, that they may go their way, and be obedient vnto thee, ſaying, Lo here are we?

36 Who hath put wyſdome in the reynes? or Who hath geuen the heart vnderſtanding?

37 Who numbreth the cloudes in wyſdome? Who ſtilleth the vehement * waters of the heauen?

38 (p) To cauſe the earth to grow into hardneſſe, & the clots to cleaue faſt together?

39 (q) Wylt thou hunt the pray for the lion? or fill the appetite of the lions whelpes, 40 When they couche in their places, and tarie in the couert to lye in wayte?

41 Who prouideth meate for the rauen, When his young ones crye vnto God, and flee about for lacke of meate?

¶ The

(b) That is, Who after the creation ſhut vp the ſeas within their limites as with doores?

(i) As though the houge ſeas were but a weake childe in gods hand, to rule at his pleaſure.

(k) Though the vngodly ſtraut in their eſtate to endure long, yet they ſhalbe as weake as clay and as a garment ſhall ſoone periſhe.

* Or, the high arme.

(l) I iudge it right to be ſkilfull in the cauſe that he taugeth: but ſeeing thou knoweſt none of theſe thinges that are viſible, why wylt thou preſume to iudge of the inuiſible?

* Or, bottome.

(m) No man can go in the place where the ſnow is gendred. much leſſe may Iob clyme vp to heauen to know gods ſecretes.

* Or, froſt of the heauen.

* Or, ſtonie grounde, hard.

(o) The influence.

* Or, bottels.

(p) For ſo groweth the earth by the want of rayne

(q) After he had ſpoken of the vnreaſonable creatures aboue, he commeth to the earthly creatures, as though God ſhould ſay, the thinges in the cloudes are vnknowē to thee: how much leſſe then muſt thou be teacher to gods ſecret wyſdome.

The .xxxix. Chapter.

1 The bountie and prouidence of God, which extendeth euen to beastes, geueth man full occacion to put his confidence in God.

1 KNowest thou the time whē the wylde goates bring foorth their young among the stonye rockes: or (a) layest thou wayte when the hindes vse to calue?

(a) The chiefe ly referreth these beastes, for they bring foorth their youngings with greatest paine.

2 Canst thou number the monethes that they go with young? or knowest thou the time when they bring foorth?

3 They lye downe, they calue their young ones, and they are deliuered of their trauaile and paine:

4 Yet their young ones growe vp, and waxe fatte through good feeding with corne: They go foorth, and returne not againe vnto them.

5 Who letteth the wylde asse to go free? or who looseth the bondes of the wylde mule?

6 Euen I which haue geuen the wyldernesse to be their house, and the (b) barrayne land to be their dwelling.

(b) Some read it the salte or barraine ground. (c) For the prouision of all beastes most vncomfortable.

7 They (c) force not for the multitude of people in the citie, neither regarde the crying of the driuer:

8 But seeke their pasture about the mountaines, and followe the greene grasse.

9 Will the (d) vnicorne do thee seruice, or abide still by thy cribbe?

(d) If thou canst not rule the vnicorne, canst thou know gods secretes or appoynt him to do thy seruice?

10 Canst thou binde the yoke about the vnicornes in the forrowe, to make him plowe after thee in the valleyes?

11 Wayst thou trust him because he is strong, or commit thy labour vnto him?

12 Wayst thou beleue him that he will bring home thy * corne, or carry any thing vnto thy barne?

* Or, seede.

13 Gauest thou the faire winges vnto the peacockes, or winges and fethers vnto the Estriche?

14 For she leaueth her egges in the earth, and heateth them in the dust.

15 She remembreth not that they might be troden with feete, or broken with some wilde beaste.

(e) The Estriche when she hath hatched her egges, hideth them in the sande, and by the heate of the same the young are brought forth, but she leaueth the egges as carelesse, forgetting the place where she put them, and so her labour to vaine. (f) To be vnnaturall towards her owne. (g) Is vsed in all creatures, the cause of gods wisedome is declared.

16 So harde is she vnto her young ones as though they were not hers, and (e) laboureth in vaine without any feare.

17 And that because God hath (f) taken wysdome from her, & hath not geuen her vnderstanding.

18 When her time is that she fleeth vp on hie, she careth neither for the horse nor the ryder.

19 (g) Hast thou geuē the horse his strength, or learned him to ney corragiously?

20 Canst thou make him afrayde as a grashopper? Where as the stoute neyyng that he maketh is fearefull.

21 He breaketh the grounde with the hooffes of his feete, he reioyceth cherefully in his strength, and runneth to meete the harnest men.

22 He layeth aside all feare, his stomacke is not abated, neither starteth he backe for any swoorde.

23 Though the quiuers rattle vpon him, though the speare and shielde glister:

24 Yet rusheth he in fiercely beating the grounde, he thinketh it not the noyse of the trumpettes:

25 But when the trumpettes make most noyse, he saith, * tushe, for he smelleth the battaile a farre of, the noyse of the captaines and the shouting.

* Or, ha ha.

26 Commeth it through thy wysdome that the Goshauke flieth toward the (h) south?

(h) That is, because the regions are wel fedde from whence it commeth.

27 Doth the Egle mount vp, and make his nest on hye at thy cōmaundement?

28 He abydeth in stony rockes, and dwelleth vpon the hye toppes of mountaines:

29 From whence he seeketh his praye, and looketh farre about with his eyes.

30 His young ones also sucke vp blood: and where any dead body lyeth, there is he.

¶ The

¶ The, xl. Chapter.

2 How weake mans power is, being compared to the workes of God. 10 Whose power appeareth in the creation and gouerning of the great beastes.

1 Moreouer the Lorde spake vnto Job, and saide:

2 Shall he whom the almightie wyl chasten, contend with him? Should not he which disputeth with God, geue him an answere?

(a) Here Job confesseth his offence, and durst not speake for shame when God doth reprehende him: who can answere?

3 Then Job (a) answered the Lorde, saying:

4 Beholde, I am vyle, what shall I answere thee, [therefore] I wyll laye my hande vpon my mouth.

5 Once haue I spoken, but I wyll saye no more: yea twyse, but I wyl proceede no further.

6 Then answered the Lorde vnto Job out of the whirle winde, and saide:

7 Girde vp thy loynes now lyke a man: I wyll demaunde of thee, and make thou answere.

(b) Accounting, that for a man to accompt him selfe iust, is to accuse God for vniust.

8 Wylt thou (b) disanul my iudgement? or wylt thou condempne me, that thou mayst be righteous?

9 Is thy * power then lyke the power of God? maketh thy voyce a sounde as his doth?

* Or, arme.

10 Decke thy selfe now with excellencie and maiestie, and araye thy selfe with (c) beautie and glory:

(c) Which no man is able to do, for these thinges are onely pertayning to God.

11 Cast abrode the indignation of thy wrath, and beholde euery one that is proude, and abase him:

12 Loke on euery one that is arrogant, and bring him lowe, & destroy the wicked in their place:

(d) That is, cause them to be as it lye in his power. e Which God can onely do: and therefore doth teache Iob that he is not able to compare with God.

13 Hide them in the dust together, and couer their faces in * secrete:

14 Then wyll I confesse vnto thee also, that (e) thyne owne right hande shall saue thee.

15 Beholde the beaste (f) Behemoth, whō I made with thee, which eateth haye as an ore:

(f) The Hebrue say, Behemoth signifieth an Elephant, & some thinke his strengthe lyeth in the nauil which may be true. But the Lorde

16 Lo how his strength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the nauil of his body.

17 When he wyll, he spreadeth out his tayle lyke a Cedar tree, all his sinowes are stiffe.

18 His bones are lyke pipes of brasse, yea his bones are lyke staues of iron.

19 He is the chefe of the wayes of God, he that made him wyl make his sword to approche vnto him.

20 Surely the mountaines bring him foorth grasse, where all the beastes of the fielde take their pastime.

21 He resteth him in the shade, in the couerte of the reede and fennes.

22 The trees couer him with their shadowe, and the wyllowes of the brooke compasse him about.

23 Beholde, he drinketh vp whole riuers and feareth not, he thinketh that he can drawe vp Iordane into his mouth).

24 He taketh it with his eyes, and yet the hunter putteth (g) a bridle into his nose.

(g) Accounting, he is mightie amongst men, yet God can bridle him.

25 Canst thou drawe out (h) Leuiathan with an hooke, or binde his tongue with a corde?

(h) Leuiathan is a Whale.

26 Canst thou put a hooke in the nose of him, or bore his iawe through with a * naule?

* Or, angle.

27 Wyl he make many faire wordes with thee [thinkest thou] or flatter thee?

28 Wyll he make a couenaunt with thee? or wilt thou take him for a seruaunt for euer?

29 Wylt thou take thy pastime with him as with a birde, wilt thou binde him for thy maydens?

30 That thy companions may make a refection of him: or shall he be parted among the marchauntes?

31 Canst thou fil the basket with his skin? or the fishe panier with his head?

(i) For it is daungerous to trust Satan in any thing, yea it is hurtfull to touch him, for Leuiathan representeth Satan.

32 Laye thyne hande vpon him, remember the battaile, and do no more so.

33 Beholde his hope is in vaine: for shall not one perishe euen at the sight of him?

¶ The .xli. Chapter.

¶ By the greatnesse of this monster Leuiathan, God sheweth his greatnes and his power, which nothing can resist.

(a) If the [illegible] not be resisted, who can compare with the creator?

1 NO (a) man is so fierce that dare stirre him vp:
who is able to stande before me?

2 Or who hath geuen me any thyng afore-hande, that I may re-warde him againe? All thinges vnder heauen are myne.

3 I will not keepe secrete his great strength, his power, nor his comely proportion.

4 Who can discouer the face of his garment? or who shall come to him with a double bridle?

(b) That is, who dare take in his mouth.

5 Who (b) shall open the doores of his face? for he hath horrible teeth round about.

6 His scales are as it were strong shieldes, so fastened together as if they were sealed:

7 One is so ioyned to another, that no
ayre can come in:

8 Yea, one hangeth so vpon another, & sticketh so together, that they can not be sundred.

(c) That is, he throweth out flames of fire out of his mouth.
* Or, eye lidden of the morning.

9 His (c) neesinges make a glistering like fyre, and his eyes lyke the * morning shine.

10 Out of his mouth go torches, and sparkes of fire leape out.

11 And out of his nostrels there goeth a smoke, lyke as out of an hotte seething pot, or caldron.

12 His breath maketh the coles burne, and the flambe goeth out of his mouth.

(b) For Satan is the prince of the worlde, who ouercame by action but of by the ouerthrow his kingdome by his passion.

13 In his (b) necke ther remaineth strength, and nothing is so labourous for him.

14 The members of his body are ioyned
(so strait one to another,) and cleane so fast together, that he cannot be moued.

15 His (c) heart is as hard as a stone, and as fast as * the stythe that the smyth smiteth vpon.

(c) Scripture is called hard of heart, because he is ignorant of it, crueil, and vncreatable.
* Or, the anuyle stone.

16 When he goeth the mightie are afraide, and feare troubleth them.

17 If any man draweth out a sword at him, it shall not hurt him: there may neither speare, taueling, nor brestplate abide him.

18 He setteth asmuch by iron as by a strawe, and asmuch by brasse as by a rotten sticke.

19 He starteth not away from him that bendeth the bowe: as for sling stones he careth asmuch for stouble as for the.

20 He counteth the dartes no better then a strawe, he laugheth him to scorne that shaketh the speare.

(f) For the hardnesse of his skin is such that he lyeth vpon it without pain as in the darknesse.

21 (f) Sharpe stones are vnder him lyke potsheardes, and he lyeth vpon sharpe thinges as vpon the soft myre.

22 He maketh the (g) deepe to boyle lyke a pot, and stirreth the sea together lyke an oyntment.

(g) He sendeth out the waters in such sorte that the sea seeme to boyle
(h) With a white froth vpon the water.

23 He maketh the (h) path to be seene after him, and he maketh the deepe to seeme all hoarie.

24 Vpon earth there is no power lyke vnto his: for he is so made that he feareth not.

25 He beholdeth all the hye thinges, (i) he is a king ouer all the children of pride.

(i) He deceiueth all and is proudest of all.

¶ The .xlij. Chapter.

6 The repentaunce of Iob. 9 He prayeth for his friendes, 12 and his goodes are restored double vnto him.

1 THen Iob answered the Lord, and saide:

(a) Iob confesseth the omnipotencie of God, and beweyleth his offence that he spake he knew not what.

2 I (a) know that thou hast power
ouer all thinges, and that there is no thought hid vnto thee.

3 For who can keepe his owne counsaile so secrete but it shalbe known? Therefore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen the thinges that are to won-derfull for me, and passe myne vnder-standing.

4 Or (b) hearken thou vnto me also, and let me speake: aunswere vnto the thing that I will aske thee.

(b) Iob desireth to learne of God.

5 I haue heard of thee by the hearing of the eare, but nowe myne eye (c) seeth thee.

(c) He saw him not but by his worde, which is the face and image of God, as Christ is the maner of repentaunce was then to repente. (d) Some take they detended the iustice of God with carnall reasons.

6 Wherefore I geue myne owne selfe the blame, and take (b) repentaunce in the dust and asshes.

7 Now when the Lorde had spoken these wordes vnto Job, it came to passe that the Lorde saide to Eliphas the Themanite: I (c) am displeased with thee, and thy two frendes: for ye haue not spoken of me the thyng that is right, lyke as my (d) seruaunt Job hath done.

(c) For Job offended of ignorance.

8 Therefore take you now seuen oxen, and seuen rammes, and go (e) to my seruaunt Job, and offer vp for your selues a burnt offring, and my seruaunt Job shall pray for you: him will I accept, and not deale with you after your foolishnesse, in that ye haue not spoken of me the thing which is right, lyke as my seruaunt Job hath done.

(e) Reconciling your selues to him, in that ye haue done to offende, and then will I accept your prayer.

9 So Eliphas the Themanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite, went and did according as the Lorde commaunded them: the Lorde also accepted * the person of Job, 11 And then came there vnto him (f) all his brethren, all his sisters, and all they that had ben of his acquaintaunce (h) afore, and did eate bread with him in his house, and had compassion on him, and comforted him ouer all trouble that the Lorde had brought vpon him: euery man also gaue him a certaine summe of money, and * a iewell of golde.

12 So the Lorde blessed the last dayes of Job more then the first: for he had fourteene thousand sheepe, sixe thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses:

13 He had seuen sonnes also, and three daughters.

14 The first daughter called he (i) Jemima, the second (k) Kezia, and the third (l) Kerenhapuch.

15 In al the land were no women found so faire as the daughters of Job: and their father gaue them inheritaunce among their brethren.

16 After this liued Job an hundred and fourtie yeres: so that he sawe his children, and his childrens children into the fourth generation.

¶ The argument of the. xviij. Psalme

Dauid declareth that he wyll at all tymes trust in God and call vpon hym for helpe, because God hath with his mightie arme and wonderfull meanes deliuered hym from cruell enemies, which dyd set vpon hym lyke fiendes of hell. He imputeth this Gods fauour towardes hym to proceede of that he loued Gods worde, ryght dealyng, and honest companie. Thus encouraged with Gods presence and ayde, he maketh sure count, not only to ouerrunne and destroy his enemies and rebelles: but also to subdue vnto hym other nations of the heathen, that God amongst them also may be praysed.

I Wyll entirely loue thee O God my strength,

2 I wyll call vpon God, who is most worthy to be praysed: so I shall be safe from myne enemies.

5 But in this my distresse I dyd call vpon God, and I made my complaynt vnto my Lorde: he hearde my voyce out of his temple, and my crye came before his face, euen vnto his eares.

6 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations of the hylles tottered and shooke, because he was wroth.

7 In his anger a smoke ascended vp: and a fire out of his mouth dyd cõsume, and euery cole therof dyd set a fire.

8 He bowed the heauens also, and he came downe: and it was darke vnder his feete.

9 He ridde vpon the Cherub, and he dyd flee: he came fleeyng vpon the wynges of the wynde.

10 For his secrete place he dyd put darkenesse: and for his paulion rounde about hym, he dyd put darknesse of waters in cloudes of the ayre.

11 His cloudes, haylestones, and coles of fire: fell downe before hym after lyghtnyng.

12 God also thundred out of heauen: and the most hyghest made his voyce to sounde, haylestones, and coles of fire.

13 He shot out his arrowes, and scattered them: he cast forth much lyghtnynges, and destroyed them.

14 And the bottomes of waters appeared, and the foundations of the rounde worlde were discouered at thy chidyng, O God: at the blast of the breath of thyne anger.

¶ The argument of the.xxiij. Pfalme.

Dauid resemblyng God to a sheephearde and hym selfe to a sheepe, declareth that all commodities, plentie, quietnesse and prosperitie, ensueth them that be fully perswaded of Gods prouidence: for God feedeth, nourisheth, defendeth, and gouerneth those that put their wholl trust in hym after a more ample sorte then any sheephearde doth his sheepe.

¶ A psalme of Dauid.

¶ Dauid declareth, that although all the earth and all the inhabitours therof do pertayne to God, yet that he hath choſen moſt eſpecially the mount Sion: So that ſuch as wyll ſeke God and lyue vertuouſly, muſt dwell in that bleſſed mount. He alſo deſireth to builde a temple, for to place therin the arke of God, whiche he nameth the kyng of glorie.

¶ A pſalme of Dauid.

A 1 I LYft vp my ſoule vnto thee O God, I put my truſt in thee my Lorde: let me not be confounded, neither let myne enemies triumph ouer me.

¶ Of Dauid.

A Morning prayer.

1 PLeade thou my cause O God, with them that striue with me: and fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Lay hand vpon a shielde & buckler: and stande vp to helpe me.

3 Bryng foorth the speare, and stop [the way] against them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe and brought to cõfusion, that imagine mischiefe for me.

5 Let them be as dust before the winde: and let the angell of God scatter [them.]

6 Let their way be darke and slipperie: & let the angell of God persecute them.

7 For without a cause they haue priuily layde for me a "pit [full] of their nettes: without a cause they haue made a digging vnto my soule.

8 Let a sodayne destruction come vpon hym vnawares: and his net that he hath layde priuily catch hym selfe, let him fall into it with [his owne] destruction.

9 [And] my soule shalbe ioyfull in God: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my * bones shall say, God who is lyke vnto thee: whiche deliuerest the poore from hym that is to strong for hym: yea the poore and him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth him.

11 False witnesse did rise vp: they layde thinges to my charge that I know not.

12 They rewarded me euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Neuertheles, when they were sicke I did put on sackcloth: I afflicted my soule with fasting, and my prayer (b) returned into myne owne bosome.

14 I kept them (c) company whersoeuer they went, as though they had ben my frende or brother: I went heauyly, as one that mourned for his mother.

15 But in mine "aduersitie they reioyced and gathered them together: yea, the very "abiectes came together against me, yet I wyst they (d) rented me a peeces and ceassed not.

16 With hypocrites, scoffers, and parasites: they gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lorde howe long wylt thou looke [vpon this]: O deliuer my soule from their ragynges, and my "dearling from Lions whelpes.

18 So I will confesse it vnto thee in a great congregation: I will prayse thee among muche people.

19 O let not my deceitfull enemies triumph ouer me: let them not wynke with an eye, that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speake not peace: but they imagine deceitfull wordes against them that [liue] quietly in the lande.

21 They gaped vpon me with their mouthes: and said "this is well, this is wel, our eye hath (e) seene.

22 Thou hast seene [this] O God, holde not thy tongue [then:] go not farre from me O Lorde.

23 Stirre thou and awake O my God and my Lorde: to iudge my cause and controuersie.

24 Iudge me according thy righteousnesse O God my Lorde: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their heart, "it is as we would haue it: neither let them say, we haue deuoured hym.

26 Let them be put to confusion & shame [all] together that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour that exalt them selues against me.

27 Let them triumph with gladnesse and reioyce that be delighted with my righteousnesse: let them say alwayes, blessed be God whiche hath pleasure in the "prosperitie of his seruaunt.

28 And my tongue shalbe talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy prayse all the day long.

The argument of the. xxxvj. psalme.

¶ Dauid describeth the wickednesse and wretched ende of them that feare not God: And also the great goodnes of God towardes all creatures. He desireth his mercy and defence against the wicked

¶ To the chiefe musition, seruaunt to the God of Dauid.

A 1 The wickednes of the vngodly speaketh in the middest of my heart: that there is no feare of the Lorde before his eyes.
2 For he flattereth him selfe in his owne sight: so that his iniquite is found worthy of hatred.
3 The wordes of his mouth are vnrighteous and full of deceipt: he hath left of to behaue him selfe wisely & to do good.
4 He imagineth mischefe vpon his bed, & setteth him selfe in no good way: neither doth he abhorre any thing ỳ is euil.
5 Thy mercy O God reacheth vnto heauen: [and] thy (a) faythfulnes vnto the cloudes.
6 Thy righteousnes is like the mountaynes of (b) God: thy iudgementes are a great deapth, thou (c) sauest both man and beast O God.
7 How (d) excellent is thy mercy O Lord: therefore the chyldren of men shall put their trust vnder the shadowe of thy winges.
8 They shalbe satisfied with the "plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt geue them drinke out of the ryuer of thy delicates.
9 For with thee is the fountaine of lyfe: and in thy light shall we see light.
10 O (e) continue foorth thy louing kindnesse vnto them that knowe thee: and thy righteousnes vnto them that are of an vpright heart.
11 O let not the foote of pryde reache vnto me: and let not the hande of the vngodly make me to moue [out of my place]
12 There be the workers of iniquite fallen: they are cast downe, and shall not be able to rise vp.

(a) Or truth.
(b) High mountaines.
(c) Preserving them in this life maintaining them, nourishing them, and defending them.
(d) Or excellent is thy mercy.
(e) In this life, and eternall thy life.

¶ The argument of the .xxxvij. psalme.

¶ Dauid comforteth the godly, that they be not offended at the prosperitie of the wicked, or withdrawen therby from godlynes, as though God had no regarde of iustice, innocencie, and vpright dealing, when they see commonly the worst sort of men to haue the world at their wyll, abounding in health, riches and auctoritie. He sheweth that the condition of the godly and the vngodly be diuers, and how that God at the last rooteth out those that do euill, notwithstanding all their posteritie, and defendeth those that put their trust in him. God guydeth the faythfull, and neuer forsaketh them or their seede.

¶ Of Dauid.

A 1 Euening prayer. Fret not thy selfe because of the vngodly: neither be thou enuious against the euyll doers.
2 For they shall soone be cut downe like the grasse: and be withered euen as the greene herbe.
3 Put thou thy trust in God, and be doing good: dwell in the land, and (a) feede in trueth.
4 Delight thou also in God: and he shall geue thee thy hartes desire.
5 Commit thy way vnto God: and put thy trust in hym, and he shall bryng it to passe.
6 He shall make thy righteousnesse appeare as clearе as the light: and thy "iust dealing as the noone tyde.
7 Holde thee still in God, and wayte patiently vpon him: fret not thy selfe at him whose way doth prosper, at the man that doth abhominations.
8 Leaue of from wrath, and let go displeasure: fret not thy selfe, lest thou be moued "to do euill.
9 For the malitious doers shalbe rooted out: and they that patiently wayte after God, they shall inherite the lande.
10 [Loone at them yet a litle whyle, and the vngodly shalbe cleane gone: thou shalt looke after his place, and he shall not be there]
11 But the meeke spirited shall possesse the earth: and shalbe delighted in the aboundaunce of peace.
12 The vngodly busieth his head [all] against the iust: and gnasheth vpon him with his teeth.
13 The Lorde shall laugh him to scorne: for he seeth that his day is (b) comming.
14 The vngodly haue drawen out the sworde, and haue bended their bowe: to cast downe the poore and needie, and to slay such as be of right conuersation.
15 But their sworde shal go thorow their owne heart: & their bow shalbe broken.
16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of ỳ vngodly.

(a) Feede the trueth, and liue in the lawe of trueth
"Only for to do euill.
(b) Of destruction and ruine.

17 For the armes of the vngodly ſhalbe broken: and God vpholdeth the righteous.
18 God knoweth the dayes of them that be perfect: and their inheritaunce ſhall endure for euer.
19 They ſhall not be confounded in the perilous tyme: and in the dayes of dearth they ſhall haue inough.
20 As for the vngodly they ſhall periſhe, and the enemies of God ſhall conſume as "the fat of lambes: yea, euen with the ſmoke they ſhall vaniſhe away.
21 The vngodly boroweth and payeth not agayne: but the righteous geueth mercifully and liberally.
22 Suche as be bleſſed of God ſhall poſſeſſe the lande: and they that be curſed of hym, ſhalbe rooted out.
23 The pathes of man is directed by God: and his way pleaſeth.
24 Though he fall, he ſhall not be vndone: for God vpholdeth hym with his hande.
25 I haue ben a young chylde, and nowe I am olde: and yet ſawe I neuer the righteous forſaken, nor his ſeede begyng bread.
26 The righteous is euer mercifull and lendeth: and his ſeede is bleſſed.
27 Flee from euill & do good: and dwell for euer.
28 For God loueth iudgement, he forſaketh not his ſaintes: they are preſerued for euermore, but the ſeede of the vngodlye ſhalbe rooted vp.
29 The righteous ſhal inherite the land: and dwell therin for euer. D
30 The mouth of the righteous is exerciſed in wyſdome: and his tongue wyll be talking of iudgement.
31 The lawe of his God is in his heart: therfore his feete ſhall not ſlide.
32 The vngodly ſpyeth the righteous: and ſeeketh [occaſion] to ſlay hym.
33 God wyll not leaue hym in his hande: nor ſuffer hym to be condemned when he is iudged.
34 Wayte thou on God & kepe his way, and he wyll promote thee, that thou mayeſt poſſeſſe the lande: When the vngodly ſhalbe cut of, thou ſhalt ſee it.
35 I my ſelfe haue ſeene the vngodly in great power: and flouriſhing lyke a greene bay tree.
36 And he "vaniſhed away, ſo that he could be no more ſeene: I ſought hym, but he coulde no where be founde.
37 Marke hym that is perfect, and beholde hym that is iuſt: for the ende of ſuche a man is peace. E 38 As for wicked tranſgreſſours, they ſhalbe deſtroyed [all] together: and the (c) ende of the vngodly ſhalbe rooted vp at the laſt.
39 But ſaluation of the righteous commeth of God: Whiche is alſo their ſtrength in time of trouble.
40 And God wyll ayde them and deliuer them, he wyl deliuer them from the vngodly: and he wyll ſaue them, becauſe they put their truſt in him.

" That is, moſt precious of lambes.

" He paſſed away, and lo he was not.

The argument of the.xxxviii. pſalme.

¶ Dauid greeuouſly ſicke, beſeecheth God to turne away his wrath from hym, and to helpe hym: He complayneth of his afflictions, of the greeuouſnes of his diſeaſe, of the great burden of his ſinnes, and of the vnfaythfulnes of his frendes. He alſo declareth his truſt in God. Finally, he ſheweth that beyng chaſtened of God, he forgetteth not what he ſuffereth, wherfore, how long, with how much torment, and what helpe he receaued at Gods hande.

() Gods wrath againſt ſinne.

A Morning prayer.

1 REbuke me not O God in thyne anger: neither chaſten me in thy heauie diſpleaſure.
2 For thyne arrowes ſticke faſt in me: and thy hande preſſeth me ſore.
3 There is no helath in my fleſh thrugh thy diſpleaſure: neither is there any reſt in my bones by reaſon of my ſinne.
4 For my manyfolde wickednes is gone ouer my head: and like a ſore burthen is to heaue for me to beare.
5 My woundes ſtinke and are corrupt: through my foolyſhnes.
6 I am become crooked, and am exceedingly pulled downe: I go a mourning all the day long.
7 For my loynes are filled with heate: and and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I haue rored for the very disquietnesse of my heart.
9 Lorde thou knowest all my desire: and my groning is not hyd from thee.
10 My heart panteth, my strength hath fayled me: and the lyght of myne eyes is gone from me.
11 My louers and my neygbours dyd stande on the other syde lokyng vpon my plague: and my kinsmen stoode a farre of.
12 They also that sought after my lyfe layde snares [for me] and they that went about to do me euyll, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceipt all the day long.
13 As for me, as one deafe I woulde not heare: and [I was] as one that is dumbe [who] coulde not open his mouth).
14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and who hath no replies in his mouth.
15 For on thee O God I haue wayted: thou shalt answere for me O Lorde my God.
16 For I sayde [heare me] lest that they shoulde triumph on me: who auaunce [them selues] greatly agaynst me when my foote doth slyp.
17 Because I am disposed to a haltyng: and my sorowe is euer in my syght.
18 Because I confesse my wickednesse: and am sory for my sinne.
19 But myne enemies lyuyng [without payne] are mighte: & they that hate me wrongfully are increased in number.
20 They also that rewarde euyl for good are agaynst me: because I folowe the thyng that is good.
21 Forsake me not O God: O my Lorde be not thou farre fro me.
22 Haste thee to helpe me: O Lorde my saluation.

¶ The argument of the.xxxix. Psalme.

¶ Dauid signifieth that in the anguishe of his sickenesse he woulde haue vttered no worde, lest he should speake amisse in the presence of the vngodly. He desireth to knowe the ende of his life, which is but short, and vanitie. He prayeth also that his sinnes may be pardoned, and that his afflictions may be diminished.

2 I became dumbe through silence, I helde my peace from speakyng of good wordes: but the more was my sorowe increased.

¶ The prophete acknowledgeth God to haue deliuered Hieruſalem ſo notably out of perilles, that they all haue a cauſe to conceaue a full hope not for to feare any aduerſitie in tyme to come. He exhorteth other to behelde the great workes of God, and turneth his ſpeache to his aduerſaries.

The argument of the.xlix.pſalme.

¶ The prophete ſpeakyng to the poore and riche, declareth what a vanitie it is for a man to put his truſt in worldly goodes, and through them to become ſtout and arrogant: for that they can neither deliuer any man from trouble, calamitie, ſickneſſe, ſinne, death, and diſpleaſure of God: neither can any man aſſure them to hym ſelfe, or to his children for any tyme of continuaunce.

The argument of the. lj. psalme.

David acknowledgyng his great offence in committyng adulterie, beseecheth most humbly God of his great mercie to pardon his sinnes: partly that Gods promises may appeare true, who hath promised pardon to all them that from the bottome of their heart do confesse their faultes: partly also that he myght liue to builde the walles and temple of Hierusalem, where sacrifices of righteousnes must be offered.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirite from me.

¶ Dauid inueyeth against Doeg, and describeth his and all other mischeuous mens natures and doynges, which the godly perusing, be more incited to put their whole confidence in God and to prayse God.

¶ To the chiefe musition, a wyse instruction of Dauid, when Doeg the Edomite came to Saul and tolde him, saying: Dauid is come to the house of Achimelek. 1. Sam. 21.

A 1 Why boastest thy self thou tiraunt of mischefe? the goodnes of God dayly endureth.

The argument of the. liij. psalme.

¶ Dauid declareth the originall roote, with the fruites and punishment of the wicked, how they oppresse cruelly the people of God, whom neuertheles God by his prouidence defendeth and wyll deliuer from the bloodie handes of the wicked, whose vngodlynes he detesteth alwayes.

2 The Lorde looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that did vnderstand and seeke after the Lorde.

A Fayth-ful prayer. a Great calamitees.

1 Saue me O Lorde: for " waters haue entred in vnto my soule.
2 I am ouer the head in deepe myre where I feele no grounde: I plunge in deepe waters where the streame ouerwhelmeth me.
3 I am weery of crying, my throte is dryc: my syght fayleth me through the long attendaunce that I haue geuen vpon my Lorde.
4 They that hate me without a cause are mo then the heeres of my head: they that are myne enemies and would destroy me guyltlesse are mightie, I payde them the thynges that I neuer toke.
5 God thou knowest my folly: and my faultes are not hyd from thee.
6 Let not them that trust in thee O Lorde God of hoastes, be for my cause ashamed: let not those that seke thee, be through me confounded O Lorde of Israel.
7 For thy sake haue I suffered reproofe, shame hath couered my face: I am become a straunger vnto my brethre, euen an aliaunt vnto my mothers children.
8 For the zeale of thine house hath euen eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.
9 And I wept, chastenyng my soule with fastyng: and that was turned to my reproofe.
10 Also I put on sackcloth for my garment: and they iested at me.
11 They that sit in the gate speake agaynst me: and they that drynke strong drynke [make] songes [vpon me.]
12 But [I make] my prayer vnto thee O God in an acceptable tyme: heare me O Lord in the multitude of thy mercie, according to the trueth of thy saluation.
13 Take me out of the myre, that I sincke not: oh let me be delyuered from them that hate me, & out of the deepe waters.
14 Let not the water fludde drowne me, neither let the deepe swallowe me vp: & let not the pyt shut her mouth vpon me. ¶
15 Heare me O God, for thy louyng kyndnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me according vnto the multitude of thy mercies.
16 And hyde not thy face from thy seruaunt, for I am in trouble: O haste thee [and] heare me.
17 Draw nigh vnto my soule & redeeme it: for myne enemies sake oh redeeme me.
18 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: myne aduersaries are all in thy syght.
19 Reproofe hath broke my heart a peeces, I am full of heauinesse: I loked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was none, and for some that shoulde comfort me, but I coulde fynde none.
20 They gaue me for meate, gall to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vineger to drynke.
21 Let their table be as a snare before them: and in steade of aboundaunce of "peace, let it be a meanes of destruction.

" Quietnes and pleasure.

22 Let their eyes be blynded that they ſee not: and euer bowe downe their loynes.
23 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull diſpleaſure take holde of them.
24 Let their habitation be deſolate: and let no man dwell in their tabernacles.
25 For they perſecute hym whom thou haſt ſmitten: and they talke of the griefe of them whom thou haſt wounded.
26 Let them fall from one wickednesſe to another: and let them not enter into thy ryghteouſneſſe.
27 Let them be wyped out of the booke of the lyuyng: and not to be wrytten among the ryghteous.
28 As for me I am afflicted and in heauineſſe: thy ſauing helpe O Lorde "ſhal defende me.

29 I wyll prayſe the name of the Lorde with a ſong: and magnifie hym with a ſolenme confeſſion.
30 And it wyll pleaſe God: better then a bullocke that hath hornes and hoofes.
31 The humble wyll conſider this and be glad, ſuch as ſeke after God: and your ſoule ſhall lyue.
32 For God heareth the poore: & diſpiſeth not his priſoners.
33 Let heauen and earth prayſe hym: the ſea and all that moueth therin.
34 For the Lorde wyll ſaue Sion, and builde the cities of Jehuda: that men may dwel there and haue it in poſſeſſiō.
35 The poſterite alſo of his ſeruauntes ſhall inherite it: and they that loue his name ſhall dwell therin.

¶ The prophete beyng aſſured of Gods ayde, deſireth to be delyuered of his wicked and cruell enemies, againſt whoſe malice he complayneth before the face of God. And forſomuch as euen from his youth he hath put his truſt in God: he prayeth that nowe in his olde age he be hearde and helped, to the intent that God may be prayſed for his deliueraunce. Wherfore, after he hath vttered his enemies thoughtes, and prophecied of their deſtruction: he ſayth that he wyll go to warre, truſtyng in the power of God, who before tyme hath reſtored hym out of ſundry afflictions and temptations, vnto a better ſtate and condition then euer he had before.

A 1 Morning prayer.

IN thee O God I haue put my truſt, let me neuer be put to confuſion: ridde me and deliuer me in thy ryghteouſneſſe, incline thine eare vnto me, and ſaue me.
2 Be thou my ſtrong holde wherevnto I may alway reſort: thou haſt (a) geuen a charge to ſaue me, for thou art my houſe of defence, and my caſtell.

(a) To his angels & other creatures, not to oppreſſe Dauid in his troubles.

3 Delyuer me O my Lorde out of the hande of the vngodly: out of the hande of the vnryghteous and cruell man.
4 For thou O Lorde God art the thyng that I long for: thou art my hope euen from my youth.
5 Through thee haue I ben mayntayned euer ſince I was borne: thou art he that toke me out of my mothers wombe, my praiſe ſhalbe alway of thee.
9 I am become as it were a monſter vnto many: but my ſure truſt is in thee.
7 Oh let my mouth be fylled: with thy prayſe playse and glone all the day long.

23 8 Cast me not away in the tyme of age: forsake me not when my strength fayleth me.

9 For myne enemies speake against me: and they that lay awayte for my soule take their counsayle together.

10 They say, the Lorde hath forsaken hym: do you persecute hym and take hym, for there is none to delyuer hym.

11 Go not farre from me O Lorde: haste thee O my Lorde to helpe me.

12 Let them be confounded, let them be brought to naught that are agaynst my soule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour that seke to do me euyll.

13 As for me I wyll patiently wayte alway: and I wyll prayse thee more and more.

14 My mouth shall dayly speake of thy ryghteousnesse and saluation: for I knowe no "ende therof.

* Knowe not the number.

15 I wyll go foorth in the (b) strength of the Lorde God: [and] I wyll only make mention of thy ryghteousnesse.

(b) To battayle.

℣ 16 Thou O God hast taught me from my youth: and hytherto I can well declare thy wonderous workes.

17 Wherfore whylest I am olde and am gray headed: O Lorde forsake me not, vntyll I haue shewed thy arme vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

18 And vntyll I haue exceedyngly exalted O Lorde thy ryghteousnesse: for great thynges are they that thou hast done, O Lorde who is lyke vnto thee?

19 Which hast made me to feele many great troubles and aduersities: yet returnyng thou hast reuyued me, yea returnyng thou hast caused me to come out from the bottome of the earth.

20 Thou hast brought me to greater honour then I had before: & thou returnyng hast comforted me on euery syde.

21 Therfore I wyll confesse vnto thee thy trueth O Lorde, playing vpon an instrument of musicke: vnto thee I wyl syng psalmes vpon the harpe O thou most holy [God] of Israel. ℣

22 My lyppes wyll be ioyfull when I syng vnto thee: and so wyll my soule which thou hast redeemed.

23 My tongue also shal talke of thy righteousnesse all the day long: for they are confounded and brought vnto shame that seke to do me euyll.

¶ The prophete in the name of the people of Israel complayneth of their affliction, howe that they be as forsaked of God: howe that their temple is set a fire, and raced, and the worde of God abolished. He humbly prayeth that these calamities may haue an ende, that iust punishment & auengeaunce may be taken of the enemies, and that they may be defended for his couenaunt sake, as his fathers were commyng out of Egypt.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast ordeyned summer and wynter.

1 Eare my lawe ○ my people: enclyne your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.
2 I wyll open my mouth in a parable: I wyll declare harde ſentences of the olde tyme paſt.
3 Which We haue heарde and knowen: and ſuch as our fathers haue tolde vs.
4 We wyll not hyde them from their children: nay We wyll ſet forth in wordes to the generation to come, the prayſes of God, and his myght and Wonderfull wonderfull workes that he hath done.

5 For he reuiued a statute in Jacob, and gaue Israel a lawe: in the whiche he commaunded our forefathers to teache their children.
6 To the intent the posteritie shoulde knowe it, [and] children which shalbe borne: that they shoulde rise vp and declare it to their children.
ℬ 7 That they shoulde put their trust in God, and not forget the workes of God: but kepe his commaundementes.
8 And that they be not as their forefathers [were] a rebellious and a mutable generation: a generation that directed not their heart aright, and whose spirite cleaued not stedfastly vnto God.
1 Par. vii. 9 [Like as] the children of Ephraim, which beyng harnessed & carying bowes: turned their backes in the day of battayle.
10 They kept not the couenaunt of God: and they would not walke in his law.
11 But they forgat his workes: and his wonders which he had shewed them.
12 Marueylous thinges dyd he in the sight of their fathers: in the land of Egypt, in the fielde "of Zoan.
"Stoan. 13 He deuided the sea and let them go thorowe: he made the waters to stande as on an heape.
℄ 14 In the day time also he led them with a cloude: and all the night through with a light of fire.
15 He cloued the harde rockes in the wildernes: & gaue them drinke therof, as it had ben out of the great deepe waters.
16 He brought running streames out of a stone rocke: and caused waters to gushe downe, like as out of riuers.
17 Yet for all this they sinned still against hym: so that they prouoked the most hyghest in the wilderneſſe.
18 And they tempted god in their heartes: in requiring meate for their "lust.
"Soule. 19 They spake against God: they said, can God prepare a table in the wildernesse:
20 Beholde, he hath smytten the stonie rocke, and waters haue gushed out, and streames haue flowed out abundantly: but can he likewise gene bread, can he prouide flesshe for his people:
ℶ 21 Wherefore God heard [them, he was wroth, a fire was kindled in Jacob: and there arose vp heauy displeasure against Israel.
22 Because they beleued not in the Lord: nor did put their trust in his saluation.
23 And yet he commaunded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.
24 He raigned downe "Manna also vpon them, that they shoulde eate: and gaue them corne from heauen.
"Man.
25 [So man dyd eate the bread of "angels: he sent them meate inough.
"Or, pui
26 He remoued the east winde from vnder the heauen: and through his power he brought in the south winde.
27 He rained flesshe vpon them as thycke as dust: and fetthered foules like as the sande of the sea.
28 He let it fall among their tentes: euen rounde about their pauilions.
29 So they dyd eate and were well filled, for he gaue them their owne desire: nenertheleſſe they were not alienated from their lust.
30 But whyle the meate was yet in their mouthes, the heauy wrath of God came vpon them, and slue the welthyest of them: and made the chosen men of Israel to stoupe.
31 For all this they sinned still: and beleued not his wonderous workes.
32 Therfore their dayes dyd he consume in vanitie: & their yeres in a short [troublous] time.
33 When he slue them, they sought hym: they repented them, and "made God their mornynges worke.
(a) They in the mornynges pr to God.
34 And they remembred that the Lorde was their rocke: & that the Lorde most hyghest was their redeemer.
35 Neuertheleſſe they dyd but flatter hym with their mouth: and they made hym a lye with their tongue.
36 For their heart was not vpright with him: neither continued they faythfull in his couenaunt.
37 Yet for all that he beyng most merciful: cleane pardoned all their misdeedes, and destroyed them not.
38 Yea many a tyme he dyd much for to represse his anger: and neuer would suffer his whole rage to breake out.
39 For he considered that they were but flesshe, and that they were euen a winde that passeth away & cõmeth not againe.
40 How oft dyd they prouoke hym in the wildernes: & greened hym in the desert:
41 They turned backe and tempted the Lorde: and prescribed [bounds to the most holy God] of Israel.

44 For he turned into blood their riuers & fludds: so that they might not drinke.

45 He sent amongst them all kind of flyes who dyd eate them: and frogges who destroyed them.

46 He gaue their fruites vnto the caterpiller: & their labour to the grashopper.

47 He destroyed their vines with hayle stones: and their wilde figge trees with the harde frost.

48 He smote their cattell also with hayle stones: and their flockes with thunder bolles.

49 He cast vpon them the rage of his furie, anger, disdayne, and trouble: by sending foorth euill angels amongst them.

50 He made away to his indignatiõ, & spared not their soule from death: he gaue their lyfe to be subiect to the pestilence.

51 And he smote all the first borne of Egypt: the first fruites of (e) concupiscence in the paulions of (b) Cham.

52 But as for his owne people, he led them foorth like sheepe: and conducted them through the wildernesse like a flocke of cattell.

53 He brought them out safely that they shoulde not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enemies with the sea.

54 And brought them within the borders of his "sanctuarie: euen to this "mountayne which his right hand purchased.

"Or holy place. "Or mount Sion.

55 He dyd cast out the heathen also before them: he caused their land to be deuided among thẽ for an heritage, & made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tentes.

56 Neuertheless, they tempted and displeased the most hyghest Lorde: & kept not his testimonies.

57 They turned backewarde, and they went astray like their forefathers: they started aside like a bowe "that breaketh.

"That deceiueth.

58 For they stirred hym to anger with their hygh places: and prouoked him to iealousie with their carued images.

59 When the Lorde heard this, he was wroth: & tooke sore displeasure at Israel.

60 So that he forsoke the tabernacle in Silo: the pauilion wherin he dwelt amongst men.

61 He deliuered his (g) force into captiuitie: and his glorie into the enemies hande.

(g) He suffered the arke to be carried away of the Philistines.

62 He gaue also his people ouer to ỹ sword: and was wroth with his inheritaunce.

63 Fire consumed his young men: and his maydens were not "maryed.

"Prayed.

64 His preistes were slayne with the sworde: and his wydowes made no lamentation.

65 But the Lorde awaked as though he had slept, like a giaunt making a triumphant noyse after wine.

66 He smote his enemies in the hynder parts: & put them to a perpetual shame.

67 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

68 But he chose the tribe of "Juda: euen the hill of Sion which he loued.

"Iehudah.

69 And there he buylded his temple on high: and layde the foundation of it like a grounde euer to continue.

70 He chose also Dauid his seruaunt: and tooke hym away from the sheepefoldes.

71 As he was folowing the ewes great with young he tooke hym: that he might feede Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritaunce.

72 So he fed them according to the simplicitie of his heart: and guided them by the discretion of his handes.

The argument of the lxxix. psalme.

The prophete in the name of the Israelites greatly afflicted, lamenteth at the destruction of the temple, and of the citie of Hierusalem done by the Heathen, and at the slaughter of his people. 1 O Lord, the heathen are come into thyne inheritaunce: they haue defiled thy holy temple, they haue made Hierusalẽ an heape [of stones]

2 They haue geuen the dead bodies of thy seruauntes to be meate vnto the foules of the ayre: and the flesshe of thy saintes vnto the beastes of the lande.

3 They haue shed their blood like water on euery syde of Hierusalem: and there is none to burie them.

11 Let the ſorowfull ſighing of the priſoners come before thee, accordyng vnto the greatnes of thy power: preſerue thou thoſe that are appointed to dye.

A 1 O God the Lorde of my saluation, I crye day and night before thee: let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thyne eare vnto my crying.

2 For my soule is full of miserie: and my life toucheth the graue.

3 I am counted as one of them that go downe vnto the pit: and I am nowe become a man that hath no strength.

4 I am free among the dead: like such as beyng kylled lye in a graue, whom thou remembrest no more, and are cut away from thy(a) hande.

5 Thou hast layde me in the lowest pit: in darknes and in deepenes.

6 Thyne indignation sore presseth me: and thou hast vexed me with all thy stormes. Selah.

B 7 Thou hast put away myne acquaintaunce farre fro me, and made me to be abhorred of them: I am shut vp, I can not get forth.

8 My sight fayleth through my affliction O God: I haue called dayly vpon thee, I haue stretched out mine handes vnto thee.

9 Wylt thou worke a miracle amongst the dead? or shal the dead rise vp againe (and)(b) acknowledge thee? Selah.

10 Shall thy louing kindnes be talked of in the graue? or thy faythfulnes in destruction?

11 Shall thy wonderous workes be knowen in the darke? and thy righteousnes in the lande of (c) forgetfulnes?

12 But vnto thee do I crye O God: and my prayer commeth early in the morning before thee.

13 O God, why abhorrest thou my soule: and (why) hidest thou thy face from me?

14 I am in miserie, I labour euen from my youth with the panges of death: I haue suffered thy terrours, (and) I am styll in doubt.

15 Thyne indignation hath gone ouer me: and thy terrours haue vndone me.

(a) Out and forgotten.

(b) Stayst thee and geue thee thankes.

(c) The grane, for after men be layde in it, they be most commonly forgotten as a thyng vnuse.

16 They came rounde about me dayly lyke water: and compassed me altogether on euery syde.

17 Thou hast put away farre from me my frende and neighbour: [thou hast hid] mine acquaintaunce "out of sight. "In darkenesse.

The argument of the. lxxxix. psalme.

The prophete prayseth the inspeakable goodnes of God, for the couenaunt made to him and to the elect people of God for euer. He prayseth his great power, goodnes, and iustice. He declareth what promise God hath made to hym of his kingdome and posteritie. He complayneth of the great spoyling of his kingdome, and of his people. He desireth God for his couenauntes sake, to deliuer hym out of affliction, vpon the consideration that mans life is very short.

¶ A wyse instruction of Ethan the Ezrachite.

A 1 Euening prayer.

I wyll sing allwayes of the mercy of God: with my mouth I wyll make knowen thy trueth from one generatiō to another.

2 For I sayde, mercy shall for euer "endure: thou hast established thy trueth in the heauens. "Be buylded vp.

3 I haue made a couenaunt with my chosen: I haue sworne vnto Dauid my seruaunt.

4 I wyll establishe thy seede for euer: and buylde vp thy throne from generation to generation. Selah.

5 O God, the very heauens shall confesse thy wonderous workes: and thy trueth in the congregation of saintes.

6 For who is he in the cloudes that shal matche God: [and who] is like vnto God amongst the children gods:

B 7 God is very terrible in the assemblie of saintes: and to be feared aboue al them that are about him.

8 O God, Lorde of hoastes, who is like vnto thee a most mighty Lorde: and thy trueth is on euery side thee.

9 Thou rulest the "ragyng of the sea: when her waues aryse, thou delayest them. "The pride

10 Thou hast brought Egypt in so bad a case as if it were wounded: thou hast scattered thyne enemies abrode with thy mightie arme.

11 The heauens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast layde the foundation of the rounde worlde, and of all the plentie that is therin.

C 12 Thou hast made the north and the south: Tabor and Hermon do reioyce in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arme: thy hand is strong, and thy right hand is exalted.

14 Iustice and iudgement is the foundation of thy throne: mercy and trueth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that knoweth a (a) triumphant noyse: O God, they shal walke in the light of thy countenaunce. (a) Pronounceth the ioyful noyse of the trumpet (Num 10. to call the people together. It was an argument of the maiestie and presence of God

17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy louing kindnes thou wylt (b) lift vp our hornes. (b) Make vs superiours to our enemies.

18 For our shielde is of God: and our king is of the most holy of Israel.

19 Thou hast spoken sometimes in visions vnto thy saintes: and hast sayde, I haue added ayde vpon the mightie, I haue exalted one chosē out of the people.

20 I haue founde Dauid my seruaunt: I haue annoynted hym with myne holye oyle.

21 Therfore my (c) hande shalbe assured vnto hym: and mine arme shall strengthen hym. (c) Gods power shall neuer be away from him.

27 And I will make him my first borne: in higher state then kinges of the earth.

28 My mercy wyll I kepe for hym euermore: and my couenaunt shal stand fast with hym. E

29 His seede also wyll I make to endure for euer: and his throne as the dayes of heauen.

30 But if his children forsake my lawe, and walke not in my iudgement: if they breake my statutes, and kepe not my commaundementes,

31 I will then visite their transgressions with a rodde: and their wickednesse with stripes.

32 Neuerthelesse, my louyng kyndnesse I wyll not take vtterly from hym: I wyll "not breake my promise with hym.

" Be false in my trueth.

33 I wyll not violate my couenaunt: nor alter the thyng that is gone out of my lyppes.

34 I haue swoorne once by my holynesse: "that I wyll not speake an vntrueth vnto Dauid.

35 His seede shall endure for euer: and his throne shalbe as the sunne before me.

(b) The sunne in the day and the moone in the nyght shall endure that I haue promised a perpetuall continuance vnto Dauids seede.

36 [And] (b) as the moone which shall continue for euermore: and shalbe a faithful witnesse in heauen. Selah.

37 But thou hast abhorred & forsake thine annoynted: & art sore displeased at hym.

38 Thou hast broken the couenaunt of thy seruaunt: thou hast disgraced his crowne, [casting it on the grounde.

39 Thou hast ouerthrowē all his walles: and broken downe his strong holdes.

40 All they that go by the way spoyle hym: he is become a rebuke vnto his neyghbours.

41 Thou hast exalted the ryght hande of his enemies: and made all his aduersaries to reioyce.

42 Thou hast turned the harde edge of his sworde: and thou hast not vpheld hym vp in the battayle.

43 Thou hast brought his (c) noble estate to an ende: and hast cast his throne downe to the grounde.

(c) His princely estate.

44 Thou hast shortened the dayes of his youth: and thou hast couered hym with shame. Selah.

45 O God howe long wylt thou hyde thy selfe: for euer: shall thy wrath burne lyke fire?

46 Remember what I am, howe short my tyme is of lyfe: wherfore hast thou created m' vayne all the sonnes of men?

(f) It semeth in vayne if all our lyfe be spended in care) labour & sorowe it all cometh to nought.

47 What man is he that lyueth and shall not see death? can he deliuer his owne soule from the hande of hell? Selah.

48 Lorde where are become thy former olde louyng kyndnesses: [which] thou diddest sweare vnto Dauid by thy fayth [that thou wouldest performe.]

49 Remember O Lorde the dishonour * of thy seruaunts: I beare in my bosome [the dishonour of] all people that be mightie.

50 Who beyng thine enemies O God do dishonour: who do dishonour the footsteppes of (g) thine annoynted.

(g) All reproaches of Gods people, do redound in deede to Christ, whose steppes they followe.

51 Blessed be God for euermore: so be it, and so be it.

¶ The argument of the.xc. Psalme.

¶ In this prayer he setteth forth the euerlastyng diuinitie of God and his wonderfull prouidence towardes his people. There is also a lamentation of the breuitie & miserie of this present lyfe, the cause whereof is our sinnes. For God displeased with our wickednesse, causeth our dayes of this lyfe to be both short and miserable, which thyng he that considereth, should be incited thereby to be wise. Moreouer, there is a petition that God would haue pitie of his people, in recompensing the calamities of this life with felicitie in the worlde to come, and so by that meanes he shall make mery his forowfull seruauntes.

¶ A prayer of Moyses the man of God.

Mornyng prayer.

LOrde thou hast ben our habitation: from one generation to another generation.

2 Before the mountaynes were brought forth, or euer the earth & the worlde were made: thou art God both from euerlastyng, and also vntyll euerlastyng.

(a) God restoreth man with trauaile vnto death. For he made once an ordinaunce that all should dye, yea be he neuer so short

3 Thou (a) turnest man most miserable euen vnto dust: thou sayest also, O ye children of men returne you vnto dust.

4 For a thousande yeres in thy syght are but as yesterday that is past: and as a Watch in the nyght.

5 Thou makest them to flowe away, they are a sleepe: they be in the morning as an herbe that "groweth.

" Chaungeth.

6 In the morning it flourisheth and "groweth vp: in the euenyng it is cut downe and wythered.

7 For we be consumed through thy displeasure: and we are astonyed through thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeedes before thee: and our sinnes wherof we be not prime, in the lyght of thy countenaunce.

9 For all our dayes do passe in thine auger: we spende our yeres as [in speaking] a worde.

a worde.

10 The dayes of our yeres be in all three-score yeres and tenne, and yf through strength [of nature] men come to foure score yeres: yet is their* iolnie but (b) labour and care, yea moreouer it passeth in haste from vs, and we flee from it.

11 Who regardeth the force of thy wrath: for euen there after as a man feareth thee, so [feeleth he] thy displeasure.

12 Make vs to knowe so our dayes, that we number them: and we wyll frame a heart [vnto] wisdome.

13 Turne agayne O God (what, for euer [wylt thou be angry?) and be gratious vnto thy seruauntes.

14 Replenishe vs early in the mornyng with thy mercie: and we wyll crye out for ioy, and be glad all the dayes of our lyfe.

15 Make vs mery accordyng to the dayes that thou hast afflicted vs: and according to the yeres wherin we haue "suffred aduersitie.

16 Let thy worke appeare in thy seruauntes: and thy glory in their children.

17 And let the glorious maiestie of the Lorde our God be vpon vs: and prosper thou the worke of our handes vpon vs, O prosper thou our handy worke.

* Pride.

(b) So many felicitie in this life is without labour and disquietnesse of mynde, neuer contented, but cumbred with lustes, passions, cares, and sorowes.

The argument of the.xci. psalme.

¶ The prophete declareth the confidence, trust, safenesse, securitie, and contentation of mynde, that they haue who depende wholy of Gods gouernment & protection, they be without daunger in all aduersitie, no calamitie can hurt them, God mightily preserueth them in all afflictions and temptations. He promiseth those that knowe hym, loue hym, and honour hym, in callyng vpon hym for helpe in their neede, that they shalbe hearde, deliuered, brought to honour, they shall haue long lyfe in this worlde, and after this lyfe, they shalbe saued both body and soule.

A 1 Whosoeuer sitteth vnder the couert of the most highest: he shal abide vnder the shadowe of the almightie.

3 For he wyll deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noysome pestilence.

4 He wyll couer thee vnder his wynges, & thou shalt be safe vnder his fethers: his faythfulnesse shalbe thy shielde and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afrayde of any terrour of the nyght: nor of any arrowe that fleeth by day,

6 Nor of any pestilence that walketh in the darknesse: nor of any deadly syt that destroyeth at hygh noone.

7 A thousande shall fall beside thee, and ten thousande at thy ryght hande: but it shall not come nygh thee.

8 Thou only with thine eyes shalt beholde: & see the rewarde of the vngodly.

9 For thou O God art my hope: thou hast set thine habitation very hygh.

10 There shall no euyll lyght on thee: neither shall any plague come nye thy dwellyng.

11 For he wyll geue his angels charge ouer thee: to kepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They wyll beare thee in [their] handes: that thou hurt not thy foote agaynst a stone.

13 Thou shalt set thy foote vppon the Lion and Adder: the young Lion and the Dragon thou shalt treade vnder thy feete.

14 Because he hath set greatly his loue vpon me, therfore wyll I deliuer hym: I wyll set hym vp out of all daunger, because he hath knowen my name.

15 He shall call vpon me, and I wyll heare hym: yea I am with hym in trouble, I wyll deliuer hym, and bryng hym to honour.

16 I wyll satisfie hym with a long lyfe: and I wyll cause hym to see my saluation.

¶ The argument of the. xcij. Pſalme.

¶ It ſeemeth that the prophete made this pſalme to be ſong vnto the people vpon the Sabbath dayes, for to ſtirre them vp the better to knowe God, and to prayſe God in his workes. He commendeth the ſettyng fooith of Gods prayſe in muſicall inſtrumentes. He reioyceth much and wondereth at Gods workes. But the foole vnderſtandeth not that the wicked, be they neuer ſo fortunate, ſhall come to a wretched ende, for the wicked ſhalbe deſtroyed, and the godly ſhall proſper. The greateſt felicitie that the iuſt hath in this lyfe, is to be planted in the houſe of God, there continually for to prayſe hym.

¶ A Pſalme, the ſong for the ſabbath day.

A 1 IT is a good thyng to confeſſe vnto God: and to ſyng pſalmes vnto thy name O thou moſt hyghest.
2 To ſet fooith in wordes thy louyng kyndneſſe early in the mornyng: and thy trueth in the nyght ſeaſon.
3 Upon an inſtrument of ten ſtrynges, and vpon the Lute: vpon the Harpe with a ſolemne ſounde.
4 For thou God haſt made me glad thorowe thy Workes: I do reioyce in the Workes of thy handes.
5 O God howe glorious are thy Workes: thy thoughtes are very depe.
6 An vnwiſe man doth not conſider this: and a foole doth not vnderſtande it.
B 7 Wheras the vngodly do bud vp greene as the graſſe, and wheras all workers of iniquitie do flouriſhe: that they [notwithſtandyng] ſhalbe deſtroyed for euer and euer.
8 But thou O God: art the moſt higheſt for euermore.
9 For lo, thine enemies O God, lo thine enemies ſhall periſhe: & all the workers of wickedneſſe ſhalbe deſtroyed.
10 But my horne ſhalbe exalted lyke the horne of an vnicorne: for I am annoynted with excellent oyle.
11 And myne eye ſhall ſee thoſe that lye in wayte for me: myne eare ſhall heare the malicious perſons that riſe vp agaynſt me.
12 The ryghteous ſhall flouriſhe lyke a paulme tree: and ſhall ſpread abroade like a Cedar in Libanus.
13 Such as be planted in the houſe of God: ſhall flouriſhe in the courtes of our Lorde.
14 They ſhall ſtyll bryng fooith fruite in their age: they ſhalbe fat and flouriſhyng.

¶ The argument of the. xciij. pſalme.

¶ The prophete prayſeth the mightineſſe of the maieſtie of God, which is declared from the beginning of the world: partly by the wonderful continuaunce of creatures made in it, and partly by teſtifyng his wyll, cõmaundementes, and holyneſſe to his people.

A 1 Euenyng prayer. God raigneth, he is clothed with a glorious maieſtie, God is clothed with ſtrength: he hath girded hym ſelfe, he hath made the worlde ſo ſure that it can not be moued.

¶ The prophete calleth vpon God earneſtly for to take abengeaunce of the wicked who do afflict the innocent without cauſe. He complayneth of their outragiouſneſſe and tiranny. He reproueth them of fooliſhneſſe, in that they thynke and ſay that God ſeeth them not, for God knoweth their wickednes, and ſeeth their priuie thoughtes. And in puniſhyng them, he ſhall cauſe the good to lyue vprightly, who fyndeth no ayde againſt the wicked but only God. For God fauoureth no iniquitie, it is he that wyll deſtroy all them that oppreſſe the innocent.

¶ The prophete exhorteth all men to acknowledge God, to call vpon God for helpe, to seeke God, and to preache God: but especially he moueth the Israelites to remember the promises that God made to their forefathers, Abraham, Isahac, & Iacob, and also the benefites that he had bestowed on them aboue all other nations. For God had such care of them beyng pilgrimes in forraine lands, that he would not suffer any once to touch them, yea he rebuked kinges for their sakes, and he preserued them in famine and other aduersitie, as Ioseph was solde into Egypt, but it had a good successe. The entring of the children of Israel into Egypt is set forth, and what happened vnto them whyles they were there. 46 Bleſſed be God the Lord of Iſrael frō world to world without end: and let all people ſay, ſo be it. Prayſe ye the Lord.

The argument of the.cvii.pſalme.

The prophete exhorteth all men to prayſe God, and to thanke God, for it is he that helpeth them in all diſtreſſes when they crye vnto him. He prouideth houſes and cities for them that els would wander as vagabondes in wyldernеſſe. He ſatisfieth the hungry and the thirſtie. He ſetteth at libertie priſoners and captiues. He healeth the ſicke and diſeaſed. He comforteth and helpeth thoſe that be in ieoperdie of ſeas. He maketh a fruitfull lande barren, & a barren grounde fruitfull. He bringeth princes to lowe eſtate, & ſetteth vp the poore in honour. At theſe thyngs the godly reioyſeth, & the mouth of the wicked is ſtopped.

A Mornyng prayer.

1 Onfeſſe you [it] vnto God: for he is gratious, "and his mercy endureth for euer. "For.

2 Let ſuch as God did redeme ſpeake: whom he hath redeemed from the hande of the enemie.

3 And whom he gathered out of the landes: from the eaſt and from the weſt, from the north and from the "ſouth. "Sea, for it was on the ſouth part of Iurie.

4 They went aſtray out of the way in ſolitarines and in wildernes, and found no citie to dwell in: they were hungry and thirſtie, their ſoule fainted in them.

5 And they cry vnto god in their trouble: who deliuereth them frō their diſtreſſe.

6 And he leadeth them forth by the right way: that they might go to the citie inhabited.

7 O that men would confeſſe vnto God his louyng kindneſſe: and his marueylous actes done to the children of men. B

8 For he ſatisfieth the greedie ſoule: and filleth the hungry ſoule with goodnes.

9 Suche as ſit in darkneſſe and in the ſhadowe of death: beyng faſt bounde in miſerie and iron.

10 Becauſe they "went from the wordes of the Lorde: and lightly regarded the counſayle of the moſt highest. "Diſobediently chaunged.

11 Therfore he humbled their heart thorowe heauines: they fell downe, and there is none to helpe them.

12 And they cry vnto god in their trouble: who deliuereth thē out of their diſtreſſe.

13 For

13 For he bringeth them out of darkneſſe and out of the ſhadowe of death: and breaketh their bondes in ſunder.

℣ 14 O that men would confeſſe vnto God: his louing kindnes and his marueylous actes done to the chyldren of men.

15 For he breaketh the gates of braſſe: & ſmyteth the barres of iron in ſunder.

16 Foolyſh men are plagued for their miſchenous wayes: & for their wickednes.

17 Their ſoule abhorreth all maner of meate: and they be euen harde at deathes doore.

18 And they crye vnto God in their trouble: who deliuereth them out of their diſtreſſe.

19 He ſendeth his worde & healeth them: and he maketh them to ſcape ſafe from their (a) corruptnes.

(a) Corrupt humors in the bo- dy, ought them to the graue

20 O that men would confeſſe vnto God: his louing kindnes and his marueylous actes done to the chyldren of men.

21 And that they would offer [vnto him] ſacrifices of "thankes geuing: and ſet forth in wordes his workes with a ioyfull noyſe.

" Confeſſing

℣ 22 Such as go downe to the ſea in ſhips and followe their buſines in great waters: they ſee the workes of God, and his wonders in the deepe.

23 For he commaundeth and cauſeth a ſtormie winde to ariſe: and he lifteth vp on high his waues.

24 [Then they aſcende vp to heauen, and come downe agayne to the deepe: ſo that their ſoule melteth away through trouble.

25 They reele to and fro, and they doo ſtagger like a drunken man: and their wyſdome fayleth them.

26 And they cry vnto god in their trouble: who deliuereth thē out of their diſtreſſe.

27 For he maketh the ſtorme to ceaſſe: ſo that the waues therof are ſtill.

28 Then be they glad because they are at reſt: and he bringeth them to the hauen where they would be.

29 O that men would confeſſe vnto god: his louyng kyndnes and meruayous actes done to the chyldren of men. ℣

30 And that they would exalt him in the congregation of the people: and prayſe him in the conſiſtorie of the aged.

31 He turneth (b) ſtandes into a Wilderness: and waterſpringes into a dry grounde. (b) Barrein and fruitfull grounde.

32 He maketh a fruitfull grounde barren: for the wickednes of them that dwell therein.

33 [Contrary] he reduceth a wylderness into a ſtanding water: and a dry ground into water ſpringes.

34 And he ſetteth there the hungry: and they buylde them a citie to dwell in.

35 And they ſowe their lande and plant vineyardes: and they yelde [vnto them] "aboundant ſtore of frutes. "Fruites of increaſe.

36 He bleſſeth them, ſo that they multiplie exceedingly: and he ſuffereth not their cattle to decreaſe. ℣

37 But [when they do fall from God,] they are diminiſhed & brought low: through oppreſſion, calamitie, & griefe of minde.

38 He bringeth princes into contempt: & he maketh them to wander in a wilderneſſe where there is no way at all.

39 Yet he exalteth the poore out of miſerie: and geueth him houſholdes equall to flockes of cattell.

40 The righteous will marke [this] and reioyce: and the mouth of all wickednes ſhall be ſtopped.

41 Whoſoeuer is wyſe, he will both obſerue theſe thinges: and alſo well conſider the louing kindneſſe of God.

The argument of the.cviii. pſalme

¶ Dauid declareth his redines to prayſe God amongſt all nations not only with wordes, but alſo with muſicall inſtrumentes, for this ende, that his glory may be ſet forth to the whole world, and his elect ſaued and deliuered from enemies. Part of this pſalme is taken out of the. 57. pſalme, and part out of the. 60.

¶ A ſong, the pſalme of Dauid.

A Euenyng prayer. (a) My ſoule, my tongne, or my chiefe bigneſſe.

1 MY heart is redye O Lorde: I will ſing & prayſe thee in ſinging of pſalmes, yea my (a) glory alſo is redie.]

2 Beſtirre thee O lute and harpe: I my ſelfe will beſtirre me right early in the morning.

" Confeſſe. 3 I will "prayſe thee O God among the people: I will ſing pſalmes vnto thee among the nations.

4 For the greatnes of thy mercy reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy trueth vnto the cloudes.

5 Exalt thy ſelfe O Lord aboue the heauens: and let thy glory [be] aboue all the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: ſaue [me] with thy right hande, and heare thou me.

25 7 The Lorde hath spoken this in his holynes (whereof I wyll reioyce:) I wyll deuide Sichem, and measure the valley of Sucoth.
8 Gilead shalbe myne, and Manasses shalbe mine: Ephraim also shalbe the strength of my head, and Juda my lawgeuer.
9 Moab shalbe my washpot: ouer Edom I wyll cast my shoe, (b) vpon Philistea I wyll triumph.

(b) Be thou glad to seeke my frendshyp.

10 Who wyll leade me into the strong cite? Who wyll bring me into Edom?
11 Hast not thou remoued vs from thence? and wylt not thou O Lorde go out with our hoastes?
12 Geue vs ayde against trouble: for the saueng helpe of man is but "vayne. " Rashnes.
13 Through the Lorde wyll we do valiaunt actes: for he him selfe will treade downe our enemies.

The argument of the.cix.psalme.

¶ Dauid greeuously complayneth before the face of God of his enemies malice and craft. He wisheth vnto them the horrible vengeaunce of God, vttering the cause why he so wysheth. He requireth Gods helpe in his great miserie, to this ende, that both his enemies might well perceaue that his helpe commeth from Gods hande, and also that he him selfe might prayse God therfore.

¶ To the chiefe musition, a psalme of Dauid.

א 1 HOlde not thy tongue: O thou the Lorde of my prayse.
2 For the mouth of the vngodly and the mouth of the deceyptfull is opened vpon me: they haue spoken against me with a false tongue.
3 And they haue compassed me about with hatefull wordes: and fought against me without a cause.
4 For the loue that I bare vnto them, they are become mine aduersaries: but I (a) geue my selfe vnto prayer.

(a) I pray for them.

5 Thus haue they rewarded me euyll for good: and hatred for my good wyll.
6 Set thou an vngodly man to be ruler ouer him: and let Satan stande at his right hande.
ב 7 When sentence is geuen vpon hym, let him be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into (b) sinne.

(b) Let it be reputed an vnlawfull and abhominable.

8 Let his dayes be fewe: and let another take his office.
9 Let his children be fatherlesse: and his wyfe a wydowe.
10 Let his children be vagabounds and go a begging: and let them seeke [foode] out of their (c) barren groundes.

(c) Wyther.

11 Let the extortioner bryng into his snare all that he hath: and let straungers spoyle his labour.
12 Let there be no man to shewe hym any gentlenes: nor to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse children.
13 Let his posteritie come to destruction: and in the next generation let his name be cleane put out.
14 Let the wyckednes of his fathers be had in remembraunce in the sight of God: and let not the sinne of his mother be wyped away.
15 Let them be allway before God: that he may roote out the memorial of them from the earth. ג
16 Because that he remembred not to do good: but he persecuted the afflicted and poore man, and hym whose heart was broken with sorow, that he might take his life from hym.
17 His delight was in cursing, and it shal happen vnto hym: he loued not (d) blessing, therfore it hath ben farre frō hym.

(d) He had no heart that god should geue him occasion to curse.

18 He clothed hym selfe with cursing, as with his garment: and it hath entred into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.
19 Let it be vnto hym as the garment that he is wrapt in: and as the gyrdle that he is allway gyrded withall.
20 Let this (e) reward be from God vnto myne aduersaries: and vnto those that speake euill against my soule.

(e) Worke.

21 But thou O God my Lorde, do vnto me according vnto thy name: for sweete is thy mercy. ד
22 Deliuer me, for truely I am afflicted: and I am poore, and my heart is wounded within me.
23 I passe away like a hading shadowe: and I am dryuen from place to place lyke the grashopper.
24 My knees are weake through fasting: my flesh is (f) dryed vp for want of fatnesse.

(f) Hath lost al his fatnesse.

25 I am become also a reproche vnto them: they gase vpon me [and] they shake their head.
26 Helpe me O my Lorde: oh saue me according to thy mercy.
27 And let thē know how that this is thy hande: & that thou O God hast done it.
28 They

28 They will curse, but thou wylt bleſſe: they wyl riſe vp, againſt me but let them be confounded, and thy ſeruaunt wyll reioyce.

29 Let mine aduerſaries be clothed with ſhame: & let them couer thē ſelues with their owne cōfuſion, as with a garment.

30 As for me I will greatly "prayſe God with my mouth: and I wyll prayſe hym among the multitude. Canticle.

31 For he wyll ſtande at the right hande of the poore: to ſaue hym from the (g) iudges of his ſoule. (g) To ſaue his life from vnrighteous iudges.

¶ Dauid prophecieth of Chriſte, deſcribing moſt euidently both his natures, his prieſthood, his kingdome and victory ouer all his enemies.

GOD ſayd vnto (a) my Lorde: ſit thou on my right hande, vntyll I make thyne enemies thy footeſtoole.

2 (b) He ſhall begin his dominion in Sion.

God wyll ſende the (b) ſcepter of his power out of Sion: rule thou in the midſt of thyne enemies.

3 (c) Chriſtes holy people ſhalbe receaued of him (c) ſeeke moſt wyllyngly, and Chriſtes grace ſhall ſo wonderfully enbrue mens hearts as the deawe of the morning inſpireth the grounde.

(c) Thy people wyll be very wyllyng [in the time of ſhewing] thy moſt mighte power with a beautifull holynes: * the deawe of thy byrth is to thee from the wombe [as] from the morning.

4 God ſware and he wyll not repent: thou art a prieſt for euer after the order of Melchiſedec. B

5 The Lorde at thy right hande: wyll wounde euen kinges in the day of his wrath.

6 He wyll iudge the heathen: he wyll fill euery place with dead bodyes, he wyll ſmyte the head of a great countrey.

7 He wyll drinke of the ſwyft running brooke in the way: therfore he wyll lift vp his head.

¶ The prophete prayſeth God, he rehearſeth the wonderous workes that God (mindfull of his promiſe) dyd to the children of Iſrael, bringing them out of Egypt to poſſeſſe the lande of promiſe for an inheritaunce. He declareth alſo that the high wyſdome of man, is to feare God.

A 1 (e) Confeſſio.

I Wyll (e) prayſe God with my whole heart: in the congregation and aſſemblie of righteous men.

9 He did ſende redemption vnto his people: he hath commaunded his couenaunt [to be] for euer, holy and terrible is his name.

10 The beginning of wyſdome is the feare of God: all they haue a good vnderſtanding that do his commaundements, the prayſe of it endureth for euer.

The argument of the. cxii. pſalme

¶ The prophete ſetteth forth the felicitie, rewarde, and properties of them that feare God and worſhip him: ſuche the vngodly ſeeth with his great griefe.

¶ Prayſe ye the Lorde.

A 1 BLeſſed is the man that feareth God: he hath great delight in his commaundementes.

The argument of the.cxvi. pſalme.

¶ The prophete ſayth that he muſt nedes loue God, for that he heard hym and deliuered hym out of wonderfull extreme afflictions of death and hell. 1 THe prouerbes of Solomon the sonne of Dauid, kyng of Israel:

2 To learne wisdome and instruction, & to perceaue the wordes of vnderstanding,

3 To receaue the instruction of wysdome, iustice, iudgement, and equitie:

¶ The. vij. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to wysdome, and to the worde of God. 5 which wyll preserue vs from the harlot. 6 Whose maners are discribed.

A 1 My sonne * kepe my wordes, and lay vp my commaundements by thee.
Deut. vi. b. and xi. a.
2 Kepe my commaundementes & my lawe, euen as the apple of thyne eye, and thou shalt liue.
3 Binde them vpon thy fingers, and wryte them in the table of thyne heart.
4 Say vnto wysdome, thou art my sister: and call vnderstanding thy kinswoman:
5 That they may kepe thee from the straunge woman, and from the forraine woman which geueth sweete wordes.
Prou. ii. b. and xx. a.
6 For at the windowe of my house I loked through the windowe,
7 And beheld among the simple people and among the chyldren a young man voyde of wyt,
8 Goyng ouer the streate by the corner in the way towarde her house
9 In the twylight of the euening, when it began nowe to be night and darke:
10 And behold there met hym a woman * with open tokens of an harlot, onlye her heart was hid:
Ecclesi. a.
11 She was full of loude wordes and redye to dallie, whose feete coulde not abide in the house:
12 Nowe is she without, nowe in the streates, and lyeth in wayte at euery corner.
13 She caught hym and kissed him, and was not ashamed, saying:
14 I had a vowe of peace offeringes to pay, and this day I performe it:
15 Therefore came I forth to meete thee, that I might seeke thy face, and so haue I founde thee. C
16 I haue decked my bed with couerings of tapestarie, and clothes of Egypt.
17 My bed haue I made to smell of Myrre, Aloes, and Cinamon.
18 Come let vs take our fill of loue vntyll the morning, and let vs solace our selues with the pleasures of loue.
19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone farre of.
20 He hath taken the bagge of money with hym, and wyll returne at the appointed solempne feast.
21 Thus with many sweete wordes she ouercame hym, and with her flattering lippes she entised hym. D
22 Sodainly he followed her, as it were an ore led to the slaughter, and lyke as it were a foole [that laugheth] when he goeth to the stockes to be punished,
23 So long tyll she had wounded his lyuer with her dart: lyke as if a byrde hasted to the snare, not knowing that the perill of his life lieth therupon.
24 Heare me nowe therfore O my chylde, and marke the wordes of my mouth:
25 Let not thyne heart wander in her wayes, and be not thou deceaued in her pathes.

A Good name is more to be desired then great riches: and louing fauour [is better] then siluer and golde.

2 The riche and poore meete together: the Lorde is the maker of them all.

3 A wyse man seeth the plague, and hydeth hym selfe: but the foolishe go on still, and are punished.

4 By humilitie and the feare of the Lorde, [commeth] riches, honour, and life.

5 Thornes and snares are in the way of the frowarde: but he that doth kepe his soule, wyll flee farre from them.

6 Teache a chylde what way he should go: for he shall not leaue it when he is olde.

7 The ryche ruleth the poore, and the borrower is seruaunt to the lender.

8 He that soweth wickednes, shal reape wickednes: and the rodde of his anger shall fayle.

9 *He that hath a bountifull eye, shalbe blessed: for he geueth of his bread to the poore.

10 Cast out the scornefull man, and so shal strife go out with hym: yea variaunce and sclaunder shall ceasse.

11 Who so loueth cleannes of heart, for the grace of his lippes the kyng shalbe his frende.

12 The eyes of the Lord preserue knowledge: and he ouerthroweth the wordes of the transgressours.

13 The slouthfull body saith there is a Lion without: I might be slaine in the streate.

14 *The mouth of straunge women is a deepe pit: wherein he falleth that the Lorde is angrye withall.

15 Foolishnes is bounde in the heart of the chylde: and the rodde of correction shall driue it away.

16 Who so doth a poore man wrong, to increase his owne [riches] and geueth vnto the ryche, at the last commeth to pouertie hym selfe. ℭ

17 Bowe downe thyne eare, and heare the wordes of the wise: applie thy mind vnto my doctrine:

18 For it is a pleasaunt thing if thou kepe them in thyne heart, and order them in thy lippes:

19 That thou mayest put thy trust in the Lorde, I haue shewed thee this day *the thing that thou knowest.

20 Haue not I warned thee *very oft with counsayle and learning, 22 Rob not the poore, because he is poore: and oppresse not the simple in iudgement:

23 For the Lorde hym selfe wyll defende their cause, and do violence vnto them that haue vsed violence. ℑ

24 Make no frendshyp with an angrye wylfull man, and walke not with the furious:

25 Lest thou learne his wayes, and receaue hurt to thy soule.

26 *Be not thou one of them that binde their hande vpon promise, and are surete for *waighty causes:

ched, the people perishe: but well is hym that kepeth the lawe.

derstande, yet will he not regarde them.

in a foole then in hym.

¶ The pureneſſe of the worde of God, and what we ought to require of God, with certayne wonderfull thynges that are in this worlde.

¶ THE wordes of Agur, the ſonne of Iake:

2 Surely I am more fooliſhe then any man, and haue no mans vnderſtandyng.
3 I neuer learned wiſdome, nor had knowledge of holy thynges.
4 Who hath clymed vp into heauen, and come downe from thence? Who hath holden the wynde faſt in his hande? Who hath gathered together the waters in a garment? Who hath eſtabliſhed all the endes of the worlde: What is his name, and What is his ſonnes name, yf thou canſt tell?
5 *Euery worde of God is pure: he is a ſhielde vnto all them that put their truſt in hym. Pſal.xix.e.

7 Two thinges haue I required of thee, denie me them not before I dye:

20 Euen ſo is the way alſo of a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, which wypeth her mouth [lyke as] when ſhe hath eaten, and ſayth, as for me I haue done no wickedneſſe.
21 For three thynges the earth is diſquieted, and the fourth may it not abyde.
22 A ſeruaunt that beareth rule, a foole that is full fedde,

24 Theſe be foure thynges in the earth the which are very litle, but in wiſdome they exceede the wyſe:

The ende of the prouerbes of Solomon.

The booke of the preacher, otherwise called Ecclesiastes, which is Solomon the king.

¶ For Solomon is called in scripture by three sundry names. The one, Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The seconde Idida, that is, beloued of God. The thirde Ecclesiastes, that is, a preacher, teachyng that true and eternall felicitie consisteth not in any worldly wisdome or aboundaunce of riches, or in carnall pleasure, which all be but vayne and transitorie: but he proueth that true felicitie consisteth in a whole ioynyng our selues to God by pure religion, that is, with a sincere fayth and the feare of God obseruyng his commaundementes.

The first Chapter.

2 All thynges in this worlde are full of vanitie and of none indurraunce. 13 All mans wisdome is but follie and griefe.

A 1 THe wordes of the preacher ꝑ sonne of Dauid kyng of Hierusalem.

(a) 2 All is but most vayne vanitie sayth the preacher, & all is most vayne (I say) and but playne vanitie.

(a) He doth not condemne the creatures and gyftes of God as euill: but the ouerfull seking of them and the pryde & trust that man hath in them by thynges vncertayne. He prouethe by sure reasons that true felicitie is not to be put in any worldly thynges. (b) 3 He inferreth on vs, that nothyng can be attayned in this lyfe without labour & care.

2 For what (b) els hath a man of all the labour that he taketh vnder the sunne?

4 (c) One generation passeth away, another commeth: but the earth abideth styll.

5 (d) The sunne aryseth, the sunne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there ryse vp agayne.

6 The wynde goeth towarde the south and turneth vnto the north, fetcheth his compasse, whirleth about, and goeth forth, and returneth agayne to his circuites from whence he dyd come.

7 All fluddes runne into the sea, and yet is the sea it selfe not fylled: For loke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they come to flowe agayne.

(c) 4 Man in this lyfe is so desirous to see and heare newes alwayes, that he is neuer satisfied nor content with his state.

(d) 5 The first clause is vnderstanded of thynges made by nature, & seconde of thynges done by art.

B 8 All thinges are so harde to be knowen, that no man can expresse them: (e) The eye is not satisfied with sight, the eare is not fylled with hearyng.

9 (f) The thyng that hath ben, commeth to passe agayne, and the thyng that hath ben done, shalbe done agayne: There is no newe thyng vnder the sunne.

10 Is there any thyng wherof it may be sayde, lo this is newe: for it was long ago in the tymes that haue ben before vs.

11 The thyng that is past is out of remembraunce: euen so the thynges that are for to come, shal no more be thought vpon among them that come after.

12 I my selfe the preacher was kyng of Israel at Hierusalem, 13 And dyd applie my mynde to seke out & searche for knowledge of all thynges that are done vnder heauen: (g) Such trauayle and labour hath God geuen vnto the children of men, to exercise them selues therin.

14 Thus haue I considered all these thynges that come to passe vnder the sunne: and lo, they are all but vanitie and veration of mynde.

15 (h) The croked can not be made straight, nor the imperfection of thynges can be numbred.

16 I communed with myne owne heart, saying: lo I am come to great estate, and haue gotten more wisdome then all they that haue ben before me in Hierusalem.

17 Yea, my heart had great experience of wisdome & knowledge: for therunto I applied my mynde, that I myght knowe what were wisdome and vnderstandyng, what were errour and foolishnesse: and I perceaued that this was also but a veration of mynde.

18 For where much wisdome is, there is also great trauayle and disquietnesse: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

(e) 8 Man in this lyfe is so desirous to see and heare newes alwayes, that he is neuer satisfied nor content with his state.

(f) 9 The first clause is vnderstanded of thynges made by nature, & seconde of thynges done by art.

(g) 13 It is the reward of the sinne of curiositie, of our forefather Adam, that knowledge can not be attayned vnto without great trauayle: the ende of all such knowledge, is for to teach man humilitie.

(h) 15 Adam is not able of his owne power to recouerne that is amisse, and to ryse vp from sinne, nor to knowe his imperfection & wickednesse, to do any thyng that is good, without the grace of God.

The

The .ij. Chapter.

1 Pleasures, sumptuous buildynges, riches, and possessions, are but vanitie. 14 The wise and the foole haue both one ende touchyng the bodyly death.

The prouerb hp fourte reasoning that true felicite or consistethe not in any worldlye pleasure.

1 Then sayde I thus in my heart: Nowe go to, (a) I will take myne ease, and haue good dayes: But lo, that is vanitie also.

(a) 1 There is no long content in ease or pleasure in this life.

(b) 1 The mother of vaine pleasure and mirthe laughter, is foolishnes.

2 Insomuch that (b) I saide vnto the man geuen to laughter, thou art mad: and to mirth, what doest thou?

(c) 1 He that enterpreth himself to the studie of worldly fruitfulnes, may not haue to much pleasure in drynkyng of wyne.

3 (c) So I thought in my heart to geue my flesshe vnto Wine, and agayne to apply my mynde vnto Wisdome, and to comprehende foolishnesse: vntyll the tyme that among all the thynges which are vnder the sunne, I myght see what were best for men to do so long as they liue vnder heauen.

(d) 4 The more plentie of gorgeous buildyng apparell, riches, or worldly pleasure, the more vexation of mynde and all are but vanitie in comparisō of godly felicitie, as Salomon afterwarde by his owne experience.

4 (d) I made gorgious faire Workes: I builded my houses, and planted vineyardes.

5 I made me orchardes and gardens of pleasure, and planted trees in them of all maner of fruites.

6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene and fruitfull trees withall.

7 I bought seruauntes and maydens, and had a great housholde: As for cattel and sheepe, I had more substaunce of them then all they that were before me in Hierusalem.

8 I gathered together siluer and golde, and the chefe treasures of kynges and landes: I haue prouided me men singgers and women singers, and the delites of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was greater and in more worship then all my predecessours in Hierusalem: For Wisdome remayned with me.

10 And loke whatsoeuer myne eyes desired, I let them haue it: and wherin soeuer my heart delited or had any pleasure, I withheld it not from it: Thus my heart reioyced in all that I did, and this was my portion of all my trauayle.

11 But when I considered all the Workes that my handes had wrought, and all the labour that I had taken therin: lo all was but vanitie and vexation of mynde, and nothing of any value vnder the sunne.

12 (e) Then turned I me to consider Wisdome, errour, and foolishnesse (for What is he among men that myght be compared to me the kyng in such Workes?)

(e) God hath appointed that man should be obedient to godly reason, as to his kyng: and not to be led wyth carnall affection.

13 And I saw that Wisdome excelleth foolishnesse, as farre as light doth darknesse.

C

14 For a wise man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darknesse: I perceaued also that they both (f) had one ende.

(f) They both suffer like aduersitie in this worlde: or according the corruption of the body, they dye both alyke.

15 Then thought I in my mynde, yf it happen vnto the foole as it doth vnto me, What needeth me then to labour any more for Wisdome? So I confessed within my heart that this also was but vanitie.

16 For the wise are euer as litle in remembraunce as the foolishe: for the dayes shall come (g) when all shalbe forgotten: yea the wise man dyeth as well as the foole.

(g) Meaning in this worlde.

17 Thus began I to be weery of my life, insomuch that I coulde away with nothyng that is done vnder the sunne: for all was but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

18 (h) Yea I was weery of my labour which I had taken vnder the sunne, because I shoulde be fayne to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me:

(h) That he myght seke the true felicitie no riche in no God.

19 (i) And who knoweth whether he shalbe a wise man or a foole? And yet shall he be lorde of all my labours which I with such Wisdome haue taken vnder the sunne: This is also a vayne thyng.

(i) He rebuketh men that maketh careful prouidence to enrich their heires by vnlawfull meanes to their owne damnation, not knowyng who or what they shalbe, either good or euyll.

D

20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from all such trauayle as I toke vnder the sunne, 21 Forsomuch as a man shoulde weery hym selfe with Wisdome, With vnderstandyng and opportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer sweat for them: This is also a vayne thyng, and great miserie.

22 For What getteth a man of all the labour and trauayle of his mynde that he taketh vnder the sunne?

23 But heauinesse, sorowe, and disquietnesse all the dayes of his life? Insomuch that that his heart can not rest in the nyght: This is also a vayne thyng.

(k) Yet it is the blessyng of God to obteyne hyghtes hyghtes: so is it no lesse blessing to refresh hym selfe with the fruites therof in measure. Of both wyl the distinguer Salomon consydereth he a lytle to haue talked largely, and yet not happy therby.

24 (k) Is it not better then for a man to eate and drynke, and his soule to be mery in his labour? yea I saw that this also was a gyft of God.

25 For who wyll eate or go more lushyly to his worke then I?

26 And why? God geueth to the man that is good before hym, wysdome, vnderstandyng, and gladnesse: but vnto the sinner he geueth weerinesse, that he may gather and heape together the thyng that afterwarde shalbe geuen vnto hym whom it pleaseth God: This is nowe a vayne thyng, yea a very disquietnesse and vexation of mynde.

The .iij. Chapter.

1 All thynges haue their tyme. 14 The workes of God are perfect, and cause vs to feare hym. 17 God shall iudge both the iust an vniust.

A (a) Although true knowledge can not be gotten of any worldly thyng, yet God hath appointed a meete space wherin we ought to worke, order, and dispose

Very (a) thyng hath a tyme, yea all that is vnder the heaue̅ hath his conuenient season.

2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye: there is a tyme to plant, and a tyme to plucke vp the thyng that is planted.

3 A tyme to slay, and a tyme to make whole: a tyme to breake downe, and a tyme to builde vp.

4 A tyme to weepe, and a tyme to laugh: a tyme to mourne, & a tyme to daunce.

5 A tyme to cast away stones, and a tyme to gather stones together: A tyme to embrace, and a tyme to refrayne from embracyng.

■ A tyme to wynne, and a tyme to lose: A tyme to spare, and a tyme to spende.

B 7 A tyme to cut in peeces, and a tyme to sowe together: A tyme to kepe silence, and a tyme to speake.

8 A tyme to loue, and a tyme to hate: A tyme of warre, and a tyme of peace.

9 What hath a man els that doth any thyng, but weerinesse and labour?

(b) God hath appointed y^e ende that he wolde haue vs labour vnto, & therin take pleasure in his vocation, to the ende he wolde haue vs humble & feare hym.

10 (b) For as touchyng the trauayle and carefulnesse which God hath geuen vnto men, I see that he hath geuen it them to be exercised in it.

11 All this hath he ordeyned marueilous goodly, to euery thyng his due tyme: he hath planted ignorance also in the heartes of men, that they shoulde not comprehende the ground of his workes which he doth from the begynnyng to the ende.

12 So I perceaued that in those thinges there is nothyng better for a man then to be mery, and to do well as long as he lyueth.

13 For all that a man eateth & drynketh, yea whatsoeuer a man enioyeth of all his labour: that same is a gyft of God.

14 I considered also that whatsoeuer ℭ God doth, it continueth for euer: And that nothyng can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, & that God doth it to the intent that men shoulde feare hym.

15 *The thyng that hath ben, is nowe: and the thyng that is for to come, hath ben afore time: for God restoreth againe the thyng that was past. Eccle.d.

■ Moreouer, I saw vnder the sunne vngodlynes in the steade of iudgement, & iniquitie in steade of righteousnesse.

17 Then thought I in my mynde, God shall separate the righteous from the vngodly: and then shalbe the tyme and iudgement of all counsayles & workes.

18 I communed with myne owne heart also concernyng the children of men, howe God hath chosen them, and yet letteth them appeare as though they were beastes.

19 (c) For it happeneth vnto men as it doth vnto beastes, euen one condition vnto them both: as the one dyeth so dyeth the other, yea they haue both one maner of breath: so that in this a man hath no preeminence aboue a beast, but are all subdued vnto vanitie.

(c) There is no difference betwixt a man and a beast as touchyng the body, which of them both dyeth but the soule of man liueth immortal and the body of man riseth vp agayne by the mighty power of the spirite of God.

20 They go all vnto one place: for as they be all of dust, so shall they all turne vnto dust agayne.

21 (d) Who knoweth the spirite of " man that goeth vpwarde, & the breath of the beast that goeth downe to the earth?

The .iiij. Chapter.

1 The innocent are oppressed. 4 Mens labours are full of abuse and banitie. 9 Mans societie is necessarie. 13 A young man poore and wise, is to be preferred before an olde kyng that is a foole.

A I Abac. 1.2. Eccle.v b.

SO I turned me, and *considered all the violent wrong that is done vnder the sunne: and beheld the teares of such as were oppressed, and there was no man to comfort them, or that would deliuer and defende them from the violence of their oppressours.

* Or, studied

2 Wherefore I iudged those that are dead, to be more happy then those that be alyue:

3 (a) Yea hym that is yet vnborne, to be better at ease then they both: because he seeth not the miserable workes that are done vnder the sunne.

(a) He speaketh here according to the iudgement of the flesche, which can not well abyde persecution and trouble

4 (b) Agayne, I saw that all trauayle and diligence of labour that euery man taketh in hande, was done of enuie agaynst his neyghbour: This is also a vayne thyng, and a vexation of mynde.

(b) The more perfect that the worthier, the more it is enuied of the wicked.

5 (c) The foole foldeth his handes together, and eateth vp his owne flesshe.

(c) For idlenesse destroyeth hym selfe.

6 One handfull (sayth he) is better with rest, then both the handes full with labour and trauayle of mynde.

7 Moreouer I turned me, and beholde yet another vanitie vnder the sunne:

8 There is one man, no mo but hym selfe alone, hauyng neither childe nor brother, yet is there no ende of his carefull trauayle, his eyes can not be satisfied with riches: (yet sayth he not) for whom do I take such trauayle? For whose pleasure do I thus consume away my life? This is also a vayne and miserable thyng.

9 (d) Therfore two are better then one, for they may well enioy the profite of their labour: For yf one of them fall, his companion helpeth hym vp agayne.

(d) Mutuall societie is both comfortable & necessarie for a mans lyfe.

10 But wo is hym that is alone: for yf he fal, he hath not another to helpe hym vp.

11 Agayne when two sleepe together they are warme: but howe can a body be warme alone?

12 One may be ouercome, but two may make resistaunce: A three folde gable is not lightly broken.

13 A poore childe beyng wise, is better then an olde king that doteth, * and can not beware in tyme to come.

* Or and will not receaue admonition.

14 *Some one commeth out of prison, and is made a kyng: and another which is borne in the kyngdome, commeth vnto pouertie.

C Gen.xii.b. 1.Reg 16.c.

15 And I perceaued that all men lyuyng vnder the sunne (e) go with the seconde childe that shall stande vp in the steade of the other.

(e) Men seke rather to please and to come in to fauour with hym that shall succeede into the place of honour, then with hym that both occupie the present estate

16 As for the people that haue ben before hym, and that come after hym, they are innumerable, and they that come after hym shall not reioyce of hym: This is also a vayne thyng, and vexation of mynde.

(f) The people shal not be contented nor pleased with hym yt at occupieth the place of honour.

17 When thou commest into the house of God, kepe thy foote and drawe nye, that God which is at hande may heare that thou gene not the (g) offeryinges of fooles: for they knowe naught but to do euyll.

(g) we must direct our fayth, prayer, and workes, by the worde of God and not by a blinde or wicked entent.

The .v. Chapter.

1 Not to speake lightly, chiefly in Gods matters. 9 The couetous can neuer haue enough. 11 The labourers sleepe is sweete. 14 Man when he dyeth taketh nothyng with hym. 18 To lyue ioyfully and with a contented mynde, is the gyft of God.

A (a) Be not rashe in speakyng of the matters of God, or in vowyng and payeng vnto God.

1 BE (a) not hasty with thy mouth, and let not thine heart speake any thyng rashly before God: For God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth, therfore let thy wordes be fewe.

2 For where much carefulnesse is, there are many dreames: and where many wordes are, there men may heare fooles.

3 * If thou make a vowe vnto God, be not slacke to performe it: As for foolish vowes he hath no pleasure in them: yf thou promise any thyng, pay it.

Deu xxiii.c Baruc.vi.c.

(b) We ought to beware that we vow not rashly, intending to seke the glory of God, & after our power to performe.

4 (b) For better is it that thou make no vowe, then that thou shouldest promise and not pay.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesshe flesshe for to (c) sinne, neither say thou before the angell that it is thy ignorance: for then God wyll be angry at thy voyce, and destroy all the worke of thyne handes.

(c) The prophet meaning that we should not be able to prevent the vengeance of God by excusing or denying that we have not sinned, but by repentance, and by forsaking our sinnes. (d) Dreames are not to be credited, but God is to be feared.

6 [d] And why? Wheras are many dreames and many wordes, there are also diuers vanities: but loke that thou feare God.

7 If thou seest the poore to be oppressed, and wrongfully dealt withall, so that equitie and right of the lawe is wrested in the lande, marueyle not thou at such a thyng: for he that is (e) hygher then the hyghest regardeth, and there be hygher then they.

(e) Meaning that God will redresse such thynges, and therfore we must depende vpon hym.

8 [f] The increase of the earth vpholdeth all thyng: yea the kyng hym selfe is mayntayned by husbandry.

(f) By the help of husbandry in the decay of the realme.

9 He that loueth money, wyll neuer be satisfied with money: and he that loueth riches, shalbe without the fruite therof: This is also a vayne thyng.

10 Wheras much riches is, there are many also that spende them away: And what pleasure more hath he that possesseth them, sauyng that he may loke vpon them with his eyes?

11 A labouryng man sleepeth sweetly whether it be litle or much that he eateth: but the aboundaunce of the riche wyll not suffer hym to sleepe.

(g) A plague of the couetous man.

12 [g] Yet is there a sore plague which I haue seene vnder the sunne [namely] riches kept to the hurt of hym that hath them in possession:

13 For oft tymes they perishe with his great misery and trouble: and yf he haue a childe, it getteth nothyng.

14 *Lyke as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, so goeth he thyther agayne, and caryeth nothyng away with hym of all his labour. Iob. i. d. 1. Tim. vi. b.

15 This is a miserable plague, that he shall go euen as he came away: what helpeth it hym then that he hath laboured in the wynde?

16 [h] All the dayes of his lyfe also he dyd eate in the darke, with great carefulnesse, sickenesse, and sorowe.

(h) That is, in payne, and without pleasure.

17 [i] Therfore me thynke it a better and a fairer thyng, a man to eate and drynke, and to be refreshed of all his labour that he taketh vnder the sunne, all the dayes of his lyfe which God geueth hym: for this is his portion.

(i) Man by reason can comprehende nothyng better in this life then to vse the gyftes of God soberly and comfortably: for to knowe further, is a spetiall gyft of God reuealed by his spirite.

18 For vnto whom soeuer God geueth riches, goodes, and power, he geueth it hym to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be refreshed of his labour: this is the gyft of God.

19 For he thinketh not much howe long he shall lyue, forasmuch as God fylleth his heart with gladnesse.

The .vj. Chapter.

The miserable estate of hym to whom God hath geuen riches, and not the grace to vse them.

A 1 There is yet a plague vnder the sunne, and it is a generall thyng among men: When God geueth a man riches, goodes, and honour, so that he wanteth nothyng of all that his heart can desire, and yet God geueth hym not leaue to enioy the same, but another man spendeth them: This is a vayne thyng and a miserable plague.

2 If a man beget a hundred children, and lyue many yeres, so that his dayes are many in number, and yet can not enioy his good, (k) neither be buryed: as for hym I say, that vntymely birth is better then he.

(k) The wicked couetous man by many labour of sea or water, & honour of a christian man no burying, either by murthering hym selfe, or by such other kynde of offence.

3 For he commeth to naught, & spendeth his tyme in darknesse, and his name is forgotten.

4 Moreouer he seeth not the sunne, and knoweth not of it: and yet hath he more rest then the other.

5 Yea, though he lyued two thousande yeres, yet hath he no good lyfe: Come not all to one place?

6 [l] All the labour that a man taketh is for hym selfe, and yet his desire is neuer fylled after his mynde.

(l) That is, to death, meaning that he is nothyng better then the vntimely fruite.

7 For what hath the wise more then the foole? what helpeth it the poore that [m] he knoweth to walke with fooles before the lyuyng?

(m) Or, for his mouth.

8 [n] The clere syght of the eye is better then that the soule shoulde walke after desires of the lust: howbeit, this is also a vayne thyng, and a disquietnesse of mynde.

(n) That is, that he knoweth howe to vse his riches well in the iudgement of the spirite.

9 The thyng that hath ben, is named (o) already,

(o) It is better to be content with that God hath geuen, then to followe his desire that neuer will be satisfied.

airedy, and knowen that it is euen man him selfe: neither may he go to lawe with him (f) that is mightier then he.

(f) That is with God, who could teache hym that he cannot fall.

10 Many thinges there be that encrease vanitie, and what hath a man els?

11 For who knoweth what is good for man liuing in the dayes of his vayne life, whiche is but a shadowe? Or who wyl tell a man what shall happen after hym vnder the sunne?

The. vij. Chapter.

Diuers precepts to folowe that whiche is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

A From xxii a Cantica.

1 *Good name is more worth then precious oyntment: (a) & the day of death, is better the the day of byrth.

(a) Because that thys corporall death is the entring in to life euerlasting.

2 (b) It is better to go into an house of mourning, then into a banketting house: For there is the ende of all men, and he that is liuing taketh it to heart.

(b) The house of mourning put vs in mynde of death, and to examine and amende our liues.

3 (c) Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenaunce is heaute, the heart is reformed.

(c) The heart of a sinner is sooner reformed by an angrie countenaunce then by a smiling.

4 The heart of the wise is in the mourning house: but the heart of the foolishe is in the house of myrth.

Prou.xvii.a 5 *It is better to geue care to the chastening of a wyse man, then to heare the songue of fooles:

6 For the laughyng of fooles is like the (d) cracking of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vayne thing.

(d) The wood in the fire crackleth for a while, but they are soone gone out.

7 The wyse man hateth wrong dealing, and abhorreth the heart that coueteth rewardes.

8 Better is it to consider the ende of a thing then the beginning: The patient of spirite, is better then the hye minded.

9 Be not hastyly angrie in thy minde: for Wrath resteth in the bosome of fooles.

(e) Good dayes are not to be esteemed by prosperitie, but by vertue and true religion, as the dayes of Christe are better then the former dayes of Moyses.

10 (e) Say not thou, what is the cause that the dayes of the old time were better then they that be nowe? for that were no wyse question.

11 Wysdome with inheritaunce is good, yet better is it with them that without care may beholde the sunne:

12 For Wysdome defendeth alwell as money, and the excellent knowledge & wysdome geueth lyfe vnto hym that hath it in possession.

(f) No man can make hym see or go whom God hath appointed to be borne blinde or lame.

13 Consider the worke of God, how that no man can make the thing (f) straight, whiche he maketh crooked.

14 Vse well the tyme of prosperitie, and remember the tyme of misfortune: for God doth so temper the one and the other, that a man (g) can finde nothing els.

(g) That no man can finde fault with Gods doinges.

15 All thinges haue I considered in the time of my vanitie: that the (h) iust man perisheth for his righteousnesse sake, & the vngodly liueth in his wickednesse.

(h) Meaning that the cruell tyrannes oft put the innocente to death, & spare the wicked.

16 (i) Therfore be thou neither to righteous (k) nor ouer wyse, that thou perishe not.

(i) Folow not thy good intente in thine thinges which be contrary to Gods commaundement, or punishe not euery light fault with extremitie.

17 (l) Be neither to vnrighteous also nor to foolishe, lest thou die before thy time.

(k) Be not wyse in thyne owne conceipt.

(l) Departe quickly from that that is wicked.

18 It is good for thee to (m) take holde of this, and not to let that go out of thy hande: For he that feareth God, commeth foorth with them all.

(m) Take heede of these admonitions.

19 Wysdome geueth more courage vnto the wyse, then ten mighty men of the citie.

20 *For there is not one iust vpon earth that doth good, and sinneth not.

n. Rom.v.c. u Par.v.g. Prou.xx.d. i.Iohn.i.d.

21 Take no heede vnto euery word that is spoken, lest thou heare thy seruaunt curse thee: for thyne owne heart knoweth that thou thy self also hast oftimes spoken euyll by other men.

22 All these thinges haue I proued in wysdome, for I thought to be wyse, *but she went farther fro me then she was before: yea and so deepe, that I might not reache vnto her.

Iob.xxviii.e

23 I applied my minde also vnto knowledge, and to seeke and searche out science, wysdome, and vnderstanding, to knowe the foolishnesse of the vngodly, and the errour of doting fooles.

24 And I founde that *a woman is bitterer then death, the whiche hath cast abrode her heart as a net that men fishe with, and her handes are chaynes: (n) Who so pleaseth God shall escape from her, but the sinner wyll be taken with her.

Prou.vii.d.

(n) A thyrde woman is escaped onely by the grace of God.

I (i) 25 Beholde

25 Beholde (saith the preacher) this haue I diligently searched out and proued: One thing must be considered with another, that a man may come by knowledge, which * as yet I seeke, and finde it not.

* Or, my soule seeketh.

26 Among a thousande men I haue founde one: but (o) not one woman among all.

27 Lo this onlye haue I founde, that *God made man iust and right: (p) but they sought many inuentions.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

1 By no outwarde thing can man know whom God loueth or hateth. 11 No man knoweth his ende. 19 Wysdome excelleth strength.

A 1 FOr all these thinges purposed I in my mynde to seeke out: The righteous & wise, yea & their seruauntes also are in the hand of God, (a) and there is no man that knoweth eyther loue or hate, but all thinges are before them.

(a) By any outwarde thing in this life no man knoweth whether he be worthy of loue or hate of God.

2 It happeneth vnto one as vnto another, it goeth with the righteous as with the vngodly, (b) with the good and cleane, as with the vncleane, with hym that offereth, as with hym that offereth not: like as it goeth with the vertuous, so goeth it also with the sinner: as it happeneth vnto the periured, so happeneth it also to hym that is afrayde to be forsworne.

(b) Prosperite and aduersite commeth in this life, and euell to the godly as to the wicked.

3 Among all thinges that come to passe vnder the sunne, this is a miserie, that it happeneth vnto all alike: This is the cause also that the heartes of men are full of wickednesse, and madde foolishnesse is in their heartes as long as they liue, vntyll they dye.

4 And why? as long as a man liueth, he hath an hope: for a quicke (c) dogge [say they] is better then a dead lion.

(c) This prouerbe is the fayenge of the Epicures, the whiche beleueth not the immortalitie of the soule.

5 For they that be liuing knowe that they shall dye: but they (d) that be dead knowe nothing, neither deserue they any more, for their memorial is forgotten.

(d) Repentaunce after this life is to late and vnprofitable.

6 Also their loue, and their hatred, and their enuie is nowe perished, neither haue they any more part in the worlde in all that is done vnder the sunne.

7 (e) Go thou thy way then, eate thy bread with ioy, & drinke thy wine with a glad heart, for thy workes please god: Let thy garmentes be alwayes white, *and let thy head lacke no ointment.

(e) The wicked flatter them selues to be in Gods fauour whatsoeuer they do, for that they do abounde in prosperitie. Matth. vi b. Prou. v. c.

8 Use thy selfe to liue ioyfully with thy wife whom thou loued all the dayes of thy life whiche is but vayne, that God geueth thee vnder the sunne all the dayes of thy vanitie: for that is thy portion in this life of al thy labour and trauayle that thou takest vnder the sunne.

(f) There is no tyme of louing, or repentaunce after this life.

9 Whatsoeuer thou takest in hande to do, that do with al thy power: for in the graue that thou goest (f) vnto, there is neither worke, counsayle, knowledge, nor wysdome.

10 So I turned me vnto other thinges vnder the sunne, & I saw that in running it helpeth not to be swift, in battell it helpeth not to be strong, to feeding it helpeth not to be wyse, to riches it helpeth not to be a man of muche vnderstanding, to be had in fauour it helpeth not to be cunning: (g) but that all lieth in tyme and fortune.

(g) Thus the wicked worldlinges are bestraught, attributing to fortune the which is ordered by the secrete prouidence of god, for that the rewarde according to mens desertes is not in this life, but chiefly in the life to come. (h) A prayse of wyse men.

11 For a man knoweth not his tyme: but like as the fishes are taken with the angle, and as the byrdes are caught with the snare: euen so are men taken in the perilous time, when it commeth sodaynly vpon them.

12 (h) This wysdome haue I seene also vnder the sunne, and me thought it a great thing:

13 There was a litle citie and a few men within it: so there came a great kyng and besieged it, and made great bulwarkes against it.

14 And in the citie there was founde a poore man, but he was wyse, whiche with his wysdome deliuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any respect to such a simple man.

15 Then sayd I, Wysdome is better then strength: Neuertheles, a simple mans wysdome is despised, and his wordes are not heard.

16 A wyse mans counsayle that is * followed in science, is farre aboue the crying of a captaine among fooles.

* Or, heard.

17 * For wysdome is better then harnesse: but one sinner alone destroyeth muche goodnesse.

13 A foole is full of wordes, and a man can not tell what shall come to passe: who wyll then warne hym of it that shall folowe after hym?

14 The labour of the * foolishe is greeuous vnto them, whyle they know not howe to go into the citie.

15 Wo be vnto thee O thou lande, whose kyng (d) is but a chylde, and whose princes are early at their bankettes.

16 But well is thee O thou lande, whose kyng is come of nobles, and whose princes eate in due season for necessitie, and not for lust.

17 Thorowe slouthfulnesse the balkes fall downe, and thorowe idle handes it rayneth in at the house.

18 Meate maketh men to laugh, and * wine maketh them merie: but vnto money are all thinges obedient.

Psal. ciiii b.

19 ' Wishe the king no euil in thy thought, and speake no hurt of the riche in thy priuie chaumber: for a byrde of the ayre shall betray thy voyce, and with her fethers shall she bewray thy wordes.

(d) The foolishe lyeth discusse high matters, and knoweth not his owne duetie.
(e) A chylde in affection and maners, and voyde of graue counsell.
(f) Treason can not be wrought so secretly, but it withe known.

The .xj. Chapter.

1 To be liberall to the poore. 4 Not to doubt of Gods prouidence. 8 All worldly prosperitie is but banitie. 9 God wyll iudge all.

A Lay (a) thy bread vpon wette faces, and so shalt thou finde it after many dayes.

(a) Be liberall to the poore, though it seeme to be cast into the sea, yet it shall profite thee at the last.

2 (b) Geue part seuē dayes, & also vpon the eyght: for thou knowest not what miserie shall come vpon earth.

(b) Distribute thy almes to all that haue nede, without respect of persons.

3 When the cloudes are full, they powre out raine vpon the earth. (c) And when the tree falleth, whether it be towarde the south or north, in what place soeuer it fall, there it lieth.

(c) In what case man dyeth in that shall he be iudged at the latter day of iudgement.

4 He that regardeth the winde, shall not sowe: and he that hath respect vnto the cloudes, shall not reape.

5 Nowe like as thou knowest not the way of the spirite, nor howe the bones do growe in the wombe of her that is with chylde: Euen so thou knowest not the workes of God, which is the workmaster of all.

6 Ceasse

6 Ceasse not thou therefore with thy handes to sowe thy seede, Whether it be in the morning or in the euening: for thou knowest not whether this or that shall prosper, and if they both take, it is the better.

23 7 The light is sweete, and a pleasaunt thing is it for the eyes to looke vpon the sunne.

8 If a man liue many yeres, and be glad in them all, let hym remember the dayes of darkenesse whiche shalbe manye, and that followeth: All thinges shalbe but vanitie.

■ Be glad then (O thou young man) in thy youth, and let thy heart be merie in thy young dayes, followe the wayes of thyne owne heart, and the lust of thyne eyes, (c) but be thou sure that God shall bryng thee into iudgement for all these thinges.

(c) Se behaue thy selfe in all worldly affayres, that thou remember alwayes the counte that thou must make to God for the same at the day of iudgement

The songue

The Ballet of Ballettes of Solomon, called in Latin, Canticum Canticorum.

The first Chapter.

1 The familier talke and mistical communication of the spirituall loue betweene Jesus Christe and his Churche. 6 The domesticall enemies that persecute the Churche.

A 1 (a) The Churche desireth ✠ peace of Christe.

OThat he would kisse me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy loue is more pleasaunt then wine, and that because of the good and pleasaunt sauour of thy most precious baulmes.

2 (b) Thy name is a sweet smelling oyntment when it is shed foorth, therfore do the (c) maydens loue thee.

3 Draw thou me [vnto thee] we will runne after thee. The kyng hath brought me vnto his (d) priue chaumbers: we will be glad and reioyce in thee, we thinke more of thy loue then of wine: they that be righteous loue thee.

4 (e) I am blacke (O ye daughters of Hierusalem) but yet (f) faire and well fauoured, like as the tentes of the Cedarenes, and as the hangynges of Solomon.

5 Marueyle not at me that I am so blacke, for why? the sunne hath shined vpon me: my mothers children haue euyll will at me, they made me the keper of the vineyardes, but mine owne vineyarde haue I not kept.

(b) Christes mercy is set foorth by preaching.
(c) The impudent, that is, they that are pure in heart.
(d) Priuie chaumbers, that is his secretes and misteries.
(e) Blacke, shewing the spottes of sinne and persecution.
(f) Faire, shewing faith in the blood of Christe.

6 Tell me O thou whom my soule loueth, where thou feedest the sheepe, where thou makest them rest at the noone day: for why shall I be like hym that goeth wrong about the flockes of thy companions?

7 If thou knowe not thy selfe (O thou 25 fayrest among women) then go thy way foorth after the (g) footesteppes of the sheepe, and feede thy goates beside the shepheardes tentes.

(g) After the doctrine of the Apostles.

8 Vnto * the hoast of Pharaos charets haue I compared thee, O my loue. Exo.xiiii.c.

9 Thy cheekes and thy necke is beautifull as the turtles, and hanged with spanges and goodly iewels, a neckband of golde will we make thee, with siluer buttons.

10 (h) When the king sitteth at the table, he shall smell my Nardus: a bundell of myrre is my loue vnto me, he will lye betwixt my brestes: a cluster of Camphire in the vineyardes of Engaddi is my loue vnto me.

(h) So long as ✠ Churche followeth Christe, she shall not erre from the right path of saluation.

11 * Oh howe faire art thou my loue, Oh howe faire art thou: thou hast doues eyes. O howe faire art thou my beloued, howe well fauoured art thou: Cant.i.a.

12 Our bed is dect with flowres, the seelinges of our house are of Cedar tree, and our crosse ioyntes of Cipresse.

The. ij. Chapter.

3 The Churche desireth to rest vnder the shadowe of Christe. 8 She heareth his voyce. 14 She is compared to the doue. 15 And the enemies to the foxes.

A 1 I Am the rose of the fielde, and lillie of the valleys,

2 (a) As the lillie among the thornes: so is my loue among the daughters. (a) Christe among his enemies.

3 (b) Like as the apple tree among the trees of the wood: so is my beloued among the sonnes. (b) The loue of the Church towarde Christe.

4 My delight is to sit vnder his shadowe, for (c) his fruite is sweete vnto my throte. (c) His fruite, that is, his woorde.

5 He bringeth me into his wine seller, his banner spread ouer me, whiche is his loue.

6 Set about me cuppes of wine, comfort me with apples, for I am sicke of loue.

7 * His left hande lyeth vnder my head, and his right hande shall imbrace me. Cant.viii.a.

8 I charge

(a) Christe chargeth the rulers of the Churche as it were vnto the that they trouble not the quietnes therof

8 (a) I charge you (O ye daughters of Hierusalem) by the roes and hindes of the fielde, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touche her, tyll she be content her selfe.

9 Me thinke I heare the voyce of my beloued: lo, there commeth he hopping vpon the mountaines, and leaping ouer the litle hilles.

(d) This litle saint was hidden vnder our flesshe (f) we can not knowe hym in this life perfectly.

10 My beloued is lyke a roe or a young hart: beholde he standeth behinde (e) our wall, he looketh in (f) at the wyndowe, and peepeth thorowe the grate.

11 My beloued answered and sayd vnto me: O stande vp my loue, my beautifull, and go to thyne owne: (g) for lo the winter is nowe past, the rayne is away and gone.

(g) That is, sinne and infidelitie is put away by Christe.

12 (h) The flowres are come vp in the field, the tyme of the byrdes singing is come, and the (i) voyce of the turtle doue is

(i) Gods workes.

(k) The voyce of the holy ghost.

heard in our lande.

13 The figge tree bryngeth forth her figges, and the vines beare blossomes and haue a good smell. ℭ

14 O stande vp then and come my loue my beautifull, (and come I say) O my doue, out of the caues of the rockes, out of the holes of the wall, O let me see thy countenaunce and heare thy voyce: for sweete is thy voyce, and fayre is thy face.

15 Get vs (k) the foxes, yea the litle foxes that hurt the vines: for our vines beare blossomes.

(l) Suppresse the heretikes at the beginning, when they preache false doctrine.

16 *My loue is mine, & I am his, which feedeth among the lilies vntill the day breake, and till the shadowes be gone:

17 (l) Come agayne O my beloued, and be lyke as a roe or a young hart vpon the wyde mountaines.

(m) The Church prayeth Christe to be a present helpe always in tyme of neede.

¶ The.iij. Chapter.

1 The Churche desireth to be ioyned inseparably to Christe her husbande. 6 Her deliueraunce out of the wyldernesse.

A (a) Christe is not founde by carnal reason, but by the Scripture.

1 (n) By night in my bed I sought hym whom my soule loueth: yea diligently sought I him, but I found him not.

(b) We must continue in prayer, though we seeke no comfort of the flesh.

2 I will get vp (thought I) (b) & go about the citie, in the wayes in all the streates will I seeke hym whom my soule loueth: but when I sought hym I founde hym not.

3 The Watchmen also that go about the citie, founde me (to whom I sayde) Sawe ye not hym whom my soule loueth?

4 So when I was a litle past them, I founde him whom my soule loueth: I haue gotten holde vpon hym, and will not let him go, vntyll I bryng him into my mothers house, and into her chaumber that bare me.

Cant.viij.b. 5 *I charge you O ye daughters of Hierusalem by the roes and hyndes of the fielde, that ye wake not by my loue, nor touch her, till she be content her self.

6 Who is this that commeth vp out (o) of the wyldernesse like vapours of smoke, as it were a smell of myrre, frankensence, and all maner spices of the Apothecarie?

7 Beholde, about (p) Solomons bedsteede there stande threescore valiaunt, of the most mighte in Israel: They holde swordes euery one, and are expert in warre.

8 (q) Euery man also hath his sworde vpon his thigh, because of feare in the night.

9 King Solomon had made him selfe a palace of the wood of Libanus, the pillers are of siluer, * the couering of golde, the seate of purple, the grounde is pleasauntly paued with loue for the daughters of Hierusalem.

10 Go forth (r) (O ye daughters of Sion) and beholde king Solomon in the crowne wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his mariage, and in the day of the gladnesse of his heart.

(n) By this is vnderstanded the chyldren of Israel, which in the wyldernes did folow Christe.

(o) By Solomons bedsteede, in this description the temple of Solomon the Scripture is defended by the sword that is by the worde.

(q) Euery man must learne the worde of God, by the which he shalbe defended in the time of temptation.

* Some reade the pauement of golde, the couering of purple.

(r) Ye that be of the number of the faythfull

I (uij) ¶ The

¶ The. iiij. Chapter.

1 The prayſes of the Churche. 7 She is without blemiſhe in his ſight. 9 The loue of Chriſte towardes her.

A (a) Chriſte graueth his Churche, wherein he hath great delight.

1 Howe (c) fayre art thou my loue, howe fayre art thou? thou haſt (b) doues eyes, beſide that which lyeth hid within: Thy heerie lockes are lyke the Wooll of a flocke of goates that be ſhorne vpon mount Gilead.

(b) By the teeth is ſignified hys Churche, by the whiche we are all made the ſonnes of God by Chriſte.

2 (b) Thy teeth are like a flocke (of ſheepe) of the ſame bigneſſe Whiche went vp from the waſhing place, where euery one beareth two twinnes, and not one vnfruitfull among them.

3 Thy lippes are lyke a roſe coloured ribande, thy Wordes are louely, thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thyne heeres.

(c) By the neckе are ſignified the preachers.

4 (c) Thy necke is like the towre of Dauid buylded With coſtly ſtones, lying out on the ſides Whereupon there hange a thouſande ſhieldes: yea all the Weapons of the ſtauntes.

(f) The two breaſtes ſignifie the two teſtamentes.

5 (f) Thy two breaſtes are lyke two twinnes of young Roes, Whiche feede among roſes.

6 O that I might go to the mountaine of myrre, and to the hil of frankencenſe, til the day breake, and til the ſhadowes be paſt away.

7 Thou art all fayre (O my loue) and no ſpot is there in thee.

8 Come to me from Libanus (O my ſpouſe) come to me from Libanus: looke from the top of Amana, from the top of Sanir and Hermon, from the lions dennes, and from the mountaines of the leopardes.

9 Thou haſt (with loue) bewitched my heart O my ſiſter my ſpouſe, thou haſt bewitched my heart With one of thyne eyes, and With one chayne of thy necke. 25

10 O howe fayre are thy breaſtes, my ſiſter, my ſpouſe? Thy breaſtes are more pleaſaunt then Wine, and the ſmell of thyne ointmentes paſſeth all ſpices.

(g) The prayſes ſhyning of the doue, ſignifieth much contemplation & prayer.

11 (g) Thy lippes, O my ſpouſe, drop as the hony combe, yea mylke and hony is vnder thy tongue, and the ſmell of thy garmentes is like the ſmell of Libanus.

(h) The Churche is likened vnto Gardē.

12 (h) A garden Well locked is my ſiſter, my ſpouſe: a garden Well locked, and a ſealed Well.

13 The frutes that are planted in thee, are lyke a very paradiſe of pomegranates With ſweete frutes, as Camphire, Nardus, & Saffron, Calamus, Sinamom, With all ſweete ſmellyng trees, Myrre, Aloes, and all the beſt ſpyces, a Well of gardens, a Well of liuing Waters Which runne downe from Libanus.

(i) He prayeth for the grace of the holy ghoſt to worke in the Churche, without the whiche nothing can proſper in it.

14 (i) Up thou north Winde, come thou ſouth Winde and blowe vpon my garden, that the ſmell therof may be caryed on euery ſide: yea that my beloued may come into his garden, and eate of the ſweete frutes (that growe therein.)

The. v. Chapter.

1 Chriſte calleth his Churche to the participation of all his treaſures. 2 She heareth his voyce. 6 She confeſſeth her nakednes. 10 She prayſeth Chriſte her huſbande.

A (a) The garden ſignifieth the Churche of God, in the Whiche Chriſte delyteth his ſpiritual benefites.

1 I Am (a) come into my garden, O my ſiſter, my ſpouſe, I haue gathered my Myrre With my ſpice: I haue eate hony With my hony combe, I haue dronke my Wine With my mylke: Eate O ye frendes, drinke and be merie O ye beloued.

2 I am a ſleepe, but my heart is waking: I heare the voyce of my beloued When he knocketh, ſaying, Open to me O my ſiſter, my loue, my doue, my dearling: for my head is full of deawe, and the lockes of my heere are full of the nyght doppes.

3 I haue put of my coate, howe can I do it on agayne? I haue waſhed my feete, howe ſhall I fyle them agayne?

4 My loue put in his hande at the hole, and my heart Was moued Within me.

5 I ſtoode

5 I ſtoode vp to open vnto my beloued, and my handes dropped with Myrre, & the Myrre ranne downe my fingers vpon the locke.

6 I opened vnto my beloued, but he was departed and gone his way: Now whē he ſpake, my heart was gone: (a) I ſought him, but I coulde not finde him: I cryed vpon hym, neuertheleſſe he gaue me no aunſwere.

(a) Chriſte doth leaue his for a tyme, for that he would ſtire vp in them a greater deſire of hym.

B 7 So the watchmen that went about the citie, founde me, ſmote me, and wounded me: yea they that kept the walles toke away my kerchaffe from me.

8 I charge you therfore O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, yf ye finde my beloued, that ye tell hym howe that I am ſicke for loue.

9 What maner of man is thy loue aboue other louers, O thou faireſt among women? Or what can thy loue do more then other louers, that thou chargeſt vs ſo straytly?

(c) The Church ſeeketh forth Chriſte to be of moſt perfection & conſtancie.

10 As for my loue, he is whyte and red coloured, a goodly perſon among tenne thouſande.

11 His head is as the moſt fine golde, the lockes of his heere are buſhed, & blacke as a crowe.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brookes as though they were waſhed with mylke, and are ſet lyke pearles in golde.

13 His cheekes are lyke a garden bed, wherin the Apothecaries plant all maner of ſweete thynges.

14 His lippes are lyke lilies that droppe ℭ ſweete ſmellyng Myrre: His handes are lyke golde rynges, hauyng incloſed the precious ſtone of Tharſis.

15 His body is as the pure iuorie, dett ouer with Saphires: His legges are as the pillers of Marble ſet vpon ſockettes of golde.

16 His face is as Libanus: and as the beautie of the Cedar trees.

17 The wordes of his mouth are ſweete: yea he is altogether louely: Such a one is my loue O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, ſuch a one is my loue.

* Some reade, and remayne by the full veſſels.

The .vi. Chapter.

1 The Church aſſureth her ſelfe of the loue of Chriſte. 3 The prayſes of the Church. 8 She is but one and vndefiled.

A 1 Whyther is thy loue gone then O thou faireſt among women? whyther is thy loue departed, and we wyll ſeke hym with thee?

(a) Chriſte is conuerſant in his Churche, which is directed by his ſcriptures.

2 (a) My loue is gone downe into his garden vnto the ſweete ſmellyng beddes, that he may refreſhe hym ſelfe in the garden, & gather lilies.

3 My loue is myne, and I am his, Which feedeth among the lilies.

4 Thou are beautifull O my loue as is [the place] Thirza, thou art faire as Hieruſalem, fearefull as an armie of men with their banners.

5 Turne away thine eyes from me, for they * haue ſet me on fire: Thy heery lockes are lyke a flocke of goates ſhorne vpon the mount of Gilead.

* Or, ouercome me.

6 Thy teeth are lyke a flocke of ſhorne ſheepe which go out of the waſhyng place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitfull among them.

7 Thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thy lockes of heere.

8 (b) There are threeſcore queenes, foureſcore wiues, and damſelles without number.

B 5 (b) There be many in the Churche of God, & diuers orders and degrees therein.

9 (c) One is my doue, one is my dearlyng: She is the only beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When the daughters ſawe her, they ſayde ſhe was bleſſed, yea the queenes & wiues prayſed her.

(c) Diuers gete riches & honors by grace, but this one is honored by vertue.

10 What is ſhe this that loketh forth as the morning, faire as the moone, cleare as the ſunne, and fearfull as an armie of men with their banners?

11 (d) I went downe into the nut garden to ſee what grewe by the brookes, and to loke yf the vineyarde flouriſhed, or yf the pomegranates were not forth.

(d) Chriſte loketh vpon his Church ſubiect to affliction, what fruite it bringeth.

12 I knewe not that my ſoule had made me the charyot of the people that be vnder tribute.

13 Turne agayne turne agayne O thou perfect one, turne agayne turne agayne and we wyll loke vpon thee: What will ye ſee in the (e) Sulamite? She is lyke men of warre ſinging in a companie.

(e) Or Sulamite, that is Hieruſalem the which was Shulem, that ſignifieth peace.

4 I charge you O ye daughters of Hieruſalem that ye Wake not vp my loue, nor touche her, tyll ſhe be content her ſelfe.

5 (What is ſhe this that cometh vp from the Wilderneſſe, and leaneth vpon her loue?) I Wake thee vp among the apple trees Where thy mother conceaued thee, Where thy mother [I ſay] brought thee into the Worlde.

6 [c] O ſet me as a ſeale vpon thyne heart, and as a ſeale vpon thyne arme: for loue is myghte as the death, and gelouſie as the hell.

The booke of the prophete Esai.

The first Chapter.

1 The prophete accuseth the sinnes of the people: namely of ingratefulnesse, stubburnesse, 21 faithlesse seruice of God, 24 and sheweth Gods terrible iudgement against them vnlesse they repent.

THe vision of Esai the sonne of Amos, which he sawe vpon Juda and Hierusalem in the dayes of Uzia & Joathan, Ahaz and Jehezekiah, kinges of Juda.

2 Heare O heauens, and hearken O earth: for the Lorde hath spoken, I haue norished and brought vp children, and they haue done vnfaithfully against me.

3 The ore hath knowen his owner, and the asse his masters cribbe: but Israel hath not knowen, my people hath geuen no heede.

4 Ah sinnefull nation, a people laden with vnquitie, a seede of the wicked, corrupt children: they haue forsaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, they are gone backwarde.

5 Why shoulde ye be stricken any more: [for] ye are euer fallyng away: euery head is diseased, and euery heart heauy:

6 From the sole of the foote vnto the head there is nothyng sounde in it: [but] woundes, blaynes, and putrifying sore: they haue not ben salued, neither wrapped vp, neither molified with the oyntment.

7 Your lande is wasted, your cities are burnt vp, straungers deuour your lande before your face, and it is made desolate, as it were the destruction of enemies [in the tyme of warre.]

8 And the daughter of Sion shalbe left as a cotage in a vineyarde, lyke a lodge in a garden of Cucumbers, lyke a besieged citie.

9 Except the Lorde of hoastes had left vs a small remnaunt, we shoulde haue ben as Sodoma, & lyke vnto Gomorra.

10 Heare the worde of the Lord ye lordes of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the lawe of our God thou people of Gomorra.

11 Why offer ye so many sacrifices to me, wyll the Lorde say: I am full of the burnt burnt offeringes of Weathers, & of the fatnesse of fed beastes, (b) I haue no pleasure in the blood of bullockes, lambes, and goates.

(b) God hateth all maner of seruice & seruyce, how fayre they neuer so good and holy, whē they be done without faith and puritie of mynde

12 When ye come to appeare before me treadyng in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes?

13 Offer me no mo oblations, for it is but lost labour: incense is an abhominable thyng vnto me, I may not away with your newe moones, your sabbathes & solempne meetynges, your solempne assemblies are wicked.

14 I hate your newe moones and appoynted feastes euen from my very heart, they make me weery, I can not abyde them.

15 When you holde out your handes, I wyll turne myne eyes from you: and though ye make many prayers, yet I wyll heare nothyng at all, seyng your handes are full of blood.

16 Washe you, make you cleane, put away your euyll thoughtes out of my syght: ceasse from doyng of euyll,

17 Learne to do well, applie your selues to equitie, deliuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his right, let the widdowes complaynt come before you:

18 And then go to, saith the Lorde, let vs talke together: though your sinnes be as red as scarlet, they shalbe as whyte as snowe: and though they were lyke purple, they shalbe as whyte as wooll.

19 If ye be wyllyng and obedient, ye shal eate the good of the lande:

20 But yf ye be obstinate and rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the swoorde: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken [it.]

21 Howe happeneth it then that the righteous cite which was full of equitie, is become vnfaythfull as a whore? Righteousnesse dwelt in it, but nowe murtherers.

22 Thy siluer is turned to drosse, and thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are wicked, and companions of theeues: they loue gyftes altogether, and gape for rewardes: As for the fatherlesse they helpe hym not to his right, neither wyll they let the widdowes causes come before them.

24 Therfore saith the Lorde God of hoastes, the mightie one of Israel: Ah I must ease me of mine enemies, and auenge me of mine aduersaries:

25 And I shall lay my hande vpon thee, and purely purge away thy drosse, and take away all thy tinne:

26 And set thy iudges agayne as they were sometyme, and thy senatours as they were from the begynnyng: and then thou shalt be called the ryghteous cite, the faythfull cite.

27 Sion shalbe redeemed with equitie, and her conuertes with righteousnesse.

28 But the transgressours, and the vngodly, and such as forsake the Lorde, shall altogether be vtterly destroyed.

29 For ye shalbe confounded for the trees which ye haue desired: and ye shalbe ashamed of the gardens that ye haue chosen.

30 For ye shalbe as a tree whose leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moystnesse.

31 And the very strong one [of your idols] shalbe as towe, and the maker of it as a sparke [of fire] and they shal both burne together, and no man quenche them.

The .ij. Chapter.

1 A prophecie of Christe and his kyngdome. 12 Pryde, couetousnesse, superstition, and idolatrie are reproued. 17 Gods terrible iudgement agaynst these.

A 1 The selfe same worde that Esai the sonne of Amos sawe vpon Juda and Hierusalem.

2 And this shall come to passe in the latter dayes: the hyll of the Lordes house shalbe prepared in the heyght of the mountaynes, and shalbe hygher then the hylles, and all nations shall preasse vnto hym.

(a) Christe, his Church, & his worde.

3 And a multitude of people shall go, speakyng [thus one to another] come, let vs ascende to the hyll of the Lorde, to the house of the God of Jacob, and he wyll instruct vs of his wayes, and we wyll walke in his pathes: for out of Sion shall come a lawe, and the worde of the Lorde from Hierusalem:

4 And shall geue sentence among the heathen, and shall reforme the multitude of people: they shall breake their swoordes also into mattockes, and their speares to make sithes: And one people shall shall not lyft vp a weapon agaynst another, neither shall they learne to fyght from thencefoorth.

5 Come ye O house of Jacob, and let vs walke in the lyght of the Lorde:

6 For thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, (b) because they be replenished [with euils] from the east, and with sorcerers lyke the Philistines, and in straunge children they thynke them selues to haue enough.

(b) The reason why God forsaketh his people is, idolatrie, breathing the superstition, couetousnesse, and trust in other thinges then in God alone.

7 Their lande is full of siluer and golde, neither is there any ende of their treasure: their lande is also full of horses, and no ende is there of their charrettes.

8 Their lande also is full of vayne gods, and before the worke of their owne handes they haue bowed them selues, yea euen before the thyng that their owne fingers haue made.

9 There kneeleth the man, there falleth the man downe [before them:] therfore forgeue them not.

10 Get thee into the rocke, and hyde thee in the grounde for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maiestie.

11 The high lookes of man shalbe brought lowe, and the hautinesse of men shalbe bowed downe: and the Lorde alone shalbe exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the Lorde of hoastes [shalbe] vpon all the proude, lofte, and vpon all that is exalted, and he shalbe brought lowe:

13 And vpon all high and stout Cedar trees of Libanus, and vpon all the okes of Basan,

14 And vpon all the high mountaynes, and vpon all the high hilles, ℭ

15 And vpon euery high towre, and vpon euery fenced wall,

16 And vpon all the shippes of Tharsis, and vpon all pictures of pleasure.

17 And the pride of man shalbe brought downe, and the loftinesse of men shalbe made lowe, and the Lorde alone shalbe exalted in that day:

18 As for the idols he shall vtterly abolishe:

19 And they shall creepe into holes of stone, and into caues of the earth for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maiestie, When he ariseth to destroy [the wicked ones of the earth].

20 In the selfe same day shall man cast away his gods of siluer, and his gods of golde, into the holes of Moldes and Battes, which he neuertheles had made to hym selfe to honour them.

21 And they shall creepe into the clifftes of the rockes, and into the toppes of the harde stones for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maiestie, When he ariseth to destroy [the wicked ones of the earth].

22 Ceasse therfore from man in whose nosethrilles there is breath: for wherin is he to be accompted of?

The .iij. Chapter.

1 The mischiefes that God sendeth on common weales for the contempt of his worde. 14 The couetousnesse of rulers reproued. 16 The proude nicenesse of women punished to their shame.

A 1 Lo, the Lorde God of hoastes doth take away from Hierusalem and Juda all maner of stay, all stay of meate and drynke,

2 The captayne and the souldiour, the iudge and the prophete, the (a) prudent and the aged man,

(a) The prudent, that is, such as can foresee by their prudence things to come.

3 The captayne of fifte & the honorable, the senatour, the cunnyng artificer, and the eloquent oratour.

4 And I shall geue children to be their princes, and babes shall rule ouer them.

5 And the people shall eche one of them violently oppresse another, and euery one agaynst his neyghbour: The boy shall presume agaynst the elder, and the person of lowe degree agaynst the honorable.

6 Yea one shall take a friende of his owne kinrede by the bosome, and say: thou hast clothyng, thou shalt be our head, and stay this ruine with thy hande.

7 Then shall he sweare and say, I can not helpe you: there is neither meate nor clothyng in my house, make me no ruler of the people.

8 For Hierusalem and Juda must decay: because that both their wordes and counsayles are agaynst the Lorde to prouoke the presence of his maiestie to anger.

9 Their

9 Their very countenaunce bewrayeth thē, yea they declare their owne sinnes [themselues] as Sodome, they hide it not:
woo be to their owne soules, for they haue rewarded euyll vnto them selues.
10 Say to the ryghteous that it shall go well with them: for they shall eate the fruite of their owne studies.
11 [But] Woo be vnto the wicked, for it shal-be euyll with hym: for he shalbe rewarded after his owne workes.
12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my people, thy leaders deceaue thee, and corrupt the way of thy footsteppes.
13 The Lorde is here to commune of the matter, & standeth to iudge the people.
¶ 14 The Lorde shall enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, [and shall say to them:] It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the spoyle of the poore is in your houses.
15 What meane ye that ye bray [as in a morter] my people, and grinde the faces of the poore: saith the Lorde God of hoastes.
16 Moreouer the Lord hath said, seing the daughters of Sion are waxen proude, & walke with stretched forth neckes, and wanton lokes, goyng and tripping nicely, and tinckelyng with their feete:
17 Therfore shall the Lorde shaue the heades of the daughters of Sion, and shall discouer their filthinesse.
18 In that day shall the Lord take away the gorgiousnesse of the attire about their feete, & the caules, and the roumde tires [after the fashion of the moone.]
19 The sweete perfumes, and the brace-lettes, and the mufflers, 20 The bonnettes, and the sloppes, and the head bandes, and the tablettes, and the earynges,
21 And rynges, and nose iewels:
22 The costly apparell, and the vayles, and the Wimples, & the crispyng pinnes, 23 And the glasses, and the fine linnen, and the hoodes, and the lawnes.
24 And in steade of good smell there shal-be stincke, and in steade of their girdle a rent, and for well set heere there shal-be baldnesse, in steade of a stomacher a sacke cloth, & [sunne] burnyng for beautie.
25 Thy men shal perishe with the sword, and thy valiaunt souldiours in the bat-tayle [O Hierusalem.]
26 And her gates shall mourne and be-wayle: and she beyng desolate, shall syt vpon the grounde.

men shall take holde

wyll finde our selues meate and apparell:
only let vs be called by thy name, to take our shamefull reproofe [from vs.]
(a) 2 In that day shall the budde of the Lorde be beautifull and glorious, and the fruite of the earth shalbe excellent and pleasaunt, for them that are escaped of Israel.
3 Then shall the remnaunt in Sion and the remnaunt at Hierusalem be called holy: [namely] all such as are written among the lyuyng in Hierusalem, 4 (b) After that the Lorde hath washt away the filthynesse of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out from Hierusalem in the spirite of iudge-ment and in the spirite of fire.
5 And vpon all the dwellynges of t hylles of Sion, and vpon her congre smoke by day, and the shynyng of flamyng fire by nyght: for all the glo shalbe preserued.

The

The .v. Chapter.

1 Of Christe and his vineyarde, 8 with an execration of couetousnesse, 11 drunkennesse, 19 and contempt of Gods worde.

A 1 NOwe wyll I syng my beloued frende, a song of my friende touching his vineyard: My beloued friende hath a vineyarde in a very fruteful pleteous grounde.

2 This he hedged, and gathered out the stones from it, and planted it with the choysest vine: In the middest of it buylded he a towre, also made a wine presse therin: (a) and he loked that it shoulde bring him grapes, and it brought fooxth wylde grapes.

(a) God loketh to receaue of his people the fruictfull frutes of fayth, and not the vnprofitable workes of hypocrisie vngratitude.

3 Nowe O citezen of Hierusalem, and man of Juda, iudge I pray thee betwixt me and my vineyarde:

4 What more coulde haue ben done for it, that I haue not done? Wherfore then hath it geuen wylde grapes, where I loked to haue had grapes of it?

5 Well, nowe I shall tell you howe I will do with my vineyarde: I will take the hedge from it, that it may perishe, and breake downe the wall therof, that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I wyll lay it waste, it shall neither be digged nor cut, but beare thornes and briers: I wyll also forbyd the cloudes that they shall not rayne vpon it.

25 7 As for the vineyarde of the Lorde of hoastes, it is the house of Israel: and the man of Juda, the plant of his pleasure: Of these he loked for equitie, but see there is oppression for ryghteousnesse, and lo it is a crying.

8 Wo vnto them that ioyne one house to another, and bring one lande so nigh vnto another, that there is no more place: (b) [illegible] ye be placed alone in the myddest of the earth?

9 These thynges are in the eares of the Lorde of hoastes: of a trueth great and fayre houses shalbe without any dweller in them.

10 And tenne acres of vines shall geue but a quart, and thirtie bushels of seede shall geue but an Epha.

11 Wo be vnto them that rise vp early to followe drunkennesse, continuyng vntyll nyght, tyll they be set on fire with wine.

12 In their feastes are harpes and lutes, tabrettes and pypes, and wine: but they regarde not the worke of the Lord, and consider not the operatiō of his handes.

13 Therfore commeth my folke into captiuitie, because they haue no vnderstandyng: (b) Their glorie is famished with hunger, and their multitude dryed vp with thirst.

14 Therfore gapeth hell and openeth her mouth marueilous wyde, that their glorie, multitude, and wealth, with such as reioyce in her, may descende into it.

15 Thus hath man a fall and is brought lowe, and the hygh loke of the proude shalbe layde downe.

16 But the Lorde of hoastes shalbe exalted in iudgement, and God that is holy is sanctified in ryghteousnesse.

17 Then shall the sheepe eate as they were wont, and the riche mens landes that were layde waste shall straungers deuour.

18 Wo be vnto them that drawe wickednesse with cordes of vanitie, and sinne as it were with a cart rope.

19 Which vse to speake on this maner, Let hym make speede and hasten his worke, that we may see it: let the counsayle of the holy one of Israel come and drawe nye, that we may knowe it.

20 Wo be vnto them that call euyll good, and good euyll, Which make darknesse lyght, and lyght darknesse, that make sowre sweete, and sweete sowre.

21 Wo be vnto them that are wise in their owne syght, and thynke them selues to haue vnderstandyng.

22 Wo be vnto them that are strong to suppe out wine, and expert men to set vp drunkennesse.

23 Wo be vnto them that geue sentence with the vngodly for rewardes, but condempne the iust cause of the ryghteous.

24 Therfore, lyke as fire licketh vp the straw, and as the flambe consumeth the stubble: euen so their roote shalbe as corruption, and their blossome shall vanishe away lyke dust: for they haue cast away the lawe of the Lorde of hoastes, and despised the worde of the holy one of Israel.

25 Therfore is the wrath of the Lorde kindeled

(b) Their glorie, their noble men how honorable persones soeuer.

kindeled against his people, and hath stretched foorth his hande vpon them, yea he hath smitten them: and the hilles dyd tremble, and their carkases dyd lye tome in the open streetes: and in al this the wrath of God hath not ceassed, but his hande stretched out styll.

26 And he shall geue a token to a people of a farre countrey, and shall hisse vnto them from the ende of the earth: and beholde, they shall come hastyly with speede.

27 There shall not be one faynt nor feeble among them, no not a sluggishe nor sleepie person: there shall not one of them put of his gyrdle from his loynes, nor loose the latchet of his shoe.

28 His arrowes are sharpe, and all his bowes bent: his horse hookes are as flint, and his cart wheeles like a whyrle winde.

29 His crye is as it were of a Lion, and he roreth lyke Lions whelpes: they shall roare and hantche vpon the pray, and no man shall recouer it, nor get it from them.

30 In that day he shalbe so fierce vpon him as the raging of the sea: then one shall beholde the (c) lande, and lo darkenesse and sorow, and the light is darkened in the heauens therof.

(c) The lande of Iuda shalbe ouerwhelmed with intolerable affliction

The. vj. Chapter.

1 Esai sawe the glory of the Lorde. 9 And was sent to prophecie the desolation of Iurie.

1 IN the yere that kyng Ozial dyed, I sawe also the Lorde sitting vpon an high and glorious seate, and his traine filled the temple.

2 And about hym stoode Seraphims, whereof one had sixe wynges, with twayne eche couered his face, with twayne his feete, and with twayne did he flee.

3 They cryed also eche one to another on this maner, Holy, holy, holy is the Lorde of hoastes: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the lintels of the doore cheekes moued at his crying, and the house was full of smoke.

5 Then sayd I, Wo is me, for I am lost, in as much as I am a man of vncleane lippes, and dwell among people that hath vncleane lippes also: for mine eyes haue seene the kyng the Lorde of hoastes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me, hauing a hote cole in his hand, whiche he had taken from the aulter with the tongues,

7 And layde it vpon my mouth, and sayde: Lo, [this] hath touched thy (a) lippes, and thine vnrighteousnesse shalbe taken away, and thy sinne forgeuen.

(a) Gods sacramentes are not bare signes but with the signe ioyned, the matter signified, is exhibited to the faythfull.

8 Also I hearde the voyce of the Lorde on this maner: Whom shall I sende, and who wyll be our messenger? Then I sayde, Here am I, sende me.

9 And he sayd, Go and tell this people: Heare in deede, yet vnderstande not, ye shall playnely see, and yet perceaue not.

10 Harden the heart of this people, stop their eares, and shut their eyes: lest they see with their eyes, heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their heartes, and conuert and be healed.

11 Then spake I, Lord, howe long? he answered, vntill the cities be vtterly wasted without inhabiters, and the houses without men, and tyll the lande be also vtterly desolate.

12 For the Lorde shall put the men farre away, and [there shalbe] great waste in the middest of the lande.

13 Yet in it shall succeede ten kinges, and it shall returne and be afterwarde wasted: [But] as the Teyle tree and the Oke in the fall of their leaues haue yet the sappe remayning in them, [euen so] the holy seede shalbe the stay therof.

¶ The. vij. Chapter.

1 The Syrians moue battayle against Hierusalem. 14 A virgin shall beare a chylde.

A 1 IT happened in the tyme of Ahaz ẏ̄ sonne of Jotham, whiche was the sonne of Uzziah king of Juda, that Razin the kyng of Syria, and Pechah the sonne of Romeliah kyng of Israel, went vp towarde Hierusalem to besiege it: but Razin was not able to winne it.

2 (a) Dauids house, that is Ahaz. Nowe when the (a) house of Dauid hearde worde thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was cõfederate together, his heart quaked, yea and the hearttes also of his people, lyke as when the trees of the wood are moued with the winde.

3 Then sayd God vnto Esai: Go meete Ahaz thou and thy sonne Sear Jasub, at the head of the ouer poole in the footepath by the fullers grounde,

4 And say vnto him: Take heede to thy selfe and be styll, feare not, neither be faynt hearted, for these two tayles, that is, for these two smoking firebrandes, the wrath and furiousnesse of Razin the Syrian, and Romelies sonne:

5 Because that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies sonne haue wickedly conspired against thee,

6 Saying, We wyll go vp against Juda, vexe them, and bring them vnder vs, and set a kyng there, euen the sonne of Tabel:

7 B Thus saith the Lorde God thereto, It shal not so go forth, neither so come to passe.

8 For the head citie of the Syrians is Damascus, but the head of Damascus is Razin: And after threscore and fiue yeres shall Ephraim be no more a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but the head of Samaria is Romelies sonne: if ye beleue not, surely ye shall not be established.

10 Moreouer, God spake agayne vnto Ahaz, saying:

11 Require to thy selfe a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be towarde the depth beneath, or toward the height aboue.

12 Then said Ahaz, I will require none, neither wyll I tempt the Lorde.

13 The prophete answered, Then heare ye of the house of Dauid: Is it not inough for you that ye be greeuous vnto mẽ, but ye must greeue my God also?

14 Therefore the Lorde hym selfe shall geue you a token: Beholde, a virgin shall conceaue and beare a sonne, and shall call his name Emmanuel. C

15 Butter and honye shall he eate, vntill he knowe to refuse the euyll and choose the good.

16 For or euer the chylde come to knowledge to eschewe the euil and choose the good, the lande that thou so abhorrest shalbe desolate of both her kynges.

17 The Lord also shall sende a tyme vpon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers house, such as neuer came since the tyme that Ephraim departed from Juda, namely thorowe the kyng of the Assyrians.

18 For at the same tyme shall the Lorde hysse for the flyes that are about the water of Egypt, and for the bees in the Assyrians lande:

19 These shall come and shall light all in the desolate valleys, in the holes of stones, and vpon all thorne and bushie places.

20 D At the same time shal the Lord shaue the (b) heere of the head, and the feete, and the bearde cleane of, with the rasor that he shall hyre beyonde the waters: namely with the king of the Assyrians.

(b) The heere of the head, and the beard, the princes & men of auctoritie, the feete the common sort of people.

21 At the same time shal a man nourishe a young cowe, and two sheepe.

22 Then because of the aboundaunce of milke that they geue he shall eate butter: so that euery one which remayneth in the lande shall eate butter and hony.

23 At the same time al vineyardes wherin there shalbe a thousand vines worth a thousande siluerlinges, shalbe turned to briers and thornes.

24 They shall come into the lande with arrowes and bowes, because all the lande shall become briers and thornes.

25 As for all hilles that shalbe digged with the mattocke, there shall not come vpon them any feare of briers and thornes: but the cattell shalbe driuen thyther, and the sheepe shal feede there.

The. viij. Chapter.

The deliueraunce of the lande by Emmanuel. 14 The stone of offence, at whiche many shall stumble.

A 1 Moreouer the Lorde sayde vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and wryte in it as men do with a pen: make haste speede to rob, and haste to the spoyle.

2 And I called vnto me faythfull Witnesses to recorde, Uriah the preest, and Zacharias the sonne of Barachias.

3 After that went I vnto the prophetisse, and she conceaued & bare a sonne: Then sayde the Lord to me, Geue him his name, a speedie robber, an hastie spoyler.

4 For why, or euer the chylde shall haue knowledge to crye my father and mother, shall the riches of Damascus and the spoyle of Samaria be taken away before the kyng of the Assyrians.

5 The Lorde spake also vnto me agayne, saying:

6 Forsomuche as this people refuseth the styll running water of Silo, and put their delight in Razin and Romelies sonne:

B 7 Beholde, the Lord shall bryng mighty and great fludds of water vpon them, namely the kyng of the Assyrians with all his power, whiche shall climbe vp vpon all his fludds, and runne ouer all his bankes,

8 And shall breake in vpon Iuda, he shall flowe and passe thorowe, tyll he come vp to the necke thereof: he shall fill also the wideneesse of thy lande with his wynges O Emmanuel.

9 Breake downe O ye people, (a) and ye shalbe broken downe, hearken to all ye of farre countreys: muster you, and you shalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you shalbe tome in peeces.

10 Take your counsell together, yet shall your counsell come to naught: determine the matter, yet shall it not prosper: for God is with vs.

(a) Mustering vnto warre and warre without God prouayleth not.

(b) Assurance is to be put in God and not in mens policie or helpe.

11 For the Lorde spake thus to me in a mightie prophesie, (b) and warned me that I should not walke in the way of this people, saying:

12 Ye shall not speake (wordes) of conspiracie in all thinges, when this people shall say conspiracie: feare them not, neither be afraide of them.

13 But sanctifie the Lorde of hoastes, let him be your feare and dread.

14 For he shalbe the holy place to flee to, C and stone to stumble at, the rocke to fall vpon, a snare and net to both the houses of Israel, and the inhabitours of Hierusalem:

15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, yea they shalbe snared and taken.

16 Binde vp the testimonie, seale the lawe in my disciples.

17 (c) And I will wayte vpon the Lorde that hideth his face from the house of Iacob, and I will loke for him. (c) The prophets of Christ.

18 But lo, as for me and the children whiche the Lorde hath geuen me, we are to be a token and a wonder in Israel from the Lorde of hoastes, whiche dwelleth vpon the hill of Sion.

19 And if they say vnto you, Aske counsayle at the Soothsayers, Witches, Charmers, and Conurers: (then make them this answere) Is there a people any where that asketh not counsayle at his God: shoulde men runne vnto the dead for the liuing:

20 Get thee to the lawe, (d) and the testimonie: and if they speake not after this worde, there is no light in them.

D (d) We must seeke in Gods word what to followe, for in mennes workes without Gods worde, be there no light.

21 And they shall wander thorowe this lande hardly bestead and hungry, and when they suffer hunger, they will be out of patience, and curse their kyng and their God, and shall loke vpwarde and downewarde to the earth, 22 And beholde there is trouble and darkenesse, dymnesse is rounde about hym, & he shalbe driuen into darkenesse.

23 Neuertheleesse, the darkenesse shall not be suche as was in her vexation, When at the first he lightly afflicted the lande Zabulon, and the lande of Nephthali, and afterwarde dyd more greeuously afflict her by the way of the sea beyond Iordane in Galilee of the heathen.

The. ix. Chapter.

5 He prophecieth of Christes nattuitie and dominion.

A 1 THE people that walked in darkneſſe, haue ſeene a great light: As for them that dwell in the lande of the ſhadowe of death, vpon them hath the light ſhined.

2 Thou haſt multiplied the people, and not increaſed their ioy: *they reioyce before thee, euen as men make merie in harueſt, and they be ioyfull as men that do deuide the ſpoyle. [after the victorie.]

3 For thou haſt broken the yoke of his burthen, the ſtaffe of his ſhoulder, and the rod of his oppreſſour, as in the day of Madian.

4 And truely euery battayle that the warrier maketh, is done with confuſed noyſe: and defiling their garmentes with blood, but this battayle ſhalbe with burning and conſuming of fire.

(a) Christ his kingdome and his — 5 For vnto vs a (a) chylde is borne, and vnto vs a ſonne is geuen, vpō his ſhoulder doth the rule lye, and he is called with his owne name Wonderfull, the geuer of counſell, the mightie God, the euerlaſting father, the prince of peace.

6 He ſhall make no ende to encreaſe the rule & peace, and ſhall ſit vpon the ſeate of Dauid, and in his kingdome, to order the ſame, and to eſtabliſhe it with equitie and righteouſneſſe from hence forth for euermore: This ſhall the zeale of the Lorde of hoaſtes bring to paſſe.

B 7 The Lorde ſent a worde vnto Jacob, the ſame is come vnto Iſrael.

8 And all the people of Ephraim ſhall know, and they that dwell in Samaria that ſay with pryde and high ſtomackes [on this maner.]

9 The tyle worke is fallen downe, but we wyll builde it with ſquared ſtones: the Mulberie tymber is broken, but we ſhall ſet it vp agayne with Cedar.

10 But the Lorde ſhall ſtrengthen the enemies of Razin, and ioyne his aduerſaries together againſt him.

11 The Syrians before, and the Philiſtines behinde, and ſhall deuour Iſrael with open mouth: After all this is not the wrath of the Lorde ceaſſed, but yet his hande ſtretched out ſtyll.

12 For the people turneth not vnto hym that chaſtiſeth them, neither do they ſeeke the Lorde of hoaſtes. C

13 Therefore hath the Lorde rooted out of Iſrael both head and tayle, bough and reede in one day.

14 By the head, is vnderſtande the ſenatour and honourable man, and by the tayle, the prophete that preached lyes.

15 For the guides of this people are deceauers, and thoſe that be gouerned are vtterly loſt.

16 Therefore ſhall the Lorde haue no pleaſure in their young men, neither haue pitie of their fatherleſſe and wydowes: for they are altogether hypocrites and wicked, and al their mouthes ſpeake folly: After all this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hand is ſtretched out ſtyll. D

17 For vngodlyneſſe burneth as a fire, and ſhall deuour bryers and thornes, and it ſhall burne as in the thicket of a wood, and [the wicked] aduaunce themſelues, as the ſmoke is caryed vp.

18 Throwe the wrath of the Lorde of hoaſtes is the lande full of darkneſſe, and the people be conſumed as it were with fire: no man doth ſpare his brother.

19 But he robbeth on the right hande, and doth famiſhe, he eateth on the left hande, and he ſhall not haue inough: euery man ſhall eate the fleſhe of his owne arme.

20 Manaſſes [ſhall eate] Ephraim, and Ephraim Manaſſes, and they both together ſhall eate Juda: After all this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande ſtretched out ſtyll.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1 He threatneth the oppressours of the poore. 12 And prophecieth against Sennacherib.

A 1 WO be vnto them that make vnrighteous lawes, and that cause-
2 leth their actuaries to write grieuousnesse, Where thorowe the poore are put from their right, and my seelie people robbed of iudgement, that widowes may be their pray, and that they may rob the fatherlesse.

3 What wyll ye do in the tyme of visitation, and when destruction shall come from farre: to whom wyll ye runne for helpe: and where wyll you leaue your glory:

4 That when I withdraw me my hand, ye come not among the prysoners, nor lye among the dead: After all this doth not the wrath of the Lorde ceasse, but yet is his hande stretched out styll.

5 O Assur whiche art the staffe of my wrath, in whose hand is the rod of mine indignation.

6 I wyll sende hym among those hypocritishe people: among the people that haue deserued my displeasure wyll I sende hym, that he vtterly rob them, spoyle them, and treade them downe lyke the myre in the streete.

7 Howbeit, his meaning is not so, neither thinketh his heart on this fashion: But he imagineth howe he may roote out and destroy muche people.

8 For he saith, Are not my princes all kynges:

9 Is not Chalno as easie to winne, as Charchamis: Is it harder to conquer Hamath, then Arphad: or is it lighter to ouercome Damascus, then Samaria:

10 [As who say] I were able to winne the kyngdomes of the idolaters and their gods, but not Hierusalem and Samaria.

11 Shall I not do vnto Hierusalem and her images, as I dyd vnto Samaria and her idols:

12 Wherefore it shall come to passe, that assoone as the Lorde hath performed his whole worke vpon the hill of Sion and Hierusalem, then wyll I visite the frute of the stoute heart of the kyng of Assyria with his proude lookes.

13 For he standeth thus in his owne conceipt, This do I thorowe the power of myne owne hande, & thorowe my wysdome: for I am wyse, I am he that remoue the landes of the people, I rob their treasure, and haue pulled downe the inhabitauntes like a valiaunt man.

14 My hand hath found out the strength of the people as it were a nest: and like as egges that were layde here and there, are gathered together, so do I gather all countreys, and there was none [so bolde] as to moue the winge, that dare open his mouth, or once whysper.

15 Shall the axe boast it selfe against him that heweth therwith: or shal the sawe make any bragging against hym that ruleth it: That were euen lyke as if the rod did exalt it selfe against him that beareth it, or as though the staffe should magnifie it selfe [as who say] it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lorde the God of hoastes sende among his fatlinges leanenesse, and burne vp his glory as it were with a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shalbe that fire, and his holy one shalbe the flambe: and it shall kindle and burne vp his thornes and bryers in one day.

18 Yea all the glory of his woodes and fieldes shalbe consumed with body and soule, and they shalbe as an hoast of men, whose standard bearer fayleth.

19 The trees also of his wood whiche remayne shalbe of such a number that a chylde may tell them.

20 After that day shall the remnaunt of Israel, and suche as are escaped out of the house of Jacob, seeke no more comfort at him that smote them: but vnfaynedly shall they trust vnto the Lorde, the holy one of Israel.

21 The

21 The remnaunt, euen the posterite of Jacob, shall conuert vnto God the mightie one.
22 For though thy people O Israel be as the sande of the sea, yet shal the remnaunt of them conuert vnto him: The decreed consumption ouerfloweth with righteousnesse.
23 And therefore the Lorde of hoastes shall perfectly fulfill the thing that he hath determined in the middest of the whole worlde.
24 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God of hoastes: Thou my people that dwellest in Sion, be not afraide for the king of the Assirians: he shall smyte thee with a rod, and shall lyft vp his staffe against thee, as the Egyptians dyd sometime.
25 But very soone after shall my wrath and indignation be fulfilled in the destruction of them:
26 Moreouer, the Lorde of hoastes shall stirre vp a scourge for him, like as was the slaughter of Madian vpō the rocke Oreb, and as the destruction of the Egyptians when he lyfted vp his rod vpon the sea.
27 Then shal his burthen be taken from thy shoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, yea the same yoke shalbe destroyed because of the vnction. D
28 He shal come to Aiath, and go thorow towarde Migron, at Michmas shall he lay vp his harnesse.
29 They shall go ouer the foorde, Geba shalbe their resting place, Rhama shalbe afraide, Gibea Saul shall flee away.
30 Lift vp thy voyce O daughter Gallim, geue care to Laisa thou poore Anathoth.
31 Madmena shall tremble for feare, but the citizens of Gabim are manly.
32 Yet shall he remaine at Nob that day: after that shall he lyft vp his hande against the mount of the daughter Sion the hyll of Hierusalem.
33 But see, the Lord God of hoastes shall breake downe the bough with feare, he shall hewe downe the proude, and fell the high minded.
34 The thickets also of the wood shall he roote out with iron, and Libanus shall haue a fall thorowe the mightie.

The. xj. Chapter.

1 The prophecieth of the nature of Christe, and of his people. 6 Of the remnaunt of Israel. 10 And of the fayth of the heathen or gentiles.

A 1 (a) Christe shalbe borne of the stirpe of Dauid.

ND there shall come a sprig foorth of the (a) stemme of Esai, and a young shoote shall growe out of his roote.
2 The spirite of the Lorde shall rest vpon him, the spirite of wysdome and vnderstanding, the spirite of counsaile and strength, the spirite of knowledge and of the feare of the Lorde,
3 And shall make him of deepe iudgement in the feare of God: For he shall not geue sentence after the thing that shalbe brought before his eyes, neither reproue after the hearing of his eares:
4 But with righteousnesse shal he iudge the poore, and with equitie shall he reproue the simple of the worlde, and he shall smyte the worlde with the rod of his (b) mouth, and with the breath of his mouth shall he slay the vngodly. (b) The aduentur of Christe and of his kyngdome
5 Righteousnesse shalbe the gyrdle of his loynes, and faythfulnesse the gyrding vp of his raynes.
6 The woolfe shall dwell with the Lambe, and the Leoparde shall lye downe by the Goate: Bullockes, Lions, and cattell, shall kepe company together, so that a litle chylde shall leade them.
7 The Cowe and the Beare shall feede together, and their young ones shall lye together: the Lion shall eate strawe, lyke the Oxe or the Cowe.
8 The chylde whyle he sucketh shall haue a desire to the serpentes nest, and when he is weaned, he shall put his hande into the Cockatrice denne.
9 No man shall do euill vnto another, no man shall destroy another in all the hyll hyll of my holynes: for the earth shalbe full of the knowledge of the Lorde: euen as the sea floweth ouer with water.

10 And in that day shall the gentiles enquire after the roote of Jesse, whiche shalbe set vp for a token vnto the people, and his rest shalbe glorious.

11 At the same time shall the Lord take in hande agayne to recouer the remnaunt of his people, whiche shalbe left alyue from the Assirians, Egyptians, Arabians, Moryans, Elamites, Chaldees, Antiochians, & from the Ilandes of the sea, 12 And he shall set vp a token among the gentiles, and gather together the dispersed of Israel, yea and the outcastes of Juda from the foure corners of the worlde.

13 The hatred of Ephraim also and enemies of Juda shalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim shall beare none cyll wyll to Juda, & Juda shall not vexe Ephraim.

14 But they both together shall flee vpon the shoulders of the Philistines towarde the west, and spoyle them together that dwell towarde the east: The Idumites and the Moabites shal come vnder their handes, and the Amonites shalbe obedient vnto them. ℂ

15 The Lord also shal cleaue the tongues (c) of the Egyptians sea, and with his mighty winde shall he lyft vp his hand ouer Nilus, and shall smyte his seuen streames, and make men go ouer drye shod.

(c) The tongue, that is, the arme of the sea that hindereth the passage.

16 And thus shall there be a way for his people that remayneth from the Assirians, lyke as it happened to the Israelites what tyme they departed out of the lande of Egypt.

The.xij.Chapter.

4 The song of the Churche for the obtayning of the victorie and ouercomming of the worlde.

A 1 AND in that day thou shalt say, O Lorde I wyll prayse thee, for thou wast displeased at me: but refrayne thou from thy wrath, and comfort me.

2 Beholde, God is my saluation, in whō I wyll trust and not be afrayde: for the Lorde God is my strength and [my] song, he also is become my saluation.

3 Therfore with ioy shall ye drawe water out of the welles of saluation:

4 And then shall ye say: Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, call vpon his name, declare his workes among the people, kepe them in remembraunce, for his name is excellent. B

5 Sing prayses vnto the Lorde, for he hath done great thinges, as it is known in all the worlde.

6 Crye out, and sing thou that dwellest in Sion: for great is the holy one of Israel in the middest of thee.

¶ The. xiij. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the destruction of Babylon, the captiuitie and the comming agayne of the people.

A 1 THis is the (a) burthen of Babylon, whiche Esai the sonne of Amos did see.

(a) Burthen, that is, the prophecie.

2 Lift vp the banner vpon the high hyll, call vnto thē, wagge your hande, that they may go into the gates of the princes.

3 I haue commaunded my sanctified, I haue also called my valiaunt ones, ioying in my honour to execute my wrath.

4 There is a noyse of a multitude in the mountaynes, lyke as of a great people, a rushing as though the kingdomes of the nations came together: the Lorde of hoastes mustreth his armye to battayle.

5 They come out of a farre countrey from the ende of the heauen, euen the Lorde hym selfe with the ministers of his wrath, to destroy the whole lande.

6 Mourne ye, for the day of the Lord is at hande, and shall come as a destroyer from the almightie.

7 Therefore shall all handes be letten downe, and all mens heartes shall melt

B away.

8 They shall stande in feare, carefulnes and sorowe shall come vpon them, and they shal haue payne, as a woman that trauayleth with childe: One shalbe abashed of another, and their faces shall burne like the flame of fire.

9 Beholde, the day of the Lorde shall come terribly and full of indignation, furie & wrath, to make the lande waste, and to roote out the sinners therof.

10 For the starres and planettes of heauen shall not geue their light, the sunne shalbe darkened in the rising, and the moone shall not shine with her light.

11 And I wyll visite the wickednesse of the worlde, and the sinnes of the vngodlye. The high stomakes of the proude wyll I take away, and will lay downe the boasting of the tiraunt.

12 I wyll make a man dearer then fine gold, and a man to be more worth then a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therfore I wyll shake the heauens, and the earth shall remoue out of her place in the wrath of the Lorde of hoastes, and in the day of his fearefull indignation.

14 And [Babylon] shalbe as an hunted

D or chased Doe, and as a sheepe that no man taketh vp: Euery man shall turne to his owne people, and flee eche one into his owne lande.

15 Whoso is founde shalbe shot thorowe: and whoso taketh their part, shalbe destroyed with the sworde.

16 Their children shalbe slayne before their eyes: their house spoyled, and their wines raunshed.

17 For lo, I shall bring vp the Medes against them, whiche shall not regarde siluer, nor be desirous of golde:

18 With bowes shall they destroy the young men, and haue no pitie on women with childe, and their faces shall not spare the children.

19 And Babylon that glory of kingdomes, and beaute of the Chaldees honour shalbe destroyed, euen as God destroyed Sodome and Gomor.

20 It shall not endure for euer, neither shall there be any more dwelling there from generation to generation: The Arabians shall pitche no tentes there, neither shall the sheepheardes make their foldes there any more.

21 But fearefull wylde beastes shall lye there, and the houses shalbe ful of great Owles, Estriches shall dwell there, and Apes shall daunce there.

22 Wylde cattes shall crye in the palaces, and dragons shalbe in the pleasaunt houses: And as for Babylons tyme it is at hande, and her dayes shall not be prolonged.

The. xiiij. Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from captiuitie, the prosperitie of the people of God, and affliction of their enemies. 13 The pryde of Babylon.

1 BUt the Lorde wylbe mercyfull vnto Jacob, and will yet chose Israel againe, and set them in their owne land, straungers shall cleaue and get them to the house of Jacob.

A

2 The people shall take them and carry them home to their owne land: and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the lande of the Lord, that they may be seruaunts and handmaydes: and they shall take those prysoners whose tap-tiues they had ben before, and rule those that had oppressed them.

3 When the Lorde nowe shall bryng thee to rest from thy trauayle, feare, and harde bondage that thou wast laden withall:

4 Then shalt thou vse this mockage vpon the kyng of Babylon, and say: Howe happeneth it that the oppressour leaueth of? Is the golden tribute come to an ende?

5 The Lorde hath broken the scepter of the vngodly, and the rod of the lordelye,

6 whiche

6 Which when he is wroth, smiteth the people with continuall strokes, and in wrath raigneth ouer the heathen, whō he persecuteth without compassion.

25 7 And therfore the whole worlde is nowe at rest and quietnesse, and men sing for ioy.

8 Yea euen the Firre trees and Cedars of Libanus reioyce at thy fall, saying: Nowe that thou art layde downe, there come no mo vp to hewe downe vs.

9 Hell also beneath trembleth to meete thee at thy comming, and for thy sake hath raysed his dead, all mightie men and princes of the earth, all kynges of the earth stande vp from their seates,

10 That they may all answere and speake vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? Art thou become lyke vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pride is layde downe into the pit, and so is the melodie of thy instrumentes. Wormes be layde vnder thee, & wormes be thy couering.

12 Howe art thou fallen from heauen O Lucifer, thou faire morning chylde? Howe hast thou gotten a fall euen to the grounde, which didst weaken the nations?

℣ 13 For thou saydest in thine heart, I wyll clymbe vp into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God, I wyll sit also vpon the mount of the congregation towarde the North.

14 I wyll clymbe vp aboue the cloudes, and wyll be lyke the hyghest of all.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to the deepe of hell, to the sides of the lake.

16 They that see thee shall narowly loke vpon thee, and thinke in them selues, [saying:] Is this the man that brought all landes in feare, and made the kyngdomes afrayde?

17 [Is this he] that made the worlde in a maner waste, and layde the cities to the grounde, which let not his prisoners go out?

18 The kynges of the nations lye euery one in his owne house with worship.

℣ 19 And thou art cast out of thy graue like a fylthy abhominable braunche, like as dead mens rayment that are shot thorowe with the sworde, and go downe to the stones of the deepe, as a dead coarse that is troden vnder feete.

20 Thou art not buried with them: euen because that thou hast wasted thy lande & destroyed thy people: The generation of the wicked shalbe out of memorie for euer.

21 Let there a way be sought to destroy their children that be in their fathers wickednesse, that they come not vp agayne to possesse the lande, and fyll the worlde full of enemies.

22 I wyll stande vp agaynst them saith the Lorde of hoastes, and roote out the name and remnaunt, sonne and sonnes sonne of Babylon saith the Lorde.

23 I wyll geue it to the Otters, and wyll make water puddels of it, and I wyll sweepe them out with the besome of destruction saith the Lorde of hoastes.

24 The Lorde of hoastes hath sworne an othe, saying: It shall come to passe as I haue determined, and shalbe fulfylled as I haue deuised,

25 So that Assyria shall I destroy in my lande, and vpon my mountaynes wil I treade hym vnder foote, wherthrough his yoke shall come from them, and his burthen shalbe taken from their shoulder. ℭ

26 This deuise hath God taken through the whole worlde, and this is his hande stretched out ouer all people.

27 For yf the Lord of hoastes determine a thyng, who is able to disanull it? And if he stretch forth his hande, who may returne it agayne?

28 The same yere that kyng Ahaz dyed, was this burthen:

29 Reioyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rod of him that beateth thee is broken: for out of the serpentes roote there shall come an Adder, and his fruite shalbe a fierie fleeyng worme.

30 But the first borne of the poore shalbe fed, and the simple shall dwell in safetie: Thy roote also wyll I destroy with hunger, and it shall slay the remnaunt.

31 Mourne thou porte, weepe thou citie, for, O whole lande of Palestina, thou art layd waste: for there shal come from the north a smoke, that not one alone may abide at home in his times. ℣

32 What shall one then answere the messengers of the Gentiles? For the Lorde hath stablished Sion, and the poore of his people that be therein shall put their trust in it.

The.xv.Chapter.

I prophecie agaynst Moab.

A 1 THis is the burthen vp-on Moab: Ar of Moab was destroyed & ouer-throwen in the nyght season, Kir also in Moab was destroyed and perished in the nyght.
2 Moab went vp to the idols house, euen to Dibon to the hygh places to weepe:
for Neba and Moab shall mourne for Medba, All their heades were balde, and all their beardes shauen.
3 In her streetes are they girded about with sackcloth: In all the toppes of her houses and streetes shalbe nothyng but mournyng and weepyng.
4 Hesbon and Eleale shall crye, that their voyce shalbe heard vnto Jahaz: and therfore the armed souldiours also of Moab shall bleate out and crye for very sorowe of their myndes.
5 Who shall my heart be for Moabs sake,
they shall flee vnto the citie of Zoar,
Which is lyke a faire young bullocke of three yere olde, for they shall all go vp to Luith weepyng: euen so by the way towarde Horonaim they shall make lamentation for their vtter destruction.
6 For the waters of Nimrim shalbe dryed vp, by reason wherof the grasse is withered, the herbes destroyed, and the greene thynges gone.
7 Therfore the goodes that remayneth in Moab, and the riches therof, they shall cary to the brooke of Wyllowes.
8 For the crye went ouer the whole lande of Moab, vnto Eglaim and vnto Beer Elim was there nothyng but mournyng.
9 Because the waters of Dimon were full of blood, I wyll adde more vpon Dimon: and lions vpon the remnaunt of the lande, and on them that are escaped from Moab.

The .xvj. Chapter.

The destruction of Moab.

A 1 SEnde the lorde of the worlde a lambe from the rocke that lyeth to-warde the desert, vnto
the hyl of the daughter
Sion.
(a) The carefull and obstinate disposers of synfully repentaunce moued by the preachyng of gods worde, shall repent when it wil be late.
2 For as for the daughters of Moab they shalbe as a trembling birde that is put out of her nest:
for they shall cary them vnto Arnon.
3 Gather your counsell, come together in iudgement, couer vs with your shadowe in the midday as the nyght doth hyde the chased, and bewray not them that are fled.
4 Let my persecuted people dwell among you, Moab be thou their refuge against the destroyer: for the aduersarie is brought to naught, the robber is vndone, the traunt is wasted out of the lande.
5 And in mercie shall the seate be prepared, and he shall sit vpon it in the trueth in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudging and seekyng iudgement, and makyng haste vnto ryghteousnesse.
6 We haue heard of the pride of Moab, he is very proude, presumptuous, arrogant, and full of indignation, and vayne are his lyes.
7 Therfore shall Moab make lamentation because of the Moabites [that shalbe slayne] yea they shall wayle altogether: because of the foundations of the citie that is made of bricke shall ye complayne, euen ye lame people that are left only behynde.
8 For the vines of Hesbon are cut downe:
as for the vine of Sibma, the lordes of the heathen haue broken downe her principall braunches, they are come euen vnto Jazer, they went on wandering vnto the wildernesse, her goodly braunches were throwen downe as they went ouer the sea.
9 Therfore wyll I mourne for Jazer, and for the vine of Sibma, I wyl poure my teares vpon thee O Hesbon and Eleale: for the crye of thyne enemies is fallen vpon thy sommer frutes, and vpon thy haruest.
10 The mirth and cheare is taken away out of the plentifull fielde, and in the vineyardes there shalbe no ioy nor glad-nesse: The treader shall treade out no wine in their presses, the song of their mery

mery cheare haue I layde downe.

(a) The superstitious and idolaters haue most trust in one thyng and in some one place then in another but all in vayne.

11 (a) Wherfore my bowels shall rumble like an harpe for Moabs sake, & mine inwarde partes for the cities sake that is made of bricke.

12 And it shall come to passe, that when it is seene that Moab shalbe made weery of his hyll chappelles, he shall come to his temple to pray, (b) but he shall not be able.

(b) Not be able through sacrifice, or it shall not profite him.

13 So then this is the saying that the Lorde hath spoken concernyng Moab since that tyme.

14 But nowe the Lorde hath spoken, saying: In three yeres, which shalbe as the yeres of an hired seruaunt, shall the glorie of Moab be turned into contempt throughout all his multitude, which is very great: and that which remayneth shalbe very small and feeble.

¶ The. xvij. Chapter.

A prophecie agaynst Damascus.

A 1 This is the burthen vpon Damascus: Beholde Damascus is taken away to be no more a citie, but shalbe an heape of broken stones.

2 The waste cities of Aroer shalbe foldes for cattell which shall lye there, and there shalbe none to fray them away.

3 Ephraim also shall no more be strong, and Damascus shall no longer be a kyngdome, and the remnaunt of Syria shalbe as the glorie of the children of Israel, saith the Lorde of hoastes.

4 And in that day it shall come to passe, that the glorie of Jacob shalbe made very thynne, and the fatnesse of his flesh shall waxe leane.

5 And he shalbe as one that gathereth vp corne in harvest, euen lyke hym whose arme reapeth the eares of corne: he shalbe also lyke hym that gathereth eares of corne in the valley of Rephaim.

B 6 Some gatheryng in deede shall there be left in it, euen as in the shakyng of an Olyue tree there remayne two or three berries in the toppe of the vppermost bowe, and foure or fyue in the brode fruitfull braunches thereof, saith the Lorde God of Israel.

7 Then shall man turne agayne to his maker, and his eyes shall haue respect to the holy one of Israel.

8 As for the aulters which are his owne handy worke he shal not regarde them, and the thynges that his fingers hath made, as groues and images, those shal he not cast his eye vnto.

9 In that day shall their strong cities be as the forsaken shrubbes & braunches, which they left because of the children of Israel, and the lande shalbe desolate.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy saluation, and hast not ben myndfull of thy strong rocke: therfore shalt thou set pleasaunt plantes, and shalt graffe the braunche of another mans vine.

11 In that day shalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the morning shalt thou make thy seede to flourishe: The harueste shalbe gone in the day of inheritaunce, and there shalbe sorowe without hope of comfort.

12 Wo shalbe to the multitude of much people, which shall make a sounde lyke to the noyse of the sea, and the violence of the nations which shall rage lyke the rushyng in of many waters. C

13 Euen lyke many waters shal the people rage, God shall rebuke hym, and he shal flee farre of, he shalbe chased away lyke as drye strawe vpon the mountaynes before the wynde, and lyke a thyng that turneth before the storme.

14 At euen beholde there is trouble, and or euer it be morning lo it is gone: This is the portion of them that oppresse vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

The.xviij.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to the Ethiopians and the countreys nygh adioynyng to them.
7 The vocation of the Gentiles.

A 1 That lande that trusteth vnder the shadow of wynges, [that lande] which is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia,
2 Sendyng messengers by the sea, euen in vessels of reedes ouer the water, Get you hence ye speedy messengers to a nation that is scattered abrode, and robbed of that they had, a fearefull people from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose lande the fludds haue spoyled.
3 All the inhabitours of the worlde, and indwellers of the earth, loke vp whē he setteth vp a token in the mountaynes, and hearken when he bloweth with the trumpe.
4 For so the Lorde sayde vnto me [as for me] I wyll take my rest, and loke vpon the matter in my habitation, lyke a faire heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of haruest.
5 For afore the haruest whē the braunch is growen, there shall come ripe fruite of the floure: and he shal cut downe the increase with sithes, and the braunches shall he take away with hookes.
6 Thus shall they be left together vnto the foules of the mountaines, and to the beastes of the earth: for in sommer the birdes shall remayne vpon it, and euery beast of the lande shalbe vpon it in wynter.
7 In that tyme shall there a present be brought vnto the Lord of hoastes, euen a people that is scattered abrode and robbed of that they had, that same people which haue ben fearfull from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose lande the fludds haue spoyled, to the place of the name of the Lorde of hoastes, euen to the mount Sion.

The .xix. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth agaynst Egypt, 18 and the vocation of the Gentiles to Christe.

A 1 The burthen of Egypt. Beholde, the Lorde rideth vpon a swift cloude, and shall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt shall tremble at the presence of hym, and the heart of Egypt shall quake in the middest of her.
2 And I wyll set the Egyptians one agaynst another, so that one brother shall fyght agaynst another, and one neighbour against another, citie against citie, and realme against realme.
3 The mynde also of Egypt shalbe cleane without counsayle within it selfe, and the deuice that they take will I destroy: and they shall seke counsayle at idols and at sorcerers, at workers with spirites, and at soothsayers.
4 And the Egyptians wyll I geue ouer vnto the hande of a maruaylous cruell lorde, and a mightie kyng shall haue dominion ouer them, saith the Lorde God of hoastes.
5 The waters of the sea shall fayle, and the riuer shall decrease and be dryed vp.
6 The waters shalbe drawen out, the riuers of Egypt shalbe emptied & dryed vp, the reedes and flagges shalbe cut downe.
7 The grasse in the riuer and by the riuers bancke, and all that groweth by the riuer, shall wither away, and be brought to naught.
8 The fishers also shall mourne, and all they that cast angle into the water shall make lamentation: and they that lay forth their net beside the waters shalbe rooted out.
9 Moreouer, they that worke in flaxe and make fine workes, shalbe confounded, and so shall they that weaue open workes.
10 For their open workes shal euen be destroyed, and all they that make pondes and slues for fishe shall come to naught.
11 But you foolishe princes of Zoan, ye wise counsaylers of Pharao, whose wit is turned to foolishnesse, howe say ye vnto vnto Pharao, I am come of wise men and of auncient kinges?

12 Where are thy wise men? Let them tell thee yf they can, What the Lorde of hoastes hath deuised vpon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceaued, they haue deceaued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the chefe stay therof.

¶ 14 In the middest of it hath the Lorde powred the spirite of wickednesse: and they haue deceaued Egypt in euery worke therof, euen as a drunken man staggereth in his vomite.

(a) By the head and braunche are meant the [illegible] the [illegible]: by the tayle & reede, [illegible] people.

15 Neither shall the (a) head or tayle, the braunche or reede, be able to do any worke in Egypt.

16 In that day shall Egypt be lyke vnto women: It shalbe afrayde and stande in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoastes which he shaketh ouer it.

17 And Egypt shalbe afraide of the lande of Juda: so that euery one that maketh mention of it shalbe afraide therat, because of the counsayle of the Lorde of hoastes which he deuised for it.

18 In that day shall fiue cities in the lande of Egypt speake the language of Chanaan, and sweare by the Lorde of hoastes: the citie of desolation shalbe called one of them.

19 In that day shall the aulter of the Lorde be in the middest of the lande of Egypt, and this title beside it vnto the Lorde.

20 And it shalbe a token and a witnesse vnto the Lorde of hostes in the lande of Egypt: For they shal crie vnto the Lord because of such as trouble them, and he shall sende them a sauiour and a great man to deliuer them.

21 And the Lorde shalbe knowen in E- ¶ D gypt, and the Egyptians shall knowe the Lorde in that day, and do sacrifice and oblation: yea they shall vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, and performe it.

22 The Lorde also shall smite Egypt sore, and heale them agayne: and they shalbe conuerted vnto the Lorde, and he shalbe intreated of them, and shall heale them.

23 In that day shall there be a common way out of Egypt into Assyria, and Assyria shall come into Egypt, & Egypt into Assyria: so that the Egyptians and the Assyrians shall serue the Lorde together.

24 In that day shal the nation of Israel be the thirde with Egypt and Assyria: and they shalbe blessed in the middest of the lande, 25 Which lande the Lorde of hoastes hath blessed, saying: blessed is my people of Egypt, Assur also is the worke of my handes, and Israel is mine inheritaunce.

The.xx. Chapter.

Agaynst Egypt and Ethiopia.

A

1 IN the yere that Thartan came vnto Asdod when Sargon the kyng of Assyria had sent hym, and had fought agaynst Asdod, and taken it:

2 At the same tyme spake the Lorde by the hande of Esai the sonne of Amos, saying: Go and take of the sackcloth from thy loynes, and put of thy shoe from thy foote. And he dyd so, walkyng naked and barefoote.

3 And the Lorde sayde, Lyke as my seruaunt Esai hath walked naked and barefoote for a signe and wonder three yeres vpon Egypt and Ethiopia:

4 Euen so shall the kyng of Assyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia, children and olde men naked and barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great shame of Egypt.

5 They shalbe brought in feare also, and be ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, & of Egypt wherin they are wont to glorie.

6 And they that dwell in the same Ile shall say in that day, Beholde such is our hope, whyther shall we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the kyng of Assyria? And howe shall we escape?

Agaynst Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

1 (a) The waste sea is Babylon of Chaldee.

THe burthen of the (a) waste sea. Euen as the stormie weather passeth through at the noone day from the wildernesse, so shall it come from the terrible lande.

2 A grieuous vision was shewed vnto me: let one deceitfull offendour come agaynst another, and one destroyer agaynst another: Vp Elam, lay siege thou of Media, all their gronyng haue I layde downe.

3 Therfore are my loynes fylled with sorowe, heauinesse hath taken holde vpon me as the paynes of a woman that is trauayling: it made me stoupe when I heard it, and it vexed me when I sawe it.

4 My heart panted, fearefulnesse came vpon me: the nyght of my voluptuousnesse hath he turned agaynst me into feare.

5 Whyle they garnished the table, the Watchman loked: and whyle I was eatyng and drynkyng, it was sayde, vp ye captaynes, take you to your shielde.

6 For thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me: Go and set a watchman to tel what he seeth.

7 And he sawe a charret which two horsemen sat vpon, with the cariage of an Asse, and the cariage of a Camel: So he loked, and toke diligent heede.

8 And he cryed, a lion, my Lorde I stande continually vpon the watche towre in the day tyme, and am appoynted to kepe my Watch euery nyght.

9 And beholde here commeth a charret of men, with two horsemen, and he answered and sayd, Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, and all the images of her gods hath he smitten downe vnto the grounde.

10 Thou art he whom I must threshe, and thou belongest to my corne floure: This that I hearde of the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, haue I shewed vnto you.

11 The burthen of Dumia. He calleth to me out of Seir: Watchman what hast thou espied by nyght: Watchman what hast thou espied by nyght:

12 The Watchman sayde, The morning commeth, and so doth the nyght: If ye wyll aske me any question, then aske it: returne and come agayne.

13 The burthen concernyng Arabia. In the wooddes of Arabia shall ye tary all nyght, euen in the streetes of Dedanim. ¶

14 The inhabitours of the lande of Thema brought foorth Water to hym that was thirstie, they preuented hym that was fled away with their bread.

15 For because of swordes they are become fugitiue, Euen for the drawen sworde, and for the bent bowe, and because of the greeuousnesse of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me: There is yet a yere, according to the yeres of an hired seruaunt, and all the glorie of Cedar shall fayle.

17 And the number of them that shall escape from the bowes, shalbe minished by the mightie children of Cedar: for the Lorde God of Israel hath spoken it.

A prophecie agaynst Hierusalem.

1 (a) Hierusalem is meant by the valley of vision.

THe burthen of the (a) valley of vision. What hast thou to do here, that thou clymbest to the house toppes?

2 Thou that art full of tumultuousnes, thou troublesome and proude citie: Thy slayne men are neither put to death with the sworde, nor dead in battayle.

3 All thy captaynes are fugitiue together, the archers haue taken them prisoners: All they I say that are founde in thee are in captiuitie together, and they also that fled farre of.

4 Therfore sayde I, Let me alone, and * I wyll make lamentation: Be shall not be able to comfort me because of the destruction Luk.xix.f. Ier.ix.a.

destruction of the daughter of my people.

5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, and of destruction, that the Lorde the God of hoastes wyll bryng to passe in the valley of vision, breakyng downe the citie, and crying vnto mountaynes.

6 Elam bare the quiuer with a charret of footmen and horsemen, and the citie of Kir shewed the shielde open.

7 Thy chefe valley also was full of charrettes, and the horsemen set their faces directly towarde the gate.

8 And in that day dyd the enemie take away the couer of Juda, and then didst thou loke towarde the [b] armour of the house of the forest.

(b) The armoure that Solomon made and furnished with munition. 3. Reg. 7.

9 Ye haue seene also the broken places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye gathered together the waters of the lower poole.

10 As for the houses of Hierusalem ye haue numbred them, and the houses haue ye broken downe, to make the wall strong.

11 A pit also haue ye made betweene the two walles for the waters of the olde poole, [c] & haue not regarded the maker therof, neither had respect vnto hym that fashioned it long ago.

(c) The Lorde doth not forbyd to make prouision of sure defence against the enemies, so that our trust be put in him, and not in our fortresses and strong holdes.

12 And in that day dyd the Lorde God of hoastes call men vnto weepyng and mournyng, to baldnesse and girdyng about with sackcloth.

14 And it came to the eares of the Lorde of hoastes, This iniquitie shall not be purged from you tyll ye dye, sayth the Lorde God of hoastes.

15 Thus sayth the Lord God of hoastes: Get ye vnto yonder treasurer, euen vnto *Sebna, which is the ruler of the house. Esai 36 a.

16 What hast thou to do here: and whom hast thou here: that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a sepulchree, as it were one that heweth hym out a sepulchre on hye, or that graueth an habitation for hym selfe on an harde rocke:

17 Beholde O thou man, the Lorde shal cary thee away into captiuitie, and shall surely couer thee with confusion.

18 The Lorde shal turne thee ouer like a ball with his handes [and shall sende thee] into a farre countrey: there shalt thou dye, and there in steade of the charrets of thy pompe, shall the house of thy Lorde haue confusion.

19 I wyll driue thee from thy place, and out of thy dwellyng shal he ouerthrowe thee.

20 And in that day shall I call my seruaunt Eliakim the sonne of Helkia:

21 And with thy garmentes wyll I clothe hym, and with thy girdle wyll I strength hym: thy power also wyll I commit into his hande, and he shalbe a father of such as dwell in Hierusalem, and in the house of Juda.

22 "And the key of the house of Dauid wyll I lay vpon his shoulder: so that he shall open and no man shut, he shall shut and no man open.

23 And I wyll fasten hym as a nayle in a sure place, and he shalbe the glorious seate of his fathers house.

24 Moreouer, all generations and posteritties shall hang vpon him all the glorie of their fathers house, all vessels both great and small, and all instrumentes of measure and musicke.

25 In that day sayth the Lord of hoastes, shall the nayle that is fastened in the sure place, depart and be broken, and fall: and the burthen that was vpon it shalbe pluckt away, for so the Lorde hath spoken.

1 A prophecie against Tyrus. 17 and a promise that it shalbe restored agayne.

Ezec. xxv. a.

THe burthen of *Tyre. Mourne ye shippes of Tharsis, for there commeth such destruction, that ye shall not haue an house to enter into: and that there shalbe no traffike out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague.

2 Be styll ye that dwell in the Ile, the marchauntes of Zidon, & such as passe ouer the sea haue made thee plenteous.

3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Nilus, and the frutes of the riuer were her vittayles, so that it became became a common mart of the nations.

(a) By the sea and the strength of the sea, is meant Tyrus

4 Be ashamed thou Zidon: for the[a] sea, euen the strength of the sea hath spoken saying, I haue not trauayled nor brought foorth children, nor nourished vp young men, or brought vp virgins.

5 When tidinges commeth to the Egyptians, they shalbe sory for the rumour of Tyre.

6 Get you to Tharsis, mourne you that dwell in the Isle.

7 Is not this that glorious citie of yours which hath ben of olde antiquitie? her owne feete shall cary her foorth to be a sojourner into a farre countrey.

(b) That crowneth her self, that is, whose merchaunt is a prince, as it were the Queene of all men on the coast.

8 Who hath deuised this agaynst Tyre that [b]crowneth her selfe? whose marchauntes are princes, & whose factours are honorable in the worlde.

9 Euen the Lorde of hoastes hath deuised this, to put downe the pride of all such as be glorious, and to minishe all them that be proude vpon the earth.

10 Get thee out of thy lande like a ryuer vnto the daughter of Tharsis, for thou hast no more strength.

11 He that smote the kyngdomes together, holdeth out his hande ouer the sea: euen the Lord himselfe hath geuen a commaundement agaynst the same common place of marchaundise, that they shall vtterly destroy the myght therof.

12 And he sayde: Make no more thy boast O virgin thou daughter Zidon, thou shalt be brought downe: Vp, get thee ouer vnto Cittim, where neuertheless thou shalt haue no rest.

13 Beholde, this people came not of the Chaldees, but Assur made them strong with great shippes: They set vp the strong holdes therof, and destroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay.

14 Mourne ye shippes of Tharsis, for your strength is brought downe. ℭ

15 And in that day shal Tyre be forgotten seuentie yeres, according to the yeres of one king: & after the ende of the seuentie yeres shall Tyre sing as doth an harlot.

16 Take an harpe and go about the citie thou harlot that hast ben forgotten, make sweete melodie, sing mo songes, that thou mayest be had in remembraunce.

17 And after the ende of the seuentie yeres shall the Lorde visite Tyre, and she shall conuert vnto her rewarde, and shall commit fornication with all the kyngdomes of the earth that are in the worlde.

18 Their occupying also & their rewarde shalbe holy vnto the Lorde: their gaynes shall not be layde vp nor kept in store, but it shalbe theirs that dwell before the Lorde, that they may eate inough, and haue clothyng sufficient.

The.xxiiij.Chapter.

A prophecie of tribulation to come vpon the worlde because of sinne.

A 1 Beholde, the Lord maketh the earth waste and emptie, he turneth it vpside downe, and scattereth abrode the inhabitours therof.

2 And the priest shalbe as the people, and the master as the seruaunt, the mistresse lyke the mayde, the seller lyke the byer, he that lendeth vpon vsurie, like him that borroweth vpon vsurie, the creditour as the dettour.

3 The lande shalbe cleane wasted and vtterly spoyled: for so the Lorde hath spoken.

4 The earth is sory and consumeth away, the worlde is feeble & perisheth, the proude people of the earth are come to naught.

5 The earth also is become vnprofitable vnder the inhabitours therof, which haue transgressed the lawes, chaunged the ordinaunce, broken the euerlasting couenaunt.

6 Therfore hath the curse consumed the earth, and they that dwell therin are fallen into trespasse: wherfore the inhabitours of the earth are perished with drought, and fewe men are left behinde. B

7 The wine fayleth, the vine hath no myght, all they that haue ben merry of heart are come to mourning.

8 The myrth of tabrettes is layde downe, the noyse of such as haue made mery is ceassed, the ioy at the harpe is at an ende.

9 They shall drynke no more wine with mirth, strong drynke shalbe bytter to them them that drinke it.

10 The cite of vanitie is broken downe, euery house is shut vp, that no man may come in.

11 In the streetes is there a crying because of wine, all cheare is vanished away, the myrth of the lande is gone.

12 In the cite is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 For in the middes of the lande, euen among the people, it shall come to passe as at the shaking of olues, and as the grapes are when the vine haruest is done.

¶ 14 They shall lift vp their voyce, and make a merie noyse: and in magnifying of the Lorde shall they crye out of the west.

15 Wherefore prayse ye the Lorde in the valleys, euen the name of the Lorde God of Israel in the Iles of the sea.

16 From the vttermost part of the earth haue we heard prayses and myrth, because of the righteous: And I sayde, I knowe a thing in secrete, I knowe a thing in secrete, woe is me: the transgressours haue offended, the transgressours haue greeuously offended.

17 Fearefulnesse, the pit, and the snare are vpon thee, O thou that dwellest on the earth.

18 It wyll come to passe, that whosoeuer escapeth the fearefull noyse, shall fall into the pit, and he that commeth vp out of the pit, shalbe taken with the snare: for the windowes from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth are moued.

19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a sore rume, the earth quaketh exceedingly:

20 The earth shall reele to and fro like a drunkarde, and shalbe remoued lyke a tent, and the iniquitie thereof shalbe heauie vpon it, it shall fall, and not rise vp agayne.

21 And in that day shall the Lorde visite the hoast aboue that is on hye, and the kynges of the worlde that are vpon the earth.

22 And they shalbe gathered together as they that be in pryson, and they shalbe shut vp in warde, and after many dayes shall they be visited.

23 *The moone shalbe abashed, and the sunne ashamed, when the Lorde of hoastes shal raigne in mount Sion and in Hierusalem with worship, and in the sight of suche as shalbe of his counsell. Luk.xxi.c.

The. xxv. Chapter.

1 A thankes geuing to God for his workes.

A 1 Thou art my Lorde my God, I wyll magnifie thee, I will geue thankes vnto thy name, for thou hast brought wonderfull thinges to passe, according to thine olde counsels truely & faythfully.

P.Gl.xxvi.a 2 *Thou hast made a cite a heape of stones, and brought a strong towne into decay: the habitation of straungers hast thou made to be no cite, neuer shall it be buylded any more.

3 Therefore shall the mightie people geue glory vnto thee, the cite of the valiaunt heathen shall feare thee.

4 For thou hast ben a strength vnto the poore, and a succour for the needie in his trouble, a refuge against cuill weather, a shadow against the heate: for the blast of ragyng men is like a storme that casteth downe a wall.

5 Like as the heate in a drye place wasteth all thinges: so shalt thou suppresse the noyse of aliantes, the heate [is abated] with the shadowe of the cloude, [euen so shall God] asswage the noyse of the cruel tiraunles.

6 And in this mountaine shal *the Lord of hoastes make vnto all people a feast of plenteous and delicate thinges, euen of most pleasaunt and daintie dishes. B Luk.xxii.d.

7 And in this mountaine shall the Lord destroy the couering that all people are wrapped in, and the hanging that is spread vpon all nations.

8 *As for death he hath destroyed it for euer, *and the Lorde God shall wype away teares from all faces, and the rebuke of his people shall he take away out of all the earth, for so the Lorde hath sayde. Osee.xiii.a. Apoc.vii.c. and.xxi.c. i.Cor.xv.f.

9 And in that day it shalbe sayde, lo this is our God, we haue wayted for hym, Ephe.v.a. *and he shall saue vs, this is the Lorde in whom we haue hoped, we wyll be merie and reioyce in the saluation [that commeth] of hym.

10 For in this mountaine shall the hande of the Lorde ceasse, and Moab shalbe threshed vnder hym, euen as strawe is troden to doung on the dounghill.

11 And he shall stretche out his hande in the middes of them, as he that swimmeth casteth out his hands to swimme: and with the strength of his handes shall he bring downe their pryde.

12 The strong holde also and defence of thy walles hath he ouerthrowne and cast downe, and brought them to the grounde, euen vnto dust.

The. xxvi. Chapter.

¶ A song of deliueraunce of the people.

1 IN that day shall this song be song in the land of Iuda, We haue a strong citie, saluation shal God appoint in steede of walles and bulwarkes.

2 *Open ye the gates, that the righteous people whiche kepeth the truth may enter in. Psa.cxviii.b

3 By an assured purpose wylt thou preserue perfect *peace, because they put their trust in thee. Rom.v.a.

4 Put ye your trust alway in the Lord: for in the Lorde God there is strength for euermore.

5 *For he hath brought downe the high minded citizens: as for the proude citie he hath brought it lowe, euen to the ground shall he cast it downe, and bring it vnto dust. Esai.xxv.a.

6 The foote, euen the foote of the poore, and the steppes of suche as be in necessitie shall treade it downe.

7 The path of equitie wylt thou graunt vnto the iust [O thou most righteous]

8 *thou shalt order the path of hym that is righteous. Prou.vi.a. Iere.x.d.

Yea in the way of thy iudgementes, O Lord, haue we put our trust in thee: thy name also and the remembraunce of thee, is the thyng that our soule longeth for.

9 *My soule hath longed for thee all the night, and with my spirite whiche is within me wyll I seeke thee early in the morning: For when thy iudgementes are in the earth, the inhabiters of the worlde shall learne righteousnesse. Psal.lxxi.a. and.cxliii.a.

10 Shall the vngodly man be fauoured, which hath not learned righteousnesse, but doth wickedly in the earth, where nothing ought to be done but that which is righteous: he shall not see the 11 glory of the Lorde.

Lorde, When thy hande is lyft vp to strike, they see it not: but they shall see it, and be confounded with the zeale of the people, and the fire that consumeth thyne enemies shall deuour them.

12 Lorde vnto vs thou shalt prounde peace: *for thou also hast wrought all our workes in vs.

13 O Lord our God, other lordes beside thee hath subdued vs: but we wyll be mindfull only of thee and of thy name. Phil.ii.a.

14 The dead wyll not liue, they that be out of life will not ryse agayne, therfore hast thou visited and rooted them out, and destroyed all the memorie of them. ℭ

15 Thou hast increased the people, O Lorde, thou hast increased the people, thou art glorious, thou hast sent them farre of vnto all the coastes of the earth.

16 *Lorde, in trouble haue they visited thee, they powred out their prayer whē thy chastening was vpon them. Leu.xxvi.g

17 *Like as a woman with chylde that draweth nye towardes her trauayle is sore and creyeth in her paynes: euen so haue we ben in thy sight O Lorde. Iohn.xvi.c.

18 *We haue ben with chylde and suffred paine, as though we had brought forth wynde: for there is no saluation in the earth, neither do the inhabiters of the worlde submit them selues. Rom.viii.d.

19 *Thy dead men shall liue, euen as my body shall they rise againe: Awake and sing ye that dwell in dust, for thy deawe is euen as the deawe of herbes, and the earth shall cast out them that be vnder her. i.Cor.vi.d.

20 Come

Gen.xix.c. 20 Come my people, *enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doores about thee, *hide thy selfe for a litle whyle, vntill the indignation be ouerpast.

Apoc.vi.a.

Miche.i.a. 21 *For beholde, the Lorde is comming out of his place, to visite the wickednesse of suche as dwell vpon earth: the earth also shall disclose her bloods, and shall no more hide them that are slayne in her.

¶ The.xxvij. Chapter.

1 A prophecie of the comming of Christe, and destruction of idolatrie.

A 1 N that day the Lord with his sore, great, and mighte sworde, shall visite (a) *Leviathan the fugitiue serpent, euen Leuiathan that crooked serpent, and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

(a) By Leviathan the greatest of fishes in the sea is ment the kingdome of Sathan, and the mightie assaultes of the worlde, enemies to Christe and persecutours of his religion.

1.Cor.xv.c.

Apoc.xii.c. 2 In that day see that ye sing of the congregation which is the vineyarde that bringeth foorth the best wine:

3 Euen I the Lorde do kepe it, in due seasons shall I water it: and lest the enemie do it any harme, I will both night and day preserue it.

4 There is no displeasure in me, els when the vineyarde bringeth me foorth bryers and thornes I would go thorowe it by warre, and burne it vp together.

(b) God calleth his worde his strength, because thereby he sauueth men, and beateth them vnto humilitie.

5 Let it take holde of my (b) strength, and it shalbe at one with me, euen at one shall it be with me.

6 The dayes are comming that Jacob shall take roote, Israel shalbe greene and florishe, and the world shalbe filled with fruite.

7 Hath he smitten hym as sore as he did the other that smote hym? Or is he slayne with so sore a slaughter as they that slue hym?

8 Thou wylt punishe it in the braunches of it are drye, they are broken of, & the women come and set them on fire: *for it is a people of no vnderstanding, and therfore he that made them shall not fauour them, and he that created them shall geue them no grace.

(c) God vseth afflictions as meanes to call men to repentance wherevpon followeth forgeuenesse of sinnes.

9 By this meanes therfore shall the iniquitie of Jacob be purged, and this is all the fruite, namely the (c) taking away of his sinne, if he make all the stones of the aulter of idols as chalke stones that are beaten in sunder, that their grouues and images ryse not vp agayne.

10 Els shall the strong citie be desolate, and the habitation forsaken and left like a wildernesse: there shall the Calfe feede, and there shall he lye, and eate vp the graffes therof. C

11 When the braunches of it are drye, they are broken of, & the women come and set them on fire: *for it is a people of no vnderstanding, and therfore he that made them shall not fauour them, and he that created them shall geue them no grace. Deut.xxxii.b.

12 And in that day shall the Lorde make a threshing, from the middest of the riuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye children of Israel shalbe gathered together one to another.

13 In that day shall the great trumpe be blowne, so that they which were lost in the lande of Assyria, and they that were banished in the lande of Egypt, shall come and worship the Lorde in the holye mount of Hierusalem.

The.xxviij. Chapter.

1 Against the pride of Ephraim, 9 and against false priestes and preachers.

A 1  O be vnto the crowne of pryde, euen *to the drunken people of Ephraim, whose great pompe is as a floure that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of suche as be in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine. Oseae.iii.a. Math.xvi.c.

2 Behold, *there commeth a vehement and sore day from the Lord, like an vnmeasurable hayle and perillous tempest, euen like the force of mighte and horrible waters that violently beareth downe all thinges.

3 The crowne of the pryde of the drunken Ephraimites shalbe troden vnder foote:

Esa.lxx.a. 4 *So that the floure of his fayrenesse and beautie whiche is in the head of the valley of fatnesse, shall fade away as doth an vntimely ripe figge before harueste: whiche when a man espieth, he loketh vpon it, and whyle it is yet in his hande he eateth it vp.

5 In that day shal the Lord of hoastes be the crowne of glory and diamonde of beautie vnto the residue of his people.

6 He wylbe also a spirite of perfect knowledge to hym that sitteth in iudgement, and strength vnto them that turne away the battayle to the gate [of the enemies.]

15 7 But they are out of the way by reason of wine, yea farre out of the way are they thorowe strong drinke: *The priest also and the prophete are gone astray by the meanes of strong drinke, they are drunken with wine, they go amisse thorowe strong drinke, they fayle in prophecying, and stumble in iudgement.

Esa.xxviii.a.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthynesse, that no place is cleane.

9 Whom then shall suche one teache knowledge? and whom shall he make to vnderstande the thing that he heareth? for they are as ignorant as young chyldren that are taken from the milke, and are weaned.

10 For they that be suche, must take after one lesson, another lesson, *after one commaundement, another commaundement, for one rule, another rule, after one instruction, another instruction, there a litle, and there a litle.

Esai.xx.a. Mat.xxiii.a

11 For he that speaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vseth rudenesse of speache, and a straunge language.

12 If any man say vnto them, lo, this is the rest wherewith ye may ease hym that is weerie, this is the refreshing: they wyll not hearken.

1.Cor.xiiii.e 13 *Therfore shall the word of the Lord be vnto them, lesson vpon lesson, commaundement vpon commaundement, rule vpon rule, instruction vpon instruction, there a litle, and there a litle: that they may go on and fall backwarde, be brused, tangled, and snared.

14 Wherfore heare the word of the Lord ye mockers, ye that haue rule of this people whiche is at Hierusalem.

15 Because ye haue sayd, we haue made a couenaunt with death, and with hell are we at agreement: and though there go forth a sore plague, it shall not come vnto vs, for we haue made falsehood our refuge, and vnder vanitie are we hid.

16 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I lay in Sion for a foundation a stone, euen a tryed stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: Who so beleeueth, let hym not be to (a) hastie.

17 Iudgement also wyll I laye to the rule, and righteousnesse to the balaunce, so that the (b) hayle shall sweepe away as a broome your vayne confidence, and the priuie place of your refuge shall the waters runne ouer.

18 And thus the couenaunt that ye made with death, shalbe disanulled, and your agreement that ye made with hell shall not stand, yea when the sore plague goeth forth, ye shalbe troden downe vnder it.

19 From the tyme that it goeth forth it shall take you away: for early in the morning euery day, yea both day and night shall it go thorowe, and when the noyse thereof is perceaued, it shall gender veration.

20 For the bed is narrowe and not large, and the couering so small that a man can not winde him selfe [vnder it.]

21 *For the Lord shall stand as in mount Perazim, and shalbe wroth like as in the valley *Gibeon, that he may do his worke, his straunge worke, and bring to passe his acte, his straunge acte.

Esa.xxxvi.f ii.Reg.v.b. Iosu.x.b i.Par.xiii.d.

22 Nowe therefore see that ye be no mockers, lest your punishment increase: For I heard of the Lorde of hoastes, that there shall come a short ende vpon the whole earth.

23 Heare ye then, and hearken vnto my voyce, consider and ponder my speache.

24 Doth not the husbandman plowe all the day, and openeth and breaketh the clottes of his grounde, that he may sowe?

25 When he hath made it playne, wyll he not spreade abrode the fitches, and sowe comin, and cast in wheate by measure, and the appointed barlye and rye in their place?

26 God

(a) Who so ouerrone fayth doth flap hym selfe vpon Christe in hys fure going for error shall not fal that is, shall not taste of that he hopeth to obtayne. (b) The gospell is compared to hayle & flodde, for that it breaketh downe and carieth away idolatrie and superstition, wherein men be trusty in vayne.

26 God wyll instruct hym to haue discretion, euen his God wyll teache hym.
27 For fitches shall not be threshed with an harrowe, neither shall a cart wheele be brought thorowe the comin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staffe, and comin with a rodde.
28 But the seede that bread is made of, is threshed, though it be not alway a threshing, and the cart wheele must be brought ouer it, lest he grinde it with his teeth.
29 This also commeth of the Lorde of hoastes, which worketh with wonderfull wysdome, and bringeth excellent workes to passe.

The. xxix. Chapter.

1 A prophecie against Hierusalem, 13 and against the bayne traditions of men.

A 1 WO vnto thee O Ariel Ariel, thou citie that *Dauid dwelt in: Go on from yere to yere, and let the iambes be slayne.
u.Reg v.b.
2 I wyll lay siege vnto Ariel, so that there shalbe heauinesse and sorowe in it: and it shalbe vnto me euen an aulter of slaughter.
3 I will besiege thee roundé about, and fight against thee thorowe a bulwarke, and wyll reare vp dikes against thee.
4 Thou shalt be brought downe, and shalt speake out of the ground, and thy speache shall go lowe out of the dust:
5 Thy voyce also shall come out of the grounde lyke the voyce of a witche, and thy talkyng shall whisper out of the dust:
5 Moreouer, the noyse of the straunge enemies shalbe like thinne dust, and the multitude of straūtes shalbe *as drye strawe that can not tary: euen sodenly and in haste shall their blast go.
Psal.b.
6 Thou shalt be visited of the Lorde of hoastes with thunder, earthquake, and with a great noyse, with storme and tempest, and with the flambe of a consuming fire.
7 And the multitude of all nations that fight against Ariel, shalbe as a dreame seene by night: *euen so shall they be that make warre against it, and strong holdes to ouercome it, and that lay any siege vnto it.
Psal.g.c.
8 In conclusion, it shalbe euen as when a hungry man dreameth that he is eating, and when he awaketh, his soule is empte, or as when a thirstie man dreameth that he is drinking, and when he awaketh, he is yet faynte, and his soule hath appetite: euen so shall the multitude of all nations that fighteth against mount Sion.
9 Ponder these thinges once in your mindes, and wonder: *blinded are they them selues, and the blinde guides of other: They are drunken, but not with wine: they are vnstable, but not thorow strong drinke.
Math.xv.d.
10 For the Lorde hath couered you with a slumbring spirite, and hath closed your eyes: your prophetes also and rulers that shoulde see, them hath he couered.
11 *And the vision of all the prophetes is become vnto you as the wordes of a booke that is sealed vp, whiche men deliuer to one that is learned, saying, Reade thou mit: and he saith, I can not, for it is sealed.
Esai.vi.b.
12 And the booke is geuen to him that is not learned, saying, Reade thou in it: and he saith, I am not learned.
13 Therfore thus hath the Lorde sayd: Forsmuche as this people when they be in trouble, do honour me with their mouth and with their lippes, but their heart is farre fro me, and the feare whiche they haue vnto me proceedeth of a commaundement that is taught of men:
C Math.xv.a. Mar.vii.a.
14 Therefore wyll I do marueyles among this people, euen marueylous thinges [I say] and a wonder: *For the wysdome of their wyse men shall perishe, and the vnderstanding of their wittie men shall hyde it selfe.
Abd.i.c. 1.Cor.i.c.
15 Wo vnto them that kepe secrete their thoughtes, to hide their counsell from the Lorde, and to do their workes in darkenesse, saying: *Who seeth vs? and Who knoweth vs?
Esai.xlvij.b. Eccl.xxxvi.d Ezech.ix.c.

16 Doubtlesse your destruction is in reputation as the potters clay: And doth the worke say of hym that made it, he made not me: And doth an earthen vessell say of hym that fashioned it, he had no understanding:

17 Is it not harde at hande that Libanus shalbe turned into a low fielde, and that the lowe fielde shalbe taken as the wood:

18 And in that day shall deafe men heare the wordes of the booke, and the eyes of the blynde shall see, euen out of the cloude, and out of darknesse.

19 The meeke spirited also shall be merie in the Lorde, and the poore among them that be lowly shall reioyce in the holy one of Israel:

20 For he that dyd violence is brought to naught, and the scornefull man is consumed, and they rooted out that made haste early to vnrighteousnesse,

21 Making a man to sinne in the worde, and that toke hym in a snare, Whiche reproued them in the open place, and they that haue turned the cause of the righteous to naught. D

22 Therefore thus saith the Lorde to the house of Jacob, euen thus saith he that redeemed Abraham: *Jacob shall not nowe be confounded, nor his face pale. Esai.xxix.a.

23 But when he seeth his children the worke of my handes in the middes of hym, they shall sanctifie my name, and prayse the holy one of Jacob, and feare the God of Israel.

24 They also that haue ben of an erroneous spirite shall come to vnderstanding, and they that haue ben scornefull shall learne doctrine.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1 Against them that forsake the counsell of God, and cleaue to the counsell of men.
3 The prophete also threatneth the remnaunt of the people, that after the destruction of Hierusalem went into Egypt.

A 1 ALas for those disobedient children saith the Lorde, *that they will take counsell and not of me, that they wyll take a secrete aduice and not out of my spirite, and therefore adde they sinne vnto sinne. Esai.viii.b.

2 Euen they that walke to go downe into Egypt, and haue asked no question at my mouth, but seeke strength in the might of Pharao, and trust in the shadowe of Egypt.

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharao be your confusion, and the trust in the shadowe of Egypt your shame.

4 For his captaynes were at Zoan, and his embassadours came vnto Hanes.

5 *They were ashamed of the people that coulde do them no good, and that might not helpe them nor shewe them any profit, but were their confusion and rebuke. 4. Reg.18.d. Iere.xxvii.b. Eze.xxxx.a.

6 The burthen of the beastes of the south. In a land of trouble & anguishe, from whence shall come the young and olde lion, the viper and fyrie serpent that fleeth against them that vpon coltes beare their riches, and vpon camels their treasures, to a people that can do them no good.

7 For vayne and nothing worth shall the helpe of the Egyptians be: Therefore haue I cryed vnto Hierusalem, they shall haue strength mough if they wyll settle their mindes in quietnesse. S

8 *Nowe therefore go thy way, and write this before them in a table, and note it in a booke: that it may finally remaine and be kept styll for euer. Esai.viii.a.

9 For this is an obstinate people, *and dissembling children, children that refuse to heare the lawe of the Lorde. Esai.i.d.

10 For they say vnto the seers, see not, and to them that be cleare of iudgement, loke not out right thinges for vs: but speake fayre wordes vnto vs, loke out errours.

11 Get you out of this way, depart out of this path, and turne the holy one of Israel from vs.

12 Wherefore thus saith the holy one of Israel: Because your hartes ryse against against this Word, and because you trust in Wrong dealing and peruerse iudgement, and put your confidence therin:

13 Therfore shall ye haue this mischefe for your destruction and fall, like as an hye Wall that falleth because of some rift or blast, Whose breakyng commeth sodainly.

Psal.ii.b. 14 *And the hurt thereof is lyke an earthen vessell Whiche breaketh without helpe, so that in the bursting of it, there is not founde one sheuer to fetch fire in, or to take Water withall out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lorde God, euen the holy one of Israel: In repentaunce and in* rest shall ye be safe, in quetnesse and sure confidence shalbe your strength, but ye haue had no list therto.

Exo.xiii.c. 1.Par.xx.c.

16 For ye haue sayde, No, but We Wyll escape thorowe horses, therefore shall ye flee: And We Wyll get vs vp vpon swift beastes, and therefore shall your persecutours be swifter.

Leui.xxvi.a Iosu.xxiii.a

17 *A thousande shall flee at the rebuke of one, and at the rebuke of fiue shall ye all flee, till ye be left as a ship mast vpon the top of a mountaine, and as a beaken vpon an hill.

Rom.ii.a.

18 *Therefore doth the Lorde tause you to Wayte, that he may haue mercy vpon you, to the entent that he may haue the preemiuence When he is gratious vnto you: For the Lord is the God of iudgement, Blessed are all they that hope in hym.

19 If the people remaine in Sion and at Hierusalem, thou shalt not be in heauinesse: but at the voyce of thy complaint shall he haue mercy vpon thee, and When he heareth it, he shall geue thee an answere.

20 And though the Lorde geue you the bread of trouble, and the Water of aduersitie, thy rayne shalbe no more so ☞ scant, but thyne eyes shall see thy rayne.

Deut.iiii.a. 21 Yea and thyne eare shall heare the talking of hym that doth speake behynde thee: *This is the Way, walke ye in it, turne not aside neither to the right hande, nor to the left.

22 Ye shall destroy also the couering of your siluer images, and the decking of your golden idols, euen as filthynesse shalt thou put them away: And thou shalt say vnto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall God geue rayne vnto thy seede, that thou shalt sowe the grounde withall, and bread of the increase of the earth, Whiche shalbe fat and very plenteous: in that day also shall thy cattell be fed in large pastures.

24 The oxen lykewyse and the young asses that eare the grounde shall eate cleane prouender, Whiche is purged With the Winde and the fanne.

25 Finally, vpon euery hye mountayne and hyll shall there be riuers, and streames of Waters* in the day of the great slaughter When the towres fall. ✠ Apo.xiii.b.

26 Moreouer, the light of the moone shalbe as the light of the sunne, and the sunne light shalbe seuen folde, and haue as much syne as in seuen dayes beside, When the Lorde bindeth vp the sore of his people, and healeth the stroke of their Wounde.

27 Beholde, the name of the Lorde commeth from farre, and his presence is so hotte, that no man is able to abyde: his lippes are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a consuming fire.

28 His breath is a vehement flud of Water, that reacheth vp to the necke: that he may sift away the heathen in the siue of vanitie, and his breath is a bridle of errour in the iawes of the people. ✠

29 And ye shall sing lyke as in the night When the holy solempnitie begynneth, and ye shall haue gladnesse of heart, like as When one commeth With a pipe vnto the hill of the Lorde, and to the most mightie one of Israel.

30 And the Lorde shall cause his glorious voyce to be hearde, and shall declare his stretched out arme With a terrible countenaunce, ✠ With the flambe of a consuming fire, With noysome lightening, With a shoure, and With hayle stones.

Esai.x.a.

31 For thorowe the voyce of the Lorde shall *Assur be destroyed, Which smote other men With the rodde.

32 And it shall come to passe, that whyther soeuer he goeth the rodde shall cleaue vnto hym Which the Lorde shall laye vpon hym, With tabrettes and harpes: and With great warre shall he fight against his hoast.

33 For

Mat.xxv.b. 33 *For the fire of hell is ordayned from the beginning, yea euen for the kyng is it prepared: This hath the Lorde set in the deepe, and made it wide, the burning whereof is fire and muche wood: The breath of the Lorde whiche is like a riuer of brimstone doth kindle it.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

1 He curseth them that forsake God, and seeke for the helpe of men.

A 1 WO be vnto them that go downe into Egypt for helpe, and trust in horses, and put their confidence in charrets because they be many, and in horsemen because they be lustie and strong: but they regarde not the holy one of Israel, and they aske no question at the Lorde.

2 And he neuertheleſſe is wise, and will plague the wicked, and goeth not from his worde, he will aryse against the housholde of the frowarde, and against the helpe of euyll doers.

3 Nowe the Egyptians are men and not God, and their horses flesshe, and not spirite: And assoone as the Lord stretcheth out his hande, then shall the helper fall and he that shoulde haue ben helped, and they shall altogether be destroyed.

4 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vnto me: *Lyke as the lion and *lions whelpe roareth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afrande though the multitude of shepheardes crye out vpon him, neither be abashed for all the heape of them: so shall the Lorde of hoastes come downe to fight for mount Sion, and defende his hyll.

Apoc v.a. Gen.xlix.b

5 Like as the byrdes flutter about their nestes, *so shall the Lorde of hoastes, kepe, saue, defende, and deliuer Hierusalem. Deut.xi.d.

6 Therefore O ye chyldren of Israel, turne againe vnto him whom you haue oftetimes forsaken.

7 *For in that day euery man shall cast out his idols of siluer, and his idols of golde, whiche ye haue made with your owne handes vnto your sinne. Esai.ii.c.

8 *Assur also shalbe slayne with the swoorde, not with a mans swoorde, neither shal the swoorde of any man deuour hym, and he shall flee from the slaughter, and his choise young men shalbe discomfited. Esai.xvii.c.

9 He shall go for feare to his strong holdes, and his princes shall flee from his standerd saith the Lord, whose fire is in Sion, and his fornace in Hierusalem.

¶ The. xxxij. Chapter.

1 The conditions of good rulers and officers.

A 1 BEholde, a kyng shall gouerne after the rule of righteousnesse, and the princes shall rule according to the ballaunce of equitie.

2 And that man shalbe vnto men as a defence for the winde, and as a refuge for the tempest, lyke as a ryuer of water in a thirsshe place, and the shadowe of a great rocke in a drye lande.

3 The eyes of the seeing shall not be dim, and the eares of them that heare shall take diligent heede.

4 The heart of the vnwyse shall attayne to knowledge, and the vnperfect tongue shall speake playnely and distinctly.

5 Then shall the foolisshe nigarde be no more called gentle, nor the churle liberall.

6 But the nigarde will speake nigardlye, and his heart will worke euyll, and play the hypocrite, and imagine abhominations against God, to make the hungry leane, and to withholde drinke from the thirsshe.

7 The weapons of the churlisshe are euyll, he deuiseth noysome deuises, that he 25 he may beguyle the poore with deceiptfull wordes, yea euen there as he should geue sentence with the poore.

8 *But the liberall person imagineth honest thynges, and commeth vp for liberalitie vnto promotion. Pro.xv.b.

9 Vp ye riche and idle women, hearken vnto my voyce, ye careleſſe daughters marke my wordes.

10 Many yeres and dayes shall ye be brought in feare O ye careleſſe women: for the vintage shall fayle, and the harueſt shall not come.

11 Be abashed you that lyue in aboundaunce, tremble you that lyue careleſſe, caſt of your rayment, make your selues bare, and put sackcloth about you.

12 For as the infantes weepe when their mothers teates are dryed vp: so shall you weepe for your faire fieldes and fruitfull vineyardes.

13 My peoples fielde shall bryng thornes and thiſtles: and so shall it be in euery house of voluptuouſneſſe, and in euery citie that reioyceth.

14 The palaces also shalbe broke, and the greatly occupied cities desolate: The towres and bulwarkes shall become dennes for euermore, where wylde asſes take their pleasure, and sheepe their pasture.

15 Vnto the tyme that the spirite be powred vpon vs from above, and that the wilderneſſe be a fruitfull fielde, and the plenteous fielde be reckened for a wood.

16 Then shall equitie dwell in the desert, and righteouſneſſe in a fruitfull lande.

17 *And the worke of righteouſneſſe shalbe peace, and her fruite reſt and quietneſſe for euer. Rom.v.a.

18 *And my people shall dwell in the vnnes of peace, and in sure dwellynges, in safe places of comfort. Iere.xxxvi.

19 And when the hayle falleth, it shall fall in the wood, and the citie shalbe set lowe in the valley.

20 O howe happy shall ye be when ye shall safely sowe your seede beside all waters, and dryue thyther the feete of your oxen and asſes.

The .xxxiij. Chapter.

1 Threatnyng against the Assyrians. 20 The destruction of them that shall see the Lorde.

1 A WO to thee that destroyeſt when thou wast not destroyed, thou breakeſt ỹ league where as none hath broken it with thee: for when thou shalt leaue destroying, *thou thy selfe shalt be destroyed: and when thou ceaſſeſt from breakyng the league, then shall they breake it to thee. Exo.xxi.b. Leuit.24.d. Sapi.xi.c. Mat.vii.a.

2 O Lorde haue mercie vpon vs, we haue put our whole trust in thee: be an arme to such early, and *our health in the tyme of trouble. Mat.vii.a. Psal.lx.b.

3 At that confuſe noyse the people fled, and at thine exaltyng the heathen were scattered.

4 And the spoyles shalbe gathered, which shalbe yours, as are the gatherynge of Bruchus, and the multitude goyng to it shalbe as Locuſtes, running to and fro.

5 The Lorde is exalted, for it is he that dwelleth on hye, he hath fylled Sion with iudgement and rygteouſneſſe.

6 And a sure stablishyng of thy tymes, shalbe strength, health, wisdome, and knowledge: and the very feare of the Lorde shalbe the treasure of it.

7 Beholde the meſſengers shall crye without: and the embaſſadours of peace shall weepe bitterly.

8 Their streetes are waſte, there walketh no man therin: God hath broken the appoyntment, the cities are caſt away, and men are nothyng regarded.

9 The desolate earth is in heauineſſe, Libanus is shamed and hewen downe, Saron is like a wilderneſſe, Basan and Charmel are spoyled of their frutes.

10 And therfore saith the Lorde, I wyll vp nowe, nowe wyll I be auaunced, nowe wyll I be exalted.

11 *Ye shall conceaue stubble, and beare strawe: and your spirite shalbe the fire, that it may conſume you. Iere.v.c.

12 And the people shalbe burnt like lime, and as thornes burnt that are hewen of and caſt in the fire.

13 Nowe

13 Nowe hearken to ye that are farre of howe I haue done, and consider my power ye that are at hande.

¶ 14 The sinners at Sion are afrayde, a sodayne fearefulnesse is come vpon the hypocrites: what is he among vs say they that shall dwell by the consumyng fire: which of vs may abyde the euerlastyng heate:

Psal. xiiii.a. and.xxxiii.a. 15 *He that leadeth a godly life, and speaketh the trueth, he that abhorreth gaynes by violence and deceipt, he that keepeth his hande that he touche no reward, which stoppeth his eares that he heare no counsayle agaynst the innocent blood, which holdeth downe his eyes that he see no euyll:

16 He it is that shall dwell on hye, whose safegarde shalbe in a bulwarke of rockes: to hym shalbe geuen meate, and his waters shall not fayle.

17 Thine eyes shall see the kyng in his glorie, euen the kyng of the farre countreys shall they see.

18 Thyne heart studied for feare thinking thus: *what shall then become of the scribe: of the receauer of our money: what of hym that tared our fauelt houses:

1.Cor.i.a.

19 There shalt thou not see a cruel people of a straunge tongue, to haue so diffused a language that it may not be vnderstanded, neither so straunge a speache but it shalbe perceaued.

20 Loke vpon Sion the head citie of our solempne feastes: thyne eyes shall see Hierusalem that glorious habitation, *the tabernacle that neuer shall remoue, whose nayles shal neuer be taken out worde without ende, whose cordes euery one shall neuer corrupt. Hebr.xi.b.

21 For the glorious maieste of the Lorde shall there be present among vs as a place where faire brode ryuers and streames are, through the which shall neither galley rowe nor great shipsayle. D

22 *For the Lorde is our iudge, the Lord is our lawe geuer, the Lord is our kyng, and he hym selfe shalbe our sauour. Iacob.iiii.a.

23 Thy tackling is loosed, therfore it can not make fast the mast, nor spread the sayle: then there is dealed great spoyle, yea lame men runne after the pray.

24 There lyeth no man that sayth, I am sicke: but all euyll is taken away from the people that dwell there.

The.xxxiiij.Chapter.

1 The last destruction of the synagoge, in which the kingdome and priesthood of the people was translated to the Church and congregation of Christe.

A 1 Ome ye heathen and heare, take heede yon people: hearken thou earth and all that is therin, thou rounde compasse and all that dwelleth therupon.

2 For the Lorde is angry with all people, & his displeasure is kindled agaynst all the multitude of them, he hath destroyed them, and delyuered them to the slaughter.

3 So that their slayne shalbe cast out and their bodyes stincke, that euen the very hylles shalbe wet with the blood of them.

4 All the starres of heauen shall waste, and the heauens shall folde together lyke a roll, and all the starres therof shall fall, lyke as the leaues fall from the vines and figge trees.

5 For my sworde shalbe bathed in heauen, and shall immediatly come downe to iudgement vpon Idumea, and vpon the people which I haue cursed.

6 And the Lordes sworde shalbe full of blood, and be ruddy with the fatnesse and blood of lambes and goates, with the fatnesse of the kidneys of weathers: For the Lord shall kyll a great offering in Bozra, and a great slaughter in the lande of Idumea.

7 There shall the vnicornes fall with them, and the bulles with the giauntes, and their lande shalbe throughly soked with blood, and their grounde corrupt with fatnesse. 25

8 For it is the *day of Gods vengeaunce, and the yere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion. (a) God declareth his loue and care to preserue his Churche by his seuere punishyng of the enemies to his Church.

9 And his ryuers shalbe turned to pitch, and his earth to brimstone, and therwith shall the lande be kindled.

10 So that it shall not be quenched day nor nyght, but smoke euermore, and so foorth lye waste: and no man shall go through it for euer.

11 But Pellicanes, Storkes, great Owles,

Owles, and Rauens shall haue it in possession and dwell therin: for God shall spreade out the line of desolation vpon it, and the stones of emptinesse.

12 Her nobles shall call, and there is no kyngdome: and all her princes shalbe nothyng.

13 Thornes shall growe in their palaces, nettles & thistles in their strong holdes, that the dragons may haue their pleasure therin, and that they may be a court for Estriches.

14 There shall straunge visures & monsterous beastes meete one another, and the wylde kepe company together: there shall the Lamia lye and haue her lodgyng.

15 There shall the Owle make her nest, builde, be there at home, & bryng forth her young ones: there shall the Kytes come together, eche one to his lyke.

16 Seke through the booke of the Lorde and reade it: there shall none of these thynges be left out, there shall not one nor such lyke fayle: for his mouth commaundeth, and that same doth his spirite gather together, or fulfyll.

17 He hath cast the lot for them, and to those beastes hath his hande deuided it by the line: therfore those shall possesse it for euer, from generation to generation shall they dwell therin.

¶ The. xxxv. Chapter.

1 Of the tyme and kyngdome of Christe.

A (a) The barren nature of mankynde to all goodnes shalbe made fruitfull by grace promised in Christe.

1 BVt (a) the desert & wildernesse shall reioyce, the waste ground shall be glad and florishe as the Lilie.

2 She shall florishe pleasauntly and be ioyfull, and euer be geuing thankes more and more: For the glorie of Libanus, the beautie of Charmel and Saron shalbe geuen her: These shall knowe the honour of the Lorde, & the maiestie of our God.

Heb.xii.b. Deut.xx.a. and xxxi.b. 3 *And therfore (b) strength the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees.

(b) God geueth strength of grace to the feeble conferences by preaching the worde. Mat.xi.a. and xv.c. Luk.xvii.c. 4 Say vnto them that are of a fearfull heart, be of good cheare and feare not, *beholde your God commeth to take vengeaunce, and you shall see the reward that God geueth: God commeth his owne selfe, and wyll delyuer you.

5 Then shall the eyes of the blynde be lyghtened, and the eares of the deafe opened.

6 Then shall the lame men leape as an Hart, & the *dumbe mans tongue shall geue thankes: *for in the Wildernesse there shall welles spryng, and fludds of water in the desert. Psal.vi.i.a. Esa xli.c. xliii.c. xliii.a.

7 The dry ground shal turne to ryuers, and the thirstie to springes of water: Wheras dragons dwelt afore, there shal growe sweete flowres & greene rushes.

8 There shalbe foote pathes & common streetes, this shalbe called the holy way: no vncleane person shall go through it, for the Lorde hym selfe shall go with them that way, and the wayfayrer nor ignorant shall not erre.

9 There shalbe no lion, & no rauishyng beastes shall come therin nor be there, but men redeemed shall go there free and safe.

10 And the redeemed of the Lorde I say shall conuert and come to Sion with thankesgeuyng: euerlastyng ioy shall they haue, pleasure and gladnesse shalbe among them, and as for all sorowe and heauinesse it shall vanishe.

The.xxxvj.Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is besieged by Sennacherib in the tyme of kyng Hezekias.

A 4. Reg.18.c. & Par.32.a. Esai.vii.b. viii.b.x.a. xvii.d. and xxxii.a.

IN * the foureteenth yere of king Hezekias came Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians downe, to lay siege vnto all the strong cities of Juda, to conquer them.

2 And the kyng of the Assyrians sent Rabsakeh from Lachis towarde Hierusalem, agaynst Hezekias with an exceedyng hoast, Which set hym by the conduite of the ouer poole in the way that goeth through the fullers lande.

3 And so there came forth vnto hym Eliakim Helkias sonne, the chiefe ouer th the houſehoulde, *Sobna the ſcribe, and Joah Aſaphs ſonne the ſecretarie: Eſai. xxxvi.a.

4 And Rabſaketh ſayde vnto them, Tell Hezekia that the great kyng ſaith thus vnto hym: What preſumption is this that thou truſteſt vnto?
5 I ſayde ſurely that thou truſteſt in vayne wordes, when counſayle and ſtrength are neceſſarie to battayle: but nowe wherto truſteſt thou, that thou rebelleſt agaynſt me?
4.Reg 18.b. Eze.xxix.a. 6 *Lo, thou putteſt thy truſt in a broken ſtaffe of reede (I meane) Egypt, which he that leaneth vpon, it goeth into his hande and ſhooteth it through: euen ſo is Pharao the kyng of Egypt vnto all them that truſt in hym.
B 7 But if thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, We truſt in the Lorde our God: Is not he that God whoſe hygh places & aulters Hezekia toke downe, and commaunded Juda and Hieruſalem to worſhip only before this aulter?
8 Nowe therfore deliuer hoſtages that thou rebell no more agaynſt my Lorde the kyng of the Aſſyrians, and I wyll geue thee two thouſande horſes yf thou be able to ſet men vpon them.
9 Howe dareſt thou reſiſt the power of the ſmalleſt prince that my Lorde hath? howe dareſt thou truſt in the charrets and horſemen of Egypt?
10 Moreouer, thinkeſt thou that I am come vp hyther to deſtroy this lande without the Lordes wyll? The Lorde ſayd vnto me, Go vp agaynſt this lande and deſtroy it.
11 Then ſayd Eliakim, Sobna, & Joah, vnto Rabſaketh: Speake to vs thy ſeruauntes We pray thee in the Syrians language, for we vnderſtande it well, and ſpeake not to vs in the Jewes tongue, leſt the folke heare which ſyteth vpon the wall.
D 12 Then aunſwered Rabſaketh: Hath my maiſter ſent me to ſpeake this only to thy maiſter and thee? hath he not ſent me to them alſo that ſye vpon the wall? that they may be compelled to eate their owne dunge, and drinke their owne ſtale with you?
13 And Rabſaketh ſtoode ſtiffe, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Jewes tongue, and ſayde: Nowe take heede howe the great kyng of the Aſſyrians geueth you warnyng.
14 Thus ſaith the kyng: Let not Hezekia deceaue you, for he ſhall not be able to deliuer you.
15 Moreouer, let not Hezekia comfort you in the Lorde when he ſaith, The Lorde without doubt ſhall defende vs, and ſhall not geue ouer this cite into the handes of the kyng of the Aſſyrians.
16 Hearken not to Hezekia, for thus ſaith the kyng of Aſſyria: Obtayne my fauour, encline to me, ſo may euery man enioy his vineyardes and figge trees, and drynke the water of his ceſterne:
17 Unto the tyme that I come my ſelfe, and bryng you into a lande that is lyke your owne, wherin is wheate & wine, which is both ſowen with ſeede and planted with vineyardes.
18 Let not Hezekia deceaue you, when he ſaith vnto you, the Lorde ſhall deliuer vs: *Wyght the gods of the gentiles kepe euery mans lande from the power of the kyng of the Aſſyrians? ℭ Eſai.x.a.
19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? Where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defende Samaria out of my hande?
20 Or which of all the gods of theſe landes hath deliuered their countrey out of my power? Is the Lord in deede able to deliuer Hieruſalem from my hande?
21 Unto this Hezekias meſſengers helde their tongues, and aunſwered not one worde: for the kyng had charged them that they ſhould geue him no aunſwere.
22 So came Eliakim Helkias ſonne the chiefe ouer the houſeholde, Sobna the ſcribe, and Joah Aſaphes ſonne the ſecratarie vnto Hezekia with rent clothes, and tolde hym the wordes of Rabſaketh.

The.xxxvij.Chapter.

1 Hezekia humbleth hym selfe before the Lorde. 35 The armie of Sennacherib is slayne of the angell of the Lorde, 38 and he hym selfe is killed of his owne sonnes.

A 1 AND Hezekia heard that, he rent his clothes, 4.Reg.19.a. *and put on sackcloth, and went into the temple of the Lorde.

2 But he sent Eliakim the chiefe ouer the housholde, Sobna the scribe, Iona.iij.a. with the eldest preestes clothed in *sacke, vnto the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos,

3 And they sayde vnto hym, Thus saith Hezekia: This is the day of trouble, of plague, and of blasphemie: for the children are come to the place of birth, but there is no power to bryng them fourth.

4 The Lorde thy God [no doubt] hath well considered the wordes of Rabsakeh, whom his lorde kyng of the Assyrians hath sent to defie and blaspheme the lyuyng God, with such wordes as the Lorde thy God hath heard ryght well: and therfore lyft vp thy prayer for the remnaunt that yet are left.

5 So the seruauntes of the kyng Hezekia came to Esai,

6 And Esai gaue them this answere: Say thus vnto your lorde, Thus saith the Lord: Be not afraide of the wordes that thou hast heard, wherwith the kyng of the Assyrians seruauntes haue blasphemed me.

B 7 *Beholde, I wyll rayse vp a wynde Esai.xxxvij.b against him, & he shall heare a rumour, and he shall go agayne into his countrey, there wyll I destroy hym with the sworde in his owne lande.

1.Reg.18.c. 8 *Nowe when Rabsakeh returned, he founde the kyng of Assyria laying siege to Libnas: for he had vnderstandyng that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And there came a rumour that Tharakas kyng of Ethiopia was come fourth to warre against hym: and when the kyng of Assyria heard that, he sent other messengers to kyng Hezekia with this commaundement.

10 Say thus to Hezekia kyng of Juda: Let not thy God deceaue thee, in whom thou hopest, and sayest, Hierusalem shall not be geuen into the handes of the kyng of Assyria.

11 For lo, thou knowest well howe the kynges of Assyria haue handled all the landes that they haue subuerted: and hopest thou to escape?

12 Were the people of the gentiles whom my progenitours conquered, deliuered at any tyme through their gods? *[As namely] Gosan, Haran, Rezeph, and 3.Reg.17.a. the children of Eden, which were at Thalassar?

13 Where is the king of Hemath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the citie Sepharuaim, Ena, and Aua?

14 Nowe when Hezekia had receaued C the letter of the messengers, and read it, he went vp into the house of the Lorde, and opened the letter before the Lorde,

15 And Hezekia prayed vnto the Lorde [on this maner.]

16 O Lorde of hoastes, thou God of Is- Exo.xxv.c rael, which dwellest vpon *Cherubim, thou art the God that only is God of all the kingdomes of the world, for thou Gen.i.a. only hast *created heauen and earth. Baruc.i.c.

17 *Enclyne thine eare Lorde, and consider, open thyne eyes Lorde and see, and ponder all the wordes of Sennacherib, which hath sent his embassage to blaspheme the lyuyng God.

18 It is true O Lorde that the kynges of Assyria haue conquered all kyngdomes and landes, 19 And cast their gods in the fire: for those were no gods, but the workes of mens handes, of wood or stone, therfore haue they destroyed them.

20 Nowe therfore deliuer O vs Lord our God from the handes of Sennacherib, that all the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou only art the Lorde.

21 Then Esai the sonne of Amos sent vnto Hezekia, saying, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel: Wheras thou hast made thy prayer vnto me as touching Sennacherib the king of Assyria,

22 This is the answere that the Lorde hath geuen concernyng hym: Dispised art thou and mocked O daughter Sion, he hath shaken his head at thee

23 But

O daughter of Hierusalem.

Zach. ii.b. Mat xxv.d. Act.ix.c.

23 But thou Semacherib, *whom hast thou defied and blasphemed: Agaynst whom hast thou lifted vp thy voyce, and exalted thy proude lokes: euen agaynst the holy one of Israel.

O 24 Thou with thy seruauntes hast blasphemed the Lorde, and thus holdest thou of thy selfe: I wyll couer the hye mountaynes and sydes of Libanus with my horsemen, and there wyll I cut downe the hye Cedar trees, and the fayrest Firre trees: I wyll vp in the heyght of it, and into the chiefest of his tymber woods.

25 If there be no water, I wyll graue and drynke: and as for waters of defence, I wyll drye them vp with the feete of myne hoast.

26 Yea, hast thou not hearde what I haue taken in hande and brought to passe of olde tyme: That same wyll I do nowe also, and waste, destroy, and bryng strong cities vnto heapes of stones.

27 For their inhabitours shalbe like lame men brought in feare and confounded: they shalbe lyke grasse and greene herbes in the fielde, lyke the hay vpon house toppes, that wytthereth before it be growen vp.

28 I knowe thy wayes, thy going foorth, and thy comming home, yea and thy madnesse agaynst me.

E 29 Therfore thy furiousnesse agaynst me, and thy pride is come before me, I wyll put my ryng in thy nose, and my bridle bit in the iawes of thee, and turne thee about euen the same way thou camest.

3 I wyll geue thee also this token [O Hezekia] this yere shalt thou eate such as groweth of it selfe, and the seconde yere that which springeth agayne of the same, & in the thirde yere ye shall sowe and reape, yea ye shall plant vineyardes, and enioy the fruites therof.

31 And such of the house of Iuda as are escaped shall come together, and the remnaunt shall take roote beneath, and bryng fooryth fruite aboue.

32 For the escaped shall go out of Hierusalem, and the remnaunt from the mount Sion: and this shall the zeale of the Lorde of hoastes bryng to passe.

33 Therfore thus saith the Lorde concernyng the kyng of the Assyrians: He shall not come into this citie, and shall shoote no arrowe into it, there shall no shielde hurt it, neither shall they cast ditches about it.

34 The same way he came he shall returne, and not come at this citie, saith the Lorde.

35 And I wyll kepe and saue this citie (saith he) for myne owne and for my seruaunt Dauids sake.

36 *Thus the angell of the Lorde went foorth, and slue of the Assyrians hoaste an hundred fourescore and fiue thousande: and when men arose vp early in the morning, beholde they were slayne, and all lay full of dead bodyes. 4.Reg 19.g. Eccle 48.d. Esa.37.b. 2.Mac.15.d.

37 So Sennacherib the kyng of the Assyrians brake vp & dwelt at Ninue.

38 Afterwarde it chaunced as he prayed in the temple of Nesroch his God, that Adramalech and Sarazer his owne sonnes slue hym with the swoorde, and fled into the lande of Armenia: and Asarhaddon his sonne raigned in his steede.

The .xxxviij. Chapter.

1 Hezekia is sicke vnto death, 5 but is yet restored by the Lorde, and liueth fifteene yeres after: 10 for which benefice he geueth thankes.

A 1 4.Reg 20.a. 2.Par.34.f.

About this tyme was Hezekia sicke vnto death, * and the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos came vnto hym, and sayde, Thus commaundeth the Lorde: Set thyne house in order, for thou must dye, and shalt not escape.

2 Then Hezekia turned his face toward the wall, and prayed vnto the Lorde,

3 And sayde: Remember O Lorde I beseche thee, that I haue walked before thee in trueth and a stedfast heart, & haue done the thyng that is pleasaunt to thee. And Hezekia wept sore.

4 Then sayde God vnto Esai,

5 Go and speake vnto Ezekia: The Lord God of Dauid thy father sendeth thee this worde, I haue hearde thy prayer, and considered thy teares: *beholde I wyll put fifteene yeres mo vnto Iona.iii.b.

to thy lyfe,
6 And deliuer thee and the citie also from the hande of the kyng of Assyria: for I wyll defende the citie.
7 *And take thee this token of the Lord, that he wyll do it as he hath spoken.
4.Reg 20.
8 Beholde, I wyll returne the shadowe of Ahaz diall that nowe is layde out with the sunne, and bring it ten degrees backwarde: *So the sunne turned ten degrees backwarde, the whych he was descended afore.
Iosu.x.c.

9 A thankesgeuyng which Ezechia kyng of Juda wrote, when he had ben sicke and was recouered.

10 I thought I shoulde haue gone to the gates of hell when myne age was shortened, and haue wanted the residue of my yeres.
11 I spake within my selfe, I wyll neuer visite the Lorde [the Lorde I say] in this lyfe: I wyll neuer see man among the dwellers of the worlde.
12 Myne age is folden together & taken away from me lyke a sheepheardes cotage, I haue hewen of my lyfe by my sinnes, lyke as a weauer cutteth of his webbe: he wyll with pinyng sickenesse make an ende of me, yea he wyll make an ende of me in one day.
Leb. 4.b.
13 *I thought I woulde haue lyued vntyll the morowe, but he bruised my bones lyke a lion: and in one day thou wylt make an ende of me.
14 Then chattered I lyke a swallowe, and lyke a crane, and mourned lyke a doue, I lift vp mine eyes into the heyght: O Lorde [sayde I] my sickenesse kepeth me downe, ease thou me.
15 What shall I say: The Lorde hath made a promise to me, yea and he hym selfe hath performed it: I shall therefore so long as I lyue remember this bitternesse of my lyfe.
16 O Lorde, to all those that shall lyue hereafter, yea to all men shall it be knowen, that euen in those yeres I haue a ioyfull lyfe, and that it was thou that causedst me to sleepe agayne, thou hast geuen lyfe to me.
17 Beholde, bitter as gall was my pensiuenesse, so fore longed I for health, and it was thy pleasure to deliuer my lyfe from the filthy pit: for thou it is [O Lorde] that hast cast all my sinnes behynde thy backe.
18 *For hell prayseth not thee, death doth not magnifie thee: they that go downe into the graue prayse not thy trueth:
D Psal.vi.a. lxxvi.b. cxv.b.
19 But the lyuyng, yea the lyuyng knowledge thee, as I do this day: the father telleth his children of thy faythfulnesse.
20 *To heale me it is the Lordes worke, and we will sing my songes in the house of the Lorde all the dayes of our lyfe.
Luc.i.g.
21 And Esai sayde: Take a plaster of figges, and lay it vpon the sore, so shall it be whole.
22 Then sayd Hezekia: O what a miracle is this, that I shall go vp vnto the house of the Lorde.

¶ The. xxxix. Chapter.

; Hezekia is reproued of Esai, because he shewed his treasure vnto the embassadours of Babylon.

A 1 T *the same tyme Merodach Baladan, Baladans sonne kyng of Babylon, sent letters and presentes to Hezekia: for he vnderstoode that he had ben sicke, and was recouered agayne.
4.Reg.xx.c.
2 *And Hezekia was glad therof, and shewed them the house of his treasures of siluer and golde, of spices, and rootes, of precious oyles, & all that was in his cubbordes and treasure houses: there was not one thyng in Hezekias house, and so throughout all his kyngdome, but he let them see it.
4.Reg.xx.e.
3 Then came Esai the prophete to kyng Hezekia, and sayde vnto hym: what haue the men sayde, and from whence came they vnto thee: Hezekia answered, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon.
4 Esai sayde, what haue they loked vpon in thy house: Hezekia answered, All that is in my house haue they seene, and there is nothyng in my treasure but I shewed it them.
5 Then sayde Esai vnto Hezekia: Vnderstande the worde of the Lorde of hoastes:
6 *Beholde, the tyme wyll come that euery thyng which is in thyne house, and all that thy progenitours haue layde vp in store vntyll this day, shalbe caryed to Babylon, and nothing left behynde, thus saith the Lorde.

7 Yea and part of thy sonnes that shall come of thee, & whom thou shalt beget, shalbe caryed hence, and become gelded chamberlaynes in the kyng of Babylons court.

8 Then sayde Hezekia to Esai, Good is the worde of God which thou hast tolde me. He sayd moreouer, For there shalbe peace and faythfulnesse in my tyme.

3 The commyng of saint John Baptist. 9 The preparation of the Apostles. The callyng of the Gentiles.

A 1 Comfort my people [O ye prophetes] comfort my people, saith your God,

2 Comfort Hierusalem at the heart, and tell her, that her trauayle is at an ende, that her offence is pardoned, that she hath receaued at the Lordes hande sufficient correction for all her sinnes.

Mat.iii.a. Mar.i.a. Luk.iii.a. Ioh.i.c. Esa.lvii.c.

3 *A voyce crieth in wyldernesse: Prepare the way of the Lorde, make straight the path of our God in the desert.

4 All valleys shalbe exalted, and euery mountayne and hyll layde lowe: What is crooked shalbe made straight, and the rough shalbe made playne.

5 *For the glorie of the Lorde shall appeare, for all flesshe shall at once see that the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken it.

Ioh.x.b.

6 The same voyce spake: Crye. And the prophete answered, What shall I crye: *That all flesshe is grasse, and that all the goodlinesse therof is as the floure of the fielde.

Psal.xc. Iacob.i.c. 1.Pet.i.b. Eccle.xlvii.b

7 The grasse is withered, the floure falleth away, for the breath of the Lord bloweth vpon them: of a trueth the people are grasse.

8 The grasse withereth, and the floure fadeth away: *yet the worde of our God endureth for euer.

Psal.ix.b. and.cxvii. 1.Pet.i.d. Iacob.i.b.

9 Go vp vnto the hye hyll O Sion thou that bryngest good tidinges, lyft vp thy voyce with power O thou preacher Hierusalem, lyft vp without feare, & say vnto the cities of Juda: Beholde your God, 10 Beholde ỹ Lorde God shal come with power, and shall of him selfe beare rule with his arme: beholde his rewarde with hym, and his workes before hym.

11 He shall feede his flocke like an heardman, he shall gather the lambes together with his arme, and cary them in his bosome, and shall kyndly intreate those that beare young.

12 Who hath measured the waters in his fist: who hath measured heauen with his spanne, and hath comprehended all the earth of the worlde in three measures: who hath wayed the mountaynes and hylles in a ballaunce:

13 Who hath directed the spirite of the Lorde: *or who gaue hym counsayle, and shewed hym: Sapi.ix.b. Rom.xi.b.

14 Who is of his counsayle, and geueth hym vnderstandyng, and hath taught hym the path of iudgement: Who taught hym cunnyng, and opened to hym the way of vnderstandyng:

15 Beholde, all people are in comparison of hym as a droppe of a bucket full, and are counted as the least thyng that the ballaunce wayeth: yea and the Iles he taketh vp as a very litle thyng.

16 Libanus is not sufficient to minister fire to his offeryng, and all the beastes therof are not inough for one sacrifice.

17 All people in comparison of hym are reckened as nothyng: *yf they be compared with hym, lesse then nothyng, and as it that is not. Psal.lxii.d.

18 To whom then will ye lyken God: or what similitude will ye set vp to him:

19 Shall the caruer make hym a carued image: and shall the goldesmith coller hym with golde, or cast hym into a fourme of siluer plates:

20 Moreouer, shal the image maker that the poore man which is disposed may haue some thyng to set vp also, seeke out and choose a tree that is not rotten, and carue thereout an image that moueth not:

21 Knowe ye nothyng? hearde ye neuer of it: hath it not ben preached to you sunce the beginning: haue ye not ben enfourmed of this by the foundation of the earth:

22 It is he that sitteth vpon the circle of the world, whose inhabiters are [in comparison of him] but as grashoppers: *he spreadeth out the heauens as a couering, he stretcheth them out as a tent to dwell in. Esai.xl.iii.d.

23 He bringeth princes to nothing, and the iudges of the earth as though they were not.

24 So that of them it may be sayde, they be not planted nor sowne agayne, neither their stocke rooted agayne in the earth: for assoone as he bloweth vpon them, they wither and fade away lyke the strawe in a whirle winde.

25 To whom nowe will ye liken me, and whom shall I be lyke, sayth the holy one?

26 Lift vp your eyes on high, and consider * who hath made those thinges which come out by so great heapes, and Psal.cxlvii.a

he calleth them al by their names: there is nothing hid from the greatnesse of his power, strength, and might.

27 Howe may then Jacob thinke, or may Israel say, My wayes are hid from the Lord, and my God knoweth not of my iudgementes:

28 Knowest thou not, or hast thou not hearde that the euerlasting God, the Lorde whiche made all the corners of the earth, is neither weerie nor fainte: and that his wysdome can not be comprehended:

29 It is he that geueth strength vnto the weerie, and power vnto the faint.

30 Children are weerie and faint, and the strongest men fall:

31 *But vnto them that haue their trust in the Lorde, shall strength be increased: Egles winges shall growe vpon them, when they runne they shall not fall, and when they go they shall not be weerie. Iere.xvii.d.

The. xlj. Chapter.

1 Of the goodnesse and mercy of God towarde the people.

A (a) By the Ilandes God meaneth the gentiles, whō he ministreth for their idolatrie.

1 BE styll you * Ilandes and hearken vnto me: let the people lay their strength together, let them come hither, and then shew their cause: we will go to the lawe together.

(b) By the iust man, is ment Abraham, who being called out of Ur of the Chaldeans, who being iustified by faith became the father of many nations, whom God alwayes defended against all his enemyes.

2 Who raysed vp the (b) iust man from the east, and called hym to go foorth: who cast downe the people, and subdued the kynges before hym: that he may throw them al to the ground with his sworde, and scatter them lyke stubble with his bowe.

3 He followeth vpon them, and goeth safely hym selfe, & that in a way where before his foote had not troden.

4 Who hath made and created these thinges: euen he that called the generations from the beginning, * euen I the Lorde whiche am the first, and with the last. Esai.xliii.a. and.xlviii.c. Apoc.i.b.

5 The Iles sawe and did feare, and the endes of the earth were abashed, drewe nye, and came hither.

6 Euery man helped his neighbour, and sayd to his brother, be strong.

7 The carpenter comforted the goldsmith, and the goldsmith the hammerman, saying, solder will do very well in it: and they fastened it with nayles, that it shoulde not be moued. 25

8 But thou Israel art my seruaunt, thou Jacob whom I haue chosē, thou art the seede of Abraham my beloued.

9 Thou art he whom I led from the endes of the earth: for I called thee euen from among the glorious men of it, and sayd vnto thee, Thou art my seruaunt, I haue chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 *Be not afraide, for I am with thee: Esai.xliii.b.
Melt not away as ware, for I am thy God to strength thee, helpe thee, and kepe thee with the right hande of my righteousnesse.

11 Beholde, all they that resist thee shall come to confusion and shame, and thine aduersaries shalbe destroyed & brought to naught.

12 So that who so seeketh after them, shall not finde them, thy destroyers shall perishe: and so shall they that vndertake to make battayle against thee be as that is not, & as a thing of naught.

13 For I the Lorde thy God wyll strengthen thy right hande, euen I that say vnto thee, Feare not, I wyll helpe thee.

14 Be not afraide thou litle wormme Jacob, and thou despised Israel: for I wil helpe thee saith the Lorde, and the holy one of Israel thy redeemer.

15 Beholde, I will make thee a treading tart and a newe flaile, that thou mayest threshe and grinde the mountaines, and bring the hilles to powder.

16 Thou shalt fanne them, and the winde shall carrie them away, and the whirle winde shall scatter them: but thou shalt reioyce in the Lorde, and shalt delight in the holy one of Israel.

Gene.xxi.c. 17 *When the thirstie and poore seeke water and finde none, and when their tongue is drye of thirst, I geue it them saith the Lorde, I the God of Israel forsake them not.

Esa.xxxv.b. xliii.xli.a. 18 *I bring foorth fluddes in the hilles, and welles in the playne fieldes: I turne the wildernesse to ryuers, and the drye lande to conduites of water.

19 I plant in the waste grounde trees of Cedar, Bore, Myrre, and Olyues, and in the drie I set Firre trees, Elmes, and Hawthornes together.

20 That this do I, that they altogether may see and marke, perceaue with their heartes and consider that the hande of the Lorde maketh these thinges, and that the holy one of Israel bringeth them to passe.

21 Stande at your cause saith the Lord, & bring foorth your strongest grounde, saith the kyng of Jacob.

22 Let them bring foorth their gods, and let their gods tel vs what shall chaunce hereafter, yea let them shewe vs the thinges that are past what they be, let them declare them vnto vs, that we may take them to heart, and knowe them hereafter.

23 Either shewe vs thinges for to come, and tell vs what shall be done hereafter, so shall we know that ye are gods: do somethyng either good or bad, so wyl we both knowledge the same, and tell it out. D

24 Beholde ye are gods of naught, and your making is of naught: yea abhomible is the man that hath chosen you.

25 Neuertheles, *I haue waked vp one from the north, and he shall come from the east, he shal call vpon my name, and shall treade vpon princes as vpon clay, and as the potter treadeth downe the mire. Esa.xliii.a. Cyrus.

26 Who declared this from the beginning, and we will knowe hym: or from the olde times, and we wil confesse and say that he is righteous? but there is none that sheweth or declareth any thyng, there is none also that heareth your wordes.

27 The first is he that shall say to Sion, beholde, beholde, they are present: and to Hierusalem it selfe wyll I geue an euangelist.

28 But when I consider, there is not a man among them, nor any that can geue counsayle, nor that when I examine them that can aunswere one worde.

29 Lo wicked are they, and vayne, with the thinges also that they take in hand, yea their images are but winde and vayne thinges.

The comming of Christe.

A 1 Beholde *this is my seruaunt vpon whom I leane, my elect in whō my soule is pacified: I haue geuen my spirite vpon him, that he may shewe foorth iudgement among the gentiles. *Math.iii.b. xii.a. xvii.a.

2 He shall not be an outcryer, nor lift vp his voyce, his voyce shall not be hearde in the streetes.

3 And a broosed reede shall he not breake, and the smoking flaxe shall he not quench: but faythfully and truely shall he geue iudgement.

4 He shall not be pensiue nor carefull, that he may restore righteousnesse vnto the earth: and the gentiles also shall loke for his lawes.

Esai. xl.c. and xliii c.

5 *For thus saith God the Lorde vnto hym, euen he that made the heauens and spread them abroade, and set foorth the earth with her increase, Whiche geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and spirite to them that dwell therein,

6 I the Lorde haue called thee in righteousnesse, and wyll holde thee by the hande, *and wyll also defende thee, and geue thee for a couenaunt of the people, to be the *light of the gentiles.

10 Sing vnto the Lorde a newe song of thankesgeuing, blowe out his prayse from the ende of the worlde: they that be vpon the sea, and all that is therein prayse hym, the Iles and they that dwell in them.

11 Let the wildernesse with the cities lift vp her voyce, the townes also that they of Cedar dwell in: let them be glad that sit vpon rockes of stone, and let them crye downe from the high mountaines, 12 Ascribing glory vnto the Lorde, and magnifying hym among the gentiles.

ℭ 13 The Lorde shall come foorth lyke a giaunt, and take a stomacke to him like a fresshe man of warre: he shall roare and crye, and ouercome his enemies.

14 I haue long holden my peace [saith the Lorde] (a) I haue ben styll and refrained my selfe, but now I wyll crye like a trauayling woman, and at once wyll I destroy and deuour.

16 I wyll bryng the blinde into a streete that they know not, and leade them into a foote path that they are ignorant in: I shall make darknesse light before them, and the thing that is crooked to be straight: These things haue I done vnto them, and not forsaken them.

5 Christe promiseth to deliuer his Churche, without any her desertes.

A 1 SO heare nowe O Jacob my seruaunt, and Israel whom I haue chosen.

2 For thus saith the Lorde that made thee, fashioned thee, and helped thee euen from thy mothers wombe: Be not afraide O Jacob my seruaunt, thou righteous whom I haue chosen:

Esai. xl.b. and xlviii.c. 3 *For I shall powre water vpon the drye grounde, and riuers vpon the thirste: *I shall powre my spirite vpon thy seede, and my blessing vpon thy stocke:

Eze. xxxvi.d Joel. ii.f. Acts. ii.b. 4 They shall growe together lyke as the grasse, and as the willowes by the waters side.

5 One shal say, I am the Lordes: another shall call hym selfe after the name of Jacob: the thirde shall subscribe with his hande vnto the Lorde, and geue hym selfe vnder the name of Israel.

6 Thus hath the Lorde spoken, euen the kyng of Israel, and his redeemer the Lorde of hoastes: *I am the first and the last, and besides me there is no God.

Esai. xli.a. Apoc. i.b. Esai. xlviii.c. Apo. xxii.c. Esai. xliv.b. 7 If any be like me, let hym call foorth the thing past, and openly shewe it, and lay it playne before me, What hath chaunced since I appointed the people of the worlde, and what shalbe shortly, or what shal come to passe [in tyme long to come] let them shewe these thinges:

8 Be not abashed nor afraide: for haue not I euer tolde you hitherto and warned you? ye can beare me recorde your selues: is there any God except me, or any maker, that I should not know hym?

9 All caruers of images are but vayne, and the carued images that they loue can do no good: they must beare recorde them selues, that seeing they can neither see nor vnderstande, they shalbe confounded.

Esai. xlv.b. 10 *Who dare then make a god, or fashion an image that is profitable for nothing?

Sapi. xiii.c. 11 *Beholde, all the felowship of them must be brought to confusion, & truely all the workemasters of them are men: they shal all be gathered together, they shall stand, tremble, and be confounded one with another.

12 The smith maketh an axe, and tempereth it with hotte coales, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with all the strength of his armes, yea sometime he is faynte for very hunger, and so thirste that he hath no more power.

13 The carpenter or image caruer taketh measure of the timber, and spreadeth foorth his line, he marketh it with some colour, he playneth it, he ruleth it, and squareth it, and maketh it after the image of a man, and according to the beaute of a man, that it may stande in the house.

14 Moreouer, he goeth out to hewe Cedar trees, he bringeth home Elmes and Okes, and taking a bolde courage, he seeketh out the best timber of the wood: he hym selfe hath planted a Pine tree, whiche the rayne hath swelled, 15 which wood serueth for men to burne: Of this he taketh and warmeth hym selfe withall, he maketh a fire of it to bakebread, and maketh also a god therof to honour it, and a grauen image to kneele before it.

16 One peece he burneth in the fire, with another he rosteth flesh, that he may eate roste his belly full: with the thirde he warmeth hym selfe, and saith, Aha, I am well warmed, I haue ben at the fire.

17 And of the residue he maketh hym a god, and grauen image for him selfe: he kneeleth before it, he worshippeth it, he prayeth vnto it, and saith, Deliuer me, for thou art my god.

18 *Yet men neither consider nor vnderstande, because their eyes be stopped that they can not see, and their heartes that they can not perceaue. Esai. xlv. c.

19 They ponder not in their mindes, for they haue neither knowledge nor vnderstanding to thinke thus: I haue burnt one peece in the fire, I haue baked bread with the coales thereof, I haue rosted flesshe withall, and eaten it: and I wyll nowe of the residue make an abhominable idoll, and fall downe before a rotten peece of wood.

20 Thus doth he but lose his labour, and his heart whiche is deceaued doth turne hym aside, so that none of them can haue a free conscience to thinke, Do not I erre?

21 Consider this O Jacob and Israel, for thou art my seruaunt: I made thee that thou mightest serue me, O Israel forget me not.

Esai.xliii.d. 22 *As for thyne offences I haue driuen them away lyke the cloudes, and thy sinnes as the mist: Turne thee agayne vnto me, for I haue redeemed thee.

23 Be glad ye heauens, for the Lorde hath dealt graciously with his people, let all that is here beneath vpon the earth be ioyfull: reioyce ye mountaines and woods, with all the trees thereof, for the Lorde hath redeemed Jacob, and wyll shewe his glory vpon Israel.

24 Thus saith the Lorde thy redeemer, euen he that fashioned thee from thy mothers wombe: *I the Lorde do all thinges my selfe alone, I only spreade out the heauens, and I only haue laide abrode the earth by my owne selfe. Gene i.a. Esai.xlv.c.

28 He saith of Cyrus, he is my heardman, so that he shall fulfill all thinges after my wyll: he saith also of Hierusalem, it shalbe buylded, and of the temple, it shalbe fast grounded.

The. xlv. Chapter.

1 The deliuerance of the people by Cyrus. 20 The comming of Christe, and the calling of the gentiles.

A 1 Thus saith the Lorde vnto Cyrus his annointed, whō I haue taken by the right hande, to subdue nations before hym: *I wyl loose the (a) loynes of kinges, and I wyl open the gates before his face, and the gates shall not be shut. *Esdr i.a. (a) The lowest, that is the power and strength.

2 I wyll go before thee, and make the crooked straight: I shall breake the brasen doores, and burst the iron barres.

3 I shall geue thee hid treasures and the thing whiche is secretly kept: that thou mayest know that I am the Lord God of Israel, whiche haue called thee by thy name.

Gene.xxi.a. 4 *For Jacob my seruauntes sake, and for Israel my chosen, I called thee by thy name, and ordayned thee or euer thou knewest me.

Esai.xlv.g. 5 *I am the Lord, and there is none other, for without me there is no God: *I haue prepared thee or euer thou knewest me. Iere.i.a.

6 Therfore they shall knowe from the rising of the sunne, vnto the going downe of the same, that all is nothing without me: for I am the Lorde, and there is els none.

7 It is I that *created light and darknesse, *I make peace and trouble: yea euen I the Lorde do all these thinges. Gene i.a. Iudit xx.b.

8 Ye heauens from aboue drop downe, and let the cloudes rayne righteousnesse: the earth open it selfe, let saluation and righteousnesse growe forth, let it bring them forth together: I the Lorde haue created him.

9 *Woe be vnto hym that striueth with his maker, let the potsherde strue with the potsherdes of the earth: Saieth the clay to the potter, What makest thou? or, thy worke is not perfectly done. Esai.xxix.c. Iere.xviii.c. and xix.c. Rom.ix.c Eccle.xxxiii.b.

10 Woe be vnto hym that saieth to his father, What begettest thou? and to his mother, What bearest thou?

11 Thus saith the Lorde, euen the holy one and maker of Israel: Aske me of thinges for to come concerning my sonnes, and put me in remembraunce as touching the workes of my handes.

12 I haue

12 I haue made the earth, and created man vpon it: with my handes haue I spread foorth heauen, and geuen a commaundement for all the hoast thereof.

13 I shall wake hym vp with righteousnesse, and order all his wayes: *he shall buylde my citie, and let out my prisoners, and that neither for gyftes nor rewardes saith the Lorde of hoastes. 1.Esdr.i.a.

¶ 14 Thus saith the Lorde, The occupiers of Egypt, the marchauntes of the Ethiopians and Sabees, shall come vnto thee with tribute, they shalbe thyne, they shall folowe thee, and go with chaines vpon their feete, they shall fall downe before thee, and make supplication vnto thee: for God without whom there is none other God, shalbe with thee.

Rom.xi.d. 15 *O howe profounde art thou O God, thou God and sauiour of Israel:

16 Confounded are they all and put to dishonour, thei are gone hence together with shame, euen the makers of images.

17 But Israel shalbe saued in the Lord with an euerlasting saluation: ye shall not come to shame nor confusion world without ende.

Gene.i.a. 18 For thus saith the Lorde, *Euen he that created heauen, the God that made the earth & fashioned it, and set it foorth, he dyd not make it for naught, but to be inhabited, euen I the Lorde, without whom there is none other.

19 *I haue not spoken secretly, neither in darke places of the earth: I sayde not in vayne to the seede of Jacob, seeke me: I am the Lorde, whiche when I speake, do declare the thing that is righteous and true. Exod.xx.c

20 Gather you and come together, drawe nigh hither you that escaped of the people: *they haue no vnderstanding that set vp the stockes of their idols, and pray vnto a god that can not helpe them. Esai.xlv.c. Baruc.vi.c.

21 Drawe nye, come hyther, and let them D aske counsaile one at another, and shew foorth what is he that told this before: or who spake of it euer since the beginning? haue not I the Lorde done it? *without whom there is none other God, the true God and sauiour, and there is els none but I. Esai.xlv.b.

22 *And therfore turne you vnto me, all ye endes of the earth, that ye may be saued: for I am God, and there is els none. Esai.xlv.a.b

23 I sweare by my self, out of my mouth commeth the worde of righteousnesse, and that may no man turne: *but all knees shall bowe vnto me, and all tongues shall sweare [by my name,] Rom.xiiij.b Philip.a.

24 Saying: verily in the Lorde is my righteousnesse and strength, to hym shall men come: but all they that thinke scorne of him shalbe confounded.

25 And the whole seede of Israel shalbe iustified, and glory in the Lorde.

The. xlvi. Chapter.

1 Idolatrie is reproued. 3 The healthy that commeth by Christe is prophesied.

A 1 Bel.c. i.Reg.xv.a. Iere.l.a. BEl *is fallen, Nabo is broken downe, whose images were a burthen for the beastes and cattell, to ouerlade them, and to make them weerie.

2 They are sunke downe and fallen together, for they may not ease them of their burthen, therfore must they go into captiuitie.

3 Hearken vnto me O house Jacob, and all ye that remaine yet of the house of Israel, whom I haue borne from your mothers wombe, and brought you vp from your byrth.

4 'It is euen I whiche shall beare you vnto your last age: I haue made you, I will also norishe you, beare you, and saue you.

5 *Whom will ye make me lyke, or to whom will ye make me equall or compare me, that I shoulde be like him? Exod.xx.a.

6 *Take out siluer and gold out of your purses, and way it, and hyre a goldesmith to make a god of it, that men may kneele downe and worshyp it: Exo.xxxiij.a B

7 *Yet must he be taken on mens shoulders and borne, and set in his place, that he may stande, and not moue out of his place: And if one crye vnto hym, he geueth no answere, and deliuereth not the man that calleth vpon hym from his trouble. Esai.xlviij.c Baruc.vi.c

8 Consider this well, and be ashamed: go into your owne selues.

9 Remember the thinges that are paſt ſince the begynning of the Worlde, that I am God, and that there is els no God, yea and that there is nothing like vnto me.

10 In the begynning of a thing I ſhewe the ende therof, & I tell before thinges that are not yet come to paſſe: My deuiſe ſtandeth ſtedfaſtly ſtabliſhed, and I fulfill all my pleaſure.

11 *I call a byrde out of the eaſt, and the man by whom my counſayle ſhalbe fulfilled out of ſtraunge countreys, as I haue ſpoken, ſo wyll I bryng to paſſe, aſſoone as I thinke to deuiſe a thing, I do it. Exod xvi.a.

12 Heare me O ye that are of an hye ſtomacke, but farre from righteouſneſſe:

13 I ſhall bryng foorth my righteouſneſſe, it is not farre, and my health ſhall not tary long away: I wyll lay health in Sion, and in Iſrael my glory.

¶ The. xlvij. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde againſt Babylon.

A 1 BVT as for thee O daughter, thou virgin Babylon, ſit thou downe in the duſt, ſit vpō the ground, there is no throne O thou daughter of Caldea, for thou ſhalt no more be called tender and pleaſaunt.

2 Bryng foorth the querne and grinde meale, vntruſſe thy broydred heere, put of thy ſhoes, make bare thy knees, and wade thorowe the water riuers.

Eze xvi.d. Nauum.iii.a. 3 *Thy filthyneſſe ſhalbe diſcouered, and thy prauities ſhalbe ſeene: for I wil auenge me of thee, and wyll ſhewe no mercy to thee, as I do to other men.

4 Our redeemer is called the Lorde of hoaſtes, the holy one of Iſrael.

5 Sit ſtill, holde thy tongue, get thee into ſome darke corner O daughter Caldea: for thou ſhalt no more be called lady of kyngdomes.

6 I was ſo wroth with my people, that I puniſhed myne inheritaunce, and gaue them into thy power, *neuertheleſſe thou ſhewedſt them no mercy, but euen the very aged of them diddeſt thou oppreſſe right ſore with the yoke. Pro.xxi.b Ecc.i.b.

B 7 And thou thoughteſt thus: I ſhalbe lady for euer, and beſide all that, thou haſt not regarded theſe thinges, neither remembred what was the ende of that title Hieruſalem.

8 Heare nowe therefore thou delicate one that ſitteſt ſo carelеſſe, and ſpeakeſt thus in thyne heart, *I am alone, and without me is there none, I ſhal neuer be widowe nor deſolate agayne. Eſai.xlvii.b. Apo.xviii.c

9 And yet both theſe thinges ſhal come to thee vpon one day, in the twincke-ling of an eye, *namely, widowhood and deſolation: they mightyly fall vpon thee, for the multitude of thy witches, and for the great heape of thy coniurers. Dani.v.e.

10 For thou haſt truſted in thy wickedneſſe, and haſt ſaid, *No man ſeeth me: thyne owne wiſdome and cunning hath deceaued thee, in that thou haſt ſayd in thyne heart, I am alone, and without me there is none. Eſai.xxix.c

11 Therefore ſhall trouble come vpon thee, and thou ſhalt not knowe from whence it ſhall ariſe: Miſchiefe ſhall fal vpon thee, which thou ſhalt not be able to put of, a ſodayne vtter deſtruction ſhall come vpon thee or euer thou be ware.

12 Nowe go to thy coniurers, and to the multitude of thy witches with whom thou haſt weeryed thy ſelfe from thy youth, if they may helpe thee or ſtrength thee.

C 13 Thou haſt hitherto had many counſayles of them: So let the heauen gaſers, and the beholders of ſtarres, and moone prophetes, come on nowe and deliuer thee, yea and let them ſhewe when theſe newe thinges ſhal come vpon thee.

14 Beholde, they ſhalbe lyke ſtrawe, whiche if it be kindeled with fire, no man may rid it for the vehemencie of the flambe, and yet it geueth no imbers to warme a man by, nor cleare fire to ſit by.

15 Thus are they with whom thou haſt weeried thy ſelf, and thus are thy marchauntes that haue ben with thee from thy youth: euery one hath taken his owne way, and none of them ſhall defende thee.

1 The hypocrisie of the Jewes is reproued. 11 The Lorde alone wyll be worshipped, which hath chosen vs, 20 and which succoureth vs for his owne sake.

A 1 HEare this O thou house of Jacob, ye that are called by the name of Israel, & are come out of one stocke with Juda: which sweare by the name of the Lorde, and beare witnesse by the God of Israel, but not with trueth and right.

Ephe.v.b. 2 For they are named * of the holy citie, and are grounded vpon the God of Israel, * whose name is the Lorde of hoastes.

Esai.b.c. and. hui.a. Iere xxxi.f.

3 The thynges that I haue shewed you euer since the begynnyng, haue I not brought them to passe immediatly as they came out of my mouth, and declared them, and they are come:

4 Howbeit I knowe that thou art obstinate, and that thy necke hath an iron sinowe, and that thy browe is of brasse.

5 Neuertheles, I haue euer since the begynnyng shewed thee of thynges for to come, and declared them vnto thee or euer they came to passe: that thou shouldest not say, myne idoll hath done it, my carued or molten image hath shewed it.

6 Thou heardest it before, and beholde it is come to passe: And shalt not ye your selues shewe forth or confesse the same? But as for me, I tolde thee before at the begynnyng newe and secrete thynges which thou knewest not of,

Esai. 48.c. 7 * And some done of olde tyme, Wherof thou neuer heardest before they were brought to passe, that thou canst not say, beholde I knewe of them.

9 Neuertheles, for my names sake I wyll withdrawe my wrath, and for my honours sake I will patiently forbeare thee, that I do not roote thee out.

Esai.xlii.a. xliii.b.4 xlviii.b.

12 Hearken vnto me O Jacob, and Israel whom I haue called: I am euen he that is, I am the first and the last.

13 My hande hath layde the foundation of the earth, and my right hande hath spanned ouer the heauens: assoone as I call them, they stande together.

14 Gather you altogether and hearken: which of yonder gods hath declared this? The Lorde hath a loue vnto him, and he shal performe his wyll against Babel, and declare his power against the Chaldees. C

15 I my selfe alone, euen I haue tolde you this, I dyd call him and bryng him forth, and he shall make his iourney prosperous.

16 Come to me and heare this: Haue I spoken any thyng darkly since the begynnyng? From the tyme that this thyng begynneth I am there: Wherefore the Lorde God and his spirite hath sent me.

17 And thus saith the Lorde God thy redeemer, the holy one of Israel: I am the Lorde thy God which teache thee * profitable thynges, and leade thee the way that thou shouldest go.

Rom.vii.b. i Tim.i.b. Tit.iii.b.

20 * Go away from Babylon, flee from the Chaldees, with a merry voyce speake of this, declare it abrode, and go forth into the ende of the worlde, say: The Lorde hath redeemed his seruaunt Jacob.

Iere.li.a. i.Esd.i.b.

¶ The. xlix. Chapter.

6 Christe shall gather together all nations be they neuer so farre of.

A 1 HEare me Iles, hearken vnto me, and take heede ye people from farre: The Lord hath called me from my birth, and made mention of my name from my mothers wombe:

Esa.li.c. Eph.vi.c. 2 *He hath made my mouth *like a sharpe sworde, vnder the shadowe of his hande hath he defended me, and hid me in his quiuer as a good arrowe,

3 And sayde vnto me: Thou art my seruaunt Israel, *I will be honoured in thee. Ioh.xvii.b.

4 Then I answered: I haue lost my labour, I haue spent my strength in vayne: Neuertheles, I will commit my cause and my worke vnto the Lorde my God.

5 *And nowe saith the Lorde, euen he that fashioned me from my mothers wombe to be his seruaunt, that I may bring Jacob agayne vnto hym, albeit Israel will not be gathered vnto hym agayne, yet in Gods sight shall I be glorious, my God shalbe my strength.

6 And he sayde: It is but a small thyng that thou art my seruaunt to set vp the kinredes of Jacob, and to restore the destruction of Israel: *For I haue made thee the lyght of the gentiles, that thou mayest be my health vnto the ende of the worlde. Esa.xlii.b. Ioh.viii.b. Act.xiii.c.

7 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde the redeemer and holy one of Israel, concernyng the abhorred & dispised among the gentiles, the seruaunt of them that beare rule, kynges and princes shall see and arise, and worship because of the Lorde that is faythfull, and because of the holy one of Israel that hath chosen thee.

8 And thus saith the Lorde: *In the tyme accepted haue I hearde thee, and in the day of saluation haue I helped thee: *I will preserue thee, and make thee to be the attonement of the people, that thou mayest helpe vp the earth againe, and possesse againe the desolate heritages. 2 Cor.vi.a. Iere.xii.a. Esai.xlix.a. Esai.xlii.a.

9 *That thou mayest say vnto the prisoners, go foorth, and to them that are in darknesse, come into the lyght: they shall feede thee in the hye wayes, and get their pasture in all hye places. Zach.ix.b. Luk.iii.b.

10 *They shall neither hunger nor thirst, heate nor sunne shall not hurt them: for he that fauoureth them shall leade them, and geue them drynke of the well springes. Apoc.vii.c.

11 I will make wayes vpon all my mountaynes, and my footpathes shalbe exalted.

12 And beholde, these shall come from farre, lo, some from the north and west, some from the lande of Sinis [which is in the south.]

13 *Reioyce ye heauens, and sing prayses thou earth, talke of ioy ye hylles: for God hath comforted his people, & will haue mercie vpon his that be in trouble. Esai.liii.a.

14 But Sion sayde: *God hath forsaken me, and my Lorde hath forgotten me. ℭ Rom.xi.a.

15 Will a woman forget her owne infant, and not pitie the sonne of her owne wombe? And though they do forget, yet will I not forget thee.

16 Beholde, I haue written thee vp vpon my handes, thy walles are euer in my syght.

17 They make haste who buildeth thee vp againe: as for those that ouerthrowe thee and make thee waste, they shall depart from thee.

18 *Lift vp thyne eyes and loke about thee, all these gather them together and come to thee: As truely as I lyue saith the Lorde, thou shalt put them all vpon thee as an apparell, and girde them to thee as a bride doth her iewels. Gen.xv.a. Esa.xl.a.

19 As for thy lande that lyeth desolate, wasted, and destroyed, it shalbe to narowe for them that shall dwell in it: and they that wouide deuoure thee, they shalbe farre away.

20 Then thy children whom the barren shall bring foorth, shall say in thine eare: This place is to narowe, geue place that I may haue roome.

21 Then

21 Then shalt thou thinke by thy selfe, who hath begotten me these, seeyng I am barren and alone, a captiue and an outcast: and who hath nouished them vp for me: I am desolate and alone, but from whence come these?

22 And therfore thus saith the Lorde God: Beholde, I wyll stretch out my hande vnto the gentiles, and set vp my token to the people, they shall bryng thee thy sonnes in their lappes, and cary thy daughters vnto thee vpon their shoulders.

23 For kynges shalbe thy nursyng fathers, and queenes shalbe thy nursyng mothers: They shall fall before thee with their faces flat vpon the earth, & lick vp the dust of thy feete: that thou mayest knowe howe that I am the Lorde, *and that who so putteth their trust in me shall not be confounded. Rom.ix.d.

24 Shall the spoyle be taken from the mightie? or the lawfull prisoner from the taker?

25 But thus saith the Lorde: The prisoners shalbe taken from the mightie, & the spoyle shalbe recouered from the violent: for I wyll mayntayne thy cause agaynst thine aduersaries, and I wyll saue thy sonnes.

26 And I wyll feede thine enemies with their owne flesh, & make them drunken with their owne blood, as with sweete wine: And all flesh shall knowe ✠ Jacob that I am the Lorde thy sauiour, thy noble redeemer.

The.L.Chapter.

1 The Jewes are reproued, and also called.

2 For why? Woulde no man receaue me when I came? and when I called, no man gaue me answere? *Is my hande shortened that it myght not helpe? or haue I not power to deliuer? lo, *at a worde I drynke vp the sea, *& of water fludds I make drye lande: so that for want of water the fishe corrupt and dye for thirste. 7 And the Lorde God shall helpe me, therfore shall I not be confounded: I haue therfore hardened my face lyke a flint stone, for I am sure that I shall not come to confusion. 25

8 He is at hande that iustifieth me, Who wyll then go with me to lawe? Let vs stande together, yf there be any that will reason with me? let hym come here forth to me.

10 Therfore Who so feareth the Lorde among you, let hym heare the voyce of his seruaunt: Who so walketh in darknesse and no lyght shyneth vpon hym, let hym put his trust in the name of the Lorde, and holde hym by his God.

11 But take heede, ye all kindle a fire, and shirre vp the coales: walke on in the glistryng of your owne fire, and in the coales that ye haue kindled: This commeth vnto you from my hande [namely] that ye shall sleepe in sorowe.

4 Haue respect vnto me then O my people both high & lowe, and lay thine eare vnto me: *for a lawe and an ordinaunce shall go foorth fro me, to lyghten the gentiles. Ffai.li.a.

5 Yt is harde by that my health and my ryghteousnesse shall go foorth, and the people shalbe ordered with mine arme: the ilandes [that is the gentiles] shall hope in me, and put their trust in myne arme.

Lyft vp your eyes towarde heauen, and loke vpon the earth beneath: *for the heauens shall vanyshe away lyke smoke, and the earth shal ware olde like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall perishe in lyke maner: But my saluation shall endure for euer, and my ryghteousnesse shall not ceasse. Pfal.ciii.d. Mat.xxiv.c. ii.Pet.iii.

18 For among all the sonnes whom he hath begotten, there is not one that may holde it vp, and not one to leade it by the hande of all the sonnes that he hath norished.

Both these thinges are happened vnto thee, but who is sory for it? yea destruction, wastyng, hunger, and sworde, but who wyll comfort thee?

20 Thy sonnes lye comfortlesse at the head of euery streete like a take venison, and are full of the terrible wrath of the Lorde, and punishment of thy God.

21 And therfore thou miserable and dronken drunken (howbeit not with wine) heare this:

22 Thus saith the Lorde, thy Lorde and God, the defendour of his people: Beholde, I wyll take the slumbryng cup out of his hande, euen the cup with the dregges of my wrath, that from henceforth thou shalt neuer drinke it more:

17 For brasse, wyll I geue thee golde, and for iron, siluer: for wood, brasse, and for stones iron: I wyll turne thyne oppression into peace, and thyne exactions into righteousnesse.

18 Violence and robberie shall neuer be hearde of in thy lande, neither harme and destruction within thy borders: thy walles shalbe called healthy, and thy gates the prayse of God.

19 *The sunne shall neuer be thy day light, and the light of the moone shall neuer shine vnto thee: but the Lorde him selfe shalbe thyne euerlasting light, and thy God shalbe thy glory. D

Apoc.xxi.a

20 *Thy sunne shall neuer go downe, and thy moone shall not be hid: for the Lorde hym selfe shalbe thyne euerlasting light, and thy sorowfull dayes shalbe ended.

Apoc.xxi.b

21 Thy people shalbe all righteous and possesse the lande euer, the floure of my planting, the worke of my hands wherof I wyll reioyce.

22 The youngest and least shall growe into a thousande, and the simplest into a strong people: I the Lorde shall shortlye bring this thyng to passe in his tyme.

¶ The. lxj. Chapter.

1 He prophesieth that Christe shalbe annoynted and sent to preache.

Matth.xv.a. and.xi.a.

2 That I might declare the acceptable yere of the Lorde, and the day of the vengeaunce of our God: *that I might comfort all them that are in heauinesse:

3 That I might geue vnto them that mourne in Sion, that I might geue [I say] beautie in steede of asshes, ioyfull oyntment for sighing, pleasaunt rayment ment for an heaule munde, that they might be called trees of righteousnesse, a planting of the Lorde for hym to re-ioyce in.

4 They shall buylde the long rough wildernesse, and set vp the olde desert:
they shall repayre the waste places, and suche as haue ben voyde throughe-out many generations.

5 Straungers shall stande and feede your cattell, and the alauntes shalbe your plowmen and dressers of your vines.

Esai.lxvi.a. Iere.xxxi.d. 6 *But ye shalbe named the prestes of the Lorde, and men shall call you the seruauntes of our God: ye shall enioy the goodes of the gentiles, and triumph in their substaunce.

7 For your great reproofe you shal haue double ioy, and for shame shall they haue ioy of their portion: for they shall haue double possession in their lande, and euerlasting ioy shalbe with them.

8 For I the Lorde whiche loue right and hate robberie (though it were offered me) shall make their workes full of faythfulnesse, and make an euerlasting couenaunt with them. 25

9 Their seede also and their generation shalbe knowen among the gentiles, and among the people: all they that see them, shall knowe that they are the hye blessed seede of the Lorde.

10 And therefore *I am ioyfull in the Lorde, and my soule reioyceth in God:
*For he hath put vpon me the garment of saluation, and couered me with the mantle of righteousnesse: *he shal decke me lyke a bridegrome, and as a bride that hath her apparell vpon her.

Luke ii.b. Psal.xxi.a. Ezec.xvi.b.

11 For like as the ground bringeth foorth her frute, and as the garden shooteth cause righteousnesse and prayse to floo-rishe foorth before all the heathen.

The.lxij. Chapter.

¶ I prophecie of the comming of Christe.

A 1 FOr Sions sake will I not holde my tongue, and for Hierusalems sake I will not ceasse, vntill their righteousnesse breake foorth as the shining light, and their saluation as a burning lampe.

2 Then shall the gentiles see thy righteousnesse, and all kynges thy glory:
Thou shalt be named with *a newe name, whiche the mouth of the Lorde shall shewe.

Iohn.i.a. Apoc.ii.c.

3 Thou shalt be a crowne in the hande of the Lorde, and a glorious garlande in the hande of thy God.

4 From this tyme foorth thou shalt neuer be called the forsaken, and thy lande shall no more be called the wildernesse:
but thou shalt be called, My pleasure is in her, and thy lande shalbe called,
The maried woman: for the Lorde lo-ueth thee, and thy land shalbe ioyned in Ezec.xvi.b. Osee.ii.c. Esai.liii.a.

5 *And lyke as a young man taketh a virgin to mariage, so shal thy sonnes be maried vnto thee: and as a bridegrome is glad of his bride, so shall thy God re-ioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue set watchmen vpon thy walles O Hierusalem, which shall neuther ceasse day nor night to preache the Lorde: and ye also that remember the Lorde, ye shall not kepe him close,

7 Nor leaue to speake of him, vntill Hie- 25 rusalem be set vp, and made the prayse of the worlde.

8 The Lorde hath swome by his right hand and by his strong arme, that from henceforth he will not geue thy corne to be meate for thyne enemies, nor thy wine wherein thou hast laboured, to be drinke for the straungers.

9 But they that haue gathered in the corne, shall eate it, and geue thankes to the Lorde: and they that haue borne in the wine, shall drinke it in the court of my sanctuarie.

10 Go you, go you thorowe the gates, make cleane the way for the people, make playne, make playne the foote path, and take away the stones out of it, and set out a token for the people.

11 Behold, the Lorde proclaymeth vnto the ends of the worlde, *tell the daughter Sion, See thy saviour commeth, behold he bringeth his recompence with hym, and his worke go before hym.

12 For they whom the Lorde deliuereth, shalbe called the *holy people: and as for thee, thou shalt be named the greatlye occupied, and not the forsaken citie.

The. lxiij. Chapter.

7 Of the redemption promised to the people.

A 1 What is he this that commeth frō Edom, with red coloured clothes from Bosra: he is honourablye arrayed, and commeth in mightyly with his power: I am he that teacheth righteousnesse, and am of power to helpe.

2 Wherefore then is thy clothing red, and thy rayment like his that treadeth in the wine presse?

3 I haue troden the presse my selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me: Thus will I treade them downe in my wrath, and set my feete vpon them in myne indignation, and their blood shal be sprong vpon my clothes, and so will I staine all my rayment.

4 *For the day of vengeaunce is assigned in my heart, and the yere when my people shalbe deliuered is come.

5 I loked about me, and there was no man to shewe me any helpe, I marueyled that no man helde me vp: Then I helde me by myne owne arme, and my feruentnesse sustayned me.

6 And thus will I treade downe the people in my wrath, and bathe them in my displeasure, and vpon the earth will I lay their strength.

7 *I will declare the goodnesse of the Lorde, yea and the prayse of the Lorde for all that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, whiche he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and according to the multitude of his louing kindnesses.

8 For he sayde, These no doubt are my people, and no shrinking children: and so was he their sauiour.

bled with them, and the angell that went forth from his presence deliuered them: of very loue and kindnesse that he had vnto them, he redeemed them, he hath borne them and caried them vp euer since the worlde began.

10 But after they prouoked hym to wrath and vexed his holy spirite, he was their enemie, and fought against them hym selfe.

11 Yet remembred Israel the olde time, of Moyses and his people, *saying: Where is he that brought them from the water of the sea, *with them that feede his sheepe? where is he that hath geuen his holy spirite among them?

12 He led them by the right hande of Moyses with his glorious arme, deuiding the water before them, whereby he gat him selfe an euerlasting name.

13 He led them in the deepe as an horse is led in the playne, that they shoulde not stumble.

14 As a tame beast goeth in the fielde, and the spirite of God geueth hym rest: thus (O God) hast thou led thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious name withall.

15 *Loke downe then from heauen, and beholde from the dwelling place of thy sanctuarie and thy glorie: howe is it that thy gelousie, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louing kindnesse will not be intreated of vs?

16 Yet art thou *our father: for Abraham knoweth vs not, neither is Israel acquainted with vs: but thou Lorde art our father and redeemer, and thy name is euerlasting.

17 O Lorde, wherefore hast thou led vs out of the way? *wherefore hast thou hardened our heartes that we feare thee not? Be at one with vs agayne for thy seruauntes sake, and for the generation of thyne heritage.

20 And shall bryng all your brethren for an offeryng vnto the Lorde out of all the people, vpon horses, charettes, and horslitters, vpon mules and cartes, to Hierusalem my holy hil saith the Lord: lyke as the children of Israel bryng the offeryng in cleane vessels to the house of the Lorde.

Esai.lxi.a. 1.Pet.ii.b. Rom.xii.a.

21 *And I shal take out certayne of them for to be prestes and Leuites, saith the Lorde.

22 For lyke as the newe heauen and the newe earth which I wyll make, shalbe fast stablished by me, saith the Lorde: so shall your seede & your name continue.

23 And it shall come to passe, that from moone to his moone, from Sabbath to his Sabbath, all flesshe shall come to worship before me, saith the Lorde.

24 And they shall go forth and loke vpon the carions of them that haue transgressed agaynst me: *for their wormes shall not dye, neither shall their fire be quenched, and all flesshe shall abhorre them. Matix.a.

The ende of the booke of the prophete Esai.

The booke of the prophete Ieremie.

¶ The first Chapter.

¶ The stocke of Jeremie, and in what tyme he prophecied, 5 He excuseth him selfe and woulde refuse the office of a prophete, because he is young and vnexpert, 8 He is taught of the Lorde and becommeth bolde, 11 God openeth vnto hym, that the destruction of the Jewes by the Babylonians is at hande, 17 Jeremie is commaunded to speake the worde of God vnto the Jewes without feare.

1 THese are the sermons of Jeremie the sonne of Helkiah the preest, one of them that dwelt at *Anathoth in the lande of Beniamin, Iere.xi.a.

2 when the Lorde had first spoken with hym in the tyme of Josiah the sonne of Amon kyng of Juda, in the .xiij. yere of his raigne:

3 And so duryng vnto the tyme of Jehoiakim the sonne of Josiah king of Juda, 4.Reg.25.a. *and vntyll the .xi. yere of Zedekiah the sonne of Josiah kyng of Juda were ended, When Hierusalem was taken, euen in the fifth moneth. Iere.39.a.

4 The Worde of the Lorde spake thus vnto me.

Esa.xliii.a. and xlvi.a. Psal.xxx.a. 5 *Before I fashioned thee in thy mothers wombe, I dyd knowe thee: and or euer thou wast borne, I sanctified thee, and ordeyned thee to be a prophete vnto the people.

Exod.iiii.c. Act.xx.c. 6 Then sayde I: *O Lorde God, I can not speake, for I am yet but young.

B 7 And the Lorde answered me thus: Say not so, I am to young: *for thou Mat.x.c. shalt go to all that I shall sende thee vnto, *and whatsoeuer I commaunde i.Cor.iii.a. thee, that shalt thou speake.

8 Be not afrayde of their faces: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the Lorde.

Psal.vi.a. Iere.xvii.a. 9 *And with that the Lorde stretched out his hande and touched my mouth: and the same Lorde sayde vnto me, Beholde, I put my wordes in thy mouth.

10 And beholde, this day do I set thee ouer the people and kyngdomes, that thou mayest roote out, breake of, destroy, and make waste, and that thou mayest builde vp and plant.

11 After this the Lorde spake vnto me, saying: Jeremie, what seest thou? And I sayd, *I see a rod of an Almond tree.

(a) God threateth to bring vpon the obstruction of the Iewes by the Babylonians to be at hande. 12 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me: thou hast seene right, for I will make haste speedyly vpon my Worde to performe it.

13 It happened afterwarde that the Lorde spake to me agayne, and sayde: What seest thou? and I sayde: I do see a seething *pot, looking from out of the north. Iob.xli.b.

14 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me: *Out of the north shall come a plague vpon all the dwellers of the lande. C Iere.xlii.b. and xxv.b.

15 For lo, *I will call all the kinredes of the kingdomes of the north, saith the Lorde: and they shall come, and euery one shall set his seate in the gates of Hierusalem, and in all their walles rounde about, and in all cities of Juda. Abac.i.b.

16 And through them shall I declare my iudgement, vpō all the wickednesse of those men that haue forsaken me, that haue burnt incense vnto straunge gods, and worshipped the workes of their owne handes.

17 *And therfore gyrde vp thy loynes, arise, and tell them all that I geue thee in commaundement: Feare them not, lest I destroy thee before them. Ezech.ii.a

18 *For beholde, this day do I make thee a strong fensed towne, an iron pyller, and a brasen wall, agaynst the whole lande, agaynst the kinges and mightie men of Juda, agaynst the priestes and people of the lande. Iere.xv.d.

19 They shall fight agaynst thee, but they shall not be able to ouercome thee: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the Lorde.

The.ij.Chapter.

2 God rehearseth his benefites done vnto the Jewes. 8 Agaynst priestes and prophetes or preachers that contempne and dispise God. 12 The Jewes are destroyed because they forsake God, and because they ranne a whore hunting after idols.

A 1 MOreouer, the Worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Go thy way, crye in the eares of Hierusalem, and say, Thus saith the Lorde: I remember thee, the kindnesse of thy youth, and the loue of thy despousyng, in that thou followedst me through the Wildernesse in an vntylled lande.

3 Israel was an halowed thyng vnto the Lorde, and was his first frutes: *All they that deuour Israel shall offende, misfortune shall fall vpon them, saith the Lorde. Iere.x.d. Zach.ii.d.

4 Heare therfore the Worde of the Lord O thou house of Jacob, and all the generations of the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lorde, What vnfaithfulnesse founde your fathers in me, that they went so farre away fro me, falling to lightnesse, and beyng so vayne?

6 They thought not in their hearts, Where is the Lord that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, *that led vs thorowe the Wildernesse, through a desert & rough lande, through a drye and deadly lande, yea a lande that no man had gone through, and wherin no man had dwelt? Exo.xiii.c.

7 *And when I had brought you into a pleasaunt fertile lande, that ye myght enioy the frutes & all the commodities of Deu.vi.b.

of the lande: ye went fooith and defiled my lande, and brought mine heritage to abhominatiõ.

B 8 The preistes them selues sayde not, where is the Lorde? They that had the lawe in their handes knewe me not, the sheepheardes offended agaynst me, the prophetes did prophecie in Baal, and followed such thinges as shal bring them no profite.

9 Wherfore I am constrayned, saith the Lorde, yet agayne to contende in iudgement with you, and with your children children.

10 Go into the Iles of Cethim, and loke well: sende vnto Cedar, take diligent heede, and see whether such thynges be done there, 11 Whether the gentiles them selues haue chaunged their gods which yet are no gods in deede? but my people hath chaunged their (a) honour for a thyng that may not helpe them.

(a) Honour, that is, the faithful and euerlyuyng God in whom only they ought to glorie.

12 Be astonished O ye heauens, be afraide and abashed at such a thyng, saith the Lorde.

13 For my people hath done two euils: they haue forsaken me the well of the *water of lyfe, and digged them pittes, yea vile and broken pittes that can holde no water.

Iere. xvii.b. Ioh iiii b. Exod.xx.d.

C 14 Is Israel a bonde seruaunt, or one of the household? Why is he thē so spoyled?

15 They roze and crye vpon him as lions, they haue made his lande waste: *his cities are so burnt vp, that there is no man dwellyng in them:

Esai. i.a.

16 Yea the children of Noph & Taphnes shall cracke their crowne.

17 *Commeth not this vnto thee because thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, euen when he led thee by the way?

Ier.xxxii.a.

18 And what hast thou nowe to do in the streete of Egypt, to drynke water out of (b) Nilus? Either what makest thou in the way to Assyria, to drynke water of the fludde?

(b) God reproueth the people for that they sought remedies, which are meant by the water of Nilus and the flud agaynst their enimies: among the Egyptians and Assyrians, wherein their only refuge had ben to haue reconciled them selues vnto the Lord with faithfull repentaunce. Exod.iv.a. Exo.x.d.

19 *Thine owne wickednesse shall reproue thee, and thy turnyng away shall condempne thee: that thou mayest knowe and vnderstand howe euyll and hurtfull a thyng it is, that thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, and hast not feared me, saith the Lorde God of hoastes.

20 *I haue euer broken thy yoke of olde, and burst thy bondes, yet sayest thou: *I wyll no more transgresse: but like an harlot thou runnest about vpon all hye hylles, and among all greene trees. Ier.ii.b.

21 Whereas I planted thee a noble vine, and wholly a right seede: *howe art thou turned then into a bitter vnfruitfull and straunge grape? D

22 [Yea and that so sore] that though thou washe thee with Nitrus, and make thy selfe to sauour with that sweete smelling hearbe of Borith: yet in my sight thou art stayned with thy wickednesse, saith the Lorde thy God.

23 Howe sayest thou nowe, I am not vncleane, and I haue not followed Baalim? *Loke vpon thine owne wayes in the valleys what thou hast done? Thou art like a swift dromedarie that goeth easyly her way. 4.Reg.7.b. Ier.ii.b.v.b. Esai lvi a. Eze.xvi b.

24 And thy wantonnesse is lyke a wylde Asse that vseth the wildernesse, and that snuffeth and bloweth at her wyll: who can tame her? All they that seeke her, shall not fayle but fynde her in her moneth.

25 Kepe thy foote from nakednesse, and thy throte from thirst, and thou thinkest in thy selfe: tushe, I wil take no sorowe, for I haue loued the (c) straungers, and them wyll I followe.

(c) The property of idolaters is not only to contemne the power of the preacher exhorting them to repentaunce but shamefully to prouse the lust of straungers and the following of them that is, the worshipping of stockes and stones, and serueing of God agaynst his worde after their owne deuises. Deut.xii.c.

26 Lyke as a theefe that is taken with the deede, commeth to shame: euen so is the house of Israel come to confusion, the common people, their kynges and rulers, their preistes and prophetes.

27 For they say to a stocke, Thou art my father, & to a stone, Thou hast begotten me: *yea they haue turned their backe vpon me, and not their face: *but in the tyme of their trouble, when they say, stande vp and helpe vs:

28 [I shall answere them] Where are nowe thy gods that thou hast made thee? bid them stande vp, and helpe thee in the time of thy neede: *For loke howe many cities thou hast O Juda, so many gods hast thou also. Iere. xi.b.

29 Wherfore then wyll ye go to lawe with me? seeyng ye all are sinners agaynst me, saith the Lorde.

30 It is but lost labour that I smite your children, for they receaue not my correction: *your owne swoorde destroyeth your prophetes, lyke a deuouryng lion. 2.Par 24.d.

31 O generation, hearken vnto the worde of the Lorde: Am I become a wildernesse vnto the people of Israel?

Of

or a lande that hath no lyght: Wherfore saith my people then, We are lordes, We wyll come no more vnto thee:
32 Doth a mayde forget her rayment, or a bride her stomacher: but my people hath forgotten me a very long whyle.
33 Why beautifiest thou thy wayes so lyely, to obteyne fauour therthrough:
therfore also hast thou taught wickednesse through thy wayes.
Deu.xviii.b Iere.vii.a. Eze.xx.d. Psal.cv.e.
34 *Upon thy wynges is found the blood of poore and innocent people, whom thou didst not fynde in corners & holes:
but thou slayest the prophetes for repro-uyng all these thynges.
35 Yet darest thou say, I am [without sinne and] giltlesse, Tushe, his wrath can not come vpon me: Beholde, I wyll reason with thee, because thou darest say, I haue not offended.
36 Why gaddest thou so much hither and thither, to chaunge thy wayes: for thou shalt be confounded aswell of Egypt as thou wast of the Assyrians.
37 Yea thou shalt go thy way from them, and smite thyne handes together vpon thy head, because the Lorde shall bring that confidence and hope of thine to naught, & thou shalt not prosper withal.

The.iij. Chapter.

1 God beyng mercifull, calleth to repentaunce his people which he had forsaken

Deu.24.a.

COmmonly * when a man putteth away his wyfe, and she goeth from hym & marryeth with another, then the question is: shoulde he resort vnto her any more after that: (Is not that lande then defiled and vncleane:) *But as for thee thou hast played the harlot with many louers, yet turne agayne to me, saith the Lorde.
Ozee iii.a. Eze.xvi.b.
2 Lift vp thine eyes to the hygh places, and loke where thou hast not ben defiled: Thou hast wayted for them in the streetes, and as a murtherer in the wildernesse, through thy whoredome and shamefull blasphemies is the lande defiled.
3 *This is the cause that the rayne and euenyng deawe hath ceassed: Thou hast gotten thee an whores forehead, and wylt not be ashamed.
4.Reg.17.a
4 Wylt thou not hereafter say vnto me, O my father, thou art he that hast brought me vp, and led me from my youth:
5 Wyll God continue his wrath for euer: wyll he kepe our faultes in memorie to the ende: Neuertheles, thou speakest such wordes, but thou art euer doyng worse and worse to the vtmost of thy power.
Iere i.a. Iere.v.d. 4.Reg.17.b.
6 *The Lorde sayde also vnto me in the tyme of Iosiah the kyng, Hast thou seene what that rebellion Israel hath done: howe she hath runne vp vpon all the hylles, and among all thicke trees, and there played the harlot:
7 Hast thou seene also when she had done all this, howe I sayde vnto her, that she shoulde turne agayne vnto me, and yet she is not returned: *Iuda that vnfaithfull sister of hers also sawe this:

Eze.xxiii.b

4 Reg.17.a.
9 Yea and the wantonnesse of her whoredome hath defyled the whole lande: For she hath cõmitted fornication with stones and stockes.

Ozee.v.a.
11 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, *The backslyder Israel, is more righteous then the vnfaithfull Iuda.
Eze.xvi.c.
12 And therfore go preach these wordes towarde the north, and say, Thou disobedient Israel, turne agayne saith the Lorde, and I wyll not bring my wrath vpon you: for I am mercifull saith the Lorde, and I wyll not alway *beare displeasure agaynst thee:
Psal.ciii.a.
13 But on this condition, that thou knowe thy great blasphemie, namely that thou hast

17 *Then shall Hierusalem be called the Lordes seate, and all heathen shalbe gathered vnto it for the name of the Lordes sake Which shalbe set vp at Hierusalem: And from that tyme foorth they shall folowe no more the imagination of their owne frowarde heart.

Galiii.c.

18 Then those that be of the house of Juda, shal go vnto the house of Israel, *and they shall come together out of the north, vnto the same lande that I haue geuen your fathers.

Mat viii.b.

19 I haue thought thus: howe shall I take thee to be my children, and geue a pleasaunt lande for thine heritage, yea and a goodly hoast of the heathen: And I sayd, Call me father, and shrincke not from me.

20 Truely, lyke as a woman fayleth her husbande, so are ye vnfaithfull vnto me O ye house of Israel, saith the Lorde.

21 *The voyce of the children of Israel was hearde on hye, Weepyng and waylyng: for that they haue defiled their way, and forgotten God their Lorde.

D Ier.xxxi.c.

22 O ye disobedient children, turne againe, & so shall I heale your backturnynges. Lo We come vnto thee, for thou art the Lorde our God.

The .iiii. Chapter.

1 The true repentaunce or returnyng to God, 4 he exhorteth to the circumcision of the heart. 5 The destruction of Jurie is prophecied for the malice of their heartes.

A Israel, yf thou Wylt turne thee, then turne vnto me, saith ỹ Lord: and yf thou Wylt put away thine abhominations out of my sight, thou shalt not be moued.

2 *And shalt sweare, The Lord lyueth, in trueth, in equitie, and righteousnesse, and all people shalbe fortunable and toyfull in hym.

Iere v.a. xii.e.

3 For thus saith the Lorde to all Juda and Hierusalem: Plowe your lande, and sowe not among the thornes.

4 *Be circumcised in the Lorde, and cut away the foreskynne of your heartes all ye of Juda, and all the inwellers of Hierusalem: *that myne indignation breake not out lyke fire, and kindle, so that no man may quenche it, because of the wickednesse of your imaginations.

Iere.vi.b. and ix.a. Deu.x.c.

5 *Preach in Juda and Hierusalem, crye out and speake, blowe the trumpettes in the lande, crye that euery man may heare, and say, Gather you together, and We Wyll go into strong cities.

Esai.lviii.a.

6 Set vp the token in Sion, speede you and make no tarying: *for I Wyll bring a great plague and a great destruction from the north.

Iere.i.b.

7 For the spoyler of the gentiles is broken vp from his place as a lion out of his denne: that he may make thy lande waste, and destroy the cities, so that no man may dwell therin.

8 Wher-

At the same tyme saith the Lord, the heart of the kyng & of the princes shalbe gone, the priestes shalbe astonished, and the prophetes shalbe sore afrayde.

10 Then sayde I: Oh Lorde God, hast thou then deceaued this people and Hierusalem, saying, *Ye shall haue peace: and nowe the sworde goeth through their lyues:

Deu.29.d

11 Then shall it be sayde to the people and Hierusalem, "A strong winde in the hye places of the wildernesse commeth through the way of my people, but neither to fanne nor to cleanse.

Iere.4.b.

12 After that, shall there come vnto me a strong wynde from those places, & then will I also gene sentence vpon them.

Psal.li.a. Esai.i.c.

15 For a voyce from Dan and from the hill of Ephraim speaketh out, and telleth of a destruction.

16 Remember the heathen, and geue Hierusalem warning, and preache vnto her, that watchers ouer her are comming from farre countries, they haue cryed out against the cities of Juda.

17 And they haue beset her about in euery place, lyke as the watchmen in the fielde: * For they haue prouoked me to wrath, saith the Lorde.

Zach.viii.c.

4.Reg.18.d. Iere.ii.c. xxii.d.

19 Ah my belly, ah my belly shalt thou crie, howe is my heart so sore: my heart panteth within me, I can not be styll, for I haue heard the crying of the trumpettes, and peales of warre.

20 They crye murther vpon murther, the whole lande shall perishe: Immediatly my tentes were destroyed, and my hangynges in the twinckling of an eye.

21 Howe long shall I see the tokens of warre, and heare the noyse of the trumpettes:

D

22 [Neuertheless, this shall come vpon them,] *because my people is become foolishe, and hath not knowen me: *they are the children of foolishnesse, and without any discretion: To do euyll, they haue wit inough: but to do well, they haue no wisdome.

Ffai.v.b. Baruc.iii.b. Ozee.iii.b.

23 I haue loked vpon the earth, and see it was waste and voyde: I loked towarde heauen, and it had no shine.

24 I beheld the mountaynes, and lo, they trembled, and all the hylles were in a feare.

25 I loked about me, and there was no body: and all the birdes of the ayre were away.

26 I marked well, and the plowed fielde was become waste, yea all their cities were broken downe at the presence of the Lord and indignation of his wrath.

27 For thus hath the Lorde saide: The whole lande shalbe desolate, yet will I not then haue done.

28 And therfore shall the earth mourne, and the heauen be sore aboue: for the thyng that I haue spoken to the prophetes, purposed, and taken vpon me to do, shall not repent me, and I will not go from it.

29 The whole lande shall flee for the noyse of horsemen and bowmen, they shall runne into dennes, into woodes, and climbe vp the stonye rockes: all the cities shalbe voyde, and no man dwelling therin.

30 What wylt thou nowe do, thou being destroyed? *For though thou clothest thy selfe with scarlet, and deckest thee with golde, *though thou paintest thy face with colours nowe, yet shalt thou trimme thy selfe in vayne: For those that hitherto haue ben thy louers, shall abhorre thee, and go about to slay thee.

Iere.ii.c. 4.Reg.9.f.

31 For I heare a noyse lyke as it were of a woman trauaylyng, & one labouryng of her first childe, Euen the voyce of the daughter Sion, that casteth out her armes, and sobbeth, saying: Ah, wo is me, howe sore vexed and faynt is my heart for feare of the murtherers:

The prophecie

The.v.Chapter.

1 In Jurie is there no righteous or faithfull man founde, either amongst the people or the rulers. for whose sake the Lorde shoulde spare the citie, is wherefore Jurie is destroyed of the Assyrians.

A 1 Oke through Hierusalem, beholde and see, seeke through her streetes also within, yf ye can fynde one man that doth equall and ryght, or seketh for the trueth, and I shall spare that citie, saith the Lorde.

2 *For though they can say, the Lorde lyueth: yet they sweare to deceaue.

3 Whereas thou (O Lorde) lokest only vpon faith and trueth: Thou hast scourged them, but they toke no repentaunce, thou hast corrected them for amendement, but they refused thy correction, they made their faces harder then a stone, and woulde not amende.

4 Therfore I thought in my selfe: peraduenture they are so simple & foolishe that they vnderstande nothyng of the Lordes way, and iudgementes of their God.

Deut.17.d. 5 *Therfore will I go vnto their heades and rulers, and talke with them, if they knowe the way of the Lord, and iudgementes of their God: But these (in lyke maner) haue broken the yoke, and burst the bondes in sunder.

Deut.7.d. 6 *Wherfore a lion out of the wood hath hurt them, and a woolfe in the euenyng shall destroy them, the Leoparde doth lye lurkyng by their cities, to teare in peeces all them that come therout: for their offences are multiplied, and their departyng away is encreased.

Sophon.1.a. 7 Shoulde I then for all this haue mercie vpon thee? Thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no gods: and albeit that I fed them to the full, yet they fall to adulterie, and haunt harlottes houses.

8 In the desire of vncleanly lust they are become lyke the stoned horse, *euery man neyeth at his neighbours wife.

Ezec.xxii.b. Iere.ix.a.

9 *Shoulde I not correct this, saith the Lorde? shoulde I not be auenged of euery people that is lyke vnto this?

(a) These wordes are not to be referred vnto the citie of Ierusalem which were vtterly destroyed but vnto the whole countrey of Iurie, whereof God did reserue that his whole church should not vtterly perishe, although but a feawe did remayne faithfull.

10 Clymbe vp vpon their walles, beate them downe, and (a) destroy them not vtterly: take away their battlementes, because they are not the Lordes.

11 For vnfaithfully hath the house of Israel and Juda forsaken me, saith the Lorde.

12 *They haue denied the Lorde and sayde, It is not he (that loketh vpon vs) *tushe, there shall no misfortune come vpon vs, we shall see neither sworde nor hunger.

2.Pet.3.a. Iere.xiii.b. and xxiii.e Deut.29.c. Sophon.1.c. Iere.v.b.

13 *As for the warning of the prophetes, it is but wynde, yea there is not the worde of God in them: such thynges shall happen vnto them selues.

14 Wherfore thus saith the Lorde God of hoastes, Because ye speake such wordes, beholde, *the wordes that are in thy mouth will I turne to fire, and make the people to be wood, that the fire may consume them.

Esai.51.b.

15 *Lo, I will bryng a people vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, saith the Lorde, a mighte people, an olde people, a people whose speache thou knowest not, neither vnderstandest what they say.

Deut.28.c. Baruc.iii.c.

16 Their arrowes are sodayne death, yea they them selues be very gauntes.

17 This people shall eate vp thy fruite and thy meate, yea they shall deuour thy sonnes & thy daughters, thy sheepe and thy bullockes, they shall eate vp thy grapes and figges: As for thy strong and well defensed cities wherin thou didst trust, they shall bryng to pouertie, and that through the sworde.

18 *Neuertheles, I will not then haue done with you, saith the Lorde.

Iere.xvi.b.

19 But if they say, Wherfore doth the Lorde our God all this vnto vs? Then answere them: *because that lyke as ye haue forsaken me, & serued straunge gods in your lande, euen so shal ye serue straungers out of your lande.

Deut.28.g.

20 Preach this vnto the house of Jacob, and crye it out in Juda, and say thus:

21 Heare this thou foolishe and vndiscreete people, *ye haue eyes but ye see not, eares haue ye but ye heare not.

Esai.vi.b. Iohan.xii.d.

22 Feare ye not me, saith the Lorde? Will ye not tremble at my presence? *which bynde the sea with the sande by a continuall decree, so that it can not passe his boundes: for though it rage, yet can it do nothyng, nothing, and though the waues therof do swell, yet may they not go ouer.

23 But this people hath a false and obstinate heart, they are departed and gone away fro me.
24 They thinke not in their heartes, O let vs feare the Lord our God, Who geueth vs raine early and late When nede is, Whiche kepeth euer still the harueste for vs yerely.
Esai. lviii.a. 25 *Neuertheles, your misdeedes haue turned these from you, and your sinnes haue robbed you of good thinges.
26 For among my people are found wicked persons, that prouily lay snares and wayte for men, to take them and destroy them.
27 And like as a nette is full of byrdes, so are their houses full of that which they haue gotten with falshood and deceipt: Hereof commeth their great substaunce and riches,
28 Hereof are they fat and welthy, and are more mischeuous then any other: *they minister not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherlesse cause, yea and they prosper: yet they iudge not the poore according to equitie. Esai. i.c.
29 *Should I not punishe these thinges saith the Lorde? should not I be auenged of all suche people as these be?
30 Horrible and greeuous thinges are done in the lande.
31 The prophetes teache falsely, and the preachers receaue giftes, and my people *hath pleasure therein: What wyll come thereof at the last. Osee vii. Rom. xi.

The. vj. Chapter.

1 The sinnes for whiche Hierusalem is afflict. 10 Vncircumcised eares. 13 couetousnesse, 14 deceipt. 20 The Lord reiecteth the sacrifices of the Iewes. 22 The comming of the Babylonians is prophecied againe.

A 1 [illustration] One out of Hierusalem, ye strong children of Beniamin, blowe vp the trumpettes ye Thecuites, set vp a token vnto Bethcaran: for a plague & a great misery appeareth out from the north.
Ii.Reg.xxiii.a
2 I wyll liken the daughter Sion to a faire and tender woman, and to her shall come the (a) shepheardes with their flockes.
(a) The shepheardes signify their flockes, that is, the princes and captaines with their armies.
3 Their tentes shall they pitche rounde about her, and euery one shall feede in his place.
4 Make battayle against her (shall they say) aryse, let vs go vp whyle it is yet day: Alas the day goeth away, and the night shadowes fall downe.
5 Arise, let vs go vp by night, and destroy her strong holdes.
6 For thus hath the Lorde of hoastes commaunded, Hewe downe her trees, and set vp bulwarkes against Hierusalem: for the tyme is come that this cite must be punished, for in her is all malicyousnesse.
7 Like as a conduite spouteth out waters, so she spouteth out her Wickednesse: Robberie and vnrighteousnesse is heard in her, sorowe and woundes are euer there in my sight.
8 Amende thee (O Hierusalem) lest I withdrawe my heart from thee, and make thee desolate, and thy lande also, that no man dwell in it. 25
9 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes: The residue of Israel shalbe gathered as the remnaunt of grapes: and therefore turne thyne hande againe into the basket, like the grape gatherer.
10 But vnto Whom shall I speake? whom shall I warne that he may take heede? *Their eares are so vncircumcised, that they may not heare: beholde, *they take the worde of God but for a scorne, and haue no lust therto. Iere. vi.a. and Iere. xx.b
11 And therefore I am so full of thyne indignation O Lorde, that I may sufferno lenger, but shed it out vpon the children that are without, and vpon all young men: yea the man must be taken prisoner with the wife, and the aged with the creeple.
12 Their houses with their landes and wiues shalbe turned into straungers: for I wyll stretche out mine hand vpon the inhabitours of this lande, saith the Lorde.
13 *For from the least to the most they Esai. lvi.c. Iere. viii.b

Ffa.lvi.c. Iere.viii.b. Eze.xviii.b.

14 *And beside that, they heale the hurt of my people with sweete wordes, saying, Peace, peace: when there is no peace at all.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abhommation? Truly nay, they be past shame, *and therefore they shall fall among the slayne: and in the houre when I shall visite them, they shalbe brought downe saith the Lorde.

Iere.viii.c.

16 Thus saith the Lorde, Go into the streetes, consider and make inquisition for the olde way, and if it be the good and right way, then go therein, that ye may finde rest for your soules: but they say, We wyll not walke therin.

17 Moreouer, I wyl set watchmen ouer you, and therefore take heede vnto the voyce of the trumpet: but they say, We wyll not take heede.

18 Heare therefore ye gentiles, and thou congregation shalt know what I haue deuised for them.

19 Heare thou earth also: behold, I wyll cause *a plague to come vpon this people, euen the fruite of their owne imaginations, for that they haue not ben obedient vnto my wordes and to my lawe, but abhorred them.

Iere.xix.a.

20 Wherefore *bring ye me incense from Saba, and sweete smelling calamus from farre countreys? (b) your burnt offerynges displease me, and I reioyce not in your sacrifices.

Esai i.b. Iere.vii.c.

(b) Ceremonies although they be gods ordinances, please they him not in that they be a pure seruice of hande.

21 And therefore thus saith the Lorde: Behold, I wyll lay stumbling blockes among this people, and there shall fall at them the father with the children, one neighbour shall perishe with another.

22 Thus saith the Lorde: *Behold, there shall come a people from the north, and a great people shal arise from the endes of the earth.

Iere.i.e. and.v.a. Abac.i.c.

23 With bowes and with dartes shall they be weaponed, it is a rough and fearce people, & an vnmercifull people: their voyce roareth like the sea, they ride vpon horses well appointed to the battaile against thee O daughter Sion.

24 The fame of them haue we hearde, our armes are feeble, (c) heaumesse and sorowe is come vpon vs, as vpon a woman trauayling with chylde.

(c) Yee seeme all the hypocrites here till that gods imaginations are at hande, their heart fayleth and is full of sorowe.

25 Let no man go foorth into the fielde, let no man come vpon the hye streete: for the sworde and feare of the enemie is on euery side.

26 Wherfore gyrde a sackcloth about thee O thou daughter of my people, sprinkle thy selfe with ashes: *mourne and weepe bitterly as vpon thyne onlye beloued sonne, for the destroyer shall sodainly fall vpon vs.

Amo.viii.b.

27 Thee haue I set for a strong towre [O thou prophete] and a well fensed wall among my people, to seeke out and to trye their wayes.

28 *For they are all stubborne apostates and fallen away, walking deceiptfully, they are cleane brasse and iron, for they hurt and destroy euery man.

Psal. xciiii. and lxxx. Rom.iii.c.

29 The bellowes are brent in the fire, the leade is not moulten, the melter melteth in vayne, for the euill is not taken away from them.

30 Therefore do they call them naughtie siluer, because the Lorde hath cast them out.

The. vij. Chapter.

2 Jeremie is commaunded to shewe vnto the people the worde of God, which trusteth in the outwarde seruice of the temple. 13 The euils that shall happen to the Jewes for the despising of their prophetes. 21 Sacrifices doth not the Lord chiefly require of the Jewes, but that they shoulde obay his worde.

1 These are the wordes that God spake vnto Jeremie, saying:

2 *Stande vnder the gate of the Lordes house, & crye out these wordes there with a loude voyce, and say, Heare the word of the Lorde all ye of Juda, that go in at this doore to worship the Lorde:

4 Trust not in false lying wordes, saying: Here is the temple of the Lord, here is the temple of the Lord, here is the temple of the Lorde:

6 Oppresse not the straunger, the fa-place, yea in the land that I gaue afore tyme to your fathers for euer.

8 But take heede, ye trust in lying tales, that begule you and do you no good.
9 For When ye haue stollen, murthered, committed adultrie and periurie, When ye haue offered vnto Baal, following

Iere.xliii.c. 18 *The children gather sticks, the farynges vnto straunge gods, to prouoke me vnto Wrath.

19 Howbeit they hurt not me saith the Lorde, but rather confounde and shame them selues.
20 And therefore thus saith the Lorde
God: Beholde, my Wrath and indignation shalbe powred out vpon this place, vpon men and cattell, vpon trees in the fielde, and fruite of the lande: and it shall burne, so that no man may quench it.
21 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the ℣ God of Israel: Heape vp your* burnt Exod.x.a.

22 *For When I brought your fathers Deut x a. Esa.xlvi.a.

them of burnt offerynges and sacrifices:
23 But this I commaunded them, sayynge, *Hearken and obay my voyce, and Exod.xix.a.
I shalbe your God, and ye shalbe my Whiche I haue commaunded you, that ye may prosper.

Egypt, vnto this day: *Neuertheles, Iere xxv.a. xxix c. and.xlvi.a.

and Worse then their fathers.
27 And thou shalt nowe speake all these Wordes vnto them, but they shall not heare thee: thou shalt crye vpon them, but they shall not aunswere thee.
28 Therefore shalt thou say vnto them,
This is the people that neither heareth

5 Wherefore then is this people of Hie-

¶ 14 Why prolong we the time? Let vs gather our selues together, and go into the strong citie, there shall we be in rest: for the Lorde our God hath put vs to silence, and geuen vs water mixt with gall to drinke, because we haue sinned against hym.

18 I Woulde haue had comfort against sorowe: but sorowe is come vpon me, and heauinesse vereth my heart.

19 For lo, the voyce of the crying of my people is heard, [for feare of them that come] from a farre countrey: Is not the Lord in Sion? Is not her king in her? Wherefore then haue they greeued me [(saith the Lorde) with their images, and foolishe straunge fashions of a foraine god?

20 The harueste is gone, the sommer hath an ende, and we are not helped.

21 I am sore vexed, because of the hurt of my people, I am heauie and abashed:

3 They bend their tongues like bowes to shoote out lyes, they ware strong vpon earth: As for the trueth, they may nothing away withall in the worlde, for they go from one wickednes to another, and wyll not knowe me, saith the Lorde.

6 Thou sittest in the middes of a deceptfull people, which for very dissembling falshood wyll not knowe me, saith the Lorde.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes: Beholde, I wyll melt them and trye them: for what shoulde I els do to my people? 25

8 *Their tongues are like sharpe arrowes to speake deceipt: with their mouth they speake peaceable to their neighbour, but priuily they lay wayte for hym. Prou.xviii.a Psa.xviii.a.

9 *Should I not punishe them for these thinges, saith the Lorde? or shoulde I not be auenged of any suche people as this? Iere.v.b.

10 Upon the mountaines wyl I take vp a lamentation and a sorowfull crye, and a mourning vpon the faire places of the wildernesse: Namely, howe they are so brent vp, that no man goeth there any more, yea a man shall not heare one beast crye there: byrdes and cattell are all gone from thence. Psa.lxxix.a

11 *I wyl make Hierusalem also an heape of stones, & a den of venemous wormes: and I wyll make the cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shall dwel therin. Mich.iii.c.

12 What man is so wise as to vnderstand this? or to whom hath the Lorde spoken by mouth, that he may shewe this, and say: O thou lande, Why perishest thou so? Wherfore art thou so brent vp, and like a wildernesse that no man goeth thorowe?

13 Yea the Lorde hym selfe tolde the same vnto them that forsoke his lawe, and kept not the thyng that he gaue them in commaundement, neither lued thereafter:

14 *But followed the wickednesse of their owne heartes, & serued straunge gods as their forefathers taught them. Deut.29.a. Ios xxiii.c.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel: Beholde, I wyll feede this people with wormewood, and geue them gall to drinke.

16 *I wyll scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers haue knowen: * and I wyll send a sworde among them to persecute them, vntyll I bring them to naught. Deu xxix b. Iere xxiii c Deut xxx.c

17 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes: Beware of the vengeaunce that hangeth ouer you, and call for mourning wiues, and sende for wyse women, that they come shortly,

18 And sing a mourning song of vs, that the teares may fall out of our eyes, and that our eye lidds may gushe out of water.

19 For there is a lamentable noyse heard of Sion: O howe are we so sore destroyed: O howe are we so pitiously confounded: we must forsake our owne naturall countrey, and we are shut out of our owne lodginges.

20 Yet heare the worde of the Lorde (O ye women) and let your eares regarde the wordes of his mouth: that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, and that euery one may teache her neighbour to make lamentation

21 [Namely thus] Death is clymbing vp in at our windowes, he is come into our houses, to destroy the chylde before the doore, and the young man in the streete. D

22 But tell thou playnely, thus saith the Lord: *The dead bodyes of men shall lye vpon the ground as the dunge vpon the fielde, and as the handfull after the mower, and there shalbe no man to take them vp. Iere viii.d. and.viii.d.

23 Thus saith the Lorde: Let not the wise man reioyce in his wisdome, nor the strong man in his strength, neither the riche man in his riches:

24 But who so wyll reioyce, let hym reioyce in this, that he vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lorde whiche do mercy, equitie, and righteousnesse vpon the earth: *therfore haue I pleasure in suche thynges, saith the Lorde. 18 For thus saith the Lorde: beholde, I wyll now throwe as with a stone sling, the inhabiters of this land at this once, and I wyll bring trouble vpon them, that they shall proue true the wordes that I haue spoken by the prophetes.
19 Alas howe am I hurt: alas howe paynefull are my scourges vnto me: for I consider this sorowe by my selfe, and I must suffer it.

The.xj. Chapter.

1 I curse to them that obay not the worde of Gods promise. 10 The people of Iuda following the steppes of their fathers, worshipyeth straunge gods. 18 The Lord saith that he wyll not heare the Iewes, and forbiddeth also Ieremie to pray for them.

6 Then the Lord sayd vnto me againe: Preache this in the cities of Juda, and rounde about Hierusalem, & say: Heare the wordes of this couenaunt, and kepe them.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto me: it is founde out that whole Israel and all these cities of Hierusalem are gone backe.

The .xij. Chapter.

1 The prophete marueyleth greatly at the prosperitie of the wicked, although he confesse God to be righteous. 7 The Iewes are forsaken of the Lord. 10 He speaketh against curates, and preachers that seduce the people. 14 The Lord threatneth destruction vnto the nations that bordered vpon Iurie, which troubled and vexed it.

A 1 Lorde thou art more righteous, then that I shoulde dispute with thee: neuertheles, let me talke with thee in thynges reasonable. *How happeneth it that the way of the vngodly is so prosperous? and that it goeth so well with them which without any shame offend and liue in wickednesse,

3 But thou Lorde to whom I am well knowen, thou that hast sene and proued my heart,* take them away, like as a flocke is caryed to the slaughter house, & appoynt them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the lande mourne, *and all the herbes of the fielde perishe for the wickednesse of them that dwell therin? The cattell and the birdes are gone, yet say they, tushe, *God wyll not destroy vs vtterly.

10 *Diuers heardmen haue brokē downe my *vineyarde, and troden vpon my portion: of my pleasaunt portion they haue made a wildernesse and desert. Esai.lvi.c. Esa..v.a.

11 They haue layde it waste, and nowe that it is waste it sigheth vnto me: yea the whole lande lyeth waste, and no man regardeth it.

12 The destroyers come ouer the borders in the desert euery way: for the sworde of the Lorde doth consume from the one ende of the lande to the other, and no flesh hath rest.

13 They haue sowen wheate, and reaped thornes, they haue taken heritage in possession, but it doth them no good: and they were ashamed of your fruites, because of the great wrath of the Lord.

14 Thus saith the Lord vpon all my euyl neighbours that lay hande on mine heritage which I haue possessed, euen my people of Israel: Beholde, I wyll plucke them [namely Israel] out of their lande, and put out the house of Iuda from among them.

The

¶ The.xiij. Chapter.

1 The destruction of the Iewes is prefigured, and their sparsyng abrode. 11 Why Israel was receaued to be the people of God, and why they were forsaken.

A 1 Thus saith the Lorde vnto me: Go thy way and get thee a lynnen girdle, and girde it about thy loynes, let it not be wet.

2 Then I got me a girdle accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde, and put it about my loynes.

3 After this, the seconde tyme the Lorde spake vnto me agayne.

4 Take the girdle that thou hast prepared and put about thee, and get thee vp, and go vnto Euphrates, and hyde it there in a hole of the rocke.

5 So went I, and hyd it at Euphrates, as the Lorde commaunded me.

6 And it happened long after this, that the Lorde spake vnto me: Vp, and get thee to Euphrates, & fetche the girdle from thence, which I commaunded thee to hyde there.

7 Then went I to Euphrates, & digged vp, and toke the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and beholde, the girdle was corrupt, so that it was profitable for nothyng.

8 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me,

9 Thus saith the Lorde, Euen so will I corrupt the pride of Juda, and the hye mynde of Hierusalem.

Iere.vii.c xi.b.xviii.c and xix.c. 10 This people is a wicked people, *they will not heare my worde, they folowe the wicked imaginations of their owne heart, and hang vpon straunge gods, them they serue and worship, and therfore they shalbe as this breeche that serueth for nothyng.

11 For as straytly as a girdle lyeth vpon a mans loynes, so straytly dyd I bynde the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Juda vnto me, saith the Lorde: *that they myght be my people, that they might haue a glorious name, that they might be in honour: but they would not obey me.

12 Therfore say this riddle before them, and say, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel: Euery pot shalbe filled with wine. And they shall say vnto thee. Thinkest thou we knowe not that euery pot shalbe filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde: Beholde, I shall fyll all the inhabitours of this lande with drunkennesse, the kynges that syt vpon Dauids stoole, the priestes & prophetes, with all that dwell at Hierusalem.

14 And I will set them one agaynst another, yea the fathers against the sonnes, saith the Lorde: I will not pardon them, I will not spare them, nor haue pitie vpon them: but destroy them. C

15 Heare, geue care, take not disdayne at it: for it is the Lorde hym selfe that speaketh.

16 Honour the Lorde your God or he take his light from you, and or euer your feete stumble in darknesse at the hyll: lest when you loke for the lyght, he turne it into the shadowe and darknesse of death).

17 But if ye will not heare me that geue you secrete warnyng, I will mourne from my whole heart for your stubburnesse: *Pitcously will I weepe, and the teares shall gushe out of mine eyes, for the Lordes flocke shalbe caried away captiue. Iere.xxxi.c Thren.ii.

18 Tell the kyng and the queene, humble your selues, sit you downe lowe, for your dignitie shalbe throwen downe, and the crowne of your glorie shall fall from your head.

19 The cities towarde the south shalbe shut vp, and no man shall open them: all Juda shalbe caryed away captiue, so that none shall remayne.

20 Lyft vp your eyes, and beholde them that come from the north, where is the flocke [O thou laude] that was geuen thee: and where are thy fat and riche sheepe?

21 *To whom wilt thou make thy mone when the enemie shall come vpon thee? for thou hast taught them thy selfe, and made them maisters ouer thee: Shall not sorowe come vpon thee as on a woman trauayling with childe? D Iere.xix.a. Esai.xxii.b.

22 And if thou wouldest then say in thine heart, wherfore come these thinges vpon me? *Euen for the multitude of thy blasphemies shall thy hynder partes and thy feete be discouered. Iere.xv.b.

23 May a man of Inde chaunge his skinne, skinne, and the cat of the mountayne her spottes: so, may ye that be exercised in euyll, do good:

24 Therfore wyll I scatter them like as the stubble that is taken away with the south wynde.

25 This shalbe your portion, and the portion of your measure wherwith ye shalbe rewarded of me saith the Lorde, because ye haue forgotten me, and put your trust in deceiptfull thinges.

26 *Therfore shall I turne thy clothes ouer thy head, and discouer thy shame. Ozee.ii.b.

27 Thy adulteries, thy neyghinges, thy shamefull whoredome on the hylles in the fieldes, and thy abhominations haue I seene: wo be vnto thee (O Hierusalem) wylt thou neuer be clensed any more: O when shall that be:

The.xiiij. Chapter.

1 Of the dearth that shoulde come in Iurie. 7 The prayer of the people asking mercie of the Lorde. 10 The vnfaithfull people are not hearde. 12 Of prayer, fasting, and of false prophetes that seduce the people.

A 1 The worde of the Lorde shewed vnto Jeremie concernyng the dearth of the fruites.

2 Juda hath mourned, his gates are desolate, they are brought to heauinesse, euen vnto the grounde, and the crye of Hierusalem goeth vp.

3 The Lordes sent their seruauntes to fetche water, and when they came to the welles, they did finde no water, but caried their vessels home emptie: they be ashamed and confounded, and couer their heades.

Ier.xxiii.b 4 *For the grounde is dryed, because there commeth no rayne vpon it: the plowmen also be ashamed and couer their heades.

5 The hynde also forsoke the young fawne that he brought forth in the fielde, because there was no grasse.

6 The wylde asses did stande in the hye places, and drewe in their winde lyke the dragons, their eyes did fayle for want of grasse.

B 7 Doubtlesse our owne wickednesse doth reuarde vs: but Lorde do thou accordyng to thy name, though our transgression and sinnes be many, and agaynst thee haue we sinned.

Esai.xlix.b. Iere.xvi.c. and.xvii.c 8 *For thou art the comfort and helpe of Israel in the tyme of trouble: why wilt thou be as a straunger in the lande, and as one that goeth his iourney, and cõmeth in only to remayne for a night:

9 Why wylt thou make thy selfe a coward, and as it were a giaunt that yet may not helpe: But thou O Lorde art in the middest of vs, and thy name is called vpon of vs, forsake vs not.

10 Thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto his people, seyng they haue had such a lust to wander abrode, and haue not refrayned their feete: therfore the Lorde hath no pleasure in them, but he wyll nowe bring againe to remembraunce all their misdeedes, and punishe all their sinnes.

11 Yea euen thus sayde the Lorde vnto me: *Thou shalt not pray to do this people good. Iere.vii.d.

12 For though they fast, I wyll not heare their prayers, and though they offer burnt offerynges and sacrifices, yet wyll not I accept them: for I wyll destroy them with the sworde, hunger, and pestilence.

13 Then answered I: O Lorde God, *the prophetes say vnto them, Tushe, ye shall *neede to feare no sworde, and no hunger shall come vpon you: but the Lorde shall geue you sure rest in this place. Iere. v.d. Sophon i.e. Iere.xxii.a. and.xxiii.c.

14 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, The prophetes preach lyes in my name, Whereas I haue not *sent them, neither gaue I them any charge, neither did I speake vnto them: yet they preache vnto you false visions, charming, vanitie, and deceptfulnesse of their owne heart. ℭ Iere.xxiii.d.

15 Therfore thus saith the Lorde: As for those prophetes that preache in my name, whom I neuertheles haue not sent, and that say, Tushe, there shall no sworde nor hunger be in this lande: *with sworde and with hunger shall those prophetes perishe. Zach.xiii.a.

16 And the people to whom they preache shalbe cast out of Hierusalem, dye of hunger, and be slayne with the sworde, *and there shalbe no man to bury them, both they, and their wiues, their sonnes, Iere.xvi.a

and

and their daughters: for thus wyll I poure their wickednesse vpon them.

17 This shalt thou say also vnto them, Thre.i.d. and.v.e. *Mine eyes shall weepe without ceasing day and nyght: for my people shalbe destroyed with great harme, and shall perishe with a great plague.

18 For yf I go into the fielde, lo, it lyeth all full of slayne men: If I come into the citie, lo, they be all famished of hunger: yea their prophetes also and priestes shalbe led into an vnknowen lande.

19 Hast thou then vtterly forsaken Juda? Doest thou so abhorre Sion? Wherfore hast thou so plagued vs, that we can be healed no more? *we loked for peace, Iere.viii.c.

and there commeth no good, for the tyme of health, and lo here is nothyng but trouble.

20 We knowledge (O Lorde) all our misdeedes, and the sinnes of our fathers: for we haue offended thee.

21 Cast vs not of (O Lord) for thy names sake, *forget not thy louyng kindnesse, ouerthrowe not the (a) throne of thine honour, breake not the couenaunt that thou hast made with vs.

22 *Are there any among the gods of the gentiles that sende rayne, or gene the showres from heauen? Art not thou thy selfe our Lorde God? We wyll trust in thee, for thou doest all these thynges.

Esai.xlix.d. (a) The temple at Hierusalem is called the seate of Gods honour, because he hath appointed that place wherin specially to be honoured, and there to shewe the tokens of his honourable presence.

The .xv. Chapter.

1 The Lorde wyll not heare Moyses or Aaron yf they pray for the people, but wyll wrappe them in many miseries. The cause of such great miseries.

Ier.vii.d. xi.c.xiii.b. Eze.xiii.c.

1 Thus spake the Lorde vnto me, *Though Moyses and Samuel stoode before me, yet haue I no heart to this people: drue them away, that they may go out of my sight.

2 And yf they say vnto thee, whyther shall we go? then tell them, The Lorde Eze.v.c. geueth you this aunswere: *Some vnto death, some to the sworde, some to hunger, some into captiuitie.

3 For I wyll bryng foure plagues vpon them, saith the Lorde: The sworde shal slay them, the dogges shall teare them Iere.xvi.a. in peeces, *the fowles of the ayre and beastes of the earth shall eate them vp, and destroy them.

4 I wyll scatter them about also in all kingdomes and landes to be plagued, 4.Reg.xxi.a. because of *Manasses the sonne of Hezekia kyng of Juda, for the thynges that he did in Hierusalem.

5 Who shall then haue pitie vpon thee O Hierusalem? Who shalbe sorie for thee? Or who shall make intercession to obtayne peace for thee?

6 Seing thou goest from me, and turnest backwarde, saith the Lorde: therfore I dyd stretche out myne hande against thee to destroy thee, and I haue ben sorie for thee so long that I am weerie.

7 I haue scattred them abrode with the fanne of euery side of the land, *I haue wasted my people and destroyed them, yet they haue had no lust to turne from their owne wayes. Ier. vii.c.

9 She that hath borne seuen children, hath none, her heart is full of sorowe: *the sunne doth fayle her in the cleare day, she is confounded and fainte for very heauinesse: As for those that remayne, I wyll deliuer them vnto the sworde before their enemies, saith the Lorde. Amos.viii.d.

14 *And I wyll bryng thee with thine enemies into a lande that thou knowest not: for the fire that is kindled in myne indignation shall burne you vp. Deut.32.c.

15 O Lorde thou knowest, therfore remember me, and visite me, reuenge me of my persecutours: take me not from this life in the tyme of thine anger, thou knowest that for thy sake I suffer rebuke.

16 *When I had founde thy wordes I did eate them vp greedyly, they haue made my heart ioyfull and glad: for thy name was (a) called vpon me O Lorde God of hoastes. Psa.xix. Ezec.iii.a. (a) I am called thy people.

17 I dwell not among the scorners, neither is my delight therin: but I dwell alone because of thy hande, for thou hast fylled me with bitternesse.

18 Shall my heauinesse endure for euer: Are my plagues then so great that they may neuer be healed: wylt thou be as one that is false, and as a water that falleth, and can not continue?

19 Upon these wordes, thus sayde the Lorde vnto me, If thou wylt turne agayne, I shall set thee in my seruice, and yf thou wylt take out the thynges that is precious from the vile, thou shalt be euen as myne owne mouth: *they shall conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them. Iere.xxi.a.

20 And so shall I make thee a strong brasen wall agaynst this people, *they shall fyght agaynst thee, but they shall not preuayle: for I my selfe wyll be with thee, to helpe thee and deliuer thee, saith the Lorde: Iere.i.e.

¶ The.xvj. Chapter.

¶ He prophecieth the miserie of the Iewes. 2 He sheweth that the worshippyng of images and the contempt of Gods lawe, is cause of their miserie. 13 He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon, and their deliueraunce from thence agayne. 19 The callyng of the gentiles.

AGayne the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou shalt take thee no wife, nor beget children in this place.

3 For of the children that are borne in this place, of their mothers that haue borne them, and of their fathers that haue begotten them in this lande, thus saith the Lorde.

4 They shall dye an horrible death, *no man shall weepe for them, nor bury them, but they shall lye as dunge vpon the earth: they shall perishe through the sworde & hunger, *and their bodyes shalbe meate for the fowles of the ayre, and beastes of the earth. Leuit.x.d. Iere.xxii.c. Psa.xxxix.a Iere.xv.a.

5 For thus saith the Lorde, Go not thou into the house of mournyng, nor come to mourne and weepe for them: for I haue taken my peace from this people saith the Lorde, yea my fauour and my mercies.

6 And in this lande shall they dye olde and young, and shall not be buryed: no man shall bewepe them, no man shall clippe or shaue hym selfe for them.

7 They shall not wryng their handes in mournyng wise on their dead one to comfort another: one shall not offer another the cup of consolation, to forget their heauinesse for their father and mother. 25

8 *Thou shalt not go into their feast house, to sit downe to eate or drynke with them: i.Cor.xv.b.

℣ 14 *Beholde therfore saith the Lorde, the Iere.xxiii.b dayes are come that it shall no more be sayd: The Lorde liueth which brought the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt:

15 But it shalbe sayde, The Lorde liueth that brought the children of Israel from the north, and from all landes where he had scattered them: for I wyll bryng them agayne into the lande that I gaue their fathers.

Matiii.c. 16 Beholde, saith the Lorde, *I wyll sende out many fyshers to take them, and after that wyll I sende out many hunters, to hunt them out from all mountaynes and hylles, and out of the caues of stone.

17 For mine eyes behold all their wayes, and they can not be hyd fro my face: neither can their wicked deedes be kept close out of my sight.

18 But first wyll I sufficiently rewarde their shameful blasphemies and sinnes, because they haue defiled my lande (a) with their stinkyng carions and their abhominations, wherwith they haue filled mine heritage.

19 *O Lorde my strength, my power and refuge in tyme of trouble: the gentiles shall come vnto thee from the endes of the worlde, and say, Veryly our fathers haue cleaued vnto lyes, their idols are but vayne and vnprofitable.

20 Howe can a man make those his gods, which are not able to be gods?

21 And therfore I wyll once teach them, saith the Lorde, I wyll shewe them my hande and my power, and they shall knowe that my name is the Lorde.

(a) God here takes vengeance according to his worde saying: he that sacrificeth vnto any god, saue vnto the Lorde only, shall be rooted out. That is, pleaseth God: but Gods seruice and worship without his worde, both fauour of the person, that is abhorred, and much displeaseth God.

The.xvij. Chapter.

1 The frowardnesse of the Iewes. 5 Cursed be those that put their confidence in man, and those blessed that trust in God. 9 Mans heart is wicked. 10 God is the searcher of the heart. 13 The liuyng waters are forsaken. 21 The halowyng of the Sabbath is commaunded.

A 1 YOur sinne [O ye of the tribe of Iuda] is written in the table of your heartes, and grauen vpon the edges of your aulters with a penne of iron, and with an Adamant claw:

2 That as the fathers thinke vpon their children, so thinke you also vpon your aulters, woodes, thicke trees, hye hylles, mountaynes, and fieldes.

Iere.xv.a. xx.b. 3 *Wherfore, I wyll make my mount that standeth in the fielde, all your substaunce and treasure to be spoyled, for the great sinne that ye haue done vpon your hye places throughout all the coastes of your lande.

4 Ye shalbe cast out also from the heritage that I gaue you: and I wyll subdue you vnder the heaue bondage of your enemies, in a lande that ye knowe not: for ye haue ministred fire to mine indignation, which shall burne euermore.

5 Thus saith the Lorde, *Cursed be the man that putteth his trust in man, and that taketh flesh for his arme, and he whose heart departeth from the Lord. Psal xlix.d Pro.xi.c. Iere. xlvi.c. and. xlviii.a. Eze.xxix.a.

6 He shalbe like the heath that groweth in wildernesse: As for the good thyng that is for to come, he shall not see it, but dwell in a drye place of the wildernesse, in a salt and vnoccupied lande.

7 *O blessed is the man that putteth his trust in the Lorde, and whose hope is in the Lorde hym selfe. B Psal.xl.b. xxxix.c. Pro.xxix.c.

8 *For he shalbe as a tree that is planted by the water side, which spreadeth out the roote vnto moystnesse, whom the heate can not harme when it commeth, but his leafe shalbe greene: And though there growe but little fruite because of drouth, yet is he not carefull, but he neuer leaueth of to bryng forth fruite. Psal. i.a. Prou.xi.d.

9 Among all thynges, man hath the most deceptfull and stubburne heart: who shall then knowe it?

10 *Euen I the Lorde searche out the grounde of the heart, & trye the raynes, and Iere.xi.d. Apoc.ii.d.

Psal.vii.b. Rom.ii.a. *and rewarde euery man accordyng to his wayes, and accordyng to the fruite of his workes.

Pro.xxiii.a. Psa.lxii.b. Luk.xii.b. 11 *The partrich maketh a nest of egges, which she layed not: he commeth by riches, but not righteously, in the middest of his life must he leane them behynde hym, & at the last be founde a very foole.

12 But thou (O Lorde) whose throne is most glorious, excelent, and of most antiquite, which dwellest in the place of our holy rest:

13 Thou art the comfort of Israel, all they that forsake thee shalbe confounded, all they that do depart from thee shalbe written in earth: *for they haue forsaken the Lorde the very conduite of the waters of lyfe.

Ieremi.b. Ezec.xxvi.d. Ioh.iiii.b.

14 Heale me O Lorde, and I shalbe whole: saue thou me, & I shalbe saued: for thou art my prayse.

15 Beholde, these men say vnto me, where is the worde of the Lorde? let it come nowe.

16 Whereas I neuertheles obediently folowed thee as a shepheарde, & haue not vncalled taken this office vpon me, this knowest thou well: my wordes also were ryght before thee.

17 Be not thou terrible vnto me O Lorde: *for thou art he in whom I hope when I am in perill.

Ieremi.xlviii.a. & l.xxxvi.b.

18 Let my persecutours be confounded, but not me: let them be afrayde, and not me: Thou shalt bryng vpon them the tyme of plague, and shalt destroy them right sore.

19 Thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, *Go and stande vnder the gate wherethrough the people and the kynges of Juda go out and in, yea vnder all the gates of Hierusalem, Ieremi.viii.a. xxvi.a.

20 And say vnto them, Heare the worde of the Lorde ye kynges of Juda, and all thou people of Juda, and all the citezins of Hierusalem, that go throughthis gate.

21 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, *Take heede for your lyues that ye cary no burthen vpon you in the Sabbath, to bryng it through the gates of Hierusalem. Exod.xx.d. Deut.v.b.

22 Ye shall beare no burthen also out of your houses in the Sabbath, you shall do no labour therin: but halowe the Sabbath, *as I commaunded your fathers. D Exod.xx.d.

23 Howbeit they obeyed me not, neither hearkened they vnto me: but were obstinate & stubburne, and neither obeyed me, nor receaued my correction.

24 Neuertheles, yf ye wyll heare me saith the Lorde, and beare no burthen into the citie through this gate vpon the Sabbath, yf ye wyll halowe the Sabbath, so that ye do no worke therin:

25 Then shall there go through the gates of this citie kynges and princes that shal sit vpon the throne of Dauid, they shalbe caryed vpon charrettes, and ride vpon horses, both they & their princes: yea whole Juda and all the citezins of Hierusalem shall go here through, and this citie shall euer be inhabited.

26 There shall come men also from the cities of Juda, from about Hierusalem, and from the lande of Beniamin, from the plaine fieldes, from the mountaynes, and from the wilderneſſe, which shall bryng burnt offerynges, sacrifices, oblacions, and incense, and offer vp thankesgeuyng in the house of the Lorde.

27 But yf ye wyll not be obedient vnto me to halowe the Sabbath, so that ye wyll beare your burthens through the gates of Hierusalem vpon the Sabbath: then shall I set fire vpon the gates of Hierusalem, and it shall burne vp the houses of Hierusalem, and no man shalbe able to quenche it.

¶ The.xviij. Chapter.

2 God sheweth by the example of a potter, that it is in his power to destroy the disptsers of his worde, and to helpe them agayne when they amende. 18 The conspiracie of the Iewes agaynst Ieremie. 19 His prayer agaynst his aduersaries.

A 1 His is another communication that God had with Ieremie, saying:

2 Arise, and go downe vnto the potters house, & there shal I tell thee more of my mynde,

3 Nowe when I came to the potters house, I founde hym makyng his worke vpon a wheele.

4 The vessell that the potter made of clay, brake among his handes: So he began anewe, and made another vessell accor-accordyng to his mynde.

5 Then sayde the Lorde thus vnto me:

Esai xlv.b. Iere.xxx.c. Rom.ix.c. 6 *May not I do with you as this potter doth O ye house of Israel saith the Lorde? Beholde ye house of Israel, ye are in my hande, euen as the clay is in the potters hande.

Exe.xviii.c. Luke.xv.a. 7 *When I take in hande to roote out, to destroy, or to waste away any people or kyngdome:

Ion.iii.b. 8 *If that people agaynst whom I haue thus deuised, conuert from their wickednesse, I repent of the plague that I deuised to bryng vpon them.

3 Reg.xv.f. 9 *Agayne, when I take in hande to builde or to plant a people or a kyngdome:

10 If the same people do euyll before me and heare not my voyce, I repent of the good that I haue deuised for them.

11 Speake nowe therfore vnto whole Juda, and to them that dwell at Hierusalem, thus saith the Lorde, Beholde I am deuysyng a plagye for you, and am takyng a thyng in hande agaynst you: Iere.xxv.a. and.xxxv.c Ion.iii.b. *therfore let euery man turne from his euyll way, and take vpon you the thyng that is good and ryght.

Iere.xviii.a. 12 But they sayde, No more of this, *We wyll folowe our owne imaginations, and do euery man accordyng to the wilfulnesse of his owne mynde.

13 Therfore thus saith the Lorde, Aske among the heathen yf any man haue hearde such horrible thynges, as the mayden Israel hath done:

14 (a) Wyll a man forsake the snowe of Libanus, which commeth from the rocke of the felde? Or shall the colde flowyng waters that commeth from another place be forsaken?

15 But my people hath forgotten me, they haue made sacrifice in vayne, and their prophetes make them fall in their wayes from the auncient pathes, and to go into a way not vsed to be troden [of iust men.]

16 Wherethrough they haue brought their lande into an euerlastyng wildernesse and scorne: *so that whosoeuer trauayleth therby, shalbe abashed, and wagge their heades. Iere.xix.b. and.xlix.c.

17 With an east wynde wyll I scatter them before their enemies: and when their destruction commeth, I will turne my backe vpon them, but not my face.

18 Then sayd they, *Come, let vs imagine somethyng agaynst this Jeremie: for the priestes shall not be destitute of the lawe, neither shall the wise men be destitute of counsayle, nor the prophetes destitute of the worde of God: Come, and let vs smite hym with the tongue, and let vs not marke all his wordes. Iere.xi.b.

19 Consider me O Lorde, and heare the voyce of mine enemies.

20 *Shall they recompence euyll for good? for they haue digged a pit for my soule: *Remember howe that I stoode before thee to speake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them. Psal.cix.c. Iere.x.d.

21 *Therfore, let their children dye of hunger, and let them be oppressed with the sworde: Let their wiues be robbed of their children, and become widowes, let their husbandes be slayne, let their young men be kylled with the sworde in the fielde. D Psal.cix.b. Thre.v.f.

22 Let the noyse be hearde out of their houses when thou bryngest the murtherer sodaynly vpon them: *for they haue digged a pit to take me, and layde snares for my feete. Iere.xi.d.

23 But Lorde thou knowest all their counsayle, that they haue deuised to slay me, forgeue not their wickednesse, and let not their sinnes be put out of thy sight, but let them be iudged before thee as giltie: this do thou vnto them in the tyme of thine indignation.

(a) It is extreme madnesse to forsake God the only fresshe spryng of pure pleasaunt waters who is in gh at hande, and to go fur of to seke soyle and fylthy puddels, wherein there is nothyng but vnclene and stinckyng water.

The.xix. Chapter.

¶ He commaundeth the destruction of Hierusalem, for the contempt and dispisyng of the worde of God.

THus sayde the Lorde: Go thy way and buye thee an earthen pitcher, and bryng foorth the senatours & chiefe priestes,

2 Vnto the valley of the children of Hennom, which lyeth without the east gate, and shewe them there the wordes that I shall tell thee.

3 And say thus vnto them, Heare the worde of the Lorde ye kinges of Juda, and ye citezins of Hierusalem, *thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: 4 Reg.xxi.a.

Iere vi.c.

Iſrael: *Beholde, I wyll bryng ſuche a plague vpon this place, that the eares of all that heare it ſhall glowe:

4 And that becauſe they haue forſaken me, and vnhalowed this place, and haue offered in it vnto ſtraunge gods, whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kynges of Juda haue knowen: they haue filled this place alſo with the blood of innocentes.

Deut xii.d. xxviii.b. Pſal.cvi.e Eze xvi.e. and xx.d. 5 *And they haue set vp an aulter vnto Baal, to burne their children for a burnt offring vnto Baal, whiche I neither commaunded nor charged them, neither thought once therupon.

Iere.vii.d. 6 Beholde therfore *the time commeth (ſaith the Lorde) that this place ſhall no more be called Thopheth, nor the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, but the valley of ſlaughter.

7 For in this place wyll I bryng to naught the counſayle of Juda and Hieruſalem, and kyll them downe with the ſworde before their enemies: and I wyll deliuer them into the handes of them that ſeeke their liues, and their dead carkaſſes will I geue to be meate for the foules of the ayre, & the beaſtes of the fielde.

8 And I will make this citie ſo deſolate and deſpiſed, *that whoſoeuer goeth thereby ſhalbe abaſhed, and iest vpon her, because of all her plagues.

the beſieging & ſtraytneſſe wherewith their enemies (that ſeeke their liues) ſhall kepe them in.

10 And the pitcher ſhalt thou breake in the ſight of the men that goeth with thee,

11 And ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoaſtes: *Euen ſo wyll I deſtroy this people and citie, as a man breaketh an earthen veſſell that can not be made whole agayne: *in Thopheth ſhall they be buried, for they ſhall haue none other place. Iere xviii.a. Iere.vii.d.

12 Thus wyll I do vnto this place alſo ℭ ſaith the Lorde, and to them that dwel therin, yea I wyll make this citie as Thopheth.

13 For the houſes of Hieruſalem, and the houſes of the kynges of Juda ſhalbe defiled like as Thopheth, and ſo ſhal al the houſes in whoſe roofes they did ſacrifice vnto all the hoaſt of heauen, and powred drinke offerings vnto ſtraunge gods.

14 And ſo Jeremie came from Thopheth where the Lorde had ſent hym to prophecie, and ſtoode in the court of the houſe of the Lorde, and ſpake to all the people, 15 Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoaſtes the God of Iſrael: Beholde, I will bryng vpon this citie, and vpon euery towne about it, all the plagues that I haue deuiſed againſt them, *becauſe they haue ben obſtinate, and would not obay my warninges. Iere.vii.c.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

2 Jeremie is ſmitten and caſt into priſon for preaching of the worde of God. 3 He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon. 7 He complaineth that he is a mocking ſtocke for the worde of God. 9 He is compelled by the ſpirite to preache the worde.

A 1 When Phaſhur the prieſt the ſonne of Emmer, chiefe in the houſe of the Lorde, hearde Jeremie preache theſe wordes (ſo ſtedfaſtly)

Ioh.xviii.c. Actes xiii.a 2 *he ſmote Jeremie, and put hym in the priſon that is in the hye gate of Beniamin towardes the houſe of the Lorde.

3 The next day folowing Phaſhur brought Jeremie out of the priſon a-gayne: Then ſaide Jeremie vnto him, The Lorde ſhall call thee no more Phaſhur (that is excellent and increaſing) but Magor (that is fearefull and afraide) euery where.

4 For thus ſaith the Lorde: Beholde, I wil make thee afraide, euen thy ſelfe, and all that fauour thee, which ſhall periſhe with the ſworde of their enemies, euen before thy face, and I wyll geue whole Juda into the hands of the king of Babylon, whiche ſhall cary ſome vnto Babylon priſoners, and ſlay ſome with the ſworde.

4.Reg xxv.e Iere. xv.c. and. xvii.a.

5 *Moreouer, all the substaunce of this citie, whatsoeuer they haue gotten with their trauaile, all their precious thinges, & all the treasure of the kinges of Juda, will I geue into the handes of their enemies, whiche shall spoyle them, and cary them vnto Babylon.

6 But as for thee (O Phashur) thou shalt go into captiuitie with all thyne housholde, and to Babylon shalt thou come, where thou shalt dye and be buried, thou and all thy fauourers to whom thou hast preached lies.

25 (a) The prophete assureth the truth of his doctrine, against the slaunderer, for it is the worde of God, whyche can not be ceased nor be deceaued.

7 (a) O Lord, if I am deceaued, then hast thou deceaued me, thou enforcedst me, and hast preuayled: dayly am I despised and laughed to scorne of euery man.

Iere vi.b

8 For since I began to preache, I cryed out against violence, and exclaimed against oppression: *for the whiche cause they cast the Worde of the Lorde in my teeth, to my reproche continually.

9 Wherefore I thought from henceforth not to speake of hym, nor to preache any more in his name: but the Worde of the Lorde was a very burning fire in my heart and in my bones, whiche when I would haue stopped, I might not.

10 (b) Verily I hearde the euyll reportes of many, terrour was on euery side of me: (b) complayne vpon hym say they, and we will tell his tale: Yea all myne owne companions, and suche as were conuersaunt with me, lay in wayte for my halting, saying: peraduenture he will be deceaued, and so shall we prevayle against hym, and be auenged of hym.

(b) The priestes and suche as were in authoritie with the kyng, styrred vp the people to slaunder Jeremias sayings, if they could finde hym to halt in any thyng, wherefore that might accuse hym to the kyng.

11 But the Lorde stoode by me lyke a mightie gyaunt, therefore my persecutours fell and coulde do nothyng: they shalbe sore confounded, for they haue done vnwisely, they shall haue an euerlasting shame, which shall neuer be forgotten.

12 *And nowe O Lorde of hoastes that triest the righteous, which knowest the raynes and the very heartes, let me see them punished: for vnto thee I haue declared my cause. Iere.xi.d.

13 Sing vnto the Lord and prayse hym, for he hath deliuered the soule of the oppressed from the hande of the violent.

14 *Cursed be the day wherein I was borne, vnhappy be the day wherein my mother brought me forth. Iob.iii.a. Iere. xv.b. Gen.xix.c.

15 *Cursed be the man that brought my father the tidinges to make hym glad, saying, Thou hast begotten a sonne:

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities (c) whiche the Lorde turned vpsidedowne and repented not: Let hym heare crying in the morning, and at noone day lamentable howling.

(c) The most godly men are sometimes caried away with the vnruly rage of immoderate affection, albeit in this prophete the cause of this immoderate grefe was, for that he sawe his example to saue y people, to be in vayne, Gods worde contemned, and all godlynesse scorne fully despised.

17 Why slewest thou not me assoone as I came out of my mothers wombe: or that my mother had ben my graue her selfe, that the byrth might not haue come out, but remayned still in her:

18 *Wherefore came I forth of my mothers wombe: to haue experience of labour and sorowe, and to leade my lyfe with shame:

The. xx. Chapter.

¶ He prophecieth that Zedekias shalbe taken, and the citie burned.

1 These are the wordes that the lord spake vnto Jeremie, *what time as kyng Zedekias sent vnto hym Phashur the sonne of Melchias, & Sophonias the sonne of Maasias priest, saying:

Iob x.c.

2 *Aske counsayle at the Lorde (we pray thee) on our behalfe, for Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon besiegeth vs: if the Lorde (peraduenture) will deale with vs according to his marueylous power, and take hym from vs.

3 Then spake Jeremie: Geue Zedekias this answere.

4 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel: Beholde, I will turne backe the weapons that ye haue in your hands, wherwith ye fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldees, whiche besiege you rounde about the walles, and I will bryng them together into the middest of this citie.

5 And

5 And I my selfe will fight against you with an outstretched hande, and with a mighte arme, in great displeasure and terrible wrath:

6 And wyll smite them that dwell in this cite, yea both men and cattell shall dye of a great pestilence.

Iere xxxi.a. 25 7 *But after this (saith the Lorde) I shall deliuer Zedekias kyng of Juda, and his seruauntes, his people, and such as are escaped in the cite from the pestilence, swoorde, and hunger, into the power of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, yea into the handes of their enemies, into the handes of those that folowe vpon their liues, whiche shall smite them with the swoorde, they shall not pitie them, they shal not spare them, they shall haue no mercy vpon them.

8 And vnto this people thou shalt say, thus saith the Lorde: *Beholde, I lay before you the way of life and death.

Deut 30.c. Iere.xxvii.a xxxviii.a.

9 Whoso abideth in the cite, shall perishe, either with the swoorde, with hunger, or pestilence: but whoso goeth out to holde on the Chaldees part that besiege it, he shall saue his lyfe, and shall winne his soule for a pray.

10 *For I haue set my face against this cite (saith the Lorde) to plague it, and to do it no good: it must be geuen into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, and be brent with fire. Iere.xxxi.a

11 And vnto the house of the king of Juda say thus: Heare the woorde of the Lorde:

12 O thou house of Dauid, thus saith the Lorde: Minister righteousnesse and that soone, deliuer the oppressed from violent power, or euer my terrible wrath breake out lyke a fire and burne, so that no man may quenche it because of the wickednesse of your imaginations. Esai.i.c. Iere.xxxi.a. Zacha vii.b. Iere.iii.a.

13 *Behold, saith the Lord, I wyll come vpon thee that dwellest in the valleys, rockes, and fieldes, and say, *tushe, who will make vs afraide? or who wil come vnto our houses? Iere.xlviii.a Deu.xxix.c Iere.v.b. xii.a xiii.b. and.xxii.c.

14 For I wyll visite you saith the Lord, because of the wickednesse of your intentions, and wyll kindle suche a fire in your wood, as shall consume all that is about you. Sopho.i.c.

¶ The. xxij. Chapter.

2 He exhorteth the kyng of Juda to iudgement and righteousnesse. 9 Why Hierusalem is brought into captiuitie. 11 The death of Sellum the sonne of Iosua is prophecied.

Thus saith the Lord: Go downe into the house of the kyng of Juda, and speake there these woordes,

2 And say: Heare the woorde of the Lorde thou kyng of Juda that sittest in the kyngly seate of Dauid, thou and thy seruauntes, and thy people that goeth in and out at these gates.

Esai.i.c. Iere.xxi.c. Zacha.vii.c. 3 Thus the Lord cõmaundeth: *Kepe equitie and righteousnesse, deliuer the oppressed from the power of the violent, do not greeue nor oppresse the straunger, the fatherlesse, nor the widowe, and shed no innocent blood in this place.

4 And if ye kepe these thinges faythfully, then shall there come in at the doore of this house, kinges to sit vpon Dauids seate, they shalbe caried in charrets, and ride vpon horses, both they and their seruauntes, and their people.

5 But if ye wyll not be obedient vnto these commaundementes, *I sweare by mine owne selfe, saith the Lord, this house shalbe waste. Esa i.c. Iere.l.c. Hebre.vi.b.

6 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vpon the kynges of Juda: Thou Gilead art vnto me the head of Libanus: Shall I not make thee so waste as the cities that no man dwell in?

7 I wyll prepare a destroyer with his weapons for thee, to hewe downe thy especiall Cedar trees, and to cast them in the fire.

The. xxiij. Chapter.

1 He speaketh against euill curates that make hauocke of the flocke of the Lord. 3 Of the conuersion of the remnaunt of the Iewes to the fayth. 5 The comming of the true shepheарde Christe is prophecied. 9 Against false prophetes. 22 When a prophete preacheth the worde of God, God conuerteth the heartes of the hearers. 26 Against prophetes that preache lies vnder the name of God. 33 The miracles of false prophetes.

Ezech 34.a.

1 WO vnto the shepheardes that destroy and scatter my flocke, saith the Lorde.

2 Wherefore this is the saying of the Lord God of Israel concerning the shepheardes that feede my people, Ye scatter and thrust out my flocke, and loke not vpon them: therefore nowe wyll I visite the wickednesse of your imaginations, saith the Lorde.

3 And I wyll gather together the remnaunt of my flocke from all landes that I had driuen them vnto, and will bring them agayne to their foldes, that they may growe and increase.

4 I wyll set shepheardes also ouer them, whiche shall feede them: they shall no more feare and dread, and there shall none of them be loste, saith the Lorde.

Ier.xvi.c.

B 7 *And therefore beholde the time commeth saith the Lorde, that it shalbe no more sayde, the Lorde liueth whiche brought the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt:

8 But the Lorde liueth which brought foorth and led the seede of the house of Israel out of the northlande, and from all countreys where I had scattred them: and they shal dwel in their owne lande agayne.

9 My heart breaketh in my body, because of the false prophetes all my bones shake, I am become like a drunken man that by the reason of wine can take no rest, for very feare of the Lorde and his holy wordes.

10 Because the lande is full of adulterers, and therefore swearing it mourneth, *and the pleasaunt pastures of the desert are dryed vp: yea the way that men take is wicked, and their power is nothing right.

Iere.xiii.a.

11 For the prophetes and the priestes them selues are polluted hypocrites, and their wickednesse haue I founde in my house, saith the Lorde.

12 Wherefore their way shalbe slipperie in the darknesse, wherein they may stacker and fall: for I wyll bryng a plague vpon them, euen the yere of their visitation, saith the Lorde. C

13 I haue seene folly among the prophetes of Samaria, that preached for Baal, and deceaued my people of Israel.

14 I haue seene also among the prophetes of Hierusalem foule adultrie, and presumptuous lyes: they take the most shamefull men by the hande, flattering them, so that they can not returne from their wickednes: all these with their citizens are vnto me as Sodom, and as the inhabitours of Gomorre.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes concerning these prophetes: *Beholde, I wyll feede them with wormewood, and make them drinke the water of gall: For from the prophetes of Hierusalem is hypocrisie come vnto all the lande.

Iere.ix.b.

16 And therfore the Lorde of hoastes geueth you this warning: *Heare not the wordes of the prophetes that preache vnto you and deceaue you, truely they teache you vanitie: for they speake the meaning of their owne heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lorde.

17 *They say vnto them that despise me, The Lorde hath spoken it, tushe, ye shall prosper right well: and vnto all them that walke after the lust of their owne heart, they say, tushe, there shall no misfortune happen you.

18 For who hath sitten in the counsayle of the Lorde, that he hath hearde and vnderstande what he is about to do? who hath marked his deuice, and hearde it?

19 *Beholde, the stormie weather of the Lorde (that is his indignation, shall go foorth, and a violent whirlewinde shall fall downe vpon the head of the vngodly.

20 And the wrath of the Lorde shall not turne agayne, vntill he performe and fulfill the thought of his heart: *and in the latter dayes ye shall knowe his meaning.

21 I haue not sent these prophetes (saith the Lorde) and yet they ranne, *I haue not spoken to them, and yet they preached.

22 But if they had continued in my counsayle, they had opened to my people my wordes, and they had turned my people from their cuyll wayes, and wicked imaginations.

23 *Am I then God that seeth but the thing whiche is nye at hande, and not that is farre of, saith the Lorde?

24 *May any man hide him selfe so, that I shall not see hym saith the Lorde? *do not I fulfill heauen and earth saith the Lorde?

25 I haue hearde well inough what the prophetes say that preache lyes in my name, sayng, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 Howe long wyll this continue in the prophetes heart to tell lies, and preache the craftie subtilte of their owne heart?

27 whose purpose is with the dreames that euery one tell, to make my people forget my name, as their fathers dyd when Baal came vp.

28 The prophete that hath a dreame, let hym tell it, *and he that vnderstandeth my worde, let hym shewe it faythfully: for what hath chaffe and wheate to do together saith the Lorde?

29 Is not my worde like a fire saith the Lorde? and like an hammer that breaketh the harde stone?

30 Therefore thus saith the Lorde: beholde, I wyll vpon the prophetes that steale my worde priuily from euery man.

31 Beholde, here am I saith the Lorde, against the prophetes that make tongues tender to speake, and to say, The Lorde hath saide it.

32 Beholde, here am I saith the Lorde, against those prophetes that dare prophecie lying dreames, and deceaue my people with their vanities and inconstant deuices, yet I neuer sent nor commaunded them: They shall do this people no good at all, saith the Lorde.

33 If this people, eyther any prophete or priest aske thee, and say: What is the (a) burthen of the Lorde? Thou shalt say vnto them: What burthen? I wyll forsake you saith the Lorde.

34 And the prophete, priest, or people that vseth this tearme, The burthen of the Lorde: hym wyll I visite, and his house also.

35 But thus shall ye say euery one to another, and euery man to his brother: What answere hath the Lorde geuen? or what is the Lordes commaundement?

36 And as for the burthen of the Lorde, ye shall speake no more of it, for euery mans owne worde is his burthen: because ye haue altred the wordes of the liuing God, the Lorde of hoastes, our God.

37 Thus shall euery man say to the prophetes: What answere hath the Lorde geuen thee? or what saith the Lorde?

38 And not once to name the burthen of the Lorde. Therefore thus saith the Lord: Forasmuch as ye haue vsed this terme (the burthen of the Lord) where as I notwithstanding sent vnto you and forbad you to speake of the Lordes burthen:

39 Beholde therefore, I wyll take you vp as a burthen, and wyl cast you farre of from my presence, yea and the citie also

4 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, after this maner:
5 Thus saith the Lorde the God of Israel, Like as thou knowest the good figges: so shall J knowe the men led away, whom J haue sent out of this place unto the lande of the Chaldees for their profite:
6 And J wyll set mine eyes vpon them for the best, for J wyll bryng them agayne into this lande, J wyll buylde them vp, and not breake them downe, J wyll plant them, and not roote them out.

The. xxv. Chapter.

1 Jeremie prophecieth that they shalbe in captiuitie threscore and ten yeres, because they contemned and despised the worde of God. 10 He sheweth that after the threscore and ten yeres, the Babylonians shoulde be destroyed. 14 The destruction of all nations is prophecied. 34 He moueth the pastes of the nations to wayling.

A 1 A Sermon that was geuen vnto Jeremie vpon all the people of Juda, in the fourth yere of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda (that was in the first yere of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon.)
2 Which sermon Jeremie the prophete made vnto all the people of Juda, and to all the inhabitours of Hierusalem, on this maner.
3 From the thirteenth yere of Josias the sonne of Amon kyng of Juda vnto this present day (that is euen twentie and three yeres) the worde of the Lord hath ben committed vnto me, *and so J haue spoken vnto you, J haue risen vp early, J haue geuen you warning in season: but ye wouldo not heare me. 6 And go not after straunge gods, serue them not, worship them not, and anger me not with the workes of your owne handes, then wyll I not punishe you.

7 Neuertheless, ye woulde not heare me saith the Lorde, but haue prouoked me to anger with the workes of your handes, to your great harme.

8 Wherefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes: *Because ye haue not hearkened vnto my worde, Iere. i.b.

9 Lo, I wyll sende out and call for all the people that dwell in the north saith the Lorde, and wyll prepare Nabuchodonozar the kyng of *Babylon my seruaunt, and wyll bryng them vpon this lande, and vpon all that dwell therin, and vpon all the people that are about them, and wyll vtterly roote them out: I wyll make them amased, a mocking, and a continuall desert.

11 And this whole lande shall become a wildernesse and astonished: and these nations shal serue the king of Babylon threscore yeres and ten.

a Par.xxxvi. 2.Esdra.i.a. Iere. v.c. and xxix.b Dan.ix.a. Zacha.i.b.

12 *When the threscore and ten yeres are expired, I wil visite all the wickednesse of the kyng of Babylon and his people saith the Lorde, yea and the lande of the Chaldees, and wyll make it a perpetuall wildernesse, 13 And wyll fulfill all my wordes vpon that lande which I haue deuised against it: yea all that is written in this booke, whiche Jeremie hath prophecied of all people.

14 So that they also shalbe subdued vnto diuers nations and great kynges, Iob.34.d. *for I will recompence them according to their deedes and workes of their owne handes.

15 For thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken vnto me: take this wine cup of indignation fro my hande, that thou mayest cause all people to whom I sende thee, for to drinke of it.

C Matt.xxi. Psal.lxxv.b

16 That when they haue dronken thereof, they may be madde and out of their wittes, when the sworde commeth that I wyll sende among them.

17 Then toke I the cuppe from the Lordes hande, and made all people to drinke thereof vnto whom the Lorde had sent me:

18 But first the citie of Hierusalem, and all the cities of Juda, their kinges and princes, to make them desolate, amased, despised, and hissed at, and cursed, according as it is come to passe this day:

19 Yea and Pharao the kyng of Egypt, his seruauntes, his princes, and his people altogether one with another:

20 And all kinges of the lande of Hus, all kinges of the Philistines lande, Ascalon, Azah, Accaron, and the remnaunt of Asdod,

21 The Edomites, the Moabites, and the Ammonites,

22 All the kinges of Tyrus and Sidon, D the kinges of the Iles that are beyonde the sea,

23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, and all them that dwell in the vttermost partes of the worlde,

24 All the kinges of Arabia, and [generally] all the kinges that dwell in the desert,

25 All the kinges of Zimri, al the kinges of Elam, all the kinges of the Medes, 26 All the kinges towarde the north, whether they be farre or nye, euery one against his neighbour, yea and all the kyngdomes that are vpon the whole earth: and the kyng of Sesach shall drinke also after them.

27 Therfore say thou vnto them, This is the commaundement of the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: Drinke and be dronken, spewe and fall, that ye neuer arise, and that for the sworde which I wyll sende among you.

28 But yf they wyll not receaue the cup of thy hande, and drynke it, then tell them, thus doth the Lorde of hoastes threaten you, Drynke it you shall, and that shortly:

29 For lo, *I begyn to plague the citie that my name is geuen vnto, thinke ye then then that I will leaue you vnpunished: ye shall not go quite: for why: I call for a swoorde vpon all the inhabitours of the earth, saith the Lorde of hoastes.

30 Therfore tell them all these woordes, and say vnto them: *The Lorde shall crye from aboue, and his voyce shalbe heard from his holy habitation, with a great noyse shal he crie from his court regall: he shall geue a great voyce like the grape gatherers, and the sounde therof shalbe heard vnto the endes of the woorlde. Ioel iii.c Amo i.d.

31 For the Lorde hath a iudgement to geue vpon all people, and wyll holde his court of iustice with all fleshe, and wyll deliuer the vngodly to the swoorde, saith the Lorde.

32 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, *Beholde, a miserable plague shall go from one people to another, and a great stormie water shall arise from all the endes of the earth. Ier. xxx.d.

33 And the same day shall the Lord him selfe slay them from one ende of the earth to another: there shal no mone be made for any of them, none gathered vp, none buryed: but shall lye as dunge vpon the grounde.

34 Mourne ye sheepheardes, and crye, sprinkle your selues with ashes ye rammes of the flocke: for the tyme of your slaughter and breache is fulfylled, and ye shall fall lyke vessels that were much set by.

35 *The sheepheardes shall haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke shall not escape. Psal. cxliiii.a.

36 Then shall the sheepheardes crye horribly, and the rammes of the flocke shall mourne: for the Lorde hath consumed their pasture, 37 And their best fieldes lye dead, because of the horrible wrath of the Lorde.

38 They haue forsaken their foldes like as a lion: for their lande is waste because of the spoylers furious cruelte, and of his fearefull indignation.

¶ The.xxvj. Chapter.

2 Jeremie moueth the people to amendement. 7 He is taken of the prophetes and priestes, and brought to iudgement. 23 Urias the prophete is kylled of Iehoakim, contrary to the wyll of God.

1 IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Juda, came this woorde from the Lorde, saying:

2 Thus saith the Lord: *Stande in the court of the Lordes house, & speake vnto al them which (out of the citie of Juda) come to do worship in the Lordes house, all the woordes that I commaunde thee to say: *loke that thou kepe not one woorde backe. Iere. vii.a. and. xvii.d. Deut iiii.a. and. xii.b.

3 (If peraduenture they wyll hearken and turne euery man from his wicked way, *that I may also repent of the plague which I haue determined to bryng vpon them, because of their wicked inuentions.) Iere. xviii.a. Iohn. iii.b.

4 And after this maner shalt thou speake vnto them, Thus saith the Lord: If ye wyll not obey me, to walke in my lawes which I haue geuen you,

5 And to heare the woordes of my seruauntes the prophetes whom I sent vnto you, rising vp tymely, and styll sendyng, yet you haue not hearkened:

6 Then wyll I do to this house *as I did vnto Silo, and wyll make this citie to be abhorred of all the people of the earth. Ier. vii.a.

7 And the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people heard Jeremie preache these woordes in the house of the Lorde.

8 Nowe when he had spoken out all the woordes that the Lorde commaunded hym to preache vnto the people, then the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people toke holde vpon hym, and sayde, Thou shalt dye:

9 Howe darest thou be so bolde as to say in the name of the Lord, it shall happen to this house as it did vnto Silo, and this citie shalbe so waste that no man may dwell therin:

10 And when all the people were gathered about Jeremie in the house of the Lorde, the princes of Juda heard of this rumour, and they came soone out of the kynges palace vnto the house of the Lorde, and sate them downe before the *newe doore of the Lorde. 4. Reg. xi.b. Iere. xxxvi.d.

11 Then spake the priestes and the prophetes vnto the rulers, and to all the people, people these wordes, *This man is worthy to dye: for he hath preached agaynst this citie, as ye your selues haue heard with your eares.

Ioh.x.x.
Mat.xvi.g.

12 Then sayde Jeremie vnto the rulers and to all the people, The Lorde hath sent me to preache agaynst this house, and agaynst this citie, all the wordes that ye haue heard.

13 Therfore amende your wayes, and your adiusementes, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God, so shall the Lorde repent of the plague that he hath deuised agaynst you.

14 Nowe as for me I am in your handes, do with me as you thynke expedient and good:

15 But this shall ye knowe yf ye put me to death, *ye shall make your selues, this citie, and all the inhabitours therof guilty of innocent blood: For this is of a trueth, that the Lorde hath sent me vnto you, to speake all these wordes in your eares.

Mat.xxiii.e

16 Then sayde the rulers and the people vnto the prestes and prophetes: This man may not be condempned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the Lorde our God.

17 The elders also of the lande stoode vp, and sayde thus vnto all the people.

18 Micheas the Morasthite, which was a prophete vnder Ezekias kyng of Juda, spake to all the people of Juda, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, *Sion shalbe plowed like a fielde, Hierusalem shalbe an heape of stones, and the hyll of the Lordes house shalbe turned to an hye wood.

Micha.a
Mich.iii.c

19 Did Ezekias the kyng of Juda and all the people of Juda put hym to death for this: No verely: *but rather feared the Lord, and made their prayer vnto hym, for the which cause also the Lorde (a) repented of the plague that he had deuised agaynst them: Shoulde we then do such a shamefull deede agaynst our soules:

Ionatan.b.

(a) In the diuine nature there is no such affection of chaungeablenesse: but God vsith after the maner of men to repent, when he doth not execute that he had pronounced, or doth deferre the plague which he had threatned.

20 There was a prophete also that preached sharply in the name of the Lorde, called Urias the sonne of Semaiah of Kiriathiarim: this man also preached agaynst this citie and agaynst this lande, according to all as Jeremie saith.

21 Nowe when *Jehoakim the kyng with all the estates and princes had heard his wordes, the kyng went about to slay hym: *when Urias perceaued that, he was afrayde and fled, and departed into Egypt.

3.Reg.xx.d.
Mich.ii.e

22 Then Jehoakim the kyng sent seruauntes into the lande of Egypt [namelye] Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, and certayne men with hym into Egypt:

23 which fetched Urias out of Egypt, and brought hym vnto kyng Jehoakim, that slue hym with the sworde, and cast his dead body into the common peoples graue.

24 But Ahikam the sonne of Saphan helped Hieremie, that he came not into the handes of the people to be slayne.

The.xxvij. Chapter.

1 Jeremie at the commaundement of the Lorde sendeth bondes to the kyng of Juda, and to the other kynges that were nye, whereby they are monished to become subiectes vnto Nabuchodonozor. 9 He warneth the people, and the kinges, and rulers, that they beleue not false prophetes.

A 1 IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, came this worde vnto Jeremie from the Lorde, which spake thus vnto me:

2 Make thee bondes and chaynes, and put them about thy necke,

3 And sende them to the kyng of Edom, to the kyng of Moab, to the kyng of Ammon, to the kyng of Tyrus, and to the kyng of Sidon, and that by the messengers which shall come to Hierusalem, vnto Zedekiah the kyng of Juda:

4 And bid them say vnto their maisters, Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel, speake thus vnto your maisters:

5 *I am he that made the earth, the men, and the cattell that are vpon the grounde with my great power & stretched out arme, and haue geuen it vnto whom it pleased me.

Iere xxi b. xxxviii.a xlv.c.

7 *And all the people shal serue him, and his sonne, and his childers children, vntyll the tyme of the same lande be come, great kynges shall serue hym.

8 Moreouer, that people and kyngdome which wyl not serue Nabuchodonozor, & that wyll not put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon: the same people wyll I visite with the swoorde, with hunger and pestilence, vntyll I haue consumed them in his handes, saith the Lorde.

Iere. xxiii.c and xxix.b.

9 *And therfore folowe not your prophetes, soothsayers, expounders of dreames, charmers, & wiches, which say vnto you, Ye shal not serue the kyng of Babylon.

10 For they preache you lyes, to bring you farre from your lande, & that I myght cast you out, and destroy you.

11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Baby-mayne styll in their owne lande, saith the Lorde, and they shall occupie it and dwell therin.

12 All these thynges tolde I Zedekiah myght perishe, with your preachers.

cie lyes vnto you.

17 Heare them not, but serue the kyng of Babylon, that ye may lyue: wherfore wyll ye make this citie to be destroyed:

18 But yf they be true prophetes in very deede, and yf the worde of the Lorde be committed vnto them, then let them pray the Lord of hoastes, that the remnaunt of the ornamentes which are in the house of the Lorde & in the house of the kyng of Juda, and at Hierusalem, be not caryed to Babylon also.

19 For thus hath the Lorde of hoastes spoken concerning the pillers, the lauer, the seate, and the residue of the orna-mentes that yet remayne in this citie,

Babylon toke not when he caryed 4.Reg 24.c.

21 Yea thus hath the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel spoken, as touchyng the residue of the ornamentes of the Lordes house, of the kyng of Juda his house, and of Hierusalem:

22 *They shalbe caryed vnto Babylon, 4.Reg. 25.c. and there shall they remayne vntyll I visite them, saith the Lorde: *then wyll i Esd.i.b.
I bryng them hyther agayne.

¶ The.xxviij. Chapter.

1 The false prophecie of Hananias the prophete. 12 Ieremie sheweth that the prophecie of Hananias is false, by the example of the other prophetes. 15 He being inspired of the Lorde, reproueth Hananias prophecying his death.

Iere.27.c.

A 1 ND it came to passe the same yere, euen in the begynnyng of the raigne of Zedekiah kyng of Juda, in the fourth yere, the fift moneth, that Hananias the sonne of Assur the prophete of Gi-beon spake to me in the house of the Lorde, in the presence of the priestes, and of all the people, and sayde:

2 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: I haue broken the yoke of the kyng of Babylon,

3 And

Iere xxvii.c 3 *And after two yeres wyll I bryng agayne vnto this place all the ornamentes of the Lordes house, that Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon caryed away from this place vnto Babylon,

4 Yea I wyll bryng agayne Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim the kyng of Juda hym selfe, with all the prisoners of Juda that are caried vnto Babylon, euen vnto this place, saith the Lorde: for I wyll breake the yoke of the kyng of Babylon.

5 Then the prophete Jeremie gaue answere vnto the prophete Hananias before all the prestes, and before all the people that were present in the house of the Lorde.

Mich.iii.c 6 *And the prophete Jeremie sayde, Amen, the Lorde do that, and graunt the thyng which thou hast prophecied, that he may bryng agayne all the ornamentes of the Lordes house, and restore all the prisoners from Babylon into this place.

B 7 Neuertheles, hearken thou also what I wyll say, that thou and all the people may heare.

8 The prophetes that were before vs in tyme past, which prophecied of warre, or trouble, or pestilence, 9 Either of peace vpon many nations and great kyngdomes, were proued by this (yf God hath sent them in very deede) *when the thyng came to passe Deu.xviii.d which the prophete tolde before.

10 And Hananias the prophete toke the chayne from the prophete Jeremies necke, and brake it:

11 And with that sayde Hananias that all the people might heare, thus hath the Lorde spoken, Euen so wyll I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon from the necke of all nations, yea and that within this two yere. And so the prophete Jeremie went his way.

12 Nowe after that Hananias the prophete had taken the chayne from the prophete Jeremies necke and broken it, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete Jeremie, saying:

13 Go and tell Hananias these wordes, Thus saith the Lord: thou hast broken the chayne of wood, but in steade of wood thou shalt make chaynes of iron.

14 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: I wyll put a yoke of iron vpon the necke of all this people, that they may serue Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, yea and so shall they do: and I wyll geue hym the beastes of the fielde. C

15 Then sayde the prophete Jeremie vnto the prophete Hananias: *Heare me Iere.xxix.c Hananias, The Lorde hath not sent thee, but thou bryngest this people vnto a false beliefe.

16 And therfore thus saith the Lorde: Beholde, I wyll sende thee out of the lande, and within a yere thou shalt dye, because thou hast falsely spoken agaynst the Lorde.

17 So Hananias dyed the same yere in the seuenth moneth.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 The pistle of Jeremie sent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10 He prophecieth their returne from the captiuitie after seuentie yeres. 16 He prophecieth the destruction of the king and of the people that remayned in Hierusalem. 21 He threatneth two prophetes that seduced the people. 25 The death of Semeiah the Nehelamite is prophecied.

A 1 These are the wordes of the booke that Jeremie the prophete sent from Hierusalem vnto the prisoners, the senatours, prestes, prophetes, and all the people, whom Nabuchodonozor had led from Hierusalem vnto Babylon,

2 After that tyme that kyng Iechonias and his queene, his chamberlaynes, the princes of Juda and Hierusalem, the workmaisters of Hierusalem, were departed thyther.

3 Which booke Elasah the sonne of Saphan, & Gamariah the sonne of Helkia did beare, whom Zedekias the kyng of Juda sent vnto Babylon to Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon: These were the wordes of Hierennes booke.

4 Thus hath the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel spoken, vnto all the prisoners that were led from Hierusalem to Babylon:

5 Builde

Iere 31.d.

5 *Builde you houses to dwell therin, plant you gardens, that you may enioy the fruites therof.

Gen.i.d. and xx.a.

6 *Take you wiues to beare you sonnes and daughters, prouide wiues for your sonnes, and husbandes for your daughters, that they may get sonnes & daughters: and that ye may multiplie there, and decrease not.

Baruch.a. 1 Esd.v.d.

ℬ 7 Seke after the peace and prosperitie of the citie wherin ye be prisoners, *and pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace therof shall your peace be.

Iere 31.c. and 27.b.

8 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, *Let not these prophetes and soothsayers that be among you deceaue you, and beleue not your owne dreames:

Iere. xxvi.b.

9 For why? *they preache you lyes in my name, and I haue not sent them, saith the Lorde.

2.Par 36.d. Iere.xx.b. 1.Esd.i.a.

10 But thus saith the Lorde, *when ye haue fulfylled seuentie yeres at Babylon, I will bring you home, and of mine owne goodnesse I wyll cary you hither agayne into this place.

11 For I knowe what I haue deuised for you, saith the Lorde: My thoughtes are to geue you peace, and not trouble, and to geue you an ende as you wishe and hope to haue.

Deut.iiii.c. and xxx.a.

12 *Ye shall crye vnto me, ye shall go and call vpon me, and I wyll heare you.

Ioh.vii.d.

13 *Ye shall seke me and fynde me, yea yf so be that you seke me with your whole heart.

ℭ 14 I wyll be founde of you, saith the Lord, and will deliuer you out of prison, and gather you together agayne out of all places wherin I haue scattered you saith the Lorde, and wyll bryng you agayne to the same place from whence I caused you to be caried away captiue.

15 But where as ye say that God hath raysed you vp prophetes at Babylon, 16 Thus hath the Lorde spoken to the king that sitteth in the throne of Dauid, and to all the people that dwell in this citie, your brethren *that are gone with you into captiuitie:

4.Reg 24.d

17 Thus [I say] speaketh the Lorde of hoastes, Beholde * I wyll sende a sworde, hunger, and pestilence vpon them, and wyll make them lyke vntymely figges that may not be eaten for bitternesse:

Iere.24.b.

18 And I wyll persecute them with the sworde, with hunger, and pestilence, I wyll deliuer them vp to be vexed of all kyngdomes, to be cursed, abhorred, laughed to scorne, and put to confusion of all the people among whom I haue scattered them:

19 And that because they haue not ben obedient vnto my commaundementes saith the Lord, which I sent vnto them by my seruauntes the prophetes: *I stoode vp early and sent vnto them, but they would not heare, saith the Lorde. Iere.xxv.a. and.xliii.a.

20 Heare therfore the worde of the Lord all ye prisoners whom I sent from Hierusalem to Babylon.

21 Thus hath the Lorde of hoastes the ℑ God of Israel spoken of Ahab the sonne of Colaiah, and of Zedekiah the sonne of Maasiah, which prophecie lyes vnto you in my name: Beholde, I wyll deliuer them into the hande of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, that he may slay them before your eyes.

22 And all the prisoners of Iuda that are in Babylon, shall take this tearme of cursyng, and say: Nowe God do vnto thee as he did vnto Zedekiah & Ahab, whom the kyng of Babylon rosted in the fire:

23 Because they sinned shamefully in Israel, for they haue not only defiled their neighbours wiues, but also preached lying wordes in my name, which I haue not commaunded them: This I testifie and assure, saith the Lorde.

24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto hym:

25 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Because thou hast sent letters in thine owne name vnto all the people that is at Hierusalem, and to Sophonah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, yea & sent them to all the priestes, wherin thou writest thus vnto hym:

26 The Lorde hath ordeyned thee to be priest in the steade of Iehoiada the priest, that thou shouldest be chefe in the house of the Lorde aboue all prophetes and preachers, and that thou mightest set them vpon the pyllory, or in the stockes: 4.Reg.xi.a. 2.Par.xxiv.a.

27 Howe happeneth it then that thou hast not reproued Hieremie of Anathoth, which neuer ceaseth of his prophecying.

28 And beside all this, he hath sent vs worde vnto Babylon, and tolde vs playnely Iere.xxix.c.

playnely that our captuitie shall long endure, that we should builde vs houses to dwel therin, and to plant vs gardens, that we may enioy the fruites therof.

29 Which letter Sophonias the priest read, and let Jeremie the prophete heare it.

30 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, saying:

31 Sende worde to all them that be in captuitie, on this maner, Thus hath the Lorde spoken concerning Semeiah the Nehelamite: Because that Semeiah hath prophecied vnto you without my commission, and brought you into a false hope: Ier 28 c.

32 Therfore thus the Lorde doth certifie you, Beholde, I wyll visite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his seede, so that none of his shall remayne among this people, and none of them shall see the good that I wyll do for my people, saith the Lorde: for he hath preached falsely of the Lorde.

¶ The.xxx. Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from Babylon. 8 God by his chastenyng sheweth that the people is sinnefull. 16 The destruction of the enemies of Israel.

A 1 These are the wordes that the Lord sheweth vnto Jeremie, saying:

2 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel: *Write vp diligently all the wordes that I haue spoken vnto thee in a booke. Ier.xxx.c.

3 For lo, the tyme commeth saith the Lorde, that I wyll bryng agayne the prisoners of my people of Israel and Juda saith the Lorde: for I wyll restore them vnto the lande that I gaue to their fathers, and they shall haue it in possession.

4 Agayne, these wordes spake the Lord concernyng Israel and Juda, 5 Thus saith the Lorde, we haue heard a terrible crye, feare and disquietnesse.

6 For what els doth this signifie that I see: (Namely) that all strong men smite euery man his hande vpon his loynes, as a woman in the payne of her trauayle: who euer sawe a man trauayle with childe: Enquire therafter and see, yea all their faces are marueylous pale. Ier.xiii.b.

25 7 Alas for this day, which is so dreadfull that none may be likened vnto it, and alas for the tyme of Jacobs trouble, from the which he shal yet be delinered.

8 For in that day saith the Lorde of hoastes, I wyll take his yoke from of thy necke, and breake thy bondes, and straungers shall no more haue dominion ouer them:

9 But they shall do seruice vnto God their Lorde, and to *Dauid their kyng whom I wyll rayse vp vnto them. Ezech.34.d.

Ier.xlvi.g. 10 *And as for thee O my seruaunt Jacob, feare not saith the Lorde, and be not afrayde O Israel: For lo, I wyll helpe thee also from farre, and thy seede from the lande of their captuitie: And Jacob shall turne agayne, he shalbe in rest, and haue a prosperous lyfe, and no man shall make hym afrayde:

11 For I am with thee to helpe thee, saith the Lorde: *And though I shall destroy all the people among whom I haue scattered thee, yet wyll I not destroy thee, but correct thee, *and that with discretion: for I wyll not vtterly destroy thee. Amos.ix.b. Ier.x.d.

12 *Therfore thus saith the Lorde, Thy brosinges are perilous, & thy woundes redy to cast thee into sickenesse. Exod.15.a. Nahum.1.a.

13 There is no man to meddle with thy cause, or to lay plaster vpon thee, or to bynde vp thy woundes to heale thee.

14 All thy louers haue forgotten thee, and care nothyng for thee: for I haue geuen thee a cruell stroke, and chastened thee roughly, and that for the multitude of thy misdeedes: for thy sinnes haue had the ouer hande. ℭ

15 Why makest thou mone for thy harme: In deede thou art sore wounded and in iopardie: *but for the multitude of thy misdeedes and sinnes I haue done this vnto thee. Ier.xvi.d.

16 *And therfore all they that deuour thee, shalbe deuoured, and all thine enemies shalbe led into captiuitie: all they that make thee waste, shalbe wasted them selues, and all those that rob thee, wyll I make also to be robbed. Ier.xvi.a. and.xl.d.

17 For I wyll geue thee thy health agayne, and make thy woundes whole saith the Lorde, because they reuiled thee, as one cast away and dispised:

Ston

Sion (sayde they) is she whom no man regardeth.

Num.24.a. 18 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde I wyll bryng agayne the captyuite of Jacobs tentes, and defende his dwellyng place: the cite shalbe builded in her olde estate, and the houses shall haue their ryght foundation.

19 And out of them shal go thankesgeuing and the voyce of ioy: I wyll multiplie them, and they shal not be fewe, I shall endue them with honour, and no man shall subdue them.

20 Their children shalbe as aforetyme, and their congregation shall continue in my syght: and all those that vexe them wyll I visite.

Mich.v.a. 21 *A captayne also shall come of them, and a prince shall spryng out from the middest of them, hym wyll I chalenge to my selfe, and he shall come vnto me: *For what is he that geueth ouer his heart to come vnto me, sayth the Lorde?

Ioh vi.c.

22 *Ye shalbe my people also, and I wyll be your God.

Iere.xxxi.b. xxxii.b. xxxi.f. Iere.xxx.a.c. xxv b.

23 *Beholde, on the other syde shall the wyath of the Lorde breake out as a stormie water, as a myghtie whirle wynde, and shall fall vpon the heades of the vngodly.

24 The terrible displeasure of the Lorde shall not leaue of, vntyll he haue done and performed the intent of his heart, *Which in the latter dayes ye shall vnderstande.

Iere.xxxi.e.

The.xxxj. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that the people of Israel shalbe restored agayne vnto their prosperitie. 15 To be turned from sinne is the gyft of God. 27 The birth of Christe is prophecied. 30 All the wicked shall dye in their wickednesse. 31 The newe testament and couenaunt is prophecied. 33 The Christians are taught and instruct of the Lorde. 34 Our sinnes shall so be remitted, that they shall not once be thought vpon. 35 God promiseth that he wyll cast of the Iewes. 38 The buildyng agayne of Hierusalem.

A 1 T the same tyme, sayth the Lord, shal I be the God of all the generations of Israel, & they shalbe my people.

2 Thus sayth the Lord: *The people of Israel which escaped in the wilderneſſe from the sworde, founde grace to come into their rest.

Num.xiv.c.

3 Euen so shall the Lorde nowe also appeare vnto me from farre [and say]: *I loue thee with an euerlasting loue, therfore by my mercie I haue drawen thee vnto me.

Ioh.vi.b.

4 I wyll repayre thee agayne O thou daughter of Israel, that thou mayest be fast and sure: thou shalt take thy tabrettes agayne, and go forth with them that leade the daunce:

5 Thou shalt plant vines agayne vpon the hylles of Samaria, and the grape gatherers shall plant, and commonly eate of it.

6 For the dayes shall come when the watchmen vpon the mount of Ephraim shall crye, *Arise, let vs go vp vnto Sion to our Lorde God.

Esai.ii.a.

B 7 For thus sayth the Lorde, Reioyce with gladnesse because of Jacob, crye vnto the head of the gentiles, speake out, syng and say, O Lorde saue thy people the remnaunt of Israel.

8 Beholde, I wyll bryng them agayne from out of the north lande, and gather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blynde & lame that are among them, with the women that be great with chylde, & such as be also deliuered: and the company of them that come agayne shalbe great.

9 They shall come weepyng, and with mercifull pitie will I bring them hither agayne: I will leade them to the ryuers of water in a straight way where they shall not stumble: *For I am Israels father, and *Ephraim is my first borne.

Deut.xi.a. Gen.xlviii.b

10 Heare the worde of the Lorde O ye gentiles, preache in the Iles that lye farre of, and say: He that hath scattered Israel, shall gather hym together agayne, and shall kepe hym as a sheepheard doth his flocke.

11 For the Lorde hath redeemed Jacob, and ridde hym from the hande of the violent.

12 And they shall come and reioyce vpon the hyll of Sion, and shall haue plenteousnesse of goodes, which the Lorde shall geue them, (namely) wheate, wine, oyle, young sheepe, and calues: and their soule shalbe as a well watered garden, for for they shall no more be hungry.

13 Then shall the mayde reioyce in the daunce, yea both young and olde folkes: for I wyll turne their sorowe into gladnesse, and wyll comfort them from their sorowes, and make them ioyfull.
℣ 14 I wyll powre plenteousnesse vpon the heartes of the preistes, and my people shalbe satisfied with my goodnesse, saith the Lorde.
Jere.iii.c. Matth.ii.c. 15 Thus saith the Lorde, *The voyce of heauinesse, weepyng, and lamentation was hearde on hye, euen of Rachel mournyng for her children, and would not be comforted because they were not.
16 But nowe saith the Lorde, leaue of from weepyng and crying, withholde thine eyes from teares: for thy labour shalbe rewarded saith the Lorde, and they shall come agayne out of the lande of their enemies.
17 Yea euen thy posteritie shall haue consolation in this saith the Lorde, that thy children shal come agayne into their owne lande.
18 Moreouer, I hearde Ephraim that was led away captiue complayne on this maner: *O Lorde thou hast corrected me, & thy chastenyng haue I receaued as an vntamed calfe, *conuert thou me and I shalbe conuerted: for thou art my Lorde God.
Exe.xx.c. Thre.v.c Zacha.a.
19 Yea assoone as thou turnest me, I shall repourme my selfe, and when I vnderstande, I shall smite vpon my thygh: For verely I haue committed shamefull thynges: for I haue borne the reproofe and confusion of my youth.
20 Upon this complaynt I thought thus by my selfe: *Is not Ephraim my deare sonne: Is he not the childe with whom I haue had all my mirth and pastime: For since the tyme that I first cōmuned with hym, I haue hym euer in remembraunce: therfore my heart driueth me vnto hym, gladly and louyngly wyll I haue mercie vpon him, saith the Lorde.
Gen.43.d.
21 Make thy selfe markes, set vp heapes of stone, set thine heart vpon the way that thou diest walke, and turne againe O thou daughter of Israel, turne agayne to these cities of thine.
22 Howe long wilt thou go astray O thou shrinkyng daughter: for the Lorde wyll worke a newe thyng vpon earth: A woman shall compasse a man.
23 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: It wyl come therto, that when I haue brought Juda out of captiuitie, these wordes shalbe yearde in the lande and in his cities, The Lord blesse thee O thou dwellyng place of ryghteousnesse, O thou holy hyll.
24 And there shall dwell Juda and all her cities, the shepheardes and husbandmen:
25 For I *shall feede the hungry soule, and refreshe all faynt heartes. Mat.v.a. and.xi.c.
26 When I heard this, I came agayne to my selfe, I sawe like as I had ben waked out of a sweete sleepe.
27 Beholde saith the Lorde, the dayes come that I wyll sowe the house of Israel and the house of Juda with men and with cattell.
28 *Yea it shall come therto, that like as I haue gone about in tymes past to roote them out, to scatter them, to breake them downe, to destroy them, & chasten them: euen so wyll I also go diligently about to builde them vp agayne, and to plant them, saith the Lorde. Deut.28.g. Iere.31.e. Zac.viii.c.
29 *Then shall it no more be sayde, The fathers haue eaten a sowre grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge: Exec.xviii.a
30 For euery one shall dye for his owne ℣ misdeedes: so that who so eateth a sowre grape, his teeth shalbe set on edge.
31 *Beholde the dayes wyll come saith the Lorde, that I wyll make a newe couenaunt with the house of Israel, and the house of Juda: Heb.viii.b.
32 Not after the couenaunt that I made with their fathers, when I toke them by the hande and led them out of the lande of Egypt, which couenaunt they brake, yea euen when I as an husbande had rule ouer them saith the Lorde.
33 *But this shalbe the couenaunt that I wyll make with the house of Israel after those dayes saith the Lorde: *I wyll plant my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, and write it in their heartes, *and wyll be their God, and they shalbe my people. Heb.x.b. Esai.li.b. Iere.24.b. and.xxxi.d.
34 And from thencefoorth shall no man teache his neighbour or his brother, and say, Knowe the Lorde: but they shal all knowe me from the lowest vnto the hyest, saith the Lorde: for I wyll forgeue their misdeedes, and wyll neuer remember their sinnes any more.
35 Thus saith the Lorde, which gaue the sunne to be a lyght for the day, and the Gen.i.b.

moone and the starres to shine in the night, Whiche moueth the sea, so that the fludes thereof ware fierce, his name is the Lorde of hoastes.

36 Like as this ordinaunce shall neuer be taken out of my sight, saith the Lord: so shall the seede of Israel neuer ceasse, but alway be a people before me.

37 Moreouer, thus saith the Lord, Like as the heauen aboue can not be measured, and as the foundations of the earth beneath may not be sought out: * so will I also not cast out the whole seede of Israel for that they haue committed saith the Lorde.

Rom.xi.a

38 Beholde, the dayes come saith the Lorde, that the citie of the Lorde shalbe enlarged, from the * towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wall.

n.Esd.iij.a. Zac.xxiiij.b

39 From thence shall the right measure be taken before her vnto the hyll toppe of * Gareb, and shall come about Gath.

Iere.xix.b.

40 And the whole valley of the dead carkasses, and of the asshes, and all the fieldes, vnto the brooke of Cedron, and vnto the corner of the horse gate towarde the east, it shalbe holy vnto the Lorde, and shall neuer be broken nor cast downe any more.

¶ The.xxxii. Chapter.

1 Jeremie is cast into prison, because he prophecied that the citie shoulde be taken of the kyng of Babylon. 7 By the fielde that Jeremie bought at the commaundement of the Lorde, is signified that the people should come agayne to their owne possession. 38 The people of God are his seruauntes, and he is their Lorde. 40 To feare God, is Gods gyft, to the entent that sinnes may be eschewed.

A 1 These wordes spake the Lorde vnto Jeremie in the tenth yere of Zedekias kyng of Juda, whiche was the eyghteenth yere of Nabuchodonozor,

2 What tyme as the kyng of Babylons hoast layde siege vnto Hierusalem: but Jeremie the prophete lay bounde in the court of the prison, whiche was in the kyng of Judaes house,

3 Where Zedekias the kyng of Juda caused hym to be layde, because he had prophecied on this maner: Thus saith the Lorde, * Beholde, I will deliuer this citie into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, Whiche shall take it.

Ier.xxxiij.a xxxvij.a. and.xxxix.

4 As for Zedekias the kyng of Juda, he shall not be able to escape the Chaldees: but surely he shall come into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche shall speake with him mouth to mouth, and one of them shall looke another in the face.

5 And Zedekias shalbe caryed vnto Babylon, and there shall he be vntyll the tyme that I visite hym saith the Lorde: but if thou takest in hande to fight against the Chaldees, thou shalt not prosper.

6 And Jeremie saide, Thus hath the Lorde spoken vnto me:

7 Beholde, Hanameel the sonne of Selum thine vncles sonne, shall come vnto thee, and require thee to redeme the lande that lyeth in Anathoth vnto thy selfe: * for by reason of kinred it is thy right to redeeme it and bye it out.

Leuit.xxv.d Nu.xxxvi.a. and.xxxvij.a Ruth.iiij.a.

8 And Hanameel myne vncles sonne came to me in the court of the prison, according to the Word of the Lord, and sayde vnto me: Bye my lande I pray thee, that lieth in Anathoth in the countrey of Benamin, for by heritage thou hast right to loose it out for thy selfe, therfore redeeme it. Then I perceaued that this was the cõmaundement the Lorde:

9 And so I bought the lande from Hanaeel of Anathoth myne vncles sonne, and wayed hym there the money, euen seuen sicles, and ten syluer pence:

10 And I writ it in a booke, and sealed it, and toke witnesses, and wayed hym there the money vpon the waightes.

11 So I toke the euidence with the copie, when it was orderly sealed, and read it ouer:

12 And I gaue the euidence to Baruch the sonne of Neriah, the sonne of Maasiah, in the sight of Hanameel my cosin, and in the presence of the witnesses that be named in the euidence, and before all the Jewes that were thereby in the court of the pryson.

13 I charged Baruch also before them, saying:

℣ 14 The Lord of hoastes, the God of Israel commaundeth [thee] to take this sealed euidence with the copie, and to lay it in the earthen vessell, that it may long continue.

15 For the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel hath determined, that houses, fieldes, and vineyardes shalbe possessed agayne in this lande.

16 Nowe when I had deliuered the euidence vnto Baruch the sonne of Nerias, I besought the Lorde, saying:

Gene.i.a. Iere.x.b. 17 O Lorde God,* it is thou that hast made heauen and earth with thy great power and hye arme, and there is nothing hid from thee.

Exod.34.a. 18 *Thou shewest mercy vpon thousandes, thou recompensest the wickednesse of the fathers into the bosome of the chyldren that come after them.

19 Thou art the great and mighty God, whose name is the Lorde of hoastes, great in counsel, and excellent in worke, thyne eyes looke vpon all the wayes of mens chyldren, *to rewarde euery one after his way, and according to the frutes of his inuentions.

Rom.ii.a.

Exod vii. vnto the.xv chapter. 20 *Thou hast done great tokens and wonders in the lande of Egypt, as we see this day, vpon the people of Israel, and vpon those men, to make thy name great, as it is come to passe this day.

℣ 21 Thou hast brought thy people of Israel out of the lande of Egypt, with tokens, with wonders, with a mighty hande, with a stretched out arme, and with great terriblenesse:

22 And hast geuen them this lande, like as thou haddest promised vnto their fathers, [namely] that thou wouldest geue them a lande that floweth with mylke and honye.

Iud.ii.iii.iiii. vi. viii. Esther v.b. 23 *Nowe when they came therein and possessed it, they folowed not thy voyce, and walked not in thy lawe: *but all that thou commaundedst them to do, that haue they not done, and therefore come all these plagues vpon them.

24 Beholde, there are bulwarkes made nowe against this cite to take it, and it shalbe wonne of the Chaldees that besiege it with sworde, with hunger, and death: and looke what thou hast spoken, that same shall come vpon them, for lo all thinges are present vnto thee.

25 Yet sayest thou vnto me O Lorde God, and commaundest me that I shall bye a peece of land vnto my selfe for money, and take witnesses thereto: and yet in the meane season the cite is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, saying:

27 Beholde, I am the Lorde God of all flesh: is there any thyng then to harde for me:

℣ Iere. xxv. xxxix.c. 28 Therefore thus saith the Lorde: *beholde, I shall deliuer this cite into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon, they shall take it:

29 For the Chaldees shall come and wynne this cite, and set fire vpon it, and burne it, with the gorgious houses, in whose parlours they haue made sacrifice vnto Baal, and powred drinke offerynges vnto straunge gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

30 For the chyldren of Israel and the chyldren of Iuda haue only ben doyng wickednesse before me from their youth vp, they haue ben only prouoking me to wrath with the workes of their owne handes, saith the Lorde.

31 For what hath this cite ben els, but a prouoking of my wrath euer since the day that they builded it, vnto this houre wherein I cast it out of my sight:

32 Because of the great blasphemies of the chyldren of Israel and Iuda, which they haue done to prouoke me, yea they, their kynges, their princes, their priestes, their prophetes, the men of Iuda, and the cytizens of Hierusalem:

Iere.ii.b. 33 *When I stoode vp early and taught them, and instructed them, they turned their backes to me, and not their faces, Iere.vii.d. 34 They wouldenot heare to be reformed and correct: *but set their idols in the house that is halowed to my name, to defile it.

35 They haue buylded hye places for Baal in the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, to cause their sonnes & daughters to passe thorow [fire] in the honour of Moloch, whiche I neuer commaunded ded them: neither came it euer in my thought to make Juda sinne with such abhommation.

36 And nowe therefore thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken concerning this citie, whiche as ye your selues confesse, shalbe deliuered into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, [when it is wonne] with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

Deu.xxxx. 37 *Beholde, I wyll gather them together from all landes, wherein I haue scattred them in my wrath in fearefull and great displeasure, and wyll bryng them agayne vnto this place, where they shall dwell safely:

38 And they shalbe my people, and I wyll be their God.

Ier.xxxii.c. 39 *And I wyll geue them one heart and one way, that they may feare me al the dayes of their lyfe: that they and their children after them may prosper.

Ezec.xxxvi.c 40 *And I wyll set vp an euerlasting couenaunt with them, [namely] that I wyll neuer ceasse to do them good, and that I wyll put my feare in their heartes, so that they shall not runne away from me.

41 *Yea I wyll haue a lust and pleasure to do them good, and faithfully to plant them in this land with my whole heart and with my whole soule. Deut.30.b. Ier.xxxii.c

42 For thus saith the Lorde, Like as I haue brought all this great plague vpon this people: euen so wyll I also bryng vpon them all the good that I haue promised them.

43 And men shall haue their possessions in this lande, whereof ye say nowe, that it shall neither be inhabited of the people, nor of cattell, but be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees:

44 Yea lande shalbe bought for money, and euidences made therupon, and sealed before witnesses in the countrey of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalem, in the cities of Juda, in the cities that are vpon the mountaynes, and them that lye beneath, yea and in the cities that are in the south: for I wyll bryng their prysoners hyther agayne, saith the Lorde.

¶ The. xxxiii. Chapter.

¶ The prophete is monished of the Lord, to pray for the deliuerance of the people, whiche the Lorde promiseth. 8 God forgeueth sinnes, and doth graciously to the people for his owne renowme. 15 Of the byrth of Christe. 20 The kyngdome of Christe in the Churche shall neuer be ended.

A 1 MOreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie againe *whē he was yet bounde in the court of the prison. Ier.xx. and.xxxii.a.

2 Thus saith the Lord who made Hierusalē, who fashioned the same to establishe it, whose name is the Lorde:

Exod.xiiii. i.Reg viii.d. 3 *Crye vnto me, and I wyll answere, and shewe thee great and hye thinges whiche were vnknowen vnto thee.

4 Thus [I say] speaketh the Lorde god of Israel, concerning the houses of this citie, and the houses of the kynges of Juda that are broken thorowe the ordinaunce and the swoorde.

5 The inhabitours of this citie haue come to fight against the Chaldees, and they are filled with the dead carkasses of men, whom I haue slayne in my wrath and displeasure, when I turned my face from this citie, because of al her wickednesse.

6 Beholde saith the Lorde, I wyll repaire and heale their woundes, and make them whole: I wyll open them the large treasure of peace and trueth,

7 And wyll returne the captiuitie of Juda and Israel, and wyll set them vp agayne as they were before: 25

8 *From all misdeedes wherein they offended against me, I wyll clense them: and all their blasphemies which they haue done against me when they regarded me not, I wyll forgeue them. Ier.xxxiii.d.

9 And this shall get me a name, a prayse and honour among all the people of the earth, whiche shall heare all the good that I wyll shewe vnto them, yea they shalbe afraide and astoned at all the good deedes and benefites that I wyll do for them.

10 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde: In this place (wherof ye say that it shalbe a wildernesse, wherein neither people nor cattle shall dwell) in lyke maner in the cities of Juda and in the stretes of Hierusalem (which also shalbe so voyde that neither people nor cattle shall dwel there,)

11 Shall the voyce of gladnesse be heard agayne, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, the voyce of them that shall sing, *Prayse the Lord of hoastes, for he is louing, and his mercy endureth for euer, and the voyce of them that offer vp gyftes in the house of the Lorde: for I wyll restore the captiuitie of this lande as it was afore, saith the Lorde. Psal.cviii.a. i.Mach.iii.d

12 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, It shall come yet therto, that in this lande which is voyde from men and cattle, and in all the cities of the lande, there shalbe set vp shepheardes cottages to rest their flockes.

13 In the cities vpon the mountaynes, and in the cities that lye vpon the plaine, and in the cities of the south, in the lande of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalem, and in the cities of Juda shall the sheepe passe agayne vnder the hande of him that telleth them, saith the Lorde.

C

14 *Beholde, the tyme commeth saith the Lorde, that I will performe that good thing whiche I haue promised vnto the house of Israel, and vnto the house of Juda. Iere.xxiii.a.

15 In those dayes, and at the same tyme, I wyll bryng foorth vnto Dauid the braunche of righteousnesse, and he shall do equitie and righteousnesse in the lande.

16 In those dayes shall Juda be saued, *and Hierusalem shall dwell safe: and this shalbe her name, (a) God our righteousnesse. Esa xxxvii.d ii.Reg.viii.c. (a) This name hath God geuen to Christe, and doth properly belong to hym alone: but here it is attributed vnto the Churche, for that God the father hath espoused Christ his sonne vnto the Churche, and hath endowed her with all that is his.

17 For thus the Lorde promiseth, Dauid shall neuer want one to sit vpon the throne of the house of Israel:

18 *Neither shall the priestes and leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offeringes, to kindle the meate offeringes, and to prepare the sacrifices. i.Reg.ii.g.

19 And the worde of the Lord came vnto Jeremie, after this maner.

20 Thus saith the Lorde: May the couenaunt whiche I haue made with day and night be broken, that there shoulde not be day and night in due season:

21 Then may my couenaunt also be broken whiche I made with Dauid my seruaunt, and so he not to haue a sonne to raigne in his throne: *so shall also the Priestes and Leuites neuer fayle, but serue me. D ii.Par.ii.a.

22 *For like as the starres of heauen may not be numbred, neither the sande of the sea measured: so wyll I multiplie the seede of Dauid my seruaunt, and the Leuites my ministers. Gene xv.b. and.xxxii.e

23 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came to Jeremie, saying:

24 Considerest thou not what this people speaketh? Two kinredes [say they] had the Lorde chosen, and those same two hath he cast away: for so they haue despised my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord, If I haue made no couenaunt with day and night, and geuen no statute vnto heauen and earth:

26 Then will I also cast away the seede of Jacob and Dauid my seruaunt, so that I wyll take no prince out of his seede to rule the posterite of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: but yet I will turne agayne their captiuitie, and be mercyfull vnto them.

The. xxxiiij. Chapter.

2 He threatneth that the citie, and the king Zedekias also shalbe geuen into the handes of the kyng of Babylon 11 He rebuketh them that brought suche of their brethren unto captuitie, as were pardoned to go at their libertie.

21 THese are the wordes whiche the Lord spake vnto Ieremie, *what tyme as Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon, and all his hoast, and all the kyngdomes that were vnder his power, and all his people fought against Hierusalem and all the cities therof.

*Ier.xxxix.a

2 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Go and speake to Zedekias the king of Juda, and tell hym, the Lorde sendeth thee this worde: beholde, *I will deliuer this citie into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, he shall burne it with fire,

*4.Reg.xxv.a. Ier.xxxiii.a. xxxix.a.

3 And thou shalt not escape his handes, but shalbe taken prisoner, and deliuered into his power: Thou shalt looke the kyng of Babylon in the face, and he shall speake to thee mouth to mouth, and then shalt thou go to Babylon.

4 Yet heare the worde of the Lorde, O Zedekias thou kyng of Juda, thus saith the Lorde vnto thee, Thou shalt not be slayne with the sworde,

1.Reg.xxi.c

(a) Zedekias is promised to be dyen after his death, that is, to haue his funeralles honourably done

5 But shalt dye in peace: And as thy forefathers the kynges, thy (a) progenitours were brent, so shalt thou be brent also, and in thy mourning they shal say, O Lorde: for thus haue I determined, saith the Lorde.

6 Then sayde Ieremie the prophete all these wordes vnto Zedekias kyng of Juda in Hierusalem, 7 what tyme as the kyng of Babylons hoast besieged Hierusalem, and the remnaunt of the cities [namely] Lachis and Azecah, whiche yet remayned of the *strong defensed cities of Juda.

ii.Par.xi.a.

8 These are the wordes that the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie the prophete, when Zedekias was agreed with all the people at Hierusalem, that there shoulde be proclaymed a *libertie:

*Exod.xxi.a. Leui.xxv.f Deut.xv.b.

9 So that euery man should let his seruaunt and handmayde go free, Hebrue and Hebruesse, and no Iewe holde his brother as a bondman.

10 Nowe as they had consented, all the princes and all the people whiche had gathered vnto this agreement, that euery man shoulde set at libertie his bondseruaunt and bondwoman, and no longer to holde them bounde: euen so they were obedient, and let them go free.

11 But afterwarde they repented, and toke agayne the seruauntes and handmaydens whom they had let go free, and so made them bonde agayne.

12 For whiche cause, the worde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie from the Lorde hym selfe, saying:

13 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel: *I made a couenaunt with your fathers when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying:

*Deut.xv.a. Exod.xxi.a

14 When seuen yeres are out, euery man shall let his bought seruaunt an Hebrue go free, if he haue serued hym fiue yeres: but your fathers obayed me not, and hearkened not vnto me.

15 As for you ye were nowe turned, and dyd right before me, in that ye proclaymed euery man to let his neighbour go free, and in that ye made a couenaunt before me in the temple that beareth my name.

16 But yet ye turned your selues againe, and blasphemed my name, in this, that euery man hath required his seruaunt and handemayde agayne whom ye had let go quite and free, and compelled them to serue you agayne, and to be bondmen and bondwomen.

17 And therfore thus saith the Lorde: Ye haue not obayed me, euery man to proclaime freedome vnto his brother and neighbour: Wherefore I wyll call you vnto freedome, saith the Lorde, euen vnto the sworde, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and will make you to be plagued in all kyngdomes of the earth.

18 Yea those men that haue broken my couenaunt, and not kept the wordes of the appountment whiche they made before me, * when they hewed the calfe in two, and when they went thorowe the two halfes therof,

Gene xv b.

19 The princes of Juda, the princes of Hierusalem, the gelded mē, the priestes, and all the people of the lande, whiche went thorowe the two sydes of the calfe:

20 Those men will I geue into the power of their enemies, and into the handes of them that folowe vpon their liues: * and their dead bodies shalbe meate for the foules of the ayre and beastes of the fielde. Psal.79.a. Iere.vii.d.

21 As for Zedekias the king of Juda and his princes, I wyll deliuer them into the power of their enemies, & of them that desire to slay them, and into the hande of the kyng of Babylons hoast, * whiche nowe is departed from you. Iere.37.a

22 But thorowe my commaundement (saith the Lord) they shall come againe before this cite, they shall fight against it, winne it, and burne it: Moreouer, I wyll lay the cites of Juda so waste, that no man shall dwell therin.

¶ The. xxxv. Chapter.

1 He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and therby confoundeth the pryde of the Iewes. 6 The commaundement of Ionadab the father of the Rechabites. 17 He threatneth punishment vnto the rebellious Iewes. 19 He promiseth prosperitie vnto the Rechabites for their obedience.

A 1 THe wordes which the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie, in the raigne of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, are these:

iii.Reg.x.e. 2 Go vnto the house * of the Rechabites, and call them out, and bryng them to the house of the Lorde, into some commodious place, and geue them wine to drinke.

3 Then toke I Jazaniah the sonne of Jeremie, the sonne of Habazinlah, and his brethren, and all his sonnes, and the whole housholde of the Rechabites,

4 And brought them into the house of the Lord, into the closet of the children of Hanan the sonne of Jegedaliah the man of God, whiche was by the closet of the princes, that is aboue the closet of Maasiah the sonne of Sellum, whiche is the treasurer.

5 And before the sonnes of the kinred of the Rechabites I set pottes full of wine, and cuppes, and sayde vnto them, Drinke wine:

6 But they sayde, We wyll drinke no wine: for Jonadab the sonne of Rechab our father commaunded vs, saying: Ye and your sonnes shall neuer drinke wine, * buylde houses, sowe no seede, plant no vines, Iere.xxix.b

7 Yea ye shall haue no vineyardes: but for al your tyme ye shall dwel in tentes, that ye may liue long in the land wherin ye be straungers. 25

8 Thus haue we obayed the commaundement of Jonadab the sonne of Rechab our father in al that he hath charged vs, and so we drinke no wine al our life long, we nor our wiues, our sonnes and our daughters,

9 Neither buylde we any house to dwel therein: we haue also among vs neither vineyardes, nor corne lande to sowe:

10 But we dwell in tentes, we obay, and do according vnto all that Jonadab our father commaunded vs.

11 But nowe that Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon came vp vnto the lande, we sayde, Come, let vs go to Hierusalem, that we may escape the hoast of the Chaldees and the Assyrians: and so we dwell nowe at Hierusalem.

12 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, saying:

13 Thus

13 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Juda, and the inhabitours of Hierusalem: Wyll ye not be reformed to obay my wordes, saith the Lorde?

¶ 14 The wordes whiche Jonadab the sonne of Rechab commaunded his sonnes, that they shoulde drinke no wine, are fast surely kept, for vnto this day they drinke no wine, but obay their fathers commaundement: but as for me *I haue stande vp early, I haue spoken vnto you, and geuen you earnest warning, and yet haue ye not ben obedient vnto me.

Iere. xviij.a. and xxv.a.

15 Yea I haue sent my seruauntes al the prophetes vnto you, I rose vp early, and sent you worde, saying: O turne you nowe euery man from his wicked way, amende your lues, and go not after straunge gods to worship them, that ye may continue in the lande whiche I haue genen vnto you and your fathers: but ye wouldе neither heare me nor followe me.

16 The children of Jonadab Rechabs sonne, haue stedfastly kept their fathers commaundement that he gaue them: but this people is not obedient vnto me, 17 And therfore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel: Beholde, I wyll bryng vpon Juda, and vpon euery one that dwelleth in Hierusalem, all the trouble that I haue deuised against them: *For I haue spoken vnto them, but they wouldе not followe, I haue called vnto them, neuertheles they wouldе geue me no answere.

Prou.i.c Esai.xlv b. Iere.vij.b.

18 Jeremie also spake vnto the housholde of the Rechabites, Thus saith the Lord of hoastes the God of Israel: forasmuche as ye haue obayed the commaundement of Jonadab your father, and kept all his preceptes, and done according to all that he hath bidden:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God Israel: *Jonadab the sonne of Rechab shal not faile, but haue one out of his flocke to stande alway before me.

Ier xxxiij c.

The. xxxvj. Chapter.

1 Baruch writeth (as Jeremie endicteth) the booke of the curses against Juda and Israel. 9 He is sent with the booke vnto the people, and readeth it before them all. 14 He is called before the rulers, and readeth it before them also. 20 The rulers shewe vnto the kyng the wordes of the booke. 23 Jehudi taketh the booke and readeth a litle of it, and casteth it into the fire. 28 There is another written at the commaundement of the Lorde.

A 1 IN the fourth yere of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias the kyng of Juda, came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, saying:

Iere.xxxa. 2 *Take a booke, and write therein all the wordes that I haue spoken to thee against Israel, against Juda, and against all the people, from the tyme that I began to speake vnto thee in the raigne of Josias, vnto this day:

3 That when the house of Juda heareth of the plague whiche I haue deuised for them, they may peraduenture turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may forgeue their offences and sinnes.

4 Then dyd Jeremie call Baruch the sonne of Neriah, *and Baruch wrote in the booke at the mouth of Jeremie, all the wordes of the Lorde whiche he had spoken vnto hym.

Iere.xlv.a.

5 And Jeremie commaunded Baruch, saying: I am in prison, so that I may not come into the house of the Lorde:

6 Therefore go thou thither, and reade the booke that thou hast written at my mouth [namely] the wordes of the Lord, and reade them in the Lordes house vpon the (a) fasting day, that the people, whole Juda, and al they that come out of the cities may heare.

(a) when Jehoakim the kyng of Juda heard that the kyng of Babylon his armie was comming to besiege Hierusalem, he appointed a solemne and publique fast for al the people, commaunding them to resort vnto the temple at the tyme appointed, and there to make their humble prayers vnto God for peace & his fauour, as the manner of Gods people was in all their distresses to fast & pray in faithfull repentaunce.

7 Peraduenture they wyll pray meekely before the face of the Lorde, and turne euery one from his wicked way: for great is the wrath and displeasure that the Lorde hath taken against this people.

8 So Baruch the sonne of Neriah, dyd according to all that Jeremie the prophete commaunded hym, reading the wordes of the Lorde out of the booke in the Lordes house.

B 9 And this was done in the fifth yere of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Iosia. 22. a. Juda, in the ninth moneth, *When it was commaunded that all the people of Hierusalem shoulde fast before the Lorde, and they also that were come frō the cities of Juda vnto Hierusalem:

10 Then read Baruch the wordes of Jeremie out of the booke within the house of the Lorde, out of the treasurie of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan the scribe, Ier. xxvi. a. which is beside the hyer loft of the *new dooze of the Lordes house, that all the people might heare.

11 Now when Micheas the sonne of Gamariah, the sonne of Saphan, heard all the wordes of the lord out of the booke, 12 He went downe to the kynges palace into the scribes chaumbers, for there all the princes were set, Elisama the scribe, Dalaiah the sonne of Semei, Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, Gamariah the sonne of Saphan, Zedekias the sonne of Hananias, with all the princes.

13 And Micheas tolde them all the wordes that he harde Baruch reade out of the booke before the people.

14 Then all the princes sent Jehudi the C sonne of Nathaniah the sonne of Selemiah, the sonne of Chusi, vnto Baruch, saying: Take in thine hande the booke whereout thou hast read before all the people, & come. So Baruch the sonne of Neriah toke the booke in his hande, and came vnto them.

15 And they sayd vnto him: Sit downe and reade the booke, that we may heare also: So Baruch read that they might heare.

16 Now when they had harde all the wordes, they were abashed one vpon another, and sayde vnto Baruch: We will certifie the kyng of al these wordes.

17 And they examined Baruch, saying: Tell vs, howe diddest thou write all these wordes out of his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them: He spake all these wordes vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them in the booke.

19 Then sayd the princes vnto Baruch: Go thy way, hide thee with Jeremie, so that no man knowe where ye be.

20 And they went in to the kyng to the court (but they kept the booke in the chaumber of Elisama the scribe) and tolde the kyng all the wordes, that he might heare.

21 So the kyng sent Jehudi to fet hym the booke: Which he brought out of Elisama the scribes chaumber, and Jehudi read in it, that the king and all the princes which were about hym might heare. D

22 Nowe the kyng sate in the winter house (for it was in the ninth moneth) and there was a fire before hym.

23 And when Jehudi had read three or foure leaues therof, he cut the booke in peces with a penknife, and *cast it into the fire vpon the harth, vntill the booke was al brent in the fire vpon the harth. 4. Mach. ii. a.

24 Yet no man was abashed therof, nor rent his clothes, neither the kyng hym selfe nor his seruauntes, though they harde all these wordes.

25 Neuertheles, Elnathan, Dalaiah, and Gamariah besought the kyng that he woulde not burne the booke: notwithstanding, the kyng woulde not heare them:

26 But commaunded Jerahmel the sonne of Amelech, Saraiah the sonne of Ezriel, and Selemiah the sonne of Abdeel, to lay handes vpon Baruch the scribe, and vpon Jeremie the prophete: but the Lorde kept them out of sight.

27 Nowe after that the kyng had brent the booke, and the sermons which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremie, the worde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie, saying: E

28 Take another booke, and write in it all the foresayde sermons that were written in the first booke whiche Jehoakim the kyng of Juda hath brent.

29 And tell Jehoakim the kyng of Juda, thus saith the Lorde: Thou hast brent the booke, and thoughtest within thy selfe, why hast thou written therin, that the kyng of Babylon shall come and make this lande waste, so that he shall make both people and cattell to be out of it?

30 Therefore thus the Lorde saith of Jehoakim the kyng of Juda: *There shall none of his generation sit vpon the throne of Dauid, his dead coarse shalbe cast out, that the heate of the day and the frost of the night may come vpon hym. 4 Reg 24. b. Iere. xxii. c.

31 And I wyll visite the wickednesse of hym, hym, of his seede, and of his seruauntes: Moreouer, all the euyll that I haue promised them, though they heard me not, wyll I bryng vpon them, vpon the inhabitours of Hierusalem, and vpon all Juda.

32 Then toke Jeremie another booke and gaue it Baruch the scribe the sonne of Neriah, which wrote therin out of the mouth of Hieremie, all the sermons that were in the first booke which Jehoakim the kyng of Juda did burne: and there were added vnto them many mo sermons, lyke vnto the former.

¶ The.xxxvij. Chapter.

1 Zedekia succedeth Conomah, 3 he sendeth vnto Jeremie to pray for hym. 12 Jeremie goyng into the lande of Beniamin is taken, 15 he is beaten and put in prison, 17 he is deliuered by kyng Zedekia.

AND Zedekia the sonne of Josiah * which was made kyng through Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, raigned in the lande of Juda, in the stead of Conomah the sonne of Jehoakim.

* 4. Reg. 24.

* Or, Jeconiah.

2 But neither he, nor his seruauntes, nor the people in his lande, would obey the wordes of the Lorde which he spake by the prophete Jeremie.

3 *Neuertheless, Zedekia the kyng sent Jehucall the sonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, to the prophete Jeremie, saying: O pray thou vnto the Lorde our God for vs.

* Iere. xxxi. a.

4 Nowe Jeremie walked free among the people at that tyme, and was not put in prison as yet.

5 *Pharaos hoast also was come out of Egypt: which when the Chaldees which besieged Hierusalem perceaued, they departed from thence.

* Ezec. xvii. b.

6 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Jeremie, saying:

7 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Thus answere shal ye geue to the kyng of Juda that sent you vnto me for counsayle: *Beholde, Pharaos hoast which is come forth to helpe you, shal returne into Egypt into his owne lande.

* Iere. xlvi. a

8 But the Chaldees shall come agayne, and fight agaynst this cite, winne it, and set fire vpon it.

9 For thus saith the Lorde, Deceaue not your owne myndes, thynkyng on this maner, Tushe, the Chaldees go nowe their way from vs: No, they shall not go their way.

10 For though ye had slayne the whole hoast of the Chaldees that besiege you, and that none remayned of them but wounded men, yet shoulde they stande vp and set fire vpon this cite.

11 Nowe When the hoast of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hierusalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Jeremie went out of Hierusalem toward the lande of Beniamin, to get hym from among the people.

13 And when he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a porter called Jeriah, the sonne of Selemiah, the sonne of *Hananiah, which fell vpon hym, and toke hym, saying: Thy mynde is to runne to the Chaldees.

* Iere. xxxviii. b.

14 Then sayde Jeremie, It is not so, I go not to the Chaldees: Neuertheless, Jeriah would not beleue hym, but brought Jeremie bounde before the princes.

15 Wherfore the princes were angry with Jeremie, & smote hym, and layde hym in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that house the prison.

16 Thus was Hieremie put into a dungeon and prison, and so lay there a long tyme.

17 Then Zedekia the kyng sent for him, and called hym, and asked hym quietly in his owne house, saying: Thinkest thou this businesse [that nowe is in hande] commeth of the Lorde? Jeremie answered, Yea that it doth: and thou (sayde he) shalt be deliuered into the kyng of Babylons power.

Iere. xxi. c.

18 Moreouer, Jeremie sayde vnto kyng Zedekia, What haue I offended agaynst thee, agaynst thy seruauntes, or agaynst this people, that ye haue put me in prison?

19 *Where are your prophetes which haue prophecied vnto you, and sayde, That

* Iere xxviii c.

that the kyng of Babylon shoulde not come agaynst you and this lande:
20 And therfore heare nowe O my Lorde the kyng, let my prayer be accepted before thee, and sende me no more into the house of Jonathan the scribe, that I dye not there.
21 Then Zedekia commaunded to put Jeremie in the fore entrie of the prison, and dayly to be geuen hym a cake of bread of the bakers streete, vntyll all the bread in the citie was eaten vp: Thus Jeremie remayned in the fore entrie of the prison.

The.xxxviij.Chapter.

1 By the motion of the rulers, Jeremie is put into a dungeon. 14 At the request of Abdmelech the chamberlayne, the kyng commaundeth Jeremie to be brought forth of the dungeon. 17 Jeremie sheweth the kyng howe he myght escape death.

A 1 Saphatiah the sonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the sonne of Pashur, Jucal the sonne of Selemiah, & Pashur the sonne of Melchia, perceaued the wordes that Jeremie had spoken vnto all the people, namely, on this maner.
Iere.xxi.b. and.xxvii.a 2 Thus saith the Lorde, *who so remayneth in this citie, shall perishe either with the sworde, with hunger, or with pestilence: but who so falleth vnto the Chaldees shal escape, winning his soule for a pray, and shall lyue.
Iere.xxii.c. 3 *For thus saith the Lorde, This citie no doubt must be deliuered into the power of the kyng of Babylon, and he also shall winne it.
4 Then saide the princes vnto the kyng, Sir, we beseche you let this man be put to death: for thus he discourageth the handes of the souldiours that be in this citie, and the handes of all the people, when he speaketh such wordes vnto them: This man laboureth not for peace of the people, but mischiefe.
5 Zedekia the kyng answered, and sayde, Lo, he is in your handes: for the kyng may deme you nothyng.
6 Then toke they Jeremie and cast him into the dungeon of Melchiah the sonne of Amelech, that dwelt in the fore entrie of the prison, and they let downe Jeremie with coardes into a dungeon, where there was no water, but mire: So Jeremie stack fast in the mire.
25 7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Moran beyng a chamberlayne in the kynges court, vnderstoode that they had cast Jeremie into the dungeon,
8 He went out of the kynges house, and spake to the king, which then sate vnder the port of Beniamin, these wordes.
9 My Lorde the kyng, where as these men meddle with Jeremie the prophete, they do hym wrong [Namely] in that they haue put hym in prison, there to dye for hunger: for there is no more bread in the citie.
10 Then the kyng commaunded Abedmelech the Moran, and sayde, Take from hence thirtie men whom thou wylt, and drawe vp Jeremie the prophete out of the dungeon before he dye.
11 So Abedmelech toke the men with hym, and went to the house of the king, and there vnder the treasurie he tok olde ragges and worne cloutes, and let them downe by a corde into the dungeon to Jeremie.
12 And Abedmelech the Moran sayde vnto the prophete Jeremie: O put these ragges and cloutes vnder thine arme holes betwixt them and the cordes: And Jeremie did so.
13 So they drewe vp Jeremie with cordes, & toke hym out of the dungeon: and he remayned in the fore entrie of the prison.
14 *Then Zedekia the kyng sent, & caused Iere.37.a Jeremie the prophete to be called vnto hym, into the thirde entrie that is in the house of the Lorde, and the kyng sayde vnto Jeremie: I wyll aske thee somewhat, but hyde nothyng fro me.
15 Then Jeremie answered Zedekia, If I be playne vnto thee, thou wylt cause me to suffer death: yf I geue thee counsayle, thou wylt not folowe me.
16 So the kyng swore an oth secretely to Jeremie, saying: As the Lorde liueth that made vs these soules, I wyll not slay thee, nor geue thee into the handes of them that seke after thy lyfe.
17 Then sayde Jeremie vnto Zedekia, Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: If case be that thou Iere.xxvii.a wylt wylt go foorth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes, thou shalt saue thy lyfe, and this citie shall not be brent, yea both thou and thy housholde shall escape with your lyues:

18 But yf thou wylt not go foorth to the kyng of Babylons princes, then shall this citie be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees, which shall set fire vpon it, and thou shalt not be able to escape them.

19 And Zedekia said vnto Ieremie: I am afrayde for the Iewes that are fled vnto the Chaldees, lest I come into their handes, & so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremie answered, No, they shalt not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde I beseche thee, which I speake vnto thee, so shalt thou be well, and saue thy lyfe:

D 21 But yf thou wylt not go foorth, the Lorde hath tolde me this playnely, 22 Beholde, all the women that are left in the kyng of Iudas house, shalbe led foorth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes: and they shall say, thou art deceaued, and the men in whom thou didst put thy trust, haue gotten thee vnder, & set thy feete fast in the mire, and gone their way from thee.

23 Therfore all thy wyues with thy children shall they leade foorth vnto the Chaldees, and thou shalt not escape their handes: but shalt be the kyng of Babylons prisoner, and this citie shalt thou cause to be burnt.

24 Then sayde Zedekia vnto Ieremie: Loke that no body knowe of these wordes, and thou shalt not dye.

25 But yf the princes perceaue that I haue talked with thee, and come vnto thee, saying: O speake, what sayde the kyng to thee, hyde it not from vs, and we wyll not put thee to death: tell vs (we pray thee) what sayde the kyng to thee:

26 See thou geue them this answere: I haue humbly besought the kyng that he wyll let me lye no more in Ionathans house, that I dye not there.

27 Then came all the princes vnto Ieremie, and asked hym: and he tolde them after the maner as the kyng bad hym. Then they helde their peace, and let hym alone: for they perceaued nothyng.

28 *So Ieremie abode styll in the fore entrie of the prison, vntyll the day that Hierusalem was wonne. Ier.xxxix.e

¶ The.xxxix. Chapter.

1 Nabuchodonozor besiegeth Hierusalem. 4 Zedekia fleeth, 5 he is taken of the Chaldees, 6 his sonnes are slayne, 7 his eyes are thrust out, 11 Jeremie is prouided for. 15 Abedmelech is deliuered from captiuitie, because of the confidence that he had in God.

A 1 Iere.52.a. 4 Reg.25.a. NOwe when the citie of Hierusalem was taken (for in the ninth yere of Zedekia kyng of Juda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon and all his hoast, and besieged Hierusalem, and fought agaynst it,

2 And in the eleuenth yere of Zedekia, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, he brake into the citie)

3 Then all the princes of the kyng of Babylon came in and sate them downe vnder the port: Neregel, Sarezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsachim, Rabsaris, Neregel, Sarezer, Rabmag, with all the other princes of the kyng of Babylõ.

Iere.34.a. 4 *And when Zedekia the kyng of Juda with his souldiers sawe them, then they fled and departed out of the citie by nyght through the kynges garden, and through the port that is betweene the two walles, and so the kyng went towarde the wildernesse:

5 But the Chaldees hoast followed fast after them, and toke Zedekia in the fielde of Hiericho, and brought hym prisoner to Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, vnto Reblath, that lyeth in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon hym.

6 So the kyng of Babylon caused the children of Zedekia and all the nobles of Juda to be slayne before his face at Reblath,

B 7 And made Zedekias eyes to be put out and bounde him with two chaynes, and sent hym to Babylon.

4 Reg.25.d. Iere.xxxix.d. 8 *Moreouer, the Chaldees burnt vp the kynges palace, with the other houses of the people, and brake downe the walles of Hierusalem.

9 As for the remnaunt of the people that were in the citie, and such as were come to hym, and whatsoeuer was left of the common sort, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne caryed them to Babylon.

10 But Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine let the rascall people and those that had nothyng dwell styll in the lande of Juda, and gaue them vineyardes and corne fieldes at the same tyme.

11 Nabuchodonozor also the kyng of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne a charge concerning Jeremie, saying:

12 Take and cherishe hym, and make much of hym, see thou do hym no harme, but entreate hym after his owne desire.

13 So Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne, Nabuzarban, Rabsares, Neregal, Sarezer, Rabmag, and all the kyng of Babylons lordes, sent for Jeremie, 14 *And caused hym to be set out of the fore entrie of the prison, and committed hym vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, the sonne of Saphan, that he shoulde cary hym home: *and so he dwelt among the people. ℭ Iere.38.d. Iere.xl.b.

15 Nowe when Jeremie lay yet bounde in the fore entrie of the prison, the worde of the Lorde came vnto hym, saying:

16 Go and tell Abedmelech the Moran, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: Beholde, the cruell and sharpe plague that I haue deuised for this citie wyll I bring vpon them, that thou shalt see it:

17 But I wyll deliuer thee in that day saith the Lorde, & thou shalt not come in the handes of those men whom thou fearest:

18 For doubtlesse I wyll saue thee, so that thou shalt not perishe with the sworde: but thy lyfe shalbe saued, and that because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lorde.

The.xl.Chapter.

1 Jeremie hath licence to go whyther he wyll, 8 he dwelleth with the people that remayneth at Hierusalem, ouer whom Gedaliah ruleth. 14 Johanan prophecieth death vnto Gedaliah.

THis is the worde that the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie, *when Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne had let hym go free from Ramath, whyther he had led hym bounde among all the prisoners that were caryed from Hierusalem and Juda vnto Babylon.

Iere xlvii.a.

Iosu.xviii.d

2 The chiefe captaine called for Jeremie, and sayde vnto hym, The Lorde thy God spake mightily before of the misery vpon this place.

3 Nowe the Lorde hath sent it and performed it as he hath promised: for ye haue sinned agaynst the Lord, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce, therfore commeth this plague vpon you.

4 Beholde, I loose the bandes from thy handes this day: yf thou wilt nowe go with me vnto Babylon, vp then, for I wyll see to thee, and prouide for thee: but yf thou wylt not go with me to Babylon, then remayne here: *Beholde all the lande is at thy wyll, loke where thou thinkest conuenient and good for thee to abyde, there dwell.

Gen.iii.b. Tobi.i.b.

5 For as yet he was not gone backe agayne to Gedaliah: therfore he sayde to hym, Go backe to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, the sonne of Saphan, *whom the kyng of Babylon hath made gouernour ouer the cities of Juda, and dwell with hym among the people, or remayne where soeuer it please thee. So the chiefe captayne gaue hym his expences with a reward, and let hym go.

4.Reg.xxv.a.

Iere.xxxix.c.

6 *Then went Jeremie vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam to Mispa, & dwelt there with hym among the people that were left in the lande.

7 Nowe whē the captaynes of the hoast of Juda, which with their felowes were scattered abrode on euery syde in the lande, vnderstoode that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam gouernour in the lande, and that man, wyfe, and chylde, yea and the poore men in the lande that were not led captiue to Babylon, should be vnder his iurisdiction:

8 They came to Gedaliah vnto Mispa, (Namely) Ismael the sonne of Nathanah, Johanan and Jonathan the sonnes of Careah, Sareah the sonne of Thanchumeth, the sonnes of Ephai the Netophatite, Jezaniah the sonne of Maachati, with their companions.

9 And Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, the sonne of Saphan, sware vnto them and their felowes in this maner: *Be not afrayde to serue the Chaldees, dwel in the lande, and do the king of Babylon seruice, so shall ye prosper.

4.Reg.xv.c.

10 Beholde I dwell at Mispa, to be an officer in the Chaldees behalfe, and to satisfie such as come to vs: therfore gather wine, corne, and oyle, & kepe them in your ware houses, and dwell in your cities that ye haue in kepyng.

11 Yea all the Jewes also that dwelt in Moab, vnder the Ammonites, Idumea, and in all the countreys, when they hearde that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, gouernour vpon all them that were left in Juda:

12 All the Jewes (I say) returned out of all places where they were fled vnto, and came into the lande of Juda to Gedaliah vnto Mispa, and gathered wine and other fruites, and that very much.

13 Moreouer, Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaynes of the hoast that were scattered on euery syde in the lande, came to Gedaliah to Mispa, and sayde vnto hym:

14 Knowest thou not that Baalis the kyng of the Ammonites hath sent Ismael the sonne of Nathanah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam beleued them not.

15 Then sayde Johanan the sonne of Careah vnto Gedaliah in Mispa these wordes secretely, Let me go I pray thee, and I wyll slay Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, so that no body shall knowe it: wherfore wyll he kyll thee, that all the Jewes which resort vnto thee myght be scattered, and the remnaunt naunt in Juda perishe.

16 And Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam sayde to Johanan the sonne of Careah, Thou shalt not do it: for they are but lyes that thou sayest of Ismael.

The .xlj. Chapter.

1 Ismael kylleth Gedaliah guylefully, and many other with hym. 11 Johanan foloweth after Ismael.

A 1 4.Reg 15.a. IT in the seuenth moneth, it happened that Ismael the sonne of Nathanah, the sonne of Elisama, one of the kynges blood came, and the greatest about the kyng, & ten men with hym, vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam to Mispa, and they did eate together in Mispa.
2 And Ismael the sonne of Nathanah, with those ten men that were with hym, start vp, and smote Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the soune of Saphan with the swoorde, and slue hym whom the king of Babylon had made a gouernour of the lande.
3 Ismael also slue all the Jewes that were with Gedaliah at Mispa, and all the Chaldees that he founde there waytyng vpon hym, and those that were able to fyght he slue with hym.
4 The next day after that he had slayne Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:
5 And there came certayne men from Sichem, from Silo, and Samaria, to the number of fourescore, which had shauen their beardes, rent their clothes, and were all heaue, bryngyng meate offeryinges and incense in their handes, to offer it in the house of the Lorde.
Eccl.xii.c. And Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah went fooryth of Mispa * weepyng, to meete them: Nowe when he met them, he sayde, Go your way to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam.
7 And when they came in the middest of the citie, Ismael the sonne of Nathanah, with them that were with hym, slue them euen at the middest of the pit.
8 Among these fourescore men there were ten that sayde vnto Ismael: Oh slay vs not, for we haue yet a great treasure in the fielde, of wheate, barly, oyle, and hony: So he spared them, and slue them not with their brethren.
4.Reg 15.c. 9 Nowe the pit * wherin Ismael did cast the dead bodyes of the men whom he slue because of Gedaliah, had kyng Asa caused to be made for feare of Baasa the kyng of Israel, and the same pit did Ismael fyll with slayne men.
10 As for the remnaunt of the people, the kynges daughters, and all the people that were left at Mispa, vpon whom * Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam gouernour, Ismael the sonne of Nathanah caryed them away prisoners towarde the Ammonites. 4.Reg. xxv.c
11 But when Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all they which had ben captaynes ouer the kinges hoast with hym, hearde of all the wickednesse that Ismael the sonne of Nathanah had done:
12 * They toke their companions, & went out for to fyght with Ismael the sonne of Nathanah, and founde hym by the great waters that are at Gibeon. Gen.xiii.c. 1.Reg.xv.
13 Nowe when all the people whom Ismael led captiue, sawe Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the other captaynes of the hoast, they were glad.
14 So all the people that Ismael had caried away from Mispa, were brought agayne: and when they returned, they came to Johanan the sonne of Careah.
15 But Ismael the sonne of Nathanah fled from Johanan with eyght companions, and went to the Ammonites.
16 Then Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaynes of the hoast that were with hym, toke all the remnaunt of the people, whom Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had slayne Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, whom they also had reserued from hym, fightyng men, women, and children, and geided men, whom they brought agayne from Gibeon, 17 And went from thence, and sate them downe at Geruth Chamaam, which lyeth beside Bethlehem, * that they might go into Egypt for feare of the Chaldees: Iere.xli.c.
18 Of whom they were afrayde, because that Ismael the sonne of Nathanah had slayne Gedaliah Ahicams sonne, whom the kyng of Babylon had made gouernour in the lande. Iere.xl.a.

1 The captaynes aske counsayle at Ieremie what they ought to do. 19 Ieremie admonisheth the remnaunt of the people not to go into Egypt.

A 1 SO all the captaynes of Johanan the sonne of Careah, Jezamah the sonne of Osiah, came, with all the people frō the least vnto the most,

2 And sayde vnto Jeremie the prophete: "O heare our petition, that thou mayest pray for vs vnto the Lorde thy God, (namely for all the remnaunt, wherof there be fewe of vs left of many, as thou seest vs:

Iere xxi.a. xxxvii.a.

3 That the Lorde thy God may shewe vs a way to go in, and tell vs what we shoulde do.

4 Then Jeremie the prophete sayde vnto them: I haue hearde you, beholde, I wyll pray vnto God your Lorde as ye haue required me: and loke what aunswere the Lorde geueth, I shall certifie you therof, and kepe nothyng backe from you.

Iosu.i.e 1.Mach.ii.d Iere.xxiii.a.

5 And they sayde vnto Jeremie, "The Lorde be a true and faithfull witnesse betwixt vs, that we wyll do all that the Lorde thy God commaundeth vs.

6 Whether it be good or euyll, we wyll hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde God, to whom we sende thee, that we may prosper when we haue followed the voyce of the Lorde our God.

B 7 And after ten dayes came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie.

8 Then called he Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaynes of the people that were with hym, yea and all the people from the least to the most,

9 And sayde vnto them: Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent me to lay foorth your prayers before hym:

Iere.xxi.b. 10 "If ye wyll dwell in this lande, I shall builde you vp, & not breake you downe, I shal plant you, and not roote you out: for I (a) repent as concerning the trouble that I haue done to you.

(a) God is repentaunce is nothyng els but that he doth not prosecute to the vtmost his wrath according to the desertes of the people.

11 Feare not the kyng of Babylon of whom ye stande in awe, O be not afraide of hym, saith the Lord: for I wyll be with you to helpe you, and deliuer you from his hande.

12 I wyll pardon you, I wyll haue mercie vpon you, and cause hym to pitie you, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande.

13 Neuertheles, yf ye purpose not to dwell in this lande, nor to folowe the voyce of the Lorde your God:

14 But wyll say thus, we wyll not dwell C heare, but go into Egypt, where we shall neither see warre, heare the noyse of the trumpe, nor suffer hunger, there wyll we dwell:

15 Wherfore heare nowe the worde of the Lorde O ye remnaunt of Juda, "Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: If ye be wholly purposed to go into Egypt, and to dwell there as straungers, Iere.xxvii.a

16 The sworde that ye feared, shall ouertake you in Egypt: and the hunger wherof ye be here afrayde, shall hang vpon you, and folowe you into Egypt, and there shall ye dye. Iere.xlij.c.

17 And all they that of set purpose vndertake to go into Egypt to sojourne there, shall perishe with the sworde, with hunger, and pestilence, not one of them shall remayne, there shall none escape the plague that I wyll bryng vpon them.

18 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Lyke as my wrath and indignation is moued agaynst the inhabitours of Hierusalem: so shall my displeasure be kindled agaynst you also yf ye go into Egypt, and there ye shalbe reuiled, abhorred, brought to shame and confusion, and as for this place ye shall neuer see it more.

19 The Lorde forbiddeth you (O ye remnaunt of Juda) that ye shall not go into Egypt: and forget not that I haue warned you earnestly this day.

20 For ye haue dissembled with me: "for Iere.xlii.a.
ye sent me vnto the Lorde your God, and sayde, O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs, and loke what aunswere the Lorde our God geueth thee, that bryng vs agayne, and we shall do thereafter:

21 Nowe haue I shewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the which

Which cause he hath sent me to you.
Deut 28.e. 22 Nowe therfore * be sure that ye shall perishe with the swoorde, with hunger and pestilence, euen in the same place where your lust is to go and dwell.

The.xliij.Chapter.

1 Johanan carryeth the remnaunt of the people into Egypt, contrary to the mynde of Jeremie. 8 Jeremie prophecieth the destruction of Egypt.

A 1 NOwe when Jeremie had ended all ỹ woordes of the Lorde his God vnto the people, which he had sent him to declare the Lorde their God had sent him to them, euen all these woordes (I say)
2 Azariah the sonne of Osaiah, and Johanan the sonne of Careah, with all the stubburne persons, sayd vnto Jeremie, Iere.xlij.a. *Thou lyest, the Lorde our God hath not sent thee to speake vnto vs, that we shoulde not go into Egypt, and dwell there:
3 But Baruch the sonne of Neriah prouoketh thee agaynst vs, that he myght bryng vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they myght slay vs, and cary vs away prisoners vnto Babylon.
4 So Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaynes of the hoast, and all the people, folowed not the commaundement of the Lorde, (namely) to dwell in the lande of Juda:
5 But Johanan the sonne of Cariah, and all the captaines of the hoast, caried away all the remnaunt of Juda, *that were come together agayne from all the heathen, among whom they had ben scattered, to dwell in the lande of Juda, Iere.xl.c.
6 Men, women, children, the kynges daughters, all those that Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne had left with Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, the sonne of Saphan: they caryed away also the prophete Jeremie, Baruch the sonne of Neriah,
7 And so came into Egypt: for they were not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Thaphnis:
8 And in Thaphnis the woorde of the Lorde happened vnto Jeremie, saying:
9 Take great stones in thine hande, and hyde them in the bricke wall vnder the doore of Pharaos house in Thaphnis, that all the men of Juda may see,
10 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: *Beholde, I will sende and call for Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon my seruaunt, and wyll set his seate vpon these stones that I haue hyd, and he shall spreade his tent ouer them.
Iere.xlvi.c.
11 And when he commeth, he shall smite the land of Egypt, some with slaughter, some with bamshment, and some with the swoorde.
12 He shall set fire vpon the temple of the Egyptians gods, and burne them vp, and take them selues prisoners: Moreouer, he shall aray hym selfe with the lande of Egypt, lyke as a sheephearde putteth on his coate, and shall depart his way from thence in peace.
13 The pyllers also of the temple of the sunne that is in Egypt shall he breake in peeces, and burne the temples of the Egyptians gods.

The.xliiij.Chapter.

1 He reproueth the people for their Idolatrie. 15 They that set lyght by the threatnyng of the Lorde are chastened. 26 The destruction of Egypt and the Jewes therin, is prophecied.

A 1 THis is the woorde that was shewed to Jeremie concernyng all the Jewes which dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the lande of Pathures.
2 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Ye haue seene all the miserie that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem, & vpon all the cities of Juda: so that this day they are desolate and no man dwellyng therin,
3 And that because of the great blasphemies, which they commited to prouoke me nie vnto anger, in that they went backe to do sacrifice and worship vnto straunge gods, whom neither they, nor ye, nor your fathers haue knowen.

4 Howbeit I sent vnto them my seruauntes all the prophetes, *I rose vp early, I sent vnto them and gaue them warning, O do no suche abhominable thinges, and thinges that I hate. Iere xxv.a. and.xxix.a.

5 But they would not folowe nor hearken to turne from their wickednesse, & to do no more sacrifice vnto straunge gods.

6 Wherefore, myne indignation and wrath was kindled, and it brent vp the cities of Juda, with the streetes of Hierusalem, so that they were made waste and desolate, as it is come to passe this day.

25 7 Nowe therfore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: Howe happeneth it that ye do so great euyll vnto your owne soules, thus to destroy the men and woman, chyldren and babes of Juda, so that none of you is left:

8 Because ye prouoke me to wrath with the workes of your owne hands, when ye offer vnto straunge gods in the lande of Egypt where as ye be gone to dwell, that ye might vtterly perishe, and that ye might be reuiled and shamefully intreated of all nations:

9 Or haue ye nowe forgotten the wickednesse of your forefathers, the wickednesse of the kynges of Juda and their wiues, the wickednesse that ye your selues and your wiues haue done in the lande of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem:

10 Yet are ye not sorie this day, ye feare not, neither walke ye in my lawe, and in my commaundementes that I haue geuen vnto you and your forefathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: I am stedfastly aduised and determined to punish you, and to roote out all Juda.

12 As for the remnaunt of Juda that purposely went into Egypt there to dwell, I wyll take them, *and they shall all be destroyed, in the lande of Egypt shall they perishe, beyng consumed with the swoorde and with hunger: for from the least vnto the most they shall perishe with the swoorde and with hunger: Moreouer, they shalbe reuiled, adhorred, shamed, and confounded.

13 For I wyll visite them that dwell in Egypt, *as I haue visited Hierusalem, with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence. Ezech.29.a.

C

14 So that none of the remnaunt of Juda whiche are gone to dwell in Egypt, shalbe left to come againe into the land of Juda, although they thinke to come thyther agayne and to dwell there: for none shall come agayne but suche as are fled away.

15 Then all the men whiche knewe that their wiues had offred vnto straunge gods, and a great sort of wiues that stoode there, yea and all the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the land of Phatures, answered Jeremie and saide:

16 As for the wordes that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we wyll in no wise heare them:

17 But whatsoeuer goeth out of our owne mouth, that wyll we do, we wyll do sacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the Queene of heauen, *like as we and our forefathers, our kinges and our heades haue done in the cities of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem for then had we plenteousnesse of vitailes, then were we in prosperitie, and no misfortune came vpon vs: Iere.vii.b.

18 *But since we left to offer and to do sacrifice vnto the Queene of heauen, we haue had scarsenesse of all thinges, and perishe with the swoorde and hunger. 1.Machi.b.

19 [Last of all] When we [women] dyd sacrifice and offred vnto the Queene of heauen: dyd we make her cakes and powre vnto her drinke offerynges to do her seruice, without our husbandes wylles:

20 Then saide Jeremie vnto all the people, to the men, to the women, and to all the folke whiche had geuen hym that answere:

21 Dyd not the Lorde remember the sacrifices that ye, your forefathers, your kynges and rulers, with all the people, haue offred in the cities of Juda, in the streetes of Hierusalem: and hath he not considered this in his minde:

22 Insomuche that the Lorde might no longer suffer the wickednesse of your inuentions, and the abhominable thinges whiche ye dyd: *Is not your lande desolate and voyde, yea and abhorred, so that no man dwelleth therein any more, as it is come to passe this day?

Esai. i.a.

23 *Did not all this happen vnto you, because ye made suche sacrifice, and sinned against the Lord: *ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his law, in his ordinaunces and statutes: yea this is the cause that all misfortune happened vnto you, as it is come to passe this day.

1.Re. xvii.b. Iere.ii.c.iii.c and.v.e. Baruc.i.a.

24 Moreouer, Jeremie spake vnto al the people, and to al the women: Heare the worde of the Lorde all Juda that be in the lande of Egypt.

25 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the god of Israel, Ye and your wiues haue spoken with your owne mouth the thing that ye haue fulfilled in deede, *yea thus haue ye sayde: We wyll not fayle, but performe the vowes that we haue vowed, we wyll do sacrifice, and powre out drinke offeringes to the Queene of heauen: Purposely wyll ye set vp your owne meanynges, and performe your vowes.

Iere.xliii.c.

26 And therefore heare the worde of the Lorde all Juda, that dwell in the lande of Egypt: Beholde, *I haue sworne by my great name, saith the Lorde, that my name shall not be rehearsed thorowe any mans mouth of Juda in all the lande of Egypt, to say, the Lorde God liueth.

Gen xxii.c.

27 For I wyll watch to plague them, and not for their wealth: *And all the men of Juda that be in the lande of Egypt shall perishe with the sworde, and with hunger, vntil they be vtterly destroyed.

Iere.xliv.e.

28 Neuertheless, those that fled away for the sworde, shall come againe out of Egypt into the land of Juda, but there shalbe very fewe of them: and all the remnaunt of Juda that are gone into Egypt there to dwell, shall knowe whose wordes shalbe found true, theirs, or myne.

29 Take this for a token, that I wyll visite you in this place saith the Lorde, and that ye may knowe howe that I without doubt wyl performe my purpose vpon you, to punishe you.

30 Beholde saith the Lorde, I wyll deliuer Pharao Hophra kyng of Egypt, into the handes of his enemies that seeke after his lyfe: *euen as I gaue Zedekias the kyng of Juda into the handes of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon his enemie, whiche sought after his life.

2 Baruch is reproued of Jeremie.

Iere.xxxvi.a

A 1 These are the wordes that Jeremie the prophete spake vnto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, *after that he had written these sermons in a booke at the mouth of Jeremie, in the fourth yere of Joakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, saying:

2 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel vnto thee, O Baruch:

3 Insomuch as thou thoughtest thus [when thou wast wryting] Wo is me, the Lorde hath geuen me payne for my trauayle, I haue wearied my selfe with sighing, and haue founde no rest:

4 Therefore tell hym O Jeremie, that the Lord saith thus: Beholde, the thing that I haue buylded, wyll I breake downe agayne, and roote out the thing that I haue planted, yea this whole lande:

5 And seekest thou yet promotion [loose not for it, and] desire it not, for I wyll bryng a miserable plague vpon all flesh saith the Lorde: *but thy lyfe wyll I geue thee for a pray in all places whyther soeuer thou goest.

1 He prophecieth the destruction of Egypt. 27 Deliueraunce is promised to Israel.

A 1 Eare folowe the wor-des of the Lorde to all the gentiles.

ing preached he to *the Egyptians, concerning the hoast of Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt, "when he was in Charchamis beside the water of Euphrates, What tyme as Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon slue

Ier. xxxvi. b

3 *Make redy buckler and shielde, and go foorth to fight.
4 Harnesse your horses, and set your selues vpon them, set your sallets fast on, dryng foorth speares, scoure your swordes, and put on your brestplates.
5 But alas, howe happeneth it that I see you so afraide? Why shrinke ye backe? Their worthyes are slayne, yea they runne so fast away that none of them looketh behinde hym: feareful-nesse is fallen vpon euery one of them saith the Lorde.
6 The lightest of foote shall not flee away, nor the worthyes shal not escape:
towarde the north by the water of Euphrates they dyd stumble and fall.
B 7 But what is he this that swelleth vp as it were a fludde, roaring and raging lyke the streames of water?
8 It is Egypt that ryseth vp lyke the fludde, and casteth out the waters with so great noyse: And he saide, I wyll go vp and wyll couer the earth, I wyll destroy the cite with them that are ther-
in.
9 Get you vp ye horses, roule foorth ye charets, come foorth worthyes, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.
10 But this day of the Lorde God of hoastes, is a day of vengeaunce, that he may auenge hym of his enemies: The sworde shall deuour, it shalbe satisfied and bathed in their blood, for the Lord God of hoastes shall haue a slayne offering towarde the north, by the water of Euphrates.
11 Go vp vnto Gilead, and bryng triacle O virgin thou daughter of Egypt: but in vayne shalt thou go to surgerie, for thy wounde shall not be stopped.
12 The heathen haue hearde of thy shame, and the lande is full of thy confusion, for one strong man did stumble vpon another, and they are fallen both together.
13 *These are the wordes that the Lord Iere. xliii. b.
spake to the prophete Ieremie, concerning the comming of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, whiche was sent to destroy the lande of Egypt:
14 Preache out thorowe the lande of Egypt, and cause it to be proclaymed at Migdol, Noph, and Thaphnis, and say: stande styll, make thee redye, for the sworde shall consume thee rounde about.
15 Howe happeneth it that thy mightie worthyes are fallen? Why stoode they not fast? euen because the Lorde thrust them downe.
16 The slaughter was great, for one fell euer stil vpon another: and they sayde, Vp, let vs go agayne to our owne people, and to our owne naturall countrey, from the cruel sworde.
17 They dyd crye euen there, Pharao
the kyng of Egypt is a kyng of trouble-sommesse: he hath ouerpast the appointed tyme.
18 As I liue (saith the kyng *whose Esai. xlviii. b. name is the Lorde of hoastes) so surely as Thabor standeth among the moun-taynes, and Charmel in the sea: euen so assuredly shall this mischefe come [vppon Egypt.]
19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make re-dye thy geare to flit: for Noph shalbe voyde and desolate, so that no man shal dwell therein.
20 The lande of Egypt is lyke a goodly faire calfe: but destruction shall come out of the north [I say] it commeth.
21 Her waged souldiers that be with her are lyke fat calues, they also shall flee away together and not abyde: for the day of their slaughter, and the tyme of their visitation shall come vpon them.

22 The crye of them shall make a noyse
E as the hissing of serpentes: for they shall enter in with their hoastes, and come against her with axes, as it were hewers downe of wood.

(a) Their wood, that is, the whole multitude of the people which shall like a great wood.

23 And they shall cut downe her (a) wood saith the Lorde, they shalbe unnumerable: for they shalbe mo in number then the grashoppers, so that no man shalbe able to tell them.

24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the handes of the people of the north.

25 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: Beholde, I wyll visite that restlesse people of Alexandria, Pharao, & Egypt, yea both their gods and their kinges, euen Pharoa and all them that put their trust in hym:

26 Yea I wyl deliuer them into the han- F
des of those that seeke after their liues, [namely into the power of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of his seruauntes: and after all these thinges, it shalbe inhabited as aforetyme, saith the Lorde.

27 Be not thou afraide O my seruaunt Jacob, feare not thou O Israel: for lo, I wyll helpe thee from farre, and thy seede from the lande of their captiuitie: Jacob also shall come againe and be in rest, he shall prosper, and no man shall do hym harme.

28 Feare thou not (O Jacob my ser- uaunt) saith the Lorde, for I am with thee, and wyll destroy all nations among whom I haue scattered thee: neuertheless I wyll not consume thee, but chasten thee and correct thee, yea and that with discretion, neither wyll I vtterly destroy thee.

¶ The. xlvii. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde against the Philistines.

A 1 Hese are the wordes that the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie the prophete against the Philistines, before that Pharao smote [the citie of] Azah.

2 Thus saith the Lorde: Beholde, there shal waters arise out of the north, and shall growe to a great fludde, running ouer & couering the lande and all that is therin, the cities and them that dwel therin: and the men shal crye, & all they that dwel in the land shal mourne

3 At the noyse and stamping of their strong barbed horses, at the shaking of their charrets, and at the rumbling of the wheeles: the fathers shall not looke to their children, so feeble and wee- rie shall their handes be,

4 At the same tyme when he shalbe there to destroy the whole lande of the Philistines, he shall make waste both Tyrus, Sidon, and the residue of their ayde: for the Lorde wyll destroy the Philistines, the remnaunt of the Ile of Caphtor. 25

" Or, Capthorim.

5 Baldnesse is come vpon Azah, Ascalon is put to silence, with the rest of their valleys: Howe long wylt thou teare thy selfe?

6 O thou sworde of the Lorde, howe long wylt thou not ceasse? Turne againe into thy sheath, rest, and leaue of.

7 But how can it ceasse, when the Lord hym selfe hath geuen it a charge against Ascalon, and raysed it vp against the cities of the sea coast?

The. xlviij. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde against the Moabites.

A 1 Hus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel against *Moab: Wo be to the citie of Nebo, for it is layde waste, brought to confusion, and Kiriathaim is taken: Misgab is brought to shame and afraide.

Esai.xv.a. xvi.a. and.xxv.b. Ezec.xxv.b Sopho.ii.b.

2 Moab can boast no more of Hesbon, for they haue deuised a mischiefe against it: Come [shall they say] let vs roote them out, that they may be no more a nation, thou also shalt be destroyed O Madmena, and the sworde shall persecute thee.

3 A voyce shall crye from Horonaim: Great wasting and destruction shall come vpon them,
4 Moab is made desolate, her litle ones haue cryed out.
5 For at the going vp vnto Luith he arose with lamentation and mourning, and downe towarde Horonaim they hearde a cruel and deadly crye:
6 Get you away, saue your liues, and be lyke vnto the heath in the wyldernesse.
7 For because thou hast trusted in thine owne workes and treasure, thou shalt be taken: Chamos with his prestes and princes shall go away into captiuitie.
8 The destroyer shall come vpon all cities; none shall escape: The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the fieldes shalbe layde waste, lyke as the Lorde hath spoken.
9 Gene winges vnto Moab, that she get her away speedyly: for her cities shalbe made so desolate, that no man shall dwell therein.
10 Cursed be he that doth the worke of the Lorde fraudulently, and cursed be he that keepeth backe his *sworde from sheddyng of blood.
11 Moab hath euer ben riche and careles from her youth vp, she hath ben stil setled vpon lies, she was neuer yet put out of one vessell into another [that is] she neuer went away into captiuitie, therefore her taste remayneth, and her sauour is not yet chaunged.
12 But lo, the tyme commeth saith the Lorde, that I shall sende her trussers to truse her vp, whiche shall remoue her from her dwelling, and empte her vessels, and breake her wine pottes.
13 And Moab shalbe ashamed of Chamos, lyke as Israel was ashamed of *Bethel, wherein she put her trust.
14 Wherefore do ye thinke thus: we are mightie and strong men of warre?
15 Moab is destroyed, and her cities brent vp, her chosen young men be slayne, saith the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hoastes.
16 The destruction of Moab commeth on a pace, and her fall is at hande.
17 All ye neighbours mourne for her, and all ye that knowe her name, say, O howe happeneth it that the strong staffe and the goodly rodde is thus broken?
18 And thou daughter Dibon, come downe from thy glory, and sit in thyrst: for he that destroyeth Moab, shall come vp to thee also, and breake downe thy strong holdes.
19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, get thee to the streete, and looke about thee, aske them that are fled and escaped, and say, what thing is happened?
20 Oh Moab is confounded and ouercome: mourne and crye, tell it out at Arnon, that Moab is destroyed.
21 For iudgement shall come vpon the playne lande [namely] vpon Holon, and Jahzah, and vpon Mephaath.
22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, and Beth Diblathaim, 23 Vpon Kiriathaim, and vpon Beth Gamul, vpon Beth Maon,
24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and all the cities in the lande of Moab, whether they lye farre or neare.
25 The horne of Moab is smitten downe, and her arme broken saith the Lorde.
26 Make her drunken, for she magnified her selfe aboue the Lorde, that men may clap their handes at her vomite, and that she also may be laughed to scorne.
27 Diddest not thou laugh Israel to scorne, as though he had ben taken [with theft] among theeues? for so often as thou makest mention of hym, thou skippest for ioy.
28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities, and dwell in rockes of stone, and become like doues that make their nestes in holes.
29 *As for Moabs pride we haue hearde of it, she is very hye minded, I knowe her stoutenesse, her boasting, her arrogancie, and the pride of her stomacke, [saith the Lorde.]
30 I knowe (saith the Lorde) her indignation, she doth not right, her workes are lyes, and they haue not dealt truely.
31 Therefore will I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs sake: my heart shall lament the men of Kirhares.
32 O thou vineyarde of Sabamah, I wyll weepe for thee as for Jazer: thy vine braunches shall come ouer the sea vnto the sea of Jazer, the destroyer shal

33 Myrth and cheare ſhalbe taken away from the fertile fielde, and from the lande of Moab: there ſhalbe no ſweete wine in the preſſe, the treader ſhal haue no ſtomacke to crye, yea there ſhalbe none to crye vnto him, 35 Moreouer, I will make Moab ceaſſe ſaith the Lorde, from the offeringes and cenſing that ſhe hath made vnto her gods in hye places.

36 Wherefore my heart mourneth for Moab like a crowde playing an heaue ſong, and for the mens ſake of Kirchares my heart mourneth alſo, euen as a pipe that pipeth a dolefull ſong: for their riches which they haue gathered, ſhalbe deſtroyed.

Eſa.xv.d. 37 *All heades ſhalbe ſhauen, and all beardes clipped of, all handes bounde, and all loynes gyrded about with ſackcloth.

38 Vpon all the houſe toppes and ſtreetes of Moab there ſhalbe lamentable mourning: for I wyl breake Moab lyke an vnprofitable veſſell, ſaith the Lorde.

39 O howe is ſhe deſtroyed: O howe mourneth ſhe: O howe doth Moab hang downe her head and is aſhamed: Thus ſhal Moab be a laughing ſtocke, and had in deriſion of all them that be rounde about her.

40 *For thus ſaith the Lorde: Beholde, the enemie ſhall come fleeing as an Egle, and ſpreade his winges vpon Moab. Deut.28.c. Iere.xlix.d.

41 They ſhall take the cities, and winne the ſtrong holdes: then the mighty mens heartes in Moab, ſhalbe lyke the heart of a woman trauayling with chylde. 65

42 And Moab ſhalbe made ſo deſolate, that ſhe ſhall no more be a people, becauſe ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe againſt the Lorde.

43 *Feare, pit, and ſnare, ſhall come vpon thee O Moab, ſaith the Lorde. Eſai.xxiiii.e

44 Whoſo eſcapeth the feare, ſhall fall into the pit, and whoſo getteth out of the pit, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: for I will bring a yere of viſitation vpon Moab, ſaith the Lorde.

45 They that are able to flee, ſhall ſtande vnder the ſhadowe of Heſbon, for there ſhall go a fire out of Heſbon, and a flambe from Sion, and ſhall burne vp that proude people of Moab, and the toppe of thoſe ſeditious chyldren.

46 Wo be vnto thee O Moab, thou people of Chamos ſhalt periſhe: yea thy ſonnes and daughters ſhalbe led away captiue.

47 Yet at the laſt wyll I bryng Moab out of captiuite agayne ſaith the Lord: Thus farre is of the plague of Moab.

1 The worde of the Lorde againſt the Ammonites, 7 againſt Idumea, 23 Damaſcus, 28 Cedar, 34 Elam.

A Exec.xxv.d. and.xxv.a. Amos.i.a.

1 AS concerning the Ammonites, thus the Lorde ſaith: hath Iſrael no chyldren: or is he without any ayre: why hath your kyng then taken Gad in: wherefore doth his people dwell in his cities.

2 Beholde therefore, the tyme commeth ſaith the Lord, that I wyll bring a noyſe of warre into Rabath of the Ammonites, and it ſhalbe layde on a deſolate heape, and her cities brent vp, and the Iſraelites ſhalbe lordes ouer thoſe that had them in poſſeſſion afore ſaith the Lorde.

3 Heſbon ſhall mourne, for Ai ſhalbe rooted out of the grounde, [ſaith the Lorde]: the citie of Rabbah ſhall crye out out, and gyde them selues with sackcloth, they shall mourne and runne about the walles, for their kyng shalbe led away prisoner, yea his prestes and princes with hym.

4 Wherfore glorest thou in the (a) valley: thy valley hath flowed away O thou rebellious daughter, and thinkest thou that thou art so safe by reason of thy treasure, that no man shall come to thee?

(a) The pleasantnesse of the soyle, the strong situation of the place, & their great wealth causeth the Ammonites lyke a wicked wanton gyrle, to blaspheme the Lorde, to mocke his people, and to be without all feare of enemies.

5 Beholde, I wyll bryng a feare vpon thee saith the Lorde God of hoastes, from all those that be about thee, so that ye shalbe scattered euery man from another, and no man shall gather them together agayne that be fled.

6 But after that, I will bryng the Ammonites also out of captiuitie agayne, saith the Lorde.

25 Psal.xxi.b. Exo.xxv.b and.xxxv.a

7 *Vpon the Edomites hath the Lord of hoastes spoken on this maner: Is there no more wysdome in Theman: Is there no more good counsayle among his people: Is their wysdome then turned cleane to naught:

8 Get you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe O ye citizens of Dedan: for I wyll bryng destruction vpon Esau, yea and the day of his visitation.

9 If the grape gatherers come vpon thee, shoulde they not leaue some grapes: If the night robbers come vpon thee, shoulde they not take so much as they thought were inough:

10 But I wyll make Esau bare, and discouer his secretes, so that he shall not be able to byde them: his seede shalbe wasted away, yea his brethren and his neighbours, and he hym selfe shall not be left behynde.

11 Thou shalt leaue thy fatherlesse children behynde thee, and I wyll kepe them, and thy wydowes shal take their comfort in me.

Iere.xxv.b. Ezec.ix.b. 1.Pet.iiii.c. 12 For thus hath the Lord spoken: *Beholde, they that men thought were vnmeete to drinke of the cuppe, haue dronken with the first, and thinkest thou then to be free: No no, thou shalt neither be quit nor free: but thou must drinke also.

13 For why: I haue sworne by my selfe saith the Lorde, that Bozrah shall become a wyldernesse, an open shame, a laughing stocke, and cursing, and all her cities shalbe a continuall desert.

14 For I am perfectly informed of the Lorde, that he hath sent a message already vnto the heathen: Gather you together, and go forth agaynst her, make you redy to battayle. ℭ

15 For lo, *I wyll make thee but small among the heathen, and litle regarded among men. Abd.i.a.

16 *Thy hye stomacke, and the pryde of thy heart hath deceaued thee, because thou dwellest in the holes of stonye rockes, and hast the hye mountaynes in possession: Neuertheless, though thy nest were as hye as the Egles, yet I wyll cast thee downe saith the Lorde. Ffa.xlviii.b. Iere.xlviii.d

17 Moreouer, Idumea shalbe a wyldernesse, *whoso goeth by it, shalbe abashed, and wonder at all her miserable plagues. Iere.xviii.b. xix.b. and.l.b.

18 *Like as Sodom, Gomor, and the cities that lay there about, were turned vpside downe, saith the Lorde: so shall no body dwell in Idumea, and no man shall haue his habitation there. Gen.xix.e.

19 Beholde, lyke as the lion, so shall a destroyer come vp from the pleasaunt medowes of Iordane, vnto the strong dwelling place, & when I haue made hym quiet, I wyll make hym to flee from her, and all chosen men wyll I set in aray against her: Who is lyke vnto me: What is he that wyll strine with me: What sheephearde may stande in my handes:

20 *Therefore heare the counsell of the Lorde that he hath taken vpon Idumea, and his purpose that he hath deuised vpon the citizens of Theman: The least of the flocke shall drayle them, and looke what fayre habitation they haue, they shall make it waste, and them selues also. Psal.57.b.

21 At the noyse of their fall the earth shall quake, the crye of their voyce shalbe heard vnto the red sea.

22 Beholde, *the enemie shall come and flee vp hyther lyke as it were an Egle, and spreade his wynges vpon Bozrah: then shall the heartes of the worthyes in Edom, be as the heart of a woman trauayling of chylde. Iere.xlviii.

23 *Vpon Damascus, Hemath, and Arphad, shall come confusion: for they shal Esai.xvii.a. Amos.i.a.

heare euyll tidinges, they shalbe tossed to and fro like the sea that can not stand styll.

24 Damascus shalbe sore afraide, and shal flee: trembling commeth vpon her, sorowe and payne shall ouertake her, as a woman trauayling of chylde.

25 But howe happeneth it that the famous cite, the citie of my ioy, is not spared?

26 Her young men shal fal in the streetes, and all her men of warre shalbe taken away in that tyme, saith the Lorde of hoastes.

27 I wyll kindle a fire in the walles of Damascus, whiche shall consume the palace of Benhadad.

Esai.xxi.c. 28 *As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hazor, whom Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon smote, the Lord hath spoken thus vpon them: Aryse, and get you vp vnto Cedar, and destroy the people towarde the east.

29 Their tentes and their flockes shall they take away, yea their hangynges and their vessels, their camels also shall they cary away with them: they shall crye to them, feare is on euery syde.

30 Flee, get you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwell there O ye inhabiters of Hazor saith the Lorde: for Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon hath holden a counsell concerning you, and concluded his deuice against you.

31 Aryse and get you vp against ponder ryche and careles people saith the Lorde, whiche haue neither gates nor doore barres, but dwell alone.

32 Their camels shalbe a pray, and the droues of their cattell driuen awaye: Moreouer, those wil I scatter towarde all the wyndes, and to the farthest partes of the worlde, yea from all the sides therof will I bryng their destruction, saith the Lorde.

33 Hazor also shalbe a dwelling for dragons, and an euerlasting wyldernesse, so that no body shall dwell there, and no man shall haue there his habitation. €

34 These are the wordes that the Lord spake to the prophete Jeremie concerning *Elam, in the beginning of the raigne of Zedekias kyng of Juda. Exech.xx.a. Dan.viii.a.

35 Thus saith the Lord of hoastes, Beholde, I wyl breake the bowe of Elam, their principall strength.

36 And vpon Elam I wyll bryng the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, and wyll scatter them against the same foure wyndes: and there shalbe no people, but some of Elam shall flee vnto them.

37 For I wyll cause Elam to be afraide of their enemies, and of them that seeke their liues, and wyll bryng vpon them a mischefe, euen my wrath saith the Lorde: And I wyll persecute them with the sworde so long tyll I haue brought them to naught.

38 I wyll set my throne in Elam, I wyll destroy both the kyng and princes from thence saith the Lorde: But in processe of tyme I wyll bryng Elam out of captiuitie agayne, saith the Lorde.

¶ He prophecieth the destruction of Babylon, and the deliuerance of Israel, whiche was in captiuitie.

A 1 THe wordes that the Lorde spake vnto the prophete Jeremie, cõcerning Babylon and the lande of the Chaldees:

Esai.xiii.a. and xlvii.a. and li.a. 2 *Preache among the gentiles, let your voyce be hearde, make a token, crye out, kepe no silence, but say, Babylon is wonne, *Bel is confounded, and Merodach is ouercome, *yea their gods be brought to shame, Iere. xxv.b. Esai.xlvi.a. Dan.v.a.

and their images burst in peeces:

3 For out of the north there doth come a people against her, which shall make her lande so waste that no body shall dwell therin, neither man nor beast, for they shall flee and depart from thence.

4 *In those dayes, and at that tyme saith the Lorde, the chyldren of Israel shall come, they and the chyldren of Juda, weeping and making haste, and shal seeke the Lorde their God. i.Esd.i.a.

5 They shall aske the way to Sion, thither ther shall they turne their faces, saying: Come, and we wyll cleaue to the Lorde in a covenaunt that neuer shalbe broken.

Iere.2.a. Ezec.36.f. 6 My people haue ben a lost *flocke, my sheepheardes haue deceaued them, and haue made them go astray vpon the hylles, they haue gone from the mountayne to the litle hyl, and forgotten their folde.

25 7 All they that came vpon them haue deuoured them, and their enemies said, we haue made no fault agaynst them, for they haue displeased the Lorde, [yea euen the Lorde which is] the habitation of their righteousnesse, and the hope of their fathers.

8 Flee from Babylon, and depart out of the lande of the Chaldees, and be ye as the rammes that go before the flocke.

Iere.4.g. 9 *For lo, I wyll wake vp an hoast of people from the northren lande, & bryng them vpon Babylon, these shal lay siege to it, and winne it: their arrowes shall not misse, like as a cunnyng archer shooteth not wrong.

10 And the Chaldees shalbe spoyled, and all they that spoyle them, shalbe satisfied saith the Lorde:

Esa.xlvii.a. 11 *Although ye were so chearfull & glad, to treade downe myne heritage, and fulfylled your pleasures as the calues in the grasse, and triumphed ouer them like bulles [when ye had gotten the victorie]

12 Your mothers shalbe sore confounded, and they that bare you shall come to shame, she shalbe the least set by among the nations, voyde, wasted, & dryed vp.

13 No man shalbe able to dwell there for the feare of the Lorde, but she shalbe whole desolate: *all they that go by Babylon, shall stande styll & be abashed, and shall wonder at all her plagues.

Iere.xvii.b. xxx.b. and xlix.c.

14 Go forth in your aray agaynst Babylon rounde about all ye that can handle bowes, shoote at her, spare no arrowes: for she hath sinned agaynst the Lorde.

15 Crye out agaynst her rounde about, she shall yelde her selfe, her foundations shall fall, and her walles shall come downe, for it shalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, *yea vengeaunce shalbe taken of her: and as she hath done, so deale ye with her.

Exo.xxi.b. Leuit.24.d. Ioel.iii.b.

16 Roote out the sower from Babylon, & hym that handleth the sicle in haruest: for feare of the swoorde of the enemie euery man shall get hym to his owne people, and euery man shall flee to his owne lande.

17 Israel is a scattered flocke, the lions haue dispearsed them: *First the kyng of the Assyrians deuoured them, *last of all this Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon hath bruised all their bones.

4.Reg.17.e. Esai.x.a. 3.Reg.25.d.

18 Therfore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Beholde, I wyll visite the kyng of Babylon and his kyngdome, as *I haue visited the kyng of the Assyrians, 3.Reg.19.g.

19 And wyll bryng Israel agayne to his pleasaunt pasture, that he may feede vpon Charmel and Basan, and be satisfied vpon the mount of Ephraim and Galaad.

Esai.xxiii.d.

20 In those dayes and at the same tyme saith the Lorde, yf the offence of Israel be sought for, there shal none be founde, yf men enquire for the sinne of Juda, there shalbe none: for I wyll be mercifull vnto them whom I suffer to remayne.

21 Go downe [O thou auenger] into the enemies lande, and visite them that dwell therin: downe with them, & smite them vpon the backes saith the Lorde, do according to all that I haue commaunded thee. D

22 There is gone about the lande a crye of a slaughter and great murther [namely on this maner]

23 Howe happeneth it that the hammer of the whole worlde is thus broken and bruised in sunder? Howe chaunceth it that Babylon is become a Wildernesse among the heathen [on this maner?]

24 I my selfe haue layde a snare for thee, and thou art taken vnawares, thou art trapped and snared: for why? thou hast contended agaynst the Lorde.

25 The Lorde hath opened his house of ordinaunce, and brought forth the weapons of his wrath: for the thyng that is done in the land of the Chaldees, it is the Lorde of hoastes worke.

26 Come agaynst her, for this is her ende, breake vp her chestes, threshe her as ye threshe corne, destroy her that nothyng shalbe left.

27 Slay all their mightie souldiers, and put them to death: woo be vnto them, for the day and tyme of their visitation is at hande.

28 [Me thynke] I heare [already] a crye of them that be fled and escaped out of the lande lande of Babylon, which shelbe in Sion the vengeaunce of the Lorde our God, the vengeaunce of his temple, [yea a voyce of them that crye agaynst Babylon]

29 Call vp all the archers agaynst Babylon, pitch your tentes rounde about her, that none escape, recompence her as she hath deserued, and accordyng as she hath done, so deale with her agayne: for she hath set vp her selfe agaynst the Lorde, agaynst the holy one of Israel.

Iere. l.c. Apoc.18.b.

ii. Tess.ii.a.

30 Therfore shall her young men fall downe in the streetes, and all her men of warre shalbe rooted out in that day (saith the Lorde.

31 Beholde, I speake vnto thee O thou proude (saith the Lorde God of hoastes, for thy day shall come, euen the tyme of thy visitation.

32 And the proude shall stumble and fall, and no man shall helpe hym vp, I will burne vp his cities with fire, and it shall consume all that is rounde about hym.

33 Thus (saith the Lorde of hoastes, The children of Israel and Juda suffer violence together, all they that haue them in captiuitie kepe them fast, and will not let them go.

34 But their auenger and redeemer is mighty, whose name is the Lorde of hoastes, he shall mayntayne their cause, he shal make the lande shake, and iudge them that dwell therin, [one with another]

35 The sworde shal come vpon the Chaldees (saith the Lorde, vpon them that dwell in Babylon, vpon their princes, and vpon their wise men.

36 The sworde vpon their soothsayers, as for those they shall become fooles: the sworde vpon their worthies, so that they shall stande in feare.

37 The sworde vpon their horsemen and charrettes, and vpon all the cõmon people that dwell among them, so that they shall all become lyke women: The sworde vpon their treasure, so that it shalbe stollen away.

38 A drought vpon their waters, so that they shalbe dryed vp: for the lande worshippeth images, and delighteth wonderfully in idols.

39 Therfore shall wylde beastes, Lamia, and Cat of mountaynes, and Estriches dwell therin: for there shall neuer man dwell there, neither shall any man haue his habitation there for euermore.

40 Like as God destroyed* Sodome and Gomorre, with the cities that lay there about (saith the Lorde: so shall no man dwell there also, neither shall any man haue there his habitation.

Gen. xix.

41 *Beholde, there shall come a people from the north with a great bonde of men, and many kynges shall stande vp from the endes of the earth.

Iere. l. b. Deut.28.c.

42 They beare bowes and bucklers, cruell are they and vnmercifull: their voyce roreth like the ragyng sea, they ryde vpon horses, and come weaponed to fight agaynst thee O Babylon.

43 Assoone as the kyng of Babylon heare tell of them, his handes shall ware feeble, sorowe and heauinesse shall come vpon him as a woman trauayling with chylde.

44 Beholde, *like as the lion commeth vp from the swellyng of Jordane vnto the dennes of Ethan, so will I dryue them foorth, and make them runne agaynst her: But whom shall I choose out and ordayne to such a thyng? for who is like me? or who wil strue with me? or what sheephearde may stande agaynst me?

Iere. xlix.c.

45 Therfore here the counsayle that the Lorde hath geuen vpon Babylon, and the deuice that he hath taken vpon the lande of the Chaldees, The least among the people shall drawe them out, and loke what pleasaunt houses they haue, they shall lay them waste.

46 The noyse at the wynnyng of Babylon shall moue the earth, and the crye shalbe heard among the gentiles.

The .lj. Chapter.

1 How Babylon shulde be ouerthrowen. 59 Jeremie geueth his booke to Saraias.

Iere xxv.b. and l.a.

THus hath the Lorde sayde: *Behold, I will raise vp a perilous wynde agaynst Babylon, & her citizens that heare euyl will against me.

2 I will sende also into Babylon fanners to fanne her out, and to destroy her lande: for in the day of her trouble they shalbe about her on euery syde.

3 Moreouer [the Lorde wyll say] vnto the bowmen bowmen, and to them that aduaunce them selues in their armoure: he shall not spare her young men, kyll downe all her hoast.

4 Thus the slayne shall fall downe in the lande of the Chaldees, and the wounded in the streetes.

5 *As for Israel and Juda they shall not be forsaken of their God of the Lord of hoastes, yea (a)for the holy one of Israels sake haue the Chaldees fylled their lande full of sinne.

(a) For the holy one of Israels sake, that is for the grieuous affliction and great iniurie done to Gods people which he reputeth as done vnto him selfe.

6 *Flee away from Babylon, euery man saue his lyfe, that ye be not rooted out with her wickednesse: for the tyme of the Lordes vengeaunce is come, yea he shall rewarde her agayne.

7 Babylon hath ben in the Lordes hande *a golden cuppe, that maketh all landes drunken: of her wine haue all people drunken, therfore are they out of their wittes.

Esa. xlviii.b Iere. xxv.e.

8 *But sodaynly is Babylon fallen and destroyed: mourne for her, bryng plasters for her woundes, yf she may peraduenture be healed agayne.

Esai. xxi.b. Apoc. 18.a.

9 We would haue made Babylon whole say they, but she is not recouered, therfore wyll we let her alone, and go euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is come vnto heauen, and is gone vp to the cloudes.

10 The Lorde hath brought foorth our (b)righteousnesse: and therfore come on, we wyll shewe in Sion the worke of the Lorde our God.

(b) Here to ouer throw Ierusalem had deserued to be plagued at gods hand, yet had the Chaldees no cause on their parte why to breake so cruelly with them and so god declareth their righteousnesse in respect to the Chaldees, by punishyng them and deliuerying his people.

11 Make sharpe the arrowes, and multiplie your shieldes: for the Lorde shall rayse vp the spirite of the kyng of the Medes, which hath alredy a desire to destroy Babylon: this shalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, & the vengeaunce of his temple.

12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babylon, make your watch strong, set your watchmen in araye, yea holde nyne watches, and yet for all that shall the Lorde go foorth with his deuice which he hath taken vpon them that dwell in Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest by the great Waters, O thou that hast so great treasure and riches, thine ende is come, and the reckenyng of thy wynnynges.

14 *The Lorde of hoastes hath sworne by hym selfe, that he wyll ouerwhelme thee with men lyke grashoppers in number, whyche with a courage shall crye alarum alarum agaynst thee:

Amos. vi.c. Iere. xxii.a.

15 *Yea euen the Lorde of hoastes that with his power made the earth, with his wisdome prepared the round world, and with his discretion spread out the heauens. Iere. xxxv.b

16 Assoone as he letteth his voyce be hearde, the waters in the ayre waxe fierce: he draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth, he turneth the lightnynges to rayne, he bryngeth the wyndes out of their secrete places.

17 [If they be esteemed] by their wisdome, all men are become fooles: *confounded be all the casters of images, for the thing that they make, is but deceipt, and hath no breath. Esa. xliii.c. Baruch. vi.a

18 Vayne is it and an erronious worke, and in the tyme of visitation it shall perishe.

19 The portion of Jacob is none such: but he that made all thinges whose name is the Lorde of hoastes, he is the rodde of his enheritaunce.

20 (c)Thou hast ben mine hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in peeces, and with thee haue I destroyed kyngdomes. (c) Thou hast ben this God speaketh vnto Babylon.

21 Through thee I haue beaten to powder horse and horsemen, yea the charrettes and such as sate vpon them.

22 Through thee I haue broken man and woman, olde and young, bacheler and mayden.

23 Through thee I haue destroyed the sheepheard and his flocke, the husbandman and his cattell, the princes and the rulers.

24 Therfore wyll I rewarde the citie of Babylon, and all the inhabitauntes of Chaldea, with all the euyll which they haue done vnto Sion, yea that ye your selues shall see it, saith the Lorde.

25 Beholde I come vpon thee thou noysome (d)hyll saith the Lorde, thou that destroyest all landes, I wyll stretch out my hand ouer thee, and cast thee downe from the stony rockes, and wyll make thee a burnt hyll,

(d) Babylon is called an hyll although it stoode in a low place, and no hylles to worke it: for that her walles & buildynges were so great and high as mountaynes.

26 So that neither corner stones shalbe taken any more out of thee: but waste and desolate shalt thou lye for euermore saith the Lorde.

27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpets among the heathen, prouoke the nations agaynst her, call the kyng-

doms

domes of Ararat, Menni, and Aschanez, agaynst her, set the prince agaynst her, bryng as great a sort of terrible horses agaynst her as yf they were grashoppers.

28 Prepare against them the people of the Medes, with their kynges, princes, and all their chefe rulers: yea and the whole lande that is vnder hym.

29 The lande also shall shake and be afrayde When the deuice of the Lorde shall come forth agaynst Babylon, to make the lande of Babylon so waste that no man shal dwel any more therin.

30 The worthyes of Babylon shall leaue the battayle and kepe them selues in strong holdes, their strength hath failed them, they shalbe lyke women, their dwellyng places shalbe burnt vp, their barres shalbe broken.

31 One pursenaunt shall meete another, yea one poste shall come by another, to bryng the kyng of Babylon tidinges that his cite is taken on euery syde, 32 The foordes occupied, the fennes burnt vp, and the souldiers sore afrayde.

33 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon hath ben in her tyme lyke as a threshyng floore, but shortly shall her haruest come.

34 Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon hath deuoured and destroyed me, he hath made me an emptie vessell, he swalowed me vp lyke a dragon, and filled his belly With my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 My substaunce Wherof he hath spoyled me, and the thyng that Was left me Which he hath caryed away, crye out against Babylon saith the daughter that dwelleth in Sion, yea and my blood also agaynst the Chaldees, saith Hierusalem.

36 Therfore thus saith the Lorde, Beholde I wyll defende thy cause, and auenge thee, I wyll drynke vp her sea, and drye vp her Water springes.

37 *Babylon shall become an heape of stones, a dwellyng place for dragons, a fearefulnesse and Wonderyng, and no man shall dwell there.

38 They shall rore together lyke lions, and as the young lions When they be angry, so shall they bende them selues.

39 In their heate I shall geue them a dinner, and they shalbe dronken for ioy:

*then shall they sleepe an euerlastyng sleepe, and neuer wake, saith the Lorde. Iere. li. b.

40 I shall cary them downe to be slayne lyke sheepe, lyke Weathers and goates:

41 O howe Was Sesach Wonne: O howe Was the glorie of the Whole lande taken: howe happeneth it that Babylon is so Wondred at among the heathen:

42 The sea is risen ouer Babylon, & hath couered her With her great Waues.

43 Her cities are layde Waste, the lande lyeth vnbuilded and voyde, it is a lande where no man dwelleth, and where no man trauayleth through.

44 Moreouer, I wyll visite Bell at Babylon, & the thyng that he hath swalowed vp, that same shall I plucke out of his mouth: the gentiles also shall runne no more vnto hym, yea and the Walles of Babylon shall fall. Iere. l.a. Esai.xlvi.a. Dan xiiii.d

45 O my people, *come out of Babylon, that euery man may saue his life from the fearfull Wrath of the Lorde. Esai. l.a.b. ii.Cor.vi.c.

46 Be not faynt hearted, and feare not at euery rumoure that shalbe hearde in the lande: for euery yere bryngeth newe tidinges, and in the yere folowyng newe tidinges, and robbyng in the lande, and lorde vpon lorde. ℰ

47 And lo the tyme commeth that I Will visite the images of Babylon, and the Whole lande shalbe confounded, yea and her slayne shall lye in the middest of her.

48 Heauen and earth With all that is therin shal reioyce ouer Babylon, When the destroyers shal come vpon her from the north, saith the Lorde.

49 *Like as Babylon hath beaten downe and slayne many out of Israel, so shall there fall many, and be slayne in all her kingdome. Iere. l.c.

50 Ye that haue escaped the sworde, haste you, stande not styl, remember the Lord a farre of, and thynke vpon Hierusalem.

51 For We are ashamed to heare the blasphemies, our faces Were couered With shame, because the straunge aliauntes came into the sanctuarie of the Lorde.

52 Wherfore, beholde saith the Lorde, the tyme commeth that I Wyll visite the images of Babylon, and through the Whole lande they shall mourne and fall.

53 *Though Babylon clymed vp into heauen, and kept her power on hye, yet shall I sende her destroyers saith the Lorde. Iere. xlix.d.

(e) The complaynt of godly people.

Lorde.

54 A piteous crye [shalbe heard] from Babylon, and a great miserie from the lande of the Chaldees:

55 When the Lorde destroyeth Babylon, & whē he driueth out the hygh stomacke and proude boasting, wherewith they haue ben as furious as the waues of the great water floods, and made great crakes with their wordes:

56 For the destroyers shall come vpon her, euen vpon Babylon, which shall take their worthies, and breake their bowes: for the God of recompence, euen the Lorde shall sufficiently recompence them.

57 Yea [saith the Lorde] I wyll make their princes, their wisemen, their chefe rulers, their nobles, and their worthies drunken, so that they shall sleepe an euerlasting sleepe and neuer wake: thus saith the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hoastes.

58 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, The thicke wall of Babylon shalbe broken, and her hye gates shalbe burnt vp, & the thyng that the Gentiles & the people haue wrought with great trauayle & labour, shall come to naught, and be consumed in the fire.

59 This is the charge that Ieremie the prophete gaue vnto Saraiah the sonne of Neriah, the sonne of Maasiah, when he went towarde Babylon with Zedekiah the kyng of Iuda, in the fourth yere of his raigne: nowe this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Ieremie wrote in a booke al the miserie that shoulde come vpon Babylon, yea euen all these sermons that be written agaynst Babylon.

61 And gaue Saraiah this charge: When thou commest vnto Babylon, see that thou reade these wordes, 62 And say, O Lord thou art determined to roote out this place, so that neither people nor cattell shall dwell there any more, but to lye waste for euer.

63 And when thou hast read out the booke, bynde a stone to it, and cast it in the middest of Euphrates, 64 And say, Euen thus shall Babylon sincke, & be thrust downe with the burthen of trouble that I wyll bryng vpon her: so that she shall neuer come vp agayne. Thus farre are the preachynges of Ieremie.

The .lij. Chapter.

1 He repeateth the takyng of Zedekiah. 4 Hierusalem is taken of the Chaldees. 10 Zedekias sonnes are kylled before his face, and his eyes put out. 12 The citie is burned. 14 The temple is spoyled and robbed. 28 They that were left in Hierusalem are carped to Babylon. 31 Kyng Iehoakim is brought forth of prison, and fed like a kyng.

A 4.Reg.24.d 2.Par.36.b

Edekiah was *one and twentie yeres olde whē he was made kyng, and raigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalē: his mothers name was Hamutal, Ieremies daughter of Libna.

2 He liued wickedly before the Lorde, euen as Iehoakim did:

3 For the Lorde was angry at Hierusalem and Iuda, so long tyll he had cast them out of his presence: and Zedekiah fell from the kyng of Babylon.

Iere. 39.a. 4.Reg.25.a. 4 *But in the ninth yere of his raigne, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the moneth, it happened that Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, with all his hoast, came before Hierusalem, and besieged it, and made bulwarkes rounde about it.

5 And this besiegyng of the citie endured vnto the eleuenth yere of kyng Zedekiah.

6 *And in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, there was a great hunger in the citie, that there were no more victuals for the people of the lande. 4.Reg.25.a. Iere.17.b. and.39.a.

7 So all the souldiers brake away, and fled out of the citie by night through the way of the port, betweene the two walles by the kynges garden: (Nowe the Chaldees had compassed the citie rounde about) yet went these men their way through the wildernesse.

8 And so the Chaldees followed vpon them, and toke Zedekiah the kyng in the fielde of Iericho, when his hoast was runne from hym.

9 So they carped the kyng away prisoner to Reblath, vnto the kyng of Babylon in the lande of Hemath, *where Iere.39.b.

he he gaue iudgement vpon hym.

10 The kyng of Babylon also caused Zedekias sonnes to be slayne before his face, yea and put all the princes of Juda to death at Reblath.

11 Moreouer, he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, & caused hym to be bounde with two chaynes, to be caryed vnto Babylon, and let hym lye in prison tyl he dyed.

12 Nowe the tenth day of the fifth moneth, in the nineteenth yere of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne, and the kyng of Babylons seruauntes came vnto Hierusalem, 13 And burnt vp the house of the Lorde: he burnt vp also the kynges palace, all the houses, and all the gorgeous buildinges in Hierusalem.

14 And the whole hoast of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captayne, brake downe all the walles of Hierusalem rounds about.

15 As for the poore people, and such folke as was yet left in the citie, which also were fallen to the kyng of Babylon, yea and what people as yet remayned, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne caryed them away prisoners.

16 But the poore people of the countrey did Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne leaue in the lande, to occupie the vineyardes and fieldes.

17 The Chaldees also brake the brasen pyllers that were in the house of the Lord, yea the seate and the brasen lauer that was in the house of the Lorde, and caryed all the mettall of them vnto Babylon.

18 They toke away also the chalderns, shouels, fleshhokes, sprinklers, spoones, and all the brasen vessels that was occupied in the seruice.

19 with the basons, cole pannes, sprinklers, pottes, candlesticks, spoones, and cuppes, wherof some were of golde, and some of siluer.

20 The chiefe captayne toke also the two pillers, the lauer, the twelue brasen bullockes that stoode vnder the seat which king Solomon made in the house of the Lorde: and all the vessels conteyned so much mettal that it might not be waied.

21 For euery piller was eyghteene cubites hye, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites and foure fingers thicke, and rounde.

22 Nowe vpon the rope were brasen knoppes. and euery knoppe was fiue cubites hye, and vpon the knoppes were hoopes, and pomgranates rounde about of cleane brasse.

23 After this maner were both the pillers fashioned with ꝑ pomgranates, whereof there were an hundred ninetie and sixe, which hanged vpon the hoopes rounde about.

24 The chiefe captayne also toke Saraiah the hye priest, and Sophonah that was chiefe next hym, & the three keepers of the doore:

25 He toke out of the citie a chamberlaine which was captaine of the souldiers, and seuen men that were the kinges seruauntes, which were founde in the citie: and Sopher a captaine that vsed to muster the men of warre, with three score men of the countrey that were taken in the citie:

26 These Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine toke, and caryed them to the king of Babylon vnto Reblath:

27 And the kyng of Babylon caused them to be put to death at Reblath in the lande of Hemath: And thus Juda was ledde away captiue out of his owne lande.

28 This is the summe of the people whom Nabuchodonozor led away captiue: in the seuenth yere of his raigne he caryed away of the Iewes three thousande twentie and three,

29 In the eyghteenth yere Nabuchodonozor caryed away from Hierusalem eyght hundred thirtie and two persons, 30 In the three and twentie yere of Nabuchodonozor, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne toke away seuen hundred fourtie and fiue Iewes, prisoners. The whole summe of the prisoners is foure thousande and sixe hundred.

31 In the thirtie and seuenth yere after that Iehoakim the kyng of Juda was caryed away, in the fiue and twentith day of the twelft moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon (the same yere that he raigned) gaue Iehoakim the kyng of Juda his pardon, and let hym out of prison, 32 And spake louyngly to hym, and set his throne aboue the thrones of the other kynges that were with hym in Babylon.

33 He chaunged also the clothes of his prison, pyſon, yea and did eate with hym all his life long.

34 And he had a continuall lyuyng geuen hym of the kyng of Babylon, euery day a certayne thyng alowed hym, all the dayes of his life, vntyll he dyed.

The ende of the booke of the prophete Ieremie.

¶ The lamentations of the prophete Ieremie.

The first Chapter.

1 It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie and Hierusalem destroyed, that Jeremie the prophete sate weepyng, and sorowfully bewayled Hierusalem, and sighyng and howlyng with an heauy and wofull heart, sayde,

ALas) howe sitteth the citie so desolate, that sometime was full of people: howe is she become lyke a widow? which was great among nations: howe is she brought vnder tribute that ruled landes:

2 She weepeth sore in the nyght, so that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among all her louers there is none that geueth her any comfort, *yea her nert frendes transgresse agaynst her, and are become her enemies.

3 Juda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest, all they that persecuted her, toke her in strayte places (where she coulde not escape.)

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because no man cōmeth no more to the solempne feastes: all her gates are desolate, her prestes make lamentatiō, her maydens are carefull, and she her selfe is in great heauinesse.

5 Her enemies haue ben rulers ouer her, and her enemies haue prospered, because the Lorde hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: her children are led away captiue before their enemies.

6 All the beauue of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become lyke hartes that fynde no pasture, they are driuen away before their enemie, so that they haue no more power.

7 Nowe Hierusalem remembred in the tyme of her miserie and bare estate all her ioy & pleasure that she hath had in tymes past, seyng her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enemies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enemies stande lokyng at her, and laugh her Sabbath daies to scorne. 25

8 Hierusalem hath sinned greeuously, therfore is she come in decay: all they that had her in honour dispise her, for they haue seene her filthinesse, yea she sigheth and *is ashamed of her selfe. * Or, and is turned backewarde.

9 Her skirtes are defiled, she remembred not her last ende, therfore is her fall so wonderfull, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lorde consider my trouble, for myne enemie hath the vpper hande.

10 The enemie hath put his hande to all the precious thinges that she had, yea euen before her eyes came the heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, *whom thou (neuertheles) hast forbidden to come within thy congregation. * Deut. 23.c.

¶ The lamentations of the prophete Ieremie.

The first Chapter.

1 It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie and Hierusalem destroyed, that Jeremie the prophete sate weepyng, and sorowfully bewailed Hierusalem, and sighyng and howlyng with an heauy and wofull heart, sayde, Las) howe sitteth the citie so desolate, that sometime was full of people? howe is she become lyke a widow? which was great among nations? howe is she brought vnder tribute that ruled landes?

א 1

2 She weepeth sore in the nyght, so that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among all her louers there is none that geueth her any comfort, *yea her nert frendes transgresse agaynst her, and are become her enemies.

3 Juda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest, all they that persecuted her, toke her in strayte places (where she coulde not escape.)

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because no man cõmeth no more to the solempne feastes: all her gates are desolate, her prestes make lamentatiõ, her maydens are carefull, and she her selfe is in great heauinesse.

5 Her enemies haue ben rulers ouer her, and her enemies haue prospered, because the Lorde hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: *her children are led away captiue before their enemies.

6 All the beaute of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become lyke hartes that fynde no pasture, they are driuen away before their enemie, so that they haue no more power.

7 Nowe Hierusalem remembred in the tyme of her miserie and bare estate all her ioy & pleasure that she hath had in tymes past, seyng her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enemies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enemies stande lokyng at her, and laugh her Sabbath daies to scorne.

8 Hierusalem hath sinned greeuously, therfore is she come in decay: all they that had her in honour dispise her, for they haue seene her filthinesse, yea she sigheth and "is ashamed of her selfe.

9 Her skirtes are defiled, she remembred not her last ende, therfore is her fall so wonderfull, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lorde consider my trouble, for myne enemie hath the vpper hande.

10 The enemie hath put his hande to all the precious thinges that she had, yea euen before her eyes came the heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, *whom thou (neuertheles) hast forbidden to come within thy congregation.

11 *All her people seeke their bread with heauinesse, and loke what precious thyng euery man hath, that geueth he for meate to saue his lyfe: Consider O Lorde, and see howe vile I am become.

12 Haue ye no regarde all ye that go forebye, beholde & see yf there be any sorowe lyke vnto mine, wherwith the Lorde hath troubled me in the day of his feareful wrath.

made me desolate, so that I must euer be mournyng.

14 The (a) yoke of my transgressions is bounde fast to his hande, they are wrapped [or writhen] and come vp about my necke: he hath caused my strength to fayle, the Lorde hath deliuered me into those handes wherout I can not quyte my selfe.

15 The Lorde hath destroyed all the mightie men that were in me, he hath proclaymed an appoynted tyme to slaughter all my best men: the Lorde hath troden downe the daughter of Juda, lyke as it were in a wynepresse.

16 *Therfore do I wepe, and mine eyes gushe out of water: for the comfort that shoulde quicken me, is farre fro me, my children are driuen away: for whyle the enemie hath gotten the vpper hande.

17 Sion casteth out her handes, and there is no man to comfort her, the Lorde hath layde the enemies rounde about Jacob, and Hierusalem is become abhominacion in the middest of them.

18 *The Lorde is righteous, for I haue prouoked his countenaunce vnto anger, O take heede all ye people and consider my heauinesse, my maydens and my young men are led away into captiuitie.

19 I called for my louers, but they beguiled me, for my priestes and counsayers, but they perished, euen whyle they sought for meate to saue their lyues.

20 *Consider (O Lorde) howe I am troubled, my wombe is disquieted, my heart turneth about in me, and I am full of heauinesse, because I rebelled stubburnly: the sworde hurteth me without, and within I am lyke vnto death.

21 They heare my mournyng, but there is none that wyll comfort me: All myne enemies haue hearde of my trouble, and are glad therof because thou hast done it: and thou hast brought forth the time which thou calledst, when they also shal be lyke vnto me.

22 Let all their wickednesse come before thee, and do thou to them as thou hast done vnto me for all my trespasses: for my sorowe is very great, and my heart is heauy.

(a) The bondage through sinne is most grieuous, which therfore is called the yoke of sinne. Subiected in or to Gods hande, because by no meanes it can be shaken of or resisted, but only of his speciall grace and mercie.

The .ij. Chapter.

1 ALas) *howe hath the Lorde darckened the daughter of Sion in his wrath: As for the honour of Israel he hath cast it downe fro heauen vnto the earth, and he remembred not his owne (a) foote stole when he was angry:

Treno.ii.b.

(a) By the foote stole is meant the temple of Hierusalem.

2 The Lorde hath cast out all the habitations of Jacob without any fauour, all the strong places of the daughter of Juda hath he broken in his wrath, and throwen them downe to the grounde, her kingdome and her princes hath he prophaned.

3 In the wrath of his indignation he hath broken a.l the (b) horne of Israel, he hath withdrawen his right hande from the enemie, yea a flambe of fire is kindled in Jacob, and hath consumed vp all rounde about.

4 He hath bent his bowe like an enemie, he hath fastened his right hande as an aduersarie, and euery thyng that was pleasaunt to see, he hath slayne: he hath powred out his wrath like a fire, into the tabernacle of the daughter of Sion.

(b) The horne that is the power or strength.

5 The Lorde is become like as if were an enemie, he hath deuoured Israel and all his palaces, yea all his strong holdes hath he destroyed, and spilled the daughter of Juda with much sorowe and heauinesse.

6 *His tabernacle as a garden hath he destroyed, his solempne meetinges hath he put downe: the Lord hath brought it so to passe that the hye solempne feastes and Sabbathes in Sion are cleane forgotten: in his heauy displeasure hath he dispised the kyng and priestes. Iere.viii.b.

7 The Lorde hath forsaken his owne aulter, and hath abhorred his owne sanctuarie, and hath geuen the walles of their towres into the handes of the enemie: their enemies made a noyse in the house of the Lorde, as it had ben in a solempne feast day.

8 The Lorde thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter of Sion, he spread out his line, and drewe not in his hande tyll he had destroyed them: therfore mourne the turrettes, & the broken walles fall downe together.

9 Her gates are suncke downe to the grounde, her barres are broken and smitten

Iere.lam.b. smitten in sunder, * the kyng and princes are caryed away to the gentiles:
they haue neither lawe nor prophetes, nor yet any vision from the Lorde.

10 The senatours of the daughter Sion sit vpon the grounde in silence, they haue strawed asshes vpon their heads, and gyrded them selues with sackcloth:
the maydens of Hierusalem hang downe their heades to the grounde.

11 Mine eyes begin to fayle me through Tyrus.l.a. weeping, * my body is disquieted, my liuer is powred vpon the earth for the great hurt of the daughter of my people, seeing the chyldren and babes dyd swowne in the streetes of the citie.

12 Euen when they spake to their mothers, where is meate and drinke: for whyle they so sayde, they fell downe in the streetes of the citie, like as they had ben wounded, and some dyed in their mothers bosome.

13 What shall I say vnto thee, O thou daughter Hierusalem: to whom shal I liken thee: To whom shall I compare thee O thou daughter Sion, to comfort thee withall: thy heart is lyke a Ier.v.d. mayne sea, who may heale thee:

xiii.b. xxiii.c. xxvii.b. and xxix.b. (n) * he false prophetes tooke vpon them the name of seers, which was proper to the true pro-phetes: but their vayne burthens, that is, their false prophecies brought the people vnder the grieuous burthen of af-fliction and banishment.

14 * Thy (n) prophetes haue looke dout vayne and foolish thinges for thee, they haue not shewed thee of thy wickednesse, to kepe thee from captiuitie: but they haue seene out for thee burthens of vanitie and banishment.

15 All they that go by thee, clappe their handes at thee, hissing and wagging their heades vpon the daughter Hieru-salem (and say) Is this the citie that men call so faire, wherein the whole lande reioyceth:

16 All thyne enemies gape vpon thee, whisperyng and grindyng their teeth, saying: let vs deuour, for the tyme that we looked for is come, we haue founde and seene it.

17 The Lorde hath fulfilled the thyng that he was purposed to do, and per-fourmed that he had deuised long ago:
he hath destroyed and not spared, he hath caused thyne aduersarie to triumph ouer thee, and set vp the horne of thyne enemie.

18 * Their heart cryed vnto the Lorde, Deut.xii.c O thou citie of the daughter Sion: let thy teares runne downe like a riuer day and night, rest not, and let not the apple of thyne eye leaue of.

19 Stand vp, and make thy prayer in the first watche of the night, powre out thine heart like water before the Lord:
lift vp thyne handes for the liues of thy young chyldren that dye of hunger in the streetes.

20 Beholde O Lorde, and consider to D whom thou hast done thus: Shall the women then eate their owne fruite, euen chyldren of a spanne long: shall the priestes and prophetes be slayne in the sanctuarie of the Lorde:

21 Young and olde lye thorowe the streetes vpon the grounde, my mayd-ens and young men are slayne with the sworde, whom thou in the day of thy wrathfull indignation hast put to death, yea euen thou hast put them to death, and not spared them.

22 My neighbours that are rounde about me hast thou called as it were to a feast day, so that in the day of the lordes wrath none escaped, neither was any left behinde: those that I haue brought vp and nourished, hath myne enemie destroyed.

The. iij. Chapter.

A 1 I Am the man that thorowe the rodde of his wrath haue experience of miserie.

2 He droue me foorth and led me, yea into darknesse, but not into light.

3 Against me is he turned, he turneth his hande dayly against me.

4 My flesh and my skinne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he bruised.

5 He hath buylded rounde about me, and closed me in with gall and trauaile.

6 He hath set me in darknesse, as they that be dead for euer.

7 He hath so hedged me in, that I can not get out, and hath layde heauie linkes vpon me.

8 Though I crye and call pitiously, yet heareth he not my prayer.

9 He hath stopped vp my wayes with foure squared stones, and made my pathes crooked.
10 He layeth wayte for me lyke a beare, and as a lion in a hole.
11 He hath marred my wayes, and broken me in peeces, he hath layde me waste altogether.
12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marke to shoote at.
13 The arrowes of his quiuer hath he shot, euen into my reynes.
Iere.xx.b. 14 *I am laughed to scorne of all my people, they make songues vpon me all the day long.
15 He hath filled me with bitternesse, and geuen me wormewood to drinke.
16 He hath smitten my teeth in peeces with stones, and roulled me in the dust.
17 He hath put my soule out of rest, I forget all good thinges.
18 I thought in my selfe, I am vndone, there is no hope for me in the Lorde.
19 O remember yet my miserie and my trouble, the wormewood and the gall.
20 Yea thou shalt remember them, for my soule melteth away in me.
21 Whyle I consider these thinges in my heart, I get a hope agayne.
22 [Namely, it is of the Lordes mercies that we are not vtterly consumed, for truely his pitifull compassion hath not ceassed.
23 Newe mercyes shall the Lord shewe vpon thee early in the day springing, (O Lorde) great is thy faythfulnesse.
Psal.xvi.a. 24 *The Lorde is my portion saith my soule therefore wyll I hope in hym.
25 O howe good is the Lord vnto them that put their trust in hym, and to the soule that seeketh after hym.
26 The good man with stilnesse and patience, taryeth for the health of the Lorde.
27 O howe good is it for a man to take the yoke vpon him from his youth vp:
28 He sitteth alone, he holdeth hym styll, because he hath taken [the Lordes yoke] vpon hym.
29 He layeth his face vpon the earth, if there happen to be any hope.
30 He offreth his cheeke to the smyter, he wyll be content with reproffes:
31 For the Lord wil not forsake for euer.
i.Reg.xii.b. 32 *But though he punishe, yet according to the multitude of his mercies he receaueth to grace agayne.
33 For he doth not plague willingly, and afflict the chyldren of men, 34 To treade all the pryseners of the earth vnder his feete, 35 To moue the iudgement of man before the most highest,
36 To condemne a man in his cause: the Lord hath not pleasure in such thinges.
37 What is he then that saith, there should some thing be done without the Lordes commaundement?
38 Out of the mouth of the most highest goeth not euyll and good?
39 Wherefore then murmureth the liuing man? let hym murmure at his owne sinne.
40 *Let vs looke well vpon our wayes, and remember our selues, and turne agayne to the Lorde. Iob.xxxi.d. Psal.xxxiii.a.
41 Let vs lift our heartes with our handes vnto the Lorde that is in heauen.
42 We haue ben dissemblers and haue offended, wylt thou therefore not be intreated?
43 Thou hast couered vs in thy wrath, and persecuted vs: thou hast slayne vs without any fauour.
44 *Thou hast hid thy selfe in a cloude, that our prayer should not go through. Lcc.xxxv.d
45 Thou hast made vs outcastes, and to be despised among the people.
46 All our enemies gape vpon vs.
47 Feare and pit is come vpon vs, yea decrept and destruction.
48 *Whole riuers of water gushe out of mine eyes for the hurt of my people: Treno.i.d.
49 Myne eyes runne and cannot ceasse, for there is no rest:
50 O Lorde, When wylt thou looke downe from heauen and consider?
51 Mine eyes breaketh my heart, because of all the daughters of my citie.
52 Mine enemies hunted me out sharply like a byrde, yea & that without a cause.
53 They haue put downe my life vnto a pit, and they haue cast stones vpon me.
54 They haue powred water vpon my head: then thought I, nowe am I vndone.
55 I called vpon thy name O Lorde out of the deepe pit.
56 Thou hast heard my voyce, and hast not turned away thyne eares from my sighing and crying.
57 Thou hast inclyned thy selfe vnto me when I called vpon thee: and hast said, feare not.

58 Thou

58 Thou (O Lorde) hast mayntayned the cause of my soule, and hast redemed my lyfe.
59 O Lorde, thou hast seene my wrong, take thou my cause vpon thee.
60 Thou hast well considered howe they go about to do me harme, and that all their counsels are against me.
61 Thou hast hearde their despitefull wordes O Lorde, yea and all the imaginations against me:
62 The lippes of mine enemies, and their deuises that they take against me al the day long.
63 Thou seest also their sitting downe and their rising vp, they make their songes of nothing but of me.
64 Rewarde them, O Lorde, according to the workes of their handes.
65 Geue them an obstinate heart, euen thy curse.
66 Persecute them O Lorde with thyne indignation, and roote them out from vnder the heauen.

¶ The. iiij. Chapter.

1 Howe is the golde become so dimme: howe is the most fine golde so sore chaunged: and the stones of the sanctuarie thus scattered in the corner of euery streete:
2 The children of Sion that were alway in honour, and clothed with the most precious golde: howe are they nowe become lyke the earthen vessels, whiche be made with the potters handes:
3 The dragons geue their young ones sucke with bare brestes: but the daughter of my people is cruel, like the Estriches in the wildernesse.
4 The tongues of the sucking children cleaue to the roofe of their mouthes for very thyrst: the young children aske bread, but there is no man that geueth it them.
5 They that were wont to fare delicately perishe in the streetes: they that afore were brought vp in purple, make nowe muche of doung.
6 The sinne of the daughter of my people, is become greater then the * wickednesse of Sodome, that sodaynely was destroyed, and not taken with handes.
7 Her " abstayners were whyter then the snowe or milke, their colour was freshe, red as corall, their beautie like the Saphire.
8 But nowe their faces be very blacke, insomuche that thou shouldest not knowe them in the streetes: * their skinne cleaueth to their bones, it is withered and become like a dry stocke.
9 They that be slayne with the sworde, are happier then such as dye of hunger, and perishe away famishing for the fruites of the fielde.
10 *The women (whiche of nature are pitifull) haue sodden their owne children with their handes, that they might be their meate in the miserable destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 *The Lorde hath performed his greate wrath, he hath powred out the furiousnesse of his displeasure: he hath kindeled a fire in Sion, which hath consumed the foundations therof.
12 Neither the kynges of the earth, nor all the inhabitours of the world, would haue beleued that the enemie and aduersarie shoulde haue come in at the gates of the citie of Hierusalem.
13 Whiche neuertheles is come to passe for the sinne of her prophetes, and for the wickednesse of her priestes, that haue shed *innocents blood within her.
14 As blinde men went, they stumbling in the streetes, and stayned them selues with blood, insomuch that the heathen woulde in no wyse touche their garmentes.
15 But they cryed vnto them, flee ye polluted, away, get you hence, touche not: for they are vncleane and be remoued, yea they haue said among the heathen, they shall no more dwell in this citie.
16 The countenaunce of the Lorde hath banished them, and shall neuer looke more vpon them: for they them selues neither regarded the priestes, nor pitied their elders.
17 Wherefore yet our eyes fayled vs, whyles we looked for our vayne helpe, seeing we euer wayted vpon a people that coulde do vs no good.

Psal. cxiij.a.

18 They lay so sharpe wayte for vs, that we can not go safe vpon the streetes, for our ende is come, our dayes are fulfilled, our ende is here.

19 Our persecutours are swifter then the Egles of the ayre: they followed vpon vs ouer the mountaynes, and layde wayte for vs in the wyldernesse.

20 The very breath[a] of our mouth, euen the annointed of the Lorde hym selfe, was taken in their net, of whom we say, Vnder his shadowe we shalbe preserued among the heathen.

21 And thou O daughter Edom that dwellest in the land of Hus, be glad and reioyce, for the cup shall come vnto thee also, thou shalt be dronken, and discouer thy nakednesse.

22 Thy sinnes are wel punished O thou daughter Sion, he shall not suffer thee to be caried away: but thy wickednesse O daughter Edom shall he visite, and wyll discouer thy sinnes.

The prayer of Jeremie.

A 1 All to remembraunce (O Lorde) what we haue suffred, consider and see our confusion.

2 Our inheritaunce is turned to the straungers, and our houses to the aliaunts.

3 We are become carefull and fatherlesse, and our mothers are as the wydowes.

4 We are fayne to drinke our owne water for money, and our owne wood must we buy for money.

5 Our neckes are vnder persecution, we are weery and haue no rest.

6 [Aforetime] We yelded our selues to the Egyptians, [and nowe] to the Assyrians, onlye that we might haue bread inough.

7 *Our fathers (which nowe are gone) haue sinned, and we must beare their wickednesse. *Iere.xxxi.c. Eze.xviii.a.

8 Seruauntes haue the rule of vs, and no man deliuereth vs out of their handes.

9 We must get our liuing with the perill of our liues, because of the drouth of the wildernesse.

10 Our skinne is as it had ben made blacke in an ouen, for very sore hunger.

11 The wiues are rauished in Sion, and the maydens in the cities of Juda.

12 The princes are hanged vp with the hand of the enemies, they haue not spared the olde sage men.

13 They haue taken young men to grinde, and the boyes fainted vnder the burthens of wood.

14 The elders sit no more vnder the ℭ gates, and the young men vse no more playing of musicke.

15 The ioy of our heart is gone, our melodious meeting is turned into mourning.

16 The garlande of our head is fallen: alas that euer we sinned so sore.

17 *Therefore our heart is full of heauinesse, and our eyes dimme. *Iere.xxxi.a.

18 Because of the hill of Sion that is destroyed: insomuch that the foxes runne vpon it.

19 But thou O Lorde, that remaynest for euer, and thy seate worlde without ende:

20 wherefore wylt thou still forget vs, and forsake vs so long?

21 O Lord turne thou vs vnto thee, and so shall we be turned, renue our dayes as in olde tymes:

22 But thou hast banished vs vtterly, and hast ben displeased at vs.

they foure had one fashion, and their fashion & their worke [was] as though it were a wheele in ỹ middle of a wheele.

17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sides: they returned not backe when they went.

(b) The vtter compasse of the wheeles, which the sone call Crakes.

18 They had (b) ringes, and heyght, and were feareful to beholde: & their ringes were full of eyes rounde about them foure.

19 When the beastes went, the wheeles went also by them: and when the beastes were lift vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyft vp.

20 Whyther soeuer the spirite [was] to go, they went, and thyther [was] the spirite to go, and the wheeles were lyft vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes were in the wheeles.

D 21 When the beastes went, they went, & when they stoode, they stoode, and when they were lifted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lifted vp before thē, for ỹ spirite of ỹ beastes was in the wheeles.

22 And the similitude of the firmament vpon the heades of the beastes, was like the colour of christall wonderfull, spread ouer their heades aboue.

(c) He noteth two maner of couerynges, the one with wynges, stretched vpwarde to couer their faces, and the other with the nether wynges to couer their bodyes.

23 And vnder the firmament their wynges were stretcht foorth one towardes another, euery one had two couering them, and (d) euery one had two couering them, [euen] their bodyes.

24 And when they went, I hearde the noyse of their wynges, lyke the noyse of great waters, as it had ben the voyce of the almightie, the voyce of speache, as the noyse of an hoast: when they stoode, they let downe their wynges.

25 And there was a noyse from aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades: when they stoode, they let downe their wynges.

26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was the fashion of a throne lyke a Saphir stone: and vpon the similitude of the throne by appearaunce, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it.

28 As the likenesse of a bowe that is in a cloude in a raynie day, so was the appearaunce of the brightnesse rounde about: this was the appearaunce of the similitude of the glory of God, & when I sawe it, I (*) fell vpon my face and heardkened vnto the voyce of one (b) that spake.

¶ The. ij. Chapter.

The prophete is sent to call the people from their errour.

A 1 AND then said he vnto me, Stande vp vpon thy fete (O thou sonne of man) and I wyll talke with thee.

2 And the spirite entred into me when he had spoken vnto me, & set me vpon my feete, so that I heard him that spake vnto me.

3 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, I sende thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious people which haue rebelled against me, both they and their forefathers haue wickedly behaued them selues against me, euen vnto this very day.

"Or, impudent. 4 For they are children of a "harde face and stiffe heart, I do sende thee vnto them, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God.

5 And whether they wyll heare or refuse (for they are a rebellious house) yet they may knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

6 And thou sonne of man feare them not, neither be afraide of their wordes, for "byers and thornes are with thee, and thou dwellest among scorpions: feare not their wordes, nor be abashed at their lookes, for they are a rebellious house.

"Or, rebelles.

7 And thou shalt speake my wordes vnto them, whether they wyll heare or refuse, for they are rebellious. 25

8 Therefore thou sonne of man, obay thou all thinges that I say vnto thee, and be not thou rebellious lyke the rebellious house: open thy mouth, and (a) eate that I geue thee.

(a) That is, print in thy memorie, or receaue in thine heart all my sayings, as Ezec. iii. b.

9 And when I looked, beholde a hand was sent vnto me, and lo, in it was a roule of a booke.

11 And he opened it before me, and it was written within and without, and there was written therein, (b) lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

(b) That is Gods iudgements against the wicked.

The. iii. Chapter.

The prophete beyng fed with the worde of God, and with the constant boldnesse of the spirite, is sent vnto the people that were in captiuitie. 17 The office of true preachers.

A 1 After this said he vnto me: Thou sonne of man, eate whatsoeuer thou findest, eate this roule, and go thy way and speake vnto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he fed me with this roule.

3 And he saide vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thy belly shall eate, and thy bowels shalt thou fill with this roule that I geue thee: Then dyd I eate, and it was in my mouth *sweeter then honie.

Psal.xix.b. cxix.

4 And he saide vnto me, Thou sonne of man, go, get thee vnto the house of Israel, and declare my wordes vnto them.

[a] Straunge speache.

5 For not to a people of [a] profounde lippes and harde language art thou sent, but vnto the house of Israel:

6 Not to many nations whiche haue profounde lippes and harde languages, whose wordes thou vnderstandest not: otherwise if I had sent thee vnto them, they would haue hearkened vnto thee.

B 7 But the house of Israel will not hearken vnto thee, for they will not hearken vnto me: for all the house of Israel haue stiffe foreheades, & stubborne heartes.

8 Beholde therefore, I haue made thy face strong against their faces, & thy forehead strong against their foreheades.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flint stone haue I made thy forehead: thou shalt not feare them, nor be abashed at their lookes: for they are a rebellious house.

10 He sayde moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, all my wordes that I shall speake vnto thee, receaue in thyne heart, and hearken with thyne eares.

11 And go, get thee to the captiuitie, to the children of thy people, and thou shalt speake vnto them, and shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, whether they will heare, or leaue.

12 Then that the spirite tooke me vp, and I hearde behinde me a voyce of a great rushing [to wit] Blessed be the glory of Iehouah from his place.

13 [I heard] also the noyse of the winges of the beastes toyning one with another, and the rating of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noyse of great rushing.

14 Nowe when the spirite lift me vp and tooke me away, I went in bitternesse and furie of my spirite: but the hande of the Lorde vpon me was strong. C

15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I sate where they sate, and I remayned there seuen dayes, astonished among them.

16 And when the seuen dayes were expired, the Lorde saide vnto me, 17 Thou sonne of man, I haue made thee a *watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the worde at my mouth, and geue them warning from me.

Ezech.g.b.

18 When I shall say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely dye, and thou geuest not him warning, nor speakest to admonishe the wicked of his euill way, and so to liue: then shal the same vngodly man dye in his owne vnrighteousnesse, but his blood wyl I require of thyne hand.

19 Neuertheless, if thou geue warning vnto the wicked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlynesse and from his wicked way: he shall dye in his owne wickednesse, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

20 Nowe if a righteous man go from his righteousnesse and do the thing that is euyll I wyll lay a stumbling blocke before him: and he shall dye, because thou hast not geuen him warning, dye shalt he in his owne sinne, so that his righteousnesse whiche he hath done, shall not be thought vpon: but his blood will I require at thyne hande. D

21 Neuertheless, if thou exhortest that righteous that he sinne not, and so the righteous do not sinne: then shall he liue, because he hath receaued thy warning, and thou hast deliuered thy soule.

22 And there came the hand of the Lord vpon me, and he sayd vnto me: Stande vp, and go into the fielde, that I may there talke with thee.

23 So when I had risen vp, and gone forth into the fielde: beholde, the *glorie of the Lord stoode there, like the glorie which I sawe by the riuer Chebar: then fell I downe vpon my face.

(a) Mi entring the vision of the Cherubins and the wheeles.

24 And the spirite came into me, whiche set me vp vpon my feete, and spake vnto me, and said vnto me: Go thy way, and shut thy selfe in thyne house.

25 Beholde O thou sonne of man, they haue prepared bandes against thee, and they wyll binde thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them.

26 And I will make thy tongue (b) cleaue to the roofe of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumbe, and not be as a reprouer vnto them: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speake vnto thee, I wyl open my mouth, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God: Whoso heareth, let hym heare, whoso leaueth of, let him leaue: for they are a rebellious house.

(b) It is a great plague of God toward the people, when he suffereth the ministers to cease preaching & rebuking of sinne.

¶ The. iiij. Chapter.

1 The siege of the citie of Hierusalem is signified. 9 The long continuance of the captiuitie of Israel. 16 Hunger is prophesied to come in the captiuitie.

1 Thou sonne of man, take thee a tyle stone and lay it before thee, and purtray vpon it the citie Hierusalem,

2 And lay siege against it, and builde a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the campe also against it, and lay ensigns of warre against it rounde about.

3 Moreouer, take an iron panne, and set it betwixt thee and the citie in steede of an iron wall, then set thy face towarde it to besiege it, and make an assault against it: this shalbe a token vnto the house of Israel.

4 But thou shalt sleepe vpon thy left side, and lay the sinne (a) of the house of Israel vpon it (according) to the number of the dayes that thou shalt sleepe vpon it, thou shalt beare their iniquitie.

5 For I haue layde vpon thee the yeres of their iniquitie according to the number of the dayes (euen) three hundred and ninetie " dayes, so shalt thou beare the iniquitie of the house of Israel.

6 When thou hast fulfilled these dayes, lye downe agayne and sleepe vpon thy (b) right side, and beare the sinnes of the house of Juda: fourtie dayes haue I appointed thee, (c) a day for a yere (euen) a day for a yere.

7 Therfore set nowe thy face towarde the siege of Hierusalem, and discouer thine arme, that thou mayest prophecie against it.

8 Beholde, I will lay chaines vpon thee, that thou shalt not turne thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the dayes of thy besieging.

9 Wherfore take vnto thee wheate, barlye, beanes, lintils, millet, and fetches, and put these together in a vessell, and make thee loaues of bread thereof, according to the number of the dayes that thou must lye vpon thy side, that thou mayest haue bread to eate for three hundred and ninetie dayes.

10 And thy meate that thou eatest shall haue a certaine wayght appointed, (namely) twentie sicles euery day: & from time to time shalt thou eate therof.

11 Thou shalt drinke also a certaine measure of water (namely) the sixt (part) of an *hin from tyme to tyme shalt thou drinke. Exo. xxix. f

12 Barly cakes shalt thou eate, and them shalt thou bake in (d) mans doung before their eyes.

13 And with that sayde the Lord, Euen thus shall the children of Israel eate their defiled bread among the gentiles whyther I wyll cast them.

14 Then sayde I, Oh Lorde God: beholde, my soule was yet neuer stayned, for fro my youth vp vnto this houre, I did neuer eate of a dead carkase, or of that whiche was slayne of wylde beastes, neither came there euer any vncleane flesshe in my mouth. C

15 Whervnto he aunswered me: Lo, I wyll graunt thee (e) cowtasins in steede of mans doung, and thou shalt make thy bread with them.

16 And he saide vnto me, Beholde thou sonne of man, I wyll breake the (f) staffe of bread in Hierusalem, and they shall eate their bread with waight and with care, and their water in measure and astonishment shall they drinke, 17 That they may cause a lacke of bread and water, and be astonied one at another, and be consumed in their iniquitie.

(a) Whereby he represented the three score & tenne yeres of the captiuitie of Israel, for Ezechiel was on his left hande from Babylon and howe they had remayned therein three hundred and nineteene yeres.

* Vnderstande, shall they be.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The signe of the heeres, by which is signified the destruction of the people. 6 The causes of the anger of God towarde the people.

A I Thou sonne of man, take thee then a sharpe knife namely a barbers rasour; take that to thee, and cause it to (a) passe vpon thy head and vpon thy beard: then take thee waight scales and deuide (the heere.)

(a) To shaue thy head and beard.

2 Thou shalt burne with fire the thirde part in the middest of the (b) citie when the dayes of the siege are fulfylled, and thou shalt take the other thirde part and smite about it with a knife, and the last thirde part thou shalt scatter in the wynde, and I wyll drawe out a swoorde after them.

(b) To wit, of that citie which he had portrayed vpon the tayche, chap 4. By the fire, he meaneth famine & pestilence, wherewith one part perished during the siege of Nabuchodonozor. by the swoorde, those that were slayne when Iehoiachin fled, those that were caryed awaye captiue. and by the scattering into the wind, those that fled into Egypt, and into other partes after the citie was

3 Thou shalt also take therof a fewe in number, and bynde them in thy lappe.

4 Of them yet shalt thou take, and cast them into the middest of the fire, & burne them in the fire: therof shall a fire come foorth into all the house of Israel.

5 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde God: This same is Hierusalem, which I set in the middest of nations, and countreis rounde about her.

6 But she hath chaunged my iudgementes into wickednesse more then the nations, and my statutes more then the countreis that are rounde about her: for they haue refused my iudgementes and my statutes, and not walked in them.

B 7 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God: For your (c) multiplying more then the gentiles that dwell rounde about you, and because ye haue not walked in my lawes, neither haue ye kept my ordinaunces, no ye haue not done accordyng to the iudgementes of the nations that are rounde about you:

(c) Because ye haue encreased the number of your idols and superstitions more then the gentiles. Ezec.05.b.

8 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I will also come agaynst thee, I my selfe I say: for in the middest of thee wyll I execute iudgement in the sight of the heathen.

9 And I wyll handle thee of such a fashion as I neuer did before, & as I will neuer do from that tyme foorth, and that because of all thine abhominations.

10 For in thee the fathers shalbe fayne to eate their owne sonnes, and the sonnes their owne fathers, I wyll execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnaunt of thee wyll I scatter into all the wyndes. Leuit 26.e. Deut.28.g. 2.Reg.6.c. Lamen.4.b. Baruch.2.a.

11 Wherfore, as truely as I lyue saith the Lorde God, seyng thou hast defiled my sanctuarie with all maner of abhominations, and with all shamefull offences:

12 For this cause will I also destroy thee, mine eye shall not spare thee, neither wyll I haue any pitie.

13 *One thirde part within thee shall dye of the pestilence and be consumed of hunger, another thirde part shalbe slayne downe rounde about thee with the swoorde, the other thirde part that remaineth, wyll I scatter abroode towarde all the wyndes, and drawe out a swoorde after them. * Iere.xv.b.

14 Thus wyll I perfourme mine indignation, & make my wrath to settle vpon them, and I will be (d) comforted: so that when I haue fulfylled myne anger agaynst them, they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, which with a feruent gelousie haue spoken it. (d) That is, I wyll not be pacified vntil I be reuenged. Eiai.1.c.

15 Moreouer, I wyll make thee waste and reuiled among all the heathen that dwell about thee, in the sight of all them that go by thee.

16 So thou shalt be a reproche and shame, a chastisement and a wondryng vnto the nations that are rounde about thee, when I shall execute iudgementes in thee, in anger & in wrath, and in sharpe rebukes, I the Lorde haue spoken it:

17 when I shoote among them the perilous (e) dartes of hunger, which shalbe for their destruction, yea therfore shall I shoote them because I wyll destroy you, I wyll encrease hunger vpon you, and * wyll breake your staffe of bread. (e) Which be the grashoppers, mildewe, and whatsoeuer were occasions of famine. Ezech.xiii.e.

18 Plagues wyll I sende vpon you, yea and wicked beastes also to spoyle thee, pestilence and bloodshedding shal come vpon thee, and the swoorde wyll I bring ouer thee: I the Lorde haue spoken it.

The.vj.Chapter.

1 He sheweth that the people shalbe plagued for the sinne of idolatrie. 8 He prophecieth the repentaunce of the remnaunt of the people, and their deliueraunce. 11 The destruction of the frowarde is prophecied.

A 1 AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man set thy face to the * mountaynes of Israel, that thou mayest prophecie Ezech.30.a.

against them,

3 And say, heare the worde of the Lord God: O ye mountaynes of Israel Thus hath the Lord God spoken to the (a) mountaynes, hylles, riuers, & dales, Beholde I [euen I] will bring a sworde vpon you, and destroy your hye places.

(a) He speaketh to all the places where the Israelites accustomed to commit their idolatries, threatning them destruction.

4 Your aulters shalbe destroyed, & your images of the * sunne broken downe, your slayne men will I cast downe before your idols.

4.Reg.23.b.

5 And the dead carkases of the children of Israel will I cast before their idols, your bones will I scatter rounde about * your aulters.

4.Reg.23.c.

6 In all your dwelling places your cities shalbe desolate, and the hye places laide waste, so that your aulters shalbe made waste and desolate, your idols shalbe broken and abolished, and your images of the sunne shalbe cut downe, and your workes quite taken away.

7 Your slayne men shall fall among you: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lord.

8 Yet will I leaue a remnaunt, that you may haue [some] that shall escape the sworde among the nations, when as ye shalbe scattered through the countreis.

9 And they that escape of you shal thinke vpon me among the heathen where they shalbe in captiuitie, because I haue ben broken with their whorishe heart which hath departed from me, & with their eyes that haue gone a whoryng after their idols: and they shalbe abhorred before their owne eyes for the euils which they haue committed in all their abhominations.

10 And they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, and that I haue not sayde in vayne, that I woulde do this euill vnto them.

11 Thus saith the Lorde God, (b) Smite thine handes together, and stampe with thy feete, and say, Wo worth all the abhominations and wickednesses of the house of Israel: for they shall fall with the sworde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

(b) He teacheth the prophets not only with wordes, but also with gestures of handes & feete, to signifie the destruction to come.

12 Who so is farre of shall dye of the pestilence, he that is nye at hande shall perishe with the sworde, and the other that are besieged shall dye of hunger: Thus will I satisfie my wrathfull displeasure vpon them.

13 And so shall ye knowe that I am the Lorde, When their slayne men shalbe among their idols rounde about their aulters, vpon euery hye hyll, and toppes of mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree, and vnder euery thicke oke, [euen] in the places where they dyd offer sweete sauour to all their idols.

14 I will stretche mine hande out vpon them, and will make the lande waste, and desolate (c) from the wildernesse vnto Deblathah through all their habitations: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

(c) Some read, more desolate then the wilderneſſe of Deblathah, which was in Syria, and bordered vpon Israel: but it may [illegible] forth from the wilderneſſe, which was south vnto Deblathah; which seemeth meaning the whole countrey.

The .vij. Chapter.

1 The ende of all the lande of Israel shall sodaynely come. 10 The cause of the destruction therof. 23 The prophete is commaunded to shewe the summe of the euyls that are at hande.

A 1 THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 And thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lorde God, an ende is come vnto the lande of Israel: yea verily the ende commeth vpon the foure corners of the lande.

3 Nowe shall the ende come vpon thee: for I will sende my wrath vpon thee, and will punishe thee accordyng to thy wayes, and rewarde thee after all thine abhominations.

4 Mine

4 Mine eye shall not spare thee, neither wyll I haue pitie, but rewarde thee accordyng to thy wayes, & declare thine abhominations: then shall ye knowe that I am the Lorde.

5 Thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, one euyll shall come after another:

6 . The ende is here, the ende (I say) is come, it watched for thee: beholde it is come alredy.

B 7 The (a) morning is come vnto thee that dwellest in the lande, the tyme is at hande, the day of trouble is harde by, and not the (b) sounding agayne of the mountaynes.

(a) That is, the beginning of the punishment.

(b) That is, no leyne or counterfayte crye, as is the vse in the hyllen.

8 Nowe I wyll shortly poure out my sore displeasure ouer thee, and fulfyll my wrath vpon thee: I wyll iudge thee after thy wayes, and recompence thee all thine abhominations.

9 Mine eye shall not spare, neither wyll I haue pitie, but rewarde thee after thy wayes, & thine abhominations shalbe in the middest of thee: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde that smiteth.

10 Beholde the day, beholde it is come, the morning is gone foorth, the rodde (c) flourisheth, pride hath budded.

(c) Meaning Nabuchodonosor, whom God hab appointed to be a rod to scourge them.

11 Crueltie is waxen to a rodde of wickednesse, none of them shall remayne, none of their riches, "not one of their seede, & no lamentation shalbe made for them.

" Or, none of their pleasures.

12 The tyme commeth, the day draweth nye: Who so byeth let hym not reioyce, he that selleth let hym not be sory: for wyl wrath is vpon all the multitude therof.

13 So that the seller shal not come againe to the thyng that he solde, although their life be (d) yet with the lyuyng: for when the prophecie was preached vnto all the people, none returned, no man shal (e) strengthen hym selfe in the iniquitie of his life.

(d) That is, in the yere of Iubile, when euery man returned to suche possessions as he solde before. Leuit. 25. b.

(e) Iniquitie shall make no man strong agaynst God.

14 (f) They haue blowen the trumpet, and made all redy, but none goeth to the battayle: for my wrath is vpon the whole multitude.

(f) The Israelites made a bragge, but their heartes fayled them.

C 15 The sworde shalbe without, pestilence and hunger within: so that who so is in the fielde shalbe slayne with the sworde, and he that is in the citie shalbe deuoured with hunger and pestilence.

16 But they that flee away from them shall escape, and shalbe in the mountaynes lyke the doues of the valleys, all they shall mourne, euery one for his iniquitie.

Prou. xi. a. Eccle. v. b.

(g) Their golde & siluer brought them to the vnrighteous possession.

20 He had also set the beautie of his (h) ornament in maiestie: but they made images of their abhominations and filthinesses in it, therfore haue I set it farre from them.

(h) Meaning the sanctuarie.

D 21 Moreouer, I wyll geue it into the handes of straungers to be spoyled, & to the wicked of the earth for to be robbed, and they shall pollute it.

22 My face wyll I turne from them, my secrete place shalbe defiled: for burglers shall go into it and pollute it.

23 Make a chayne: for the lande is full of the (i) iudgement of blood, and the citie is full of extortion.

(i) That is, of sinnes that deserue death.

24 Wherfore I wyll bryng the most wicked of the heathen to take their houses in possession, I wyll make the pompe of the mightie to ceasse, and their (k) sanctuaries shalbe defyled.

(k) That is, their temple which was deuided into three partes. Iere. 52. f.

25 When destruction is come, they shall seeke peace, but they shall haue none.

26 One mischefe shall followe another, and one rumour shall come after another: then shall they seeke a vision in vayne at their prophete, the lawe shall perishe from the priest, and counsayle from the auncientes.

27 The kyng shall mourne, the prince shalbe clothed with desolation, and the handes of the people in the lande shalbe troubled: I wyll do vnto them after their owne wayes, according to their owne iudgementes wyll I iudge them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

The prophecie

The.viii.Chapter.

2 In appearaunce of the similitude of God. 3 Ezechiel is brought to Hierusalem in the spirite. 6 The Lorde sheweth the idolatries of the house of Israel, 3 chiefly of the priestes.

1 AND it was in the (a) first yere, in the fift [moneth] in the fift [day] of the moneth, I sate in my house, and the elders of Juda sate before me, and the hande of the Lorde God fell there vpon me.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Jeconiah, so that here is now fourteene moneths betwixt the first vision & this.

2 Then I behelde, and lo, there was a likenesse as the appearaunce of fire: from the appearaunce of his loynes downeward, fire: and from his loynes vpward as the appearaunce of brightnesse, lyke the colour of amber.

3 And he stretched out the likenesse of an hande, and toke me by an heery locke of my head, and the spirite lift me vp betwixt earth and heauen, and (b) brought me in a diuine vision to Hierusalem, into the entry of the inner (c) gate that lyeth towarde the north, where remayned the image of (d) emulation and of gayne.

(b) This was in the spirite & not in body.

(c) The porch or court where the people assembled

(d) Of emulation because it displeased God of gaine, because it was set vp a wrong thyng for gayne and the encrease of their offerynges for the priestes. and of their catell and substaunce for the people.

4 And beholde, the glorie of the Lorde God of Israel was in the same place, [euen] as I had seene it afore in the fielde.

5 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, lift vp thine eyes nowe towarde the north: then lift I vp mine eyes towarde the north, and beholde northwarde, at the gate of the (e) aulter this image of emulation was in the entry.

(e) That was in the court where the people had made an aulter to Baal.

6 And he sayde furthermore vnto me, Thou sonne of man, seest thou what these do: seest thou the great abhominations that the house of Israel commit in this place, to driue me from my sanctuarie: but turne thee about, and thou shalt see yet greater abhominations.

7 And with that brought he me to the court gate, and when I loked, beholde there was a hole in the wall.

8 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, digge nowe in the wall: and when I digged in the wall, beholde there was a doore.

9 And he sayde vnto me, Go thy way in, and loke what wicked abhominations they do here.

10 So I went in and sawe, and beholde there were al maner of creeping beastes, and (f) abhominable beastes, and all the idols of the house of Israel paynted vpon the wall rounde about.

(f) Which were forbidden in the lawe. Leuit. xi.

11 There stoode also before the images threescore and ten men of the auncientes of the house of Israel, and in the middest of thē stoode Jaazaniah the sonne of Shaphan, with euery man his censor in his hande, and the smoke of the incense ascended as a cloude.

12 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, hast thou seene what the auncientes of the house of Israel do secretly, euery one in the (g) chaumber of his imagerie: for they say, The Lorde seeth vs not, the Lorde hath forsaken the earth.

(g) For beside their common idolatrie, they had their particuler seruice in their secrete places of pleasure.

13 And he sayde vnto me, Turne thee yet agayne, and thou shalt see greater abhominations that they do.

14 And with that he brought me to the doore of the gate of the Lordes house towarde the north, and beholde there sate wome̅ mourning for (h) Thammuz.

(h) The Iewes say this was a prophete of the idole who after his death was once a yere mourned for in the night. only of wo̅men. Saint Hierome telleth it for Adonis Venus louer. Other thinke it was Osyris an idoll of the Egyptians.

15 Then sayd he vnto me, Hast thou seene this thou sonne of man: turne thee yet about, and thou shalt see greater abhominations then these are.

16 And so he brought me into the inward court of the Lordes house, and beholde at the doore of the Lordes house, betwixt the porche and the aulter, there were about twentie and fiue men that turned their backes vpon the temple of the Lorde, and their faces towarde the east, and these worshipped the sunne eastwarde.

17 And he sayde vnto me, Hast thou seene this thou sonne of man: Thinketh the house of Juda that it is but a trifle to do these abhominations which they do here: for they haue filled the lande full of wickednesse, and haue returned to prouoke me to anger, and lo (i) they are puttyng the braunches to their noses.

(i) They smelled to their braunches, flowers, or posies, in doyng their sacrifice to the sunne which yet before gaue swete and stinckyng, howe sweete soeuer they seemed to them selues. Prou.i.d.

18 Therfore wyll I also do somethyng in my wrathful displeasure, so that mine eye shall not spare them, neither wyll I haue pitie: yea and though they crye in mine eares with a loude voyce, yet wyll I not heare them.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 The destruction of the citie. 4 They that shalbe saued are marked. 8 A complaynt of the prophete for the destruction of the people.

A 1

(a) The persons appoynted to smite the citie, as Nabuchodonosor and his captaynes.

E cryed also with a loude voyce in myne eares, saying: Haue neare ye (a) visitations of the citie, euery man with a destroying Weapon in his hande.

(b) which were like angels in lykenesse of men.

2 And beholde, then came there (b) sixe men out of the streete of the vpper gate towarde the north, and euery man a slaughter weapon in his hande: There was one amongest them that had on hym lynnen rayment, and a Writers (c) inckhorne by his syde: these went in and stoode beside the brasen aulter.

(c) To marke them that shoulde be saued from destruction.

3 And the glorie of the Lorde of Israel was gone from the Cherub wherupon it was, to the doore of the house: and he called to the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and the Writers inckhorne by his syde,

4 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Go through the citie, euen through Hierusalem, & set a marke vpon the foreheades of them that mourne, and are sory for all the abhominations that be done therin.

5 And to the other he sayd, that I might here, Go ye after hym through the citie, and smite, let your eye spare none, neither haue ye any pitie:

6 Kyll and destroy both olde men and young, maydens, children, and Women:

but as for all those that haue the marke vpon them, see that ye touche them not, and begyn at my sanctuarie. Then they began at the auncient men Which were before the house.

7 And he sayde vnto them, Defyle ye the temple, fyll the courtes with the slayne, then go your way forth. So they went out, and slue downe through the citie. 25

8 Nowe When they had done the slaughter, and I yet escaped, I fell downe vpon my face, and cryed, saying: Ah Lorde God, Wylt thou then destroy all the residue of Israel, in powryng out thy Wrath vpon Hierusalem?

9 Then sayde he vnto me, The wickednesse of the house of Israel and Juda is exceedyng great: so that the lande is full of *blood, & the citie full of reuoltyng [from God] for they say, The Lorde hath forsaken the earth, and the Lorde seeth it not. *Esai.1.c.

10 As touchyng me also, mine eye shall not spare them, neither Wyll I haue pitie: but Wyll recompence their Wayes vpon their heades.

11 And beholde, the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym and the Writers inckhorne by his syde, reported the matter, and sayde: As thou hast commaunded me, so haue I done.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

2 Of the man that tooke hotte burnyng coales out of the middle of the wheeles of the Cherubims. 8 A rehearsall of the vision of the wheeles, of the beastes, and of the Cherubims.

A 1 Ezech.1.d.
(a) Which in the first chap. and fift vearse he called the fours beastes.

ND as I loked, beholde in the * firmament that was aboue the head of the (a) Cherubims, as it were a Saphir stone [made] lyke the similitude of a throne, was seene ouer them.

2 Then spake he to hym that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and sayde: Crepe in betwene the Wheeles that are vnder the Cherub, and take thine hand full of hotte coales out from betwene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer the citie. And he crept in, that I myght see.

3 (Nowe the Cherubims stoode vpon the ryght syde of the house When the man Went in, and the cloude fylled the inner court.

4 And the glorie of the Lorde remoued from the Cherubims, and came vpon the doore of the house: so that the temple Was full of cloudes, and the court was full of the shine of the Lordes glorie.

5 Yea and the sounde of the Cherubims Wynges Was heard into the fore court, lyke as it had ben the voyce of the almyghtie almightie God when he speaketh.)

6 Nowe when he had bidden the man that was clothed in lynnen, saying, Take fire from the middest of the wheeles which were vnder the Cherubims: he went, and stoode beside the wheeles.

B 7 Then one Cherub reached foorth his hande from betweene the Cherubims vnto the fire that was betweene the Cherubims, and toke therof, and gaue it into the handes of hym that had on the lynnen rayment: which toke it, and went out.

8 And vnder the wynges of the Cherubims there appeared the likenesse of a mans hande.

9 I loked also, and behold foure wheeles beside the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another by another Cherub, and the wheeles were to loke vpon after the fashion of the precious stone *Tharsis.

*Or, i.e.

10 As touchyng their appearaunce (they were all foure of one fashion) as yf one wheele had ben in another.

11 When they went foorth, they went vpon their foure sides, not turnyng backe in their goyng: for which way the (head) of the first loked, after it they went, so that they turned not backe in their goyng.

12 And their whole bodyes, their backes, their handes, and wynges, yea and the wheeles also were full of eyes rounde about the foure wheeles.

13 And to the wheeles, he cryed to them in my hearyng, O wheele,

C 14 Euery one of them had foure faces, so that the face of the first was the face of a Cherub, and the face of the seconde the face of a man, and of the thirde the face of a lion, and of the fourth the face of an egle.

15 And the Cherubims were lyfted vp: *This is the beast that I sawe at the water of Chebar. Ezech. 1.

16 Nowe when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges to mount vp from the earth, the same wheeles also turned not from besides them.

17 Shortly when they stoode, these stoode also, and when they were lifted vp, the wheeles lift vp them selues also with them: for the (b) spirite of the beast was in the wheeles.

(b) There was one commyt betweene the Cherubims and the wheeles.

18 Then the glorie of the Lorde departed from aboue the doore of the temple, and remayned vpon the Cherubims.

D

19 And the Cherubims flackered with their wynges, and lyft them selues vp from the earth, so that I sawe when they went, & the wheeles besides them, and they stoode at the doore of the east gate of the house of the Lorde, so the glorie of the God of Israel was vpon them on hye.

(c) That is, the whole body of the foure beastes of Cherubims.

20 This is the (c) beast that I sawe vnder the God of Israel by the riuer of Chebar, and I perceaued that it was the Cherubims.

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure wynges, and vnder their wynges the likenesse of mens handes.

22 Touchyng the similitude of their countenaunces, they were the very same countenaunces which I sawe at the riuer Chebar, and the selfe same appearaunces: euery one in his goyng went strayght forwarde.

The.xj. Chapter.

1 Who they were that seduced the people of Israel. 5 Agaynst these he prophecieth, shewyng them howe they shalbe dispersed abrode. 19 The renuyng of the heart commeth of God. 21 He threatneth them that leane vnto their owne counsayles.

A 1 MOreouer, the spirite lift me vp, and brought me vnto the east gate of the Lordes house, which lyeth eastwarde: and beholde, at the entry of the gate were fiue and twentie men, among whom I sawe Jaazaniah the sonne of Azur, and Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiahu, the rulers of the people.

2 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these men imagine mischiefe, & a wicked counsayle take they in this citie,

3 Saying, *It is not neare, let vs builde houses: this [Hierusalem] is the (a) caudron, and we be the flesshe.

4 Therfore shalt thou prophecie against them,

1. Pet. 4. 8.

(a) We shall not be pulled out of Hierusalem tyll the houre of our death come, all the flesshe is not taken out of the caudron tyll it be so.

them: yea prophecie O sonne of man.
5 And with that fell the spirite of the Lorde vpon me, and sayde vnto me, Speake, thus saith the Lorde: On this maner haue ye spoken (O ye house of Israel) and I knowe the imaginations of your heartes.
6 Many one haue ye murthered in this citie, and fylled the streetes full of the slayne:
B 7 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, The slayne men that ye haue layde on the grounde in the citie are the (b) flesshe, and this citie is the cauldron: but I wyll bryng you out of it, ye haue feared the swoorde, and I wyll bring a swoorde ouer you, saith the Lorde God.
8 And I wyll bryng you out of the middest therof, and deliuer you into the handes of straungers, and wyll execute iudgementes among you.
10 Ye shall fall by the swoorde, in the borders of (c) Israel wyll I iudge you, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.
11 This citie shall not be your cauldron, neither shall ye be the flesshe therin: but in the borders of Israel wyll I punishe you,
12 That ye may knowe that I am the Lorde, in whose commaundementes ye haue not walked, nor kept my lawes: but haue done after the customes of the heathen that dye rounde about you.
13 Nowe when I prophecied, (d) Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiahu dyed: then fell I downe vpon my face, and cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Ah Lorde God, wylt thou then vtterly destroy all the remnaunt in Israel?
14 And so the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me on this maner.
C 15 Thou sonne of man, thy brethren [euen] thy brethren, the men of thy kinrede, and all the house of Israel, wholly [are they] vnto whom the inhabitauntes of Hierusalem haue sayd: (e) Withdrawe ye farre from the Lorde, for the lande is geuen vs in possession.
16 Therfore tell them, thus saith the God: Although I sende them farre of among the gentiles, and scatter them among the nations, yet wyll I be to them as a litle (f) sanctuarie in the landes where they shall come.
17 Tell them also, thus saith the Lorde God, I wyll gather you agayne out of the nations, and bryng you from the countreis where ye be scattered, and I wyll geue you the lande of Israel agayne.
18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all their idols, and all their abhominations from thence.
19 *And I wyll geue them one heart, and I wyll put a newe spirite within their bowels: that stony heart wyll I take out of their body, and geue them a fleshlye heart, 20 That they may walke in my commaundementes, and kepe mine ordinaunces and do them, that they may be my people, and I their God.
21 But to the heart of their idols and their abhommations their heart goeth, their wayes wyll I bryng vpon their owne heades, saith the Lorde God.
22 After this did the Cherubims lift vp their wynges and the wheeles besides them, and the glorie of the God of Israel was vpon them on hye.
23 *So the glorie of the Lorde went vp from the middest of the citie, and stoode vpon the mount of the citie towarde the east.
24 And the spirite toke me vp, & brought me agayne to Chaldea to the captiuitie, in a vision by the spirite of God: then the vision that I had seene went vp from me.
25 So I spake vnto the (g) captiues all the woordes of the Lorde which he had shewed me.

(f) They shalbe yet a litle Church whom he wyll preserue, though they be dispersed and for a tyme afflicted.

Jere.31.d. Eze.36.d.

(g) Those that were lefte with wyues captiues with Jechonias.

(b) Contrary to their parte confidence he declareth in what sence this citie was the cauldron, that is, because of the dead bodies that haue ben murthered therin, and so lye as flesshe in the cauldron.

(c) That is, in Chaldea. 4. Reg. 24. a.

(d) It seemeth this noble man dyed of some terrible death, e therfore the prophete feared some straunge iudgement of God towarde the rest of the people.

(e) They that remained vyl at Hierusalem, thus reproched them that were gone into captiuitie, as though they were cast of e forsaken of God.

The .xij. Chapter.

The parable of the captiuitie. 10 The exposition of the parable, by which the taking of kyng Zedekiah is signified. 18 An other parable whereby the distresse of hunger and thurst is signified.

A 1 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
2 Thou sonne of man, thou dwellest in the middest of a rebellious house, which haue eyes to see and yet see not, eares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not: for they are a rebellious house.
3 Therfore (O thou sonne of man) "prepare thee instrumentes to flit with, & remoue on the day time that they may see, yea

"Or make thee vessels to go into captiuitie.

yea [euen] in their sight shalt thou go from thy place to another place, yf peradeuenture they wyll consider that they be a rebellious house.

4 Thou shalt bryng foorth thine instrumentes as stuffe to flit with by the daytyme in their sight, and thou thy selfe shalt go foorth also at euenyng before their eyes, as they that go foorth to flit.

5 Digge through the wall in their sight, and cary out therby.

6 In their sight shalt thou beare vpon thy shoulders, and cary it foorth in the darke: hide thy face, that thou see not the earth, for I haue made thee a (a) shewe token vnto the house of Israel.

(a) That as thou doest so shall they do. and therfore in thee they shal see their owne plague & punishment.

7 And I did so as I was commaunded, I brought foorth my stuffe by day as the stuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and in the euening I digged through the wall with my handes, and brought it foorth in the darke, and bare it vpon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying:

9 Thou sonne of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, sayd vnto thee, (b) what doest thou?

(b) Do not they derise and mocke thy doynges. * Or, prophecie.

10 Then tell them, thus saith the Lorde God, This * burden toucheth the prince at Hierusalem, and all the house of Israel that dwell among them.

11 Tell them, I am your shewe token, lyke as I haue done, so shall it be done vnto them, they shall go into bondage and captiuitie.

12 The prince that is among them shall loade his shoulders in the darke and get hym away, they shall breake downe the wall to cary through by it: he shall couer his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net will I (c) spreade out vpon him, and he shalbe caught in my * net, and I wyll bryng hym to Babylon in the lande of the Chaldees, which he shall not see, and yet shall he dye there.

(c) when the kyng shall thinke to escape by fleeing I wyll take hym in my net, as Ezech. 17.f. and 32.a. * Or, tooles.

14 As for all his helpers & all his bandes that be about hym, I wyll scatter them towarde all the wyndes, and drawe out a swoorde after them.

15 So when I haue scattered them among the heathen and strowed them in the landes, they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

Eze. xi.c. 16 But I will leaue a litle * number of the from the swoorde, hunger, and pestilence, to tell all their abhominations among the heathen where they come, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

17 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

18 Thou sonne of man, with a fearfull trembling shalt thou eate thy bread, with vnquietnesse & sorowe shalt thou drynke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the lande speake thou: Thus saith the Lord God to them that dwell in Hierusalem, and to the lande of Israel: they shall eate their bread with sorowe, and drynke their water with desolation: yea the lande with the fulnesse therof shalbe layde waste for the wickednesse of all them that dwell therin.

20 And the cities that nowe be well inhabited, shalbe voyde, & the lande desolate, that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

21 Yet came the worde of the Lorde vnto me agayne, saying:

22 Thou sonne of man, What maner of prouerbe is that which ye vse in the lande of Israel, saying: (d) The dayes are slacke in cõming, & all visions fayle?

(d) Wherein they dyd not see the prophecies accomplished, they contemned them all though they ought shoulde be fulfylled.

23 Tell them therfore, thus saith the Lord God, I wyll make that prouerbe to ceasse, and they shall no more vse it as a prouerbe in Israel: but say vnto them, the dayes are at hande, and the effect of euery vision.

24 There shall no vision be any more in vayne, neither any flattering diuination within the house of Israel:

25 For I the Lorde speake it, and whatsoeuer I shall speake, it shalbe performed, and not be slacke in comming any more, yea euen in your dayes O rebellious house, wyll I speake the thyng & bryng it to passe, saith the Lorde God.

26 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

27 Beholde thou sonne of man, the house of Israel saith [on this maner] The vision that he seeth, it wyll be many a day or it come to passe: * it is farre of yet the tyme that he prophecieth of.

Ezech xii.a. i.Pet.i.a.

28 Therfore say thus vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, All my wordes shall no more be delayed, loke what I speake, that same shall come to passe, saith the Lorde God.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde against false prophetes, whiche teache the people the counsels of their owne heartes.

A 1 The Worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying:
2 Thou sonne of man, prophecie against those prophetes of Israel whiche prophecie, and say vnto them that prophecie out of their owne "heartes, heare the Worde of the Lorde, Iere. xxiij. c.
3 Thus saith the Lord God, Wo be vnto those foolishe prophetes that folowe their owne spirit, & haue seene nothing.
4 O Israel, thy prophetes are lyke the foxes in (a) desert places.
(a) Watching to destroy the vineyardes. Cant. ii. c
5 For ye haue not stand vp in the gappes, nor made a hedge for the house of Israel, to stande in the battayle in the day of the Lorde.
6 They haue seene vanitie and lying diuination, saying: the Lorde saith it, and the Lorde hath not sent them, and they haue made me hope that they Woulde confirme the Worde.
7 Haue ye not seene vayne visions, and
B spoken false prophecies, When ye say, the Lorde hath spoken it, Whereas I neuer sayde it.
8 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Because ye haue spoken vanitie, and haue seene lies: therfore beholde I am against you, saith the Lorde God:
9 Mine handes shal come vpon the prophetes that see vanities, and deuine lies: they shall not be in the counsell of my people, nor Written in the booke of the house of Israel, neither shal they come in the lande of Israel, that ye may know howe that I am the Lord God:
10 And that for because they haue deceaued my people, "and told them of peace where no peace Was: one setteth vp a

(b) Wall, and they daube it With vntempered clay.
(b) What one false prophete did say (which is here called the building vp of a wall) another false prophete sought affirme the same, although he had further occasion nor ground, to bear them.
11 Therfore tell them Which daube With vntempred morter, that it shall fall: for there shal come a great showre of raine, I Will sende haylestones to cause it to fall, and a great storme of Winde shall breake it.
12 And lo, When the Wall is fallen, shall it not then be sayd vnto you, Where is nowe your morter that ye daubed it Withall?
13 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God: I Will cause a stormie Winde to breake out in my Wrathfull displeasure, so that in mine anger there shall come a mightie showre of raine, and haylestones in my Wrath to destroy it.
14 As for the Wall that ye haue daubed C With vntempered morter, I Will breake it downe, and make it euen With the grounde, so that the foundation therof shalbe discouered, and it shall fall: yea and ye your selues shall perishe in the middes therof, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.
15 Thus Will I performe my Wrath vpon this Wall, and vpon them that haue daubed it With (c) vntempred morter, and then Will I say vnto you, The Wall is gone, and the daubers of it.
(c) That is, Substantiall man of him selfe eareth foothy vnder the authoritie of Gods worde and God allowyth it not.
16 [To wit] the prophetes of Israel, Which prophecie vnto Hierusalem, and looke out visions of peace for it, Whereas no peace is, saith the Lorde God.
17 Wherefore O thou sonne of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, Which prophecie out of their owne heartes, and prophecie against them:
18 And say, thus saith the Lorde God: Wo be vnto them that sowe (b) pillowes vnder all armeholes, and put kerchiefes vpon the heades of euery (c) stature to hunt soules. Will ye hunt the soules of my people, and (d) geue life to the soules that [come] vnto you?
(b) Effeminate wemen for the time Would vse to sowe pillowes and tell euery man his fortune, geuing them pillowes to leane on and kerchefes to couer their heades, that they might the more lure them and bewitche them.
(c) Euery man and woman young and old: great and small.
19 And Will ye pollute me to my people for handfuls of barly, and for peeces of bread, to kyll the soules of them that dye not, and promise (e) life to them that liue not, in lying to my people that heareth your lyes?
(d) Giue you the lines of my people to be in your handes, to make them long or short.
(e) These forgerers made the people beleue that they could preserue life or destroy it, and that it should come to euery one according as their prophecie 20 Wherfore thus saith the Lorde God: Beholde, I Will vpon your pillowes WherWith ye hunt the soules, to (f) make them flee, and I Will teare them from your armes, and Will let the soules go, [euen] the soules that ye hunt to make them to flee.
(f) Alluring them vnto vs with deceiptable bayte, as the fowlers do the birdes With their bales & calles.
21 Your kerchiefes also Will I teare in peeces, and deliuer my people out of your handes, so that they shall come no more in your handes to be hunted: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

22 Seeing that with your lyes you discomfort the heart of the righteous, whō I haue not discomforted: Againe, forsomuche as ye encourage the hande of the Wicked, so that he may not turne from his wicked way in preuising hym life:
23 Therfore shall ye see no more vanitie, neither shall ye deuine diuinations, for I wyll deliuer my people out of your hande, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The. xiiij. Chapter.

2 The Lorde denieth his worde to the people for their sinnes sake. 9 The despisers of the worde doth the Lorde sometyme deceaue by false prophetes. 22 A comfort of them that fled vnto Babylon.

A 1 There resorted vnto me certayne of the elders of Israel, and sate downe by me.
2 Then came the word of the Lorde vnto me, saying:
3 Thou sonne of man, these men haue set vp their idols in their heartes, and put the stumbling blocke of iniquitie before their face: shoulde I then answere them at their request?
4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God: Euery man of the house of Israel that setteth vp his idols in his heart, & putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the prophete: vnto that man wyll I the Lord my selfe geue answere when he commeth, according to the (a) multitude of his idols.
5 That the house of Israel may be snared in their (b) owne heartes, because they be cleane gone from me all of them throughe their idols.
6 Wherefore tell the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God: Returne and (c) cause to returne from your idols, and turne your faces from all your abhominations.
B 7 For euery man, whether he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger that sojourneth in Israel, whiche departeth from me, and setteth vp his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his wickednesse before his face, and commeth to a prophete for to aske counsell at me through hym: vnto that man wyll I the Lorde geue answere by mine owne selfe.
8 I wyll set my face against that man, and wyll make hym to be an example for other, yea and a common byworde, and wyll roote hym out of my people, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.
9 And if that prophete be deceaued when he telleth a thing, then * I the Lorde my selfe haue deceaued that prophete, and wyll stretche out my hande vpon hym, to destroy hym out of my people of Israel: 1.King.22.
10 And they shalbe punished for their wickednesse, according to the sinne of hym that asketh, shall the sinne of the prophete be:
11 That the house of Israel be led no more from me through errour, and be no more defiled in all their transgressions: but that they may be my people, and I their God, saith the Lorde God.
12 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
13 Thou sonne of man, When the lande sinneth against me by committing a trespasse, I wyll stretche out my hande vpon it, and breake their * staffe of bread, and sende dearth vpon them, to destroy man and beast foorth of it. Ezech.xiiij.b. and.v.b.
14 And though * Noe, Daniel, and Job, these three men were among them: yet shal they in their righteousnesse deliuer but their owne soules, saith the Lorde God. Ier.xv.a.
15 If I bryng noysome beastes into the lande, and they spoyle it, and it be so desolate that no man may passe through it for beastes,
16 If these three men were also in the land: as truely as I liue saith the Lord God, they shall saue neither sonnes nor daughters, but be onlye deliuered themselues: & as for the land, it shalbe waste.
17 Or if I bryng a swoorde vpon this lande, and say, swoorde go through the lande, so that I slay downe man and beast in it, 18 And if these three men were therein: as truely as I liue saith the Lord God, they shall deliuer neither sonnes nor daughters, but only be saued themselues.

(a) That is, the abhomination hath deceaued, that is he shall be led with them according as he delited therein. 2 Thessa.2.b.
(b) That is, consume them by their owne consciences.
(c) Withdrawe by your example from God.

19 If I sende a pestilence into this lande, and powre out my sore indignation vpon it in blood, so that I roote out of it both man and beast,

20 And if Noe, Daniel, and Job were therein, as truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonne nor daughter, but saue their owne soules in their righteousnesse.

21 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde God, howe muche more when I sende my Ezech. v.c. *foure troublous plagues vpon Hierusalem, the sworde, hunger, perilous beastes, and pestilence, to destroy man and beast out of it?

22 Beholde, there shalbe a remnaunt saued therein, whiche shall bryng foorth their sonnes and daughters, beholde, they shall come foorth vnto you, and ye shall see their way and their enterprise, and ye shalbe comforted concerning the euyll that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem (euen) concerning all that I haue brought vpon it.

23 They shall comfort you when ye shal see their way and workes: and ye shall knowe howe that it is not without a cause that I haue done all against Hierusalem as I dyd, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

As the vnprofitable wood of the vine tree is cast into the fire, so saith he that Hierusalem shalbe brent.

A 1 THe worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, what commeth of the vine tree, more then of euery other tree, & of the wylde vine stocke among other trees of the forest?

3 Do men take wood of it to make any worke withall? or wyll men take a pin of it to hang any vessell theron?

4 Behold, it is cast in the fire to be brent, the fire consumeth both the endes of it, the middes of it is brent: is it meete then for any worke?

5 Seeing then that it was meete for no worke beyng whole, muche lesse may there any thing be made of it when the fire hath consumed and brent it.

6 And therefore thus saith the Lorde god, As the vine tree (that is) among the trees of the forest, which I haue geuen to the fire to be consumed: so wyll I geue the inhabitauntes of Hierusalem. 25

7 And I wyll set my face against them, they shall go out from the fire, and yet the (a) fire shall consume them: then shall ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I set my face against them,

8 And when I make the lande walke, because they haue so sore offended, saith the Lorde God.

(a) Though they escape one danger, yet another shall take them.

The. xvj. Chapter.

2 The prophete declareth the benefites of God towarde Hierusalem. 15 Hierusalem is reproued of vnkindnesse for her fornication with idols. 46 He inferieth the wickednesse of other people, in comparison of the sinnes of Hierusalem. 47 The cause of the abhominations into which the Sodomites fell. 60 Mercy is promised to the repentaunt.

A 1 AGayne the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

(a) Thou boastest to be of the seede of Abraham, but thou art begotten and borne of the abhominations of the wicked Chananites, as chyldren to the manners of their fathers. Ezech. 18. 5. 7. (b) When I first brought thee foorth of the lande of Egypt, and planted thee in this lande to be my Churche.

2 Thou sonne of man, shewe Hierusalē their abhominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lorde God vnto Hierusalem: thy habitation and kinred is of the lande of (a) Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother an Hittite.

4 In the day of thy byrth (b) when thou wast borne, the string of thy nauell was not cut of, thou wast not bathed in water to make thee cleane, thou wast not salted with salt, nor swadled in cloutes.

5 No eye pitied thee to do any of these thinges for thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee: but thou wast vtterly cast out vpon the fielde in contempt of thy person in the day of thy byrth.

6 Then came I by thee, and sawe thee defiled in thyne owne blood, and I said vnto thee when thou wast in thy blood, liue: (euen) When thou wast in thy blood, I sayde vnto thee, liue.

7 I caused thee to multiplie as the bud of the fielde, thou art growen vp, and waren greate, thou haſt gotten a marueylous pleaſaunt beautie, thy breſtes are faſhioned, thy heere is goodly growen, whereas thou waſt naked & bare.

B 8 Nowe when I went by thee and looked vpon thee, beholde, thy tyme was come, yea [euen] the time to woo thee: then ſpread I my clothes ouer thee to couer thy (c) diſhoneſtie, yea I made an othe vnto thee, and contracted my ſelfe with thee (ſaith the Lorde God) and ſo thou becameſt myne owne.

9 Then waſhed I thee with water, and purged thy blood from thee, and I annointed thee with oyle.

10 I clothed thee with broidred worke, and ſhod thee with badgers ſkin, and I gyrded thee about with fine linnen, and couered thee with ſilke.

11 I decked thee with coſtly apparell, I put braſelets vpon thy handes, a chayne about thy necke.

12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and eareringes vpon thyne eares, and a beautifull crowne vpon thyne head.

13 Thus waſt thou deckt with golde and ſiluer, and thy rayment was of fine linnen, and of ſilke, and of broidred worke: thou didſt eate fine floure, honye and oyle, marueylous beautifull waſt thou, and thou dydſt luckyly proſper into a kingdome.

14 And thy name was ſpread among the heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfite through thy beautie which I put vpon thee, ſaith the Lorde God.

C 15 But thou haſt put thy confidence in thyne owne beautie, and played the harlot becauſe of thy renowne, and haſt (d) powred out thy fornications with euery one that went by, thou waſt his.

16 Thou didſt take thy garmentes, and deckt thy hye places with (e) diuers colours, and played the harlot therupon, (f) they come not, and it ſhall not be.

17 The goodly iewels whiche I gaue thee of mine owne golde and ſiluer, haſt thou taken and made thee mens images therof, and committed whordome with them.

18 Thy broidred garmentes haſt thou taken, and deckt them therewith: myne oyle and incenſe haſt thou ſet before them.

19 My meate whiche I gaue thee, as fine floure, oyle and hony to feede the withall, that haſt thou ſet before them for a ſweete ſauour: and thus it was ſaith the Lorde God.

20 Thou haſt taken thyne owne ſonnes and daughters whom thou haſt begotten vnto me, and theſe haſt thou offred vp vnto them to be (g) deuoured: is this but a ſmall whordome of thyne?

21 And thou haſt ſlayne my children, and deliuered them, to cauſe them to paſſe [through the fire] for them.

22 And yet in all thyne abhominations and whordomes, thou haſt not remembred the dayes of thy youth, howe naked and bare thou waſt at that tyme, and waſt defiled in thyne owne blood.

23 After all theſe thy wickednelles, (wo wo vnto thee, ſaith the Lorde God.)

24 Thou haſt buylt vnto thee an hye place, and haſt made thee an hye place in euery ſtreete.

25 Thou haſt buylt thyne hye place at euery "head of the way, thou haſt made thy beautie to be abhorred, thou haſt opened thy feete to euery one that came by, and multiplied thy whordome.

26 Thou haſt committed fornication with the (h) Egyptians, thy neighbours whiche were great in fleſhe, and thus haſt thou increaſed thyne whordome to anger me.

27 Beholde, I did ſtretche out my hand ouer thee, and dyd minuſhe thy ſtore of foode, and deliuered thee ouer into the wylles of them that hate thee, [euen] the daughters of the Philiſtines, which are aſhamed of thyne abhominable wayes.

28 Thou haſt played the whore alſo with the Aſſyrians, becauſe thou waſt inſatiable: yea thou haſt [I ſay] with them played the harlot, and yet hadſt thou not inough.

29 Thus haſt thou furthermore multiplied thy fornication from the lande of Chanaan vnto the Chaldees, and yet thou waſt not ſatiſfied herewith.

30 Howe weake is thyne heart ſaith the Lorde God, ſeeing thou doeſt all theſe workes of a preſumptuous whoriſhe woman:

31 Buylding thy hye places at the head of euery way, and makeſt thy hye places in euery ſtreete: thou haſt not ben as another whore that holdeth ſcorne of a reward.

32 But

(c) Theſe words, bloud, pollution, nakednelle, and filthyneſſe &c. are oft tymes repeated, to braſe downe their pryde, and to cauſe them to conſider what they were before God receaued them to mercye, fauoured them, and couered their ſhame.

(d) There were none idolatrye ſo vyle wherein he that thou didſt not polute thy ſelfe.

(e) This declareth howe the idolatrous put their chiefeſt delite in thoſe thinges which pleaſe the eyes and outwarde ſenſes

(f) In ſuche ſort as the like hath not ben nor ſhalbe, ſo that they paſſed all nations in idolatrie.

(g) Meaning by fire, reade Leuit. xviii. & 2. King. xvii. b

" Corner of the ſtreete.

(h) He noteth the great impietie of this people, who firſt falling from God to ſeeke helpe of ſtraunge nations, did alſo at length embrace their idolatrie, thinking thereby to make their eſtate more ſure.

E 32 But as a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, and taketh other in steede of her husbande.
33 Giftes are geuen to all other whores: but thou geuest rewardes vnto all thy louers, & rewardest them to come vnto thee on euery side for thy fornication.
34 It is come to passe with thee in thy whoredomes contrary to the vse of other women, yea there hath no suche fornication ben committed after thee: seeing that thou geuest gyftes vnto other, and no rewarde is geuen thee, therfore thou art contrary.
35 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde, O thou harlot.
36 Thus saith the Lorde God, Because thou hast (l) powred out thy brasse, and discouered thy filthynes thorowe thy fornications with thy louers, and with all the idols of thyne abhominations, and in the blood of thy chyldren whom thou hast geuen them:
37 Beholde therefore, I wyll gather together all thy (k) louers with whom thou hast taken pleasure, yea and all them whom thou hast loued, and euery one that thou hatest: I wyll (I say) gather them together rounde about against thee, and wil discouer thy shame before them, that they may see all thy filthynesse.
38 Moreouer, (l) I wyll iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke and a murtherer, and recompence thee thyne owne blood in wrath and gelousie.
F 39 I wyll geue thee ouer into their handes, and they shal destroy thy hie place, and breake downe thy hye places, they shall strip thee also out of thy clothes: thy faire iewels shall they take from thee, and so leaue thee naked and bare.
40 Yea they shall bryng a company vpon thee, which shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swordes, 41 They shall *burne vp thy houses with fire, and punishe thee in the sight of many women: thus wyll I make thee ceasse from playing the harlot, so that thou shalt geue out no more rewardes.
42 So wyll I make my wrath towarde thee to rest, and my gelousie shall depart from thee, and I will ceasse, and be angry no more.
43 Seing thou remembrest not the dayes of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these thinges: beholde therfore, I wyll bryng thyne owne wayes vpon thy head saith the Lord God, so that (m) thou shalt not commit [any more] mischefe vpon all thyne abhominations.
44 Beholde, all they that vse common prouerbes, shall vse this prouerbe also against thee, saying: Such a (n) mother, such a daughter.
45 Thou art euen thy mothers owne daughter, that hath cast of her husband and her chyldren: yea thou art the sister of thy (o) sisters, which forsoke their husbandes & their chyldren: your mother is an Hittite, & your father an Amorite.
46 Thyne eldest sister is Samaria, she and her (p) daughters that dwell vpon thy left hande: but thy younger sister that dwelleth on thy right hande is Sodoma and her daughters.
47 Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abhominations, as a litle and a litle: but in all thy wayes thou hast ben more corrupt then they.
48 As truely as I liue, saith the Lorde God, Sodoma thy sister with her daughters, haue not done as thou hast done and thy daughters. G
49 Behold, the sinnes of thy sister Sodoma were these: (q) Pryde, fulnesse of meate, and abomdaunce of idlenesse, these thinges had she and her daughters: besides that, they strengthed not the hande of the poore and needie.
50 But they were hautie, and committed abhomination before me, therefore I toke them away as I sawe good.
51 Neither hath (r) Samaria done halfe of thy sinnes, yea thou hast exceeded them in thyne abhominations, and hast (s) iustified thy sisters in all thyne abhominations which thou hast done.
52 Therfore thou which didst condemne thy sister, beare thyne owne shame: for thyne owne offences that thou hast cõmitted more abhommable then they dyd, which in deede are more righteous then thou art, be thou [I say] ashamed, and beare the shamefull rebuke, seeing that thou hast iustified thy sisters.
53 Therfore I wyll bryng agayne their captiuitie, the captiuitie of Sodom and her daughters, & the captiuitie of Samaria and her daughters, and the captiuitie of thy captiuities among (t) them,

54 That

(l) That is, Powred out thy wantonnesse vpon them that go to thy house.

(l) I wyll iudge thee to death, as the adulterers & murtherers.

54 That thou mayest take thyne owne confusion vpon thee, and be ashamed of all that thou hast done, in that thou hast [a]comforted them.

(a) In that thou hast shewed thy self worse then they, and yet thoughtest to escape punishment.

55 And thy sister Sodom and her daughters shall returne to their former state, Samaria also and her daughters shall returne to their former state, when thou and thy daughters shall returne to your former state.

(a) Thou wouldest not call her punishment to minde when thou wast alone, to learne by her example to leave thy blasphemies. (b) What is, that thou wouldest be brought vnder by the Assyrians and the Philistines. 2. Chron. 28.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not [b]heard of by thy report in the day of thy pryde, 57 Before thy wickednesse was [c] discouered, according to the tyme of the reproche of the daughters of Aram, and of all the daughters of the Philistines rounde about her, whiche despise thee on all sides.

58 Thou hast borne thy wickednesse and thyne abhominations, saith the Lorde.

59 For thus saith the Lorde God, I might by right deale with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the [d]othe in breaking the couenaunt:

(b) Heare the eyght yeares.

60 Neuertheless, I will remember my couenaunt with thee in the daies of thy youth, and I will establishe vnto thee an euerlasting couenaunt.

61 Then shalt thou remember thy wayes, and be ashamed when thou shalt receaue thy [aa] sisters, [both] thy elder and thy younger: and I will geue them vnto thee for daughters, but not by thy couenaunt.

(aa) The storie herby here not onlye of Sodom and Samaria, but also of the gentiles whom God in pitie receaued of his owne free mercy.

62 And I will establishe my couenaunt with thee, that thou mayest know that I am the Lorde.

63 That thou mayest thinke vpon it, and be [bb] ashamed, and neuer open thy mouth any more for shame of thy selfe, when I am pacified towarde thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lorde God.

(bb) This declareth the fruites of Gods mercy, to wit, sorowe and repentance for their former life.

¶ The. xvij. Chapter.

The parable of the two Egles.

1 The worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, put foorth a parable, & speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lorde God: There came a great [a] Egle, with great winges, yea with a mightie long body, and ful of fethers of diuers colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, and toke the hyest braunche of a Cedar tree.

(a) That is Nabuchodonozor, which hath great power, riches, and many countreys vnder him shall come to Hierusalem and take away Jechonias the kyng, as verse 12. (b) Meaning to Babylon.

4 And brake of the top of his twigges, and caryed it into the lande of [b] marchauntes, and set it in a citie of marchauntes.

(c) That is Jedekias, who was of the kynges blood, & was left at Hierusalem & made kyng in stede of Jechonias. † 4. King. 24. Jere. 37. a.

5 He toke also of the [c] seede of the land, and planted it in a fruiteful grounde, he brought it vnto great waters, and set it in an open trenche.

6 Then did it grow, and was a [d] spreading vine, but [e] lowe of stature, whose braunches turned towarde [ee] it, and the rootes of it were vnder it: thus there came of it a vine, and it brought foorth braunches, and shot foorth buddes.

(d) This was Jechonias kyngdome. (e) That it might not haue power to rebell against Babylon, as verse 15. (ee) The Egle.

7 But there was another [f] Egle, a great one, whiche had great wynges and many fethers: and beholde, the rootes of this vine turned towardes it,

(f) Meaning the kyng of Egypt, of whō Jechonias sought helpe, contrary against Nabuchodonozor.

and spread out her braunches towards it, that she might water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted vpon a good soyle beside great waters, so that it should haue brought out braunches, & borne fruite, and haue ben a goodly vine. 25

9 Speake thou therfore, thus saith the Lorde God: Shall this vine prosper: shall [g] he not pull vp the rootes therof, and destroy the fruite thereof, and cause them to dry: all the leaues of her bud shall wither without great power, or many people, to plucke it vp by the rootes thereof.

(g) Nabuchodonozor, vnder Sanbere by the first Egle.

10 Behold, it was planted: Shall it prosper therfore? Shall it not be dryed vp and withered: When the [h] east winde shall touche it, it shall wither in the trenches where it grewe.

(h) That is, the Babylonians.

11 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

12 Speake nowe to the rebellious house, Knowe ye not what these thinges [do signifie]? Tell them, beholde, the kyng of Babylon is come to Hierusalem, and hath taken the [i] kyng thereof, and the princes therof, and hath led them with him to Babylon.

(i) That is, Jechonias. 4. King. 24.

13 He toke of the kynges seede, and made a coue-a couenaunt with hym, and toke an othe of hym, the princes of the lande toke he with hym also.

14 That the kyngdome might be holden in subiection, and not lift vp it selfe, but kepe the couenaunt, and stande to it.

15 But he rebelled against hym, and sent his embassadours vnto Egypt, that he might haue horses and muche people: Should he prosper? shall he escape that doth suche thinges? or shall he breake the couenaunt and escape free?

16 As truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, he shall dye at Babylon in the place where the kyng dwelleth that made hym kyng, Whose othe he hath despised, and whose couenaunt he hath broken.

17 Neither shall Pharao with his great hoast and multitude of people, maintayne hym in the warre, when they haue cast vp mountes, and buylt a fort to destroy many persons.

18 For seeing he hath despised the othe and broken the couenaunt, (Wheras he yet gaue his (f) hande therevpon) and done all these thinges, he shall not escape.

(f) Because he toke the name of God in vayne, & brake his oth which he had confirmed by geuing his hand, therefore the prophete declareth that God shoulde not suffer periurie and vnfaithfulnesse to escape vnpunished.

19 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, As truely as I liue I wyll bryng mine othe that he hath despised, and my couenaunt that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 *I wyll spreade my net vpon hym, and he shall be caught in my net: and I wyll bryng hym to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with hym there, for the trespasse whiche he hath committed against me. Ezech.xvij.b. and.xxxix.a

21 As for those that flee from hym, with all his hoast, they shalbe slayne with the sworde, and the residue shalbe scattred towardes all the windes: and ye shall knowe that I the Lord haue spoken it. D

22 Thus saith the Lorde God, I wyll also take of the top of this hye Cedar, and wyll set it, and cut of the top of the tender plant thereof, and wyll plant it vpon an hye hyll and a great.

23 [Namely] vpon the hye hyll of Israel Will I plant it, that it may bryng foorth bowes, and geue fruite, and be an excellent Cedar: and vnder it shall remayne all byrdes, and euery foule shall remaine vnder the shadowe of the braunches thereof.

24 And all the trees of the fielde shall knowe that I the Lorde haue brought downe the hye tree, and exalted the lowe tree, that I haue dryed vp the greene tree, and made the drye tree to flourishe, [euen] I the Lorde that spake it, haue also brought it to passe.

The. xviij. Chapter.

4 He sheweth that euery man shall beare his owne sinne. 21 To him that amendeth, is saluation promised. 24 Death is prophecied to the righteous whiche turneth backe from the right way.

A 1 THe word of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

2 What meane ye by this cõmon prouerbe that ye vse in the lande of Israel, saying: The (a) fathers haue eaten sowre grapes, and the childrens teeth are set on edge?

(a) The people murmured at the chastisinges of the Lorde, and therefore vsed this prouerbe, meaning that their fathers had sinned, and they were punished for their transgressions, contra Jere. xxxi.b.

3 As truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, ye shall vse this byworde no more in Israel.

4 Beholde, all soules are mine, lyke as the soule of the father is mine, so is the soule of the sonne myne also: the soule that sinneth shall dye it selfe.

5 But if a man be iust, and do that which is lawfull and right:

(b) That is, if he haue not communicated in the sacrifices of idols.

6 He hath not (b) eaten vpon the hilles, he hath not lift his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wyfe, neither hath come neare a (c) woman removed:

(c) Meaning suche as were set apart in tyme of naturall & monethly vncleanes, namely in time of their abstinence, leprosie, and suche like, as Leui. xv.c. Leui.xviij.a. Mat.xxv.e. Exo.xxij.d. Leui.xxv.e. Deu.xxiij.c Psal.xv.a.

7 Neither hath oppressed any man, but hath restored to the debter his pledge: he that hath not spoyled any by violence, hath *geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath clothed the naked:

8 And hath not *geuen foorth vpon vsurie, neither taken any encrease, he hath withdrawne his hande from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man:

9 And hath walked in my statutes, and kept my iudgementes to deale truely: this is a righteous man, he shall surely liue, saith the Lorde God.

10 If he nowe get a sonne that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and do any one of these thinges:

11 Though he do not all these thinges, but either hath eaten vpon the hilles, or defiled his neighbours wyfe:

12 Or hath oppressed the poore and needie, or spoyled by violence, or hath not restored the pledge, or hath lyft vp his eyes vnto the idols, or hath committed abomination:

13 Or hath geuen foorth vpon vsurie, or hath taken encrease: Shall this man liue? he shall not liue: Seeing he hath done all these abhommations he shal die the death, his blood shalbe vpon hym.

14 Nowe if this man get a sonne also, that seeth all his fathers sinnes whiche he hath done, and feareth, neither doth suche like:

15 [Namely] he hath not eaten vpon the hilles, he hath not lift vp his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor defiled his neighbours wyfe:

16 Neither hath oppressed any, nor hath withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence: [but] hath geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath couered the naked with a garment:

17 Neither hath withdrawen his hande from the afflicted, nor receaued vsurie nor encrease, [but] hath executed my iudgementes, and walked in my statutes: this man shall not dye in his fathers sinne, but shall liue without fayle.

18 As for his father, because he hath cruelly oppressed and spoyled his brother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, lo he dyeth in his owne sinne.

19 ¶ And yet say ye, Wherfore then should not this sonne beare his fathers sinne? Because the sonne hath done iudgment and righteousnesse, he hath kept all my statutes and done them: therefore shall he liue in deede.

20 The same soule that sinneth shall dye, *the sonne shall not beare the fathers iniquitie, neither shall the father beare the sonnes iniquitie: the righteousnesse of the righteous shalbe vpon hym, and the wickednesse of the wicked shalbe vpon him selfe also.

Deut 24.c. 4 King 14.c 2. Par 25.a.

21 But if the vngodly will turne away from all his sinnes that he hath done, and kepe all my statutes, and do the thing that is iugdement and right, doubtlesse he shall liue and not dye.

22 As for all his sinnes that he dyd before they shall not be mentioned vnto hym: but in his righteousnesse that he hath done, he shall liue.

23 *For haue I any pleasure in the death of a sinner saith the Lorde God: shall he not liue if he returne from his wayes?

*Ezech.18.b. Ez xxxiii.b

24 Agayne, if the righteous turne from his righteousnesse, and do iniquitie, and shall do according to all the abominations that the wicked man doth: shall he liue? All the righteousnesse that he hath done shall not be remembred, but in his transgression that he hath committed, in his same that he hath sinned, in them he shall dye.

25 And yet ye say, the way of the Lorde is not (b) indifferent. Heare therefore ye house of Israel, is not my way equalle or are not your wayes rather vnequall?

(b) In parishing the first letters with the chyldren.

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquitie, and dieth in the same: in his iniquitie whiche he hath committed shall he dye.

27 Agayne, When the wicked turneth away from his wickednesse that he hath done, and doth iudgement and right, he shall saue his soule aliue.

28 Because he "seeth, and turneth away from all his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shall surely liue, and not dye.

"Considereth or remembreth his iniquities

29 And yet saith the house of Israel, the way of the Lorde is not equall. Are my wayes vnequall O ye house of Israel? are not your wayes rather vnequall?

30 Therefore I wyll iudge you, euery man according to his wayes, O ye house of Israel saith the Lorde: returne and bryng your selues agayne from all your wickednesse, so iniquitie shall not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you all your transgressions wherby ye haue transgressed, and make you a newe heart and a newe spirite: for why wyll ye dye O ye house of Israel?

32 Seing I haue no pleasure in the death of hym that dyeth, saith the Lord God: bryng agayne your selues then, and ye shall lyue.

The.xix. Chapter.

2 The captiuitie of Iehoias and Iehoiakim is signified by the lions whelpes, and by the lion. 10 He setteth out the prosperitie of the citie of Hierusalem that is past, & the miserie therof that is present.

A (a) That is, Iehoias and Iehoiakim Iosiahs sonnes, who for their cruelte and pride are compared vnto lions.

1 THou also take vp a lamentation for the (a) princes of Israel,
2 And say: Wherfore lay thy mother that lionesse among the lions: she norished her young ones among the lions whelpes.
3 One of her whelpes she brought vp, and it became a lion, it learned to catche the pray and to deuour folke.
(b) Shemping Pharao Necho king of Egypt. 4. Reg. 23. B.
4 The (b) heathen heard of hym, and caught hym in their snare, and brought hym in hookes vnto the lande of Egypt.
5 Nowe When she sawe that she had wayted and her hope was lost, she toke another (c) of her whelpes and made a lion of hym.
(c) Which was Ioachas him.
6 Which went among the lions, and became a fearce lion, learned to catche the pray, and to deuour folke,
23 7 He destroyed their palaces and made their cities Waste, insomuch that the whole lande and euery thyng therin were vtterly desolate through the voyce of his roaryng.
(d) Nabuchodonozor with his great armie which was gathered of diuers
8 Then set the (d) heathen together on euery side of the countreis agaynst hym, layde their nettes for hym, and toke hym in their pit.
9 So they put him in prison in chaynes, and brought hym to the kyng of Babylon: they put him in holdes, that his voyce shoulde no more be heard vpon the mountaynes of Israel.
(e) She speaketh this in the reproche of the wicked kyng in whose bloud, that is, in the race of his predecessours, Hierusalem lyeng & so should haue ben blessed, ascribyng to Gods promises, and flourished like a fruitfull vine.
10 As for thy (e) mother, she is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she brought foorth frute and braunches by the aboundaunt Waters.
11 And she had strong roddes for the scepters of them that beare rule, and her stature was exalted on hye among the braunches, & she appeared in her height With the multitude of her braunches.
12 But she Was pluckt vp in Wrath, cast out vpon the grounde, the east Wynde dryed vp her frute [her braunches] were broken of & Withered, as for the roddes of her strength, the fire consumed them.

(f) Destruction to come by Sedechiah, who was the occasion of the reuolte.
14 And there is a fire gone out of the (f) rodde of her braūches, it hath deuoured her frute, so that she hath no strong rodde for a scepter to rule: This is a lamentation, and shalbe for a lamentation.

The.xx. Chapter.

3 The Lorde denieth that he wyll aunswere them when they pray, for the offence of vnkindnesse which he here obiecteth. 27 He promiseth that his people shall returne from captiuitie. 46 By the forest that shoulde be burnt, is signified the burning of Hierusalem.

A (a) Of the captiuitie of Iconiah.

1 IN the (a) seuenth yere the tenth day of the fift moneth, certayne of the elders of Israel came for to aske counsayle at the Lorde, and sate downe before me.
2 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying:
3 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto the elders of Israel, and say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Are ye come to enquire of me: As truely as I liue I Wyll not be (b) sought of you, saith the Lorde God.
(b) If ye aske counsayle at me, I wyll geue you no answere. 1. Esdr. xxxi.
4 Wylt thou not iudge them sonne of man, Wylt thou not iudge [them:] cause them to vnderstande the abhominations of their fathers.
5 And tell them, thus saith the Lorde God, In the day When I chose Israel, and (c) lift vp mine hande vpon the seede of the house of Iacob, and was knowen vnto them in the lande of Egypt, yea When I lift vp mine hande ouer them, and sayde, I am the Lorde your God:
(c) This was a maner of sweeryng which was obserued in takyng an othe of all antiquite and kept in diuers coūtreis as vs̄ vsed.
6 Euen in the day that I lift vp mine hande vnto them, to bryng them out of the lande of Egypt into a lande that I had prouided for them, Which floweth With mylke and hony, and is pleasaunt among all other landes:

7 Then

B 7 Then sayd I vnto them, Cast away euery man the abhominations of his eyes, & defile not your selues with the idols of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would be not hearken vnto me, they dyd not cast away euery man the abhominations of his eyes, neither dyd they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I sayd I would powre out mine indignation ouer them, and accomplishe my wrath vpon them, yea euen in the middest of the lande of Egypt.

9 And I wrought for my names sake that it should not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifestly knowen, in bringing them forth of the lande of Egypt.

10 Nowe when I had caused them to go out of the lande of Egypt, and brought them into the Wildernesse:

11 I gaue them my statutes, and shewed them my iudgementes: *which whoso doeth, shall lyue in them.

12 I gaue them also my "Sabbath dayes to be a token betwixt me and them, and therby to knowe that I am the Lorde which halowe them.

13 And yet the house of Israel rebelled against me in the Wildernesse, they would not walke in my statutes, they haue cast away my iudgementes, which whoso doth shall lyue in them, and my Sabbath dayes haue they greatly polluted: *then I sayde, I would powre out mine indignation vpon them, and consume them in the Wildernesse.

C 14 And I wrought for my names sake, lest it should be defiled before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet neuertheless I lift vp my hande vnto them in the Wildernesse, that I would not bring them into the lande which I gaue them, that floweth with mylke and hony, and is a pleasure of all landes:

16 And that because they cast away my iudgementes and walked not in my statutes: but haue defiled my Sabbathes: for their heart was gone after their idols.

17 Neuertheless mine eye spared them so that I would not destroy them, nor consume them in the Wildernesse.

18 Moreouer, I sayde vnto their sonnes in the Wildernesse, walke not in the statutes of your "fathers, kepe not their iudgementes, and defile not your selues with their idols.

19 I am the Lord your God, walke in my statutes, kepe my iudgementes, & do the.

20 Halowe my Sabbathes, for they are a token betwixt me and you: that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithstanding, their sonnes rebelled agaynst me also, they walked not in my statutes, they kept not my iudgementes to fulfyll them, which he that doth shall liue in them, they prophaned my Sabbath dayes: and I sayde, I would powre out mine indignation ouer them, and accomplishe my wrath vpon them in the Wildernesse. D

22 Neuertheless, I withdrewe my hand and wrought for my names sake, lest it should be defiled in the sight of the heathen, before whom I had brought them forth.

23 I lift vp my hande to them also in the Wildernesse, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and strawe them among the nations:

24 Because they had not kept my iudgementes, but cast aside my statutes and broken my Sabbathes, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

25 Wherfore I (e) gaue them also statutes that were not good, and iudgementes wherin they should not lyue.

26 And I defiled them in their owne giftes, in that they (f) caused all that openeth the wombe to passe, that I might destroy them, that they might knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

27 Therfore speake vnto the house of Israel thou sonne of man, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God: yet in this also your fathers haue blasphemed me, and greeuously transgressed agaynst me:

28 For after I had brought them into the lande, for the which I lifted vp my hande to geue it vnto them, when they sawe euery hye hil, & all thicke trees, they offered there their sacrifices, & there they presented their offering of (g) anger, there also they made their sweete sauours, and powred out their wine offerynges.

29 And I sayde vnto them, What is that hye place whervnto ye resort? and the name of it is called (h) Bamah vnto this day.

30 Wherfore speake vnto the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God, Are ye not defiled in the waies of your fathers, and commit ye not whoredome after their abhominations?

31 For when ye offer your giftes, & make your sonnes to passe through the fire, you are polluted with all your idols vnto this day: shall I aunswere you when I am asked, O house of Israel? As I liue saith the Lorde God, I will not be sought of you.

32 And [that which] commeth into your mynde shall not be at all, which you say, We will be as the gentiles, as the kinredes of countreis, to serue wood and stone.

33 As truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, I my selfe will rule you with a mightie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you.

34 And I will bring you from the people, and gather you out of the countreis wherin ye are scattered, with a mightie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out.

(l) That is, amongest Gentiles nations.

35 And I will bring you into the (l) wildernesse of the people, & there I (k) will be iudged with you face to face.

(k) I will reason and plead my cause with you my selfe.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wildernesse of Egypt: so will I pleade with you also, saith the Lorde God.

37 I will cause you to passe vnder the rodde, and I will bring you into the bonde of the couenaunt.

38 And I will "purge out of you the rebelles, & them that transgresse against me, and bring them out of the lande of their habitation: as for the lande of Israel they shall not come in it, that you may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

" Or, cull.

39 As for you O house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God, Go you and serue euery man his idols, seyng that ye obey not me: and pollute no more my holy name with your giftes and your idols.

40 For vpon my holy hyll, euen vpon the hye hyll of Israel saith the Lord God, shall all the house of Israel, and all that is in the lande worship me: and in the same place will I fauour them, & there will I require your heaue offerynges, and the firstlinges of your oblations, with all your holy thinges.

41 I will accept your sweete sauour, when I bring you from the nations, & gather you together out of the landes wherin ye haue ben scattered, that I may be halowed in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I shall bring you into the lande of Israel, into the lande for the which I lift vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers.

43 There shall ye call to remembraunce your owne wayes, and all your workes wherin ye haue ben defiled, and ye shalbe cut of in your (l) owne sight for all your wickednesse that ye haue done.

(l) Your owne consciences shal condemne you as worthy to be cut of from the earth.

44 And ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I deale with you for my names sake, and not after your wicked wayes, nor according to your corrupt workes O ye house of Israel, saith the Lorde God.

45 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

G

46 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde the way of Themanah, and drop [thy worde] towarde the (m) south, and prophecie towarde the forest of the south fielde.

(m) That is, towarde Idumea and Iudea, which lay south from Babylon.

47 And say to the forest of the south, Heare the Worde of the Lord, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I will kindle a fire in thee, that shall consume all the (n) greene trees, with all the dry: the continuall flambe shall not be quenched, and euery face from the south to the north shalbe burnt therin.

(n) That is, both strong & worthie in Gods iudgement.

49 Then sayde I, Ah Lorde God, they say of me, Doth not he speake (o) parables?

(o) Meaning the people to be that the prophete spake darkly, therefore he desireth the Lord to geue them a plaine declaration thereof.

The. xxi. Chapter.

3 He threatneth the swoorde, that is to say, destruction to the citie of Hierusalem. 25 He sheweth the fall of king Zedekiah. 28 He is commaunded to propheeie the destruction of the children of Ammon. 30 After the slaughter of other, at the last the Lorde threatneth death vnto Nabuchodonozor hym selfe.

21 1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde Hierusalem, and [a] drop thy woorde, towarde the holy places, and propheeie agaynst the lande of Israel.
3 Say to the lande of Israel, thus saith the Lorde, Beholde I am against thee, and will drawe my swoorde out of the sheath, and cut of from thee both the [b] righteous and the wicked.
4 Seyng then that I will cut of from thee both the righteous and the wicked: therfore shall my swoorde go out of his sheath agaynst all flesshe from the [c] south to the north,
5 That all flesshe may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue drawne my swoorde out of the sheath, and it shall not be put in agayne.
6 Mourne therfore O thou sonne of man, yea [euen] with the [d] breakyng of thy loynes, mourne bitterly in their presence.
7 And if they say vnto thee, wherfore mournest thou? Then tell them, for the [e] tidinge s that commeth: All heartes shall melt, all handes shalbe letten downe, all stomakes shal faynt, and all knees shall [f] go as water: beholde it commeth, and shalbe brought to passe, saith the Lorde God.
8 Agayne, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
9 Thou sonne of man, propheeie and speake, thus saith the Lorde God, Speake, the swoorde the swoorde is sharpened and well furbished.
10 Sharpened is it to make a great slaughter, and furbished that it may glitter: Shall we then make mirth? It contemneth the [g] rodde of my sonne [as] [h] all other trees.
11 He hath geuen it to be furbished, to holde it in the hande: this swoorde is sharpened, and furbished, to geue it into the hande of the [i] slayer.
12 Crye and howle sonne of man, for it commeth vpon my people [it commeth] vpon all the princes of Israel: the terrours of the swoorde shalbe vpon my people, *smite therfore thou vpon thy thygh. *Ezec. 21. c.

13 Because it is a triall: and what if [k] it contemne the rodde? It shalbe no more saith the Lorde.
14 Propheeie thou sonne of man, & smite thy [l] handes together, & let the swoorde be doubled thrise, [euen] the swoorde of the great slaughter, entryng into their priuie chambers,
15 To make them faynt at the heartes, and to multiplie their falles, in all their gates, haue I geuen the terrour of the swoorde: Ah it is made bright, and dressed for the slaughter.
16 Get thee [m] one way or other, either vpon the right hande or vpon the left, whyther soeuer thy face turneth.
17 I will smite my handes together also, and make my wrathfull indignation to rest: euen I the Lorde haue sayde it.
18 The woorde of the Lorde came yet vnto me agayne, saying:
19 Thou sonne of man, appoynt thee two [n] waies, that the swoorde of the king of Babylon may come: Both these waies shal go out of one lande, and choose thee a place, at the head of the citie waies choose it.
20 Appoynt a way that the swoorde may come towarde Rabbath of the Ammonites, and towarde [o] Juda in the defenced Hierusalem.
21 For the kyng of Babylon stoode at the [p] partyng of the waies, at the head of the two waies, consultyng by diuination, he made his arrowes bright, consulted with images, & lookt in the liuer.
22 At his right hande was the soothsaying for Hierusalem, to appoynt captaynes, to open [their] mouth to the slaughter, and to lift vp their voice with the alarum, to set battle rammes agaynst the gates, to cast a bulwarke, [and] to builde a fort.
23 And it shalbe vnto them as a false diuination in their sight, for the [q] othes made vnto them: but [r] he will call to remembraunce their iniquite, to the intent

30 Shoulde I cause it to returne into his sheath: In the place where thou wast created, in the lande of thine habitation wyll I iudge thee:

31 And I wyll powre mine indignation vpon thee, and wyll blowe vpon thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliuer thee into the handes of desperate people, which are skilfull to destroy.

32 Thou shalt feede the fire, and thy blood shalbe shed in the lande: thou shalt be put out of remembraunce, for I the Lorde haue spoken it.

The xxij. Chapter.

The worde of the Lorde against Hierusalem for manslaughter, and denying due honour to their fathers and mothers, and other wickednesses. 25 Of the wicked doctrine of the false prophets and priestes, and of their vnsatiable couetousnesse. 27 The tirannie of rulers. 29 The wickednesse of the people.

1 Moreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, and sayde,

2 Thou sonne of man, wylt thou not (a) iudge, wylt thou not iudge this bloodie citie? wylt thou not shewe her all her abhominations?

(a) That is, wylt thou winke at such horrible faultes, and not burre my iudgementes against them?

(b) That is, the time of her destruction.
(c) To her owne hinderyng

5 Whether they be nye or farre from thee, they shall laugh thee to scorne, thou that hast gotten thee so foule a name, and art full of trouble.

6 Beholde the rulers of Israel, euery one in thee [was redy] to his power to shed blood.

7 In thee haue they dispised father and mother, in thee haue they oppressed the straunger, in thee haue they vexed the widowe and the fatherlesse. 25

8 Thou hast dispised my holy thynges, and defiled my Sabbathes.

15 I wyll scatter thee among the heathen, & strawe thee about in the landes, and wyll cause thy filthinesse to (e) ceasse out of thee.

(e) I wyll take away the occasion of thy wickednesse.

16 Yea and thou shalt be thine (f) owne inheritaunce in the sight of the heathen, that thou mayest knowe that I am the Lorde.

(f) Whereas before thou wast Gods inheritaunce, nowe thou shalt be left to thy selfe miserable and forsaken.

17 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is vnto me as drosse: all they are brasse, tinne, iron, and lead in the middest of the furnace, euen drosse of siluer are they.

19 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Forasmuch as ye all are turned into drosse, therfore beholde I wyll bryng you together vnto Hierusalem.

20 Lyke as they gather siluer, brasse, iron, tinne, and lead, into the middest of the furnace, and the fire is blowne there vnder to melt them: euen so wyll I gather you in mine anger & in my wrath, and let you remayne (there) and cause you to (g) melt.

(h) Thou art lyke a barren ground whom the Lorde plagueth with drought.

25 There is a (i) conspiracie of her prophetes in the middest therof: as a roring lion rauenyng his pray, they deuour soules, they haue taken the riche and precious thynges, they haue made her many Widowes in the middest therof.

(i) The false prophetes haue conspired together to make their doctrine more probable. 3. Reg. 22. b.

The. xxiii. Chapter.

4 Of the fornication, that is to say, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hierusalem, vnder the name of Aholah and Aholibah. 11 In comparison of Samaria, he sheweth that the fornication of Hierusalem is the further. 22 The destruction of Hierusalem is prophecied. 35 The adulterie of both the whores is founde out. 47 Their destruction.

4 The (c) names of them [were] Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister, and they were mine, and they bare sonnes and daughters: thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hierusalem Aholibah.

(c) Aholah signifieth a mansion or dwelling in her selfe, meaning Samaria which was the royal cite of Israel, and Aholibah signifieth my mansion in her, whereby is ment Hierusalem, where Gods temple was.

5 Aholah played the harlot (d) when she was mine, and she was set on fire with her louers the Assyrians her neighbours:

(d) of, & vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernaunce, & manner the people of god, they became idolaters, forsoke God, and put their trust in the Assyrians.

6 Which were clothed with blewe silke, both captaynes and princes, they were all pleasaunt young men, and horsemen rydyng vpon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whordome with them [being] all chosen men of Assur, Assyr, & with all on whom she doted, and defiled her selfe with all their idols.

8 Neither left she the fornication that she vsed with the Egyptians: for in her youth they (e) lay with her, they bruised the brestes of her maydenhead, and powred their whordome vpon her.

9 Wherfore I deliuered her into the handes of her louers [euen] into ỹ handes of the Assyrians vpon whom she doted.

10 These discouered her shame, toke her sonnes & daughters, and slue her with the swoorde, an euyll name had she among women: for (f) they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her sister Aholibah sawe this, and destroyed her selfe with inordinate loue more then she, & with her fornications, more thē her sister with her fornications.

12 She doted vpō the Assyrians captaines & princes her neighbours, clothed with all maner of gorgious apparel, horsmen riding vpon horses, beyng all pleasaunt young men.

13 Then I sawe that she was defiled, and they toke both one way.

14 But she encreased styll in whordome: for when she sawe (g) men paynted vpon the wall, the images of the Chaldees paynted with vermilon, 15 And girded with girdles vpon their loynes, and with dyed attire vpon their heades, lokyng all like princes, after the maner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the lande where they were borne.

16 Assoone as she sawe them, she burnt in loue vpon them, & sent messengers vnto them into the lande of the Chaldees.

17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bed of loue, they defiled her with their whordome: and so was she polluted with them, and her lust was abated from them.

18 And she discouered her whordome, and disclosed her shame: then my heart forsoke her, like as my heart was gone from her sister also.

19 Neuertheles, she encreased her whordome more, and remembred the dayes of her youth wherin she had played the harlot in the lande of Egypt.

20 She burnt in lust vpon their concubines, whose flesh was like the flesh of asses, and their issue like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou hast called to remēbraunce the filthynesse of thy youth, when thy teates were bruised by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth.

22 Therfore O Aholibah, thus saith the Lorde God, I wyll raise vp thy louers agaynst thee from whom thy heart is departed, and gather them together agaynst thee on euery syde, 23 [Namely] the Babylonians and all the Chaldees, rulers, wealthy and mightie men, with all the Assyrians, all pleasaūt young men, captaynes and princes, all valiaunt and renowmed, ryding vpon horses.

24 These shall come vpon thee with charrettes, wagons, and wheeles, and great multitude of people, with buckler, shielde, and helmet they shall beset thee on euery side: "I wyll geue iudgement before them, yea they themselues shall iudge thee accordyng to their owne iudgement.

25 I wyll lay mine indignation vpon thee, so that they shal deale cruelly with thee: they shall cut of thy nose and thine eares, and thy remnaunt shall fall by the swoorde, they shall cary away thy sonnes and daughters, and the residue shalbe deuoured by the fire.

26 They shal strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy faire iewels.

27 Thus wyll I make thy wickednesse to ceasse from thee, and thy fornication out of the lande of Egypt: so that thou shalt turne thine eyes no more after them, and cast thy mynde no more vpon Egypt.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Beholde I wyll deliuer thee into the handes of them whom thou hatest, yea euen into the handes of them from whom thine heart is departed.

29 And they shall deale hatefully with thee, and take away all thy (h) labour, & leaue thee naked & bare, and the shame of thy fornications (i) shalbe discouered, both thy wickednesse & thy whordome.

30 I wyll do these thynges vnto thee, because thou hast gone a whoryng after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therfore wyll I geue her cuppe in thine hande.

32 Thus saith the Lorde God, Thou shalt drynke of thy sisters cuppe, deepe & large, thou shalt be laughed to scorne, and had in derision, because it conteineth much.

(e) The holy ghost vseth these termes which seeme straunge to chaste eares, to make them sticked vnto of idolatrie so to be abhorred, that whoso hath any chastitie aboue to beare the name there of maye ouercome.

(f) That is, the Assyrians, in ofte plaguyng them.

(g) This declareth that no wordes are able sufficiently to expresse ỹ rage of idolatrie, & therfore the holy ghost here compareth them to those which in their rageng loue & fylthy lustes dote vpon the images and paynturges of them after whom they runne.

(h) All the treasures and riches wherby thou hast gotten by labour.

(i) All the swoorde shall see thy shamefull fornicatyng of God to strustrous.

" Or, I wyll leaue the punishment vnto them.

much.

(h) Meaning that the afflictions should be so great, that they should cause them to loose their senses and reason.

33 Thou shalt be filled with (h) drunkennesse and sorowe (euen) with the cup of destruction and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt drynke it and sucke it out, and thou shalt breake the sheardes thereof, and teare thine owne brestes: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God.

35 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Forasmuch as thou hast forgotten me, and cast me aside behynde thy backe, so beare nowe thine owne wickednesse and whordome.

36 The Lorde sayde moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, Wilt thou not iudge Aholah and Aholibah? shewe them their abhominations.

37 (Namely, that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their handes: and with their idols haue they cõmitted adulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes whom they bare vnto me, to passe (by the fire) to be their (i) meate.

(i) That is, to be sacrificed to their idols. Read. Ezech. xvi. 4.

38 Yea and this haue they done vnto me also, they haue defiled my sanctuarie in the same day, and haue prophaned my Sabbathes.

39 For when they had slayne their children for their idols, they came the same day into my sanctuarie to defile it: and lo thus haue they done in my house.

40 And howe much more (is it) that they sent for men to come from (m) farre, vnto whom a messenger was sent, and lo they came: for whom thou didst washe thy selfe, and paynted thine eyes, and deckedst thee with ornamentes.

(m) They sent into other countreis to haue such as should teache them the seruice of their idols.

41 Thou sattest vpon a stately bed, and a (n) table spread before it, wherupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oyle.

(n) He meaneth the aulter that was prepared for the idols. "Or, the table.

42 And a noyse of a merry company at "it, and with the men, beside the multitude of the people, were brought men of Saba out of the desert, which gaue them bracelettes vpon their handes, and beautifull crownes vpon their heades.

43 And I sayd vnto her that was worne in her adulteries, Nowe shall her fornications come to an ende, and she also.

44 And they went in to her as they go vnto a common harlot: euen so went they (I say) to Aholah and Aholibah, those wicked women.

45 And the righteous men, they shall iudge thẽ after the maner of *harlottes, and after the maner of murtherers: for they are harlottes, and blood is in their handes. *Eze. xvi. d.

46 Wherfore thus saith the Lorde God, I wyll bryng a great multitude of people vpon them, and geue them to be scattered and spoyled:

47 And the multitude shall stone them with stones, and cut them downe with their swordes, they shall slay their sonnes and daughters, and burne vp their houses with fire.

48 Thus wyll I cause wickednesse to ceasse out of the lande, that all (o) women may be taught, not to do after your wickednesse.

(o) Meaning all other citeis and countreys.

49 And so they shal lay your wickednesse vpon your owne selues, and the sinnes of your idols shall ye beare: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde God.

The.xxiiij. Chapter.

3 He proueth the firing of Hierusalem by a parable of a seething pot. 16 The parable of Ezechiels wyfe being dead, which he after expoundeth.

(a) Of Ieconiahs captiuitie vnto the raigne of Zedekiah. 4. Reg. 25.

(b) Called Tebeth, containing parte of December and parte of Ianuarie, in which moneth and day Nabuchodonosor besieged Hierusalem.

1 IN the (a) ninth yere, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the (b) moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying:

2 O thou sonne of man, write the name of this day, yea euen of this present day: for the kyng of Babylon set hym selfe against Hierusalem this selfe same day.

3 Shewe the rebellious house a parable, and speake vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God: Prepare a (c) pot, set it on, and powre water into it.

(c) Wherby is meant Hierusalem.

4 Gather the (d) peeces therof into it, euery good peece, the thygh and the shoulder, & fyll it with the chiefe bones.

(d) That is, the citizens & chiefe men therof.

5 Take one of the best sheepe, & a heape of (e) bones vnder it: let it boyle well, and let the bones therof seeth well therin.

(e) Meaning of the innocentes whom they had slayne. Who were the cause of the kindling of Gods wrath against them.

6 Wherfore thus sayde the Lorde God on this maner, Woo vnto the bloody citie, to the pot whose (f) scumme is therin, & whose scumme is not gone out of it: bryng it out (g) peece by peece, let no (h) lot fall vpon it.

(f) Whose iniquities & wicked citizens there yet remayne.

(g) Signifying they should not be destroyed all at once, but by litle and litle.

(h) Spare no state or condition.

7 For her blood is yet in it, vpon a hygh (i) drye stone hath she powred it: and not vpon the grounde, that it myght be couered with dust.

(i) The citie shewed her crueltie to all the world, and would not ashame therof, neither yet hyde it.

8 That

8 That it might cause wrath to arise, and take vengeaunce: I haue set her blood vpon a high drye rocke, that it shoulde not be couered.

9 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God: O (n) wo be vnto the bloodthirstie citie, for whom euen I my selfe wil make a great fire,

(n) Meaning that the citie should be vtterly destroyed.

10 And set much wood, and (o) kindle the fire, and seeth the flesh, & spice the pot, so that the very bones shalbe brent.

(o) That is, make all apparell therunto.

11 Moreouer, I will set the pot emptie vpō the coales, so that the brasse thereof may be hot and burnt, and the filthynesse of it may be molten in it, and the scum of it shalbe consumed.

12 She hath wearied her selfe with labour, yet her great scum is not gone of her, in the fire her scum [must be consumed.]

13 In thy filthynesse is wickednesse: because I (p) would haue purged thee, and thou wast not purged, from thy filthynesse thou shalt not be purged any more, till I haue caused myne indignation to rest in thee.

(p) I labour to vp sending my prophetes to call thee to repentaunce, but thou wouldest not.

14 Euen I the Lorde haue spoken it: yea it is come therto all redy that I will do it, I will not go backe, I will not spare, I will not repent: but according to thy wayes and imaginations shall they (m) iudge thee, sayth the Lorde God.

(m) That is, the Babylonians.

15 And the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

14 Thou sonne of man, behold I wil take away from thee the (n) pleasure of thyne eyes with a plague, yet shalt thou neither mourne nor weepe, neither shal thy teares run downe.

(n) Meaning his wife, in whome he beheld all beautie if (o) Forbidding not all men but to mourne for their friendes whē they are dead (p) For mourners were wont to eate bread sent vnto them by their neighbours in time of mourning.

17 Mourne in secret, make no (o) mourning of the dead, bynde the tyre of thy head vpon thee, and put on thy shoes vpon thy feete, couer not thy lippes, and (p) eate no mans bread.

18 So I spake vnto the people betymes in the morning, & at euen my wife dyed: then vpon the next morowe I dyd as I was commaunded.

19 And the people sayd vnto me: Wilt thou not tell vs what this signifieth towarde vs, that thou doest so?

20 I answered them, The word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

21 Tell the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God: Beholde, I will (q) polute my sanctuarie, euen the glorie of your power, the pleasure of your eyes, and your heartes delite: & your sonnes and daughters whom ye haue left, shall fall through the sworde.

(q) Spoiling the Chaldeans to destroy it, as chap. 7. 6.

22 Like as I haue done, so shall ye do also: ye shall not couer your lippes, ye shall eate no mans bread.

23 And your tire shalbe vpon your heades, and your shoes vpon your feete: ye shall neither mourne nor weepe, but ye shall pyne away in your iniquities, & mourne one towardes another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is your shewtoken, according to all that he hath done, ye shall do: When it commeth, then ye shal know that I am the Lorde God.

25 Also thou sonne of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from thē their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleasure of their eyes, and the (r) lifting vp of their soules, their sonnes & their daughters,

(r) Their hearts delight.

26 In that day shall come one that is escaped, vnto thee, [(s) and bring it] to the hearing of [thyne] eares:

(s) That is, bring the tidings of the destruction of Hierusalem.

27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, that thou mayst speake & be no more dumbe: yea thou shalt be their shewtoken, that they may knowe how that I am the Lorde.

The. xxv. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde vpon the sonnes of Ammon, which reioyced at the fall of Hierusalem. 8 Against Moab and Seir, against Idumea, against the Philistines.

THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the Ammonites, and prophecie vpon them.

3 And say vnto the Ammonites: heare the worde of the Lorde God, thus sayth the Lorde God: Forsomuch as thou saydest (a) Haha ouer my sanctuarie because it was polluted, and ouer the land of Israel because it was desolate, and ouer the house of Iuda because they went into captiuitie:

(a) Because ye reioyced when the enemie destroyed my citie and temple.

4 Beholde therfore, I wil deliuer thee to the people of the (b) east, that they may haue thee in possession: these shall settle their (c) palaces in thee, and make their dwellinges in thee, they shall eate thy fruite, and drinke vp thy milke.

(b) That is, to the Babylonians. (c) They shall chase them away and take thy goodly houses to dwell in.

5 As for (d) Rabbath, I will make of it a stable for camels, and of the Ammonites a sheepfolde: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

(d) Called also Philadelphia which was the chiefe citie of the Ammonites and full of coūtreys 18 leag. fro.

6 For thus sayth the Lorde God: Insomuch as thou hast clapped with thyne handes, and stamped with thy feete, yea and reioyced ouer the lande of Israel with all thy *despite in heart:

*Or tikling of heart.

7 Behold therfore I wil stretche out my hande ouer thee, and deliuer thee to be spoyled of the heathen, & roote thee out from among the people, and cause thee to perishe out of the landes: yea I will make thee to be destroyed, that thou mayest know that I am the Lorde.

8 Thus sayth the Lord God: Forsomuch as Moab and Seir do say, Beholde the house of Juda is like as all gentiles be:

9 Therfore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities (I say) of his frontiers, the pleasures of the countrey (as namely) Bethiesimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim:

(e) Vnder: stand out of the next verse I will ope. &c.

10 (e) Unto the children of the east against the Ammonites, and will geue it into possession, so that the Ammonites shall no more be had in remembraunce among the heathen.

11 And I will execute iudgementes vpon Moab, and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

12 Thus sayth the Lorde God: For that Edom hath done in auenging reuengement vpon the house of Juda, & hath done great offence and auenged hym selfe vpon them:

13 Therfore thus sayth the Lord God, I wil reache out myne hand vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, I will make it desolate from Theman, & Dedanah shall fall by the sworde.

14 And I will execute my reuengement vpon Edom by the hande of my people Israel, they shall do in Edom according to my wrath and indignation, so that they shall knowe my vengeaunce, sayth the Lord God. ℭ

15 Thus sayth the Lorde God: For that the Philistines dyd in vengeaunce, (namely, in auenging reuengement, with a *dispyteful heart to destroy it for the old enmitie:

*Or, tikling heart, as they often haue which driue in seking reuengement.

16 Therfore thus saith the Lord God, Behold I will stretche out my hande ouer the Philistines, and destroy the (f) Cerethites, and cause all the remnaunt of the sea coast to perishe:

(f) Which were certeine garrisons of Philistines: wherby they oft molested & Iewes. Of the Cerethites Dauid also had a garde. 1 Reg 2 b.

17 A great vengeaunce will I take vpon them, with punishements of my wrath, that they may knowe that I am the Lord, when I shal lay my vengeaunce vpon them.

The. xxvi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that Tyrus shalbe ouerthrowen, because it reioyced at the distruction of Hierusalem. 15 The wondring and astonishment of the marchauntes for the desolation of Tyrus.

(a) Ther of the captiuitie of Iechonah, or of the reigne of Iehoiada.

AND it came to passe in the (a) eleuenth yere, the first day of the moneth, the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

(b) The Iewes meaning that all the wealth and riches that were in their countrey or the ports of Tyrus.

3 Therfore thus sayth the Lord God, Behold O Tyre, I will vpon thee, I will raise vp many nations against thee, like as whē the sea ariseth with his waues.

4 They shal breake the walles of Tyre, & cast downe her towres, I will scrape her dust frō her, & make her a bare rocke.

5 She shalbe for a spreading of nettes in the sea, for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lord God, and she shalbe for a spoyle to the nations.

(d) Meaning that all townes and villages that were in the countrey or ports of Tyrus.

6 Her (d) daughters that are in the fielde shalbe slayne with the sworde, that they may knowe how that I am the Lorde.

8 Thy daughters that are in the field shal he slay with the sword: but against thee he shal make bulwarkes, & cast a mount against thee, and lift vp his speare against thee.

9 He shall set engins of warre before hym against thy walles, & with his weapons breake downe thy towres.

10 The dust of his horses shall couer thee they shalbe so many: thy walles shall shake at the noyse of the horsemen, wheeles & chariots, when he shal enter into thy gates, as into the entry of a citie broken downe.

11 With the hookes of his horses shall he treade downe al thy streetes, he shall slay the people with the sworde, and the pillers of thy strength shall fall downe to the grounde.

12 They

12 They shall rob thy riches, and spoyle thy marchaundise, thy walles shall they breake downe, and destroy thy houses of pleasure, thy stones, thy timber, and Ier.7 b dust shall they cast into the mids of the water.
13 *Thus will I cause the sounde of thy songues to ceasse, and the noyse of thy harpes shall no more be hearde.
14 I will bring thee into a drie rocke, thou shalt be for a spreading of nettes, thou shalt neuer be buylt againe: for euen I the Lord haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.
15 Thus hath the Lord God spoken concerning Tyre: Shall not the iles tremble at the noyse of thy fall, and at the crie of the wounded, when they shalbe slaine & murthered in the mids of thee?
(t) The gouernours and rulers of other countreys by the sea, whereby he signifieth that her destruction should be so horrible that all the world should heare thereof, and be afrayde.
16 All princes of the (t) sea shal come downe from their thrones, they shall lay away their robes, & put of their broidred garmentes, yea with trembling shall they be clothed, they shal sit vpon the ground, they shalbe astonished at euery moment, and be amased at thee.
17 They shall mourne for thee, and say vnto thee: How art thou destroyed that wast inhabited of the (t) seas, the renowmed citie, Whiche was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitauntes, which caused their feare to be on all that haunted therin?
(t) Meaning marchaunts of whiche by the traffique of byd enriche her wonderfully, & extende her power.
18 Now shall the inhabitours of the ies be astonished in the day of thy fall: yea the ies that are in the sea shalbe troubled at thy departure.
19 For thus sayth the Lord God: When I make thee a desolate citie, as other cities be that no man dwell in, and when I bring vp the deepe vpon thee, that great waters may couer thee:
20 Then will I cast thee downe vnto them that descend into the pit, vnto a people of (s) olde time, and set thee in a lande that is beneath, like the olde ruynes, with them which go downe to the graue, so that no man shall dwell more in thee: but I will reserue honour for the (h) land of the liuing:
(s) which are dead long ago
(h) Meaning Iudea, which shalbe inhabited.
21 I will make thee terrors, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou not be founde for euermore, sayth the Lorde God.

1 The prophete is moued to bewayle the desolation of Tyrus. 12 He setteth out the prayse of Tyrus for the haunting of marchauntes therto.

THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
2 O thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentable complaint vpon Tyre,
3 And say vnto Tyre that is situate at the entry of the sea, Whiche is the mart of the people for many ies, thus sayth the Lorde God O Tyre, thou hast sayde, I am of perfite beautie.
4 Thy borders are in the mids of the seas, thy buylders haue made perfite thy beautie.
5 They haue made all thy [ship] bordes of firre trees of (a) Shenir, from Libanus haue they taken Cedar trees to make thee mastes:
(a) This mountaine was called Hermon, but the Amorites called it Sherion. Deut. 3 d.

7 Fine linnen with broidred worke out of Egypt was spread ouer thee to be thy sayle: blewe silke and purple out of the ies of Elishah was thy couering.
8 The inhabitours of Sidon and Aruad were thy mariners: and thy wise men O Tyre, that were in thee, were thy shipmaisters.

20 They of Dedan were thy marchauntes in precious clothes for chariots.

32 And they shall take vp a lamentation for thee in their mourning, and lament ouer thee, [what citie] is like Tyrus so destroyed in the myds of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth of the seas, thou filledst many people: the kinges of the earth hast thou made riche, thorowe the multitude of thy riches and marchaundise.

34 When thou shalt be broken by the seas in the deapthes of the waters, thy marchaundise & all thy multitude that was in the myds of thee, shall fall.

35 All the inhabitauntes of the ies shalbe astonied at thee, and all their kinges shalbe sore afrayde, and troubled in their countenaunce.

36 The marchauntes of the nations shall hisse at thee: thou shalt be a terrour, and shalt (m) neuer be any more.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1 The word of God against the king of Tyrus for his pride. 12 Ezechiel the prophete is moued to bewayle the king of Tyrus. 20 The word of the Lord against Sidon. 25 The Lorde promiseth that he will gather together the children of Israel.

THe worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, tel the prince of Tyre, thus sayth the Lorde God: Because thou hast a proude heart, and hast said, I am (a) a God, I sit in the state of God, in the myds of the sea: wher as thou art but a man, and not God, (b) though thou set thyne heart as the heart of God.

(a) Like as vsed to be spoken, even so I am like that name can do vs to hurt me.

(b) Though thou diddest thinke in thine heart that thou were equall with God. (c.) thus he speaketh by derision, for Daniel had declared notable figures of his wisdome in Babylon, when Ezechiel wrote.

3 Beholde, thou thinkest thy selfe wyser then (c) Daniel, that there is no secretes hyd from thee.

4 With thy wisdome and thine vnderstanding thou hast gotten thee great welthines, & gathered treasure of siluer & gold.

5 With

5 With thy great Wysedome and occupying hast thou encreased thy power, and because of thy great riches thy heart is proude.

6 Therfore thus sayth the Lorde God, Forsomuch as thou hast set thyne heart as the heart of God:

7 Behold, I will bring straungers vpon thee, euen the terrible nations, these shall drawe out their swordes vpon the beautie of thy Wysdome, and shall defile thy glorie.

8 They shall cast thee downe to the pit, so that thou shalt dye the death of them that be slayne in the mids of the sea.

9 Wilt thou say then before them that slay thee, I am a God: Where as thou art but a man, and not God, in the handes of them that slay thee.

10 Die shalt thou the death of the (b) vncircumcised in the handes of the straungers: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

(b) After the text of the Hebrewes and interpret. which are good circumcised.

11 Moreouer, the Worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

12 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon the king of Tyre, & tel him, thus sayth the Lord God: Thou sealest vp the summe, (c) full of Wysdome, & perfite beautie.

(c) She betokeneth the beginning and commencement that the Tyrians had in their riches strength and preeminence.

13 Thou hast ben in the pleasaunt garden of God, thou art deckt with all maner of precious stones, with ruby, topas, diamond, thurkis, onyx, iasper, saphir, emeralde, carbuncle, and golde: the Workemanship of thy timbrels and of thy pipes (that be in thee, Was prepared in the day that thou wast created.

(f) She meaneth the royall state of Tyrus, which for the excellencie & glorie thereof, he compareth to the Cherubins which couered the Arke: and by this word annoynted, he signifieth the same.

14 Thou art an (e) annoynted Cherub, that couereth, and I haue (f) set thee (in this dignitie, thou Wast vpon the holy mount of God, thou hast walked in the mids of the (g) stones of fire.

(g) I appointed & ordeined thee to the honour of one of the temple which was whē Hiram sent to Salomon things necessarie to the Lorde. 3 Reg. 7 b.

15 From the time of thy creation thou haste ben perfite in the Wayes, till Wickednesse Was founde in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchandise they haue filled the mids of thee with cruelitie, & thou haste sinned: I will cast thee as prophane out of the (h) mount of God, & I will destroy thee O couering Cherub, from the mids of the stones of fire.

(h) That is, the honour wherunto I called thee.

17 Thy heart was proude in thy beautie, and therowe thy brightnesse thou hast destroyed thy Wisdome: I will cast thee downe to the grounde, I will lay thee before kinges, that they may beholde thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy (i) sanctification with the great wickednesse of thyne vnrighteous occupying: I will bring a fire from the middest of thee to consume thee, and will make thee to asshes vpon the earth, in the sight of all them that loke vpon thee.

(i) That is, the holy Citie.

19 All they that haue ben acquainted with thee among the heathen shalbe abashed at thee: thou hast ben a terrour, and neuer shalt thou be any more.

20 And the Word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

21 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against Sidon, and prophecie vpon it, D

22 And speake, thus sayth the Lord God: Behold O Sidon, I will vpon thee, and I Wilbe glorified in thee: that it may be knowen howe that I am the Lord When I shal haue executed iudgementes in her, & shalbe sanctified in her.

23 For I will sende pestilence and bloodshedding into her streetes, and the slayne shall fall in the mids of her, by the swoord (comming) vpon her on euery side: & they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

24 They shalbe no more a pricking thorne vnto the house of Israel, nor a grieuous thorne of al that are round about them and despised them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Thus sayth the Lorde God: When I gather the household of Israel together againe from the nations among whom they be scattered, then shall I be sanctified in them in the sight of the gentiles, and they shall dwell in the lande that I gaue to my seruaunt Jacob.

26 They shal dwell With confidence therin, build houses and plant vineyardes: yea With confidence shall they dwell therin, When I haue executed iudgementes vpon all those that despise them rounde about: and then shal they know that I am the Lorde their God.

(k) Thou shalt haue no part among my people.

The. xxix. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth against Pharao, and of the desolation of Egypt, with the spoyling abrode of the Egyptians. 13 The Lorde promiseth that he will restore Egypt againe after fourtie yeres. 18 Egypt is the rewarde of king Nabuchodonozor for the labour which he tooke against Tyrus.

A a Towit, of the captiuitie of Ieconia & of the raigne of Ezechiel. Mist note that the disposition of these visions are not set exactly according to the order of the times but according to the nearenesse and distaunce of the countreys against whom they were written. As the vision of Tyrus seeme in the eleuenth yere, is set before this, seeing in the tenth yere because it was nearer to Iurie then Egypt.

IN the (a) tenth yere, vpon the twelft day of the tenth moneth, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against Pharao the king of Egypt, prophecie against him, and against the whole lande of Egypt.

3 Speake & tell him, thus sayth the Lord God: Beholde O Pharao thou king of Egypt, I will vpon thee thou great (b) dragon that lyeth in the mids of his riuers, thou that sayst, The riuer is mine, I haue made it for my selfe.

(b) He compareth Pharao to a dragon, or Crocodile, which was wont to haunt the riuer Nilus.

4 I will put (c) hookes in thy chawes, and hang the fishe in thy riuers vpon thy skales: after that I will drawe thee out of thy riuers, yea and all the fishe of thy riuers shall hang vpon thy skales.

(c) I will send enemies against thee, which shall plucke thee & thy people that trust in thee, out of thy sure place.

5 I will leaue thee in the wildernesse, both thee and all the fishe of thy riuers: thou shalt fall vpon the open fielde, thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I haue geuen thee for meate to the beastes of the fielde, & to the foules of the ayre,

6 That all they which dwell in Egypt may knowe that I am the Lord, because they haue ben a *staffe of reede to the house of Israel.

4 Reg. 18. c. Esa 36 a.

7 When they toke hold of thee with their hand, thou brakest & rent all their shoulder: & when they leaned vpon thee, thou brakest and madest all their loynes to stande (d) vpright.

(d) When they felt their hurt, they would stay no more vpon thee but stoode vpon their feete and put their trust in others.

8 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God: Behold, I will bring a sworde vpon thee, & destroy out of thee both man and beast.

9 Yea the lande of Egypt shalbe desolate and waste, and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, because he sayde, The riuer is myne, I my selfe haue made it.

10 Beholde therefore I will vpon thee and vpon thy riuers, I will make the land of Egypt vtterly waste and desolate, from the towre of Seuench vnto the borders of (e) Ethiopia.

(e) Which some call the land of the blacke Moores.

11 No foote of man shall passe by it, nor foote of beast shall passe by it, neither shall it be inhabited fourtie yeres.

12 I will make the land of Egypt to be desolate among other waste countreys, and her cities destroyed fourtie yeres among other destroyed cities: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them thorow the countreys.

13 Againe, thus sayth the Lorde God: *When the fourtie yeres are expired, I will gather the Egyptians together againe out of the nations among whom they were scattered. Ier. 46. d.

14 And I will bring the captiuitie of Egypt againe, and cause them to returne into the lande of Pathros, the lande of their habitation, and they shalbe there a (f) small kingdome. C

(f) Meaning that they should not haue ful dominion, but be vnder the Persians, Grecians, and Romanes: and the cause is, that the Israelites should no more put their trust in them, but learne to depend on God.

15 It shalbe the smallest among other kingdomes, neither shall it exalt it selfe any more aboue the nations: for I will so minishe them, that they shall no more rule the nations.

16 And they shalbe no more vnto the house of Israel a trust which bringeth their iniquitie to remembraunce, when they shall loke after them: & they shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

17 In the (g) twentie and seuenth yere, the first day of the first moneth, came the word of the Lorde vnto me, saying:

(g) Counting from the captiuitie of Iecoiah.

18 Thou sonne of man, Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon caused his armie to serue a great seruice against Tyrus: euery head was made balde, & euery shoulder bare, yet had neither he nor his armie any wages for Tyrus for the seruice which he serued against it.

19 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God: Behold, I will geue the lande of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, and spoyle her spoyles, & take her pray to pay his hoast their wages withall.

20 For the "worke which he wrought about it, I haue geuen him the lande of Egypt, because they wrought for me, sayth the Lorde God.

"The trauayle he tooke about Tyre.

21 In that day I will cause the horne of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will geue thee the opening of thy mouth in the mids of them: & they shall knowe that I am the Lorde. D

The xxx. Chapter.

The destruction of Egypt, and of his cities is bewayled.

A 1 THe Worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
2 Thou sonne of man prophecie, and speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, howle, Wo worth this day:
3 For the day is neare, the day of the Lorde is at hande, the darke day, the time of the nations shalbe,
4 And the swoorde shall come vpon Egypt, and feare shalbe in Ethiopia When the slayne shall fall in Egypt: and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shalbe broken downe.
5 Yea Ethiopia, Lybia, & Lydia, all their common people, and Chub, and all that be confederate vnto them, shal fall With them thorowe the swoorde.
6 Thus sayth the Lorde: The mayntainers of the lande of Egypt shall fall, the pryde of her powre shall come downe: euen from the towre of (a) Seuench shal they fall downe in it With the swoorde, sayth the Lorde God.

(a) Which was a strong citie of Egypt. Ezec. xxxix b

B 7 Among other desolate countreys they shalbe made desolate, among other waste cities they shalbe wasted.
8 And they shall knowe that I am the Lord When I haue set a fire in Egypt, & when al her helpers shalbe destroyed.
9 In that day shall messengers go foorth from me in ships to make the careles Morians afrayde, and feare shall come vpon them, according to the day of Egypt: for lo it commeth.
10 Thus sayth the Lord God, I wil cause the multitude of Egypt to ceasse by the hande of Nabuchodonozor king of Babylon.
11 He, and his people with him, the terrible nations shalbe brought to destroy the land: they shal drawe out their swoordes vpon Egypt, & fil the land full of slayne men.
12 I wil make their riuers drie, and sel the lande into the handes of wicked people: the land and all that is therin I will destroy thorow the hand of straungers: euen I the Lorde haue sayde it.
13 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I will destroy the idoles, and bring the images of (b) Noph to an end: there shal no more be a prince of Egypt, and a fearfulnesse will I send into the Egyptians lande.

(b) Which also signifieth Memphis of Iaharia.

14 As for Pathros, I wil make it desolate, and kindle a fire in (c) Zoan, and I will execute iudgementes in (b) No.
15 And I will powre my Wrathful indignation vpon Sin the strength of Egypt, & I will destroy the multitude of No.
16 And I will kindle a fire in Egypt, Sin shalbe in great heauinesse, No shalbe rooted out, and Noph shall haue dayly sorowe.
17 The young men of "Auen, and of "Phibeseth shall fall by the swoorde, and these cities shall go into captiuitie.
18 At Tehaphnehes the day shalbe (e) darke, When I breake there the barres of Egypt, and When the pompe of her power shall ceasse in her: a cloude shall couer her, and her daughters shall go into captiuitie.
19 Thus will I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, and they shall knowe howe that I am the Lorde.
20 And in the (f) eleuenth yere, vpon the seuenth day of the first moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:
21 Thou sonne of man, I haue (g) broken the arme of Pharao king of Egypt: and lo, it shall not be bounde vp to be healed, to put a roller to bynde it, to make it strong to hold the swoorde.
22 Therfore thus sayth the Lorde God: Beholde, I will vpon Pharao king of Egypt, and breake his arme that was strong, but is broken: and I will cause the swoorde to fall out of his hande.
23 As for the Egyptians, I will scatter them among the nations, and strawe them in the landes about.
24 Againe, I will strengthen the arme of the king of Babylon, and geue hym my swoord in his hande: but I will breake Pharaos armes, and he shall grone the grodinges of a deadly wounded man before hym:
25 Yea I will strengthen the king of Babylons arme, and the armes of Pharao shall fall downe: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, When I shall (h) geue my swoord into the hand of the king of Babylon, that he may stretch it out vpon the lande of Egypt.
26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, & strowe them in the landes about: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The prophecie

The.xxxi. Chapter.

1 A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharao with the prosperitie of the Assyrians.
10 He prophecieth a like destruction to them both.

1 AND it came to passe in the (a) eleuenth yere, the first day of ye third moneth, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, and to all his people: Whom art thou (b) like in thy greatnesse?

3 Behold, Assur is a Cedar in Libanon, with faire braunches, and with thycke shadowing bowes, of a hygh stature, & his top was among the thicke bowes.

4 The waters made him great, and the deepe set him vp on hye, with her riuers running rounde about his plantes, and sent out her (c) little riuers vnto all the trees of the fielde.

5 Therefore was he higher then all the trees of the fielde, and his bowes were multiplied, & his braunches were long, because of the multitude of the waters, which the deepe sent out.

6 All foules of the aire made their nestes in his braunches, vnder his bowes did all the beastes of the fielde bring foorth their young; and vnder his shadowe dwelt all mightie nations.

7 Beautiful was he in his greatnesse, and in the length of his braunches: for his roote stoode beside great waters.

8 No Cedar tree might (d) hyde him in the garden of God, there was no fyrre trees like his braunches; the chestnut trees were not like the bowes of him: all the trees in the garden of God, might not be compared vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him faire with the multitude of his braunches: insomuch that all the trees in the pleasaunt garden of God had enuie at him.

10 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God: forsomuch as he hath lift vp him selfe so hye, and hath shot vp his top among the thycke bowes, and his heart is lift vp in his heyght:

11 I haue therfore deliuered him into the handes of the (e) mightiest among the heathen: he shall handle him, (for) in his wickednesse haue I cast him away.

12 And straungers haue destroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and haue left him: vpon the mountaynes and vpon al valleys haue his bowes fallen, and his bowes are (f) broken by all the riuers of the land: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadowe, & haue forsaken him.

13 Vpon his ruine shall all the foules of the ayre remayne, and all the beastes of the fielde shalbe vpon his braunches.

14 So that none of all the trees by the waters shalbe exalted in their heyght, nor shoot vp their toppes among the thycke bowes, neither shall their trees stande in their heyght, as many of them as drinke water: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the neather partes of the earth, in the midst of the children of men among them that go downe to the pit.

15 Thus sayth the Lord God: In the day when he went downe to the graue, I caused a lamentation to be made, I (g) couered the deepe for him, I restrayned the fluddes thereof, and the great waters were stayed, I caused Libanus to mourne for him, and all the trees of the fielde fainted.

16 I made the heathen shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him downe to hell with them that descend into the pit: all the excellent trees of Eden, & the best of Libanus, all that (h) drinke waters, shalbe (i) comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hell with him vnto them that be slayne with the sword, which were his arme, and dwelt vnder his shadowe in the middest of the nations.

18 To whom (k) art thou thus like in glorie and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Eden vnto the neather partes of the earth: in the middest of the (l) vncircumcised shalt thou sleepe with them that are slayne with the sworde: This is Pharao and all his multitude, sayth the Lorde God.

(a) Of Ieconiahs captiuitie.

(b) Meaning that he was not like in strength to the kyng of the Assyrians, who the Babylonians ouercame.

(c) Many other waters which were vnder their dominion.

(d) Signifieth that there is no greater power in the worlde then his was.

(e) That is, Nabuchodonozor, who afterwarde was the monarche and only ruler of the worlde.

(f) Hereby is signified the destruction of the power of the Assyrians, by the Babylonians.

(g) The deepe waters that caused hym to mount so hye, meaning his great aboundaunce and pompe shall now lamentably perish which in mourning were couered with sackecloth.

(h) That are nourished with waters.

(i) To cause abomination of the king of Assyria to seeme more horrible, he setteth foorth other kinges and princes which are dead, as though they reioyce at the fall of such a tyraunt.

¶ The .xxxij. Chapter.

The prophete is commaunded to bewaile Pharao the king of Egypt. 17 He prophecieth that destruction shall come vnto Egypt through the king of Babylon.

AND (a) in the twelfth yere, the first day of the twelfth moneth, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the king of Egypt, and say vnto him, thou art (b) lyke a lion of the heathen, and as a Whale fishe in the sea: thou drawest out thy riuers, thou (c) troublest the Waters with thy feete, and stampest in their riuers.

3 Thus saith the Lorde God, I will spreade my nette ouer thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee come vp into my net.

4 For I will leaue thee vpon the lande, and cast thee vpon the open fielde, and I will cause all the foules of the ayre to remaine vpon thee, & fill all the beastes of the fielde with thee.

5 Thy flesh will I lay vpon the hils, and fill the valleyes with thy (d) highnesse.

6 I will (e) water thyne ouerflowing lande with thy blood euen to the mountaynes, and the riuers shalbe ful of thee.

7 When thou art (f) put out, I will couer the heauen, and make his starres dim: * I will spreade a cloude ouer the sunne, and the moone shall not geue her light.

8 All the lightes of heauen will I make darke for thee: and bring (g) darkenesse vpon thy lande, saith the Lorde God.

9 I will stirre vp to anger the heartes of many people, When I bring thy destruction among the heathen, and vpon the countries which thou knowest not.

10 Yea, I will make many people amased at thee, and their kinges shalbe astonished with feare for thee, when I shall make my swoorde to glitter against their faces: and they shalbe afraide at euery moment euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lorde God, The king of Babylons swoorde shal come vpon thee:

12 With the swoordes of the mightie will I smyte downe thy multitude: they all shalbe terrible nations, & they shal destroy the (h) pompe of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shalbe consumed.

13 I will destroy also al the beastes thereof from the great waters sides, neither shall the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofes of beastes trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters (i) deepe, and cause their riuers to runne lyke (k) oyle, saith the Lorde God, 15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the countrey with all that is therein shalbe layde waste, and when I smyte all them which dwell in it, then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mourning when they shal lament her, the daughters of the nations shall lament her, they shall make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer all the people thereof, saith the Lorde God.

17 In the twelfth yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying:

18 Thou sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and (l) cast them downe, euen them and the daughters of the famous nations vnto the neather partes of the earth, with them that go downe into the pit.

19 Whom doest thou passe in (m) beautie? go downe and sleepe with the vncircumcized.

20 Among those that be slaine with the swoorde shall they lye: to the swoorde is (n) she deliuered, draw her downe and all her multitude.

21 The (o) mightie Worthies shall speake to her out of the hell, and to her helpers: they are gone downe and lye vncircumcized with them that be slaine with the swoorde:

22 Assur is there also with all his company, and their graues rounde about him, which were slaine and fell all with the swoorde.

32 For I haue geuen my feare (x) in the lande of the lyuing: but Pharao and al his people shalbe layde among the vncircumcized, and among them that be slaine with the swoorde, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The .xxxiii. Chapter.

He setteth out the office of the gouernours and ministers. 14 He strengtheneth them that dispaire. and boldneth them with the promise of mercie. 30 The woorde of the Lorde against the remnaunt of the people, against the mockers of the woordes of the prophete.

A I Gaine, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, speake to the children of thy people, and tell them: When I sende a swoorde vpon a lande, if the people of the lande take a man of their coastes, and set him to be their (a) watchman:

(a) By the watchman is ment the gouernour or ruler, which hath a care ouer them, and to warne them euer of the daungers which are at hande.

3 If when he seeth the swoorde come vpon the lande, he shall blowe the trumpet and warne the people:

4 Then he that heareth the noyse of the trumpet and wyll not be warned, and the swoorde come and take him away, his blood shalbe vpon his oWne head.

5 For he heard the sounde of the trumpet, and would not be warned, therefore his blood be vpon him: but he that receaueth warning, he shall saue his lyfe.

6 Againe, if the watchman see the swoord come, and blow not the trumpet, so that the people is not warned, if the swoorde come then, and take any man from among them: the same shalbe (b) taken away in his oWne sinne, but his blood wyl I require at the watchmans hand.

(b) Signifying that the wicked shall not escape punishment, though the watchmen be negligent but if the watchmen blowe the trumpet, and then he wyl not obey, he shall deserue double punishment. Chap. 3.

7 And thou O sonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt here the woorde at (c) my mouth, and thou shalt warne them from me.

(c) which teacheth that he that receaueth not his charge and watchwoorde at the Lordes mouth, is a spye, and not a true watchman.

8 If I say vnto the wicked, thou Wicked, thou shalt surely dye: & thou speakest not to admonish the wicked of his way: that Wicked man shall dye in his oWne sinne, but his blood wyl I require at thy hande.

9 Neuertheleſſe, if thou warne the wicked of his way to tourne from it, and he yet wyll not be turned from his way: then ſhal he dye in his iniquitie, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

10 Therfore O thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, yea ſay thus: If our offences and ſinnes lye vpon vs, and we be conſumed in them, (b) howe ſhould we then liue?

(b) Thus the wicked when they heare of Gods iudgementes for their ſinnes, deſpaire of his mercies and murmure. Ezec.xviii.c.

11 Tell them, as truely as I liue ſaith the Lorde God, * I haue no pleaſure in the death of the wicked, but much rather that the wicked tourne from his way, and lyue: Turne you, turne you from your wicked wayes, for why wil ye dye O ye of the houſe of Iſrael?

12 Therefore thou ſonne of man, tell the children of thy people, * the righteouſnes of the righteous ſhall not ſaue him in the day of his iniquitie: againe, the wickednes of the wicked ſhall not ouerthrow him for it in the day that he returneth from his wickednes: neither ſhall the righteous lyue for (c) it in the day that he ſinneth.

Ezec.xviii.c.

(c) Namely, his righteouſnes.

13 If I ſay vnto the righteous, he ſhall ſurely lyue, and ſo he truſt to his owne righteouſnes, and do ſinne: then ſhall his righteouſnes be no more thought vpon, but in his wickednes that he hath done, in it he ſhall dye.

14 Againe, if I ſay vnto the wicked, thou ſhalt ſurely dye: and ſo he turne from his ſinnes, and (d) do the thing that is lawfull and right,

(d) He rehearſeth al them of hypocriſie which pretend to forſake wickednes and yet declare not their repentance by their fruites: that is, in obeying gods commaundementes and by godly life.

15 Inſomuch that the ſame wicked man geueth the pledge againe, reſtoreth that he had take away by robbery, walketh in the commaundementes of lyfe, and doth none iniquitie: then ſhall he ſurely lyue and not dye.

16 None of the ſinnes that he hath committed ſhalbe mentioned vnto him: for inſomuch as he doth now the thing that is lawfull and right, he ſhall lyue,

Ezec xviii c.

17 And yet the children of thy people ſay, * the Way of the Lorde is not equall: but their owne way is rather vnequall.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteouſnes, and doth the thing that is wicked, he ſhall dye therein.

19 But if the wicked turne from his wickednes, doing the thing that is lawfull and right, he ſhall lyue therefore.

20 Yet ye ſay, the Way of the Lorde is not equall: O ye houſe of Iſrael, I wyll iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

21 In the twelfth yere, the firſt day of the tenth moneth of our (g) captiuitie, one which was eſcaped out of Hieruſalem, came vnto me and ſaid, The cite is ſmitten.

(g) when the Iewes were led awaye captiue with Ieconiah.

22 Nowe the (h) hande of the Lorde had ben vpon me the euening afore this man which was eſcaped came vnto me, and had (i) opened my mouth vntill the morning that he came to me: yea, my mouth was opened, ſo that I was no more dumbe.

(h) I was endued with the ſpirite of prophecie as Chap. 8. (i) Where by is ſignified that the miniſters of gods worde can not ſpeake till God geue them courage, and open their mouthes. Chap. 24. d.

23 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, and ſaide:

24 Thou ſonne of man, theſe that dwell in the waſted lande of Iſrael talke and ſay: (k) Abraham was but one man, and he had the lande in poſſeſſion: nowe are we many, and the lande is geuen vs to poſſeſſe alſo.

(k) Thus the wicked thinke their ſelues more worthy to enioy gods promiſe then the true ſeruantes of God, becauſe they were made ſtrong by God to liue where them, though they be not to vnderſtande to him. Leuit.19.d.

25 And therefore tel them, thus ſaith the Lorde God, * In the blood haue ye eaten, your eyes haue ye lift vp to idols, and haue ſhed blood: ſhall ye then haue the lande in poſſeſſion?

26 Ye (l) leane vpon your ſwordes, ye worke abhominations, euery one defileth his neighbours wyfe: and ſhall ye then poſſeſſe the lande?

(l) As they that are redy to ſhed blood.

27 Say thou thus vnto them, thus ſaith the lorde God: As truely as I liue, they that are in the deſolate places ſhall fall by the ſworde, and him that is vpon the fielde wyll I geue vnto the beaſtes to be deuoured: and they that be in the ſtrong holdes and dennes ſhall dye of the peſtilence.

28 For I wyll make the lande ſo deſolate and waſte, that the * pompe of her ſtrength ſhall ceaſſe: the mountaynes of Iſrael ſhalbe ſo waſte, that no man ſhall trauaile thereby.

Ezec.vii.d.

29 Then ſhall they knowe that I am the Lorde, when I make the land deſolate and waſte, becauſe of all their abhominations that they haue wrought.

30 And thou ſonne of man, the children of thy people that talke of thee by the waters and in the doores of their houſes, and ſpeake one to another, euery one to his brother, ſaying, Come I praye you, let vs heare what worde is gone foorth from the Lorde:

31 They come vnto thee as the people vſeth to come, and my people ſyt before thee, thee, and heare thy wordes, but they do not therafter: for in their mouthes they make a (m) iest of them, and their heart goeth after their couetousnes.

32 And lo, thou art vnto them as a (n) iesting song of one that hath a pleasaunt voyce, and can sing well: for they heare thy wordes, but do them not.

33 When this commeth to passe (lo it commeth:) then shall they knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

(m) This declareth that we ought to heare gods worde with such zeale and affection that we should not onely delight therein to heare it preached but also in all pointes obey it & not abuse the worde to our owne vsurpation, and make of the ministers as long as they were vsed to serue mens fantasies

(n) Or a song of pleasure and pleasure,

¶ The .xxxiiij. Chapter.

2 Against shepheardes that despise the flocke of Christe, and seeke their owne gaine. 7 The Lorde saith that he wyll visite his dispearsed flocke, and gather them together. 18 He reproueth the malice of certaine of the flocke. 23 He promiseth the true shephearde Christe, and with him peace.

1 AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, prophecie against the shepheardes of Israel, prophecie and speake vnto them: thus saith the Lorde God vnto the shepheardes, * Wo be vnto the (a) shepheardes of Israel that feede them selues: should not the shepheards feede the flockes?

(a) By the shepheardes, he meaneth the magistrates, priestes and prophetes.

3 Ye eate vp the (b) fat, ye clothe you with the woll, the best fed do ye slay: but the flocke do ye not feede.

(b) Ye seeke to enrich your selues by your ministracions and so spoile your people and cause them to hate the office and doctrine of a good pastor, who ought to feede and succour his flocke, & not to be cruell towardes them.

4 The (c) weake haue ye not strengthened, the sicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde together, the driuen away haue ye not brought againe, the lost haue ye not sought: but with force and cruelnes haue ye ruled them.

5 They are scattered without a shephearde, yea all the beastes of the fielde (d) deuour them, and they go astray.

(d) For lacke of good gouernement and doctrine they perishe.

6 My sheepe go wandring vpon al mountaines, and vpon euery hie hill, yea my flocke is scattered through all the face of the earth, and there is no man that seeketh or searcheth [after them.]

7 Therefore O ye shepheardes, heare the worde of the Lorde.

8 As truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, forsomuch as my sheepe are robbed, & deuoured of all the wylde beastes of the fielde, hauing no shepheard, and seeing that my shepheardes seke not my sheepe, but the shepheardes feede them selues, and feede not my sheepe:

9 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde O ye shepheardes,

10 Thus saith the Lorde God: beholde, I wyll vpon the shepheardes, and require my sheepe from their handes, and make them ceasse from feeding of the sheepe, yea the shepheardes shall feede them selues no more: for I wyll (e) deliuer my sheepe out of their mouthes, so that they shall not deuour them after this.

(e) By deliuering the couetous hirelinges & ministring true shepheardes.

11 For thus saith the Lorde God: behold, I euen I wyll loke to my sheepe my selfe, and seeke them out.

12 Lyke as a shephearde when he hath ben among the flocke, seeketh after the sheepe that are scattered abroade: euen so wyll I seeke after my sheepe, and deliuer them out of all places where they haue ben scattered, in the (f) cloudie and darke day.

(f) In the day of their affliction and misery and this promise is to comforte the churche in all banishment.

13 I wyll bring them out from the people, and gather them together out of the landes, I wyl bring them into their owne lande, and feede them vpon the mountaines of Israel, by the riuers and in all the places of the countrey.

14 I wyll feede them in right good pastures, and vpon the hie mountaines of Israel shall their foldes be: there shall they lye in a good folde, and in a fat pasture shall they feede, euen vpon the mountaines of Israel. C

15 I wyll feede my sheepe and bring them to their rest, saith the Lorde God.

16 Such as be lost, wyll I seeke: such as are driuen abay, wyll I bring againe: such as be broken, wyl I binde vp: such as be weake, wyll I make strong: such as be fat and strong, those wyll I roote out, and feede them with (g) iudgement.

(g) That is, by putting difference betweene the good and bad, & so geue to either as they deserue.

17 And as for you O my sheepe, saith the Lorde God, I wyll iudge betweene cattaile & cattaile, betweene the rammes and the goates.

(h) By good pasture and deepe waters is ment the pure worde of God and the administracion of iustice which they did not distribute to the poore as they had corrupted.

18 Seemeth it a smal thing to you to haue eaten vp the good (h) pasture, and to treade downe the residue of your pasture with your feete also: to drinke the deepe deepe waters, and to trouble the rest also with your feete?

19 Thus my sheepe must be faine to eate the thing that ye haue troden downe with your feete, and to drinke it that ye with your feete haue defiled.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God vnto them: Beholde I (euen) I will iudge betweene the fat cattaile and the leane cattaile, 21 Forsomuch as with side and shoulder ye haue shoued, and with your hornes haue pushed all the weake, till ye haue scattered them abroade.

22 I will saue my sheepe, so that they shal no more be spoyled, yea I will iudge betweene cattaile and cattaile.

23 I will set vp ouer them a shepheard, and he shall feede them, euen my seruaunt (1) Dauid, he shall feede them, & he shalbe their shepheard.

(1) Meaning Christe, of whom Dauid was a figure, as Hose. 3. a.

24 And I the Lorde will be their God, and my seruaunt Dauid shalbe their prince: euen I the Lorde haue spoken it.

Iere. 30. b.

25 Moreouer I will make a couenaunt of peace with them, & cause euil beastes to ceasse out of the lande: so that they may dwell (k) safely in the wildernesse,

(k) This declareth, that vnder Christe the sheepe should be truely defended from sinne and hel: and so be safely preserued in the church, where they should neuer perishe.

and sleepe in the woods.

26 And I will set them [as] a blessing euen rounde about my hill, and I will cause raine to come downe in due season, [and] there shalbe raine of blessing.

27 And the tree of the fielde shal yeelde her fruite, and the earth shall geue her encrease: they shalbe safe in their lande, and shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I haue broke the bondes of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the handes of those that serued themselues of them.

28 They shall no more be spoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beastes of the lande: but safely shall they dwel, and no man shall fray them.

29 And I will raise vp for them a (l) plant of renowme, and they shalbe no more "clungd with hunger in the lande, neither beare the reproche of the heathen any more.

(l) That is, the roote that shall come out of the roote of Iesse. Esa. xi. a. "Or clem bd, or hunger-stariien.

30 Thus shall they vnderstand that I the Lorde their God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lorde God:

31 And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture, are men: and I am your God, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The .xxxv. Chapter.

The destruction that shall come on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, because they troubled the people of the Lorde.

AGaine, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the mount "(a) Seir, prophecie against it.

Esai. 34. a. (a) where the Idumeans dwelt.

3 And say vnto it, thus saith the Lorde God: Beholde O thou mount Seir, I will vpon thee, I will reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waste and desolate will I make thee,

4 Thy cities will I laye waste, & thou shalt lye voyde, that thou mayst knowe howe that I am the Lorde,

5 Forsomuch as thou bearest an olde enmitie, and hast put the children of Israel to flight by the force of the sworde, in the time of their calamitie, [when their] iniquitie had an ende.

6 Therefore as truely as I liue, saith the Lorde God, I will prepare thee vnto blood, yea blood shall followe vpon thee, except thou (b) hate blood, euen blood shall persecute thee.

(b) Except thou repent the former cruelitie.

7 Thus will I make the mount Seir desolate and waste, and cut out from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth:

25

8 His mountaines will I fill with his slaine men, thy hils, valleys, and al thy riuers, the slaine with the sworde shall fall in them.

(c) To soiourne, as their former estate.

9 I will make thee a perpetuall wildernes, so that thy cities shal not (c) returne: that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

(d) Meaning Israel and Iuda.

10 And because thou hast saide, (d) both these nations, and both these landes must be myne, and we will haue them in possession, * whereas the Lorde was there:

Exo. 25. d.

11 Therefore as truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, I will euen do accor-din

dung to thy (e) wrath, and according to thyne enuying which thou hast vsed in thyne hatred against them: and I will make my selfe (f) knowen amongst them when I haue iudged thee.

12 Yea and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde haue heard all thy blasphemies, whiche thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying, They are made waste, & geuen vs to deuour.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your boastes against me, yea and multiplied your wordes against me, which I haue heard.

14 Thus saith the Lord God: To the ioy of all the worlde will I make thee waste.

15 And lyke as thou wast glad because the heritage of the house of Israel was destroyed, euen so will I do vnto thee: thou shalt be destroyed O mount Seir, and all Idumea wholly, and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

(e) Be thou hast done craftily, so shalt thou be cruelly handled.
(f) Shewing that when God punisheth the enemies, the godly ought to consider that he hath a care ouer them, & so praise his name: and also that the wicked rage as though there were no God, till they feele his hande to their destruction.

The .xxxvj. Chapter.

2 He promiseth to deliuer Israel from the Gentiles. 22 The benefites done vnto the Iewes, are to be ascribed to the mercie of God, not vnto their deseruinges. 26 God reneweth our heartes, that we may walke in his commaundementes.

AND thou sonne of man prophecie vnto the mountaines of Israel, and speake, heare the worde of the lord Exe.vi.a.
2 O ye mountaines of Israel,

Thus saith the Lord God: Because your (a) enemie hath saide vpon you aha, the (b) hie places of the worlde are now become ours in possession:

3 Prophecie therefore and speake, thus saith the Lorde God: For because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on euery side, that ye might be a possession vnto the residue of the gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the (c) lippes and tongues of men, and to the reproche of the people:

4 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaines of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God to the mountaines and hils, to the riuers and valleys, to the waste and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken, which are spoyled and had in derision on euery side, among the residue of the heathen:

5 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God: Surely in the fire of my gelousie haue I spoken against the residue of the gentiles, and against all Edom, Which haue (d) appointed my lande for their possession, Which also reioyced from their whole heart with a dispitefull stomake, to cast it out for a pray.

6 Prophecie therefore vpon the lande of Israel, and speake vnto the mountaines and hils, to the riuers and dales, thus saith the Lorde God: Behold, this haue I spoken in my gelousie and terrible wrath, because ye haue borne the (e) shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I haue (f) lyft vp my hande, surely the heathen that are about you, shall beare their shame.

8 But you, O mountaynes of Israel, ye shall (g) shoote out your braunches, and bring foorth your fruite to my people of Israel: for they are at hande to come.

9 Beholde I come vnto you, and vnto you will I turne my face, that ye may be tilled and sowen.

10 I will multiplie men vpon you, [euen] al the house of Israel wholly, the cities shalbe inhabited, and the decayed places shalbe repaired againe.

11 And I will multiplie vpon you man and beast, which shal encrease and bring fruite: and I will cause you to dwell after your olde estate, & be better (h) vnto you then at the beginning: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

12 Yea I will cause men to walke vpon (i) you, [euen] my people Israel, & they shall possesse (k) thee, and thou shalt be their inheritaunce, & thou shalt no more henceforth deprme them of [men]

13 Thus saith the lorde God, Forasmuch as they say vnto you, thou art an (l) eater vp of men, and a waster of thy people:

14 Therefore thou shalt eate no more men, neither destroy thy people any more, saith the Lorde God:

15 Neither

(a) That is, the Idumean.
(b) That is, the hilly countreys of Iuda.
(c) Ye are made a matter of talke and derision to all the worlde.
(d) They appointed with them selues to haue it, and therefore came with a wicked purpose against Hierusalem for this purpose.
(e) Ye haue borne laughing stocke vnto them.
(f) By making a long tempest, Chap.xx.a.
(g) God declareth his mercies and goodnes toward his church, who first preserueth him, euen while he destroyeth his enemies.
(h) Which was accomplished vnder Christe, to whom all these temporall deliuerances did direct the.
(i) That is, vpon the mountaines of Iuda.
(k) You, changing the number.
(l) Thus the enemies imputed as the reproche of the lande, which God did by the fumes of the people, according to his iust iudgemetes.

15 Neither wyll I cause men to heare in thee the shame of the heathē any more: neither shalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, nor cause thy folke to fall any more, saith the Lorde God.

16 Moreouer, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

17 O thou sonne of man, When the house of Israel dwelt vpon their owne grounde, they defiled them selues with their owne wayes and imaginations: so that in my sight, their way was lyke the vncleannes of a remoued woman.

18 Wherfore I powred my wrathful displeasure vpon them, because of the blood that they had shed in the lande, and because of their idols Wherewith they had defiled it:

19 I scattered them also among the heathen, so that they were strawed about in the landes: according to their wayes, & after their owne inuentions, so did I iudge them.

Esai.52.a. Rom.2.d.

20 And when they entred vnto the heathen whyther they went, *they polluted my holy name, When they saide of them, These are the people of God, & are gone out of his lande.

(m) And therefore would not suffer my name to be had in contempt, as the heathen would haue reproched me, if I had suffered my church to perishe

21 Then spared I my holy (m) name, which the house of Israel had dishonoured among the gentiles where they came.

(n) This excludeth from men all righteousnes and meanes to deserue any thing by, seeing that God referreth the whole to him selfe, and that onely for the glory of his holy name.

22 Therfore tel the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God: I (n) do not this for your sakes O house of Israel, but for my holy names sake Which ye dishonoured among the heathen Where ye came.

23 Therefore I wyll halowe my great name againe, Which among the gentiles is polluted, for ye your selues haue dishonoured it among them: & the gentiles shall know that I am the Lorde saith the Lorde God, When I shalbe sanctified in you before your eyes.

24 As for you, I wyll take you from among the heathen, and gather you together out of all countreys, and bring you againe into your owne lande.

(o) That is, his spirite, whereby he regenerateth vs. Esai.44.a. Ier.23.g.

25 Then wyll I sprincle cleane (o) water vpon you, and ye shalbe cleane: yea from all your vncleannes and from all your idols shall I cleanse you.

26 A *newe heart also wyll I geue you, and a newe spirite wyll I put into you: as for that stony heart I wyll take it out of your flesh, and geue you a fleshy heart.

27 I wyll geue my spirite among you, and cause you to walke in my cōmaundementes, and ye shall kepe my iudgementes and do them.

28 And so ye shall dwell in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: & ye shalbe my people, and I wil be your God.

29 I wyll deliuer you from all your vncleannes, I wyl call for the (p) corne, and wyll encrease it, and lay no famine vpon you.

(p) Under the abundance of ten wyll he conclude the spirituall graces.

30 I wil multiplie the fruites of the trees and the encrease of the fielde: so that ye shal receaue no more reproche of hunger among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your imaginations which were not good: so that ye shalbe (q) irksum in your owne eyes for your sinnes and abhominations.

(q) Ye shall come to true repentance, and thinke your selues vnworthy to be of the number of gods creatures for your sinnes sake.

32 But I wyl not do this for your sakes, saith the Lorde God, be ye sure of it: therefore O ye house of Israel, be ashamed and confounded of your owne wayes.

33 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde God, What time as I shal cleanse you from al your iniquities, then wil I make the cities to be inhabited againe, and the places that be decayed shalbe repaired.

34 The desolate lande shalbe tilled againe, Which afore time lay waste in the sight of al them that went by.

35 And they shal say, this waste lande was like the garden of Eden: and these waste and desolate and ruinous cities [were] strong [and] inhabited.

36 Then the residue of the heathen that lye rounde about you, shall knowe that I the Lord (r) repaire that was broken downe, and plant againe that that was made waste: euen I the Lord haue spoken it, and wyl do it in deede.

(r) She declareth that it ought not to be referred to the fabrique or creature of the earth, that any country is rich & abounding but onely to godly mercies, as his plagues & curses declare vpon the wicked by barrenes.

37 Thus saith the Lorde God: I wyll yet for this be sought of the house of Israel, to do it for them, I wyll multiplie them as a flocke of men, 38 Like as the holy flocke, and the flocke of Hierusalem are in the hie solempne feastes, so shall also the wasted cities be filled with flockes of men: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

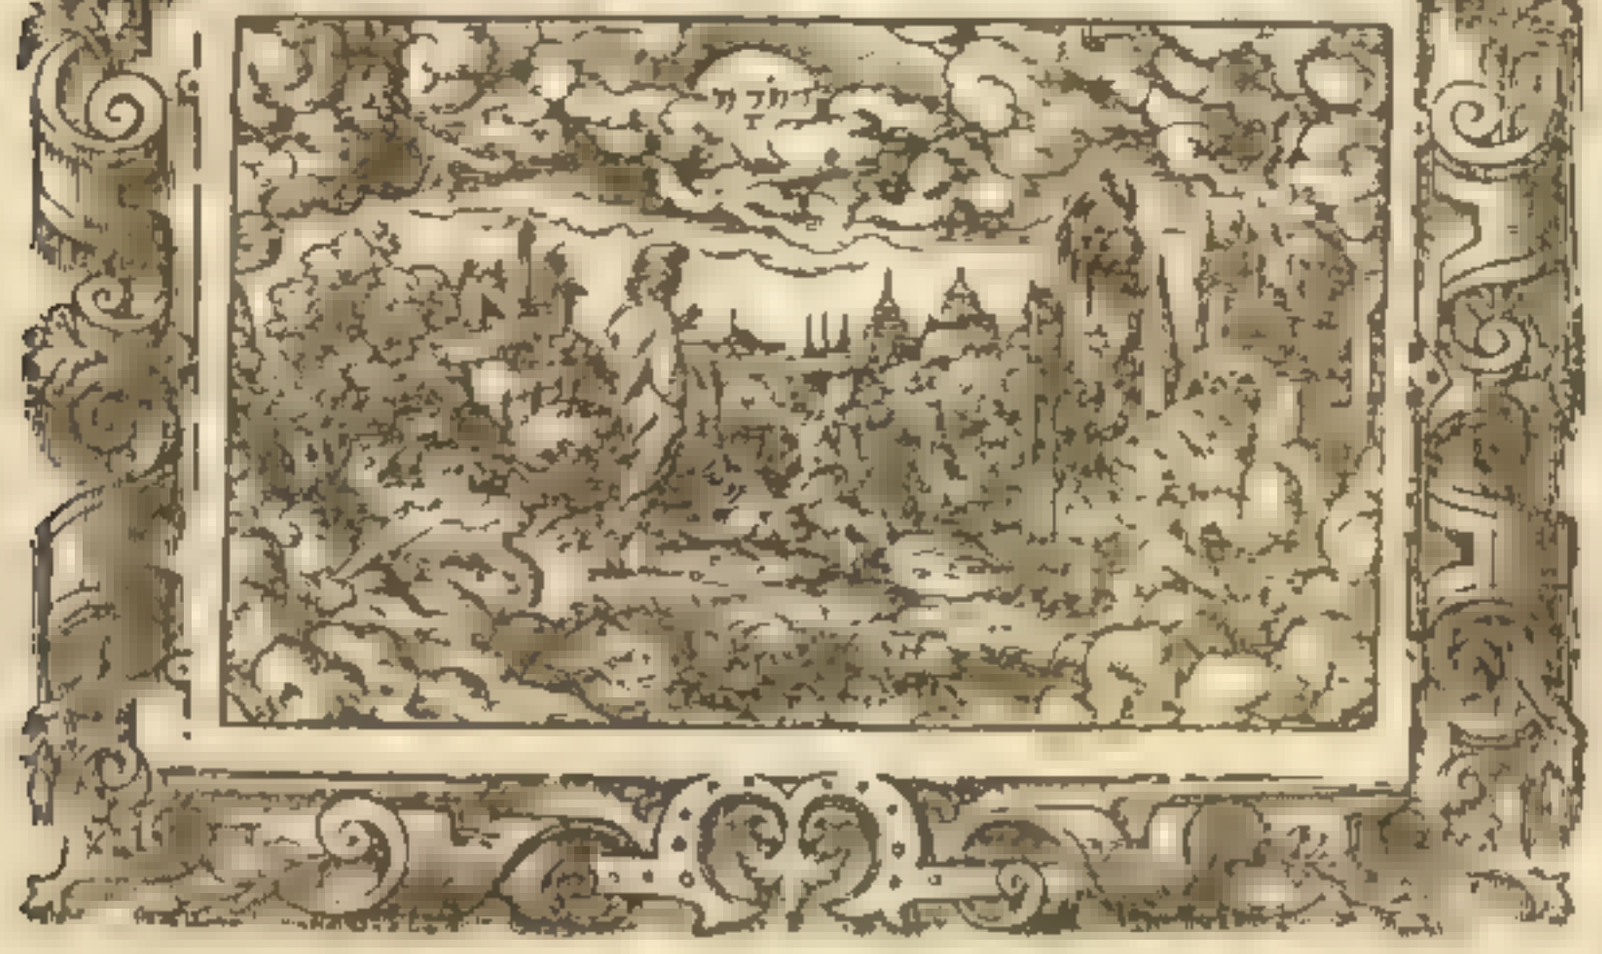
¶ The .xxxvij. Chapter.

He prophecieth the bringing againe of the people being in captiuitie. 16 He sheweth the vnion of the ten tribes with the two.



A 1 THe hande of the Lorde was vpon me, and caried me out in the spirite of the Lorde, and set me downe in the midst of a plaine fielde that was full of (a) bones.

(a) By this vision he prophecieth that the people of Israel shalbe restored, vpon he comparyth to bones of dead men: for as dye bones ferue without all hope of life againe, so the Israelites thought they shuld neuer returne into their coutrey, as appeareth by their wordes in the eleuenty verse Our bones are dryed, and our hope is gone &c.

2 And he led me rounde about by them, and beholde, there were very many in the open fielde, and lo [they were] very dye.

3 Then saide he vnto me: Thou sonne of man, thinkest thou these bones may liue againe: I aunswered, O Lorde God, thou knowest.

4 And he saide vnto me, Prophecie thou vpon these bones, & speake vnto them: Ye dye bones, heare the worde of the Lorde,

5 Thus saith the Lorde God vnto these bones: Beholde, I wyll cause breath to enter into you, that ye may lyue.

6 I wyll geue you sinowes, and make flesh growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with skinne, & so geue you breath, that ye may liue, and knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 So I prophecied as I was cõmaunded: and as I was prophecying, there was a noyse, and lo a great motion, so that the bones came neare together, bone to his bone.

8 Now when I had loked, behold they had sinowes, & flesh grewe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with skin: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then saide he vnto me: Thou sonne of man, prophecie toward the winde, prophecie & speake to the winde, thus saith the Lorde God: Come, O thou ayre from the foure (b) Windes, and blowe vpon these slaine, that they may lyue.

(b) By the foure windes he meaneth the fantastic and opinion of men that thinke the life of men when they departe is dissolued into the ayre, whereas in deede the spirite returneth to him that gaue it, to the Lorde, who is the beginne of Israhem, the recepticle of the faithfull. Neither ought any man to conclude hereupon that the soule of man is of the nature of ayre

10 So I prophecied as he had commaunded me: then came the breath into them, and they receaued lyfe, and stoode vp vpon their feete, a marueilous great armie.

11 Moreouer he said vnto me: Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: Behold, they say, Our bones are dryed vp, our hope is gone, and we are cleane cut of.

12 Therefore prophecie thou, and speake vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God: Beholde, I wyll open your graues O my people, and cause you to come vp out your sepulchres, and bring you into the lande of Israel againe.

of

13 So shal ye know that I am the Lord, when I open your graues O my people, & bring you out of your sepulchres.

14 My spirite also will I put in you, and ye shal liue, I will set you againe in your owne lande: and ye shall knowe that I the Lorde haue sayde it, and fulfilled it in deede, sayth the Lorde.

15 The word of the Lord came vnto me, saying:

16 Thou sonne of man, take one sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Juda and to the children of Israel his companions. Then take another sticke and write vpon it, Vnto Joseph the stocke of Ephraim, & to all the housholde of Israel his companions.

17 And ioyne thee them one to another into one sticke: and they shalbe as one in thy hande.

18 Now if the children of thy people speake vnto thee, saying: Wilt thou not shew vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answere, thus sayth the Lorde God: Beholde, I will take the stocke of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his felowes, and will put them with him, [euen] with the stocke of Juda, and make them one stocke, and they shalbe one in my hande.

20 And the sickes where vpon thou writest, shalt thou haue in thy hand, that they may see.

21 And thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God: Beholde, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen vnto whom they be gone, and will gather them together on euery side, and bring them againe into their owne lande.

22 Yea I will make one people of them in the land vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and one king shalbe king to them al: they shall no more be two peoples, neither be deuided from henceforth into two kingdomes. Ioan x.c.

23 They shall also defile them selues no more with their idoles and abhominations, and al their wicked doynges: I will saue them out of all their dwelling places wherin they haue sinned, and will so cleanse them, that they shalbe my people, and I will be their God.

24 Dauid my seruaunt shalbe their king, and they all shall haue one sheepheard only: they shall walke in my iudgementes, and my commaundementes shall they kepe, and fulfill them. Ffa. xl.h. Ier xxxij & chap 34.d Dan xi.c.

25 They shall dwell in the lande that I gaue vnto Jacob my seruaunt, wherin your fathers also haue dwelt, yea euen] in the same land shal they, their children, & their childers children dwell for euermore: and my seruaunt Dauid shalbe their prince for euer.

26 Moreouer, I will make a bonde of peace with them, which shalbe vnto them an euerlasting couenaunt: I will settle them also and multiplie them, my sanctuarie will I set among them for euermore.

27 My tabernacle shalbe with them: yea I will be their God, and they shalbe my people.

28 Thus the heathen also shal know that I the Lorde do sanctifie Israel, when my sanctuarie shalbe among them for euermore.

(a) That is, whē I do bring you out of these places and countrey where ye are captiues.

(b) Whereby signifieth the ioyning together of the two houses of Israel and Juda.

(c) That is the house of Israel.

The. xxxviii. Chapter.

1 He propheseth that Gog and Magog shall come with an appointed hoast into the land of promise. 12 Their intent. 17 He rehearseth that the comming of Gog was before prophecied of the prophetes. 21 The destruction of hym.

AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying:

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde Gog, the land of Magog, which is the chiefe prince at Mesech and Tubal: propheсie against him,

3 And say, thus sayth the Lorde God: O Gog, thou chiefe prince of Mesech and Tubal, beholde, I will vpon thee:

4 And I will turne thee backe, and put hookes in thy chawes, I will bring thee foorth and all thyne hoast, both horse and horsemen, all armed with all sortes of armour, a great multitude with speares and shieldes, all handling swordes.

5 They of Paras, of Cush, & Phut, with them [euen all hauing] shieldes and helmets. (a) The Persians Grecians & other of Ephraim.

(a) Which was a people that came of Magog the sonne of Japhet. Gen. 10.a Magog also here signifieth a certaine countrey, so that by these countreys which bed the gouernement of Grecia and Italy, he meaneth the principall enemyes of the church Apoc 20.b.

B 6 (c) Gomer and all his hoastes, the house of Togarma out of the north quarters and all his hoastes, yea and much people with thee.

(c) Gomer was Iapheths sonne, and Togarma the sonne of Gomer, and are thought to be they that inhabite in Asia minor.

7 Therfore prepare thee, set thy selfe in aray with all thy people that are come vnto thee by heapes, & be thou their defence.

8 After many dayes thou shalt be visited, and in the latter yeres thou shalt come into the lande that hath ben turned [and tost] with the swoorde, and gathered together againe out of many people vpon the mountaynes of Israel, which haue ben alwayes [subiect] to waste: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwell all safe.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come vp like a storme, as a cloude to couer the lande shalt thou be: thou with all thine hoastes, & a great multitude of people with thee.

(d) That is, to molest & trouble the churche.

10 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde God: At the same time shall thinges come into thy minde, so that thou shalt thinke (d) euyll thoughtes.

(e) Meaning Israel, which was had now ben destroyed and slain not yet beyng gathered again, but meaning hereby also the Empyre of the godly, who seke not so much to fortifie their churches by outward force, as to repose in the prouidence and goodnesse of God.

11 And say, I will vp to the lande of (e) vnwalled villages, I will go to them that be at rest, which dwell safely, all dwelling without walles, they haue neither barres nor gates:

12 To spoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hande vpon the desolate places that are [nowe] inhabited, & vpon that people that is gathered together from among the heathen, whiche haue gotten cattell and goodes, and dwell in the mids of the lande.

(f) One enemie shal smite another, because euery one shall thinke to haue the pray of the people of God.

13 Then shall Saba and Dedan, and the marchauntes of Tharsis with all their lions, say vnto thee: (f) Art thou come to spoyle a pray? hast thou gathered thy people together to take a bootie, to take away siluer and golde, to cary away cattel and good, and to haue a great pray?

(g) Shalt not thou espie time occasion to come against the church when they suspect nothing?

14 Therfore, O thou sonne of man, thou shalt prophecie and say vnto Gog, thus sayth the Lord God: In that day when my people Israel (g) dwelleth safe, shalt thou not knowe it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north partes, thou and much people with thee, which ride al vpon horses, [euen] a great multitude and a mightie armie.

16 Yea thou shalt come vpon my people of Israel, as a cloude to couer the lande: this shall come to passe in the (h) latter dayes, and I will bring thee vp into my land, that the heathen may knowe me, when I shalbe (i) sanctified in thee O Gog, before their eyes.

(h) Meaning in the last age, and from the comming of Christ vnto the end of the world.

(i) Signifying that god wilbe sanctified by maintayning his church & destroying his enemies. 2. Thess 3 c. and 37 b

17 Thus sayth the Lorde God: Art not thou he of whom I haue spoken in olde time (k) by the handes of my seruauntes the prophetes of Israel, which prophecied in those dayes and yeres, that I should bring thee vpon them?

(k) Wherby he declareth that none affliction can come to the church, wherof they haue not ben admonished afore time, to teach them to endure all thinges with more patience when they know that God hath so ordeyned.

18 At the same time when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Israel, sayth the Lorde God, shall myne indignation rise in my wrath:

19 For in my iealousie and fire of my wrath haue I spoken it, surely at that time ther shalbe a great shaking in the lande of Israel.

D

20 The very fishes in the sea, the foules in the ayre, the beastes of the fielde, and all that moue and crepe vpon the earth, and all the men that are vpon the earth, shall tremble at my presence: the hilles also shalbe turned vpside downe, the (l) staires shall fall, and all walles shall fall downe to the grounde.

(l) It meaneth whereby man should thinke to saue him selfe shal fayle, the authority in those dayes shalbe so great, and the enemies destruction shalbe so terrible.

21 I will call for a swoorde vpon (m) hym in all my mountaynes, sayth the Lorde God: so that euery mans swoorde shalbe vpon another.

(m) Against the people of Gog & Magog.

22 With pestilence and blood wil I pleade against him: stormie rayne and haylestones, fire and brimstone wil I cause to rayne vpon him and all his hoastes, yea and vpon all that great people that is with him.

Chap 14 b. and 17 b.

23 Thus will I be magnified, sanctified, and knowen in the eyes of many nations: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

The

The. xxxix. Chapter.

1 He sheweth the destruction of Gog and Magog. 11 The graue of Gog and his hoast. 17 He prophecieth that Gog and his companie shalbe deuoured of birdes and beastes. 23 Wherfore the house of Israel is wasted. 25 Their bringing againe from captiuitie is promised.

THerfore O thou sonne of man, prophecie against Gog, & speake, thus sayth the Lorde God: Behold O Gog, thou chiefe prince of Mesech and Tubal, I will vpon thee.

2 And I wil turne thee about, and I wil (a) prouoke thee forward, and cause thee to come vp from the northy partes, and bring thee vp to the mountaynes of Israel.

3 As for thy bow, I will smite it out of thy left hande, and cause thyne arrowes to fall out of thy right hande.

4 Thou with all thyne hoast, and all the people that is with thee, shall fall vpon the mountaynes of Israel: then will I geue thee vnto the (b) flockes of birdes (euen) to all fethered foules and beastes of the fielde, to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fal vpon the open fielde: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among those that sit so carelesse in the (c) Iles will I sende a fire, and they shall know that I am the Lorde.

7 I will make also the name of my holinesse to be knowen among my people of Israel, and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: but the very heathen also shall knowe that I am the Lord, the holy one of Israel.

8 Behold it is (d) come, and it is done, sayth the Lorde God: this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 They that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall go forth and (e) set fire vpon the weapons, and burne them, shieldes and speares, bowes & arowes, hand staues and (f) swordes, and they shal burne them with fire seuen yeres.

10 So that they shall els bring no wood from the fielde, neither hew downe any out of the wood: for with weapons shal they make their fire, they shall rob those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, sayth the Lorde God.

11 At the same time will I geue vnto Gog a place to be buried in Israel, euen the valley wherethrough men go towarde the east sea: those that trauayle thereby, shall (g) stop their noses, there shall Gog and all his multitute be buried, & it shalbe called the valley of the multitude of Gog.

12 Seuen monethes long shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the lande.

13 Yea all the people of the land shal burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorified, sayth the Lord God.

14 They shall chose out men to go continually thorowe the lande, to (h) burie as they passe through those that remayne vpon the ground, to cleanse it: after the end of seuen monethes, shall they make their searche.

15 And the trauaylers that passe thorowe the land, Where they see a mans bone, they shal set vp a token by it, til the dead buriers haue buried it also in the valley of the multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie shalbe called (i) Hamonah: thus shall they make the lande cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus sayth the Lord God: Speake vnto the birdes and all fethered foules, yea and to all the beastes of the fielde, Assemble you together, and come, gather you round about to my (k) sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, (euen) a great sacrifice vpon the mountaynes of Israel, that ye may eate flesh, and drinke blood.

18 Ye shall eate the flesh of the valiaunt, and drinke the blood of the princes of the land, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be all fed at Basan.

19 Ye shall eate the fat your belly full, and drinke blood till ye be drunken of my sacrifice, Which I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Ye shall fil you at my table with horses & horsemen, with the valiaunt and men of warre, sayth the Lorde God.

21 I wil set my glorie also among the gentiles, that all the heathen may see my iudgement that I haue executed, & my hand whiche I haue layde vpon them.

22 And the house of Israel shall knowe that I am the Lorde their God, from that day, and so forwarde.

23 And

(a) That is, I will encourage thee with clapping and stroking, as men do horses when they wil encourage them

(b) Whereby he signifieth that which is wont to befall in warre that the bodies of the slayne should be vnburied.

(c) That is, among all nations where the remnant of my people dwel, seme they neuer so farre separate

(d) That is, this plague is fully determined in my counsel, and can not be changed.

(e) After this destruction, shalbe such peace & tranquillitie that they shal needs no weapons of warre but burne them as with fire

(f) Or, staues.

(g) For the feare the holy land should be polluted, and partly by the corpses of Gods children of God that, cast vpon their enemies.

(h) That is, for the multitude of the people of Gog that should be slayne there.

(i) Hamonah

(k) As solemne sacrifices were common feastes to great multitudes of people assembled: so was this slaughter as a great sacrifice vnto beastes and birdes to feede vpon.

23 And the heathen shal know, that wheras the house of Israel was led into captiuitie, it was for their (a) wickednesse sake, because they offended me: for the which cause I hyd my face from them, & deliuered them into the handes of their enemies, that they might all be slayne with the swoorde.

(a) The heathen shall know that they ouercame not my people by their owne strength, neither yet by the weakenesse of myne arme, but that that was for my people sinnes.

24 According to their vncleanenesse, & according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, & hid my face frō them.

25 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God: Nowe will I bring againe the captiues of Jacob, and haue mercie vpon the whole house of Israel, and be ielous for my holy names sake,

26 After that they haue borne their shame, and all their transgression, wherby they haue transgressed against me when they dwelt safely in their lande, and no man to feare them:

27 And when I haue brought them againe from among the people, When I haue gathered them together out of their enemies landes, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

28 Then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde their God, which caused them to be led into captiuitie among the heathen, but haue gathered them againe into their owne land, and not left one of them any more there. E

29 After that will I hyde my face no more from them, but will powre out my spirite vpon the house of Israel, sayth the Lorde God.

The.xl. Chapter.

1 The restoring of the cities and of the temple that was to come, is shewed vnto the prophete.

(a) The Iewish count ted the beginning of the yere after two sortes for ceremonies they began to count vi Nisan: and for their other affaires in September: so by this is to be vnderstande of September.

A 1 IN the fyue and twentie yere of our captiuitie, in the (a) beginning of the yere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is the fourtenth yere after the citie was smitten, the selfe same day came the hand of the Lorde vpon me, & brought me thyther:

2 Euen into the land of Israel brought he me in the visions of god, & set me downe vpon a marueylous hye mountayne, whereupon there was as it had ben the buylding of a citie towarde the south.

(b) Which like seemeth an angell in forme of a man that came to measure out this buylding.

3 Thyther he caried me, and behold there was a (b) man, whose similitude was like brasse, whiche had a twisted line of flax in his hand, and a cane to measure with: and he stoode in the dooze.

(c) By this and the like hebrew phrases he exhorteth him to behold, & marke diligently and a thing worthy noting (o. which compassed the inner hal of Sion, & the top or crest of the temple was buylded

4 And that man sayde vnto me: Thou sonne of man, marke well with thyne (c) eyes, hearken to with thyne eares, and fasten it in thy heart, whatsoeuer I shal shewe thee: for to the intent that they might be shewed thee, therfore art thou brought hyther, and whatsoeuer thou seest, thou shalt certifie the house of Israel therof.

(d) The cubite which he speaketh of, was larger then the common cubite by a hāde breadth: that is, foure inches, and it was called the holy cubite: the common cubit he countepaced but fiue hand breadth, and this see Ezechiel. 43.

5 Behold, there was a wall on the (d) outside of the house, rounde about: the cane to measure with that he had in his hande, was sixe cubites long by the (e) cubite & a hande breadth: So he measured the breadth of the building with one cane, and the heyght with one cane.

6 Then came he to the gate which loketh toward the east, and went vp the staires therof, and measured the post of the gate one cane broade, and the other post of the gate one cane broade.

7 And [euery] chamber was one cane long and one cane broade, and betweene the chambers were fiue cubites: and the post of the gate by the porche of the gate within, was one cane. 23

8 He measured also the porche of the gate within one cane.

9 Then measured he the porche of the gate eyght cubites: & the "pentises therof two cubites, and the porche of the gate [was] inwarde. "Or, fronts

10 And the chambers of the gate eastward, were three on this side, & three on that side: they three were of one measure, & the pentises had one measure on this side, and one measure on that side.

11 After this, he measured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, and the heyght of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The space also before the chambers was one cubite [on this side] and the space one cubite on that side: & the chambers sixe cubites on this side, and sixe cubites on that side.

13 He measured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his owne roofe the breadth of fiue and twentie cubites: dooze against dooze.

14 He made "frontes also of threescore cubites, [euen] vnto the front of the court rounde about the gate. "Or, pentises. E

15 And from the forefront of the entrie of the gate, vnto the forefront of the gate within [were] fiftie cubites.

16 And

16 And there were narowe windowes in the chambers, and in the frontes within the gate rounde about: & so in the arches: and the windowes [went] rounde about within, and vpon the frontes were paulme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, where as were chambers, and a pauement made for the court rounde about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And the pauement [was] by the side of the gates, ouer against the length of the gates: and the pauement [was] beneath.

19 Then he measured the breadth frō the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, a hundreth cubites eastwarde and northwarde.

20 And the gate in the outward court that loked toward the north, measured he after the length and breadth therof.

21 And the chambers therof [were] three on this side, and three on that side: and the frontes therof, and the arches therof were after the measure of the (e) first gate: the length thereof was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

22 And their windowes and their arches with their paulme trees [were] after the measure of the gate that loketh toward the east: and the goyng vp vnto it [had] seuen steppes, and the arches thereof [were] before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court [stoode] ouer against the gate towarde the north and toward the east, and he measured from gate to gate a hundreth cubites.

24 After that he brought me towarde the south, where there stoode a gate towarde the south, and he measured the frontes therof and the arches therof according to those measures.

25 And [there were] windowes in it, and in the arches therof round about like these windowes: the length [was] fiftie cubites, & the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

26 And [there were] seuen steppes at the goyng vp to it, and the arches therof before them: & it had paulme trees, one on this side, and an other on that side, vpon the front therof.

27 And [there was] a gate in the inner court towarde the south, and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundreth cubites.

28 So he brought me into the inner court thorowe the south gate, and he measured the south gate according to those measures. ℭ

29 And the chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches therof, according to these measures, and windowes in it: and in the arches therof round about, fiftie cubites long, and fiue and twentie cubites broade.

30 And the arches round about [were] fiue and twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites broade.

31 And the arches therof [were] toward the vtter court, and paulme trees vpon the frontes therof, & the goyng vp to it [had] eyght steppes.

32 ℭ He brought me also into the inmost court toward the east, and measured the gate according to those measures.

33 And the chambers therof, and frontes therof, and the arches therof [were] according to these measures, & there were windowes therin, and in the arches therof round about: it [was] fiftie cubites long, & fiue and twentie cubites broade.

34 And the arches therof [were] towarde the vtter court, and paulme trees vpon the frontes therof on this side and on that side, & the goyng vp to it had eyght steppes.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, & measured it according to those measures. ℑ

36 The chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches therof, and [there were] windowes therin rounde about: and the length [was] fiftie cubites, & the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

37 And the frontes therof [were] towarde the vtter court, and paulme trees [were] vpon the frontes therof on this side, and on that side, and the goyng vp to it had eyght steppes.

38 And a chamber and the entrie therof [was] vnder the frōtes of the gates: there they washed the (g) burnt offerynges.

39 And in the porche of the gate stoode two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, vpon the whiche they slue the burnt offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering.

40 And at the side without the steppes at the entrie of the north gate [stoode] two tables, and on the other side which was at the porche of the gate [were] two tables.

(e) That is, the east gate, as appeareth in the next verse.

(g) That is, the vnwarden or entrey of the sacrifice that was offered for a burnt offering.

41 Foure tables were on this side, and foure on that side by the side of the gate, [euen] eyght tables, wherevpon they slue [their sacrifices.]

42 And the foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offring, of a cubite & a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and one cubite hye, wherevpon were layde the instrumentes wherwith they slue the burnt offring, and the sacrifice.

43 And within there were hookes one hand breadth [long] fastened rounde about, and vpon the tables was the offering flesh.

44 And without the inner gate [were] the chambers of the singers in the inwarde court, whiche was at the side of the north gate, and their prospect was towarde the south: and one was at the side of the east gate, hauing the prospect towarde the north.

45 And he sayde vnto me: This chamber, whose prospect is towarde the south, [is] for the priestes that haue charge to kepe the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is towarde the north [is] for the priestes that haue charge to kepe the aulter: these are the sonnes of Sadoc, which of the sonnes of Leui come neare to the Lorde, to minister vnto him.

47 So he measured the court, which had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, [euen] foure square: and the aulter stoode before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the (b) house, and measured the porche fiue cubites on this side, and fiue cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, and three cubites on that side.

(b) That is, of the temple.

49 The (i) length of the porche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by steps went men vp to it: by the frontes also were pillers, one on this side, and another on that side.

(i) From north to south.

The. xli. Chapter.

1 The disposition and device of building againe the temple, and of the other thinges therto belonging.

A 1 After this he brought me to the temple, and measured the frontes sixe cubites broade on the one side, and sixe cubites broade on the other side, [which was] the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 The breadth of the dooze was ten cubites, and the sides of the dooze [were] fiue cubites on the one side and fiue cubites on the other syde, and he measured the length (a) therof fourtie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites.

(a) Of the temple from the dooze to the most holy place.

3 Then went he in & measured the front of the dooze two cubites: but the dooze it selfe was sixe cubites, and the breadth on the other side of the dooze was seuen cubites.

4 He measured the length therof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites before the temple. And he said vnto me, This is the most holy [place.]

5 He measured also the wall of the house sixe cubites, and the breadth of a chamber foure cubites round about the house on enery side.

6 And the chambers were chamber vpon chamber, three and thirtie in order: and they entred the wall whiche was of the house for the chambers rounde about, that they might be fastened, and not be fastened in the wall of the house.

7 Ther was an enlarging, and a winding about, mounting still vpwarde to the chãbers: for the staire of the house was mounting still vpward round about the house, therfore the house was larger vpwarde: so they went vp from the lowest [chamber] to the highest by the midst. 13

8 And I saw the house hye round about: the foundatiõs of the chambers [were a] full cane of sixe cubites (b) vp to the armeholes.

(b) That is, great and of the largest size.

9 The thickenesse of the wall which was for the chamber without [was] fiue cubites, and that whiche remayned was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wydenesse of twentie cubites rounde about the house on euery side.

11 And the doores of the chambers were towarde the (n) place that remayned, one dooze towarde the north, and another towarde the south: & the breadth of the place that remayned was fiue cubites rounde about.

(n) Or, voyde space.

12 Now

12 Now the buylding that was before the separate place at the end towarde the west [was] seuentie cubites broade: and the wall of the buylding was fyue cubites thicke round about, and the length nynetie cubites.

13 So he measured the house, which was a hundred cubites long, and the separate place and the buylding with the walles were a hundred cubites long also.

14 The breadth also of the forefront of the house and of the separate place towarde the east, was a hundred cubites.

15 And he measured the length of the buylding ouer against the separate place which was behynde it, and the chambers on the one side & on the other side a hundreth cubites, with the temple within, and the porches of the court.

16 The doore postes, and the narow windowes, & the chambers round about, on three sides ouer against the doore, seeled with wood round about, and from the ground vp to the windowes: and the windowes themselues were seeled.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the house within and without, and vpon euery wall rounde about within and without, [take be] measure.

(b) That is, Cherubins and paulme trees were graued and cutted in the walles. 18 And it was made with (b) Cherubims and paulme trees, so that a paulme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub, and euery Cherub had two faces.

19 So that the face of a man was toward the paulme tree on the one side, and the face of a lion towarde the paulme tree on the other side: [thus] was it made through all the house rounde about.

20 From the ground vnto aboue the doore were Cherubims & paulme trees made: and [thus was] the wall of the temple.

21 The postes of the temple were foure squared, and the fashion of the sanctuarie was (c) appearaunce lyke appearaunce.

(c) That is, the doore postes or cheekes of the sanctuarie, were like the doore cheekes of the temple.

22 The aulter of wood was three cubites hye, and two cubites long: the corners, the length, and the walles thereof were of wood. And he sayd vnto me, This is the table that shalbe before the Lorde.

23 The temple and the holiest of all had either of them two doores.

24 And the doores had two (f) doores [a peece, euen] two folding doores, two for the one doore, and two doores for the other.

(f) That is, two leaues, one on the one side and the other on the other side, or either of the doores.

25 And vpon the doores of the temple, there were made Cherubims & paulme trees, lyke as was made vpon the walles: & thicke beames vpon the forefront of the porche without.

26 And [there were] narow windowes and paulme trees on the one side and on the other side, by the sides of the porche and vpon the sides of the house, and thicke beames.

The. xlii. Chapter.

1 Of the chambers of the temple for the priestes, and the holy thinges.

A 1 Then led he me into the vtter court by the way towarde the north, and he brought me into the chamber that [was] ouer against the separate place, whiche [was] before the buylding towarde the north.

2 Before the length of a hundred cubites [was] the north doore: and the breadth [was] fiftie cubites.

3 Ouer against the twentie cubites, which were for the inner court, and ouer against the pauement, which was for the vtter court, [was] chamber against chamber, three [orders.]

4 And before the chambers, ther was a walking place of ten cubites wyde inwarde, the way of one cubite: and their doores towarde the north.

5 Thus the vpper chambers were alway narower: for those chambers [seemed] to eate vp these, [to wit] the lower and the middlemer of the buylding.

6 For they were in three orders, but had no pillers as the pillers of the courtes: therfore were they smaller then the nethermost and the middlemost [to reckon] from the grounde.

7 And the wall that was without ouer against the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length therof was fiftie cubits. 25

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the vtter court was fyftie cubites: and lo, before the temple was a hundred cubites.

9 And vnder these chambers [was] the entrie from the east, as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court.

10 In the thicknesse of the wall of the court towarde the east before the separate place, and before the building of the chambers.

11 And the way before them after the appearaunce of the chambers which were toward the north, as their length, so was their breadth: and all their entries [were] according to their fashion, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doores of the chambers that were toward the south, [was] a doore in the head of the way, [euen] the way directly before the wall towarde the east, as one entreth.

13 Then sayd he vnto me: The chambers toward the north, and the chambers towarde the south, which are before the separate place, those be holy chambers, Wherin the priestes that (a) approche vnto the Lorde must eate the most holy thinges, & there must they lay the most holy thinges, and the meate offring, and sinne offering, and trespasse offering: for it is a holy place.

(a) That is, which execute the priestes office, as more plainly is declared in the next chapter folowing vers. 19.

¶ 14 When the priestes come therein, they shall not go out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they shall lay vp their garmentes wherin they minister, for they are holy: & shall put on (b) other garmentes, and so shall approche to those which are for the people.

(b) That is, their common apparel which they vse among the people, and as some say, such as the common people vse.

15 Now when he had finished the measuring of the house within, he led me forth toward the gate whose prospect is towarde the east, and he measured it rounde about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring cane fiue hundred canes, [euen] with the measuring cane round about.

17 And he measured the north side fyue hundred canes, [euen] with the measuring cane round about.

18 The south side also measured he fiue hundred canes, by the measuring cane.

19 He turned about [also] to the West side, and measured fiue hundred canes, by the measuring cane.

20 So he measured it by the foure sides: it had a wall round about fyue hundred canes long, and fiue hundred broade, to make a separation betweene the (c) sanctuarie, and the prophane place.

(c) That is, betweene the temple & the citie, which in respect of the sanctuarie and temple was counted prophane.

The .xliii. Chapter.

1 He seeth the glorie of God going into the temple, from whence it had before departed. 7 He mencioneth the idolatrie of the children of Israel, for the which they were consumed and brought to naught. 10 He is commaunded to call them againe to repentaunce.

1 AFter he brought me to the gate [euen] the gate that turneth towarde the east:

2 And beholde, then came the glorie of the God of Israel from out of the east, whose voyce was lyke a great noyse of waters, and the earth was lightened with his glorie.

3 And *according to the appearaunce of the vision which I saw, [euen] according to the vision which I sawe (a) when I came to destroy the citie: and the visions were like the visions whiche I sawe by the riuer Chebar, & I fell vpon my face.

*Ezec.ix.a.

(a) When I prophecied the destruction of the citie by the Chaldeans.

4 And the (b) glorie of the Lorde came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is towarde the east.

(b) Whiche was departed from it.chap.10. and 11.

5 So a Winde toke me vp, and brought me into the innermer court: and behold, the house was full of the glorie of the Lorde.

6 And I heard one speaking vnto me out of the house, & there stoode a man by me,

7 And he sayd vnto me: O thou sonne of man, this roome is my seate, & the place of my foote steppes, Wheras I will dwel among the children of Israel for euermore: so that the house of Israel shal no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kinges therowe their whoredome, and therowe the dead bodies of their (c) kinges [in] their hye places.

8 Albeit they haue set their threcholdes by my threcholdes, and their postes by my postes, and a wal betwixt me and them, yet haue they defiled my holy name with their abominations that they haue committed: Wherfore I haue consumed them in my wrath.

(c) He alludeth to Manasses, who were buried in their gardens neare the temple, and there him erected his monumentes to them selues.

9 But nowe let them put away their whoredome, and the dead bodies of their kinges out of my sight, and I will dwel among them for euermore.

10 Therfore O thou sonne of man, shewe thou the house of Israel this house, that they may be ashamed of their wickednesse, & measure them selues an example therat.

11 And

11 And if they be ashamed of all their workes, then shew them the fourme of the house and patterne thereof, the going out, the comming in, all the maner therof, yea all the ordinaunces thereof, the figures, and all the lawes thereof, and write it in their sight, that they may kepe the whole fashion thereof, and all the ordinaunces thereof, and do them.
(a) Or, The description. 12 This is the (a) lawe of the house: Upon the top of the mount, shall all the limits thereof be, rounde about the most holy place: lo, this is the lawe of the house.
13 And these are the measures of the aulter in cubites: the cubite is a cubite and a hande breadth, the botome [shalbe] a cu-bite, and the breadth a cubite, & the border therof by the edge thereof rounde about was one span, and this [shalbe] the height of the aulter.
¶ 14 And from the bottome vpon the ground vnto the lower peece [shalbe] two cubites, and the breadth one cubite: and from the litle peece to the great peece [shalbe] foure cubites, & the breadth one cubite.
15 The aulter was foure cubites hie, and from the aulter vpwarde stoode foure hornes.
16 And the aulter was twelue cubites long, and twelue cubites broade, square in the foure corners thereof.
17 The frame of the aulter [shalbe] fourteene cubites long, and fourteene broade in the foure square corners thereof, and the border about it shalbe halfe a cubite, and the bottome thereof [shalbe] a cubite about, and the steps thereof [shalbe] turned toward the east.
18 And he saide vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lorde God: These are the ordinaunces of the aulter, in the day when it is made, to offer burnt offeringes thereupon, & to sprincle blood thereupon.
19 And thou shalt geue to the priestes, to the Leuites that be of the seede of Sa-doc, and approche vnto me saith the ¶ Lord God to minister vnto me, a young bullocke for a sinne offering.
20 And thou shalt take of the blood ther-of, & put it on the foure hornes of it, and on the foure corners of the seame, and vpon the border rounde about: thus shalt thou cleanse it, and purge it.
21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offering, and burne him in the ap-poynted place without the sanctuary.
22 The seconde day, take a goate bucke without blemishe for a sinne offering, to cleanse the aulter withal, like as it was cleansed with the bullocke.
23 Now when thou hast made an ende of cleansing it, then offer a young bullocke without blemishe, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemishe also.
24 Offer them before the Lorde, and let the priestes cast salt therupon, and geue them so vnto the Lorde for a burnt offering.
25 Seuen dayes shalt thou prepare euc-ry day a goate bucke for sinne, a young bullocke and a ramme of the flocke, both without blemishe shall they prepare.
26 Seuen dayes shall they reconcile and cleanse the aulter, and (c) fill the place ¶ thereof. (c) Or, consecrate it.
27 When these dayes are expired, then vp-on the eight day & so forth, the priestes shall make your burnt offrunges, and peace offrunges vpon the aulter: so I will accept you, saith the Lorde God.

The .xliiij. Chapter.

1 He sheweth what doore of the temple is shut. 6 He is commaunded to vpbraide the people with their offence. 9 who are to be admitted to the seruice of the temple, and who to be refused. 15 He sheweth what priestes he would haue admitted into the holy place, and also their office.

AFter this, he brought me againe to the outward gate of the sanctuarie on the east side,
and that was shut.
2 Then saide the Lorde
vnto me: This gate
shalbe still (a) shut and not opened, neither shall any man go through it: for the Lorde God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shalbe shut.
3 It is for the prince, the prince him selfe shal sit in it to eate bread before the lord:
he shal enter by the way of the porche of that gate, and shal go out by the way of the same.
4 Then brought he me toward the north gate before the house: and as I loked, behoilde the glory of the Lorde filled the house of the Lorde, and I fell vpon my face.

5 So the Lorde spake vnto me: O thou sonne of man, set thyne heart, and behold with thyne eyes, and heare with thyne eares al that I say vnto thee concerning all the ordinaunces of the house of the Lorde, and all the lawes thereof, and marke well the entring in of the house, with euery going foorth of the sanctuarie.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious (euen) to the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God: O house of Israel, ye haue inough of al your abhominations.

B 7 Seeing ye haue brought into my sanctuary (b) straungers hauing vncircumcized heartes and vncircumcized flesh, to be in my sanctuarie to pollute my house, when ye offer my bread, fat, and blood, and they haue broken my couenaunt because of all your abhominations:

(b) For they had brought idolatrie and other couetousnes, to teach in their sanctuarie Ezech. 23.g.

8 And ye haue not kept the (c) ordinaunces of my holy thinges, and ye haue set keepers to kepe my sanctuarie (d) for you.

(c) Ye haue not offred vnto me as ye ought to my lawe. (d) In your place.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God: Of al the straungers that dwell among the children of Israel, no straunger vncircumcized in heart, nor vncircumcized in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuarie.

10 But the Leuites that went backe from me when Israel went astraye, which strayed from me after their idols, (e) shal beare their iniquitie:

(e) That is, the Leuites which had committed idolatrie were put from their dignitie, and could not be restored into the priestes office, although they had ben of the house of Aaron, but must serue in the inferior offices as to watch, and to kepe the doores. 4. Reg. 23.b.

11 And they shalbe ministers in my sanctuary, and kepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shall slay the burnt offeringes, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shal stand before them to serue them.

12 Because they serued before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie: therefore haue I lift vp my hande against them, saith the Lorde God, and they shal beare their iniquitie.

C 13 And they shall not come neare vnto me to do the office of a priest vnto me, neither shall they come neare vnto any of myne holy thinges in the most holy place: but they shall beare their owne shame and abhominations which they haue done.

14 And I wyll make them kepers of the watch of the house for all the seruice therof, & for al that shalbe done therin.

15 But the priestes, the Leuites, the sonnes of Sadoc that (f) kept the charge of my sanctuarie when the children of Israel strayed from me, shal come to me to do me seruice, to stand before me, and to offer me the fat and the blood, saith the Lorde God.

(f) Which obserued the law of God and fled not to idolatrie.

16 They shall go into my sanctuarie, and approche vnto my table to do me seruice, and they shall kepe my charge.

17 Now when they go in at the gates of the innermer court, they shal put on linnen clothes, so that no woollen come vpon them while they do seruice vnder the gates of the innermer court, and within.

¶ The .xlv. Chapter.

1 Out of all the lande of promise are there separated foure portions, of which the first is geuen to the priestes and to the temple, the seconde to the Leuites, the third to the citie, the fourth to the prince. 9 An exhortation to the heades of Israel. 10 Of iust waightes and measures. 15 Of the first fruites.

1 When ye deuide the land by the lot for inheritaunce, ye shall offer an oblation to the Lorde, a holy (a) portion of the lande, twelue and fiue thousand canes long, and ten thousand broade: this shalbe holy in all the borders thereof rounde about.

(a) Of all the lande of Israel, the Lorde requireth onely this portiō, for the temple and for the priestes, for the citie & for the prince.

2 Of this part there shall belong vnto the sanctuarie fiue hundred cubites (in length) with fiue hundred (in breadth) square roumde about: and fiftie cubites rounde about for the suburbes.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure, [namely] of the length of twentie & fiue thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shalbe the sanctuarie and the most holy place.

4 That holy portion of the lande shall parteyne vnto the priestes which do seruice in the sanctuarie, which come neare to serue the Lorde: and it shalbe vnto them a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuarie.

5 And in the twentie and fiue thousand length, and ten thousand breadth, shall the Leuites that minister in the house haue their possession for twentie chambers.

6 Ye shal geue also vnto the citie a possession of fiue thousand canes broade, and twentie and fiue thousand long, ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, that shalbe for the whole house of Israel.

7 And [a portion shalbe] for the prince on this side and on that side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the citie, [euen] before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possessiō of the citie, from the west corner westwarde, & from the east corner eastwarde: and the length shalbe by one of the portions, from the west border vnto the east border.

8 In this lande shalbe his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppresse my people, and [the rest] of the lande shall they geue to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

(b) The prophete sheweth that the heades must be first reformed, before any good order can be established among the people.

9 Thus saith the Lorde God, (b) Let it suffise you O ye princes of Israel: leaue of crueltie and oppression, and execute iudgement and iustice: take away your exactions from my people, saith the lord God.

10 Ye shall haue a true Ballaunce, a true (c) Ephah, and a true Bath.

(c) Ephah & Bath were both of one quantitie, for the Ephah conteined in drie thinges, that the Bath did in licour. Leuit.v.b. Exo.30.c. Leui.27.d. Nume.18.g.

11 The Ephah and the Bath shalbe alyke: one Bath shall containe the tenth parte of an Homer, and an Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equalitie thereof shalbe after the Homer.

12 *The Sicle maketh twentie Gerahs: & twentie Sicles, and (d) twentie & fiue, and fifteene Sicles make a Maneh.

(d) That is, the ccc. sicles in the weight of the Sanctuarie for the ioynder the crowne parted to a Maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixt part of an Ephah out of an Homer of Wheate, and the sixt part of an Ephah out of an Homer of barlye.

14 Concerning the ordinaunces of the oyle, [euen] of the Bath of oyle, [ye shall offer] the tenth part of a Bath out of the Cor: ten Bathes [shalbe] a Homer, because ten Bathes [fill] a Homer.

15 And one lambe from two hundred sheepe out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a meate offring, burnt offring, and peace offring, to reconcile them, saith the Lorde God.

16 All the people of the lande shall geue this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 Againe,

17 Againe, it shalbe the princes part to offer burnt offringes, meate offringes, and Wine offringes, in the holy dayes, newe moones, Sabbathes, & in all the hie feastes of the house of Israel: he shal prepare the sinne offring, meate offring, burnt offring, and peace offring, to reconcile the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lorde God: The first day of the first (c) moneth, thou shalt take a young bullocke without blemishe, and cleanse the sanctuarie.

(c) Which was Nisan, containing part of March and part of April.

19 So the priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offring, and put it vpon the postes of the house, & vpon the foure corners of the frame of the aulter, & vpon the postes of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thus shalt thou do also the seuenth day of the moneth for such as haue sinned of ignorance, or being deceaued, to reconcile the house withall.

Exo 12 c. Leui xvi a. Deu. xvi a.

21 * Upon the fourteenth day of the first moneth, ye shall haue the passouer, a feast of seuen dayes, and ye shall eate vnleauened bread.

22 Upon the same day shal the prince prepare for him selfe and all the people of the lande a bullocke for a sinne offring.

23 And in the seuen dayes of the feast, he shall make a burnt offring to the Lord, [euen] of seuen bullockes & seuē rammes without blemishe dayly, for seuen dayes, and a hee goate dayly for a sinne offring.

24 And he shall prepare a meate offering of an Ephah for a bullocke, & an Ephah for a ramme, and a (d) Hin of oyle for an Ephah.

(d) Reade Exo 29.g.

25 In the seuenth [moneth] in the fifteenth day of the moneth on the feast, he shall do according vnto these for seuen dayes: according to the sinne offering, according to the burnt offring, and according to the meate offring, and according to the oyle.

The .xlvj. Chapter.

1 The sacrifice of the Sabbathes, and of the newe Moones, 8 Through which doores they must go in, or come out of the temple.

Thus saith the Lorde God: The gate of the inner court towarde the east shalbe shut the sixe working dayes: but in the Sabbath & in the day of the newe moone it shalbe opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porche of the gate without, and shall stande by the poste of the gate: and the priestes shal make his burnt offring, and his peace offringes, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate, & go forth: and the gate shall not be shut till the euening.

3 On the same maner shall the people of the lande also do their worship before the Lorde, at the doore of this gate vpon the Sabbathes, and newe moones.

4 The burnt offring that the prince shal bring vnto the lorde vpon the Sabbath, shalbe sixe lambes without blemish, and a ramme without blemishe.

5 And the meate offring shalbe an Ephah for a ramme, and the meate offring for the lambes a (a) gift of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

(a) That is, as much as he will.

6 In the day of the newe moneth, it shalbe a young bullocke without blemishe, and sixe lambes, and a ramme also without blemishe.

7 With the bullocke he shall geue an Ephah, & with the ramme an Ephah also for a meate offring: but to the lambes (b) according as his hande shal take, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah. 25

(b) According to his habilitie.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porche of that gate: he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the lande come before the Lorde in the hie solempne feast, as many as come in by the north gate to do worship, shal go out againe at the south gate: and they that come in at the south gate, shall go forth againe at the north gate: there shall none returne by the gate where he came in, but shall go right forth ouer on the other side.

10 And the prince he shall go in the midst of them when they go in, and so come forth when they come forth.

11 Upon the solempne & hie feast dayes this shalbe the meate offring: an Ephah to a bullocke, & an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambes the gift of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

12 Nowe when the prince shall make a free burnt offring, or peace offringes freely freely vnto the Lord: one then shal open him the gate that turneth toward the east, and he shal make his burnt offeringes, and his peace offeringes, as he did on the Sabbath day: after he shall go foorth, and when he is gone foorth, one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt dayly make a burnt offering vnto the Lorde of a lambe of one yere without blemishe, thou shalt do it euery morning.

14 Thou shalt prepare a meate offering for it euery morning, the first part of an Ephah, and the third part of a Hin of oyle to mingle with the fine floure: this meate offering shalbe continually by a perpetuall ordinaunce vnto the Lorde.

15 Thus shal they prepare the lambe, the meate offering, & oyle, euery morning, for a continuall burnt offering.

16 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde God: If the prince geue a gift vnto any of his sonnes, the inheritaunce thereof shalbe his sonnes: their possession shalbe by inheritaunce.

17 But if he geue a gift of his inheritaunce to one of his seruauntes, then it shalbe his to the (c) yere of libertie, and then returne to the prince: but the inheritaunce thereof is his sonnes and shalbe theirs.

18 The prince also (d) shall take none of the peoples inheritaunce, nor put them from their possession: but to his sonnes shall he geue his owne possession, that my people be not scattered abrode euery man from his possession.

19 And he brought me through the entraunce at the side of the gate, to the holy chambers of the priestes which stoode toward the north, & beholde, there was a place vpon the west side of them.

Then saide he vnto me: This is the place where the priestes shall seethe the trespasse and sinne offrynges, and bake the meate offrynges: that they neede not beare them into the outward court, and to (e) sanctifie the people.

21 So he brought me into the vtter court, & caused me to go by the foure corners of the court: and beholde, in euery corner of the court, there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courtes ioyned, of fourtie cubites long, and thirtie broade: these foure corners were of one measure.

23 And there went a wall rounde about them, [euen] about those foure: and vnder the walles there were "kitchins made rounde about.

The .xlvij. Chapter.

1 The vision of the waters that came out of the temple. 13 The coastes of the lande of promise, and the deuision thereof by tribes.

AFterwarde he brought me againe vnto the doore of the house, and beholde there gushed out (a) waters from vnder the threshold of the house eastwarde: for the forefront of the house stoode toward the east: & the waters ran downe from vnder the right side of the house, which lyeth to the aulter southwarde.

2 Then led he me out to the north gate, and led me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate, by the way that turneth eastward: and behold, there issued foorth waters from the right side.

3 Now when the man that had the line in his hande went foorth eastward, he measured a thousand cubites, and then he brought me through the waters, the waters were to the ankles.

4 So he measured yet a thousande, and brought me through ẏ waters, the waters were to the knees: yet measured he a thousand, and brought me through, the waters [were] to the loynes.

5 After this he measured a thousand againe, then was it such a (b) riuer that I might not wade through it, the waters was risen, & the waters did flowe as a riuer that might not be waded ouer.

6 And he saide vnto me: Hast thou seene this O thou sonne of man? and with that he brought me and caused me to returne to the riuer banke againe.

7 Now when I returned, beholde at the bancke of the riuer were very many trees (c) on the one side and on the other.

8 Then saide he vnto me: These waters flowe out toward the east countrey, and runne runne downe into the plaine, & come into the (a) sea: which when it commeth into the sea, the (b) waters shalbe holsome.

9 Yea, all that liue and moue, whereunto this riuer commeth, shall liue: and there shalbe a very great multitude of fishe, because these waters shal come thither, for they shalbe holsome: and euery thing shall liue whyther the riuer commeth.

10 By this riuer shall the (c) fishers stand, from En gaddi vnto (d) En eglaim, and their spreade out their nets: for their fishe shalbe according to their kindes as the fishe of the (h) maine sea, exceeding many.

11 But the (i) marishes thereof, and the pus thereof, shal not be made holsome, they shalbe made salt pits.

12 By this riuer vpon the bankes therof on this side and on that side shall growe all trees for meate, whose leaues shall not fade, neither shall the fruite thereof fall, but shall bring forth newe fruite according to his monethes, for the waters thereof run out of the sanctuarie: and the fruite thereof shalbe for meate, and the leaues thereof for "medicine.

13 Thus saith the Lorde God: Let this be the border whereby ye shall inherite the lande according to the twelue tribes of Israel, * Joseph shall haue two portions.

14 And * ye shall inherite it one aswell as an other, concerning the which I lift vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers: and this lande shall fall vnto you for inheritaunce.

15 This is the border of the (k) lande vpon the north side, from the maine sea toward Hethlon, as men go to Zedada.

16 [Namely] Hamah, Berotha, Sabarim, which are betweene the borders of Damascus, and betweene the borders of Hamah, Hazar Hatichon, that lyeth vpon the coastes of Hauran.

17 Thus the borders from the sea forth shalbe Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northwarde, and the borders of Hamah: this is the north part.

18 The east side shall ye measure from Hauran and Damascus, from Galead and the land of Israel by Jordane, and from the border vnto the east sea: & this is the east part.

19 The south side shalbe toward Teman, from Thamar to the waters of strife in Cades, and the riuer to the maine sea: and that is the south part towarde Teman.

20 The west part also shalbe the great sea, from the borders till a man come ouer against Hamah: this is the west part.

21 This lande shall ye part among you according to the tribes of Israel, 22 And deuide it by lot to be an heritage for you, & for the straungers that dwell among you and beget children among you: for ye shall take them among the children of Israel lyke as though they were of your owne countrey, and they shall haue (l) heritage with you among the children of Israel.

23 And in what tribe the straunger dwelleth, in the same tribe shall ye geue him his heritage, saith the Lorde God.

5 Upon the borders of Manasses, from eth

6 Upon the borders of Ephraim, from the east part vnto the West, shall Ruben

(a) That is, the portion of the grounde, which they shall seperate and appoynt to the Lorde, which shalbe deuided into three partes: for the priestes, 9 The oblation that ye shall offer vnto for the prince, and for the the Lord, shalbe fiue and twentie thou-

11 This sanctified portion shalbe the priestes that are of the children of * Sa-doc, Which haue kept my charge, Which went not astray in the errour of the children of Israel like as the Leuites went astray.
12 Therefore this oblation of the lande that is offered, shalbe theirs as a thing most holy, hard vpon the borders of the Leuites.
13 And ouer against the border of the priestes, shall the Leuites haue fiue and twentie thousand long, & ten thousand brode: all the length shalbe fiue & twen-tie thousand, and the breadth ten thou-

14 Of this portion they shall sell nothing, nor make any permutation thereof, nor alienate the first frutes of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lorde.
15 And the fiue thousande that are left in the breadth ouer against the fiue and twentie thousand, shalbe a prophane place for the citie, for housing, & for suburbes: and the citie shalbe in the midst thereof.

the north part fiue hundred and foure thousand, and the south (b) part fiue huntheir meate that serue the citie.

19 And they that serue the citie, they shal serue it out of all the tribes of Israel.
20 All the oblation shalbe fiue and twen-tie thousand (c) with fiue and twentie thousand: ye shall offer this oblation foure square, for the sanctuarie, and for the possession of the citie.
(c) Or eny way it shalbe fiue & twentie thousand.
21 And the residue shalbe for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the citie ouer against the fiue and twen-tie thousand of the oblation toward the east border: and Westward ouer against the fiue and twentie thousand towarde

Leuites, and the cities possession, that which is in the midst shalbe the princes, betwixt the border of (d) Juda and the of Iſrael, of the kinges ſeede, and of the princes,

4 Springaldes without any blemiſhe, but well fauoured, ſtudious in al wiſdome, ſkilfull for knowledge, able to vtter knowledge, & ſuch as haue lucline ſſe in the that they (a) may ſtand in the kinges palace: & whom they might teache the learning & the tonng of the Chaldeans.
5 Vnto theſe the king appoynted a dayly prouiſion euery day, of a portion of the kinges meate, and of the wine which he dranke, ſo to nouriſhe them three yeres, that afterwarde they might ſtande before the king.
6 Among theſe nowe were certayne of the children of Iuda: namely Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias.
B 7 Vnto theſe the chiefe chamberlayne gaue (c) other names, and called Daniel,
Baltaſſar: Ananias, Sidrach: Miſael,
Miſach: and Azarias, Abednego.
8 But Daniel purpoſed in his heart that he woulde not defile hym ſelfe with the portion of the kinges meate, nor with the wyne which he dranke: therefore he required the chiefe chamberlayne that he might not defile hym ſelfe.
9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour and tender loue with the chiefe cham-berlayne.)
10 And the chiefe chamberlayne ſayde vnto Daniel, I am afrayde of my lord the king which hath appoynted you your meate and your drinke: wherfore ſhould he ſee your faces worſe liking then the ſpringalds of your age, & ſo ye ſhal make me indaunger my head vnto the king.
11 Then Daniel ſayde vnto Melaſſar, whom the chiefe chamberlayne had ſet ouer Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias:
12 O proue but ten dayes with thy ſeruauntes, and let vs haue pulſe to eate, and water to drinke.
13 Then let our countenaunces be loked vpon before thee, and the countenaunces of the children that eate of the portion of the kinges meate: and as thou ſeeſt, deale with thy ſeruauntes.
14 So he conſented to them in this mat- C ter, and proued them ten dayes.
15 And at the end of ten dayes, their countenaunces appeared fairer and (d) fatter in fleſhe then all the childrens which did eate the portion of the kinges meate.
16 Thus Melaſſar toke away the portion of their meate, and the wyne that they ſhoulde drinke, and gaue them pulſe.
17 As for theſe foure children, God gaue them knowledge and vnderſtanding in
(e) all learning & wyſdome: alſo he gaue
Daniel vnderſtanding of all (f) viſions and dreames.
18 Nowe when the (g) time was expired, that the king had appoynted to bring them in, the chiefe chamberlayne brought them before Nabuchodonozor.
19 And the king communed with them:
but among them all were founde none ſuch as Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias: therfore ſtoode they before the king.
20 In all matters of wyſdome and vn-derſtanding that the king enquired of them, he founde them ten times better then all the wyſe men and ſoothſayers that were in all his realme.
21 And Daniel abode ſtill vnto the (h) firſt yere of kyng Cyrus.

(h) That is, he was preferred in Babylon as a ſtraunger, and in authoritie ſo long as the common wealth ſtode.

The. ii. Chapter.

1 The dreame of Nabuchodonozor, 2 he calleth vnto him ſoothſayers, and requireth of them both the dreame and the interpretation therof: 10 they aunſwere, they can not ſhewe it. 12 The king commaundeth all the wiſe men of Babylon to be ſlayne. 16 Daniel requireth time to ſolute the queſtiō: 19 the Lord openeth the miſterie vnto Daniel. 24 Daniel is brought to the king, and ſheweth him his dreame and the interpretation therof. 44 Of the euerlaſting kingdome of Chriſt.

A (a) The ſixt yere and the ſeuenth were both called by this name, ſo that in ment of the former when he raigned alone for he raigned alſo after a ſorte with his father in the ſeconde yere of his generall conqueſt of other Babylonians.

(b) Vnder theſe names were comprehended all ſciences. It appeareth by the nature of the worde which ſignifieth as much as deuils, that they wrought theſe wonders by the power of the deuil.

IN (c) the ſecond yere of the raigne of Nabuchodonozor, had Nabuchodonozor a dreame, wherthorowe his ſpirite was troubled & his ſleepe brake from him.
2 Then the king commaunded to cal the wiſe men, and ſoothſayers, & ſorcerers, and the (b) Chaldees, for to ſhewe the king his dreame: ſo they came, & ſtoode before the king.
3 And the king ſayde vnto them: I haue dreamed a dreame, and my ſpirite was troubled to knowe the dreame.
4 Vpon this the Chaldees aunſwered the king in the (c) Syrians ſpeache, O king, God ſaue thy life for euer: ſhewe thy ſeruauntes the dreame, and we ſhal ſhewe the interpretation.

(c) That is, the Caldei called ſongues, which the prophete mencioned here becauſe he meaneth to ſpeake with the kinges not in the Caldeine tongue but in the Syriake, which was more mete and knowen in many nations

5 The king aunſwered and ſayde to the Chaldeans, The thyng is gone fro me: If ye will not make me vnderſtand the dreame with the interpretation therof, ye ſhall be drawne in peeces, & your houſes made a lakes.

6 But if ye tell me the dreame and the interpretation therof, ye ſhall receaue of me giftes, rewardes, and great honour, therefore ſhewe me the dreame and the interpretation therof.

23 7 They aunſwered againe, and ſaid: The king muſt ſhewe his ſeruauntes the dreame, and ſo ſhal we declare the interpretation therof.

8 Then the king aunſwered, ſaying: I perceaue of a trueth that ye would redeme the time, for ſo much as ye ſee the thyng is gone fro me.

*) Or ſhe declaration of the dreame but ſome other ſhe might haue and make me to vnderſtand the matter

9 Therfore if ye wil not tel me the dreame, this is your only purpoſe, ye haue prepared lyng & corrupt wordes to ſpeake before me, til the time be chaunged: therfore tell me the dreame, that I may knowe that ye can declare me the interpretation therof.

10 Upon this the Chaldees gaue aunſwere before the king, and ſayde: There is no man vpon earth that can tell the thyng which the king ſpeaketh of, ye a there is neither king, prince, nor lorde, that euer aſked ſuch thynges at a wyſe man, ſoothſayer, or Chaldean.

11 For it is a rare matter that the king requireth, neither is there any that can certifie the king therof, except the gods whoſe dwelling is not with fleſhe.
